GRADUATION AT THE PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.

Interesting Closing Exercises Held Last Night.

HONORS WERE AWARDED.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS FOR ST. ELIZABETH'S ACADEMY.

Misses Frances Hillman and Anna Ryan Won First Honors—A Splendid Talk Given to the Pupils by Father Smyth—Many Received Honorable Mention—Patriotic Operaetta Was Produced.

The graduating exercises of St. Mary's Parochial School came to a close last evening, and were attended with even greater success than on the previous evening. The attendance was very large. The programme was carried out with precision and in a perfect manner.

The first part was devoted to the presentation of an operaetta entitled "Old Glory, Or the Boys of '76." There were two acts, "The Boys in Council," and "The Tramps." In part second the boys did some fine drilling. All were dressed in the Continental uniform, presenting an attractive picture. The cast of characters was as follows: "Gen. Putnam," A. McKeon; Col. Slocum, A. Traynor; Major Sniffin, H. Shannon; Joe Mason, T. Carty; Nat Hale, H. Kearns; Hiram Tucker, T. Parent; Silas Story, J. Conway; Simple Peter, T. Mack; Tom Payson, J. Traynor; Hene Schneider, J. Kyle; Red Rube, M. Kiely; Weary Ike, W. Lawler; Spider, J. Garrity.

Following this play Miss Anna Anna Daley gave a vocal solo entitled "Ask Me No More." She received hearty applause, as did also the vocal selection, "Life Has No Power," by the Misses Daley, Frances Hillman and Mamie Harding.

The next number on the programme was a lawn tennis drill given by the following young girls: Madeline McIntyre, Bessie Shea, Nellie Hannigan, Loretta Flanagan, Jennie Somers, Mamie Brady, Mamie McCauley, Maggie Tracy, Susie Goff, Lizzie Day, Katy Ryan, Lillie Holmes, Mamie Lannahan, Minnie Burke, Mercy Hillman and Loretta Fairfax. These girls were drilled by sister Mary Esther The costumes were arranged by Mrs. Frank McInnerney. The drill was finely given and reflected great credit on Sister Mary Esther.

At this time Rev. Father Westman presented the honors to the graduates. The first honor graduates were Miss Frances Hillman and Miss Anna Ryan, both of whom secured gold medals, and by their hard work have secured the four years' scholarship at St. Elizabeth's Academy at Madison, this State, this making four scholars from this school to win such scholarships. They were in competition with scholars from some forty various schools. Others to receive honorable mention were Miss Mary Doll, Miss Julia Lutz, Miss Mary Burke, Master Henry Shannon and Miss Anna Daley. There was also a long list of scholars in the lower grades who received honorable mention.

The presentation of honors was followed by the valedictory by Miss Frances Hillman, which was an excellent address and showed great care in preparation and execution.

One of the features of the programme was the address to the graduates by Father Smyth. He praised them for their earnest efforts and wished them success as they leave the school. He spoke of the excellent opportunities in the school for advancement along educational lines, and spoke words of praise for the Sisters, who are instructors.

The last number on the programme was the singing of the "Graduates Farewell," which was composed by Miss Frances Hillman, after which the exercises came to a close.

During the evening Miss Mary Smith presided at the piano and Miss Kate Flynn at the organ. The musical numbers were well given and the singing was enjoyed by all.

Endeavor Delegates.

The Plainfield Christian Endeavorers who will attend the National convention at Detroit next will be Misses M. Anthony, M. J. Seeds, M. E. Robinson, Grace H. Petrie, Miss G. L. Chamberlin and M. Josephine Petrie. They will join the New Jersey delegation that will go on the special train over the Pennsylvania Railroad next Monday. The convention commences Wednesday of next week and will continue one week.

READY FOR BUSINESS.

NINE RECEIVED DIPLOMAS AT PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Commencement Exercises Held Last Evening in the College Rooms—Address by Rev. Mr. Gardiner—A Pleasant Time.

Nine young women have just completed the thorough course of study at the Plainfield Business College and last evening received their diplomas in formal recognition of their good work and readiness to begin a business career. The commencement exercises of the college were held last night in the hall, City National Bank building. A programme preceded the presentation of the diplomas. A reception to the graduating class and their friends followed.

The hall was crowded to overflowing by the relatives and friends of the nine young women who had come to honor this event that marked the close of study and the beginning of business duties. The Ladies' Orchestra was present and rendered a number of pleasing selections between the other parts of the programme. Martin Korff, violinist, gave two solos during the evening.

There was the invocation, and then after an interval of music, an essay by Miss Elizabeth H. Voorhees, of Somerville, the honor member of the graduating class. Her subject was: "Woman's Debut in the Business World." She handled the subject excellently and her essay was listened to with interest.

The address of the evening was by Rev. George Gardiner, pastor of the Grace M. E. church. It was not long enough to tire, and he combined wit and humor with the more serious parts of his talk. He spoke a few words of advice to the graduates and bade them take advantage of the opportunities that the excellent course they had just concluded gave them.

A well given recitation by Miss Elizabeth E. Hoagland was followed by a short speech by Rev. A. A. Phelps to the graduates and the subsequent presentation of the diplomas.

Miss Elizabeth H. Voorhees, of Somerville, took both commercial and shorthand courses and made an excellent showing in both. The other two graduates from the commercial course were the Misses Elizabeth D. Kepler and Matilda Bennett. The graduates in the shorthand course were the Misses Carrie S. Boice, Harriet F. Lewis and Clara Shepherd, of the city, Mayme M. Myers and Jennie Martin, of Bound Brook, and Margart Borroughs, of Bayonne.

An informal reception followed to which all were invited. It was held in the other class rooms where refreshments were served and a very pleasant social hour was spent.

Rev. A. A. Phelps, the principal, and his assistants were present and received the congratulations of all at the successful showing made by the young women under their instruction.

OUT AFTER 47 YEARS

ANOTHER RESIGNATION ON THE CENTRAL RAILROAD.

Mayor Swackhamer, of Dunellen, Retires, as Superintendent of Bridge Construction—His Successor is Not Yet Known.

The host of friends of Mayor R. J. Swackhamer, of Dunellen, were greatly surprised this morning to learn that he had severed his connection with the Central Railroad Company as superintendent of bridge work. Mr. Swackhamer has been connected with the railroad for forty-seven years and was one of the most popular and efficient men in the employ of the company. He is a master mechanic and not only knows when work is done right, but he knows how to do it.

It is not known who has been selected to take Mr. Swackhamer's place, but it is understood that he relinquishes his work at once. It is known that a great many changes have been and will be made in the Central railroad, but this one has caused great surprise.

REV. MR. SHOTT EXPLAINS.

Tells Why Members Are Cut Off the Church Rolls.

Rev. G. M. Shott, pastor of the Scotch Plains Baptist church, called at the office this morning and expressed his regret that there had been misrepresentation in the action of the church in their business meeting last night. Nothing was done out of the usual line of procedure in such cases. All was harmonious. Names of persons on the roll without addresses were dropped. The charges were not for arrearages but for long-continued absence from the church without giving any reason or address.

TROLLEY FINALLY REACHES 'PLAINS

First Car Was Run Yesterday Afternoon.

THE DISTINGUISHED GUESTS.

A SPREAD AT EMERY'S FOLLOWED THE OPENING.

Two Open Cars Made the Trip—Line All Completed to Terrill Road—Temporary Trolley Wire Used Remainder of the Distance—Roadbed Was Remarkably Smooth all the Way.

The hour of awakening for Scotch Plains is at hand. After slumbering for centuries on the fertile plains at the foot of the Watchung Mountains, the quiet hamlet has at last heard the shrill clang of the trolley car gong and the hum of the motors beneath. The trolley has reached the 'Plains after five years of effort. Yesterday afternoon marked the first appearance of that active agent of modern civilization in Scotch Plains. It was celebrated in rousing fashion with a trolley party and spread.

According to the understanding under which the Plainfield Street Railway Company secured the franchise for the line to Scotch Plains, the line should be open and cars running before July 1st. So it was necessary to do a little hustling to have the line ready for use yesterday afternoon. To celebrate the opening of the line, Superintendent John Adelmann, of the street railway, arranged to take a large party of prominent citizens of Plainfield and Scotch Plains over the line and give them a spread on their arrival at the end of the new extension.

Two cars were gaily decorated with the Stars and Stripes for the occasion and gathered their load of passengers at the North Avenue station at 2:24 o'clock. The cars were open ones, Nos. 19 and 20.

Superintendent Adelmann was the master hand that directed operations. He was everywhere. Col. Hine, of the Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railway Company, came here from Westfield to do honor to the opening of the new line. He and his two guests, Captain Ainslee and W. P. Martin, of Newark, occupied the front platform of the leading car. H. C. VanEmburgh, engineer for the trolley company, accompanied them. Former Councilman Leonard Spangenberg and John B. Brown represented the stockholders of the trolley company among the guests. L. W. Serrell, Jr., of the company and also contractor, was there to see the start, but could not join the party.

Among the other distinguished guests who graced the occasion with their presence were Postmaster E. H. Bird, Councilman J. F. Buckle, Councilman Frank H. Smith, Councilman Henry Liefke, Justice Elmore D. Moffett, Justice Vincent W. Nash, Justice J. E. Mosher, Former Justice William Newcorn, Former Councilman W. A. Westphal, Former Councilman L. B. Woolston, H. E. Bowen, John D. Runyon, Charles W. Runyon, manager of the N. Y. and N. J. Telephone Co., Harry C. Runyon, Andrew Love, Sr., Alex. Mallison, T. A. Cuming, J. W. VanSickle and "Count" J. K. VanNess.

A delegation from Scotch Plains, headed by Town Clerk E. L. Hand, Town Committeeman Theodore Brookman, George R. Nichols, William C. Stansbery, Frank Allen, William S. Emery, C. N. Flanders, Judge Joseph Clark and Judge George Schick, came down to join the party and be able to tell their townsfolk that they were on the first car to enter the 'Plains.

After everybody was seated and those who couldn't be seated, owing to lack of space found standing room, the party was taken for a ride over the line to Dunellen and return. Then the start on the Scotch Plains line was made.

The cars have been running out to Netherwood avenue regularly for the past few days. That part of the line was passed without incident. When the cars reached the property of "Count" VanNess, the guests began to stand up and look around. The line was all completed through to Terrill road, the city limits. Beyond there, the trolley wire had not been regularly fastened to the cross wires and hung slack, supported by bare iron wires instead. The cars were compelled to go slowly after that but Scotch Plains came in view and the trip to the very end of the line was made without accident.

Everybody noticed how smoothly the cars ran without bump or jolt and there was general commendation for the construction of the line. There were several hundred laborers at work

NEARLY BURNED TO DEATH IN A STORE.

Tragic Accident in Crosby & Hill's Establishment.

HOTEL GUEST THE VICTIM.

RAN CRAZED ABOUT THE STORE FOR SEVERAL MINUTES.

Mrs. Sylvester J. O'Sullivan was the Victim—Supposed to Have Stepped on a Friction Match That Set Fire to Her Flimsy Summer Dress—Terribly Burned and Sent to the Muhlenberg Hospital.

A frightful and perhaps fatal accident occurred this morning in the big department store of Crosby & Hill on Front street. The victim is Mrs. Sylvester J. O'Sullivan, who, in company with Mrs. Coleman, the wife of Major F. W. Coleman, proprietor of Hunterdon Hotel, was engaged in shopping. Mrs. O'Sullivan had left her friend, Mrs. Coleman, and walked toward the rear of the store.

Suddenly and without any warning of what was to happen Mrs. Coleman and the customers and clerks in the store were startled by unearthly shrieks. Shriek after shriek echoed through the big store.

The next those in the store knew a woman, her clothing all ablaze, ran screaming, shrieking down one of the aisles, staggering and clutching at her burning clothing. The sight so startled the saleswomen and the many customers that for a few seconds everyone stood spellbound. The sight was an appalling one and horrified all who saw it.

In a moment the saleswoman realized the awful situation and at once recognized the unfortunate woman as the lady who had been seen to enter the store in company with Mrs. Coleman.

Back and fourth the woman staggered, the flames, which wrapped her frail form, leaping upward toward her neck and face. In less time than it takes to tell it Mrs. Sullivan's clothing was a sheet of flame and the handsome dress she wore was falling from her person.

One of the girls, with commendable presence of mind, rushed upstairs and notified Manager Carson of the awful affair. Mr. Carson hurried down and took in the situation at a glance. As soon as he could reach the woman he threw her a tablecloth which he hastily snatched from the stock. Wrapping the cloth about the burning form of the frenzied woman he finally succeeded in extinguishing the flames; but not until Mrs. O'Sullivan's clothing had been entirely burned from her body, and the unfortunrte woman had been frightfully burned.

In the meantime some one, thinking the store was on fire, sent in an alarm from box 12, corner of Front and Somerset streets. The department responded quickly, but their services were not needed. Chief Doane and Assistant Chief Jennings and several members of the department assisted in carrying Mrs. O'Sullivan upstairs, where she was attended by Dr. Probasco. Subsequently she was removed in the ambulance to the hospital.

Exactly how the terrible accident happened no one can be found who appears to know.

Mrs. O'Sullivan was seen walking about the store looking at various articles. She finally reached the woodenware department, which is in charge of Lizzie O'Keefe. It was while Mrs. O'Sullivan was looking at some tooth picks that shd discovered she was on fire. Miss O'Keefe, the saleswoman, also noticed the fire at the same moment that Mrs. O'Sullivan shrieked at the sight of the blaze. Lizzie made a grap at the dress and attempted to snatch the garment from its waist. She made but the one clutch, when the frenzied woman made a dash for the front of the store, screaming and shrieking all time attempting to tear away the burning dress.

Up and down the aisles ran the frightened woman the blaze from her dress throwing off sparks and leaving a cloud of smoke in her wake. Once when she reached the front entrance Isiah Curtiss, of 823 New Front street, Netherwood, who was with his wife on the opposite side of the street, saw the blazing woman and rushed across. He caught hold of the woman and partially succeeded in putting out the fire, but the unfortunate creature eluded his grasp and again rushed to

NEXT TUESDAY'S BIG CELEBRATION.

Let the Eagle Scream in Honor of Uncle Sam.

WILL BE A MONSTER PARADE

PLAINFIELD WILL BE IN HOLIDAY DRESS.

Fourth of July Celebration to be on a Magnificent Scale—The Naval Reserves Will Have the Right of Line—Parade Will Pass Through the Principal Streets of the City—Concert in the City Park.

The enthusiasm manifested by the citizen's over the coming celebration of the Fourth of July seems to be infectious. Every one is new wide awake and there is every indication that the celebration will be a magnificent one. It is to be on a grand scale, and weather permitting it is safe to predict that the parade will be the most imposing one and the fireworks the most elaborate ever seen in Plainfield.

The last meeting of the general committee, held at the Board of Trade rooms last evening, was rife with enthusiasm and patriotism. The rooms were literally packed with a representative class of citizens and a lively interest was displayed by all concerned. Chairman Newcorn presided. Mayors Rockfellow and Smalley were early on hand and their presence lent additional zest to the occasion.

The interest both mayors have displayed in the thankless labor of assisting to raise a sufficient amount of money to ensure the success of an undertaking such as the bringing about of the celebration has entailed, has served to stimulate the members of the various committees that all have been indefatigable in their efforts.

The lively interest shown in the celebration was noticeably apparent at last evening's meeting at the deserved applause which greeted the announcement made by Mayor Smalley when he said that he had raised $243 and had every reason to believe that he would be able to add another hundred to that sum.

Mayor Rockfellow, as chairman of the subscription committee, reported that about $700 had been pledged, and he was safe in saying that there was considerable more money in sight, but the committee felt that about $1 000 was needed to defray the necessary expenses of the celebration. As but two working days remained before the Fourth he felt that it was incumbent upon all members of the subscription committee to hustle between now and next Tuesday.

Chairman Ulrich, of the executive committee, reported that a contract had been made with the Excelsior Fire Works Company, of New York, to furnish a splendid assortment of fireworks at a cost of $500. He also stated that a contract had been let for a grand stand to be built on the White lot near Giraud avenue, where the fireworks are to be set off. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged all who desire reserved seats to view the fireworks. This is under the supervision of the finance committee. Tickets were placed on sale today with the principal merchants of the city. Already about 150 seats have been spoken for.

Mr. Ulrich stated that as yet he had been unable to secure a speaker, but he had the names of two gentlemen and he anticipated being able to secure one of them to deliver an oration. The Naval Reserves would be present and will be entertained by the Woman's Relief Corps.

He said also that it had been decided to hold the speaking and band concert in the City Park at Eighth street and Arlington avenue. The concert will begin at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The flowers and shrubbery are to be protected by ropes and a stand is to be built for the convenience of the Queen City Band, which is to give the concert.

Chairman Smith of the parade committee said the line of march had been laid out and the parade would start promptly at 10 o'clock a. m. The first division is to form on Crescent avenue, right resting on Seventh street. The Naval Reserves will have the right of line. The parade will cover about five miles of streets. The formation of the parade, together with the names of the organizations and the line of march, will be found in another column.

Some discussion was indulged in because the High School cadets had been assigned a position in line ahead of the Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias. Mr. Smith, chairman of the parade committee, with commendable tact finally succeeded in satisfying the

IN A SACRED PLACE

A Free Rendition of Christian Oratorios to be Made.

Friends of music in this city have often expressed the wish that it might be possible for our people to hear the oratorio of the Messiah in a church, and as a part of divine worship. In this way this most impressive music might be enjoyed without the distraction of applause and other accessories of the concert stage, and it is believed that this would be carrying out the devout interest of the composer more perfectly than as the oratorio is now generally rendered.

With this thought in mind several of the members of the Choral Society met Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building. C. W. McCutchen was elected chairman, and after consideration plans were inaugurated for such a rendering of the oratorio in some one of the churches of this city next winter at the Chrismas season.

It is hoped that a chorus of members of the Choral Society and other singers may be assembled and drilled, and that the necessary expenses of the undertaking may be covered by voluntary subscription, for it is not proposed to charge admission. W. W. Rowland was appointed chairman of a general committee of arrangements and S. T. Rogers of a special committee on finance.

By such a rendering of the oratorio of the Messiah, some who have never been able to hear it may have opportunity to enjoy this wonderful music, and perhaps others who have heard it many times may get new impressions of its profound significance.

Knocked Down by a Cyclist.

Malcom McKenzie, son-in-law of I. T. Pierson, of Watchung avenue, was knocked down by a cyclist in front of the Crescent Avenue church last evening. While no bones were broken, Mr. McKenzie was painfully bruised.

Pythians Elect.

There was election of officers at the meeting of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, Knights of Pythias, last evening, which resulted as follows: Chancellor commander, David Bowden; vice chancellor, Robert L. Lee; prelate, J. J. Crouse; master of work, Robert Kenney; inner guard, Alfred Jacobson; outer guard, Peter Stratton.

UNABLE TO GET THE ACTION TO TRIAL.

Suit for Damages Against Trolley Company Postponed.

MATERIAL WITNESS ABSENT.

OPPOSING COUNSEL HELD THAT DELAY WAS UNNECESSARY.

The Action is That of Victor D. Schomp, of Dunellen, Against the Brunswick Traction Company for Damages for the Killing of a Horse—Court to Adjourn Case for the Term.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, July 1—The suit of Victor D. Schomp, of Dunellen, against the Brunswick Traction Company was set down for yesterday and the jury had been drawn to try the case. The jury was on hand, as was also Lawyer Swackhamer, of Codington & Swackhamer, of Plainfield, who appeared for Mr. Schomp. The case had originally been tried before Justice Warden, of Dunellen, and appealed. Lawyer Swackhamer announded that he was ready to proceed.

Fred Weigel, who appeared for the Traction Company, presented two affidavits, setting forth that a material witness for the defendant company was out of the State and could not be found. One affidavit was by Charles A. Oliver, setting forth that he is an agent of the Traction Company and that the action was brought to recover damages for the killing of a horse by a trolley car between Bound Brook and Somerville. Mr. Oliver swore that J. L. Welborn, a passenger in the car at that time, and an eye-witness to the affair, recently left the State, and although diligent search has been made he has not been located as yet.

A second affidavit by William A. Housell was to the effect that Tuesday, June 27, he went to Plainfield to serve a subpoena upon Mr. Wilborn and learned that he had gone to Indiana, where he had secured a position.

Mr. Weigel asked that the case go off for the term, the testimony of the absent witness being of such a nature that the company could not safely go to trial without it.

Lawyer Swackhamer opposed any delay. He said that the case after adjournment before, had been set down for yesterday. The company had had every opportunity, he held, to subpoena witnesses. There were six or or eight eyewitnesses, so the absence of one could not effect the case much. He held that the affidavits gave no assurance that the case would be tried next term and argued that Mr. Wilborn may still be absent next term. By much delay, he said, a man of no means may be killed off. "If the case is not tried today," he said, "we may as well give it up. These are the same tactics that the company has been following."

Judge Strong held that the case came within the rules of law for adjournment, it being the first term that it had been at trial. He allowed it to stand over for the term upon the payment of costs.

MAY WITHDRAW APPLICATION.

Trolley Promoters Tired of Opposition in Mountainside Borough.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 1—The Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company has run against another one man block, this time at Mountainside borough on their cross country line from Rahway to Irvington. A man lives on the main road who claims that he controls the Common Council of the borough and that no trolley company can get a franchise for a longer period than twenty-five years. Col. E. W. Hine, secretary of the trolley company, was seen last evening by the writer and said that the company had about decided to withdraw their application for a franchise through Mountainside. Col. Hine said that the road would probably be built up Mountain avenue to Bird's corner where it would branch off and go down Chestnut street for a short distance and then across private property to the Branch Mills road and thence direct to Irvington. The majority of the property owners in Mountainside want the trolley, as they now have no way of getting to the railroad station except by driving, and there will be trouble for the councilmen should the trolley go around the borough.

Van Emburgh's Special No. 1.

The public will make no mistake when they purchase hammocks at the prices offered at VanEmburgh's, starting at 48c and ending at $1 98, the largest cut in prices ever made for first-class hammocks, at the old stand, VanEmburgh's.

THE DEWEY FUND GROWS.

Committee Decides Not To Abandon Idea of Buying Admiral a Home.

REMITTANCES ARE SMALL

A New York Man May Be Put at the Head of War Department Should Gen. Alger Retire.

No Steps Taken in the Matter By the Administration—Wireless Telegraphy Patent Issued—President Still Contemplates Taking a Trip To the Pacific Coast.

Washington, July 1.—It is premature to talk about the successor of Gen. Alger, although the best opinion in Washington is that the Secretary is soon to retire from the War Department. It is acknowledged that since he combined with Gov. Pingree he cannot stay much longer in the Cabinet, but it still remains with him to say how long he will continue in the President's official family. The report that Gen. Harrison Grey Otis, who is coming to Washington, is to take Gen. Alger's place, is not verified, simply because the President has taken no step in the matter. There is a general opinion, however, that should General Alger retire, a New York man will be called on to fill his place.

Archbishop Martinelli, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, has been granted a license to perform the marriage ceremony in the District of Columbia, and thereby hangs a tale. The law provides that all clergymen shall secure a license before they can perform a marriage ceremony within the District limits. Signor Martinelli had never had occasion to use a license, and therefore until very recently had never applied for one. But on July 11 the Archbishop is going to officiate at a wedding, and after that he will be at liberty to marry as many couples as he wishes, because he will have his license. It seems that when Signor Martinelli first came to this country as the representative of the Pope he brought with him his Italian chef, Francesco Bargagni, and the latter brought his family. Since the Bargagni family have been in this country the eldest daughter, Elenora, met and loved a young Italian living in Washington. Now Elenora is to be married, and the one thing she thought necessary to complete her happiness on this occasion was to have the Archbishop marry her, and he has consented to do so.

The Dewey fund is creeping along slowly, and perhaps by the time the Admiral reaches the United States it may come somewhere near the original sum proposed. At present, however, it is only a little over $10,000, and it is growing only by small contributions. At one time the committee in charge held a meeting to decide whether or not the fund should be abandoned, but it was decided by unanimous vote to continue it, no matter how small the amount collected, to expend it for a house for the Admiral. As one of the members of the committee said: "If we only raise $20,000, it is my idea that we buy him a house for that sum and present it. The committee cannot now abandon the plan."

The President still contemplates taking his Western trip, despite published statements to the contrary. Among the visitors at the White House was Senator Warren, of Wyoming, who expects the President to visit that State. The President said that he still had every hope of going at least part of the way to the Pacific coast. Naturally, Mrs. McKinley's health which by the way is greatly improved, together with the situation in the Philippines, will have a great deal to do with the final arrangements as to when and how far the President will travel. His plans are still in abeyance, and he cannot decide definitely in regard to them for several weeks.

The most noted departure from among the diplomats at Washington during the next week or so will be that of Ambassador Von Holleben, of the German Ambassy, who returns to his own country for his vacation. As a truce has been declared in the matters under negotiation between this country and Germany until the fall, Baron von Holleben will have a long stay at home, and there are rumors in diplomatic circles that he may not return as Ambassador.

Among the patents issued this week by the Patent Office was one to Marconi, the inventor of wireless telegraphy. The patent covers all the apparatus used in his new invention, and is assigned to the Wireless Telegraph and Signal Company, of London.

Train Wrecker Sentenced.

Pottsville, Pa., July 1.—Olive Ohl, the youth who caused a collision between a freight and passenger train on the Little Schuykill branch of the Reading Railway, which resulted in the loss of two lives, has been sentenced to three years and three months and to pay a fine of $700. Ohl placed a spike on the passenger track.

Found Dead in His Cell.

Jersey City, N. J., July 1.—Patrick Maloney was found dead in a cell in the Gregory street station, here. Maloney has been sentenced to sixty days in jail for drunkenness. Four years ago Maloney, it is said, held a political clerkship. His home was unknown to the police. His death was ascribed to alcoholism.

Spain's Cession to Germany.

Madrid, July 1.—The treaty confirming the agreement of Feb. 12, ceding the Caroline, Pelew and Marianne Islands to Germany, and the declaration granting Germany the most favored treatment from July 1, have been signed by Premier Silvela and the German ambassador here, Count von Radowitz.

THE CUBAN ARMY BANDITS.

They Were Led by Major Acosta of the Rural Guard.

Havana, July 1.—The suspicions, more or less general, that members of the rural guard in certain parts of the island are responsible in part for outlawry apear to have corroboration in the arrest and confession of Major Jose Acosta at Guanajay. Acosta was suspected of robbery at Mariel, and the Alcalde of Guanajay ordered his arrest. Acosta resisted and escaped, but was followed closely. There was a running fight between him and his pursuers, and he finally surrendered, asking quarter.

When he was locked up he implicated twenty-nine members of his regiment as particpants in recent robberies. Among the men he accused is Col. Carrillo, who was appointed fifteen days ago as chief of the rural guard at Guanajay. Carrillo has disappeared as have also eighteen others who were denounced by Acosta. It is feared that the fugitives have taken to the woods and that they will organize an active gang of bandits.

A despatch received later from Guanajay states that thirteen of Acosta's accomplices have been arrested and that in a fight two of them were killed.

Chased With a Stiletto.

Pittston, Pa., July 1.—There was an exciting time on the main street of this town when F. J. Freeman, a prominent merchant of the town, attempted to take charge of the remains of Anthony G. Fassmains, a well-to-do Italian tradesman, who died Thursday. Freeman ordered the body taken to the undertaking establishment of J. P. Burns. This angered some of the Italian residents, among whom was James Pierro. After an argument Pierro began to race Freeman down the street with a stiletto. A large crowd of people followed. Pierro, who was gaining all the time on Freeman, caught up to him and made a lunge. The stiletto passed through Freeman's coat. The crowd then pressed in on Pierro, and before he could strike again, knocked him down and disarmed him. He was promptly arrested and held for trial.

Around the World on a Wheel.

Lynn, Mass., July 1.—Arthur F. Cary has reached here after a tour around the world on a wheel. He left Lynn June 1, 1896, for San Francisco, where he worked until October, 1897. Then he sailed for Japan. He wheeled through Japan and China, Australia, Egypt, Italy, Switzerland, France, England, Ireland and Scotland. His record shows 12,500 miles ridden, on one wheel and 18,090 miles covered by sea.

Getting Their Money Back.

West Chester, July 1.—Many residents of this place have received checks from Receiver Hale, of Minneapolis, who is settling up the affairs of the late American Building and Loan Association, of that city, it having failed some time ago. Large investments were made in the concern by West Chester people, and they have received 19 per cent. of it. This is about all they will get, the funds being exhausted.

Alabama Iron Lands.

Birmington, Ala., July 1.—A syndicate headed by Eugene Zimmerman Vice President of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad, has purchased the Talladega, Ala., furnace, with 2,000 acres of iron ore lands. The Alabama Iron and Railroad Company has been formed, with Mr. Zimmerman as President. The same men have purchased the Birmingham and Atlantic Railroad, running between Talladega and Pell City.

Nun Burned to Death.

New Haven, July 1.—There is deep mourning among Catholics in this city, over the death of Sister Mary Aloysius who lost her life in a self-sacrificing effort to save the other sisters in a fire, in the Convent of the Sacred Heart. All the others were rescued in time, but Sister Aloysius, overcome by smoke in going to rouse her companions in peril, was suffocated before firemen could reach her.

Canadians To Take Part.

Rochester, July 1.—The Fourth of July celebration executive committee has received a communication from the commanding officer of Squadron A Dragoon of Colborne, Ont., stating that that body, consisting of fifty mounted men, will arrive by steamship at Charlotte on Monday morning, July 3, to participate in the celebration in Rochester on the following day.

He "Wants Them Presents Back."

Chicago, July 1.—E. J. Brewer wants his presents back from Mrs. Eva Curtis now that she is the wife of another, and has sued to get them or their value. Love letters were read in Justice Dooley's court at the trial to show how much she said she loved him at one time.

Woman Held for Extradition.

Washington, July 1.—The Secretary of State has issued a warrant for the surrender to the authorities of Southport, England, of Elizabeth I. Anson, who is charged with larceny. She was committed for extradition in New York by Commissioner Anderson.

Yankee Fishermen Warned.

St. John's, N. F., July 1.—The Colonial Government is preparing a circular warning the Americans that, if they assist the French, by bringing them bait to St. Pierre, the law will be enforced against them also.

All Quiet in Samoa.

San Francisco, July 1.—The steamship Mariposa has arrived from Australia via Samoa and Honolulu, and reports everything quiet in the Samoan Islands.

Kentucky's Youngest Family.

Louisville, Ky., July 1.—The youngest bridal couple in Kentucky is here. Mr. and Mrs. Junius Foote are respectively seventeen and fourteen years of age.

To Meet in Buffalo in 1901.

Cincinnati, O., July 1.—The North American Saengerbund decided to hold the next Saengerfest at Buffalo in 1901.

TEXAS IS AGAIN FLOODED

More Than Half of the Largest State in the Union is Under Water.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE.

Thousands of People Are Homless and Crops and Other Property Destroyed in All Sections.

Rivers Break Over Their Banks and Flood Thousands of Acres—A Number of Persons Drowned—Severe Cyclone Adds to the Destroying Elements.

Dallas, Tex., July 1.—More than one-half of this State is a flooded district and the damage already done will amount to more than a million dollars. Many rivers and tributaries are higher than ever before known and thousands of square miles of farm and plantation property are overflowed. Immense damage has been done and many railroad washouts have been reported from all parts of the state. Rain has been falling for nearly seventy-two hours, and there is no prospect of a let-up. One-half the trains on the railroad system have been abandoned, and the others are from ten to twenty hours late.

The worst damage is reported from Waco. The Brazos river has broken all its former high-water records. Hundreds of houses are submerged and many have been completely demolished in the poorer districts. Thousands of persons are without shelter or household effects. In the Brazos Valley alone it is estimated that the crop damages will amount to nearly $1,000,000. Corn and wheat have suffered most, but cotton has not yet suffered much. George Schwabe, a farmer near Yoakum, was drowned by the sudden rise of a branch of the Brazos. His family was rescued.

A cyclone at Oakhurst destroyed the Columbia Lumber Company's mills. Three workmen were blown a quarter of a mile. One was killed and the others were seriously injured. Telephone messages from Meridian and Iredell state that reports of the loss of several lives in the Bosque River have just reached there.

Taken as a whole Texas is in a most deplorable condition and the homeless and shelterless people who have lost all their earthly possessions are in need of immediate assistance to prevent a further loss of life from exposure. There are about a thousand families in the state who have had everything they owned but the clothing they wear swept away, and thousands have actually been without a morsel of food for the past forty-eight hours. The rivers are still rising and greater damage is sure to result before the floods subside.

Colored Miners Shot.

Carbondale, Ill., July 1.—It is reported that a number of colored miners from Pana, Ill., who went to the Williamson County coal field, were fired upon when they attempted to enter the mines at Fredonia. According to this report, when nearing the mines they were met with a fusilade of shots, resulting in the killing of two persons and the wounding of twenty more. Desultory firing, it is reported, has been going on since.

Reading Express Derailed.

Shamokin, Pa., July 1.—A Philadelphia and Reading Railroad express was derailed at Buck Ridge, two miles east of here, owing to one of the rails spreading. Roll Morgan, fireman, of Shamokin, was killed, and John Gardiner, the engineer, was badly bruised. The train was filled with passengers, but beyond a severe shaking up no one was hurt.

Said Death Was Fun.

Warren, Pa., July 1.—George Miller, of Sugar Grove, committed suicide in a strange way in a local drug store. Miller, accompanied by a friend, entered a store, ran to the prescription counter, picked up a bottle of morphine pills, and poured the contents down his throat, saying: "I'll show you something funny!" He died in a doctor's office in less than one hour.

Hessian Fly's Steady March.

Phoenixville, Pa., July 1.—The wheat crop in this section will be almost a total failure as a result of the depredations of the Hessian fly. These destructive insects have multiplied in great numbers during the warm weather, and they travel in myriads from field to field. The yield from this section will not be one-fourth of what was anticipated.

Did Not Perish in Siberia.

San Francisco, July 1.—A story has recently been circulated that a party of miners who left Nevada City some months ago to prospect in the north had perished of cold and hunger in the wilds of Siberia. Mrs. Norvall Douglass of this city, whose son is one of the members of the party, declares most emphatically that there is no truth in the story.

The Deadlock Was Broken.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., July 1.—After forty-six ballots the deadlock in the first assembly district Republican convention was broken by the withdrawal of four candidates. Charles S. Plank of Waddington was then unanimously nominated. Resolutions were adopted commending the administration of Governor Roosevelt and President McKinley.

Mr. Rockefeller Returning.

Chicago, July 1.—John D. Rockefeller and a party of friends arrived in this city from a pleasure trip through the West. The party proceeded at once to New York.

Consul General Ravn Now.

Christiana, July 1.—Herr Christopher Ravn, the vice-consul of Sweden and Norway at New York, has been promoted to the rank of consul general there.

ORDERED TO LEAVE IMUS:

Filipinos Evidently Preparing to Again Open Hostilities At This Point.

THE ENEMY RETURNING.

The Ninth Infantry Has a Hot Skirmish With a Force of Natives at San Fernando.

Army Gunboats Operating on the Lake Wherever the Filipinos Can Be Located—Two Batteries of the Utah Light Artillery Will Sail For Home Saturday.

Manila, July 1.—The natives are returning to San Francisco de Malabon. They have ordered the inhabitants to desert Imus, preparatory, it is supposed, to an attack upon that place. The army gunboats and the 4th Cavalry are operating on the lake wherever the enemy can be located. A company of the enemy encountered a party of the 9th Infantry at San Fernando and was quickly routed.

The country is a sea of mud and the roads are fast disappearing.

The 1st Nebraska Infantry and Batteries A and B of the Utah Light Artillery will sail for home Saturday. The 16th Infantry landed in a heavy rain and is in barracks at Malate.

Enlistment of Volunteers Begins.

Washington, July 1.—The first orders have been issued for recruiting the troops under the clause authorizing the enlistment of 35,000 men. The order contemplates enlisting men for the three skeleton regiments in the Philippines. Recruiting officers have been instructed to enlist men with this understanding.

A statement prepared in the office of the Adjutant General of the army shows that with the departure of the transport Pennsylvania from San Francisco about 3,500 reinforcements were dispatched to the Philippines this week. These troops are carried on the transports Zealandia, Sheridan, Valencia and Pennsylvania, and include fifty-nine officers and 3,444 enlisted men.

About half of the troops are recruits intended to fill gaps in the regiments in the Philippines caused by deaths, disabilities and discharge. There are about 3,000 recruits at San Francisco, which also are intended to recruit the regular regiments in the Philippines up to their maximum strength of 128 men to a company. Including the Nineteenth infantry, under orders for Manila and troops at San Francisco, there are 4,000 ready to start for Manila as soon as transports can be provided.

Washington, July 1.—The following despatch has been made public by the War Department:

"Manila, June 30.

"Transport Morgan City sailed San Francisco June 24, 464 sick. OTIS."

New Match Trust Formed.

Akron, O., July 1.—The petition of the new match trust will give the Diamond Company control of 95 per cent. of the match output of this country., it is said. Factories in New York, Michigan and Indiana, in addition to Gould's company, the Continental, will be in the combination. A new issue of stock amounting to $4,000,000 is to be made to buy in independent companies. The Diamond is now capitalized at $11,000,000. The net earnings of the company are expected to be increased to $2,500,000 per annum by the new deal.

Killed His Wife in the Street.

Lowell, Mass., July 1.—William Kelley, 36 years old, shot and killed his wife on Fayette street and is now at large. As his wife, who worked in an all-night restaurant, was going home, kelley lay in wait for her. He fired three shots at the woman, one of which passed through her head. He then walked calmly away. There were several witnesses to the shooting, but no one made any attempt to arrest Kelley or to follow him. Kelley, it is said, was angry because his wife refused to live with him.

Evansville Fears Trouble.

Evansville, Ind., July 1.—A despatch has been received saying that miners from Pana, Illinois, will soon arrive at this place. The men are negroes, and if they come there will be bloodshed. Attorneys for the officers of the union are in court trying to have the Ingle injunction set aside. Mayor Akin has tried to arbitrate the trouble, but the operators refuse to listen to his propositions, which might lead to a meeting between the operators and employes.

Diamonds on His Ankles.

Detroit, Mich., July 1.—Louis Bush, of 129 West One Hundred and Twelfth street, New York, is confined in jail here on suspicion of smuggling from Canada $20,000 worth of diamonds, which he had in his possession. The diamonds were found tied around his ankles, wrapped in diamond paper.

Cricket in England.

Leeds, England, July 1.—The All-England eleven, in the third test cricket match with the Australians, were all out in their first innings for 220 runs. The Australians in the first inning were all out in their first innings for 172 runs.

Wage Scale of '93 Restored.

Pottstown, Pa., July 1.—An advance of 50 cents per ton will be given next week to the puddlers of Potts Bros., limited. Plate mill employes will also receive an increase and the wage rate that prevailed in 1893 will be practically restored.

"Tod" Sloane Settles for $1,000.

London, July 1.—The "Star" says the "Tod" Sloane assault case has been finally settled by the payment to the waiter of the sum of $1,000.

A druggist in Syracuse, N. Y., says that Kipans Tabules are especially valuable for curing habitual constipation, and suggests that that point ought to be brought out conspicuously in all the advertisements of this remedy. He sells Kipans Tabules to many theatrical folks and to traveling men, his store being located near the Hotel Candee, where most of these people stop. Among his customers is a local life insurance agent, who had been in the habit of buying some kind of pill for his wife, with unsatisfactory results, till the druggist recommended the Tabules. Upon being appealed to for her opinion of Kipans Tabules, the agent's wife said: "I have used them with good success in indigestion and constipation, and can highly recommend them."

* A new style pocket containing FIVE KIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at 40 cents a carton—not FIVE CENTS. This low price is intended for the poor and the economical. One dose of the five-cent package (12 tabules) can be had by small by sending forty-eight cents to the KIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (THE TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. O. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

It Kills Disease

Radam's Microbe Killer will stay the ravages of Consumption, stop the pains of Rheumatism, allay the itchings of Eczema, prevent the wasting in Bright's Disease, neutralize the gnawings of Dyspepsia, sweeten the foulest stomach and bring back a normal appetite to the suffering patient. The above are only a few of the many germ diseases; this remedy surely conquers these, and health is again restored.

Radam's Microbe Killer

is an antiseptic, contains no injurious drugs, destroys all bacteria, and is healthful in the highest degree. No decay or fermentation can develop where the Microbe Killer is present. Thousands once pronounced incurable, have regained health and strength by ridding their bodies of all disease germs.

If you are sick, this remedy should be taken immediately. Don't defer the trial until there is no hope. Write us for free book containing testimonials and advice at once.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

RIOTOUS SOLDIERS

Raid a Saloon In Nevada Town—Bartender Shot.

Winnemucca, Nev., July 1.—A special train, containing members of companies L and M of the twenty-fourth colored regiment, arrived in Winnemucca. A number of men left the train and raided a neighboring saloon. They wrecked the bar and stole what liquor there was in sight. Christopher Diess, the barkeeper, was shot down by one of the soldiers. Those who committed the outrage, then fled to the train.

The alarm was given at once, and before the train could draw out of the station it was surrounded by excited citizens of the place. Sheriff McDeid and District Attorney Van Duser would not permit the train to leave until the guilty parties were given up.

Major Noble, who was in command, while not recognizing the authority of the local officers to delay the expedition, consented that the train be delayed until a thorough search could be made. The three companies were ordered out twice for inspection, and citizens who were present when the shooting occurred closely inspected each man. Only one was identified, a Sergt. Smith, who gave a satisfactory explanation of his presence in the saloon.

American Sugar Suit.

Columbus, O., July 1.—The American Sugar Company has filed a demurrer to the suit of Attorney-General Monnett who seeks to hold it for a penalty of $56,000 for failure to file statements of its transactions with the Secretary of State. The demurrer raises the point that the contention of the attorney general is an interference with the interstate commerce law, the company being a foreign corporation.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL MONNETT.

Pingree Factory Strike.

Detroit, July 1.—The big Pingree & Smith shoe manufactory was shut down this afternoon and 600 hands thrown out of employment. It all grew out of the introduction of a new machine for turning shoes. These machines do the work of six men. The firm served notice on the union that it had no further use for the union stamp and hereafter, the shop would be open to all alike, and no preference shown to union or non-union men. The turners served notice on Frank C. Pingree, the manager of the shop, that the machines must be taken out or there would be a strike.

Killed in a Prize Fight.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 1.—Kid Wanko of Washington, Pa., and Felix Carr of Huntington, W. Va., were to have fought a twenty round contest at Frie's Park. Wanko knocked Carr out in the fourth round. Carr did not recover promptly after the knockout and was brought to the Commercial Hotel in this city, where doctors worked with him several hours, when he died without fully regaining consciousness. He was twenty-three years of age. Wanko will be arrested.

100 Hurt In Riots.

Brussels, July 1.—The rioting here was continued, at various points. The gendarmes charged fiercely several times on the Boulevard Auspach, and used ball cartridges on the Grande Place. One rioter was bayonetted and two reporters were seriously injured. Saucepans and other domestic implements were thrown from windows at the troops.

On Train Robbers' Trail.

Lander, Wyo., July 1.—New interest has been awakened in the hunt for the Union Pacific train robbers. The robbers' trail has been struck in the Green River headwaters country by Jim Baldwin, a famous bandit taker, who has with him a band of thirty Indian trailers, the best in the country. This is the twenty-seventh day of the chase and the bandits must be nearly worn out.

Murderer Is Freed.

Sing Sing, N. Y., July 1.—William J. Rourke, who while a policeman in New York shot and killed Roundsman Robert A. Montgomery, walked out of the gate at the State prison a free man. His life sentence was commuted by Gov. Black.

Locked Keeper in Cell.

Dallas, Tex., July 1.—Five prisoners escaped from the Denton county jail at Denton. Keeper William Hawkins was overpowered by them when he went to a cell to remove supper dishes. The prisoners locked him in the cell and fled.

Commended For Naming Quay.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 1.—The Afro-American League of Dauphin county has passed resolutions commending Governor Stone for appointing Matthew Stanley Quay to succeed himself as United States Senator.

The Blow May Kill King.

Altoona, Pa., July 1.—Thomas King was struck on the nose, and ever since he has been suffering from internal hemorrhages. The attending physician says King will probably die as a result of the blow.

Yellow Jack in Salvador.

Washington, July 1.—The United States Consul at Salvador informs the State Department that yellow fever has made its appearance there.

MURPHY IS A WONDER

The Plucky Whelman Pedals a Mile in 57 4-5 Seconds.

Maywood, Long Island, July 1.—On the Long Island Railroad, over the special bicycle track built between Farmingdale and Babylon, Charles M. Murphy rode a mile on a bicycle behind a locomotive and car in 57 4-5 seconds.

This is the fastest mile ever made, so far as records tell, by a human being, who propelled himself by artificial methods. It is the fastest mile ever made on a bicycle. Murphy was considerably exhausted by the effort, and was pulled up from his wheel into the car ahead of him less than one-quarter of a mile beyond the finish. There is absolutely no doubt as to the correctness of the time or the magnificent ride made by Murphy. A large crowd gathered at the little station of Maywood to see the attempt.

Death Overtakes Mrs. Southworth.

Washington, July 1.—Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth, the autoress, died at her home in this city after an illness of several weeks. About a month ago Mrs. Southworth was prostrated by the heat, and the infirmity of advanced age, she being in her 79th year, made it impossible for her to recuperate from the attack. She had lived for many years a retired life in a picturesque house of the old-fashioned type on a hill in West Washington, overlooking the Potomac and the hills of Virginia.

Incorporations in Delaware.

Dover, Del., July 1.—Articles of incorporation have been filed at the state department, for the following companies: The Missouri Blanket Vein Zinc Company of New York. Capital, $1,000,000. The La Flor de Costa Rica Coffee Estates Company, for the raising and manufacturing of sugar, tobacco and coffee. Capital, $200,000. Several of the incorporators are from Costa Rica, but the certificate was filed through the New York office.

Died in Wedding Dress.

Altoona, Pa., July 1.—Miss Dorothy Hoover, daughter of John Hoover, a wealthy farmer, was found dead in the parlor of the Hotel Kellerman, Hollidaysburg. The Coroner is making an investigation to determine if she is a suicide or not. The girl was to have been married this month, but her lover suddenly disappeared. She was found attired in what was to have been her wedding dress and her betrothal ring was on her finger.

Fell Into a Thirty-Foot Well.

Girard, Mich., July 1.—Mrs. Fred Bunnell, living six miles south of here, fell headforemost into an unused well thirty feet deep and was rescued by neighbors about an hour afterward, both her arms and one leg having been broken and her spine badly injured by the fall. The bottom of the well was filled with rubbish which broke the force of the fall and kept the unfortunate woman from drowning. She will be crippled for life.

Mrs. McKinley's Condition.

Washington, July 1.—Mrs. McKinley continues to improve, and last evening received Gen. and Mrs. Wood. Gen. Wood was Mrs. McKinley's physician before the Spanish-American war. There is no truth in the stories that Mrs. McKinley is seriously ill and that the President has abandoned all his summer plans in consequence.

Three Days in Newfoundland Ice.

New York, July 1.—When the British steamship Avalon arrived at her pier here, her crew had a stirring tale of adventure to relate in the shape of a sojourn of three days and nights in an ice pack, off the Newfoundland coast. And this, too, in the month of June. It was as dramatic in a small way as the relation of experiences of Arctic voyagers.

Writing Paper Trust Formed.

Trenton, N. J., July 1.—Articles of incorporation of the American Writing Paper Company have been filed with authorized capital of $25,000,000. The company is organized to manufacture and deal in paper. One-half of the stock is preferred with seven per cent. cumulative dividends.

It May Be Mitchell's Body.

Elizabeth, N. J., July 1.—The body of a man has been found in Spencer's Woods by Alexander Hindson and John Downing, oystermen. It is believed that it is John Mitchell, superintendent of Senator Kean's farm, who disappeared on June 17.

Vanderbilt Gets Another Road.

New York, July 1.—W. K. Vanderbilt has acquired the absolute control of another railroad. He has invaded New England and leased for 999 years the Boston and Albany, one of the choicest railroad properties in the United States.

McKeever and Smith Fight a Draw.

New York, July 1.—Charley McKeever and Mysterious Billy Smith fought 20 rounds to a draw in the Broadway Athletic Club. The fighting throughout was about on even terms.

Made His Mind a Blank.

Reading, Pa., July 1.—Simon Seidel, who was struck by lightning Wednesday afternoon, has recovered consciousness. His mind is a complete blank. He is also completely deaf.

OF A MARTIAL NATURE.

The Haytian Government is very considerate of the comfort of soldiers. Every picket is supplied with a chair.

While 5 per cent. of all Europeans are trained soldiers, there is only one soldier to every one hundred people in America.

Mexico in the new world has the largest standing army, with a war strength of 160,000, while Brazil is second with 28,000 and 20,000 gendarmes.

The Argentine Republic has a peace force of 12,000. Canada is garrisoned with 2,000 British troops, with an additional 1,000 Canadian soldiers, and a militia of 35,000.

When You Are Away

For a week, or a month, or the whole summer, there is nothing more welcome than the news from home. There is only one way to get this news in the right shape, and that is by having The Daily Press sent to you at your vacation stopping place. When leaving town for a season be sure to order The Daily Press to follow you by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired. Ten cents a week will cover all expenses.

COMING EVENTS.

July 2—Arthur E. Crane, of Crozier Theological Seminary, will address the Y. M. C. A. rally at 4:15 p. m. Swedish singers and instrumentalists. All men are welcome.

Democrats Are Hopeful.

An Elizabeth correspondent says the Union county Democrats are looking forward hopefully to the prospect of a bitter Republican fight, and are prepared to take advantage of it by nominating their strongest men. They assert that it is evident from the tone of the Republican papers that there is a secret plan by which Senator Cross is to be sacrificed in the interests of aspirants for other offices. Otherwise if his nomination is secure, they ask, why are there so many rumors about secret opposition to his candidacy? The Democratic county committee has planned an outing to Whitestone, Long Island, August 31, and the members expect by that time to be able to form plans on which the fall campaign can be fought. They hope an opportunity will be given them to capture the Senatorship, and they will direct their principal efforts to this end, especially if Senator Cross should be shelved.

That a human being can propel himself by his own muscular power a distance of one mile in less than one minute—57 4-5 seconds to be exact—hardly seems possible when we compare it with the ordinary means of locomotion. But the record proves that Bicyclist Murphy performed this feat. The account of the race states that he was keyed up to the highest nervous pitch—even his mind being distracted for the time being—and that he perceptibly lost ground because of this, whereas if he had been perfectly calm and collected the distance might have been covered in still less time. The ride of Murphy is one of the greatest athletic performances ever performed.

At the close of business for the month of June the corporation books in the Secretary of State's office showed that 205 companies had been chartered during the month of June, for which the State received in filing fees, $83,538. In this list there was twenty-one having a capitalization of more than three millions of dollars each. Altogether 1,179 companies have been incorporated since the first of the year.

William B. Gourley, of Passaic, chairman of the Democratic State committee, has appointed the Democratic chairmen of the various county boards of election. In Union county P. J. Ryan, of Elizabeth, is selected, and in Somerset William J. Hopson, of Somerville, is named.

The warning of Chief Grant, printed in today's paper, that all unmuzzled dogs will hereafter be taken into the toils of the law during the dog-day season, is timely. There are too many vicious curs running around loose.

Bird S. Coler, the Comptroller, says that New York city, under the charter of the "greater" municipalty, is wasting annually $1,000,000 of the people's money in salaries of useless officials.

The Jersey City justice who classifies the aristocractic game of golf as the plebian sport of shinny in the eyes of the law, is treading on dangerous ground.

Give the city a gala attire by decorating for the Fourth.

Oh, for a day like this next Tuesday.

One-third of the summer is gone.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The Plainfield Daily Press of Tuesday published a good communication concerning the Central railroad. It contained some hard, solid facts.—Somerville Democrat.

* * * * *

The Plainfield Daily Press has evidently settled to its own satisfaction at least the much mooted question as to when the present century ends. It heads its extended account of the recent graduating exercises of the High School in that city with the double-column line: "Last Class of Century."—Bound Brook Chronicle.

* * * * *

Hon. Roger F. Murray, of Plainfield, will not be a candidate for reelection to the Assembly next fall. Mr. Murray undoubtedly made many friends in the Assembly, and his brusque independence also made him a number of opponents. He has, however, been an able and conscientious representative and a credit to this county. His withdrawal at this time will add to Plainfield's claims for some one of the important county offices, and no one will appreciate this fact better than Mr. MacMurray, unless it is his warm friend, Sheriff Kirk.—Elizabeth Journal.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

An edict against dogs has gone forth in Asbury Park, and hereafter the canines are to be banished from the upper pavilions and only tolerated on the lower pavilions and boardwalk when chained to their owners. The rule is a necessary one and will be thoroughly appreciated by the beach promenaders. It was but a few summers ago that an unruly cur caused a small-sized panic in the Asbury avenue pavilion, in which women fainted, men ran, and general confusion reigned.

* * * * *

There is a perceptible increase in the amount of travel this year over that of last. This is presumably owing in a measure to the fact that there is nothing to destroy the peace of mind of the average citizen. Last year, when the country was involved in a war with Spain, there was a noticeable falling off in travel. Now that the country is again at peace with all nations, people have got the traveling mania. Yesterday was a busy day with Baggagemaster Garretson at the North Avenue station; in fact more baggage was handled on that day than on any previous day this season. There is every indication that there will be an increase in travel over that of former years. Many people are taking advantage of the low rates and are going to Europe. A trip across tha ocean today is not half as much of a voyage as was a journey to Chicago twenty-five years ago.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

representatives of the Knights that there was no slight intended in giving the cadets preference over the fraternal organization; and the matter was amicably adjusted.

Letters were read from Congressman Ben. F. Howe and Senator Reed, thanking the committee for their kind invitation to attend the celebration and expressing regrets at not being able to be present, because of previous engagements.

Before the meeting adjourned Mr. Ulrich introduced Dr. Simpson, through whose efforts he said the visit of the Naval Reserves to Plainfield had been made possible. On behalf of the executive committee he wished to publicly thank the doctor for his efforts in this direction. The meeting then adjourned to Tuesday evening, July 11, at Red Men's hall.

The reviewing stand is to be erected at the Revere House, Park avenue and Eighth street. From this point the Mayor and city officials, together with prominent citizens, will review the parade.

The Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, editor of the Sabbath Recorder, has been secured as orator of the day.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Reniek Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanName, of Elmwood place, will leave early next month for New York State, where they will spend a month visiting relatives and friends.

DRINK GRAIN-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is hearthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich seal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about ¼ as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25c.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 1—The Misses Barrett, of Jefferson avenue, are arranging to have a picnic at Washington Rock on the Watchung mountains on the afternoon of July 4th. The young folks contemplate remaining on the mountain during the evening for the purpose of witnessing the fireworks which can be distinctly seen on a clear night from this point.

Fred Weigel won the prize at the Middlesex Bowling Green Club's contest last Saturday. Weigel is entitled to hold the trophy for one year. Edward VanPelt and Edward Fisher were elected members of the club.

The annual excursion of the Presbyterian Sunday-school to Asbury Park will take place July 20th. The Methodist Sunday-school will have their excursion to the same place the 27th of July.

Postmaster Adam Dealaman is now in possession of the postoffice. He will have as clerks the efficient young deputy, Miss Mildred Gaskill and the Misses Emma Apgar and Josie Dealaman.

Thomas Apgar, the well-known carpenter, has recently made some improvements to the interior of the postoffice, by building a wainscoating around the side walls.

The water company, under the direction of Street Commissioner Hillpot, is making some repairs to the streets by laying on a good bed of gravel.

Improvements are being made to the residences of R. J. and H. J. Swackhamer on Dunellen avenue.

Rev. and Mrs. Fletcher are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Newman, of Longmeadow, Md.

Charles Carpenter has been confined to his home this week. Dr. Brakeley attends him.

Mrs. M. F. Allison and children, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Robbins.

Quite a number from here expect to attend the picnic at Florida Grove on the Fourth.

Cornelius Taylor is improving his residence on Lincoln street by having it painted.

Mrs. N. E. Thomas and family leave today for Ocean Grove to remain some days.

Mrs. H. J. Swackhamer is entertaining Miss Clara Martin, of Plainfield.

Miss Anne D. Lloyd will spend her vacation at Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Miss Flora E. Willgus is at her home in Red Bank.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 1—The driver of Wilber's stone wagon met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon while descending the hill by the fur mill. The wagon was heavily loaded with crushed stone and when coming down the hill the brake was applied too hard and broke. This threw the driver out upon the hard roadbed, striking upon his arm and fracturing it in two places. The injured man was conveyed to his home in Westfield.

W. S. Emery formally opens his summer garden to the public this evening. Mr. Emery intends to have the garden run in an orderly manner and has engaged constables who will see that the wishes of the proprietor are carried out. The garden will close promptly at 11:15 so as to enable those coming from Plainfield to catch the last trolley which leaves at 11:36.

The many friends of John O. Wilson, a former resident of the village, will be sorry to learn that he lies seriously ill at his home in Asbury Park, where he had gone, thinking the change would benefit him.

Several residents of the village attended the commencement exercises of the Plainfield Business College last evening.

Miss Minnie White, of Brooklyn, who has been spending a week with Miss Malone, has returned to her home.

The adjourned contract case of Gernandt against Conover is to be tried in Judge Schick's court Monday.

The contract case of DeMeza against Hoffman in Judge Clark's court has been adjourned until July 7th.

Mrs. A. L. Jimerson, of Westfield, visited her daughter, Mrs. George W. Marsh, last evening.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., held an important meeting in their rooms last evening.

Mrs. John R. Haskard entertained relatives from Elizabeth and Plainfield Friday.

Arthur Chapin is entered in the bicycle race at Perth Amboy this afternoon.

Miss Kittie Buckley spent yesterday with Miss Lizzie Stamets, of Westfield.

LINCOLN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Lincoln, July 1.—The Central Railroad Company have caused to stop here two additional trains, which have been much needed. One at 12:12 noon going east, and one at 10:43 a. m. going west.

The new designs which have been gotten out at the steel works for next season's trade, will be put in course of manufacture this week, and then we may look for more than four days work each week.

Thomas Wrench, who has invented an automatic registering target, is preparing to put it on the market, and those interested would do well to investigate this wonderful piece of mechanism.

It is currently reported that the Steel Works' Company have bought or leased the foundry south of the rail road and will use it as a tube drawing plant in connection with their present works.

BOYNTON BEACH.

THERE IS ONLY ONE
FOURTH OF JULY A YEAR.

It is a shame not to spend it where you are sure of a good time. There isn't another place in New Jersey where you can take your whole family and know that each one of them will have a good time.

Of course you know all about the comfortable shaded grounds, the cool seats on the veranda overlooking the water, the boating, naptha launch rides, bowling and bathing.

Maybe you have never heard the
composed of five fine musicians. It will furnish the music on the FOURTH.

Dancing, as usual, will be one of the chief pleasures.

The Diving Dock for swimmers, so popular last season, continues to draw crowds.

Fishing we put at the last, but it may be the only amusement you care about. Never mind, "There are others" just like you. Here's a quiet tip. The weak fish are running well now. You can have a glorious day catching them while your wife and children picnic.

WAKE ISLAND AWAKENED.

Old Glory Hoisted Over a Little Piece of Territory in Mid-Pacific.

The conditions under which Wake Island, midway between Honolulu and the Philippines, was taken possession of in the name of the United States by the commander of the Bennington on her voyage across the Pacific are given in a report to the Navy Department from Commander Taussig.

The officer says he approached the island with the navigator at the masthead, steaming slowly along the southern and eastern sides to discover signs of habitation, and looking in vain for an anchorage. He did not circumnavigate the island, but seeing that the outlet on the north was barred not only by a wall of coral but also by a sandpit, he returned to the lee of the island. A landing was made and a flagpole was raised. Besides some pieces of wreckage, no signs of human occupation were visable. On the eastern side of the island, imbedded in the sand, an anchor was seen and what appeared to be the wreck of a lower mast was higher up the beach.

When the flag staff was in place the sailors were formed in two ranks facing seaward, and having called all to witness that the island was not in possession of any other nation, Commander Taussig ordered the American flag to be raised by Ensign Wettengell. Upon reaching the truck the flag was saluted by twenty-one guns from the Bennington. After the salute the flag was nailed to the masthead with battens, and a brass plate with the following inscription was screwed to the base of the flagstaff:

"United States of America, William McKinley, President; John D. Long, Secretary of the Navy; Commander Edward D. Taussig, U. S. Navy, Commanding the U. S. S. Bennington, this 17th day of January, 1899, took possession of the Atoll known as Wake Island for the United States of America."

Commander Taussig describes the island thus: It was more heavily wooded than shown in the chart. Patches of grass were growing on the lagoon side of the western islet, and the shrubbery afforded nesting places for the many sea fowl. Fish were plentiful in the lagoon, and there was a swift current running out of the southern passage. The lagoon on the south side was shoal, but on the north side there was a long strip of deep blue water extending nearly its whole length. Outside the lagoon many sharks were seen crowding around our boats and around the ships.

"Had I been able to find an anchorage, I would have remained in this vicinity two or three days to reconnoitre more thoroughly the island and to take astronomical and magnetic observations, but, having carried out the orders of the department, I took my departure for Guam."

Puerto Rico Tobacco.

Home-made, molasses-soaked plug tobacco, in ropes a hundred feet long, is one of the primitive wonders of the island. On any market day one may see the tobacco man with his little table piled up with bad cigars black as your hat, so green that you may wring water from them, and so cheap that a silver dollar will buy out his stock in trade; but the thing which catches the eye is the cylinders, eighteen inches high by six in breadth, made up, you would swear, from bights of hawsers soaked in tar, but in reality chewing tobacco. Try it once and quit. A tobacco-chewing Jackey from Georgia, with a day ashore at Ponce, volunteered the information: "Yes, Suh, that's the most pow'ful stuff I ever stowed in my wisdom teeth. Yes, Suh, that's right." I agreed with him.

Smoking is almost universal in Puerto Rico, the cigar and the cigarette being alternated by most natives without any apparent preference. The better classes of the women seem never to use tobacco in any form, and to one accustomed to seeing the dainty fingers of Mexican senoritas hold lighted cigarettes after the black coffee is served somehow something is lacking in the familiar ensemble of tropical home life.

The peasant woman dearly loves her black cigar, and a sight which arouses risibility is the common one of a huge black aunty rolling down the centre of a street, burdened with head-balanced load heavy enough for a horse, placidly smoking an inky cigar of able proportions, whose clouds of smoke enshroud her head and waft into her contented half-closed eyes. Envy her. She has only half enough to eat, but is rich in the soothing of nectar nicotine.—Harper's Weekly.

Sign Umbrellas.

The sign umbrellas seen in front of stores where umbrellas are sold are commonly of cloth, though made in a very considerable variety of colors and combinations of colors, and sometimes in place of sign umbrellas there are used for the same purpose balloon-shaped contrivances of cloth. In front of retail establishments where umbrellas form but an item of the stock, as, for instance, men's furnishing goods stores, the umbrella sign goes out only in rainy or threatening weather, to call attention to the fact that there umbrellas are sold; the sign in this case is like the sign of rubber shoes set out in like circumstances in front of shoe stores. Such sign umbrellas are commonly supplied by wholesale dealers to their customers.

The wholesale dealer is likely to keep sign umbrellas or other accepted umbrella emblems flying all the time, as do also the establishments selling at retail umbrellas exclusively, of which there are not very many. At such an establishment, however, the sign permanently displayed may be of rather more elaborate and costly character than those more commonly used, being perhaps not a folding umbrella, but one made of metal, with the inside painted and the top gilded—a gold umbrella.

THE DOINGS OF SOME WOMEN.

Recently Noted Activities of the Unquiet Sex.

By BESSIE DOW BATES

The recent terrible epidemic of smallpox among the Moqui Indians of Arizona was mainly checked through the efforts of a woman physician, Mrs. Mary McKee, who remained constantly at the agency during the prevalence of the disease attending the sufferers.

Miss Marretta Meech and Miss Augusta Hasemyer, two Chicago girls who went to Havana as nurses some time ago, have volunteered to remain in Cuba during the yellow fever season and to care for the sick soldiers through the hot summer of the tropics.

Miss Johanna Westorf is the first of her sex upon whom the title of professor has ever been conferred in Prussia. She is directress of the Sleswick-Holstein museum at Kiel and was honored in recognition of her extraordinary services in archæology and anthropology.

The recent appointment of Miss Lillie J. Martin as assistant professor in the department of psychology at Leland Stanford Junior university is a signal distinction for a woman and a fitting supplement to the honors she won in the laboratories of Europe.

Mrs. May Boysen, a Red Cross nurse in the Philippines, was publicly commended on the field at Malabon by General Wheaton for the fearless manner in which she went about on the firing line caring for wounded soldiers.

Mrs. S. F. Edge, an English woman, enjoys the distinction of being the first lady automobilist.

Miss Anna M. Bowen, who recently finished a course of postgraduate study at the Munich university, has succeeded Miss Harriott Norris as dean of Woman's hall of the Northwestern university of Chicago.

Miss Lettie Y. Welch, a slender, quiet, self controlled young woman, is superintendent of the Arapahoe County hospital, one of the largest in Denver.

Mrs. Emmons Blaine's College of Pedogogy, about to be opened in Chicago, is likely to attract much attention in the educational world. It is proposed that the institution shall meet the demand for trained teachers in all grades from kindergarten to college.

Miss Gerta Pomeroy, a New York society belle, is the champion shot among the Colorado big game hunters thus far this season. She was one of a party who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish on a tour through the west. At Glenwood Springs a hunting expedition was organized. A big black bear was brought to bay in a rocky ravine after an exciting chase.

Miss Pomeroy was the first to arrive and was given the first shot at the animal. At a distance of about 100 feet Miss Pomeroy shot the bear through the heart, her aim being faultless. The bear was the largest killed in Colorado in several years.

Miss A. McInnes of Harrison, N. J., who served as a nurse at Camp Hamilton, Lexington, Ky., and Camp McKenzie, Augusta, Ga., will go to Manila to attend sick and wounded soldiers in the Philippines.

One of the most expert horsewomen in New York is Miss Marion Halloway, who won five blue ribbons at the recent Philadelphia horse show.

When the Fort Dodge and Omaha railroad was recently completed, the golden spike was driven by a woman, the wife of Superintendent Dixon.

Miss Pearl Griffin is the fearless and aggressive editor of the Maryville (Mo.) Daily Review. In this position she succeeded her father, who was shot and killed on account of his editorial opposition to unlawful liquor traffic and local political rings. Miss Griffin fearlessly followed the policy of her father, and, though threatened with violence, continues the publication of the paper, which has become a potent influence in the social and political affairs of that section.

Mrs. Adelaide Wallerstein, known in New York as a philanthropist, clubwoman and society leader, recently passed the regents' examination, preparatory to entering a medical college.

WOMEN'S REALM

WHAT TO WEAR AND HOW TO MAKE IT.

May Manton's Hints Regarding Seasonable Toilettes.

The box plaited shirt waist retains its popularity and is found among the most stylish of this season's waists. As here represented in pale blue pique with bow tie and belt of black satin, it is at once attractive and becoming, the combination being one of the very newest. Three box plaits of equal width are formed in front and back, the closing in front being concealed under the centre plait. A pretty pointed yoke fits smoothly across the shoulders and unites the front and back portions, under-arm gores completing the perfect adjustment. The turn down collar finished softly is preferred by many but it can be made removable or omitted altogether, the regulation white linen standing collar taking its place, in which case the neck is finished with a band. The shirt sleeves are of fashionable width, openings being made at the back of wrists that are finished with pointed over-laps. Gathers adjust the scant fulness top and bottom, the straight cuffs being made to close with link buttons.

The lower edge can be tucked under the dress skirt, although there is a fancy for wearing this style of waist as here shown over the skirt.

The mode may be developed in all styles of cotton shirtings, percales, madras, cheviot, duck, dimity or gingham. Fine wool serge or flannel in plain, striped or plaid designs are considered very smart for cycling, yachting, shopping or general outing wear.

To cut this waist for a lady in the medium size 3½ yards of material 36 inches wide will be required.

No wardrobe is quite complete without a cape that can be slipped on and off as occasion demands. The model shown is adapted alike to cloth and silk, the ruffles being all lined with light-weight taffeta or India silk, but as illustrated the material is black French poplin, with jabot of white satin, yoke of black lace over white, and bands of passementerie.

The foundation is in two pieces and seamed at the centre back, where there is a slight point, and upon this are arranged the circular ruffles which show little fulness, yet fall in graceful folds. The double jabot at the front is formed by two pieces, one attached to each side, each of which is finished with a double frill of mousseline and a band of white silk passementerie. At the neck is a high flaring collar, within which is arranged a full ruche of black mousseline, but which may be omitted if desired, as the frill alone makes an ample finish. The entire garment is lined with satin in a soft mode shade.

To cut this cape for a lady of medium size seven yards of material twenty-two inches wide will be required.

Sweaters for Wee Tots.

Sweaters for the wee babies are among the sensible garments that should accompany them whenever they take their rides abroad. In case of sudden lowering of temperature, the sweaters can be readily slipped on over baby's clothes. They come in delicate colors—white, blue or pink—and with a little care may be laundered when necessary.

Soothing Lotions for Sunburn.

Two very good lotions for sunburn are composed thus: One pint of milk, one ounce each of carbonate of soda and glycerine; and half an ounce of powdered borax. Use twice daily. The second one consists of milk and oatmeal water, half-pint each, and carbonate of soda one ounce.

TOBACCO RAISING IN CUBA

Where the Finest Grades of the Fragrant Weed on Earth Are Grown

THE "VUELTA ABAJO."

Peculiarities of the Soil Which the Most Expert Chemists Have Failed to Penetrate.

Great Profits to Be Realized—Planters Borrow Money Upon Their Growing Crops, Paying Enormous Rates of Interest—A Multitude of People Employed in the Industry.

American capital to the amount of $100,000,000 stands pledged to the enterprise of uniting under one management, if not ownership, the great tobacco producing plantations of the "Vuelta Abajo" district in Havana and Pinar del Rio provinces. In this district is grown the finest grade of tobacco to be found in the world, the excellence of the weed being due undoubtedly to peculiarities of the soil.

Samples of Cuban soil have been submitted to the most expert chemists, none of whom has been able to penetrate nature's secret. So capricious is the combination of soil and plant that thorough agricultural experiment is necessary to separate the good from the bad tobacco land. In apparently the same soil, but with a few feet dividing them, will be found tobacco plants growing, one producing leaf that is cheap at $10 per pound, the other dear at an equal price per hundred weight. And more, the right kind of soil never wears out, while the ordinary soil can be improved by no known method of treatment. In Vuelta Abajo are plantations of thirteen thousand acres, a scant seven hundred of which will grow tobacco, but this comparatively small tract gives great value to the entire plantation. Plants brought from other districts or foreign countries to Vuelta Abajo require only careful cultivation to give them rank with the native tobacco, while a reversal of the process invariably results in the plant transferred from Vuelta Abajo to any other district deteriorating into the commonplace weed of "Pittsburg" or "Wheeling" commerce.

Under slipshod Spanish methods no attempt was ever made at agricultural classification in Cuba, for which reason there are few official statistics concerning the growth of tobacco, and absolutely no figures upon which to base an estimate of the acreage of tobacco growing lands. Undoubtedly there are a few men who know within a hundred "caballerieS"—caballeria is the unit in measuring land, being equal to 33.16 acres—just how much first-class tobacco land there is in Havana and Pinar del Rio, but as they are interested in the latest movement to form a mighty trust they cannot be betrayed into hazarding a guess. Indeed, men who have been experts in tobacco for two generations have suddenly forgotten all they ever knew about the business.

That there are great profits to be realized is apparent when it is known that the small planters borrow money upon their growing crops, paying about twenty per cent. for a six months' loan, and yet in normal times are prosperous. The wealthy planters count that a poor year which does not realize for them fifty per cent. upon their entire investment, including the price of the plantation. As the United States has always been the one great market for Cuban tobacco, and, indeed, all other products of the island, the closer relations which have been and are to be established should increase even the enormous profits of the past.

Twenty-six thousand men and about ten thousand women and children have been directly employed in the production of tobacco in Vuelta Abajo Within three years it is believed that district will give employment to fully sixty thousand men. The rate of wages has been high compared with that of other employment in Cuba.

TOBACCO BALING.

compared with the pay of farm hands in the United States. Those employed the year around receive from $15 to $20 and their "keep" per month. Those employed during harvest receive about $1.50 per day. It requires the attention of one man to produce 1,000 pounds of tobacco, and it is said that an apprenticeship of fully five years must be served before one really understands the science of tobacco growing. The best men come from the Canary Islands, though Cuban negros, when not too lazy, make excellent plantation hands.

In many ways tobacco raising is the most attractive agricultural industry in Cuba. Sugar growing is more profitable, or has been, but it requires a greater capital and the product cannot be so easily converted into cash. Then, too, sugar cane is of much slower growth and requires almost as much attention. Tobacco produces a crop the first year, though the quality of the leaf is not the best until the land has been under cultivation several seasons.

Since its first introduction to the civilized world tobacco has been inveighed against by teachers of religion in all parts of the earth. Scientists have taught that its use is injurious to man, Pope and potentate have forbidden it, yet its hold upon humanity has increased year after year.

SEVEN-UP FOR HIS LIFE

Wild-Cat Smith Beat His Comanche Captor at the Game—Won His Life and the Life of a Young Girl.

Old Wildcat Smith of Texas, is just about the last living one of that famous band of pioneers who drove the Indians to the mountains, killed the panthers and bears, and blazed the tracks through the trackless wilderness. He does not look like a lawyer, but he has, nevertheless, sat upon a camp stool and decided cases of the greatest importance. He does not bear any very marked resemblance to a General, but he has commanded a considerable force in battle, and, while military critics might have complained that he was deficient in strategic ability, none ever charged him with lack of valor. Few people would discover in his face or manner any of those traits that distinguish a duelist, but he has demonstrated that he possesses them all in an eminent degree, by ordering "pistols and coffee for two" more than once. Upon one occasion he had the audacity to invite General Houston, who was at that period President of the Republic, to "come out and exchange shots" with him. He says that the old warrior "floored" him by coolly making a note on a slip of paper and putting it in his desk. In answer to the enraged challenger's inquiry, the General simply said: "Mr. Smith, you are the fortieth; when I have killed these other thirty-nine d—n scoundrels who have challenged me I will accomodate you. Be patient, sir."

Smith went to Texas in 1836 and served in the Texas army through all the long wars with Mexico. He was also a soldier in the great Civil War, and when that ended he enlisted to fight Indians, and remained on the border, until there were no more Comanches to shoot. He has been a man of war from his youth up, and in his old age he carries a soldier's musket with a fixed bayonet, and continues to make war on all kinds of game and "varmints." He wanted to go to Cuba, and when the boys insisted that he was too old and feeble he threw off his coat and challenged the whole company to fight him.

Upon one occasion Smith was captured by a roving band of Comanches, many of whom were well known to him. They frankly told him that they intended to made him run the gantlet and burn him at the stake when they reached their village on Devil River. The captive had a flask of whiskey, which the chief took away from him. After taking several drinks the old warrior asked Smith if he could play "seven-up." Smith proudly boasted that he could beat any man living playing that particular game. This answer appeared to put the Indian on his mettle, and he at once proposed that they should halt by the side of the warpath and play for the highest stakes that mortal man ever waged on a game of chance—life. Smith eagerly agreed to the proposal, and they sat down under a tree and dealth the cards on a blanket. The other warriors dismounted and anxiously watched the game. The chief's name was Big Laugh, so called on account of a natural grin that marked his features. After a short time they stood 6 to 6, and it was Smith's deal. He ran the cards off and turned a jack from the bottom. Smith had won his liberty, and Big Laugh told him he might go; but the Texan had something else in view. He might easily have walked away, but he determined upon another act which marks him as a generous soul possessed of the highest courage. There was a young white girl tied on one of the ponies who was weeping in the most piteous agony. Smith coolly proposed to play another game, staking his life against the liberty of this young girl. Big Laugh was evidently pleased with the white man's courage, and after taking another drink he began to shuffle the cards. The young girl was cut loose from the pony and made to stand on the blanket, while the thongs for binding Smith in case he lost were thrown at her feet. Again they played a close game, and at the end of a short time stood 6 to 6; but it was Big Laugh's deal. With what awful interest that poor girl must have watched the turning of that trump! The Indian slowly dealt the cards, and, peeping at the trump, a hideous grin spread all over his face.

"I was sure all was lost and was just in the act of springing at his throat," says Smith, "when he turned the queen of hearts for a trump. He could not give me, of course, and I held both the ace and deuce of hearts."

Big Laugh was by this time hilariously drunk and in a most excellent good humor. He not only kept his word and gave Smith, and the young girl their liberty, but furnished them two ponies and allowed Smith to take his gun. The liberated captives reached the settlements in safety, where Smith's strange story would never have been credited had not the young girl borne witness that it was true. She is still living on a fine plantation on the Brazos, and is the widow of no less a personage than Colonel "Sam" Jones, who was killed at the battle of Shiloh.

Wildcat Smith lives in a little cabin in the woods, and devotes his whole time to hunting bear and deer, and sometimes smaller game. He lives all alone and seldom appears in town except for tobacco or provender.

Kitchener's Spies

Lord Kitchener is made the hero of an interesting anecdote, the details of which have just reached London. It is told by a relative of the Sirdar. According to him, one night while the British-Egyptian army was approaching Omdurman a Dervish spy was discovered in camp, and was placed under arrest in headquarters. Not a word could be coaxed out of him: he pretended to be deaf and dumb. Shortly afterward a second spy was caught, and he, too, assumed a deaf and dumb role. He was placed in the same tent with the first prisoner.

Half an hour later a third spy was brought into headquarters, and was put with the other two without delay. At the end of an hour the alert guard heard animated whispering going on in the tent among the deaf and dumb prisoners. A moment after the third of the spies stepped out of the tent and demanded of the guard to be taken to the officer's tent. He turned out to be the Sirdar himself, who was disguised so cleverly that he not only fooled his own men, but wormed the secrets of the two prisoners from them.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS

CONCEIT.

A little dog barked at the big round moon
That smiled in the evening sky.
And the neighbors smote him with rocks and shoon;
But still he continued his rageful tune,
And he barked till his throat was dry.

The little dog bounced like a rubber ball,
For his anger quite drove him wild;
And he said: "I'm a terror, although I am small,
And I dare you, you impudent fellow, to fall."
But the moon only smiled and smiled.

Then the little dog barked at a terrible rate,
But he challenged the moon in vain,
For as calmly and slow as the workings of fate
The moon moved along in a manner sedate
And smiled at the dog in disdain.

But soon 'neath a hill that obstructed the west
The moon sank out of his sight,
And smiled as it slowly dropped under the crest,
But the little dog said as he lay down to rest:
"Well, I scared it away, all right."

—Puck.

THE AQUARIUM TRICK.

You See a Head and Wonder How It Got There and Whose It Is.

A surprise was exhibited at Paris recently and La Nature has a very interesting illustrated article to explain the trick.

At first sight the object in question puzzled the public. Upon a small three-cornered plate, supported apparently only by three heavy nickled rods, stands an aquarium filled with various little fishes. Within the aquarium is the head of a girl, whose eyes are at first closed, presenting a weird spectacle, for it looks just as if the head of a person was cut off and placed in the aquarium.

Presently, however, to the strain of sweet, low music, life seems to enter that head; the eyes open and with a wondering look the head moves around as if admiring the unusual light about, and after a while the head goes to sleep again.

SECRET OF THE AQUARIUM HEAD.

This exhibition is very clever and so is the apparatus. The supports of the top plate look to be open, but they are so only up to the joint of the three rods, where a silk band is tied into a bow. Above that mirrors are provided, within which the person impersonating the naiad's head san stow its body away in a squatting position. By the judicious use of a carpet of the same color as the background the illusion is created that the upper part same as the lower one. Since the ensame as he lower one. Since the entire apparatus is fastened to the floor there is no danger of its upsetting.

The aquarium is placed on four small projections, so that air can enter the cavity specially provided within the aquarium to hold the head of the person concealed within the frame. Still the task is very trying, and after each exhibition the owner of the head is much exhausted and must take a good rest before entering the aquarium again.

"Kid" Gleason's Baseball Hints.

"Kid" Gleason has this to say for the young ball players just about starting in on the baseball season. There is one thing which should be constantly borne in mind, and that is, do not let your enthusiasm or love of sport get the better of your good judgment. I should strongly advise that for the first two or three days, at least, the ball should be thrown around for light exercise, and that no bat should be taken on the field. For instance, if a batter lines a ball almost within reach of an infielder, the infielder instinctively tries his best to get it, and in this way often strains himself, as his muscles are in no way fit for any exertion

"There is one other point that should be remembered, and that is the tremendous advantage of perfect team work when the team it at the bat. There should be a code of signals that is thoroughly understood by every man on the team, so that the runner on the bases may understand just what the man at the bat expects to do in his behalf. These are only a few points, but they are important."

HOW TILLIE GREW FAT

Granny's Cream Was the Cause at Least So Grandpa Said.

"She must go to the country and fatten with the little calves and lambs," the doctor said, nodding his head decisively.

He slid his eyeglasses up from the tip to the top of his nose, and looked at Tilly's poor, little thin cheeks through them.

"And drink cream right off from the tops of granny's milk pans," he added.

Granny's! It made the thin, little cheeks blush to hear dear, gentle grandma called such a—a homely name. But to go down to grandma's—

Tilly listened hard. She was wondering what mamma was going to answer. And then she heard—

"Right away, doctor?"

"To-morrow morning, I should say—early train."

"Well' mamma said. Two little valleys were beginning to grow between her eyes. That almost always meant. "I'll see."

And so it happened that the very next morning, on the early train, she and Tilly were whizzing and panting toward grandma's. The pair of lean, pale cheeks were all aglow with excitement. Every single minute they were getting nearer and nearer.— There! lots more telegraph poles had hurried by!

There had been no time to send word they were coming; and so they must take the old stage and go jouncing down the dusty road. The very last jounce landed them right into grandma's arms.

"The dear land!" grandma cried out. And then she got Tilly into her arms and cried over her, as grandmothers do.

"She's come down to fatten with the bossies, mother," said mamma, laughing. "Can she drink all the cream off the tip-top of your milk-pan?"

"Two pans—three, four pans!" cried grandpa's big voice behind them. And then there were more love-words with more periods after them.

The fattening began right away. It was dinner time; and at Tilly's place was the cunningest little tumbler, full to the brim of rich yellow cream. It was there at supper, too; and that time grandma slyly filled it up after each sip.

"We'll have those cheeks as round as oranges in a jiffy!" grandpa said.

"By to-morrow morning?" asked mamma, laughing down into Tilly's sober face.

"Wait and see," smiled dear grandma.

If they had known— But that is telling!

Tilly went to bed early, and woke up early. How astonished she was to find herself at grandma's, but, oh, dear me—not nearly as astonished as she was when she caught a glimpse of her face in the looking glass.

"Oh-h!" squealed Tilly.

She gave one more look and then went to find mamma.

"Mamma! mamma!" See me!" she shouted. "Look at my cheeks! They did grow fat in a night!"

And then it was mamma's turn to say "Oh-h!" She said it twice. For Tilly's cheeks were round as round could be. They stood out on both sides like big, soft puffs.

"Come with me, quick!" said mamma, with a little groan. And she hurried Tilly away to the kitchen.

She got a teaspoon and the vinegar-cruet, and poured out a little of the clear, amber fluid. "Drink it, dear," she said. And Tilly uttered a little scream. For the vinegar flew down her throat and then flew up again to her ears; and, oh! how it bit them.

"I was afraid so," cried mamma, sorrowfully. They were having them on our streets at home."

When grandma and grandpa came in, the vinegar bottle and Tilly's cheeks told everything.

"Mumps!" murmured grandma.

And that was how Tilly grew fat in one night. But to this day grandpa boasts that there's nothing in all the world like his Jersey cream for fattening folks up.

Daring Young Sky Travellers.

There is probably no more exciting sport than ballooning, and there is probably no one person that knows more about this kind of sky travel than Professor King, a well-known aeronaut, who has made nearly one hundred ascensions. Professor King, of course, looks upon ballooning not as a sport, but as a science. A reporter of the New York Herald was talking to him the other day and asked him if he had ever taken any young folks on any of his trips.

"Yes, I have," replied the Professor, "and I can tell you that they have lots more nerve than many grown people. Another thing. It has always been my experience that women have lots more genuine nerve and grit than men. I remember in one of my Western trips a young fellow about fourteen years old begged of me to let him go in the balloon. I tried my best to scare him out of it, but he wouldn't scare, and finally obtained his father's consent. We stuck a pretty stiff storm that time, but there was never a time when my young companion lost his head, and he learned more about ballooning in one trip than many would learn in twenty.

"While I was out at the World's Fair there was a young girl who used to sell catalogues who was very anxious to take an ascension. We started from the park about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and shortly after rising caught a current that carried us many miles out over Lake Michigan. I thought I would try and find out what kind of material I had with me, and I said a good many things that would scare most men, and asked her if she could swim, but she not only refused to be scared, but speculated on our probability of crossing the lake.

"A revenue cutter was sent out after us, but, of course, we knew nothing about that. Just after dark we caught a return current that took us sailing back toward shore. While we were still three miles out from the shore, the revenue cutter sighted us with a night glass and sent the captain's yawl after us. The man in command of the yawl caught hold of our drag rope and we towed the whole boat load into shore. Then I asked the young lady if she did not want to get out, but she said 'No,' and so we landed several miles inland without any trouble. One thing sure: You can depend upon it that young folks who have nerve have got all kinds; at least I have always found it so, and I would much rather have them in a balloon than any others."

along the track and they cheered the cars as they passed. Edgar I. Serrell, superintendent for the contractors, met the cars and accompanied them to the end of the line. The double track was completed as far as Terrill road and the excavation made for the second track the rest of the way.

Those who expected that Scotch Plains would turn out with some wild demonstrations of great joy at the arrival at last of the trolley, were sadly disappointed. A solitary American flag waved from a house near the terminal to mark the approbation of the villagers. But as one of the guests remarked: "Scotch Plains is asleep yet. It will take the trolley a little time to wake it up."

Then the hundred and fifty men climbed out of the cars and followed Col. Hine and Engineer VanEmburgh to Emery's hotel, where the good things awaited them. Two kegs of beer, sundry bottles of soft drinks and a variety of sandwiches and other eatables were awaiting them in the garden in the rear of the hotel. They drank success to the new line and spent a genial hour eating, drinking and talking together.

At 4:30 o'clock the guests gathered at the cars again and were photographed. Then came the ride homeward, while the people of Scotch Plains remained to talk over the great event.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

—Doane & Edsall have just received another shipment of new trunks, dress-suit cases and traveling bags, all to be marked at quick selling prices. They call special attention to their new and popular "specialty" shoes, as well as a good cheap grade.

SHAKE INTO YOUR SHOES

Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder. It cures painful, smarting, nervous feet and ingrowing nails, and instantly takes the sting out of corns and bunions. It's the greatest comfort discovery of the age. Allen's Foot-Ease makes tight or new shoes feel easy. It is a certain cure for sweating, callous and hot, tired, aching feet. Try it today. Sold by all druggists and shoe stores. By mail for 25c. in stamps. Trial package FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Prof. H. B. Mulford, of New Brunswick, will occupy the pulpit of Trinity Reformed church tomorrow morning and evening

—It is earnestly requested that every member of the Primary Teachers' Union be present at the meeting Monday afternoon next as business of importance will be considered.

—Arthur E. Crane, of Crozier Seminary, has been secured to address the Men's Rally at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 4:15 p. m. Swedish vocalists and instrumentalists will furnish music.

—George Kirch, the Liberty street grocer, whose buildings suffered from fire a few days ago, desires to publicly express his thanks and appreciation to the firemen for their excellent work.

—The 4 o'clock meeting at Reform Hall tomorrow afternoon will be conducted by J. Q. Miles, of this city. There will be good singing and speaking and a cordial invitation is extended to all interested.

—Agent Wm. M. Pangborn, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was called yesterday to kill an old and faithful horse owned for twenty-two years by Harry H. Moore, of 95 Grove street. The steed was unable to eat on account of his old age, and so Mr. Moore mercifully decided to have him put out of the way in a painless manner. Mr. Pangborn did the job in good shape. The animal was twenty-eight years of age.

UNIQUE DECORATIONS

The National Colors Used With Pretty Effect at Bonn's.

Several handsome displays are made by the merchants. The exhibit in the show windows of Bonn's millinery establishment perhaps, attracts as much attention as any. In the west window are artistically displayed the National colors, surrounding busts in wax drapped bunting of red, white and blue. Upon the head of one is a sailor hat and on the other a leghorn hat. The trimmings are of paper, the shade of the National colors. In the east window is a life size figure dressed to represent Columbia, who is holding aloft the stars and stripes. The effect is in good taste and creditable to the skill of the head trimmer of the establishment.

Reception to Graduates.

Last evening after the graduation exercises at St. Mary's Parochial School the graduates were gives a reception at the home of Miss Frances Hillman, valedictorian, West Seventh street. The principal feature was dancing, and at a late hour a bountiful collation was served to the guests and a general good time followed. A pleasing incident in connection with the graduation was the presentation to the graduates by Rev. Father Smyth of gold class pins, which they wore at the exercises.

A Patriotic Service.

Tomorrow evening at the First Presbyterian church there will be a patriotic musical service under the direction of Organist Miller.

Pastor Herring will preach a sermon from the subject "The Warrior with an Unblemished Reputation."

Counsellor John H. VanWinkle and family, of Duer street, left today for Atlantic Highlands, where they will remain until after July 4th.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

BURNED IN A STORE.

ward the back of the store. In his heroic efforts to save the woman Mr. Curtiss was severely burned about the hands and arms.

It is believed that the accident was brought about by Mrs. O'Sullivan stepping upon a snapping match while in the store. Another theory is advanced that Mrs. O'Sullivan's dress, which was en train, had caught up a stub of a lighted cigar in the street before entering the store and that her dress had caught fire from that, the fire have been smoldering for some time before bursting into a flame.

When Mrs. O'Sullivan left the Hunterston hotel with Mrs. Coleman she wore a light organdie costume with a leghorn hat.

Mrs. O'Sullivan is the wife of Sylvester J. O'Sullivan, vice-president of the New York Bonding Company, of New York. She has been a guest of Hotel Hunterston for about a month. Mrs. O'Sullivan is a beautiful woman, of the brunette type, tall and of fine physique.

When Mrs. O'Sullivan arrived at the hospital she was put under the influence of morphine, and the charred remains of her garments removed, showing a horrible condition of the flesh. It was badly burned, with the exception of one arm and part of the face, from the ankles up to the top of her head, the hair also being badly singed and burned. It is not thought that she breathed any of the hot air from the flames. The doctors do not believe that she will survive the injuries.

Rumors circulated to the effect that Mrs. O'Sullivan's dress became ignited from an oil or gasolene stove are without foundation. No stove or lighted lamp is to be found in that of the store and none was there at the time of the accident to Mrs. O'Sullivan.

Glorious Excursion to Mauch Chunk.

A delightful way to spend the Fourth of July will be to join the merry crowd of pleasure seekers that will journey from New York and intermediate stations on that day for Mauch Chunk and, once there, enjoy a ride over the Switchback gravity railroad and then spend a few hours exploring the wonders and beauties of Glen Onoko, the most attractive of nature's handi work in this region. A most picturesque ride is that from Plainfield to Mauch Chunk, the distance being 95 miles. The scenery to be enjoyed from the car window includes mountain, river, stream, valley and farm, and so nicely are the views blended as to make one realize that the Jersey Central is truly a scenic road. The lunch car feature has been discontinued. The cost of round trip adult tickets is $1.50; children, $1.13. The Switchback tickets are 50 cents extra if purchased on train. Excursion arrives back about 8 p. m., in time for any holiday celebration that may be arranged. Tickets and full information at company's station.

Bound Brook Will Celebrate.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, July 1.—Bound Brook will, as usual, observe the Fourth of July in a patriotic manner. The celebration will be in charge of the Washington Camp Ground Association and will include exercises in the afternoon and fireworks at night.

MRS. O'SULLIVAN'S INJURIES WERE FATAL.

Husband at Her Bedside When She Passed Away.

HER DEATH WAS PAINLESS.

LAST RITES OF THE CHURCH ADMINISTERED BY FATHER WESTMAN.

Funeral Services Will be Held at St. Frances Xavier Church on West Sixteenth Street, New York, Wednesday Morning at 11 O'clock—Guests at Hotel Hunterston Passed a Sad Sunday.

Mrs. Sylvester O'Sullivan, who was so frightfully burned Saturday while in the store of Crosby & Hill, died at the Muhlenberg Hospital about six o'clock that evening. She was conscious to the last. Her husband had been notified of the accident and arrived about 2 o'clock. He was with her when she died, as was also Mrs. Coleman, wife of the proprietor of the Hotel Hunterston. About 4 o'clock Mrs. O'Sullivan was given an opiate and she soon fell asleep and so passed away apparently without any pain and without a struggle.

As soon as it was apparent that the fortunate woman could not survive her terrible injuries Rev. Father Westman was summoned to offer spiritual consolation to the dying woman. So, in the presence of her husband and her friend Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. O'Sullivan was anointed and the last rites of the Catholic administered to her.

Previous to falling asleep Mrs. O'Sullivan had expressed a desire to place her arms about her husband's neck. With the assistance of Mrs. Coleman she did so, using her left arm, as that member had not been touched by the flames. The scene between the dying woman and her husband was very affecting. When Mr. O'Sullivan was finally led from the bedside of his dying wife he appeared to be in a dazed condition.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Sullivan had been married about seven years. They formerly resided in New York on West Forty-seventh street, just east of the Windsor Hotel, which was destroyed by fire last April. The couple were thoroughly devoted, and Mr. O'Sullivan seemed to fairly idolize his wife. Mrs. O'Sullivan was born in Spain. Her father was an Englishman and her mother of Italian descent She was a woman of remarkable beauty and a person of lovable disposition. She had made many friends about the hotel and was the life of the young society people there.

When a Press reporter called at the Hotel Hunsterton yesterday he was unable to see Mr. O'Sullivan, who had denied himself to all callers. During the day many telegrams of condolence were received by Mr. O'Sullivan from prominent citizens in New York and other places.

The hop which was to have been given at the hotel Saturday night was omitted, and there was an air of solemnity about the house all of yesterday. Every guest who had known Mrs. O'Sullivan, felt deeply grieved at the sad affair and any semblance of hilarity was frowned upon. In the death of this beautiful woman the guests felt that they had sustained a great blow and this feeling so worked upon them that many absented themselves from their meals.

The funeral of Mrs. O'Sullivan will be held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock from St. Frances Xavier Roman Catholic church, West Sixteenth street, New York. Rev. Father Denny will officiate. There will be a Requiem mass. It is expected that a number of the guests of the Hotel Hunsterton will attend the funeral. The funeral arrangements are in charge of A. M. Runyon & Son.

MAD DOG AT SCOTCH PLAINS.

A Mongrel Cur Bit Several Persons—Killed With a Baseball Bat.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 3.—A mad dog ran amuck in Scotch Plains yesterday and made it lively for pedestrians on the streets for a few minutes. The dog was a mongrel stranger and suddenly appeared on Park avenue snapping and frothing at the mouth. The first person it came in contact with was Arthur Chapman. The dog immediately snapped at his arm and laid its teeth deep into the flesh Chapman hurried to the home of County Physician Westcott and had the wound cauterized. The dog made several more attempts to bite people, and succeed in scratching the flesh of Lynus Walpole and the young son of John Miller. By this time John Thys appeared upon the scene with a baseball bat, and succeeded, after a hard struggle, in dispatching the life of the brute.

WOULD BAR TROLLEY.

STRONG OPPPOSITION AGAINST ARLINGTON AVENUE EXTENSION.

Several Big Property Owners do Not Want Street Railway on the Avenue—Engaged a Lawyer to Fight it.

The Arlington avenue extension of the trolley which has been painted with such rosy hues may not be realized after all. It has been discovered that there is likely to be a strong protest from a number of property-owners along that avenue.

Lawyer Winfield S. Angleman has been retained by some of the largest owners of land along that route and arrangements are now being made to fight the introduction of the trolley through that avenue. It is claimed that the Board of Education had no right to grant a right of way through the avenue pass the school, as they do not represent the property and are only acting for the people at large who do own it.

Other objections to the trolley are that the street is too narrow and that it would damage the property very much to have a trolley go through a street that is so narrow. The objectors are determined that the trolley shall not pass through the street and they say that they will carry their objections to the highest court to win their point.

GUESTS AT THE HUNTERSTON.

Bright Prospects for a Successful Season at This Handsome Hotel.

There is every indication that the handsome Hotel Hunterston at Netherwood, will have a prosperous season. Already there are a large number of guests at the house and a number are expected this week. However many of those who are comfortably quartered there have made arrangements to remain through the season. Among the guests are the following: Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Gallant, Geo. V. N. Baldwin, Samuel Garre, Dr. Robert Hunter, Mrs. E. P. Holbrook, New York; Dr. Ernest Howard, Mr. and Mrs. James P. King, Philadelphia, Miss Virginia Swayne, daughter of Gen. Anson Swayne; Miss Humphrey, daughter of Gen Humphrey, Mrs. L. T. Morris and family, Col. and Mrs. C. J. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Kane, Fred L. Kane, Jr., Miss Kane, Dr. Richard Kalish, Mrs. James Kalish, New York; Miss Williston, Port Townsend; Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Misch, Lyman N. Jones, Joseph N. Jones, New York; Mrs. N. J. Applegarth, Miss Applegarth, Baltimore, Md.

KNOCKED A WOMAN DOWN.

Disgraceful Fight Occurred at Scotch Plains Last Night.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 3.—The fear of the staid citizens of Scotch Plains that the introduction of the trolley into their midst would be accompanied by an influx of tough element from Plainfield was realized without much delay. The trolley cars commenced running Saturday, and the same evening a party of men and women from Plainfield went to the 'Plains to carouse. After becoming intoxicated a man and woman of the party became involved in a quarrel, which ended in the man knocking the woman off her feet with a stunning blow. Then several others mixed up in the trouble, and for several minutes there was a battle royal. Before officers could arrive on the scene, however, the disputants left the town on a trolley car. The citizens of the town are clamoring for the establishment of the lock-up which they authorized the town committee to purchase at the last election.

$20,000 BETWEEN THEM.

John Kean Said to be Willing to Sell Trolley Interests for $300,000.

The North Jersey Enterprise says it has been informed upon excellent authority that the Riker syndicate has offered Senator Kean $280,000 for his street railroad in Elizabeth. On the other hand Mr. Kean has offered to sell the road for $300,000. Both sides are firm and neither will split the difference.

This apparently leaves the Westfield and Elizabeth Railway Company only a small sum to expend in getting through Roselle borough. They can afford $20,000, but if compelled to go any higher it would seem as a cold blooded business proposition that it would be better to make their peace with John Kean.

Meanwhile, nothing has been accomplished by the Council. Nor is it likely that anything will be accomplished before the middle of July.

EPISCOPALIANS NOW WORSHIP TOGETHER.

Congregations Now United and in Charge of Rector Downey.

PLAIN TALK TO HIS PEOPLE.

IMPLORES HIS PARISHIONERS TO HAVE CONFIDENCE IN HIM.

In Yesterday's Sermon the New Minister Admonishes All to Do Their Duty and Recognize the Fact That He is the Spiritual Adviser and the Responsible Head of the Church.—Large Attendance.

The consolidation of the parishes of Holy Cross and the Church of the Redeemer went into effect yesterday. The Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, who was in charge of the latter parish, is now installed as rector of Holy Cross. He preached to his new charge for the first yesterday morning. There was a large and representative congregation. The processional hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," sung by the choir with much animation, was also joined in heartily by the congregation.

The rector's sermon was one of his best efforts and seemed to inspire the congregation to close attention. The text was from Hebrews xii, 11.

Comparisons were made with reference to the Olympian games and the contrast of the struggle to properly win the crown offered by Christ to all who sought Him and obeyed His commands. In speaking of the future of the parish Rev. M. Downey said in part:

"There is a broad field here for work and there's great room for growth and expansion. The members of the congregation should evince a greater love for the church than has been apparent in the past. Where the people were happily united by bonds of friendship better results were accomplished and the parish became stronger in catholic faith. A happy consummation could be realized if every man and woman would rise to the true sense of the situation."

The rector said he wanted no misunderstanding regarding his position among them. He was there to do his duty and he expected to perform it to the best of his ability, and he looked to the members of his parish to perform theirs. "I am here as your rector," he continued, "and as that rector I purpose to discharge the duties of my position as I think my duty dictates. I have been consecrated to this parish and to this people and have no hobbies and no prejudices. I shall stand or fall by own acts The rector is the spiritual head of the church; while the vestry controls the temporal.

"I am here to do the greatest good to the greatest number—here to save and help you. Trust me and I'll trust you. By putting faith in your rector you will give him confidence. If you have any thing to say to him be not ashamed to go to him and say it to his face, and not behind his back. Let us be friends—brothers. No one will do more for you than your rector who will strive his utmost to maintain peace and harmony. As Christians we should all strive for the salvation of souls.

"Work for the church and not for me personally or for any one man, for Christ alone is our leader and to Him alone should we look up to. The future success of this parish lies in your hands. Are your going to help me, not alone by your prayers, but also by your efforts? I believe you will. You will find no one more ready than I to sympathize with in your sorrows or rejoice with you in your joys."

In conclusion Rev. Mr. Downey said that his best and last wish was that all might receive God's brightest and richest blessing. He surely believed they would if they would cooperate and work together for Christ, the church and His people.

The rector's words made a deep impression upon the congregation and were apparently favorably received. At the close of the services a number of the congregation remained to shake hands with Mr. Downey and assure him of their approval of his words and to express to him their desire to give him the support he asks and the encouragement that is justly due him.

Dr. Coles' Gift to New Orleans University.

Dr. J. Ackerman Coles, of Scotch Plains, in his desire to promote a love for art, has made a gift to Tulane University, New Orleans, of a life size portrait bust of Cicero. It was cast at the Barbedienne foundry, in Paris, and is a copy of the original in the Louvre.

SUMMIT IS BADLY SWEPT BY FLAMES

Heart of the Business Section is Wiped Out.

LOSS WILL BE $150,000.

FIREMEN SEEMED UNABLE TO STAY THE FLAMES.

Inadequate Water Pressure and Unskilled Firemen Unable to Stop the Fire Till Fourteen Stores Were in Ashes—Origin Thought to be Incendiary—Forty Families Are Rendered Homeless.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Summit, N. J., July 3.—Inadequate water pressure and the necessity of depending principally on men unskilled in the work of fire fighting resulted early yesterday morning in the most disastrous conflagration in the history of Summit, and one of the most disastrous that ever occurred in Union county. The fire broke out in Union avenue, in the heart of the business section of Summit, and an entire block of fourteen large stores was totally destroyed.

It is suspected that the fire was of incendiary origin, as the block in which it occurred has been on fire five times in the last year. Forty families were rendered homeless, and the business of the place is seriously interfered with.

The fire originated in a barn in the rear of a row of houses at about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. About 100 persons who lived in the apartments over the stores were driven to the streets in their night clothes, and saved practically nothing. There were several narrow escapes and gallant rescues by firemen and citizens, but no one was seriously injured.

The burned buildings have long been looked upon as fire traps, and very little insurance was written on them by the insurance companies. The fire has caused a great deal of anxiety in this place, as the residents fear a return of a siege of incendiary fires, such as threw it into a state of panic at about this time last year.

In every church here yesterday appeals were made by the pastors for contributions of clothing, food and money to relieve the distress. The loss is estimated at $150,000.

CAN'T BE IN TWO PLACES.

THE STATE NAVAL RESERVES ARE IN A QUANDARY.

They Have Made Arrangements to Come to Plainfield, But Are Wanted Also in Newark Tomorrow Morning

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, July 3.—The members of the Newark Division of the Naval Reserves are in a dilemma. They have two celebrations on hand for tomorrow, and both come practically at the same time. As it is impossible for sailors, any more than landsmen, to be obiquitous, one celebration or the other will not have the tars present.

Some days ago the Reserves were notified that they were to go to Plainfield to take part in the Independence Day jollifications there. There is to be a parade and a general good time. It turns out that the Spanish cannon from Morro Castle that is to grace the lower end of Military Park until such time as the Dons rise and take it back again, is to be dedicated tomorrow morning. This ceremony takes place at 9 o'clock, and the Plainfield celebration is to begin at 10. Most of the members of the Newark Division who propose to attend it will leave Newark on a train a few minutes after 9, so they will not be at the cannon ceremonies.

Lieutenant Goldingay, commander of the Newark Division, has said that he feared it would be impossible to get the men to participate in the Newark celebration, since they had all made there plans to go to Plainfield. The fact that there is to be no parade in Newark and that the men are wanted only to stand about the cannon in uniforms while the exercises go on, may have something to do with the failure of the sailors to respond to the call. Lieutenant Goldingay has done his utmost, however, to get out as large a delegation as possible, and has sent out notices to the men directing all that are willing to participate in the ceremonies to assemble at the corner of Orange and Broad street in blue dress uniforms with leggings.

Special Meeting Tonight.

There will be a special meeting of John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans, this evening and a full attendance of the members is requested. The change to this evening from tomorrow evening is made on account of the celebration tomorrow.

GOOD GOLF PLAYING ON GOLF LINKS

Scores in Competition for McCutchen Cup.

FINE DAY FOR THE SPORT.

MEN'S FOURSOMES PLAYED ON HILLSIDE COURSE.

Arthur Peck, C. S. Roome and J. T. Scott Carried off Honors for the Afternoon on Park Club Links—Glenny and Wadsworth Won the Silver Cups Offered in Men's Foursomes at Hillside Links.

It was simply ideal weather for golfing Saturday afternoon and there was a large attendance at the links of the Park Golf Club in consequence. The course was rather dry, perhaps, despite the recent heavy rains, but it was in fair condition and plenty were out to enjoy it.

Most of the members who spent the afternoon on the links did not enter their scores for the Mrs. C. W. McCutchen cup. Only seven were recorded and the honors of the afternoon went mostly to the younger set. Careful play and a fat handicap set Arthur Peck at the front of the line. Clarence S. Roome's gross score was one stroke less, but a smaller handicap put him second.

J. T. Scott scored a point in the competition for the cup for the first time. Usually he has not been entering his scores in the competition. Saturday, however, he was playing in good form and nearly beat Roome out for second place in the day's play.

E. T. Douglass, Meredith Dryden, Gus Faber and the other players of the club, who have been so prominent in the race for the cup, were not present. G. W. Cooley was, however, but did not record his score.

There were a number of visitors at the course, some of whom played around. They found the clubhouse a delightful place and the view from it a charming one. Tea was served as usual, Mrs. J. C. Peck and Mrs. J. H. Howell presiding.

The scores for the McCutchen cup were as follows:

| | Gross. | Handicap. | Net. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Arthur Peck | 109 | 17 | 92 |
| Clarence S. Roome | 108 | 10 | 98 |
| James T. Scott | 124 | 25 | 99 |
| H. D. Hibbard | 122 | 18 | 104 |
| G. W. Faber | 113 | 3 | 110 |
| C. W. McCutchen | 143 | 30 | 113 |
| W. J. Buttfield | 149 | 0 | 119 |

The smallest crowd of the season visited the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club course Saturday afternoon and there was comparatively little interest. The fact that so many of the members are out of town enjoying their vacations accounted in a large measure for the small attendance. The event of the day was the men's foursomes for active members only. Eighteen holes, medal play. Twenty entries were received, but there were two players who failed to put in an appearance, F. O. Reinhart and J. H. P. Wharton, Jr. Two silver cups were offered as prizes by the club and the winners were W. L. Glenney and Willard Wadsworth, with a net score of 85. There were several good scores made by the contestants. The course was in excellent condition, making play a pleasure. The absence of any social features about the clubhouse made things appear very tame. A few of the members remained in the evening for dinner and enjoyed the cool breezes. The scores made in the men's foursomes are as follows:

| | Gross. | Handicap. | Net. |
|---|---|---|---|
| W. L. Glenny. Willard Wadsworth | 87 | 2 | 85 |
| J. Whitney Baker. Howard Beebe | 94 | 6 | 88 |
| W. T. Kaufman. F. C. Ard | 100 | 11 | 89 |
| F. C. Talmadge. G. A. Chapman | 102 | 13 | 89 |
| A. Henderson. M. S. Ackerman | 109 | 17 | 92 |
| T. Bushmore. W. F. Murray | 110 | 18 | 92 |
| Reeve Stockton. C. W. Fisk | 100 | 6 | 94 |
| C. W. Wharton. W. Baker | 110 | 12 | 94 |
| Morris Dumont. A. R. Fisk | 105 | 4 | 101 |

Saturday afternoon there was an exhibition at the clubhouse the handsome silver cup offered by the Park Golf Club, that is to be contested for tomorrow on their links between all active and associate members over sixteen years of age of both the Hillside and Park Clubs.

Appointed an Aide-de-Camp.

Peter D. Meyers, of Post No. 187, G. A. R., of Brooklyn, and the father of Patrolman Nicholas Meyers, of this city, has just been appointed an aide-de-camp on the staff of Col. W. C. Johnson, who is acting commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.

Preached in Trinity Church

Prof. Henry D. B. Mulford, of Rutgers' College, New Brunswick, preached very acceptably to large congregations yesterday morning and evening in Trinity Reformed church.

MISSING LINK IN ROAD.

LINCOLN BOULEVARD IS NOW OPEN FOR TRAVEL.

It Makes a Continuous Hard Roadbed Between Hunterdon County and Jersey City—Parallels the Central Railroad.

The missing link in a continuous macadamized roadbed from White House, Hunterdon county, to Jersey City, is furnished in the opening of the Lincoln boulevard, the avenue running east from Main street, Bound Brook, through New Bound Brook to Lincoln, a distance of 4,000 feet. It is paved from curb to curb and runs parallel with the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Saturday afternoon a number of local dignitaries met at the office of S. D. Drake, in Lincoln, and drove over the Lincoln boulevard. At the new bridge over Ambrose creek a party from Bound Brook were met, and impromptu speeches delivered by Mayor Drake, of Lincoln; Mayor Brokaw, of Bound Brook; W. B. R. Mason, editor of the Bound Brook Chronicle; W. D. R. Wade, of New Bound Brook; W. W. Smalley and others.

The new road will be accepted by the township committee of Piscataway. It will shorten the distance between this city and Bound Brook.

UNCLE SAM WANTS A MAN.

Civil Service Examination to Be Held for Clerk-Carrier.

The United States Civil Service Commission has ordered that an examination be held by its local board in this city Saturday, Aug. 21, 1899, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m., for the grade of clerk-carrier in the postal service. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with John P. Whitenack, secretary board of examiners, at the local postoffice, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business July 25th. Applications should be filed promptly in order that time may remain for correction if necessary.

The Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens of the United States who may desire to enter the service, without regard to race or to their political or religious affiliations. All such citizens are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

Application blanks, full instructions and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions can be secured of Mr. Whitenack.

A HANDSOME PRESENTATION.

Former Superintendent Clark Receives a Silver Tea Set.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Lakewood, July 3.—W. V. Clark, who recently resigned the position of superintendent of the Long Branch division of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, was taken by surprise by a number of his old railroad associates and friends Saturday night at his home in Lakewood, and presented with a beautiful and costly silver tea set as an evidence of the esteem he is held in.

The presentation speech was made by Wm. Montgomery, master mechanic of the division, in a neat and complimentary manner. Though completely surprised by the affair, Mr. Clark was able to respond in a clever and pleasant way, after which a sociable time was spent by the party. Mr. Clark was one of the most popular men in the Central service, and there are many regrets among those working under him that he has decided to retire from the service.

Will This Fire Ever Stop?

The fire department was called upon to visit the ruins of the Brady icehouse on West Front street, near Grant avenue, this morning at 2:42 o'clock. The watchman at the Potter Press Works noticed a blaze there and sent in an alarm from Box 45. Fire had broken out again in the huge heap of sawdust. A single stream extinguished the fire. This is the fifth time the department has been called out to extinguish flames that have broken out in these ruins.

Did Not Have a Long Run.

Screams of fire at 10:45 o'clock, Saturday avenue, aroused the men in fire headquarters on East Second street. They found a pile of old lumber belonging to Louis Willett, in the rear of the residence of Albert Pruden, next door to headquarters, all ablaze. There was a strong odor of kerosene around the fire. It was soon extinguished with buckets of water. The fire was discovered by Mrs. S. R. Robinson, of Watchung avenue, who gave the alarm.

ARE DISARMED BY TROOPS

Carterville Ill., Placed Under Military Rule by Order of Acting Governor.

BOTH SIDES WERE ARMED

Union and Non-Union Miners Riot and Cause the Militia to Be Called Into Action.

A Reign of Terror Reduced to Quietness by the Arrival of Troops—Winchesters and Other Firearms Taken From the Rioters—Several Persons Badly Wounded.

Carterville, Ill., July 3.—The State troops ordered out by Acting Governor Walter Warder to suppress the riot between the union and non-union miners here arrived just in time to prevent serious trouble, as both sides were armed with Winchesters and had commenced using them with telling effect. Several of the non-union men were seriously wounded before the troops were on the scene, and a lot of trouble would have resulted had their arrival been delayed an hour or so longer.

The whole town was at once placed under military protection, and both of the hostile factions were disarmed by order of the commanding officer, who had orders from the Acting Governor to pursue this course. There is still much bitter feeling between the union and non-union men, and during the past twenty-four hours there have been more than a dozen fist fights and wordy wars where these men have met in the street.

There will probably be no more shooting done by either side as long as the troops remain in the city, as they have had all their firearms taken from them, which is a great relief to the people who are not mixed up in the controversy. For two days no one was safe on the streets for fear of being shot down, and the change in affairs has caused a more quiet and contented feeling to prevail.

Burned an Entire Village.

Carbondale, Ill., July 3.—Union City, a small town built and occupied by union miners near here, was burned after a battle between the union men and imported negro miners, who were fired upon at Fredonia.

Seeking revenge for the killing of a woman and the wounding of twenty men in their party, the negroes raided Union City. They fired on the homes of the union men, who replied. The battle lasted until the union men were driven from their homes and took refuge in a clump of timber close to the village.

The non-union men at once applied the torch, and the village was destroyed. The negroes then advanced on the woods, where the union miners were concealed, and kept up a fusillade for several hours. No lives were lost, but three of the men were seriously wounded before hostilities ceased.

More Bandits Arrested.

Havana, July 3.—Ten more members of Acosta's gang of bandits at Guanajay have been arrested and another has been killed by the rurol guard, making two dead. The citizens of Guanajay have protested to General Lee against the killing of the bandits. They are glad that the band has been broken up, but are opposed to the methods which were in vogue during the Spanish regime, when the Civil Guard had a habit of killing men and invariably excusing the act by saying that they did so because the men resisted arrest.

A Check For $5,352,984.

Philadelphia, July 3.—A check for $5,352,894 has been received by the City Treasurer representing the payment of Drexel & Co., which firm, with Brown Brothers & Co., of this city, and Harvey Fisk & Sons, of New York, received the award of the loan of $5,600,000, one-half of the city loan of $11,200,000, to be expended in municipal improvements. This is the largest amount of money ever paid into the City Treasury at one time, by checks or otherwise, since 1879.

Children's Evidence Against Father.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 3.—The evidence of his seven and nine-year-old daughters will probably hang Frank Newhart, of Edwardsville, who killed his wife last Tuesday. Newhart is now suffering from a severe bullet wound in his side. He says his wife shot him, and that to save his life he killed her. His children, at the inquest, however, said he shot their mother, and when he saw policemen coming shot himself. The little ones, who were hiding under a table, saw the tragedy.

Sports Flocking to Buffalo.

Buffalo, July 3.—Sports from all parts of the country have been arrivhere for the past two days to witness the battle which takes place here to-to-night between Kid Lavigne, of Michigan, and rank Erne, of buffalo, for the lightweight championship of the world. Betting on the result is about on even terms.

The Dolphin at Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., July 3.—The despatch boat Dolphin, Lieutenant-Commander Southerland, has arrived here from Washington with Charles H. Allen, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, aboard.

Killed by a Barcelona Mob.

Barcelona, July 3.—At the opening of the Municipal Council here a crowd outside the building fired upon the Councilors, killing three of them and wounding nine others.

Coinage of the Mints in June.

Washington, July 3.—The coinage of the mints in the month of June was valued at $10,478,903, of which $8,159,630 was gold, $2,155,018 silver and $164,255 minor.

Gen. Ovenshine Ill With Fever.

Manila, July 3.—Gen. Overshine is in the hospital suffering with fever. Gen. Grant is commanding his troops on the south line.

YELLOW FEVER IN MEXICO

Dr. Cofer Forms a System to Prevent Its Spread.

Austin, Tex., July 3.—Advices have reached here to the effect that Dr. L. E. Cofer, of the United States Marine Hospital service, is making a thorough investigation of the yellow fever situation in Southern Mexico.

The spread of the disease at Vera Cruz and other places, including many on the lines of railways between that point and the City of Mexico, has caused much alarm as to the danger of the contagion reaching the United States through Texas border points and Gulf ports.

Dr. Cofer has arranged a system whereby it is expected that a perfect check will be kept on all passengers from infected localities and their entrance to the United States prevented. Marine Hospital Service Inspectors in Mexico report that there is absolutely no system of quarantine enfored in any part of that country against yellow fever.

The fact that the City of Mexico is located at an altitude of 8,000 feet is all that prevents the disease from obtaining a foothold and becoming epidemic here. The Texas health Department will establish an Inspector at Vera Cruz. He will report daily the departure of all passengers for the United States by vessel and railway.

50,000 Workmen Are Idle.

Pittsburg, July 3—All except four tin plate mills in the country have closed, and nearly 50,000 workmen are now as serious as it has been painted, and the prediction was made that the scale would be signed and all the mills resume operations within ten days or two weeks. The headquarters of the trust is in Chicago, but it is known here that the concern is willing to grant an increase in wages and will do so soon.

It is the custom to shut down about this time each year for repairs and stock taking, and when the joint scale committee failed to agree at the recent Chicago conference the Amalgamated Association's representatives unavoidably played into the trust's hands by asking for a postponement. Had the scale been signed the plants would probably have been closed within a few weeks, and the trust was not inconvenienced by shutting down earlier.

Big Indian Dance.

Price, Utah, July 3.—The White River Uncompaghre and Uintah Utes are dancing at White Rock's agency. They are about 2,000 strong. The band of which Old Sowowic is the leader numbers fully 1,000. They are camped in a bunch about a mile from the agency. Among them are some 350 bucks, followers of Old Sowowic, who says he will lead them back to their lands in Colorado when the dance is finished and the Green River has gone down so it will permit of their taking ponies and squaws across. This year the dance is known as the harvest dance, Indian Agent Myton having forbidden the sun dance.

Ironworkers' Scale Signed.

Pittsburg, July 3.—The new scale year of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers began with a better record for the union than has been made for more than a dozen years. Nearly all of the union firms have signed the scale and there will be no difficulty in securing the signatures of those who have not yet signed. The companies not recognizing the union are not expected to sign the scale, and this is where trouble is anticipated and where the trouble that has already arisen had its starting point.

Death in a River Fight.

Toledo, July 3.—A row between several colored and white men and women occurred in the Maumee River, near the Riverside Park boathouse, and in plain view of hundreds of persons. As a result a colored man, Minert Lewis, was drowned, and another, Fred Lawson, is a fugitive with a charge of murder against him.

Chicago Strike Postponed.

Chicago, July 3.—There will be no general strike of packing house employes at present. The feeling prevailed at a mass meeting of the employes that the time was not yet ripe and that the interests of the men would be best subserved by waiting until an organzation could be perfected.

HUNDREDS ARE DROWNED.

Appaling Reports are Received From the Flooded Districts of Texas.

HAVOC ON EVERY HAND.

A Careful Estimate Places the Number of People Drowned at Upwards of Three Hundred.

Rivers Continue to Rise and Their Currents Are Filled With Houses, Barns, and Dead Stock—Fortunes Are Swept Away—Rescue of Families Continues Day and Night.

Dallas, Texas, July 3.—Reports from the flooded districts of Texas continue to pour in here, and with every one received is an addition to the terrible calamity that has befallen the unfortunate people of this State, and the present gravity of the situation is almost beyond description. Heavy loss of life is reported on every hand, and the very lowest estimates place the number of drowned, those killed by cyclone, collapse of buildings and floating wreckage, at upwards of 300, and the end is not yet. Rains which have been falling in torrents for several days still continue in many places, and everywhere the floods are increasing.

A telephone message just received from Calvert, which is the first news received from that place in two days, says:

"The situation here and all over Robertson county is terrible. The rain has poured in torrents for three days and nights, and more than $1,000,000 worth of property has been destroyed and from thirty to fifty lives have been lost in this county alone. Names cannot be given now, because everything is confusion.

"We have been unable to tell the outside world our condition, because all kinds of communication have been cut off. Railroads, wagon roads, telegraph and telephone lines alike have been demolished.

"The Big and Little Brazos Rivers have united and are at this place five miles wide.

"Part of Calvert is entirely under water, and the citizens are stopping in the upper stories of the highest buildings. Fifteen persons have been drowned in the suburbs. From thirty to fifty have been drowned in the country districts.

"People here have been constructing rude boats and rafts and have been sailing out for miles to rescue the persons who have had their homes swept away and who are clinging to any object within reach. Hundreds are in the tops of the houses.

"A boat with fourteen refugees has just arrived here. One of the negroes, in his excitement, caught hold of a limb of a tree and upset the whole party. Two were drowned and the others are clinging to the boat and other objects. A party has gone to their rescue.

"Railroad property in Robertson county is damaged hundreds of thousands of dollars. It will take fifteen to twenty days of good weather to get into condition to resume operations. Every bridge and very culvert is destroyed, and also every bridge on the public roads. More than fifty bridges of various kinds are gone.

"A property loss of $1,000,000 in the county is a low estimate. Crops are ruined and thousands of people will be homeless. The waters are higher here than ever known before. A report from Waco says the Brazos is rising there again, and this means more death and destruction in this vicinity, as that additional rise will soon be on us."

The Houston and Texas Central Railroad operator in Hammond, twenty miles north of Calvert, says the reports reaching there from the surrounding country are appalling. He reports that horses, cattle, outbuildings, grain, etc., are floating in the rushing waters across what was two days ago a ripe farming section. It is impossible to get out of town far enough to obtain details of the disaster. It is feared it will be terrible, but the extent will not be approximately known until the water subsides.

Telegraphic communications for a vast scope of country south of Dallas is paralyzed, and the only available source of news gathering—the long distance telephone lines—is badly crippled. All wires north of Waco are lost. Water in that section was within less than a foot of the wires twelve hours ago, and it has probably gone over them now.

The deluged section of the State is confined to the delta lying between the Trinity River on the east and the Colorado River on the west, and extending from the Texas Pacific Railroad on the north to the Gulf on the south, one of the richest and most productive portions of the State.

Navasota reports waters still rising, crops being destroyed, stock drowned and properous planters made poor in a day or night. The Brazos River is out of its banks. The Navasota River has submerged all the cotton and corn and is higher than the Brazos, with a mill race current.

Pitiful appeals for help have come from Mumford. Boats have attempted to reach that place, but it is feared the effort will prove futile.

Mellcan says that persons who have just arrived from Clay Centre, in Burleson county, say the Brazos River was as high as in 1885, and the current was filled with farmhouses, horses, cows, dogs and chickens.

Oakwood, the principal cemetery of Waco, located on a bluff of the river, is threatened with destruction. Graves are sinking and monuments toppling, and apprehensions are felt that the bluff is undermined and will slough off into the current of the river.

Nearly every house in Brenham is flooded, and damage to property in the county will run into hundreds of thousands.

It is impossible to accurately estimate the losses in crops, railroad and other property, but that it will reach $5,000,000 is not doubted by the most conservative, and it may largely exceed that amount.

NTIVES CAUSE TROUBLE.

Busy Digging Trenches and Otherwise Preparing For Further Hostilities.

MAKE A DEMONSTRATION

One American Killed and Three Others Are Wounded in a Skirmish With the Filipinos.

General Lawton, Prof. Worcester and Col. Denby Visit Las Pinas With Object of Appointing a Mayor and Establishing a Civil Government—Will Visit Other Towns Also.

Manila, July 3.—Gen. Lawton, with Col. Denby and Prof. Worcester of the American Philippines Commission, are visiting Las Pinas with the object of appointing a Mayor and beginning the establishment of civil governments in the captured cities of the Cavite province.

The natives continue their work of digging intrenchmetns in the neighborhood of San Fernando. The enemy made a demonstration in which one man of the 17th Infantry was killed and three others wounded. The Filipinos continue to cut the wires, putting a stop to communication. Firing in the distance indicates increasing activity on the part of the enemy.

Honors Spanish Officers.

Manila, July 3.—The commission of three Spanish officers who entered the Filipinos' lines a fortnight ago to make a final attempt to arrange for the release of the Spanish prisoners, have not returned. Their absence has occasioned alarm. Reports come from Manila, however, that they were received by Aguinaldo at Taraio and entertained hospitably. It is said that Aguinaldo gave a banquet in their honor, all the leading families of the native leader's present Cabinet attending; hence the Spaniards in Manila hope that the mission of the commissioners will be successful.

Volunteers Leaving Manila.

Manila, July 3.—The United States transport Hancock has sailed for home with 740 men of the Nebraska Regiment and 250 men of the Utah Artillery. About thirty of the Nebraskans and twenty-five of the Utahs remain here, a majority of them re-enlisting. The Nebraskan troops have been living on board the ship this week awaiting the Utah's readiness for departure. The soldiers enjoyed transport life immensely after months spent in the trenches.

More Transports For Manila.

Washington, July 3.—The Solace has sailed from Mare Island for Manila. The Monongahela has arrived at Plymouth. The Dixie, which was loaned to the War Department some time ago, has been returned to the navy. The War Department has chartered the steamer Tartar, now at Vancouver, B. C., to be used as a transport between San Francisco and Manila. She is very large—capable of carrying 1,500 men. It is expected that she will be at San Francisco in five days, and be ready to sail for Manila by July 20, perhaps carrying the Nineteenth Infantry.

Lawton Goes to Las Pinas.

Washington, July 3.—Las Pinas, where Gen. Lawton and Commissioner Denby and Worcester have gone to establish a civil government, is about ten miles south of Manila and six miles north of Imus, where Gen. Wheaton is stationed with about 4,000 American troops. It was in the vicinity of Las Pinas that the natives met the worst defeat since the beginning of the war. Gen. Otis's reports of the battle there stated that out of 4,000 men the natives loss was one-third, including killed, wounded, and captured. The American victory had resulted in a complete demoralization of the native forces and they fled southward to Imus, from which place they were driven by Gen. Wheaton.

Negro Arrested For Murder.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 3.—After eluding the officers successfully for seventeen years, Charles Adams, a negro, who is wanted in Huntsville, Ala., for the murder of Policeman William Street, has been captured at Paris, Tex. He has demanded a trial by habeas corpus, to avoid a return to the scene of the crime. Adams had an accomplice in the crime, who was taken from the Madison county jail three days after his arrest and hanged to a tree in the courthouse yard.

New German Line Steamship.

Bremen, July 3.—The North German Lloyd Steamship Company has determined to build a ship which will surpass the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse in point of speed and in many other respects. The vessel will be constructed by German shipbuilders.

Unknown Steamer Ashore.

Key Wast, Fla., July 3.—The steamer City of Key West, which arrived from Miami, reports that an unknown steamship is ashore on Elbow Reef, off Key Largo. Wrecking vessels have left here to render assistance to the stranded steamer.

The Kentucky Feud.

Frankfort, Ky., July 3.—Capt. Gaines of the Frankfort Company received orders from Col. Williams to take his company of fifty-five men by first train to Clay County. The soldiers were notified to hold themselves in readiness.

Ex-Congressman West Very Ill.

Saratoga, July 3.—Ex-Congressman George West, of Ballston Spa, was prostrated here by a stroke of apoplexy, the second attack he has suffered. The physicians have but slight hopes of his recovery.

Fifteen Persons Drowned.

London, July 3.—Fifteen persons are reported to be drowned in a boating accident at Pwllheli, Carnarvonshire.

It did him good, and now he takes them regularly. "My bowels are regular," he writes. "I have no bad headaches. I have a clean mouth and a good breath in the morning."

A new style packet containing six RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. It is believed that this will suit the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (or twelve packets) will be sent by mailing forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York. Single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

DREYFUS RESTS QUIETLY.

Courtesies Extended to the Prisoner and His Faithful Wife.

Rennes, France, July 3.—Since the arrival here of Captain Dreyfus little or nothing else has been talked of but the probable outcome of the next court-martial which is set for the early part of August, and nearly all of the city's population of close on to 50,000 people are of one opinion—that Capt. Dreyfus will be a free man again at the conclusion of the trial.

Captain Dreyfus rests quietly in his cell, but is constantly watched by officers of the prison. He is, however, given more than the ordinary attention usually extended to prisoners, and the courtesy of allowing his wife to visit him has been granted on three different occasions since his arrival here. The long confinement on Devil's Island has made a great change for the worse in his physical condition, and he has also aged perceptibly.

The first meeting in the prison between the husband and wife, who had not seen each other for four years, was a most touching incident, and the officer in charge walked to a respectful distance and left them alone clasped in each other's arms, where tears of joy bathed the cheeks of the innocent, and loving words were whispered in the ears of devoted man and wife.

Lightning's Fatal Work.

Reading, Pa., July 3.—During a thunderstorm which passed over Freidensburg, Schuylkill county, a thunderbolt descended upon the fine barn of William Stump. The electric fluid passed down from the eaves into the ventilating window of the cow stables, striking the manger, where eight cows were chained in their stalls. The electricity instantly shocked to death every animal. They dropped with rings singed around their necks under the encircling neck chains. A small ox that stood in the back stall, not chained, was the only one in the stable to escape. The electric force then shot over into the horse stable, where four horses were fastened by halters with metal clasps. Every horse dropped dead. The barn then took fire. Only the women folks were at home. When they rushed to the stable doors to liberate the live stock they found all dead but the ox, which they rescued. Everything was consumed.

Eighth Attempt at Suicide.

Lyons, N. Y., July 3.—Joseph Pfistner, a German cooper, 70 years of age, had a spat with his wife, who is much his junior, in consequence of which Pfistner went down to the Erie Canal and jumped in. He was rescued by employes on the State scow and brought home on a wheelbarrow. Eight different times within two years Pfistner has attempted suicide, six times by jumping into the Erie Canal, and twice within the past year by slashing his throat with a basket hook. His wife says he can't kill himself and is only fooling. It is but a few weeks ago that he removed the bandages from his throat, where he stabbed himself twice within a few weeks.

Hanged Himself in Mayor's Yard.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 3.—Jerome Sagendorf, a cooper, sixty-five years of age, committed suicide because of despondency due to illness. He arose at daybreak, and, taking his wife's clothesline, climbed over the fence into the yard of Mayor I. W. Sherill, where he hanged himself to an apple tree. The Mayor discovered the body two hours later and telephoned to the police, who cut down the suicide.

Olympia's Silver Service Finished.

Seattle, Wash., July 3.—The massive silver service for the cruiser Olympia, to be presented by the State of Washington, has been completed and is now on exhibition here. The set consists of thirty-two pieces of silver and forty pieces of cut glass, costing $7,000. The silver is from mines in Washington. It will be shipped to New York on July 10 to meet the homecoming of the Olympia in the Mediterranean.

Difference of a Cent Causes a Strike.

Reading, Pa., July 3.—A difference of one cent in wages closed down the big plant of the E. & G. Brooke Iron Company, Birdsboro. The puddlers were advanced to $3.75 per ton and the helpers to 35 cents a heat. The helpers demanded 36 cents, the additional cent to be paid by the company and not by the puddlers. The company refused, the helpers quit work and the plant shut down.

Boston's Marrying Justices.

Boston, July 3.—Gov. Wolcott has named just a dozen Justices of the Peace in Boston who hereafter can perform marriages. All Justices who have had the power in the past, and advertisements that marriages could be performed at any hour of the day or night stirred up the Governor to the change. He did not think it was a proper matter for publicity.

Woman Called to a Pastorate.

Boston, July 3.—The Rev. Margaret B. Barnard, a former President of the Chelsia Woman's Club, has accepted the call of the First Unitarian Church of that city. She will be installed as pastor some time in September. Miss Barnard has been acting in that capacity since the resignation of the former pastor.

Struck by Train and Killed.

Rahway, N. J., July 3.—Willard Brunt, twenty-four years of age, was killed here by a train on the Pennsylvania Railroad. His body, cut in half, was found on the tracks. He was evidently returning from Newark. The body was taken to the residence of his parents.

Callaway Found Guilty.

St. Louis, July 3.—Frank P. Callaway, who was on trial for murder here for several weeks, has been found guilty in the first degree by the jury. Callaway shot his wife on April 10 last in a large department store where she was employed.

Ohio's Magnetic Spring.

Bellefontaine, Ohio, July 3.—E. C. Williams of Jefferson Township drove a well 168 feet and struck a vein of magnetic water that shot to a height of 144 feet, and showed a temperature of 44 degrees.

OFF FOR A TRIP.

"All ready to start?"

"Yes; here is my Ivory Soap, that finishes my packing. I always lay in a supply before going on the road. It is one of the comforts a traveling man can carry with him."

MAY IDENTIFY ROBBERS.

Dillon Suspects and Union Pacific Railway Robbery.

Helena, Mont., July 3.—Every day adds to the strength of the case against the two Dillon suspects whom Under-Sheriff Moore recently captured in the belief that they were the robber brothers, belonging to the famous gang of highwaymen. At the time of their arrest letters were found on them showing their names to be either Nolan or Putty. Now it seems certain those are their names, and that they belong to a gang of highwaymen.

The United States Marshal of Texas has wired Marshal Grant Woolman from Paris that he was sure he could identify them as Nolan and Putty, and that he believed they were in the train robbery. His message says:

"Your Deputy, Meiklejohn, wires me that he holds Dave Putty and Bud Nolan. I know them both. Both are desperate criminals and both, in my opinion, were in the Union Pacific train robbery. I believe I know all the men constituting the gang that robbed the train and where the plot was formed. Have you any others arrested under suspicion? If so wire descriptions and names, as I think I can aid you in the capture and conviction of these men."

Sampson to Escort Dewey.

Newport, R. I., July 3.—The officers of the North Atlantic Squadron understand that Rear Admiral William T. Sampson's plan for the welcome home of Admiral Dewey has been approved by the President, though they have not yet been definitely informed to that effect. Admiral Sampson has suggested that he be permitted to take the North Atlantic Squadon to Fayal, in the Azores and await Admiral Dewey, receive and salute him in the name of the President and the people of the United States and escort him home across the ocean. Dewey is expected to reach the Azores in September, and the plan is to have there awaiting him the flagship New York and the battleships Indiana, Masachusetts and Texas.

Rights of Indian Descent.

Omaha, Neb., July 3.—As a result of a decision of Judge Shiras, of the United States Supreme Court, filed here, all persons with as much as one-eighth Indian blood in their veins will be entitled to any allotments of money or lands to which full-blooded members of the tribe to which they may be related are entitled. This affects thousands of persons throughout the country, and about one-half the population of Thurston county, Neb.

New York Merchant Drops Dead.

Montclair, N. J., July 3.—Edward T. Hart, a retired merchant of New York, dropped dead at Crystal Lake. He was 67 years old. His death was caused by paralysis. His daughter, Mrs. C. R. Mandel, of Carbondale, Penn., was with him when he was seized with the fatal attack. Mr. Hart had lived at 40 Union street, Montclaire, for several years.

Offered to General Porter.

Detroit, Mich., July 3.—In a private letter from Paris to a friend here, an American of prominence, best known through his social and philanthropic connections, says that Gen. Horace Porter, Ambassador to France, has been offered the portfolio of Secretary of War by President McKinley.

Washington's New Postmaster.

Washington, July 3.—John A. Merritt, of Lockport, N. Y., has relinquished the office of Third Assistant Postmaster General and assumed his new duties as postmaster of this city. Edwin C. Madden, of Detroit, took the oath as Mr. Merritt's successor as Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

General Brooke May Leave Cuba.

Havana, July 3.—The Union Epanola, Avisador, Citizen and Comercio print Washington despatches said to confirm the report that Major-Gen. Brooke is to assume command in the Philippines and that Mr. Robert P. Porter is to become Governor General of Cuba.

A Whole Town Inundated.

Port Arthur, Texas, July 3.—The storm still continues, wind 48 miles, high tides, the entire town inundated. In some sections only the tops of houses can be seen. The loss here will be great. Crops about here entirely ruined.

Whole Hillside on Fire.

Scio, Ohio, July 3.—Fire destroyed the derrick and a 250-barrel tank of oil belonging to Myers and Brown on the Spiker farm. The derrick stood on a hillside, and the oil ran down to the bottom, where a conflagration was averted by the heroic efforts of citizens.

Woman Caused the Quarrel.

Middlesboro, Ky., July 3.—In a difficulty over a woman at Stonega, Va., Charles Barnes shot and killed Thos. Jackson. Both are colored. Barnes escaped to this city, but was captured by the police. He admits his guilt.

Two Stores Burned.

Diamond, Ind., July 3.—The building occupied by Cumings and his stables and outbuildings, and two large stores and buildings and stores belonging to Mrs. Wm. Spears, were burned to the ground. The loss is about $50,000.

Outwitted Her Parents.

Gallipolis, Ohio, July 3.—Allen King and Miss Artie Mullens, two prominent young people of Charleston, W. Va., succeeded in outwitting the irate father of the latter and getting themselves joined in wedlock.

Reported Sale of Kaiser Friedrich.

Berlin, July 3.—It is reported here that the steamer Kaiser Friedrich, which was returned to her builders by the North German Lloyd Steamship Company, has been sold to New York parties.

POINTS AND MOOT-POINTS.

There are other lives—no need to cling so to this one.

As we lack wisdom it is well, on the whole, we lack power.

The world foolishly idolizes but one ability—the ability to live.

Man knows God better than he knows himself or his fellow-man.

Most of us are as good as our badness will permit and vice versa.

Love is forever entreated, demanded, commanded, refused.

Our strength is more tragic than our weakness because of our unwisdom.

God-endowed, God-indulged for time and for eternity is man—yet dissatisfied.

Only dead men never contradict themselves—the point of view is always the same to them.

If all men were bold and enterprising to the extent of their convictions business would have to be transferred from corporatios to regiments.

We try to hide our mean selfishness under fine names—prudence, foresight, energy, enterprise, industry, economy, duty and religion.

Man's cruelty and oppression to his slaves, human and sub-human, is to be execrated as the first article of every creed worthy of humanity.—Boston Transcript.

REVERIES OF A DEBUTANTE.

The lack of money is the root of all evil.

A bird in the hat is worth two in the cage.

Never contradict a woman. Give her time and she'll contradict herself.

When she promises to be a sister to you you may safely claim a brother's osculatory rights.

Don't kiss and tell. If you do your friends may fancy the experience is so unique that you can't keep it to yourself.

A great rule for winning a girl's heart is: Don't talk about yourself or your personal affairs, and never make yourself or her appear ridiculous.

A poor man who marries a rich girl is a fortune-hunter. A poor girl who marries a rich man simply follows the sweet dictates of her maiden heart.

Don't keep on consoling yourself after each rejection with the old maxim that "there are as good fish in the sea as ever were caught." The bait might be getting stale.

Don't think because a man writes verses, to you that he is hoplessly in love. Verses are cheaper than flowers, and are far easier to evolve than the price of theatre seats.

When a man swears you are the first girl he ever loved don't doubt his word. Simply retort that he is the first man that ever kissed you. One good lie deserves another.

When You Are Away

For a week, or a month, or the whole summer, there is nothing more welcome than the news from home. There is only one way to get this news in the right shape, and that is by having The Daily Press sent to you at your vacation stopping place. When leaving town for a season be sure to order The Daily Press to follow you by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired. Ten cents a week will cover all expenses.

A Generous Response.

Another check for $63.22 was sent by The Daily Press today to Mrs Hattie M. Myers, treasurer of the Babies' Camp Fund of the City Union of the King's Daughters, as the third installment rendered under the subscription fund inaugurated by this paper for the aid of this worthy charity. This makes a total of $187.48 which The Daily Press has been able to raise through its columns for the Babies' Camp.

Let the good work of contributing the big and little sums go on, however, for the young women who are in charge of this noble object—the making brighter and healthier the lives of little tots whose lot in life is not of the most cheerful—need considerable more assistance in the way of finance before they are assured of a successful season.

The example of several young people banding themselves together and giving little entertainments for the aid of the work, and thus adding materially to the benefactions of individuals, is an admirable one, and ought to inspire emulation from many others.

But individuals should not forget that a few pennies are as welcome as many dollars, and remember that in this case the axiom that "he who gives quickly gives twice" is fitted exactly to the situation.

Governor Voorhees says that he will not name a candidate to succeed the late Sheriff Heller, of Hudson county, until a reasonable time after his funeral. The names presented for appointment are former Congressman McEwan, John J. Irwin, Aaron S. Baldwin, G. R. Christie, of Hoboken; former Assemblyman McArthur and Under Sheriff Harvey. The fight is waxing hot for the plum.

The Daily Press will celebrate the glorious Fourth with the rest of the patriots, and therefore no paper will be issued tomorrow.

It is the manifest duty of every resident and business man along the line of the parade tomorrow to decorate in gala manner.

And remember that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure in case of fire on the Fourth.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The vast amount of money spent in golf is being elaborated by gossipy writers, as if the money meant some new expenditure. As a matter of fact, golf has merely taken the place of other costly amusements, and it is rather cheaper than some of them. The bicycle mania has passed, and the golf passion will go, too; but as there are still many thousands who ride wheels constantly, so there will be many who will play golf. Lawn tennis is still a great game for the active, and croquet lasts yet. Golf is certainly not a cheap game. Although one starts moderately, he finds that he has spent about $15 on clubs during his first year, and he is lucky if he escapes with less than $10 for balls. His club dues may vary from $10 to $50 or $100, according to the place; but the caddy charges will run up to about 50 cents for each day's play, and special clothes, with the odds and ends of expenses, may be put down at not less than $25 a season, to say nothing of railroad fares. On the other side, there is healthful pleasure without limit and all the excitement of contests.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 3—Mrs. Nancy Thomas and family left Saturday for Asbury Park where they will occupy their cottage for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eder and family, of New York, are the guests of Joseph Maier, cf the Park hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrow, of New York, have rented the Thomas homestead and have moved in.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Terry have returned from a four weeks outing at Bird's Lake.

Mrs. A. D. Pope, of Somerset street, Plainfield, has been visiting friends in town.

Miss Virgia Tunison will spend the tomorrow with her parents at Glen Gardner.

Miss Addie Fenner, of Plainfield, has been visiting relatives in the borough.

Many from the borough will spend tomorrow in Plainfield.

Business places generally will be closed tomorrow.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 3.—W. S. Emery's pleasure garden was opened in an informal way to the public Saturday evening. An orchestra from Elizabeth furnished music for dancing, which was indulged in by a number of couples and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mr. Emery has spared no expense in preparing an up-to-date pleasure place and from the expressions of approval heard from those attending he will no doubt have a large crowd at the opening, which will be Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Arthur Chapin, who was entered in the Amboy races Saturday afternoon, finished sixth. Chapin rode four miles of the ten on a punctured tire, and, with this misfortune with him, made a very creditable finish. Arthur is entered for the fifteen mile race tomorrow afternoon in Westfield and his friends expect to see him with the leaders at the finish, barring accident.

Nearly everyone in town has arranged to be at the big celebration in Plainfield and Westfield tomorrow. Plainfield will no doubt attract the larger number on account of the convenience of the trolley.

Union services of the Methodist and Baptist churches was held in the Baptist church last evening. Rev. Mr. Lewis, who is occupying Mr. Woodruff's pulpit in his absence, preached the sermon of the evening.

James Johnston, Joseph Schmidt and Nick Albert have returned from Nyack, N. Y., where they have been working for several weeks.

Mrs. Lee who has been spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Billings has returned to her home in Port Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grant, of Plainfield, where the guests Sunday of Mrs. Grant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Paff, Sr.

John Patterson who has been visiting relatives and friends in town has returned to his home at Morris Plains.

Rev. Mr. Shott led union meeting of the B. Y. P. M. and Epworth League in the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Brockway who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Gere has returned to her home in Brooklyn.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 3—Wellesley Robinson, chairman of the committee that is arranging for the fifteen-mile road race to be run here on the Fourth of July, has over forty entries and the race will no doubt be a success. The prizes will be: First, special racer, value $75; second, gold medal: third, silver medal; fourth, bronze medal; first time prize, special racer, value $75. The officials have been appointed as follows: Referee, Dr. Fred A. Kinch, local counsel L. A. W.; judges, W. B. Toucey, E. R. Collins, James B. Paterson, William E. Tuttle, Arthur Flagg, W. P. Scriven, Edwin Hodges, Chauncey Smith, Charles Manning, Alex. G. Anderson; timers, John F. Dorvall, Alfred R. Woldt, W. M. Townley, George B. Dickerson, J. Dix Ritchie, L. E. Westbrook; clerk of the course, Edwin Hodges; assistant clerks of the course, Walter Neafie, Frank Howe, Wm. J. Bogert, Jr., Oscar Richardson, Robert W. Harden; starter, R. I. Townley; chief marshal, Wellesley Robinson; chief umpires, Charles Sorter, upper turn; Fred C. Decker, lower turn; handicapper, R. M. Stickle.

Mary, the little seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Young, of Chestnut street, was playing in the hayloft in her father's barn Saturday afternoon when she lost her balance, while looking out of the window, and fell to the ground. Dr. R. R. Sinclair found that her right arm just below the elbow was broken. The bones were reset, and the little patient is now doing nicely.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Henry B. Drake, of Duer street, has gone to Jamesburg for over the Fourth.

Miss Saidee Mae Howell, of Myrtle avenue, returned today after sojourning at Belmar.

Miss Frances Dickson Smith, of East Seventh street, sailed Saturday morning with a party of Baltimore friends on the steamer Manitou for a summer in Europe.

A Frightful Blunder.

Will often cause a horrible Burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

BOYNTON BEACH.

THERE IS ONLY ONE
FOURTH OF JULY A YEAR.

It is a shame not to spend it where you are sure of a good time. There isn't another place in New Jersey where you can take your whole family and know that each one of them will have a good time.

Of course you know all about the comfortable shaded grounds, the cool seats on the veranda overlooking the water, the boating, naptha launch rides, bowling and bathing.

Maybe you have never heard the

composed of five fine musicians. It will furnish the music on the FOURTH.

Dancing, as usual, will be one of the chief pleasures.

The Diving Dock for swimmers, so popular last season, continues to draw crowds.

Fishing we put at the last, but it may be the only amusement you care about. Never mind, "There are others" just like you. Here's a quiet tip. The weak fish are running well now. You can have a glorious day catching them while your wife and children picnic.

Be Sure and Bring Your Family With You.

ASTONISHED THE TEACHER

A Lecture on Hygiene and the Pupil's Reply to a Question.

There is a lady occupied in the instruction of the juvenile mind who is quite willing to confess that the pupils who attend her classes do not do all the learning. Some of the small folks under her tuition occasionally astonish her with their superior knowledge of the modernly developed resources of the English language. A lecture on hygiene had been included in the programme for the day, and she had taken care to show the effects of alcohol and tobacco upon the system. She impressed her teachings by means of anatomical charts, which gave especial lucidity to her remarks when she came to warning the little girls, years in advance of any practical need the dangers of tight lacing. One of the little girls, whose home surroundings are of the sort in which ease rather than elegance of expression is sought, listened with profound attention.

"Now, Margaret," the teacher said, "you may see how well you remember what I have said about tight lacing and tell us why it is injurious."

There was no response.

"I mean you, Maggie," the teacher added, and the girl jumped to her feet as she recognized the more familiar name.

"Tight lacing, ma'am, is injurious, ma'am——"

She hesitated and the teacher smiled encouragingly and said, "Go on."

"Cos, ma'am, it's liable to twist yer slats."

The Same Old Story.

"I only sold t'ree papers dis morning. I'm gettin' sick of de literary business!"

Self-Acting Healer.

"Curse me luck," hissed the burglar, and fled into the night.

Bear in mind, if you please, that all crime was now disease, merely, and all disease the work of germs.

The burglar perceived in the cellar window where he tried to enter one of the latest automatic spraying devices and endeavored to avoid it.

But fortune was against him.

A click in the dark and almost before he knew it he was drenched with germicide and cured of his malady.—Detroit Journal.

Squaring Himself.

Snowbound Snawley (in deep disgust)—Has it come to dis that yer are 'round wid a saw on yer shoulder lookin' fer work?

Foxy Feeney (injuredly)—Yer wrong me, pard: I'm lookin' fer food, an' de saw makes folks t'ink I would work. Yer see, I allus avoid yards wo't hev wood piles, an' w'enever I'm cornered an' offered a job I ax so much fer me services dat no one will hire me.—Judge

Encouraging Prophecy.

"Did he?"

"He said I would have to live many, many years before I would have sense enough to take care of money."—Detroit Free Press.

Incompatible

Mr. Dukane—Why did your wife change physicians? I thought that she was satisfied with Dr. Tablet's professional skill.

Mr. Gaswell—She was satisfied, so far as his professional skill was concerned, but he rode a different make wheel from hers, and his calls were mostly occupied by a defense of his favorite.—Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph.

Correct

Tagleigh—"Did you ever notice, when a man has been drinking heavily the night before, how long and earnestly he will look at himself in the glass the next morning?"

Wagleigh—"Certainly. That is the time for sober reflection.—From Life.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Unter dem Vorsitz des Oberbürgermeisters Beutler trat hier eine größere Anzahl von Bürgermeistern und Vertretern von Großstädten aus ganz Deutschland zusammen, die den grundsätzlichen Beschlüssen einer Ordnung für die Ausstellung von Einrichtungen und Anstalten deutscher Städte im Jahre 1903 in Dresden zustimmte; 25 Städte wurden aufgefordert, Deputirte in den großen Ausschuß zur Berathung des Weiteren abzuordnen.

Chemnitz. In Gegenwart des Königs Albert fand hier die Enthüllung eines Kaiser Wilhelm des Ersten-Denkmals statt, auf welchem zu gleicher Zeit Bismarck und Moltke verherrlicht werden.

Leipzig. Hier starb im 66. Lebensjahre der auch in Amerika bekannte Dichter Dr. Julius Bruck.—Der Schaden beim Brande der Musikwerkefabrik von Brachmann u. Rießner wird auf über 2,000,000 Mark geschätzt. Mehrere tausend Arbeiter sind brodlos. Die Entstehungsursache des Brandes ist unbekannt.—Hier sind die Eisengießer an den Ausstand gegangen. Die Zahl der Ausständigen beträgt 1300.

Mittweida. Die Studenten des hiesigen Technikums befinden sich „am Strike," indem sie sich verschworen haben, so lange keine Vorlesung zu besuchen, als bis sie die Absetzung und Entlassung eines seiner Strenge wegen bei ihnen unbeliebten Lehrers durchgesetzt haben.

Zwickau. Unter dem Verdachte der Urheberschaft an einem bei Crimmitschau gegen den Nordsüd-Expreßzug verübten schweren Anschlag wurde der ehemalige Lokomotivfeuermann Nonn verhaftet.

Thüringische Staaten.

Coburg. Es ist endgiltig beschlossen worden, daß—nach der Abdankung des Herzogs Alfred und Verzichtleistung seines Bruders, des Herzogs von Connaught—der Herzog Karl Eduard von Albany, der jetzt 15jährige Sohn des 1884 verstorbenen Herzogs Leopold von Albany, ein Enkel der Königin, die Thronfolge in Sachsen-Coburg und Gotha antreten soll.

Eisenach. Der erst seit vorigem Jahr hier thätige Arzt Dr. Jacoby wurde kürzlich früh erstickt in seiner Wohnung aufgefunden.

Weimar. Dieser Tage ist hier die neuerbaute elektrische Straßenbahn eröffnet worden. Sie führt in zwei Linien vom Bahnhof nach dem Südende der Stadt, und ein gut Stück nach Belvedere zu. Eine der Linien berührt auch den Goetheplatz und das National-Museum.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. In der Civilklage der Photographen Wilcke und Priester gegen Fürst Bismarck betreffs Herausgabe der beschlagnahmten photographischen Aufnahme vom Sterbelager des Reichskanzlers verwarf das hanseatische Oberlandesgericht die von den Photographen eingelegte Berufung gegen das abweisende Urtheil des Landgerichts.—Der Dampfer „Pennsylvania," von New York kommend, lief bei seiner Ankunft in der Elbmündung bei Cuxhaven auf Kratzsand auf und saß fest. Die Passagiere wurden gelandet, ohne daß dadurch eine Verzögerung in deren Weiterbeförderung eintrat. Es waren sofort fünf Schleppdampfer zur Stelle, denen es nach kurzer Zeit gelang, das stolze Schiff, das übrigens nicht den geringsten Schaden erlitten hat, abzuschleppen und an seinen Dock zu bringen.

Bremen. Einem Herzschlage erlag im 69. Lebensjahre Dr. med. Otto Th. Hoetzn. Aus dem Hannover'schen gebürtig, hat er seit Mitte der sechziger Jahre hier gewohnt und durch seine umfassende Bildung, seinen regen Antheil an allen geistigen, namentlich literarischen Bestrebungen, wie auch durch seine eigenen Dichtungen einen großen Freundeskreis gefunden. Im Buchhandel erschienen von ihm die Dichtungen „Wichmann, der Kreuzfahrer" und „Eine Pilgerfahrt." In seinem medizinischen Beruf hatte er eine weitreichende Praxis; außerdem war er Gerichtsarzt.

Oldenburg.

Oldenburg. Der erwachsene Sohn eines hiesigen höheren Militärs a. D. drang in die Wohnung seiner Tante, einer alten reichen Dame, ein, um sie zu erschießen, da sie ihm kein Geld zur Verfügung stellen wollte. Der Frevler, der sich einen falschen Bart umgebunden hatte, ist durch das Hinzukommen anderer Personen von dem geplanten Verbrechen verhindert worden.

Mecklenburg.

Güstrow. In Folge einer Kollision in der Nähe von Friedrichshagen zwischen dem deutschen Dampfer „Artushof" und dem britischen Dampfer „Mauritius" sank der erstere binnen wenigen Minuten. Von der Besatzung des Schiffes ertranken zehn Mann.

Braunschweig.

Hasselfelde. Der Schneider Junge wurde Morgens zwischen 3 und 4 Uhr in seinem Garten erhängt aufgefunden. Bis 2 Uhr hatte er noch gearbeitet. Die Beweggründe der That sind unbekannt.

DON'T LEAVE THE CITY.

Plenty of Proof Right Here at Home in Plainfield.

Claim is one thing, proof another.

Columbus claimed the world was round.

Did people believe it? Not until he proved it.

Unproven claims have made the people skeptics.

Every claim made for the "Little Conqueror" is proven.

Proven in Plainfield by local experience.

It's not what we say, but what your neighbors say.

Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by citizens.

Here is one case from the many we have:

Mr. S J. Conklin, traveling salesman for a New York Confectionery house, living at 134 West Front street, says: "I was subject to kidney complaint for seven years. My symptoms were pains in the back and hips, which at times I felt in my side. I tried different kinds of kidney cures but received little or no relief. I read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and I went to L. W. Randolph's store and got a box. I took three altogether and was wonderfully improved. Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy and accomplish all that is claimed for them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remembe you will not be hurt in the slightest. My loca anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

FASHION NOTES.

Many Flowers Bloom Upon Summer Headgear.

Red gowns are more and more in vogue, and there are also charming little scarlet jackets for seaside and mountain wear, made perfectly plain, but very trim and up to date looking. Over a white, navy blue or black gown they are exceedingly effective.

An immense quantity of flowers is worn in hats, although hats are not so universally covered with them as was the case last year. Occasionally the headgear is one mass of flowers, however, one example being a round hat of medium size made of rose colored gauze and completely covered with pink and red roses, so the hat itself could not be seen except at the edge of the brim, and even then its color confused it with the flowers. Bluets are used in the same way, also lilies of the valley and forgetmenots, but the last named flowers are not seen in great numbers this season. Little toques and capotes entirely of flowers are more attractive than the laden hats. For the toques hyacinths, roses, violets and sometimes pansies are employed; also large separate petals of poppies. It is predicted that flowers will again be seen on parasols.

The gown illustrated is of beige cloth, the skirt opening at the left side over a panel of nile green silk with horizontal corded tucks. The left side of the tablier is embroidered with white applications. The bodice, also embroidered and opening at the left side, has a sort of yoke and plastron of tucked silk like the panel and fastens with cords and gold buttons. The cravat is a jabot of white lace, and the sleeves are plain. The hat of beige straw is trimmed with nile green plumes and ribbon, with a show of pink silk under the brim. JUDIC CHOLLET.

THIN GOWNS.

Light and Attractive Materials For Summer Costumes.

Among the lightweight silk goods for summer wear are mousseline satins with delicate printed designs resembling painted decorations, various taffetas, some with broche effects, others covered with open embroidery, still others with a broken surface of checks, stripes or similar ornamentations, and foulard, which has been actively revived and appears plain and with attractive stamped patterns. Silk batiste is also seen and is very cool and attractive.

There are transparent woolen goods likewise in all colors and black. Chief in importance among them are thin canvases and wool grenadines, which are serviceable for the seaside, where cottons, linens and silks are apt to become stringy in the moist air. The wash fabrics are charmingly dainty, however, and will be extensively worn during the approaching hot weather. Swiss muslin, white and colored; batiste, pique and percale, are chiefly seen. All kinds of designs appear, but stripes pre-ponderate—wide, narrow, regular and irregular. Checks, plaids and dots are also favorites, floral patterns being less frequent, although there are many charming flower designs to be obtained. Solid colors are largely used, since lace and embroidery are so lavishly employed as trimming.

The wedding gown depicted is of white satin, the skirt being plain except for a ruche of mousseline de soie around the edge. The back is in the princess style, but the front forms a draped bodice, with coquilles of old point mingled with orange blossoms. The round yoke and the sleeves are of mousseline de soie shirred with little beadings, the yoke being framed in a garland of orange blossoms.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

What, Indeed?

"There's no use trying to make anything out of a man who wears a No. 6 hat and No. 9 shoes."

"Perhaps not, but what are you going to do with the 'by Jove' fellow who wears No. 5 shoes and a hat that holds half a bushel?"—Chicago News.

RECIPES FOR THE COOK.

How to Make and Serve Many Palatable and Dainty Dishes.

Pineapples.

Pare, remove the eyes and pick the pineapple in pieces with a silver fork, sprinkle with sugar and place for an hour or two on ice before serving.

Peaches.

If served whole, rub them off carefully with a towel. Serve in a pretty dish with peach or rose leaves between the fruit. Otherwise peel and cut them in slices, sprinkle with sugar and serve them in a glass dish with whipped cream.

Watermelon Salad.

Cut a watermelon in two, remove the seeds and break the red part into pieces with a silver fork; remove all pits; put the layers in a glass dish, sprinkle each layer with sugar and place the dish for several hours on ice; when ready to serve pour over half pint of claret or Rhine wine.

Compote of Pineapples.

Cut the pineapples in slices; pare them carefully; remove the eyes and the centre core. Boil one cup sugar with half cupful water, put the pineapple slices into a dish, pour over the hot syrup, cover and let stand two hours. Shortly before serving lay the pineapples in a glass dish and strain the syrup over them.

Oyster Pie.

Wash out of their liquor two quarts of oysters, and season them with mace, a glass of white wine; and a cup of very fine cracker crumbs and a few pieces of butter; put them into a pie dish lined with paste and add half of the liquor; fill dish quite full and cover with a rich puff paste; bake till the crust is nicely done; and this can't be beaten.

Compote of Greengages.

Prick two dozen large plums around the stem with a needle, put them in a kettle with boiling water and boil a few minutes; remove them carefully to a dish; boil one and a half cups sugar with one cup water to a syrup; pour the hot syrup over the plums; let stand for two hours, then carefully drain off the syrup; return syrup to saucepan and boil down to one-half; let stand till cold, then pour it over the plums and serve.

Beef Souffle.

Take about two cups of cold, chopped meat; one cup of bread, cut in small dice; one scant cup of canned tomatoes. Put layer of beef or meat in bottom of dish, then a layer of the bread and tomato; a small pinch of thyme, pepper and salt; then another layer of meat, bread, tomato, pepper, and salt and thyme, and so on until the dish is full. Pour a scant cup of boiling water over the whole. Cook in a hot oven about one hour and serve. An excellent and tasty dish for luncheon and a good way to use up cold meat of any kind.

Care of the Throat.

Women are at last beginning to realize that they are ruining their throats by keeping them too warm, and by wearing the stiff, high linen collars and canvas-lined stocks. Such neck decorations are the cause of women's looking old long before their time. They keep the skin overheated and sealed from the air. Ribbon and silk collars are now being worn by all prudent women who wish to keep their necks in condition to wear low-cut corsages. Blouses and shirt-waists to be worn with what may be called the sanitary collars, are built with a low band, without any stiff interlining. If ribbon is used it is cut long enough to pass twice around the throat and to tie in a bow in the back. White is becoming to all women. Little ruffings of white lace, chiffon, or net, sold by the yard, are sometimes sewed in the silk collars that are cut wide enough to give them body. A pretty arrangement for the neck is made of accordion-pleated chiffon sewed on a very thin crinoline collar. It can be patterned in the front with a bow of the same material pleated, or fastened in the back with a fan-like bow. Long neckties of lace, net, chiffon and India silk trimmed with lace at the ends are most becoming. Small collars and revers of white and colored pique are very smart with tailor-made suits.

The Psyche Knot.

The Psyche knot is no more, or, rather, it has begun to go with the approach of the summer. With its departure their is a new fashion in hairdressing among women of prominence, and it now looks as if practically every woman in sets would adopt this new mode.

The latest is to brush the hair away from the forehead and the nape of the neck as much as possible and to gather it all high up on the head. There are two popular ways of doing this. One is to put the hair up on "puffs" and "rolls," stretching it smoothly in a Pompadour effect. The other method is to wave and curl in on top of the head in a fluffy mass, which when a girl's hair curls naturally and she has little trouble in keeping it in order is exceedingly becoming.

Whichever method is adopted makes little difference, but the new law of the mode is that there must be no bunch of hair, no knot, at the back of the head and none also on the forehead. A curl or two on the forehead is allowable—one at each temple, say—and that is all.

The disappearing of the Psyche after its long reign will occasion a few heartburnings, possibly, among the girls who look particularly well with it, but the new fashion is far more becoming to most women and is being hailed

WHO'S AFRAID IN THE DARK?

"Oh, not I," said the owl,
And he gave a great scowl,
And he wiped his eye
And fluffed his jowl, "Too whoo!"
Said the dog, "I bark
Out loud in the dark, Boo-oo!"
Said the cat: "Mi-ew!
I'll scratch anyone who Dares say that I do Feel afraid, Mi-ew!"
"Afraid," said the mouse,
"Of the dark in the house!
Hear me scatter
Whatever's the matter? Squeak!"

Then the toad in his hole
And the bug in the ground,
They both shook their heads
And passed the word around;
And the bird in the tree,
And the fish and the bee,
They declare, all three,
That you never did see
One of them afraid
In the dark!
But the little boy who had gone to bed
Just raised the bedclothes and covered his head.

VASA AND THE BEAR.

A Child's Adventure in the Days of the Early Settlers.

Northwestern Pennsylvania was a dense forest at the time of which I write, says Ida Kays. There were no railroads, towns, churches, schools or pretty houses as there are now, yet there were houses even in those wildwoods—a house and a stable built of trees which the settler's ax had felled, a little lot fenced by rails from more trees, where among sprouting stumps the first garden was raised, and thus a home began. Year by year the clearing was enlarged, and corn, wheat and oats were added to the garden truck. Roads were made through the woods to other clearings, and the homes grew into neighborhoods.

In one of those early homes lived a little boy with an odd little name that had been borrowed from a royal hero of Swedish history. Vasa's first recollection was the log house home and the dark woods which surrounded the home clearing. He played about the stumps and piles of brush and by the high rail fence that skirted the woods, but he never ventured farther. He knew that wild beasts were among those trees—beasts that killed and ate the pigs and chickens and sheep and calves sometimes. Why not a boy? Once he had seen a bear and thought he should have been scared to death if his father had not been along. As it was, he could not forget his fright at the great ugly brute that glared and growled at them before it walked away.

As the clearings grew and neighbors became more plenty the wild animals went farther back into the woods and were but little feared.

One day when Vasa was just 14 years old his mother wished very much to cut a garment, and the shears were at her mother's, nearly a mile away.

"Let me go and get them," said the boy. Thinking no harm could befall him in the now fenced road, the mother gave consent.

The little fellow set off proudly on his first errand as happy as the birds that sang in the trees and fearless as the chipmunk on the fence, with which he ran a merry race.

He was half way to grandma's when a crackling noise on the opposite side of the road startled him. He turned, and his eyes distended with fear as they rested upon the form of a real bear, sitting under a hickory tree cracking and eating nuts.

How terrible it did look to the frightened child, as he stood gazing at it and wondering how he should ever pass that formidable obstacle.

A hero, like his illustrious namesake, he never thought of shirking duty and going back.

He did not dare go straight ahead, for surely then that awful bear would see and catch him, but without a bit of noise he climbed the fence where the saucy squirrel was waiting another race and stole among the trees. The race was with the bear, all unconscious of the fact until the boy was climbing the fence into the road once more. Then bruin saw him. The nuts dropped from his big paws, and the awkward brute began to gather himself up and prepare for action.

Our little hero slipped off the fence and flew for grandma's as fast as two little fat legs could carry him. He never screamed or cried. All his breath was needed for the race—and he won.

How far the bear ran or in what direction no one ever knew. He was gone when Uncle David came back with Vasa and the shears, though traces of his visit were plainly visible.

Threescore years and ten have passed since those early days of humble homes, wild woods and savage beasts, but Vasa still tells—to his grandchildren—his adventure with that awful, awful bear.

Good News.

"Your son," said the professor, "has been laboring under a misapprehension."

"Perfess!" exclaimed Farmer Corntossel, with joy in his voice, "ye don't mean it!"

"Mean what?"

"That Josiah has been workin'."

In Chancery of New Jersey.

To Sophia J. Lawson, Catherine L. Lawson, Florence B. Lawson and Clinton F. Lawson:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of date hereof, in the cause wherein Estella A. Lawson, is complainant and you are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainant, on or before the Seventh day of August, next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed for partition of certain lands in the City of Plainfield, County of Union, of which Samuel Q. Lawson died seized, and you Sophia J. Lawson, are made defendant because you claim to have a right of dower in said lands, and you, Catherine L. Lawson, Florence B. Lawson and Clinton F. Lawson, are made defendants because you are the children of Samuel Q. Lawson deceased, and are therefore tenants in common therein.

UPPER REGIONS OF THE AIR.

Unexplored Space More Interesting Than the North Pole.

Above there extends a vast unexplored space far more interesting from a scientific point of view than the icy regions around the north pole. No one can reach the limit of the upper regions of the air and live, unless he carries with him air to breathe and fuel to warm him, for at the paltry distance of ten miles above the earth the air is too thin to support respiration, and the thermometer would register far below zero. It would be a region of perpetual snow on a peak of the earth if it should rise to such a height. A person in a balloon could not hear a friend in a neighboring balloon, even if they were near enough to shake hands. There would be no medium for the propagation of sound waves. There would, however, still be a medium for the conduction of electricity—a medium in fact of great conductibility—almost as good as a metal, and it is this medium at even a less height which Tesla proposes to use in his methods of transmitting power hundreds of miles through the air without wires.

We live under a blanket of air which protects us from the extreme cold of outer space. This low temperature becomes evident fourteen or fifteen thousand feet above the surface of the earth, and would, as I have said, reach a point far below zero at a height of ten miles. At this height we should no longer observe the twinkling of the stars, for this scintillation is due to the movements of our atmosphere, which at the height I have mentioned would be extremely rarified. If one could photograph the sun's spectrum at this altitude we could greatly extend our knowledge of the shortest wave lengths of light; for the atmosphere completely absorbs such wave lengths as are concerned in the X-ray phenomena. That this absorption really takes place can be proved in a laboratory.

The heat and light which we receive from the sun are greatly modified by this blanketing layer of air. The long waves of the energy from the sun are called heat waves. The intermediate waves are termed light waves, and we receive these in full measure. The very short waves, however, are stopped by our atmosphere and are transformed into—what?

The Worth of a Match.

How much may depend on a seeming trifle is shown in the incident on the lumber schooner, Johanna Swan, which was abandoned in a gale off Hatteras. The cabins were flooded and the water supply had given out. In four days the sailors had not tasted water. To drink the brine of the sea was to induce tortures and endure a more deadly thirst than ever. There was a tank holding three gallons that could be fashioned into a condenser and the mate and a sailor so converted it. A piece of the schooner's rail, dry and full of resin, was chopped off for fuel, and now all that was necessary was a match. A search revealed just one match, that the captain had stowed in a dry pocket. If that went out, woe be to them. But after sputtering for a moment, it blazed up, the shavings caught, the fire was set, the water boiled and the drip from the steam was enough to provide a drink for every man—pretty smoky water, but as welcome as cocktails, under the circumstances. A German bark heard their bell and took off the crew before its perils and sufferings became more serious. A condensing apparatus of a simple sort would not be a bad thing to take on all craft, considering the possibilities of ill fortune that follow the toilers of the sea.

Ears Beat Eyes.

Most people would no doubt be inclined to fancy that the eye was the gateway of quite the most delicate of all our senses. But this is not so. The sense of hearing has been proved to be far the most delicate of all the senses. And the sense of touch appears to be perhaps the keenest of all. The tests are very simple.

For testing sight a disc half black, half white is revolved quickly before the eyes. When it reaches a speed of twenty-four revolutions a second the colors cease to appear distinctly any longer to the eye, and the result is gray. For sound a revolving toothed wheel makes a series of clicks, and these to the average man appear distinct sounds up to sixty a second. After that they cannot be distinguished apart. The sense of touch is tried by rapid blows of a tiny electric hammer on the skin. Up to 1,000 a second these blows have been felt separate and distinct.

How a Gold Field Was Discovered.

A novel way of discovering a gold field was recounted by the agent general for western Australia. In 1888 the Mallina gold field was discovered by a lad in this wise: The boy, in picking up a stone to throw at a crow, observed a speck of gold in it, and reported it to the nearest resident magistrate. The magistrate was so excited at the news that he telegraphed to the then governor, and stated that a lad picked up a stone to throw at a crow, in his excitement omitting to say "and saw gold in it." So the governor wired back these words, "What happened to the crow?"

Odorless Flowers.

Most people will be surprised to learn that the majority of flowers have no perfume whatever. An Austrian chemist, who has been making researches into the subject, declared that out of 4,110 varieties known and cultivated in Europe, scarcely 400 have any odor; and of these nearly fifty have an odor which is, if anything, disagreeable.

AN OLD SUPERSTITION.

Many Stories Prove That Rats Will Leave an Unseaworthy Vessel.

The old superstition, which has grown into an adage, that rats desert a ship which is no longer seaworthy, is still an article of faith with the fresh water sailors of the great lakes. Sundry well-authenticated instances seem to justify this belief. The Vernon was a three-master, which did a tramp business. Built in Buffalo in 1850, she was for many years regarded as one of the best craft on the lakes. Late in the fall, about fifteen years ago, she unloaded a cargo of grain in Buffalo, and reloaded with package freight for Chicago. She was about to sail one rough November night. Just before the lines were let off, one of the seamen saw a rat run over the hawsers to the wharf. In a moment another was seen. The seaman called others of the crew to see the unusual sight. Between fifty and seventy-five rats poured out of the ship and took refuge along the wharf. The crew refused to sail, but the captain was obstinate, shipped a fresh crew, and sailed forthwith. The ship was lost with all hands. The Idaho, a fine passenger steamer, foundered in Lake Erie in November, 1897. Out of her crew of twenty-one men nineteen were drowned. Just before the vessel left her moorings a swarm of rats crawled over the hawsers to the wharf. This was known to part of the crew, and four men deserted at the last moment. Similar stories are told of other wrecked vessels, and an old lakeman says: "It has been proved a hundred times. There are a whole lot of things in this world that we don't know anything about. Rats live in the very filers of a ship. They see what we can't see. When the timbers are hollowed and the seams open, these little animals know that the ship is unsafe, and they desert it."

Music in the Sierras.

Travelers in the Sierra forests usually complain of their want of life, especially of birds. "The trees," they say, "are fine, but the empty stillness is deadly; there are no animals to be seen, no birds. We have not heard a song in all the woods." And no wonder, going in large parties with mules and horses, making so much noise, dressed in outlandish, unnatural colors, every animal shuns them. Even the frightened pines would run away if they could. But nature lovers, devout, silent, open-eyed, alert, looking and listening with love, sitting still here and there for hours or days, as their genius directs, find no lack of inhabitants in these mountain mansions, and they come to them gladly. Not to mention the large animals or the small insect people every waterfall has its ouzel, and every tree its squirrel or tamias, or bird—tiny nuthatch threading the furrows of the bark, cheerily whispering to itself as it deftly pries off loose scales and examines the curled edges of lichens, or Clarke crow, or jay, examining the cones, or some singer-oriole, tanager, warbler, resting, feeding, attending to domestic affairs. Hawks and eagles sail overhead, and grouse walk in happy flocks below, and the song sparrow sings in every bed of chaparral. There is no crowding, to be sure. Unlike the low Eastern trees, those of the Sierra in the main forest belt average nearly 200 feet in height, and of course many birds are required to make much of a show in them, and many voices to fill them. Nevertheless, the whole range from foothills to snowy summits is shaken into song every summer; and though low and thin in winter, the music never ceases.

Prompt Mr. Scott.

A certain Mr. Scott, of Exeter, Eng., whose business required him to travel constantly, was one of the most famous characters for punctuality in the kingdom. By his methodical habits, combined with unwearied industry, he accumulated a large fortune. For a great many years the landlord of every inn in Cornwall and Devon that he visited knew the exact day and hour he would arrive. A short time before he died, at the advanced age of eighty, a gentleman who was making a journey through Cornwall put up at a small inn at Port Isaac for his dinner. He looked over the bill of fare, and found nothing to his liking. He had, however, seen a fine duck roasting on the fire.

"I'll have that," said he.

"You cannot, sir," replied the landlord, "it is for Mr. Scott, of Exeter."

"I know Mr. Scott very well," replied the traveller. "He is not in your house."

"Very sorry," said the landlord, "but six months ago, when he was last here, he ordered the duck to be ready for him this day, exactly at 2 o'clock."

And to the amazement of the traveler, who chanced to look from the window, the old gentleman was at that moment entering the inn yard, about five minutes before the appointed time.

A Curious Collection.

One of the most remarkable collections or souvenirs ever made is a collection of male opera hats by one of the actresses of a London company. She owns no fewer than 216 of these articles, for it was her whim to make every young man who was introduced to her give her his opera hat as a souvenir. She not only keeps them in their pristine condition, but converts them into all sorts of other things, such as photograph frames, work baskets, and some are even used for the purpose of holding flower pots.

The Chinese are said to remove the pulp from oranges and substitute various jellies. The closest examination fails to reveal any opening or incision in the skin of the fruit.

JUNIORS ARE PREPARING

EXPECT TO HAVE 1,800 MEN IN LINE OF MARCH.

Acceptances Received From Large Number of Councils—Headquarters Will be at Washington Hall All Day.

Fourth of July promises to be a great day for the Juniors of this section. Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., has made extensive preparations for the parade that morning and expects to have at least 1,800 men in line. The guests will begin to arrive early in the morning and will be entertained at dinner and supper at the headquarters, which is to be established in Washington Hall. During the afternoon there will be an entertainment in the hall for the visiting Juniors.

The detail of sixty-five Marines from the U. S. Cruiser Brooklyn will arrive on a special car at 8:40. They will be under the command of Lieutenant Steven F. Donely.

In response to the general invitation, acceptances have been received from the following councils: Middlesex, of Perth Amboy; Good Intent and Good Will, of New Brunswick; Oriet, of Elizabeth; Winfield S. Scott, of Elizabeth; Ivanhoe, of Somerville; Pioneer, of Bound Brook; William G. Holton, of Dunellen; Friendship, of New Market; Twilight, of Scotch Plains; Fairview, of Gallia; Starry Flag, of New Providence; Bernards, of Basking Ridge; Central, of Westfield; Gen. Runyon, of Newark; Kill von Kull, Bayonne; Gen. Jackson, of Jersey City; American, of Morristown; Old Glory, of Hoboken. There will also be delegations from the Brooklyn Councils.

The Independent Fife and Drum Corps, four bands and two other drum corps will be with the Juniors. Old Glory Council, Daughters of Liberty, and Martha Washington Council, Daughters of America, will assist at Washington Hall in serving refreshments.

A Sure Sign of Prosperity.

That the United States has prospered during the past two years is beyond question. A sure sign of it is found in the enormous passenger traffic being done by the great transportation companies, both by land and water. One of the most popular trips for tourists in this country has always been the Hudson River by daylight. The Day Line steamers Albany and New York are now in commission. These beautiful steamers, the finest and fastest river steamers in the world, are in their usual well nigh perfect condition, and offer to travelers the maximum of pleasure and comfort. Being the only Day Line of steamers on the Hudson between New York and Albany, it offers to tourists the only opportunity of viewing the magnificent scenery for which the Hudson is renowned.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongued coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store

Excursion to Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, the "Switzerland of America."

On July 4th the Lehigh Valley Railroad will sell tickets to Mauch Chunk and Glen Onoko, good going and returning on that date only. Train will leave South Plainfield at 9:02 a. m. SUNDAY'S BALL GAMES.

At Cincinnati—1st game: Cincinnati, 4; Washington, 3; 2d game, Cincinnati, 6; Washington, 7.

At St. Louis: Baltimore, 7; St. Louis, 3.

The Clinton Avenue baseball team went to Berkeley Heights Saturday afternoon and played a remarkable game with the Berkely Heights nine. The score stood 3 to 2 in favor of the home club at the beginning of the eighth inning. Then the Clinton avenueites woke up and pounded out ten runs, winning by a score of 12 to 3. Squires pitched for the visitors and only two hits were made off his delivery. Bowman caught. The Rogers combination were the battery for the Berkeley Heights team.

GOLF.

A change of programme has been made for tomorrow at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club grounds. Instead of the bogie play there will be a "straight" handicap for active members only, and a silver cup will be presented to the person making the lowest net score and a set of golf balls to the one making the lowest gross score. The play will be eighteen holes.

Fourth of July promises to be a lively day at the links of the Park Golf Club. A number of members, who go daily to New York are home today and tomorrow on a short vacation and are spending much of their time on the links. Tomorrow the attendance will be even larger. In the afternoon there will be a lively competition for Fourth of July Cup, a valuable silver trophy offered by the club. It is to be a man's competition, eighteen holes, medal play, open to all active and associate members, over sixteen years of age of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club and the Park Golf Club. Play will start at 1:30 o'clock.

CYCLING COMMENT.

The City Park will be the point of interest in the afternoon with a concert and speaking there. Former Judge W. A. Coddington will read the Declaration of Independence and Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis will deliver an address. Among the guests willl be State Senator Cross, of Elizabeth.

An open air concert and $1,500 exhibition of fireworks will be held in the evening on the old cricket field, corner of Giraud and Myrtle avenues. The concert begins at 7:30, and the fireworks at 8 o'clock or as soon thereafter as it is dark enough.

Mayors Rockfellow, of this city, and Smalley, of the borough, have issued orders to have the fire alarm sounded at 12 o'clock midnight tonight. The alarm will blow for about five minutes. The sextons of the various churches are also requested to ring the church bells. Capt. McDonald will also fire the salute of 12 guns, continuing the salute at frequent intervals until sunrise. The gun will also be fired every hour throughout the day. For the past thirty years Capt. McDonald has ushered in the nation's birthday by firing the national salute. And he will do so tomorrow with more than ordinary interest, in view of the proud record which Uncle Sam has obtained in the past year.

Tickets for the grandstand to view the fireworks are for sale at all the drugstores. When the capacity of the stand is sold no more tickets can be secured. The stand will seat 1,000. Mayors Rockfellow and Smalley and Building Inspector Doane have inspected the stand and pronounce it entirely safe, and in no danger of falling.

MERVIN R. HUGHSON IS DEAD.

Formerly Resided in This City—Funeral Held This Afternoon.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Mervin R. Hughson, formerly a resident of this city. Mr. Hughson died near Chester, Hunterdon county, where he had been living for sometime past. For the past three years he was confined to his bed and was a great sufferer. Death came early Friday morning last.

Mr. Hughson resided in this city about ten years. A portion of the time he conducted an oyster place in the Marsh Building on Somerset street. He also worked for some time for Henry Clay Randolph, on his farm on the outskirts of this city. He was an uncle of Mrs. C. Frank French, of Washington avenue. The funeral services were held this afternoon at 1 o'clock from the church at Chester.

THE FALL OF JUSTICE.

While Attempting to Display His Patriotism Justice Mosher Sustains an Injury.

While imbued with a patriotic spirit early this morning Justice J. E. Mosher thought to display his enthusiasm by throwing the national colors to the breeze from his office window in the First National Bank building. The Judge stepped upon the window sill, but in an evil moment lost his footing and fell to the floor. The fall took all the patriotism out of the Judge. When he gathered himself up and took an inventory the sum total of his injuries proved to be a few contusions on his left forearm. The accident is responsible for the Judge's lack of decorations to his office. His injuries, however, are not serious and will not interfere with his official duties.

Sold Twelve Lots.

The auction sale by the Plainfield Real Estate Company Saturday afternoon was fairly well attended, the result being twelve lots sold to the following persons at an average price of $550 per lot. On West Fifth street, J. D. Runyon two lots; Christopher Hansen two lots; W. H. Abbott two lots; E. A. Park two lots; and on West Fourth street, I. S. Randolph one lot; L. H. Hart two lots, A. A. Stryker & Bro., one lot. The company have a few choice lots left. Take a look at them.

Call Men Will be on Duty.

There will be no special orders for the Fourth of July issued in the Plainfield fire department this year. The regular arrangements will continue and the present force, now the call men on duty, is amply sufficient to cope with any troubles that may arise during the day. There will be a number of the call men who will spend the night at fire headquarters and almost all of them will be in the near neighborhood during the day.

Orders for First Division.

Marshal W. C. Smith, who has charge of the parade tomorrow morning desires to have the first division go through Park avenue to Crescent avenue, and the second division to go into Fifth street from Park avenue, the third division through Watchung avenue, and the fourth division down Fifth street to Washington street, where the division will be escorted into line on LaGrande avenue.

Streets in Good Condition.

Under the supervision of Street Commissioner Gavett the streets through which the parade will pass tomorrow morning have been put in good condition. This morning the big steam roller was used on Park avenue to level the street where the excavation had been made in putting down the storm sewer. The streets are now in fairly good condition for the parade.

Death of Second Son.

Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Fritts, of Hawley, Pa., have the sympathy of their host of friends in the loss of their second son, George Suydam Fritts, aged 7 months and 21 days, which occurred at Hawley, Saturday. The remains will be brought to this city and the burial will be from the residence of Dr. J. T. Fritts, Park avenue, at the convenience of the family.

RIOT ON TROLLEY CAR.

DRUNKEN ITALIANS PUT OFF AFTER A HARD FIGHT.

They Were Hooting and Yelling and Frightened Passengers—Black and Blue Eyes and Bloody Noses Resulted.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, July 3—There was a bloody riot it car No. 25, of the Brunswick Traction Company line last night, between a gang of drunken Italians and the railway employes. The car was bound from Bound Brook to New Brunswick and left the former place at 7:15 o'clock. It was filled with passengers, many of them being women and children. The two rear seats were occupied by ten brawny Italians who were badly intoxicated. The Italians were very noisy, and though warned by Conductor Boyle, of New Brunswick, to keep quiet, they paid no heed to his orders. When the car reached the John Y. Field farm the Italians were acting so disorderly, swearing and yelling, that the women passengers became frightened.

Boyle stopped the car and ordered the Italians to get off. They hooted and yelled at his orders, but did not move. Then Boyle, assisted by Motorman Britton, and Motorman Smith, of the Dunellen line, was going to New Brunswick, started in to expel the Italians from the car. A fierce fight ensued between the railway men and the Italians, which waged for several minutes, during which the Italians were finally pitched into the gutter. Several of the Italians received blackened blue eyes and bloody noses, and the railway men also suffered severely in the melee. As the car speeded away from the place where the unruly passengers had been dumped the Italians threw stones at the trolley vehicle. Several of the passengers narrowly escaped being hit by the missiles.

No arrests have been made.

REMONSTRANCE HEADS THE APPLICATION

Opposition to Arlington Avenue Trolley Extension.

HEARING FOR JULY 20TH.

MARTIN ACT COMMISSIONERS' BILLS WERE LAID OVER.

Charges Made Against a Paid Call Fireman for Using Obscene Language While on Duty—City Judge Wants a Better Station House—Steps Towards the City Owning Its Water Works.

A considerable amount of important business was transacted at the regular meeting of the Common Council Monday evening. In the absence of President Andrews, Councilman Smith filled the position. A protest from Eliza Kenyon and other property owners on Arlington avenue asked the Council to refuse to grant a franchise for a trolley on that avenue. Following this protest a petition was received from the Plainfield Street Railway asking for a franchise to operate and locate a trolley on Arlington avenue from Fourth street to the city line according to the route already mentioned. The Council set Thursday evening, July 20th, as the time when the petition would be considered, also that of the objectors.

J. P. Taylor and F. W. Dunn petioned the Council for permission to remove the frame awning from in front of the building at the corner of Park and North avenues, and replace it with a galvanized awning instead. The petition was granted. W. R. Richards and others asked the Council for more police protection in the east end of the city. Secretary Robert M. Clark, of the Fourth of July Committee, asked the Council for a subscription for the celebration, and $100 was given towards the cause.

Thomas Currin complained about assessment for taxes on the property located at 18 East Second street, stating that the taxes were paid and there seems to be a double assessment. He asked the Council to refer the matter to the proper committee and have the matter adjusted properly.

Henry Duzenbury, of Hillside avenue, also complained about the assessment of $54.51 taxes on a piece of property owned by him. He claimed that the taxes were paid and there appears to be a duplicate assessment. This matter was referred as well as the other complaint.

Alonzo Aldrich and other residents in the West End asked for a fire hydrant on Sherman avenue near Grant avenue, and the same was granted.

C. H. Hand, in a communication, preferred charges against John Cose, one of the fire department call men, for using obscene language and acting in a disorderly manner on June 27th, at the fire in the rear of George Kirch's store on Liberty street. The matter was referred to the fire and building committee.

The bills of the Martin Act Commissioners were received and there seemed to be some misunderstanding regarding the payment of the same. The bills showed no signs of approval by the Court. In a communication Corporation Counsel Marsh stated that the bill of Frank J. Hubard, as clerk of the commissioners, for $850, needed the approval of the court, while it was not necessary for the other bills to be so approved. After much discussion it was decided to lay the matter over till the next meeting.

The Plainfield Water Supply Company reported the location of five hydrants as ordered, making in all 282, and in this connection Mr. Corlell stated that the company had located hydrants to please themselves and not as ordered and directed. He had therefore called a halt and the company is now locating hydrants as directed. Mr. Buckle stated that the company had informed him that they would make any mistakes right.

Frank Linke, as manager for the Eastern Bottling Association, petitioned the Council for a license to bottle liquors, and the same was granted.

The report of City Judge Runyon was received. It showed that during the quarter 102 cases had been treated, and $85 had been received in fines. The sum of $17.01 was disbursed, and a balance of $55.49 was reported. Mr. Runyon also reported on the condition of the city jail and urged the Council to take some steps toward securing better quarters. He cited the fact that the Board of Health had condemned the building and thought the Council should not continue to violate the health ordinances.

In connection with the above Mr.

PATRIOTISM AT THE INN

EXERCISES AT THE MOUNTAIN PARK YESTERDAY.

An Address Delivered by a Lineal Descendant of the Late President John Quincy Adams—Original Poem.

The celebration of Independence Day at the Mountain Park Inn was of a particularly patriotic nature. The guests at the hotel and a number of invited guests from this city, numbering two hundred in all, assembled in the parlors at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Ambrose Reeves, the proprietress, and her daughter, Mrs. George M. Babcock, received during the day.

John Quincy Adams, a lineal descendant of the President of that name, delivered address appropriate to the occasion. Mrs. Flora Adams Darling, president of the Daughters of the American Revolution, read a patriotic poem of her own composition. She also presented to Mrs. Reeves a picture of the making of the first American flag in behalf of the Betsy Ross Memorial Association.

There were six of the regents of the Daughters of the American Revolution present, who were Mrs. Breckenbridge, of Texas; Mrs. Hollongsworth, of Kansas; Mrs. Charles C. Neighbor, of New York; Mrs. Wilson W. Smith, of Plainfield, and Mrs. Leroy Sunderlin Smith, of New York, the first historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution and regent of the Betsy Ross Chapter. They all spoke briefly.

There was also a baritone solo by Ambrose Reeves, and a short address by him on the relations of America and England. Miss Maud Reeves sang, Miss Helen Berger gave a whistling solo and Louis C. Whiton read the Declaration of Independence. The prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes. The exercises were followed by the serving of refreshments.

Celebration in That Place was of an Athletic Turn.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 5.—The Fourth of July was celebrated at this place in a way long to be remembered by the people of Westfield. It is estimated that there were 2,000 visitors in town during the day. The principal event of the day was the fifteen-mile handicap bicycle road race. The race was run under L. A. W. rules. Charles Embleton, of this place, was the winner. His handicap was 1-30; corrected time, 46-50. Embleton captured first prize, a $75 special racing wheel, and the time prize, another $75 racing wheel. Stewart Roberts, of Jersey City, got second place, handicap, 1-30; corrected time, 47-03; C. Hummer, Plainfield, third, handicap 3-00; corrected time, 47-45. William Embleton, brother of the winner, secured fourth place, handicap 3-00; corrected time, 48-50.

The events uuder the direction of the I. O. S. and S. O. H. took place on Broad street at eight o'clock in the morning. The 100-yard dash was won C. E. Mitchell; time 12 seconds. Octavious Knight, second; Edgar Foster, third. The three-legged race was won by Joseph Delnaro and Chester Meffett. The 220-yard handicap running race was won by Octavious Knight. The half-mile bicycle race, for boys under 17 years, was won by Charles Embleton. The one-mile handicap bicycle road race was won by Charles Embleton.

BANNER FOR THE JUNIORS.

Presented to Franklin Council by Crew of U. S. Cruiser Brooklyn.

The handsome banner which was carried by the crew from the U. S. Cruiser Brooklyn was presented to Franklin Council, Junior O. U. A. M. after the parade. The presentation was made at Washington Hall by Chief Gunner's Mate Donely. The gift was accepted by Vice Councilor Robt. M. Clark, who in a cleverly worded speech, thanked the Brooklyn boys for the courtesy. After the dinner an informal entertainment was given for benefit of the visitors, which included a slack wire performance and musical selections.

A Coming Marriage.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Rush Rhees, a professor at the college at Newton Centre, Mass., and Miss Harriet Seelye, daughter of Dr. Seelye, president of Smith College. The wedding will take place Thursday evening of next week at 6 o'clock, at Northhampton, Mass., the home of the bride.

Big Money for Street Railway.

The Plainfield Street Railway Company's receipts yesterday were the largest in the history of the company for one day. They were favored with good weather, and the cars all day and in the evening were crowded to their fullest extent.

GLORIOUS DAY FOR THE FOURTH.

Celebration in Plainfield Went Off in Gala Form.

GOOD TIME FOR EVERYBODY.

BUT FEW ACCIDENTS MAR ITS DAY'S PLEASURE.

Naval Reserves and Men-o'-wars-men Accorded a Great Ovation by the Patriotic Multitude—Parade Was a Big Affair—Excellent Address by Dr. A. H. Lewis—Fireworks in the Evening.

Patriotic enthusiasm was displayed throughout the world in more places yesterday than ever before. Not only in all the States and Territories on this continent, but in Cuba, in Porto Rico, in Hawaii, in the Ladrones and in the Phillippines was the National holiday celebrated this year.

It is the most memorable July the country has known since its creation and this year gave us the first opportunity to celebrate the great events which have so recently crowned the Nation's history.

And then, too, yesterday was Uncle Sam's one hundred and twenty-third birthday. This fact is the more interesting when it is taken into consideration that today the Stars and Strips float over vast possessions upon which the sun never sets, a proud boast that a year ago could only be made by our English cousins.

It may be that a knowledge of this fact is what inspired citizens everywhere and imbued them with a spirit of patriotism that awoke them to the realization of what independence means.

While other cities and towns were observing the day Plainfield was not a whit less patriotic and had planned a monster celebration.

All nature smiled upon their efforts. Old Sol was up with the small boy and scattered his hot rays promiscuously about. Although the weather was warm, still a slight breeze prevailed in the forenoon and for a hot day it was as comfortable as could be expected.

The day was ushered in with the usual noise so characteristic of other Fourth of July celebrations. The small boy was out early; in fact many of the youth of the city and some also who had seen half a hundred Independence days, were up all night. To say that the eagle screamed is putting it mildly. Young America was bubbling over with enthusiasm and he gave full vent to his feelings.

It was not, however, until midnight that the celebration began in earnest. The staid citizen who had got to bed early with the expectation of catching a few hours' sleep before daylight, was woefully disappointed in his calculations.

With the first sounding of the fire-alarm whistle everyone was wide awake. For several moments the heavy tones of the whistle filled the midnight air, its vibrations finally echoing against the Watchung mountains, as did also the sound of the borough fire bell.

Following closely upon the whistle came the booming of cannon, intermingled with the sharp cracks of the thousands of fire crackers that were being exploded all over town, with a refrain from the church bells, that seemed to say, "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

The noise was deafening and those who tried to sleep finally gave it up and many of them arose and consoled themselves by looking from chamber windows, while recollections of younger days coursed through their minds.

At sunrise Capt. McDonald paid homage to the natal day by firing a salute of 18 guns. Before the salute had been finished the sun was well up, smiling approval upon the beginning of the day's demonstration.

The sun was high in the heavens before the small boys' enthusiasm had spent its force and exhausted pater families found a couple of hours' repose previous to engaging in the more important events of the day's celebration.

As early as 8 o'clock the streets of the city began to fill and by 8:45 o'clock, when the men-o'-warsmen from the United States Cruiser Brooklyn reached town and marched from the North avenue station to their headquarters at Washington Hall, where they were the guests of Franklin Council No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., the streets were jammed with people.

Every train on the Central east and west and all trolley lines brought hundreds of visitors to town. They came from as far east as Newark and as far west as Phillipsburg, Pa., while the trolley cars from Scotch Plains and those running from New Brunswick, Bound Brook, Dunellen and other places kept rolling into town all morning and depositing load after load of human freight. By the time the parade started there were more people in Plainfield than have been here since the celebration of 1895.

The feature of the morning was the monster parade. Although as regards the number of organizations in line it was not as large as that of four years ago. However, it was fully as imposing and possessed some features much more interesting.

It was nearly 11 o'clock when the parade hove in sight, coming up Park avenue. The balcony of the Revere House was used as a reviewing stand and it was there that Mayor Rockfellow, of this city, and Mayor Smalley, of the borough, together with the councilmen, members of the general committee and invited guests witnessed the column pass.

As the paraders swept into view the sight was an imposing one. First came the bicycle squad of police with Marshal Campbell of the borough at the lead, followed closely by a platoon of eight police on foot in command of stalwart Sergeant Kiely, who courteously acknowledged the generous applause given his command. Plainfield's "finest" made a good impression and presented a soldierly bearing.

At the head of the first division appeared Marshal Smith, his mount being a handsome sorrel and he sat his horse like the veterans he is.

Preceding the Naval Reserves was the Queen City Band playing an inspiring patriotic air.

It was the Reserves—the pride of the State National Guard—who were first to receive the applause of any moment from those on the reviewing stand. They were in command of Captain Irving. As they filed by the Revere House, arms aport, they were greeted with an outburst of applause that evinced the interest which is taken in them. Capt. Irving gracefully acknowledged the compliment by bringing his sword to a present. The Reserves are certainly a splendid body of men and presented a fine appearance.

The High School Cadets, Capt. Geo. F. Edwards, shared the honors with the Reserves, however. Clad in their natty gray jackets and white duck trousers they presented a neat appearance. They marched by with an elastic step and the various platoons kept their distances admirably.

Following the cadets marched Crescent Company, Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias. Their showy uniforms and attractive helmets with red plumes, gave a picturesque aspect to this division that caused expressions of admiration from those on the reviewing stand, and they also came in for a generous share of applause.

Miantonomo Tribe of Red Men was next. Some of the chiefs of the tribe were in full uniform, while in a float made to represent a canoe were seated a number of big braves. To the applause that greeted them the Red Men gave forth a series of war whoops and grunts, characteristic of their native forefathers.

Preceding Franklin Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, which headed the second division, came Lawrence Fahn, dressed to personate Uncle Sam. He and the Juniors were enthusiastically received by those on the stand as well as by the crowd which lined the sidewalk on either side of the street.

But to the men-o'-warsmen from the U. S. Cruiser Brooklyn, in command of Lieut. Steven F. Donely, were given the most enthusiastic and uproarious applause of any of the organizations. When it was noticed that they bore aloft a banner containing a portrait of Commodore Schley and the words, "Santiago, July 3, 1898," a shout went up that fairly shook the balcony from its foundation. Both Mayors and the members of the Councils waved their hats and shouted while the lady members of the party shook their handkerchiefs and applauded vigorously. The applause was taken up by those on the sidewalk and for several minutes the cheers and plaudits of the crowd fairly drowned the music of the drum corps. The greeting was as vociferous as it was spasmodic and heartfelt, giving evidence to all who witnessed the inspiring scene that Uncle Sam's fighting tars have a warm spot in the affections of the citizens of Plainfield.

The Brooklyn crew—more than sixty of them—drew a handsome float which the Juniors had designed to represent the many possessions of which the Nation can now boast. It was in the form of a large-sized globe, while standing at the four corners—north, south, east and west—were the representatives of Uncle Sam's fighting forces—the soldier and the sailor. Crowning all was a young

THREE FIRE ALARMS DURING THE DAY.

Sailors and Naval Reserves Assisted at One.

PRAY'S' BARN DESTROYED.

FIRE AT HOLMES' COAL YARD MADE MUCH EXCITEMENT.

Department First Turned Out at Request of the Police to Extinguish Dangerous Bon Fire on North Avenue—Then Came a False Alarm—Holmes' Yard Started in Afternoon—Also Barn on Rahway Road.

Three regular alarms and one still alarm marked the share of the Plainfield fire department in the Fourth of July celebration yesterday. On one occasion the department found a host of sailors from the U. S. S. Brooklyn and the New Jersey Naval Reserves as active assistants.

At 11:44 o'clock Monday night Assistant Chief Jennings and No. 2 hose wagon responded to a call from the police to extinguish a hugh bon fire on North avenue which was thought to endanger neighboring property.

Ed Doolv, of East Fourth street, sent in an alarm from box 21 at 1:06 Tuesday morning. He said he heard someone shouting fire. No fire could be found and the department returned.

The wooden covers to the coal trestle at E. H. Holmes' coal yard on Madison avenue caught fire early in the afternoon from a spark from a locomotive or fire cracker. The firemen at the power house opposite sent in an alarm from box 41 at 1:52 o'clock. A great crowd of sailors from the U. S. Brooklyn and some of the Naval Reserves caught the apparatus on the way to the fire. A number of others ran to the scene. They went up the walls like monkeys without waiting for ladders and aided the firemen in removing the covers and laying in the lines of hose. The sailors thought it great fun and entered into the work with much zest. The fire was easily extinguished with but slight loss.

A spark set fire to some fireworks stored between the blind and window sash at the residence of R. B. Rogers, of Westervelt avenue, yesterday morning. The fireworks exploded, setting fire to the woodwork. The flames were extinguished with several buckets of water.

The most disastrous fire of yesterday was that on Rahway road in the afternoon about 5:30 o'clock, when the large barn and outbuildings owned by E. E. Pray were completely destroyed.

Charles Smith, of South avenue, was about the first to discover the fire and he hastened to the scene, when he reached Watchung and Woodland avenues, where Box 29 is located. He found the keyhole stopped up with firecrackers, and it took several minutes to remove the stoppage. Although the barn and other outbuildings were practically destroyed by the time the department arrived they were able to protect nearby property. No one seems able to explain the cause of the fire. There is a rumor that some boys were shooting off firecrackers, and were making use of a knothole in the barn. This cannot be proven, however. There was a great deal of stuff in the barn not covered by insurance, although there was a partial insurance on the barn. The fire and excitement caused Mrs. Pray to have nervous prostration, but her condition is not considered serious. Her boy was also greatly excited. Mr. Pray intends to build again at once.

The farmhouse of Abram Smalley, at West Dunellen, was set on fire by firecrackers yesterday afternoon and totally destroyed, together with the contents. The loss is about $2,000.

To Put Up a Fine Residence.

J. B. Mills has purchased of Mr. Kenyon, of Raritan, the Ulrich property on South avenue, near Netherwood station. The plot of ground is 180 feet front by 200 feet deep. Mr. Mills will build a handsome up-to-date house on part of the property to cost at least $5,000, and the balance of the tract he will cut up into lots to suit purchasers.

Mr. Cooper to Start in Well.

George W. Cooper took possession of the Somerville postoffice Saturday. Mr. Clark has succeeded in securing an allowance for another clerk, at a salary of $500 per year. This raises the amount allowed for clerk hire from $1,100 to $1,600. This is a nice little present for Mr. Cooper.

Mr. Martine to Orate.

J. E. Martine will speak at the farmers' reunion to be held at Belvidere, this State, August 24th.

ACCIDENTS OF THE DAY

MANY SMALL BURNS AND WOUNDS, BUT NONE SERIOUS.

One Boy Loses Some Fingers by Explosion of Cannon Firecracker in His Hand—Revolvers Handled Carelessly, Too.

The usual number of Fourth of July accidents are recorded, but fortunately this year there are no serious ones. The following minor accidents occurred:

Among the first accidents reported in connection with the celebration yesterday was that of Whitfield Frazee, of South avenue. He was discharging a revolver and was using bullets. Accidently the pistol went off and a bullet went through his hand. Dr. Long was called and properly dressed the wound.

Walter Southard, nine years of age, was playing with cannon firecrackers yesterday morning when one accidentally went off before he was ready for it. One hand suffered greatly from the explosion, as only one finger was left on that member. He was taken to the hospital and had the hand attended to. He will have little use for it when the injury heals.

Last evening a young boy, whose name could not be learned, ran into a cycler while riding his wheel on Front street in front of Randolph's drug store. He was thrown some distance and at first he was thought to be seriously injured. He was taken into Randolph's drug store by Peter B. Hodge, one of the clerks, and after examination he was found to be suffering from sprains, bruises and shock. He was soon able to go home.

A girl named Clark, about nine years old, daughter of Mr. Clark, engineer at the pumping station of the Middlesex Water Company at New Brooklyn, had one of her hands quite severely burned by firecrackers.

May Pruden, the little daughter of Albert Pruden, of East Second street, examined a lighted fire cracker at short range yesterday. The explosion badly burned her eyes. Dr. Clawson dressed the injuries.

The young son of Charles H. Hand, of Woodland avenue, made too close an acquaintanceship with a fire cracker. His hands were burned.

Whitney Frazee, of South avenue, was cleaning his revolver Monday night. The revolver was loaded. One bullet blew a hole through Frazee's hand, breaking several bones.

A lad named Barkelow, living on Webster place, was shooting a muzzle loading cannon. He thought the gun had missed fire and started to investigate. The cannon went off in his face. He will probably loose the sight of one eye.

Neal Compton, Jr., of West Front street, was shooting blank cartridges in a revolver. The revolver happened to be in close proximity to the face of Harold Vanderhoof, of West Front street. Vanderhoof's face was badly burned on the right side. Dr. Boone dressed the wound.

Mrs. Sharkey, of Lincoln place, had need of Dr. Buchanan's services yesterday morning, for accidentally a pistol went off in her hands and sprinkled her face with powder.

A young woman named Polore was treated by Dr. Tomlinson yesterday for powder in the face and eyes, the result of an explosion. A lad named Nischwitz, of Manning avenue, had his thumb badly injured while playing with a revolver, loaded with a blank cartridge. Dr. Tomlinson attended to his case also.

Rowland Rockfellow, the young son of Mayor Rockfellow, of Park avenue, shot himself in the hand with a blank cartridge Monday afternoon. A painful flesh wound resulted.

Historical Trophies.

The United States flags used in Porto Rico, together with three of the captured flags from Porto Rico, were displayed yesterday from the offices of the Special Commission to Porto Rico, 124 Watchung avenue. In years to come such trophies, as flags actually at the front and those once belonging to the enemy, will be sought for by cities as they now urgently solicit a single cannon, or other large trophy, for their public places.

Mrs. O'Sullivan to be Buried Here.

The funeral service of the late Mrs. Sylvester J. O'Sullivan were held this morning at 11 o'clock at St. Francis Xavier church, West Sixteenth street, New York, and Rev. Father Denny officiated. The attendance of sorrowing friends was very large. After the service the remains were brought to this city where they were placed in the receiving vault at Hillside cemetery. They will be interred in a few days.

Quiet in the Borough.

Not an arrest nor a case of disorderly conduct was reported in the borough yesterday.

GOLF AND SOCIETY AT PARK CLUB LINKS.

Independence Day Well Observed by Club.

LARGE ATTENDANCE THERE.

PLAY FOR FOURTH OF JULY CUP IN AFTERNOON.

Fred P. Taylor Won it by Good Play—Hillside Men Made a Very Poor Showing—Links Were Rather Dry But Very Fast—Concert and Tea Held During Afternoon—Dance at Night.

This year it was the turn of the Park Golf Club to entertain those who usually flock to the Park Club for entertainment on the Fourth. The Golf Club did it and right royally, too. A tournament, a concert and a tea served to display the charming clubhouse and the excellent links at their best.

There was nothing particular scheduled for the morning. The course was crowded, however, with enthusiastic golfers from the Park and Hillside Clubs, the latter of whom wanted to try a round before playing there in a tournament.

The course was dry, rather too much so for the good of the greens, but very fast. The putting greens were in good shape and ready for low scores. It was rather hot for exact comfort, but a cooling breeze occasionally drifted over the fields, but not with force enough to seriously disturb the drives.

The tournament began at 1:30 o'clock and opened the programme for the afternoon. There were nearly forty entries of whom thirty turned up. Frank Reinhart, of the Hillside Club, who was placed at scratch, failed to appear. It was a men's handicap competition for the Fourth of July cup, eighteen holes, medal play.

The contestants were sent out in pairs as soon as they arrived, G. W. Faber and W. L. Glenney being the first pair to start. G. W. Cooley, who had a handicap of 20, did the first round in 50, which promised to make things exciting. Morgan T. Townsend reported 46 for his first nine holes. Both were considered strong candidates for honors if they continued the game they were playing.

Fred P. Taylor was home from Belmar and proved he had not forgotten the game by making the first round in 44, the course record. It was expected that the Hillside players would carry everything before them in the tournament. They were apparently lost, however. Henry Ryder never finished. Neither did A. R. Fisk. Glenny did well, making the eighteen holes in 98. Wadsworth showed poor form and only made 103.

When the Park players began to come in on their second round, it was found that Cooley had fallen off a little in his playing, making the second in 55, a total of 105. His net score was 85. Townsend fell off slightly but did well enough to win out from Cooley by one stroke. Then Tayley came in and his card showed him 48 for the second and a net score of 83, just one better than Townsend.

J. T. Scott was low man among the older players, finishing fourth. Glenney came next and was the first of the Hillside delegation. His gross score of 98 was second best, Taylor making the best gross and net scores. There was one hot match between Assemblyman Roger F. Murray and Meredith Dryden. The Republican statesman proved himself the better player, but by a very small margin.

From 9 until after 6 o'clock Isler's orchestra from Newark rendered selections at frequent intervals. The music was good and the scene at the clubhouse made it even more enjoyable. The members, their families and friends turned out in force, the women in light summer gowns and the men in bright red coats and golf or duck trousers.

The scores in the tournament were as follows:

| | Gross. | Handicap. | Net. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Fred P. Taylor | 92 | 9 | 83 |
| Morgan T. Townsend | 100 | 16 | 84 |
| Gifford W. Cooley | 105 | 20 | 85 |
| James T. Scott | 117 | 24 | 93 |
| W. L. Glenney | 98 | 2 | 96 |
| G. W. Faber | 106 | 9 | 97 |
| C. W. Fisk | 101 | 3 | 98 |
| F. C. Ard | 110 | 12 | 98 |
| W. T. Kaufman | 106 | 6 | 100 |
| W. J. Roome, Jr. | 124 | 24 | 100 |
| William Townsend | 122 | 22 | 100 |
| Parker Mason | 107 | 6 | 101 |
| Willard Wadsworth | 103 | 2 | 101 |
| Townsend Bushmore | 121 | 18 | 103 |
| W. F. Murray | 131 | 18 | 103 |
| J. W. Baker | 111 | 6 | 105 |
| Dr. Endicott | 131 | 24 | 107 |
| W. J. Roome | 131 | 24 | 107 |
| H. D. Hibbard | 133 | 24 | 109 |
| W. J. B. Thiers | 128 | 18 | 110 |
| Roger F. Murray | 128 | 18 | 110 |
| Meredith Dryden | 135 | 24 | 111 |
| A. Fawcett | 141 | 24 | 117 |
| J. VanHerwerden | 144 | 18 | 126 |

AMPLE ROOM FOR TROOPS.

Surgeon-General Sternberg is Pleased With San Francisco's Camp.

IS A MODEL OF NEATNESS

Excellent Quarters Are Provided For the Soldiers Returning From the Philippine Islands.

Sanitary Arrangements Are Almost to the Fine Point of Perfection—A Proposed Sanitarium For Consumptive Veterans at Fort Bayard, New Mexico.

Washington, July 5.—Surgeon-General Sternberg has returned to Washington after an extended trip through the South and West. While absent Gen. Sternberg inspected the new model camp at San Francisco, where the volunteers returning from the Philippines will be detained until mustered out. Col. Greenleaf of the Medical Department has had charge of the construction of the camp, and Gen. Sternberg reports that it excels any other camp ever constructed in this country. The sanitary arrangements are almost perfect. The sinks and kitchens are separated, and Sibley tents, each with a stove, have been erected for the returning soldiers. Eight men will be assigned to a tent and each will have a separate cot.

In addition to the regular camp, there is ready for occupation a detention camp on Angel Island which will accomodate 1,500 men in case it is necessary to quarantine any ship. The regular camp will accommodate 4,000 volunteers at one time, but in addition to this there is a camp where recruits are quartered, and this could be thrown open to the returning troops. A new hospital has also been constructed, which, with the old hospital, will furnish room for 1,000 beds. A large number of physicians and nurses have already been ordered to these hospitals for duty, and more are in readiness to respond to any emergency call.

An important part of Gen. Sternberg's trip was to Prescott, Ariz., and Fort Bayard, N. M. For several years the Commissioners having in charge the National Soldiers' Home at Washington have been anxious to secure a suitable place for the establishment of a tuberculosis sanitarium for discharged soldiers.

At a meeting of the Commission several months ago Gen. Sternberg was authorized to visit Prescott, Ariz., and Fort Bayard, N. M., and report to the Secretary of War the suitability of either of these places for such a sanitarium. After an inspection of each place Gen. Sternberg decided to recommend Fort Bayard. N. M. Fort Bayard has accommodation for six companies of infantry, but is occupied at this time by only one company. The climate there is in every way suitable to tuberculosis patients, and Gen. Sternberg will urge that the unused quarters of the fort be remodelled and fitted up for occupancy by consumptive soldiers.

Surgeon-Gen. Wyman of the Marine Service recently selected Fort Stanton, N. M., for a similar sanitarium for discharged consumptives from the navy and the marine service, but Fort Bayard will have the advantage over Fort Stanton of railroad facilities, being on the line of the railroad, Fort Stanton being several miles from the station and accessible only by stage.

Commission Coming Home.

Washington, July 5.—According to advices received at the Navy Department from Samoa, the Samoan Commission will leave there about the middle of July. The information was contained in a despatch from Capt. Miller, commanding the Badger, the vessel which conveyed the Commission to Samoa. Capt. Miller's despatch was dated at Auckland, July 3, and stated that the collier Brutus would leave Apia on July 6 for Honolulu, and the Badger, with the Commission aboard—nothing preventing—on July 14.

The Navy Department has just received a despatch from Commander Goodrich of the Newark announcing the departure from Valparaiso of the collier Abarenda for Samoa. The Abarenda has a supply of coal and equipment for the establishment of a coaling station at Pago Pago.

New Haven Road Buys Property.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 5.—The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company has acquired all the wharf property of the People's Steamboat Company in this city. The price was about $100,000. P. T. Barnum organized the People's Steamboat Company, and later it went into the control of the Bridgeport Steamboat Company, which runs he Sound steamers, Rosedale and Nutmeg State between Bridgeport and New York. The purchase of the wharf property, it is said, was hastened by the rumor that the New York Central was negotiating to acquire the Bridgeport line. President Jenkins, of the steamboat company, and President Clark, of the New Haven road, both deny that the railroad company has acquired controlling stock in the Bridgeport Steamboat Company.

Americans Honor Grotius.

The Hague, July 5.—The American delegates to the Peace Conference has placed a wreath of silver upon the tomb of the Dutch philosopher, Hugo Grotius, the "father of international law." The ceremony took place in the Nieuwe Kerk at Delft, in which town Grotius was born in 1583. The Hon. Andrew D. White, United States Ambassador to Germany and the head of the American delegation, presented the silver wreath in behalf of America, and delivered an address in which he lengthily reviewed the life and works of Grotius and extolled his greatness.

Austrian Emperor Better.

Vienna, July 5.—Emperor Francis Joseph has sufficiently recovered from his illness to enable him to start this morning for his summer residence at Ischl.

ERNE WILL GO TO EUROPE

The New Lightweight Champion May Sail This Month.

Buffalo, July 5.—Nearly all of the sports who journeyed here to see the lightweight championship of the world decided between Kid Lavigne of Saginaw, Mich., and Frank Erne, of this city, have left town, and no one could be found, even among the losers, who was not willing to acknowledge that the Buffalo lad won the title to the world's championship because he was the better man of the two. With the exception of one or two very slight scratches on the face, Erne has no marks to show for the tweney rounds of hard fighting he went through.

On the other hand, Lavigne is very bady battered up, his face being badly swollen, his eyes discolored and his body considerably bruised. In spite of all this he accepts his defeat manfully and says he has nothing but words of praise for the man who whipped him. He says that Erne is the best man living in the light weight class and that he does not care to meet him again.

Erne will sail for Europe the latter part of this month or the first of August, where he will try to arrange a match with Dick Burge, the English champion.

On Hatfield's Trail.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 5.—Mingo county and the lower part of the State are stirred over the murder of Deputy Sheriff H. L. Ellis by Ellis Hatfield, son of Devil Anse, at Gray. Hatfield, who is one of the youngest members of the family, escaped into Kentucky, but it is thought he will be captured before he reaches any of the mountain fastnesses that might give him protection. West Virginia officers are making extraordinary efforts to capture the murderer.

Hatfield, who is only 18 years old, saw Ellis on the rear platform of the railway depot. He had a rifle and at once began cursing Ellis; then he aimed his gun to fire. Ellis ran into the car and got his rifle and came out. Both fired at once, but the boy's aim was best and Ellis dropped with a bullet in his head. Hatfield was only slightly wounded in the arm. He escaped across the river, and a posse is now in pursuit.

The killing was done out of revenge for it was Ellis who arrested John Hatfield and had him sent to prison for life. The Hatfields swore that they would be revenged. The posse was out all night and has been reenforced by men from other towns. Two hundred men are engaged in the search, which covers a wide area.

Excitement throughout the entire section where the tragedy occurred is of such a nature that in the event Hatfield should be captured, it would be a difficult task to prevent the friends of the murdered man from lynching him. The Hatfield sympathizers have armed themselves and are preparing for what trouble may occur, and it is the general belief that several more tragedies of a murderous nature will result from the affair at Gray.

Dowager Queen Kapiolani Dead.

San Francisco, July 5.—The Coptic brings news of the death at Honolulu, June 24, of Dowager Queen Kapiolani, widow of King Kalakaua. She was 65 years of age and was a sufferer from cancer, and recently had a stroke of paralysis, following several attacks of apoplexy. She was much esteemed in the islands and her death was sincerely mourned. Her remains lay in state for eight days and were buried with impressive ceremonies. She left no children.

W. J. Elliott Pardoned.

Columbus, Ohio, July 5.—William J. Elliott, former editor of the Sunday Capitol, who was serving a life sentence for murder, has been pardoned by Gov. Bushnell. Elliott killed Albert Osborne, a rival editor, on Feb. 23, 1891, in a street duel. Elliott left immediately after his pardon for California, promising before he went to begin life anew. Elliott is known throughout the country as a champion of Irish Independence.

Mayor Jones Back in Toledo.

Toledo, Ohio, July 5.—Mayor S. M. Jones is back from Buffalo not overimpressed with the work at the Reformers' Convention. He announced positively that he had given up all idea of becoming an independent candidate for Governor this fall. He is evidently of the opinion that it is now too late to inaugurate a campaign which will combine voters of reform tendencies this year.

Restraint on Boer Policemen.

Johannesburg, July 5.—An order has been issued forbidding the Johannesburg police to carry arms while on street duty. In an interview, President Kruger is quoted as saying: "We will prove to the whole world soon that we will do everything that is fair within the bounds of reason and justice. Our course is clear and threats are unavailing."

Death of the Rev. I. S. Hartley.

The Prisoner's Attorney Says He Sees the Strongest Proofs of Innocence.

HIS COUNSEL IS JOYFUL

Interviews With Capt. Dreyfus Make Him Look With Confidence on Outcome of Court-Martial.

The Prisoner Astonished at Many of the Incidents During His Deportation—Most of His Time Spent in Studying Documents of Esterhazy and Zola Trials.

Rennes, France, July 5.—Maitre Labori has paid another visit to Capt. Dreyfus, remaining with him for two hours. The lawyer found the prisoner to be in much better spirits than he has found him before, and in the resistance Dreyfus has shown to the frightful blow he suffered in the judgment of the court-martial and his terrible existence on Devil's Island, combined with his marvelous recuperation of physical and mental strength since he left Cayenne, Maitre Labori saw the strongest proofs of his innocence.

Counsel was almost joyful in appearance on leaving the military prison and beyond doubt his interviews with Dreyfus have given him the most favorable impression respecting the outcome of the court-martial. Dreyfus spends most of his time in studying the documents relating to the Esterhazy and Zola trials.

Maitre Labori, during the conference, explained to him the obscure points. Dreyfus was naturally astonished at many incidents and at the attitude of various persons since his deportation.

Mme. and Matthew Dreyfus also paid a visit to the prisoner and were with him for more than an hour. As on previous occasions when Mrs. Dreyfus has visited her husband, he was deeply affected, and when she placed her arms about his neck and kissed him good bye he could not restrain his emotion nor keep back the flow of tears, which apparently afforded considerable relief to his miserable condition.

Big Coal Deal Closed.

Pittsburg, July 5.—One of the largest coal deals ever made along the Monongahela River has just been closed at Uniontown. The deal involves about $1,200,000 cash and 10,000 acres of coal, extending from Rice's Landing to Big Whiteley Creek, Greene County. The property has a river frontage of eighteen miles and is between one and two and a half miles wide.

The purchasers are Fayette County capitalists, but it is said that an Eastern syndicate is behind the deal. The same persons purchased a block of 4,850 acres of coal on the Fayette side of the river last week for $400,000 cash and have just secured 2,000 acres on the Greene County side from Lock No. 7 to Dunkard's Creek, the consideration being $180,000.

Col. James M. Guffey, of this city, has also concluded a sale of 7,000 acres of coal property on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, near Farmington, W. Va., to the George's Creek Coal and Iron Company, of Baltimore The price paid is said to be about $250,000.

War Got Soldier a Bride.

Lexington, Ky., July 5.—Lieutenant Percy Morris Burrill, of New Rochelle, and a member of the Twelfth New York Regiment, which was encamped here last Fall, is to marry the beautiful Miss Mary Warfield, of this county. They first met a few days after his regiment arrived here in Dixiana, the home of Miss Warfield's uncle, Major Thomas J. Carson.

Another Windsor Fire Victim.

Saratoga, July 5.—Miss Dorothy L. F. Wheeler, 28 years old, died at the cottage of her mother, Mrs. L. A. Wheeler of New York, as the result of injuries received in escaping from the Windsor Hotel fire in New York on March 17. Miss Wheeler descended hand over hand on a rope and was severely burned. She was first taken to the Presbyterian Hospital.

Compromise in Belgium.

Brussels, July 5.—The members of the Right in the Chamber have unanimously agreed to the government proposal refering the electoral bills to a committee of all parties. The Left has also assented, with a resolution limiting the time of the committee's deliberations. It is believed this will solve the trouble for the present.

Sampson's Flag Down.

Newport, R. I., July 5.—Admiral Sampson has hauled down his flag from the cruiser New York, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, and departed on his fruiough of one month. Captain H. C. Taylor, of the Indiana, takes command of the squadron.

Kings of Samoa to Be Exile.

Washington, July 5.—It has been announced that King Malietoa Tanus, of Samoa, will be exiled to the Fiji Islands. Mataafa may share his fate. This is to be done because the rival kings will not agree to quit being candidates for office.

Pilkinton in Richmond Jail.

Richmond, Va., July 5.—W. G. Pilkinton, the young lawyer who killed William M. Flannagan, the Republican State Senator from Powhattan county, is in jail here and is in a state of nervous prostration over the affair.

All Belgian Workmen May Strike.

Brussels, July 5.—A mass meeting was held at Mons at which a general strike was decided upon unless the Electoral bill is withdrawn by the Government or a universal suffrage bill introduced.

Pension for Kinsford's Widow.

London, July 5.—The Civil List pensions include a pension of $100 to the wife of William Kingsford the historian.

Aguinaldo Said to Sit Alone and Weep Over the Condition of His People.

ROBBED BY FOLLOWERS

Two Spanish Priests Who Escaped From the Native Camps, Tell of Situation in Philippines.

Claimed That Aguinaldo's Power Will be Broken as Soon as American Troops Garrison Towns That Are Taken—Much Dissension in the Native Army.

San Francisco, July 5.—A copy of the Japanese Times secured from the steamer Nippon Maru gives an account of the arrival at Yokohama of two Spanish priests who lately escaped from the insurgent camps.

One of the fathers, who is described as a man of splendid education, a student of many languages and an authority on island affairs, stated that the power of Aguinaldo will be broken immediately on the arrival of American troops to garrison towns that are broken.

The priest in an interview said:—

"Aguinaldo is remorseful. His influence is gone, and he often sits alone and cries over the miserable condition into which he has plunged his people. There is dissension in his army, and bands are out for plunder and willing to murder. They are as dangerous to the leader as to the Americans.

"Aguinaldo cannot trust his own men, and as proof of this, when his headquarters were removed from San Isidro to Cabanaran, his luggage was robbed of a lot of valuable jewelry and clothing.

"The bandits are the men with whom the Americans will have to deal, and in order to down them it will be necessary to keep a large army in the field until the thieves are captured or killed."

Typhoon Prevents Sailing.

Washington, July 5.—The War Department has received the following message from General Otis:—

"Manila, July 4.—California infantry and artillery, numbering 1,460, and discharged men take Sherman, now loading at Negros. Warren takes Colorado, 1,100; now preparing preparatory papers; difficult to lighter transports in typhoon now prevailing. Grant unloaded; in four days will take on Idaho, North Dakota and Wyoming; sixty-five officers, 1,500 men, with other discharged men. "OTIS."

The Fourth at Manila.

Manila, July 5.—There was a great celebration of the Fourth here with fireworks, bands, speeches and decorations everywhere. The foreign ships and Consulates, including the Spanish, raised their colors in conjunction with the Stars and Stripes. The flagship Baltimore fired a National salute. All nationalities took part in what the Spanish papers termed "the Fiesta of Narth America."

Havana Excited by Fire Crackers.

Havana, July 5.—The streets of Havana yesterday were ablaze with bunting. Flags of all nations were flying, with American flags largely predominating and the Cuban colors a good second. The Consulates were all flying their own flags. A majority of the business houses on Obispo and O'Reilly streets had, besides flags, other colored decorations, giving the city an animated and festive appearance. Two Spanish flags flaunted proudly above the Spanish Club, and though no store had laid in a supply of firecrackers, the dozen or so American boys here made their presence felt, to the astonishment and wonder of the local police, who asked instructions regarding arresting those found firing the "bombs" in the streets, the "bombs" being a few crackers obtained at Chinese stores.

Schley Speaks in Chester.

Chester, Pa., July 5.—The Independence Day celebration in this city was the public reception to Rear Admiral Schley in Chester Park, in which 15,000 persons took part. The city was profusely decorated. When the Admiral arrived at the park he was greeted by cheers and a fusillade from a battery of artillery and immense strings of firecrackers suspended from trees.

Headless Body Found.

Wilkesbarre, July 5.—The headless body of an unknown man was found tied in a bag in the Susquehanna River, near Plymouth. The body had been in the water several days. The legs and arms were bent into a heap. The body is that of a man who probably weighed more than 200 pounds and was tall.

Heads of Trolley Burners Cut Off.

Tacoma, Wash., July 5.—Late Oriental advices state that twenty ringleaders of he rioters who burned the electric cars at Seoul last month were executed in Public at Corea's capital. Their heads were cut off and exhibited in public places. At last accounts the insurgents were marching toward Seoul.

Tammany Celebrated.

New York, July 5.—The Tamany Society, following the ancient custom, celebrated Independence Day with music, oratory, decorations and free lunch. Most of the men of real political power and influence in the organization were out of the city, but enough remained to carry out the celebration with the usual amount of outward enthusiasm.

In Automobile Accident.

Marienbad, Bohemia, July 5.—The Duke of Orleans, Pretender to the French throne, who is taking the water cure here with his wife, created a great diversion with the first automobile seen here. He succeeded in getting his machine on the sidewalk and ran down an old woman.

Several nights during last hot wave, around July 4, when the thermometer registered 100° outside my window, my brother complained that he could not sleep, and said to me: "You sleep like a horse!"

I informed him the reason was that I took a R·I·P·A·N·S before retiring.

I think R·I·P·A·N·S are the most harmless sleep producers during hot weather that one can take.

I would advise all persons that take intoxicants and get drunk during hot weather to produce sleep to take a R·I·P·A·N·S. It is healthier and cheaper.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low price is intended for the poor and the economical. ## Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

FOURTH OF JULY ACCIDENTS

The Celebrations Cause the Loss of Several Lives.

Chicago, July 5.—The usual number of Fourth of July accidents are reported from different sections of the country, and some of them are of a very serious nature. At Davenport, Iowa, an anvel exploded, instantly killing one man, fatally injuring two others and breaking the leg of a fourth victim. At Jackson, Michigan, Andrew Fisher had the whole of his right hand blown off by a cannon firecracker, and was otherwise severely injured. In fireing the sunrise salute at West Superior, Wis., a cannon was prematurely discharged. One man was fatally injured.

Detroit, Mich., reports several accidents, but further than the fact that James Hardin was killed, no particulars of their seriousness are given.

While raising a flag pole at Kansas City, one of the guy ropes broke, allowing the pole to fall. One man's skull was fractured and half a dozen others were severely injured by this mishap.

The celebration at Cherokee, Ia., was marred with a distressing accident which cost two lives. A farmer's team took fright at the discharge of firecrackers and ran away through the crowded streets creating considerable of a panic. The wagon was overturned at the corner of Lorane and Main streets throwing two of the occupants against the curb crushing the skull of one of them and so badly injuring the other that death resulted about an hour later.

Assaulted Without Cause.

New York, July 5.—Riot, bloodshed, and what proved to be murder marred the celebration of the Fourth of July at Rye Beach, on Long Island Sound. Andrew Clark, colored, of White Plains, was beaten almost to death with clubs and baseball bats in the hands of several members of a crowd of excursionists, who were overboisterous when they arrived at the Beach, and Henry Langhold also was battered with the same weapons. There was absolutely no cause for the murderous assault.

A Stomach Photographed.

Chicago, July 5.—The interior of a man's stomach has been successfully photographed in this city. The subject was James O. Foster, a wealthy lumberman of Cleveland, and the result of the experiment was the discovery of a large tumor, which, according to the physicians in attendance, would have caused Mr. Foster's death in a short time. Mr. Foster has left for Cleveland, taking the photograph with him, and with it as a guide he will be operated on in a Cleveland hospital.

The apparatus used in taking the picture consisted of a rubber tube an eighth of an inch in diameter and about three feet long. At the end of the tube is a rubber bulb, the walls of which are as thin as it is possible to make them, giving the bulb when inflated the appearance of a toy balloon. The interior of the bulb is coated with a photographic emulsion and acts as the plate on which the picture is taken. The patient is made to swallow the bulb, which is then inflated by means of air blown into the tube until the bulb fills the stomach, its flexible sides conforming to the walls of the stomach.

An X-ray exposure is then made, the tube is withdrawn and the picture on the thin rubber bulb is developed as in ordinary X-ray photographs.

Runaway in Hotel Office.

Chicago, July 5.—Frightened by the charge of a mad steer, a fast trotting horse owned and driven by John Steiner dashed into the Transit House at the Stock Yards, leaving Steiner and his sulky in a heap outside. The hotel lobby was crowded, and as the animal bolted across the office there was a panic. The clerk got under the counter and the key clerk took refuge in the elevator, while the guests scattered in all directions. The horse was only slightly hurt.

Fire in White House, N. J.

Flemington, N. J., July 5.—The village of White House has had a $20,000 fire. The flames were first discovered in Stillwell Hall. The large building was totally destroyed. The office of Deputy Revenue Collector Stephen S. Large was also destroyed. The Union Hotel caught fire several times, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. Several other buildings narrowly escaped destruction.

Senator Cullom Painfully Injured.

Morros, Ill., July 6.—Senator Shelby M. Cullom, who spoke here yesterday, was seriously injured by a fall as he was leaving his hotel. He stumbled while going down stairs and fell heavily. His back was sprained and his thigh badly bruised. He was able to deliver his address, but was in severe pain when he left here in the evening for Springfield.

Stopped Tower Chimes.

London, Eng., July 5.—Mrs. William George Cavendish Bentinck (who was a Miss Livingston, of Staatsburg, N. Y.), underwent a serious operation Friday and has been in so serious a condition that the chimes of the big clock in the tower of Parliament House, Westminster, have since been all stopped nightly.

The Disorders in Spain.

Barcelona, July 5.—The disturbances have again been resumed. Many of the stores have been compelled to close and the horse car service is entirely suspended. As the lines are worked by an English company it is reported diplomatic representations will be made to the Government on the damage sustained.

Nordenjold Bankrupt.

Stockholm, July 5.—Baron Nordenskjold, the Swedish naturalist and explorer, is financially ruined as the result of his becoming involved with the publishing house of F. J. Bajer. All of his savings, amounting to £60,000, are swept away.

Taxation of Bank Stock.

Seattle, July 5.—In the Federal Court Judge Hanford has decided that the capital stock of a bank is not stock for taxation purposes until its issuance has been duly certified and authorized by the Comptroller of the Currency.

ENDEAVORERS AT DETROIT

Over 40,000 of Them Attending the Annual Convention.

Detroit, Mich., July 5.—This city has been gaily decorated on many occasions, but in the past nothing has equaled that which is witnessed here on every hand, all of which has been accomplished in honor of the eighteenth annual National Christian Endeavor convention, which opened its session with a full delegation present from all parts of the United States, and even Japan, India, China, Bulgaria and the Argentine Republic are represented by native delegates.

It is estimated that fully 40,000 have already arrived and more are coming in on every train. A special train from New York arrived over the Canada Southern division of the Michigan Central during the night with five hundred delegates principally from New England States, and five more specials are scheduled to arrive before night. It is thought that by the time the strangers all arrive the population of Detroit will be increased by fully 100,000 people.

All of the sessions of the convention will be of a most interesting nature and business will be transacted that is of national and international importance.

The Workmen's Wages.

Paris, July 5.—In the Chamber of Deputies, M. Paul Bureauregard, Republican, representing one of the districts of the Seine, submitted his promised interpellation on the subject of the bill dealing with workmen's wages and the rours of labor. He disputed the right of M. Millerand (Socialist), Minister of Commerce, to deal with mater by decree, as he proposed to do, until the next session. The speaker was loudly interrupted by members of the extreme Left. M. Millerand, in replying, disclaimed all intentions upon the part of the Government to curtail the rights of parliament. Other Deputies desired to debate the matter, but the Premier, M. Waldeck-Rousseau, declined to consent to this, and the Chamber upheld him by 338 to 186 votes.

Hundreds Face Starvation.

Austin, Tex., July 5.—Gov. Sayers has received the following from a number of prominent resiuents of Brookshire, Waller County, on the Brazos River, about thirty miles from Houston:

"Hundreds of people here, with everything swept away by flood, have not a mouthful to eat, and no shelter, unless food is shut at once starvation is inevitable, and I you, as Governor of Texas, we appeal for immediate aid and food."

Governor Sayers wired the Mayors of Houston, Galveston and San Antonio as follows:

"Am just advised that hundreds of people are suffering at Brookshire for want of food. Have no public funds at my disposal. Please call on the people of your city to assist."

Homestead Men Hopeful.

Pittsburg, July 5.—The open strike campaign at Homestead has been abandoned and emissaries of the Amalgamated Association are making a house-to-house canvass of all the men employed in the plant. It is said that a secret effort is being made to keep the men at home and cripple the mills to such an extent as to bring about a complete shut-down. If there is a good showing the fight will be pushed, if not, the strike will be declared off. Among the citizens and business men of Homestead there is a feeling that the movement is a failure, but the leaders maintain a mysterious air and say that it will be well to watch for developments within the next forty-eight hours.

Bishop Newman Growing Weaker.

Saratoga, July 5.—At an early hour this morning Dr. S. E. Strong reported that Bishop Newman's condition was approaching a crisis, and that he was growing weaker. The Bishop's vitality is wonderful, and his resistance to a hopeless disease arouses the comment of the local medical profession. Mrs. U. S. Grant, Mrs Frederick D. Grant and Miss Julia Grant have called at the cottage, but were unable to see him.

Assaulted Rabbi to Kill.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 5.—Louis Ginzburg, a rabbi and proprietor of a meat market at No. 158 Susquehanna street, was stabbed and probably fatally injured by one of two negroes who entered his shop and attempted to steal some meat. The doctors say there is little hope for his recovery.

Woman Falls From Balloon.

Troy, N. Y., July 5.—Mrs. Delia M. Lockhart in making a balloon ascension here fell when the airship was some distance from the ground and sustained injuries which the physicians say will prove fatal. Her husband, it is claimed, forced her to make the ascension.

Found Sanborn in the River.

Providence, R. I., July 5.—Albert Sanborn, a former United States Marshal and Chief of Police, was found drowned in the Providence River.

A Drama of To-Day.

Dobson—What are you cast for in the new play?

Jobson—I'm engaged to play a notorious thief.

Dobson (catching sight of his own pet umbrella)—Ah, that will suit you to a "T."

Swift Retribution.

There was a wicked leer in Mendering Mike's eye as he saw the little girl coming out of the restaurant side door, carrying a small tin pail.

"The idea, he exclaimed to his comrade, "of incouraging sich luxuries in de young."

"It's our duty to stop it," was the rejoinder.

Before the little girl could turn the corner the tramp loomed up before her and exclaimed:

"I'm sorry, lady, but I couldn't see ye carryin' dat pail any furder. It's agin me gallantry."

The little girl began to cry. Mike seized the bucket and in a moment had the bottom of it pointed toward the blue sky. The effect was volcanic. Foam flew in all directions. His one ejaculation solved the mystery:

"Soap suds!"

And when the restaurant proprietor came out and desired to know why his children could not blow soap bubbles without being interfered with, the victim of poetic justice had not a word to say.

Woman's Way.

Mrs. Triggs—"Oh, dear, did you ever hear of such luck! Mrs. Waggsley has made me a present of a vase that must have cost at least $30. But that's the way it always goes! Bad luck comes when you're hard up and can least afford to face it."

Mr. Triggs—"I don't understand you. Why should this beautiful present make you talk about bad luck and being hard up?"

Mrs. Triggs—"Why, you dull thing, don't you see that I shall have to give her something in return which will cost at least $5 more?"

In a Bad Way

The Irish foreman was very much agitated. He rushed over to the machinist too excited to talk.

"What's the matter?" asked the machinist.

"Come quick to the motor?" cried the foreman. "It's rapidly stopping!"—Philadelphia North American.

When You Are Away

For a week, or a month, or the whole summer, there is nothing more welcome than the news from home. There is only one way to get this news in the right shape, and that is by having The Daily Press sent to you at your vacation stopping place. When leaving town for a season be sure to order The Daily Press to follow you by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired. Ten cents a week will cover all expenses.

One by one the Republican leaders are coming out with interviews to the effect that Senator Cross is the only logical and proper candidate to succeed himself in the Upper House of the Legislature. The latest that has so declared is Chairman Charles Codding, of the Republican county committee.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Former Assemblyman J. Martin Roll exhibited too much sense while representing Union in the Legislature to accept the gratutious advice of Democrats that he is the logical candidate for Senator, when Judge Cross, who served only a year of Senator Voorhees's term, is entitled to a full term, and, therefore, the nomination for Senator in next October. Mr. Roll's time will come, and come the more surely if deserving of it.—New York Press.

BUSINESS OF SCHOOLS.

ROUTINE MATTERS TRANSACTED BY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Offer of Cycle Academy for Cadets and Girls' Basket Ball Team—Appointment of a Teacher—The Contract Awarded

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education was held Monday evening. President Probasco being absent, Mr. Lovel acted as chairman pro. tem. The report of the collector of taxes for the month June, showed that $832.19 had been collected and placed in bank to the credit of the board.

A communication from Chas. H. Hand, offering the Cycle Academy for one hour each day for $100 for the use of the High School cadets and the girls' basket ball team, was received and placed on file.

The medical inspector's report for June was read. It showed that 30 general calls had been made, and that the per cent. for vaccinations had been reduced from 52 to 12½.

It was the sense of the board that a new flag pole be erected on the ground instead of the building for the Bryant School, similar to the one at the Irving School.

The resignation of Miss Mabel Mappingberg was received and accepted, and Miss Mary A. Cole was appointed to fill the vacancy at the Bryant School.

A resolution was introduced by Mr. Lounsbury and adopted, to the effect that the board request the Common Council to deposit to the credit of the Board of Education such funds of money as have been collected for school taxes and which rightfully belong to the school fund.

With reference to insuring the heating boilers in the several school buildings, at a cost of about $25 for three years for each boiler, the matter was laid over until the next meeting.

Mr. Lounsbury, chairman of the building committee, reported that the Mundy Bros. had been awarded the contract for making the repairs to the Whittier school building at $400, they being the lowest bidders. The work is to be completed by August 15th.

The meeting then adjourned.

ON LOCAL GOLF LINKS.

Mrs. C. W. McCutchen received. They were assisted by the Misses Caroline Randolph, Grace Cooley, Katherine Dwight, Dorothea Wells and Margaret McCutchen.

In the evening the Park Club held one of its popular dances at the club house on Washington avenue. The young people were out in force. The patronesses were Mrs. W. J. Roome, Mrs. J. T. Scott, Mrs. Samuel Townsend and Mrs. W. L. Saunders. Mrs. Saunders was to have been present but the illness of her husband detained her at her home.

Yesterday was a quiet one at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club grounds, made so by the fact that at the last moment the officers decided to declare off the big tea and social features for the afternoon, on account of the joint contest between some of their members and the Park Golf Club for a silver cup. This had a tendency to make everything very tame at the club, and few enthusiasts visited the grounds throughout the day. Those who did make a visit found a very cool and inviting spot.

One big feature of the day was the breaking of the season's record by Willard Wadsworth. This player is one of the best in the club and of late his work has been exceptionally fine. He went over the course yesterday with a gross score of 81, and with a handicap of 1 his net was 80. This is practically the best score ever made on the course and the best this season. All of the other scores were close and showed remarkable playing. The event for the day was a "straight" handicap play for a silver cup and a set of golf balls, and both prizes were won by Mr. Wadsworth. The score in detail is as follows:

| | Gross. | Handicap. | Net. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Willard Wadsworth.. | 81 | 1 | 80 |
| W. T. Kaufman..... | 93 | 9 | 84 |
| W. F. Murray..... | 102 | 18 | 84 |

This afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a match game on the Hillside course between the crack team from St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and a team from the home club. The visiting team played at Morristown Monday, and today they are the guests of Roy Cox, of West Seventh street, who attends the school. F. O. Reinhart, of this city, is a member of the visiting team and will play today. The home team will be composed of the following members: Willard Wadsworth, W. L. Glenney, C. W. Fisk, Frank Talmadge, Parker W. Mason, Morris Dumont and A. R. Fisk.

—There will be a regular meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps Friday evening.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 5.—A number of young people have organized a tennis club. At a meeting of the club held last Saturday the following officers were elected: President, G. Archibald Brakeley; vice-president, Miss Mary Ward; secretary, Miss Louise Brakeley. The club has laid out courts on the park next to the Presbyterian church. Some exciting contests are expected to be held there.

H. L. Terry and his newhew, Percy Abbott, were engaged Monday cutting down some trees on the lot upon which Mr. Terry is to soon erect a handsome dwelling on the road leading to New Market, opposite the railroad station.

"Lud" Frazee, of Plainfield, has secured the contract to paint Rev. A. I. Martine's new house and Chas. Dunham's new house.

Rev. F. Fletcher, pastor of the Baptist church, at New Market, is reported seriously ill.

All places of business were closed yesterday and nearly every one visited Plainfield.

Miss Eva Ward, of New York, is visiting Mrs. L. B. Nelson, at the "Cedars."

Mr. and Mrs. B. Sinskey visited friends in Raritan last Sunday.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 5.—The trolley extension is paying the trolley company far beyond their fondest expectations. Seven hundred were carried over the extension one day recently and yesterday nearly all cars coming and going were well filled and on some trips many were obliged to stand.

Scotch Plains passed a rather noisy fourth, considering the number of people who were drawn out of town by the attractions in Plainfield and Westfield. The small boy and his big fire crackers was very much in evidence and was heard from 12 o'clock Monday night until 12 last night. No serious accidents happened to mar their pleasure.

Arthur Chapin put up a good race in the fifteen-mile handicap bicycle race in Westfield yesterday afternoon. Chapin was poorly handicapped, but shook his bunch and finished seventh—a very creditable finish considering the number of riders in the race.

The afternoon and evening dance Fourth of July at Emery's pleasure garden was well attended and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

The board of trustees of the Baptist church, held their regular monthly meeting in the church parlors Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Collins and family, of Brooklyn, have been visiting Mr. Collins' parents for a few days.

Irving Quereau, of New York, has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Randolph.

Miss Susie Parse has been making a number of improvements to her home on Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Virtue and family spent the Fourth with Mrs. Frank Hosinger.

Fred Corey, of New York, spent the Fourth with his father, William C. Corey.

George Snyder, of New York, spent yesterday with his father, Robert Snyder.

Col. Stegeman has been entertaining New York friends for a few days.

RED MEN IN THEIR GLORY.

Miantonomo Tribe's Open Air Festival Attracted a Big Crowd.

The Red Men were in their glory at Mountainside Park yesterday afternoon and evening, when Miantonomo Tribe held its picnic and open air festival there. After the parade was over the local braves and their guests went to the grove, where refreshments were served The afternoon and evening were spent in dancing and various outdoor pleasures.

There were some 200 visiting braves besides a host of others who attended the picnic. The Red Men were from the following tribes: Indianola, of Bound Brook; Naraticong, of Somerville; Raritan, of Raritan; Awaga, of New Brunswick; Allander, of New Brunswick; Rahwack, of Rahway; Po Ambo, of Perth Amboy; and Pamrapo, of Bayonne.

Dr. Richardson's Father Dead.

Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, received word this morning announcing the death of his father, John Cloutman Richardson, at his home in Boston. He was seventy-nine years of age and had been sick since last November. Rev. Mr. Richardson is his only child. He will leave for Boston today to attend the funeral and will be unable to occupy his pulpit next Sunday.

Birthday Celebrated.

A large number of members of the Mt. Olive Baptist church gathered at the parsonage last evening to celebrate the thirty-eighth birthday of Mrs. A. E. Jackson, the pastor's wife. Each donor gave the number of pennies for the years of Mrs. Jackson. A handsome offering was made.

Will Cruise in the Wanderer.

Volney F. Green, of Mercer avenue, and Robert Turrill, of Grove street, left Saturday for a few days' cruise on Green's new sloop Wanderer. They started from Perth Amboy, where the Wanderer has been put up, and will spend a few days sailing about the Highlands.

THE COUNCIL MEETING.

Buckle said that the jail had recently been disinfected and is now in better condition.

During the past month eleven sewer permits were granted and sixteen building permits. A communication referring to the appointment of Edward C. Vail to a regular position in the fire department was read, and was referred to the fire and building committee.

Mr. Mellick, from the committee on the collection and assessment of taxes, reported that in relation to errors found in the work of assessment of the Martin Act commissioners, that they were being satisfactorily explained and no difficulty would be experienced in making proper corrections of the same.

Mr. Hetfield offered a resolution to the effect that the laws and ordinance and fire and building committees confer with the Plainfield Water Supply Company with a view of purchasing the plant and system in this city, as per suggestion offered by Mayor Rockfellow in his first message to the Council.

Mr. Barrows offered several resolutions before the meeting adjourned One was to the effect that proposals for macadamizing be received at the meeting to be held Thursday evening, July 20th, for macadamizing East Second street, Putnam avenue and Richmond street. Another resolution gave the Plainfield Street Railway Company the right to extend their turnout on Watchung avenue to East Second street providing they macadamize. This is done so that the increased number of cars can meet at the station.

Another resolution provided for the return to George White of his bond given as security for the macadamizing of Sycamore avenue by July 1st.

The closing act of the Council was the appropriation of $30 on a motion of Mr. Buckle. This money is to be used to repair the town clock and keep it running and in repair for one year. Mr. Moraller will do the work. The Council then adjourned to Thursday evening, July 20th.

SOCIETY AT THE HUNTERSTON.

Informal Euchre Party for Guests and Townspeople.

Social activity has resumed its sway at the Hotel Hunterston after an interval of quietness out of respect for the late Mrs. O'Sullivan, whose sudden death came as such a great shock to the guests at the Hunterston where she had been a leader. The regular Saturday evening hop was given up last week for that reason.

Monday evening an informal euchre party was arranged by Mrs. Coleman and proved a pleasant feature. There were a number of local society folk who were present. The party was followed by the usual evening concert by the orchestra while some of the guests took the opportunity to dance.

There was quite a batch of guests who came out to spend the Fourth at the hotel and consequently the day proved a lively one. There were the usual concerts during the day and an informal dance was of particular interest to the young people during the evening hours.

HIS POCKETS PICKED.

An Old Man Was a Victim of the Light Fingered Gentry.

Wm. Brittle, an old man who is employed by B. W. Hand about his residence, was a sufferer yesterday from pickpockets. He was standing in the crowd on Front street when he felt himself jostled by some young men. When Mr. Brittle succeeded in freeing himself he discovered that his pocketbook, containing $13, had been taken from his trousers' pocket. It was fully an hour before he reported his loss to Patrolman Flanagan. Mr. Brittle said it was all the money he had.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Nickerson, of this city, have gone to New Hampshire, where they will spend the summer.

James Smith, of Elmwood place, has so far recovered from his recent injuries that he is now able to go out again.

UNCLE SAM WANTS A MAN.

Civil Service Examination to Be Held for Clerk-Carrier.

The United States Civil Service Commission has ordered that an examination be held by its local board in this city Wednesday, Aug. 2d, 1899, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m., for the grade of clerk-carrier in the postal service. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with John H. Whitenack, secretary board of examiners, at the local postoffice, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business July 25th. Applications should be filed promptly in order that time may remain for correction if necessary.

The Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens of the United States who may desire to enter the service, without regard to race or to their political or religious affiliations. All such citizens are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

Application blanks, full instructions and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions can be secured of Mr. Whitenack.

—The wheat crop, just harvested in Gloucester county, will fall considerably below the average yield on account of the dry weather.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Wegen Aufhebung des Artikels 48 des hessischen Fischereigesetzes, wonach das Fischen in schiffbaren Flüssen mittelst Anwendung der einfachen Handangel erlaubt ist, soll demnächst den Ständen eine Vorlage unterbreitet werden. Da alle fließenden Gewässer verpachtet sind und daher dem Staate eine Rente abwerfen, hält man es für ungerecht, daß der Staat in verpachteten Fischgewässern das Fischen erlaubt.

Mainz. Die Stadt Mainz ist in dem Besitz eines Kapitals von 90,000 Mark, das ihr testamentarisch für die Errichtung einer Blindenanstalt überwiesen worden ist. Nach der Ansicht der Sachverständigen ist hier eine Blindenanstalt gar kein Bedürfniß, wohl aber eine Augenheilanstalt. Die städtische Verwaltung hat nun erfolgreiche Schritte gethan, um an Stelle einer Blindenanstalt eine Augenheilanstalt errichten zu können.

Raunheim. Neulich Nachmittags entstand in dem nahegelegenen Mönchwald durch abgegebene Feuerfunken der Maschine des Frankfurter Eisenbahnzuges ein Brand, der 30 bis 40 Morgen des 23jährigen Bestandes vernichtete.

Wöllstein. Wegen Verkaufs gefälschten Weines wurde vom hiesigen Schöffengericht ein Weinhändler von St. Johann in eine Geldstrafe von 1000 Mark verurtheilt. Trotzdem hat der Mann noch ein gutes Geschäft gemacht, da er nach eigener Aussage beim Verkauf von 70 Stück Wein 7000 Mark verdiente. Nachgewiesen wurde, daß der Bestrafte im Jahre 1898 2½ Stück Wein erntete, 15 Stück Wein und Trauben kaufte und mit Hilfe von Trestern 70 Stück Wein erzeugte.

München. Nachdem der Verein für öffentliche Speisehallen nun seit ungefähr einem halben Jahr sein segensreiches Wirken aufgenommen hat, ist die rührige Vorstandschaft bereits mit der Einrichtung einer dritten Speisehalle beschäftigt. Diese wird in den Augustsälen, im vormaligen Universum, eingerichtet. — Der berühmte Physiker Eugen v. Lommel, welcher dieses Jahr das Rektorat der Universität inne hatte, ist plötzlich gestorben.—Die Jagdsaison hat heuer besonders stark eingesetzt. In Folge der milden Winter und Frühjahre ist allerorten der Stand an Rehwild vorzüglich und demgemäß der Abschuß stärker als in früheren Jahren. So wurden in den ersten sechs Tagen über 2000 Rehböcke in München eingebracht. Die Qualität des Wildprets ist, begünstigt durch gute Aesungsverhältnisse, ganz vortrefflich. Die Preise sind in Folge der großen Zufuhren sehr niedrig.

Berchtesgaden. Der Distriktsrath hat beschlossen, von der bayerischen Regierung die Konzession zur Erbauung einer elektrischen Eisenbahn von Berchtesgaden nach Drachenloch, beziehungsweise nach Salzburg zu erwirken. Bei Verwirklichung des Projekts könnten unermeßliche Cementlager erschlossen und ungeheure Wasserkräfte ohne bedeutenden Kostenaufwand Fabrikszwecken dienstbar gemacht werden.

Erlenstegen. Hier ist eine Eisenbahndraisine mit drei von der Streckenarbeit heimkehrenden Eisenbahnarbeitern von einem Personenzug erfaßt und zermalmt worden. Die Namen der Getödteten sind: Pleitner, Staudigl und Dressel.

Freyung. Dem hier in großem Ansehen stehenden Buchdruckereibesitzer, Distriktskassier Andreas Schauberger, platzte beim Besteigen eines Fuhrwerkes am linken Fuße eine Ader, in Folge dessen er an Verblutung starb.

Fürth. Zum Zweck der Erbauung einer zweiten katholischen Kirche (Fürth zählt zur Zeit etwa 12,000 Katholiken) hat sich hier ein Kirchenbauverein gebildet.

Hof. Die hiesige Freimaurerloge Zum Morgenstern beging in den neu restaurirten und bedeutend vergrößerten Räumen ihres Gesellschaftshauses das Fest ihres 100jährigen Bestehens.

Neuburg a. D. Hier starb im 68. Lebensjahre der königliche Seminardirektor und Gymnasialprofessor Herr Leonhard Hohenbleicher.

Pappenheim. Dieser Tage kam hier der Fall vor, daß ein Heirathskandidat, der bei der Ortsbehörde den Staatsbürgereid ableisten sollte, diesen aus dem Grunde zu leisten verweigerte, weil er Sozialdemokrat sei und deshalb dem König keinen Gehorsam leisten könne.

Regensburg. Ein Sängerfest in kleinerem Maßstab fand am 24. und 25. Juni hier statt, an welchen Tagen der Liederverein Stadtamhof sein 50jähriges Jubiläum feierte.

TOWN RUN BY WOMEN

BEATTIE, KAN., WHERE PETTICOAT GOVERNMENT IS SUPREME.

Men Allowed Vice to Run Riot, So the Women Went Into Politics and Won—Now They Are Purifying the Town.

Another town has unconditionally surrendered to the advancing hosts of female suffrage and, for a year, at least, will be completely ruled by women, from mayor down to path master. This latest municipality to come under the sway of womankind is Beattie, Kan. At the recent city election party issues were thrown to the winds, and the question involved was one of morals.

For a number of years the town had been overrun by saloons, gambling houses and other places of wickedness, and the local government had been dominated by these influences. The women of Beattie felt keenly the disgrace and besought their husbands and sons to elect men who would enforce the liquor laws of the state, close the saloons and put a stop to their corrupting regime. Their appeals were fruitless. Things went on from bad to worse. The town seemed wholly given over to vice.

Finally, when patience had ceased to be a virtue, the women decided to take matters into their own hands and oust the "whisky ring" which controlled the place.

It was a hazardous undertaking in a town where there still prevailed much of the lawless spirit of the frontier. Beattie, be it remembered, is in one of the remote and still sparsely settled counties of northwestern Kansas, where civilization has not reached its highest stage.

The women, however, were courageous and undaunted. They decided to place a ticket in the field for the municipal election, composed entirely of women, whose character and standing in the community should command the respect of all voters who desired good government. They adopted this platform: "Suppression of saloons and gambling dives, clean streets, good sidewalks and the encouragement of general improvements."

The abhorrent element which controlled the town placed in the field its strongest ticket, and had recourse to all the wiles of "practical politics" in conducting the campaign. As election day approached the excitement became intense, and there was scarcely any other topic discussed in the little city. The women, encouraged and supported by the better element among the men, made a gallant fight, and won by a substantial majority, electing their entire ticket, the successful candidates being Mrs. Marie Totten, mayor; Miss Gussie O'Neil, clerk; Mrs. Jennie Schleght, treasurer; Mrs. Annie Smith, Mrs. Jane Kerlin and Mrs. Mattie Watkins, members of the council.

It was not alone a victory for the women, but a triumph for better local government, in which good men contributed their share. Election day was windy and stormy, but the women went bravely to the polls and conducted the closing work of their campaign with as much skill as men would have done.

Nearly all the candidates on the women's tickets were formerly schoolteachers from the east and women of unusual intelligence and self reliance.

"To be beaten by a lot of schoolma'ms," said one of the defeated candidates, "is the most humiliating thing about it."

The new mayor—she taboos the words mayoress and council women—is about 40 years of age and is quite wealthy. She says she will improve and beautify the town even if she has to use her own money in doing it. Of course such epithets as "petticoat government," "the broom brigade," "the mamma council" and the like have been hurled at the new administration, but the women have kept on in the even tenor of their way, fulfilling their pledge to rid the towns of the saloons and kindred places of evil. On the buildings where formerly flourished debauchery and vice are now placards—"To Let."

The police judge and the city marshal, appointive officers, are men, but they propose to resign and place the whole burden of administration upon the women, a responsibility which they say they are entirely willing to assume. They propose to teach the men folks how to conduct a clean administration and promise that at the end of their term Beattie will come to mean much the same as beatitude.

PRETTY TEAGOWNS.

DAINTY CREATIONS SET OFF WITH JEWELLED EMBROIDERIES.

Crepe de Chene is Mostly Used Now in Making Them But Some Pretty Effects Are Obtained With Other Fabrics Such as Poult de Soie and Liberty Satin.

Quite the loveliest teagowns are undoubtedly those which are made in crepe de chine, either with or without jeweled embroideries. This silky China crape is most undoubtedly the ideal fabric for teagowns, since it seems to fall of itself into the most graceful folds imaginable. An exquisite gown of ivory-white crepe de chine had long stole ends of ivory Maltese lace laid over leaf-green glace silk, and hanging from the shoulders to the feet both back and front. The throat was arranged with a little square decollette, and below that a wide band of Maltese lace, unlined and left transparent.

Jeweled embroideries in floral designs are seen on some of the newest crepe de chine teagowns. A teagown of Parma violet crepe de chine has embroidery in fine silk and chenille to represent branches of mauve and white lilac, each blossom being outlined with very tiny diamond dewdrops. These sprays are scattered carelessly down the sides and around the back and the train of the teagown, while a cascade of very fine cream Mechlin lace borders the front draperies of mauve crepe de chine. The underrobe in this case is also white mousseline de soie, gathered near the throat onto a little round yoke of fine lace and finished there, and again at the waist, with smart little bows of black velvet ribbon, drawn through Parisian diamond buckles.

An exquisite gown of pale-pink was of poult-de-soie, with the front showing a ruching of pink chiffon in bow design up to the knees, the back and train and top being made of cream-color lace, frilled with lace traced with a design in baby ribbon in pink, and the neck was open.

A teagown of wonderful detail was made of white liberty satin, covered with fine chiffon upon which were embroidered huge ecru lace bows. The neck of this was open, with a fichu hemmed with frills, bordered with gathered ribbon, and round the waist was a girdle and pocket of gold, while beneath the full, open sleeves of the lace shimmered tight sleeves of gold and net.

Headgear Then and Now.

About the time when Columbus was sailing "the ocean blue," as the readers used to say, the ladies of Spain and of other places were wearing headgear shown in the left of the picture. It doubtless moves the observer to laughter now—that honored hood of 1498. "How absurd; how insane and unaesthetic," every one will say.

Compare it with the sane and beautiful structure on the right—the hat of 1498. 1898.

1898. Which will move the laughter of 2298 more—the hood, with its frightful inverted cornucopias or that huddled lot of feathers, flowers and velvet, which makes the outline of the wearer's head something too grotesque to exist outside of a nightmare?

Indeed—not to leap four centuries ahead—which will be more comic in another decade?

Paragraphs of Knowledge.

A curious and pretty effect is obtained by the introduction of faconne scrolls into tartan silks. The latest novelty in gossamer is the scroll printed in a lighter color in mousseline de soie. These are being made over silk, the color of the scroll showing the ground conspicuously.

New Zealand women are among the most progressive in the world. They have full suffrage, the native or Maori women being allowed to vote as well as their European sisters. Of the actual voters 85.18 per cent are women. From a state of industrial and financial depression New Zealand is now in a most remarkable condition of prosperity.

It not infrequently happens that quality marks the division between fashionable and unfashionable. This is the case in checks this year. The best qualities are not twilled, and threads forming the weft and warp are of equal strength and thickness. Some favorite combinations are navy blue and cream, black and red and dark blue and red.

School Girls Demand Grecian Knot.

Pearl Whiteside, Mabel Walter and Mildred Jewhurst, students at Raven High School, at Youngstown, Ohio, who were sent home because they wore their hair in Grecian knots in defiance of the principal's wishes, have won a victory, and have returned to school, wearing their hair as they please.

She Couldn't Guess What It Was.

Mrs. Maundsley—Do your daughter and her husband live happily together?

Mrs. Oldham—Alas, I'm afraid not. My daughter says they do, but every time I go to visit them there seems to be something present to mar the serenity of their lives.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS

RUNNING AWAY.

The sky was clear, the stars were bright,
The grass was wet with dew,
When Johnny arose, put on his clothes,
And vowed what he would do.

"I'll leave my pa, I'll leave my ma,
I'll go from here to stay;
They used me rough—I've had enough—
And so I'll run away.

"I'll take my clothes, I'll take my all—
A slave I will not be;
I'll go out west, I'll do my best—
I'll strike for liberty!"

And Johnny started bravely out,
And said he'd ne'er return;
He said he'd go and make a show,
And let his genius burn.

He traveled all that summer night,
And bravely through the day.
"And then," said he, "I will be that we Had never run away!

"I'm weak and tired and sick," said he,
With sadness in his tone;
"It isn't best to go out west—
At least, to go alone!

"And now I'm in a pretty fix,
And don't know what to do!"
And then he sighed and sobbed and cried:
"Boo-hoo, boo-hoo, boo-hoo!"

The boy when found was taken home,
And was content to stay.
Said he: "I'm cured, and rest assured,
I'll never run away!"

QUEEN VICTORIA'S ODD PRESENT.

The King of Siam Presented Her With a Few Hairs from His White Elephant.

A few years ago the British government sent one of its distinguished diplomats, Sir John Bowring, to Siam, as the head of an embassy, to present a grave and important question to the king. Sir John was also intrusted, according to the custom of the day, with a number of valuable gifts from Queen Victoria to his majesty, the king. On his arrival he was granted an audience, and after presenting the gifts he acquainted the king with the object of his mission.

Being the representative of so powerful a monarch, Sir John was received with every possible honor and great pomp. In no way could the Siamese king so well entertain his guests as by a display of his elephants, and doubtless Sir John, who later wrote about them, was afforded many opportunities for observing these wonderful animals in the land where so much attention is paid them. At the time of his visit, in 1855, few European customs had penetrated Siam and Burmah, and the ways and habits of the people were essentially oriental, while the great masses of the natives were steeped in superstition and ignorance. One of their strange beliefs was that at one time Buddha, whom they worshipped as coming from the Deity, dwelt in the coffee-colored or pink-splashed creatures called white elephants. Indeed, the Buddha was supposed to remain here longer than in any other animal, and consequently the possession of a white elephant was to possess the presence of the Buddha. In this way great intelligence is accredited to the animal and Siamese were often observed talking into the huge ears of the elephant, making it a confident of their various secrets and hoping for some answer.

A short time previous to Sir John Bowring's visit a pink-splashed elephant had been captured. The king and his courtiers left the palace and went out into the country some distance to meet and welcome it, and the animal was escorted back to the city with much ceremony.

When Sir John had been feted and entertained for many days and the business of his mission was completed he waited upon the king to announce his return and to present his adieus. The king made him the bearer of various gifts to her majesty the queen. Among these was a gold box locked by a gold key, which was commended to Sir John's especial attention as being more valuable than all the others.

Whether Sir John and his suite and the officers of the man-of-war which bore them to England knew what the gift was, we are not told, but the fact that it was held in a gold box must have aroused much curiosity and we may believe there were various conjectures regarding the mysterious gift—whether it was a pearl of great price, a rare and beautiful ruby similar to that preserved in the temple of the Emerald idol, or some of the many gems for which Siam was famous.

Upon his return Sir John at once waited on the queen to acquaint her with the success of his mission and present the gifts which he had received from the king of Siam for her majesty.

In all probability Sir John handed her the gold box and the gold key and the queen opened the casket herself. On this point history and Sir John are equally silent. But this is known, that when her majesty raised the lid of the golden casket she found, not a ruby, pearl or diamond, but a few hairs plucked from the king's white elephant; and as Sir John tells us that at this time a hair from the tail of a white elephant was worth a Jew's ransom," we may assume that the queen, instead of being disappointed, appreciated the delicacy of the gift, which, in the eyes of the king, was the most precious offering he could make. —CHARLES F. HOLDER.

SILVER-PLATING FOR BOYS.

How to Make a Simple and Cheap Battery from Electric Light Carbons and Zinc.

How would you like to try copper and silver plating?

"Oh, I can't do that," cries the boy on the back seat; "it's too hard."

But it isn't hard. As a matter of fact any boy can learn how to do electro-plating with very little trouble or expense, for he can make his entire outfit himself. And when he has mastered the art he should be able to make a good deal of pocket money from plating spoons, keys and other objects for his relatives and friends.

A few weeks ago The Record told how a boy could make a simple and cheap battery out of electric-light carbons and bits of zinc. Either this battery or any cheap battery will do. The writer knew of a boy who made a battery in a big glass tumbler by using bits of copper and zinc which he found in the attic, with ordinary vinegar for the active agent. A very weak and slow-working battery is better than a strong one for use in electro-plating, because a strong battery is likely to work too rapidly, with the result that plating flakes off.

The amateur electro-plater would do well to try copper-plating first. At a drug store buy a small quantity of blue vitriol, which is a common copper salt, and dissolve the crystals in water. The solution will be a deep blue.

SILVER PLATING.

Now provide a large, deep tumbler or a fruit can and into this pour the vitriol. Bring over the wire that is connected with the zinc in your battery and to its end tie an old iron key or button hook. Allow this to sink into the vitriol solution. The end of the wire that comes from the copper or carbon of your battery should also be immersed in the liquid. In a few hours the key or other object will be beautifully coated with the copper. It is a process exceedingly interesting to watch.

Copper-plating may be used to advantage in many cases, but it is not particularly pretty. Every boy will find more pleasure and profit in plating with silver, notwithstanding the fact that it is more expensive. A solution of cyanide of silver should be used. It is made ready for the plating bath in exactly the same way as the vitriol, except that a small silver coin should be suspended from the end of the wire that runs to the carbons or copper, as shown in the illustration. With this solution all sorts of small objects can be plated with great ease. It will be well for the young electro-plater to bore holes in a cigar-box cover and place it over the tumbler containing the plating solution, using one hole for each of the wires, thus keeping them firmly in place while the electric current is doing its work.

The Dog and the Telephone.

The following dog story comes from Toronto: "One morning not long ago my sister went to see a friend who lived a mile or so from the rectory, taking with her our little brown cocker spaniel. When she left she quite forgot the dog, and as soon as our friends discovered him they did all they could to make him leave, but with no avail. Some hours passed and he was still there, so they telephoned to us to let us know his whereabouts. 'Bring him to the telephone,' said my sister. One of the boys held him while another put the trumpet to the dog's ear. Then my sister whistled and called 'come home at once, Paddy.' Immediately he wriggled out of the boy's arms, rushed at the door, barking to get out, and shortly afterwards arrived panting at the rectory. This is what might be called a modern dog story, is it not?"

He Repented.

A story comes from New Haven about a black spaniel that abstracted a feather duster from his owner's house and while playing with it tore out all the feathers. The dog, after being shown the featherless handle, was given a whipping. He then disappeared and about a year afterward walked bravely into the house with a bran new duster in his mouth. He walked up to his mistress and meekly deposited the new brush at her feet. By the mark on it she saw that the dog had stolen it from a neighboring store.

Stamp Worth a Fortune.

If by some stroke of good fortune a boy or girl should find a 2-cent postage stamp of one of the earliest issues in the Hawaiian islands he could sell it for enough to pay all his expenses during a four-years' course in college and have a snug little sum left to begin business after his graduation. This stamp is said to be one of the rarest in the world. It is roughly printed on poor paper, but a dealer will pay $1,750 for a specimen of it. It makes it a pretty valuable piece of paper.

Making a Machine Bow.

A droll inventor has just made a machine by means of which a man can lift his hat by merely contracting his brows, so that in case he meets a lady friend he can make an automatic bow. Not only has the inventor spent a good deal of time on his device, but he actually has had it patented. For a society man who has a great many friends it would certainly be a very good thing—he and the armless men could use it to great advantage.

Proceedings of the Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders.

[OFFICIAL.]

Adjourned meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, N. J., held on Friday, June 9th, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Roll-call showed all members present except Freeholders Cady, Miller, Swain and Wahl—4.

The minutes of the previous meeting, reading of bills being omitted, were on motion approved as read.

COMMUNICATIONS ETC.

From the commitee of the whole:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Board that they do not deem it expedient or wise at the present time to grant the petition of George Kyte and others requesting the construction of the macadam, or telford macadam road, extending from the bridge over Green brook, on Mountain avenue, as applied for in said petition.

Freeholder King moved the adoption of the resolution, which was duly seconded.

Freeholder Robison said that the road in question was a public necessity, was the connecting link between two counties, and should receive the favorable consideration of the board.

The resolution was then on roll call adoped by the following vote:

Ayes—Director Hubbard, Freeholders Brucklacher, Burnett, Ehrlich, Farrell, Hulskamper, King, McCandless, Roll, Scudder and Tier—11

Nays—Freeholders Adams, Higgins and Robison—3.

Absent—Freeholders Cady, Miller, Swain and Wahl—4.

From the committee of the whole:

Be it resolved, That it is the sense of this board that it is not wise at this time to request the commissioner on roads for the legal and customary appropriation for building a macadam or telford macadam road from New Providence to Townley's Bridge, in the township of New Providence, as prayed for in the petition of W. J. Fryer, and as proposed in the resolution presented to this board on June 1st, instant, by Freeholder Wahl.

Freeholder Farrell moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Director Hubbard, Freeholders Adams, Brucklacher, Burnett, Ehrlich, Farrell, Hulskamper, King, McCandless, Roll, Scudder and Tier—12.

Nays.— Freeholders Higgins and Robison—2.

Absent—Freeholders Cady, Miller, Swain and Wahl—4.

The director then stated that conformable to a resolution heretofore adopted, the board would now give a public hearing to all persons who desire to be heard on the application of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company for permission to construct, etc., and electric street railway on certain sections of county roads in Rahway and Westfield, and over a county bridge on South avenue, in Cranford.

Addresses were then made favoring the application of said company by Mr. Peckham, former Freeholders Pierson and Irving, Mr. Welsh and Town Committeeman Wells, of Westfield; Andelfinger, of Clark; Mayor Holmes, City Attorney Ward and Mr. Westervelt, of Rahway.

There were no objections to the said application.

The director then announced that the hearing was closed.

NEW BUSINESS.

Freeholder Ehrlich presented a resolution providing for the location of the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Co. on Westfield avenue, in the city of Rahway.

After several amendments to the resolution had been presented and adopted, the resolution as finally presented by Freeholder Ehrlich was as follows:

Resolved, That the application of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Co. to construct, maintain and operate a double track railway on Westfield avenue, in the city of Rahway, extending from the easterly side of St. George's avenue, thence westerly crossing St. George's avenue, and thence to a point in Westfield avenue, distant westerly seventeen hundred and fifty-three and six tenths feet from the beginning point, be granted on the following conditions:

First. Said track to be located so that the inner rail of each track shall be distant two feet and three inches from the centre line of said avenue, the rails to be flanged of a girder pattern of a section weighing not less than seventy pounds to the yard.

Second. Said avenue to be paved with eight inches of telford and four inches of macadam by the said railway company from curb to curb.

Third. The work hereby authorized to be done under the supervision of the committee on roads and county engineers, which committee and engineer shall determine the grade of the track and the adjustment of the curbing.

Fourth. All expense in connection herewith to be borne by said railway company, and said company thereafter to pay its proportinate share in keeping said reod in repair from curb to curb, said repairs to be made by the county, under the direction of the road committee and road inspector.

Fifth. Said railway company to enter into a contract with the Board of Chosen Freeholders respecting the matters herein contained, and to be approved by said board.

Freeholder King moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

Freeholder Scudder presented a resolution providing for the location of the tracks of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Co. on Westfield avenue, in the township of Westfield.

After several amendments to the resolution had been presented and adopted, the resolution as finally presented by Freeholder Scudder was as follows:

Resolved, That the application of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Co. to construct, maintain and operate a double track street railway on Westfield avenue, between Broad street and South avenue, in Westfield township, be granted on the following conditions:

First. That the inner rails of the tracks of said company shall be laid side by side as close as will admit of spiking, and as far as practicable on each side of railroad bridge, so as to permit cars to turn the corner; shall be flanged and of a girder pattern of a section weighing not less than seventy pounds to the yard.

Second. The said avenue shall be macadamized by said railway company from curb to curb, to a depth of not less than twelve inches, with eight inches of telford and four inches of macadam.

Third. The said railway company to pay its proportionate share of keeping in repair said road from curb to curb, and shall keep in repair the culvert crossing the same near South avenue.

Fourth. All work in connection with laying of said tracks and repair of said road to be done under the supervision of the committee on roads and county engineer, and at the expense of said railway company, as hereinbefore provided.

Fifth. The said railway company shall waive all right to object to or prohibit the construction of any street railroad on any street or avenue now laid out, or on a private right of way within two blocks of said location; also waiving objections to other roads crossing track on North avenue.

Sixth. Said railway company to enter into a contract with the Board of Chosen Freeholders respecting the matters herein contained, and to be approved by said board.

Seventh. Said railway company to construct and maintain a sewer or passage, for surface water, leading from railway bridge over said Westfield avenue to culvert over South avenue, said sewer to be properly covered and maintained in a manner satisfactory to the road committee and the county engineer.

Freeholder King moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder Farrell:

Resolved, That the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Co. be permitted to construct, maintain and operate a double track street railway over the Rahway river on South avenue, in the township of Cranford, extending from bank to bank; said tracks to be located on either side of the bridge over the Rahway river at said point; said tracks to be located by the county engineer.

1. All expense in connection with the laying of said tracks, and for the building of the bridge or bridges on which said tracks are to be laid, to be borne and maintained by said company.

2 The said railway company shall waive all right to object to or prohibit the construction of any street railroad on any street or avenue now laid out, or that may hereafter be laid out, or on a private right of way within two blocks of said location.

3. Said railway company to enter into a contract with the Board of Chosen Freeholders respecting the matters herein contained, and to be approved by said board.

Freeholder King moved the adoption of the resolution, which was duly seconded. Considerable discussion ensued, during which the advisability of having the tracks of said company cross the sidewalk leading to said bridge, in order to go around the same, was freely debated, and Freeholder Roll moved that the resolution lie over until next meeting, which was ordered.

By Freeholder King:

Resolved, That consent is hereby granted to the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Co. to locate, build and operate a double track street railway across Central avenue, in Westfield township, being a county road, at its intersection with Grove street, said tracks to be laid on each side of the centre line of Grove street, at its crossing with Central avenue, and the rails to be flanged, of the girder pattern, of a section weighing not less than seventy pounds to the yard. The macadamized work in laying said tracks to be replaced by said railway company, said work to be done under the supervision of the road committee and county engineer.

Freeholder Robison moved the adoption of the resolution, and on roll call it was unanimously adopted.

Freeholder King moved to adjourn, which was carried.

The director declared the board adjourned until Thursday, July 6, 1899, at 2.30 p. m. S RUSLING RYNO, Clerk.

ROD AND GUN.

Menhaden steamers have been fishing within a half-mile of shore at Cape May, and have aroused much indignation there. The legal limit is three miles.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongued coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—City Collector Martin will advertise the 1897 delinquent taxes next week.

—Proper seafood is a healthy summer diet. The place to get it is at Rogers.

—Rev. Mr. O'Donnell will lead the Union gospel meeting in the rooms of the W. C. T. U. Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

—The first excursion to Asbury Park tomorrow by the Crescent Avenue Sabbath-school, leaving Plainfield at 8 a. m. sharp.

—A. F. Naylor, who sells everything in the line of beds and bedding, is going out of business and offers his stock at reduced prices.

—Over one thousand fans was given away free at the Central Pharmacy, corner Park avenue and Second street, on the Fourth.

—The regular business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and a full attendance is desired.

—Laire, the hardware dealer, advertises seasonable goods in todays's Press. His prices are low and everything he sells is as represented.

—The shoe stores of A. Willet & Son and M. C. VanArsdale will close their stores at 7 o'clock p. m. during the months of July and August except Saturday's commencing today.

—Manager Lyman, of Boston, who has charge of the carpenter work, is making extensive additions, alterations and improvements in the Chicago Beef Company's plant in Plainfield.

—The appearance of a float advertising beer, with a man in the act of drinking the amber fluid in copious daughts, was distasteful to a good many persons who witnessed the Fourth of July parade.

—One of the prettiest decorations in the city and one of the most novel was that to be seen at Peck's on West Front street. Mr. Peck, as usual, displayed excellent taste in the arrangement of the National colors.

—If the glasses you are wearing no longer relieve you, they have probably outlived their usefulness. Our advice to you is to have your eyes examined. Leech, Stiles & Co. Eye specialist at 107 East Front street, every Thursday. Hours 10:30 to 4.

Mrs. James Dunn Died Suddenly.

Mrs. James Dunn, a well known resident of this city, died at her home on East Fifth street this afternoon at 2 o'clock. She has been ill for a long time, but paralysis was the immediate cause of her death. She was a member of the First Baptist church. She leaves a husband, James M. Dunn, the grocer, and four daughters, Mrs. George P. Suydam, Mrs. Peter Buckalew and two unmarried daughters.

Died Suddenly.

John Wilson, colored, who has been a city charge and a resident at the City Industrial Home, died suddenly Monday of heart disease. His remains have been taken care of by his wife, and she will attend to the burial. Mr. Wilson has been seriously ill for a long time past and his death was not unexpected.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

person dressed to represent "Miss Liberty."

This was without doubt the handsomest float in the parade and is creditable to the efforts of the Juniors.

The Goodwill Council came next, headed by the Veteran Zouave drum corps, of Elizabeth. They were followed by a large number of wheelmen with gaily decorated wheels.

The other floats and business wagons were preceded by Mrs. H. S. Thompson, who rode a gaily decorated wheel, designed to represent a yacht.

After the parade passed the reviewing stand the members of the general committee and the mayors and councilmen entered carriages and joined the procession when it countermarched down Park avenue and turned into Eighth street.

Along the line of march the praaders were given a great ovation, especially was this true in regard to the crew of the Brooklyn and the Naval Reserves, who were vigorously applauded as they passed through the various streets.

The floats of the business men were vere attractive and as they passed elicited admiration and deserved applause. Among the finest besides that of the Juniors was that of Randolph, the druggist, who had an exhibit that was both artistic and beautifully constructed.

Horace J. Martin, the blacksmith had his business practically illustrated by workmen in the actual labor of working at the forge.

T. J. Maher, the blacksmith, also had a similiar float. Workmen were to be seen making horse shoes, while a pony being shod was conspicuous at the rear of the float.

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company had one of their monster wagons loaded with goods and drawn by eight white horses.

Butcher Fred Endress had his men mounted on horses. They made a fine display. Behind them was drawn a float containing a number of fat sheep.

W. A. Smith, the quarryman, showed a number of stone cutters at work on blocks of stone.

Schwed Brothers' float contained a number of boys dressed to represent Roosevelt's Rough Riders.

W. R. Brokaw displayed a cabin handsomely decorated and containing pianos and organs, from which patriotic music was heard to emanate.

Others in the parade whose wagons were handsomely decorated with the National colors were: Frank Linke, with barrels of Ballantine beer. W. D. Manning, coal, with numerous little girls dressed in white, all waving flags. Smalley Bros., butchers, with calves and sheep in handsomely trimmed wagons. Woolston & Buckle, all kinds of paints, etc. There were many others who had gaily decorated wagons, representing their various lines of business.

The rear of the procession was brought up by a wagon upon which was a large sign reading: "Make your city healthy by employing the Plainfield Sanitary Co."

It was fully 1 o'clock when the procession broke ranks and the various visiting organizations were taken in hand by Plainfield's hospitable citizens. The Brooklyn boys were marched to Washington hall, where the Juniors had made preparations to entertain them. If the jolly tars are not sufferers today from eating the quantities of good things provided for their stomachs they can lay it to good digestions.

While the men-o'-warsmen were being cared for at Washington hall the ladies of the Women's Relief Corps were displaying their characteristic noble traits by feeding the Naval Reserves, who were the city's guests, at the Crescent rink. In the meantime the visiting Red Men had been looked after by the big Chiefs of the local tribes, who saw that they had plenty of "fire-water" and "jerked venison" in the form of the best the the city affords. Later the Red Men were placed on board of cars and whirled to Mountainside Park where Miantonomo tribe held a picnic.

The afternoon's amusement consisted of a band concert in City Park and an address by Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis and reading of the Declaration of Independence by former Judge Wm. A. Coddington. Wm. Newcorn presided and introduced those who entertained the large crowd present. After Judge Coddington had read the Declaration of Independence P. P. VanArsdale sang the "Star Spangled Banner," the audience joining in the chorus.

Dr. Lewis delivered an oration that was filled with patriotic expressions. He dealt with events leading up to what he said is now the highest ideal of a composite nation, which alone can be gained by self-government, where every man is a king and every woman a queen. Whether we are to push the problem made possible by Admiral Dewey's victory in Manila harbor and complete the great task we have undertaken in the Philippines and give these people independent rights and thus make a permanency of this nation, is the problem of the hour.

The speaker said he believed a solution of that problem would be found by the time the next Fourth of July rolled around.

As if to crown the day's festivities in the evening fair Luna shed a portion of her effulgence upon the scene of the fire works, while over all was spread the canopy of heaven. The blue back ground was studded with countless stars, whose twinkling lights glistened like diamonds and shed their lustre over the face of a nation which is today second to no other on the globe.

The fire works were magnificient and were sent off without accident. They were looked at by thousands and greatly admired and appreciated. It would be a whiz, zip, sizzle and then boom would follow the explosion in mid-air while the exchanted multitude exclaimed "Ah!" "Isn't it beautiful!" "magnificient!" etc.

The pyrotechnic display gave good satisfaction. The fact that no rain came to mar the pleasure of the day, was gratifying to all. Had there been a slight shower in the afternoon it would have been most acceptable, for the heat was intense, the mercury climbing up into the nineties toward 2 o'clock.

The celebration ended in a blaze of glory and to the satisfaction of all. It was free from fatal accidents and there was little or no disorder.

Celebrated On Historic Ground.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, July 5—In accordance with the usual custom the Washington Camp Ground Association held their eleventh annual celebration of Independence Day on the camp ground, north of the town, on the southern slope of the mountain, yesterday noon. Hon. George LaMonte, president of the association, in a few well-chosen words welcomed the assemblage and complimented the officers and trustees on the improvements which had been made since he had deeded the historic tract to the association two years ago. The orator of the day, Howard MacSperry, of New Brunswick, was then introduced, and the very stirring speech he delivered entitled him to a place in the list of former Camp Ground orators, which includes such men as Rev. A. H. Lewis, D. D., Hon. Asa W. Tenny, Hon. Wallace Bruce and Richard V. Lindabury.

Fine Time at "Sunset Cottage."

The Fourth was gloriously spent at Voehl's "Sunset Cottage." A game of ball was played in the afternoon between the Jersey City and a Plainfield team, which resulted in a victory of 12 to 3 in favor of the former. A display of fire works was had in the evening. At various intervals large balloons labeled "Sunset Cottage" were floating in the air to the admiration of all. A continuous display of fireworks was had from 7 to 11 p. m.

Superintendent Clark's Resignation.

It was reported the other day, when superintendents were changed about on the Jersey Central Railroad, that the "resignations were made by request." This was not so, in the case of W. V. Clark, at least, the superintendent at Long Branch. It can be said, upon the authority of President Maxwell, that "he resigned his position voluntarily and against the wishes of the management, and the report does him great injustice."

The "Goddess" Took a Fall.

Frank Keller, who personated the "Goddess of Liberty" on the handsome float of the Juniors, was thrown from the top of the globe upon which he stood when the procession was countermarching at Martine's common. Fortunately Mr. Keller was not seriously injured, althoug he was stunned and slightly bruised. He remounted the globe and again resumed his position after a few moments rest.

To Build Twenty-Five Houses

James W. Lanning, of Trenton, has just closed a contract with the Knickerbocker Mortgage Company, of New York, of which Charles Howell Cook is treasurer, for the erection of twenty-five handsome houses on the Middlebrook Heights property, Bound Brook, owned by them. W. W. Slack, a Trenton architect, is doing some of the architectural work.

Outing to Insurance Agents.

The employes of the Mutual Life Insurance Company are to be given an excursion to Boynton Beach next Saturday. Among the features of the day's festivities will be grand dinner.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will everyone who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Irving L. Brady will leave tomorrow for a short vacation at Asbury Park.

Mrs. Laury, of this city, entertained Somerville friends over the Fourth.

Miss Nellie Brown, of Dunellen, spent yesterday with Miss Denton, of Prospect Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fowler, of Bayonne, spent yesterday with Thomas Calleen, of Orchard place.

Miss Tillie Schenck, of Elmwood place, entertained company from Bound Brook, over Sunday.

Dr. H. A. May, of Washington, D. C., has rented Mrs. D. C. Greene house on West Eighth street for the summer.

Miss Ada L. Wagner, of West Fourth street, is spending her vacation at Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah VanFleet, of Chester, Morris county, spent the Fourth at the home of F. W. Bailey, 86 Duer street.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Fellows, of New York, spent Sunday at the home of his mother and sister, Miss Blanche Fellows, of Westervelt avenue.

Miss Bulah Rogers entertained a number of her friends Monday evening at the home of Mrs. D. W. Rogers, 228 West Second street. There were about 30 young folks who were given a supper after a run to South Plainfield on their wheels.

Councilwomen Elected.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Lincoln, July 5.—The annual borough election of Lincoln was held yesterdy. In Lincoln women are entitled to vote at the municipal elections. Sixty-seven ballots were cast yesterday, of which thirty-one were by women. The women also hold office as Councilwomen. Two were elected. They were Flora P. Wrech and Marian E. VanDyke.

The Hawaiian Girl.

No happier-natured girl exists in the whole world than she who claims Hawaii for her home. The native Hawaiians are above all a good tempered, light-hearted, pleasure-loving race.

The jolly Hawaiian maid cannot be called good-looking, but her pleasantness characterizes the face and renders it attractive.

She is usually of good height and has a well-developed figure. Her skin is of reddish-brown color and her hair is black. She is, by nature, imitative, so it has been very easy for her to gain knowledge from her surroundings, and the advancement she has made from coming in contact with the whites who have controlled the island has been very great.

The Hawaiian girl is educated in the Government schools, provided at different places throughout the islands, and run at the Government expense.

The English language is usually taught. In fact, the Hawaiian language is dying out. There are now but three Hawaiian schools upon the island.

The chief talent possessed by the Hawaiian girl is for music. Some of them have composed, but their music will never become popular, as it is as narrow as the small sphere in which they live.

The ex-Queen possesses considerable musical ability, and some Hawaiian songs and instrumental pieces composed by her had quite a vogue on the island. It has been prophesied that Hawaiian music will become a fad with us, for the native songs are plaintive and weird—much like those sung by the negoes before the Civil War, the full notes being much in evidence.

The Rushlight.

Home manufactured rushlights and candles were in constant use by the Scotch peasantry. Boiled animal fat gave the required tallow; and the same green rushes as were used for cruisie wick supplied it also in this case.

In making rushlights, all the green coating of these rushes was stripped off; but for candle wick a thin strip was left on either side of the pit to strengthen and support it. Otherwise the manufacture of these two lights was very similar. This substance from the rushes when dried was tied to a rod, then dipped into the boiling fat, and allowed to cool; and this process was repeated until the rushlight, or candle, had become the desired thickness. In later years candles were made in molds. The tape was passed through a hole in the centre of the mold and knotted to prevent it slipping. The fat was then poured in and allowed to cool.

These molds, during the days of the candle tax, were jealously guarded by the owners and hidden in the most secret corners from the prying eyes of the exciseman. The candles were usually made at night in some outhouse, and watchers were posted at convenient corners to give timely warning of any approach of the ubiquitous officer.

Blushing.

Blushing is beyond any doubt, a nervous affection caused by extreme sensibility and self-consciousness. Blushing can only be overcome by perfect control of the emotions and nerves, all statements to the contrary, notwithstanding. People constantly declare that blushing is outgrown in the course of time. The truth is, that the blusher learns to control her nerves and to hold a rein over her emotions. Blushing should not be confused with flushing, which is one of the symptoms of indigestion and can only be cured by internal treatment.

This Week's Offerings

in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Trousers will comprise a remarkable lot of stylish clothing, doubly remarkable because of the low prices we will sell them. Part of the offerings are traceable to our recent extremely favorable purchases, deals in which spot cash and a great need of it by two manufacturers played an important part.

Some of the offerings come from our regular stock that but a few days ago we had an idea of reducing, but the season is advancing, our stock is still heavy, but the only method of reducing stock that we have faith in, is a great reduction of prices.

One Hundred Men's Business Suits made of cassimers, cheviots and worsteds, in plaids, checks and gray mixtures, well lined and trimmed, wholesale price 9.00; for this week.

Men's Black Clay Diagonal Coats and Vests, in sack or frock, soft finish at 4.00; valued at 10.00.

Proposals for Macadamizing.

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Common Council at the Council Chamber, No. 100 Park Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at eight o'clock p. m., on Monday, the day of July, 1899, for doing the work and furnishing the materials for the macadamizing contemplated in the agreement between The Plainfield Street Railroad Company and the inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, dated January 31, 1899, and as provided for in the specifications on file in the office of the Street Commissioner, said macadamizing to be from curb to curb, that is to say, thirty-six feet wide, to a depth of six inches at the centre of the street and a depth of three inches at the curbs. The streets to be macadamized are East Second street, east of Richmond street, and Richmond street, from East Second street to Putnam avenue.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the Common Council will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents thereof in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, provided said parties or agents choose to be then and there present, and also make proper record of said prices and terms.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved by the Common Council.

Separate proposals must be submitted for each street, endorsed, "Proposals for Macadamizing."

HILLSIDE GOLFERS BEAT THE EXPERTS.

St. Paul's School Team Defeated By Score of 33 to 2.

SEASON'S RECORD BROKEN.

THIS TIME THE FEAT WAS PERFORMED BY A VISITOR.

The Visitors Are Considered One of the Crack Teams of the Country—Out of Form Yesterday and Unacquainted With the Course—Afterwards Entertained at the Hotel Hunterston.

A mid-week evant of great interest was the golf match tournament on the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club links yesterday afternoon between the crack team from St. Paul's School, N. H., and a team picked from the home club. The visiting team is composed of players who have won distinction by wonderful play at golf, and the home team was in doubt as to winning the match. The result was different, however, as the home team was victorious by a score of 33 to 2. The visiting team had no excuses to make except that they were out of form and the course being new to them they were unable to do their best. On the other hand the home team played the game for all it was worth and excellent scores were made. There was a good-sized crowd at the links and great interest was manifested in the game.

The feature of the play was the breaking of the season's record for the second time. This feat was accomplished by Percy R. Pyne, of the visiting team, who made a net score of 79 from scratch. This beats the score made on the Fourth by Willard Wadsworth, who made the 18 holes in 80, with a handicap of 1.

The scores made in yesterday's play are as follows:

| HILLSIDE. | | ST. PAUL. | |
|---|---|---|---|
| W. Wadsworth | 0 | P. R. Pyne | 2 |
| W. L. Glenney | 2 | F. O. Reinhart | 0 |
| C. W. Fisk | 13 | L. Garretson | 0 |
| F. Talmadge | 5 | Percy Jennings | 0 |
| P. W. Mason | 2 | G. M. Brinley | 0 |
| Gus Fisk | 3 | Morgan Smith | 0 |

After the game both teams went to the Hunterston Hotel, where Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reinhart entertained them at dinner. As there are many Plainfield young men who are students at St. Paul's school a lively interest was manifested in the visit of the golf team to this city. The dinner and social features were very delightful and the visitors will long remember their coming to Plainfield.

Monday last the St. Paul team played at Morristown and being so near to this city influence was brought to bear to have them come here, which they were glad to do, although they feel keenly their defeat at the hands of the local team.

REPRESENTATIVE FLOATS.

A List of Those Not Mentioned in Yesterday's Press.

Owing to a lack of space in Wednesday's Press a few business houses that had handsomely decorated wagons in the Fourth of July parade were omitted from the story published in yesterday's paper. We notice the following:

D. W. Rogers' decorated wagon, very handsome.

Charles Warnock drove a gaily decorated wagon advertising Scheuer & Sons' groceries.

Tony Lusardi drove a handsomely decorated wagon displaying a quantity of fine fruits from the firm of A. Lusardi & Company. Much admired by all.

One of the unique displays was that made by Schepflin & Schultz, clothiers, having suits, one of them made to fit a giant.

L. A. Hummer, the butcher, handsomely decorated wagons, with his clerks, E. H. Terry and Peter Baker as drivers.

Drake & Mundy, with Mr. Mundy's family seated in a pony rig handsomely decorated with colored streamers, and Edward Mundy driving.

Must Secure Permits.

Of late different people have taken upon themselves the liberty of tearing up streets in the borough without first getting the permit of the Borough Council. The members propose that in the future if anyone desires to open streets to lay pipes, etc., they shall first get a permit. There is already an ordinance covering the point, but it is constantly being violated.

A New Time Table.

The Central Railroad Company has issued a new time table in a new and convenient form, containing all information concerning the road and branches.

CAN'T GET ENOUGH IRON.

SCARCITY OF THE ARTICLE CRIPPLES ELIZABETH INDUSTRIES.

Work Delayed at Nixon's Shipyards and at Singer Factory—Kean's Trolley Road Held Up by Same Cause, Too.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 6.—The work in Lewis Nixon's Crescent ship yards at Elizabethport is badly crippled on account of the company's inability to get material. Superintendent Ackerman said this morning that it was almost impossible to get plates and sheets and that it was hurting the business, compelling the company to lay off men and grearly delaying the work on hand. The same conditions, said he, exist throughout the entire country. The plate mills are working night and day to fill their orders, having enough on hand to keep them going for three years.

There are two monitors, two torpedo boats and one coal supply boat for the United States Navy under way in the Crescent yards, but as the work on them was three months ahead of other government work at the time, the present famine in the plate and sheet market will not prevent them from getting the government work out on contract time.

The same conditions are having more or less effect on the other factories in the Port where iron and steel are used, notably the Singer Manufacturing Company and the Worthington Hydraulic Pump Works, many of whose employees are taking an enforced vacation.

Work on Senator John Kean's trolley line is being held up for the same reason.

ROUGH RIDER STRICKEN.

WOUNDED TWICE AT SAN JUAN, AND NOW A PARALYTIC.

George W. Moncton Suffered the Stroke Yesterday Afternoon and is Now in a Critical Condition at Uncle's Home.

While enjoying himself with two friends, Joseph Burke and Charles Perrine, George W. Moncton, a member of Roosevelt's Rough Riders, was stricken with paralysis yesterday afternoon on East Second street, and had to be taken in a carriage to the home of his uncle, J. Giles, of Highland avenue, where he now lies in a critical condition.

The attack came on suddenly. While the three were together Moncton suddenly threw up his hands and gave a sharp cry, and at the same time exclaimed, "It's all over! I am going to die!" He then fell to the sidewalk, where he lay for a few minutes in a comatose condition.

He finally regained consciousness and was taken to the City Hotel when Dr. Buchanan, of Duer street, was called. After examination the physician pronounced the case one of paralysis. He advised that the man be taken to his home at once. A telegram was sent to his mother who lives in a distant city, and she arrived this morning.

Mr. Moncton enlisted with the Rough Riders in the late war with Spain, and just about a year ago he was wounded in a fight at San Juan Hill. One bullet entered the thigh and the other the shoulder on the right side. It is this same side that is paralyzed, and the physician thinks that he will lose entire control of that side.

Dr. Buchanan's treatment was only temporary, as Dr. Zeglio, the family physician, was away at the time Mr. Moncton was taken. Dr. Zeglio is now attending the patient.

Gave a Dinner Party.

A very delightful event of last evening was the dinner party given at the Hotel Hunterston by Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Cox, of West Seventh street, to a few of their friends. The event was marked with many pleasant features. Those in the party included Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Cox, Miss Wood, Miss Cox, Mr. Robinson, Frank Schoonmaker, Dr. Rowland Cox, Jr., Archibald Cox and Roy Cox.

Given Chief's Degree.

At last evening's meeting of Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe of Red Men four candidates were given the Chief's degree. Next Wednesday evening an entertainment will be held to which the members and their wives only will be invited. Refreshments will be served and an informal literary and musical programme given.

Crop Report.

The following is John Neagle's crop report for this week: Late showers beneficial to all crops; corn comes up irregular; oats short; harvesting of rye and wheat progressing; some wheat heads have turned black; hay about one-third crop; blackberries and raspberries short crop.

THE TOWN CLOCK LEARNS ITS FATE.

Is to Go to Work Again After Long Idleness.

COUNCIL GIVES THE FUNDS.

CLOCK WILL BE CLEANED AND PUT IN RUNNING ORDER.

The Striking of the Hours Will be Omitted—The Clock Had a Visitor Yesterday and Learned Its Fate—Hopes Council Will Not Forget It Again, But Will Keep It Running.

The jaunty little sparrow tipped back and forth on the edge of the belfry of the First M. E. church yesterday afternoon and winked at the stolid faced Town Clock above him.

"Hear you're going to work again," began the sparrow. A mournful sound rose from the mass of wheels behind the dial.

"What, once more?" And the old Clock sighed.

"Yes," chatted away the little bird as he flew closer to the Clock, "the Council appropriated $30 to fix you up and put you in working order. How do you like the idea of working again?"

"It's nearly a year now since I did anything," and the Clock sighed again as he spoke. "You haven't any idea how stiff and rusty I am. Why don't they keep me in order all the time instead of keeping me going a little while only to fall into disuse again? Why it makes me weep bitter tears everytime they come here and tinker with my wheels and oil my rusty bearings. I can't keep good time if they run me in this spasmodic fashion. Its years since they put me up here to tell time for the town and a sorry life I have led. They won't let me speak any more. Say I disturb the slumbers of the good people around here. Just look at these Councilmen who occasionally remember I am up here. Why I've been here longer than most of them, and the people know me far better. What do they think I am here for? It's enough to make any self-respecting Clock wring his hands to be up here, forlorn and forgotten, never changing from 7 o'clock while these Councilmen go driving by thinking of trolley extensions and asphalt pavements. Oh, I wish there was some one to take my part."

"Perhaps," suggested the Sparrow. "You might get the women of the Town Improvement Association interested in your case. I was up to the City Park yesterday to hear Dominie Lewis speak, and those women have just transformed the place. I heard Councilman Buckle say that he wasn't ashamed to own it any more as a City Park. Maybe they would take you in hand."

"Well," moaned the Clock as he tried unsuccessfully to move some of the wheels within. "I don't know. If they'e decided to start me at work again, I only hope they'll keep me at it."

"Let us hope for the best," responded the Sparrow. Just then the dull roll of thunder in the west warned him that a storm was coming and he flew away to join his wife.

Meanwhile the old Town Clock in the First M. E. church steeple points at 7 o'clock with a constancy that might be admired in another place.

CONGRESS OF LABOR UNIONS.

Project of Home for Aged Union Workingmen to be Considered Then.

The twenty-sixth annual congress of the New Jersey Federation of Trades and Labor Unions will be held in the City Council chamber, 18 Canfield street, Orange, commencing at 10:30 a. m., Monday, August 21st. The aim of the State Federation is the establishment and promotion of local, national and international trade unions and the combination of all such trade unions in the American Federation of Labor.

A matter that will come before the congress will be that of establishing a Home for Aged and Infirm Workmen at Lincoln, patterned after the Childs-Drexel Home for Union Printers at Colorado Springs, Col.

H. J. Gottlob, of 390 Springfield avenue, Newark, is chairman of the executive board.

Realty Changes

The following real estate exchanges from North Plainfield have been recarded in the Somerset county Clerk's office: Chas. B. Holmes to Samuel L. Bailey, $1; Samuel L. Bailey to Henry S. Jennings, $1,210; Selah Schoonmaker, sheriff, to Wm. M. Stillman, North Plainfield, $20; Chas. Hand et ux to DeWitt C. Ivins and W. C. Freeman, $2,500.

PURSUIT OF A DINNER.

PLAINFIELD POLICE MEET WITH STRANGE EXPERIENCE.

Tried to Entertain Officers of the Elizabeth Force Last Evening and Finally Succeeded After a Little Delay

Six of the superior officers of the Elizabeth police force came to Plainfield last evening to attend a little dinner given them by the local superior officers. After various adventures the dinner was held, but not exactly where and how it had been intended.

The fame of the mushroom suppers at Pediflous hotel in Washington Valley has gone forth throughout the county. The local policemen had heard of it, too. They decided to invite their fellow workers up from the county seat to partake of one of these famous suppers. Accordingly the invitation was sent and accepted. A number of the city officials including the judge and police board were invited to be present.

Sergeant Kiely made what he thought were complete arrangements with the Pediflous family.

Last night the entertainers and their guests went out the Somerset street trolley line to the terminus to where the Pediflous stage was to meet them. No stage was there. They waited. Still no stage. At last, they captured a passing vehicle and persuaded the driver to take the guests on to the scene of the expected feast and then return for them. Soon the vehicle returned but with it came the guests also. Mrs. Pediflous had not understood that it was last night, they said, but thought the date of the supper was two weeks later. Then the party returned to Plainfield.

At the Hotel Hunterston a dinner party was in full swing. The Hotel Kensington had been captured by the Doctors' Association, so the officers of the police and their guests took possession of McVey's Hotel at a rather late hour and a dinner was prepared. The dinner was a good one, but it didn't do Mr. McVey justice or the police force, owing to the great rush with which it was gotten together.

The officers who arranged the little affair were considerably worried over the remarkable way in which their proposed affair had turned out, but the guests assured them that they had had a great time and wouldn't have missed the excitement of such a chase for a a supper for all the world. Some time the local police officers are going to try again, but they declare that they will be certain that they have a supper and a good one, too, before they try to take their guests to the scene of action.

MAY BE TELEPHONE WAR

NEW YORK AND NEW JERSEY COMPANY GETS INTO BOUND BROOK.

Said to Have Strung a Cable Without Permission of the Authorities—Telephone Company Claims Right to Do So.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, July 7.—There is every prospect of a telephone war in this place between the Home Telephone Company, a local corporation, and the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company. The latter company has had three telephones in Bound Brook for a long time. Two years ago the Home Company secured a franchise and established a local exchange. The New York and New Jersey Company has now stretched a cable from its main trunk line along the tracks of the Jersey Central Railroad to Manning's drug store, its local exhange. It is now installing telephones wherever they are ordered. No permission was granted to the company to string the cable.

Heretofore the borough officials have refused to grant the New York and New Jersey Company any rights here, and are now watching carefully to see if the company goes any further in its work. The company defends its action in stringing the cable by stating that it has a perfect right to do so as long as the supports or wires are not on the highways.

J. W. Yates, of East Seventh street, is spending the summer at Minnewaska, N. Y.

FIRST EXCURSIONISTS OFF TO THE SEASHORE.

Sixteen Cars of Pleasure Seekers Go to Asbury Park.

THREE CHURCHES ARE IN IT.

FIVE CARS WERE FILLED WITH COLORED PEOPLE.

It Was a Typical Excursion Crowd and Everyone Was Filled With Enthusiastic Anticipation of an Enjoyable Day at the Shore—Crescent Avenue, Grace P. E. Churches and Bethel Chapel in it.

The unceasing roar, as the long swells from the Atlantic pound away on the beach at Asbury Park, seems to have a constant attraction for the good folks of Plainfield. Today the first of the series of Sunday-school excursions to that popular resort departed with a good load of expectant sightseers and excursionists. Even the promise of frequent showers during the day could not keep away many who had planned to take the outing.

It was not exactly perfect weather that the would-be excursionists found when they rose for the morning. There was some blue sky, but the atmosphere seemed laden with moisture and the clouds portended showers soon. There were dispairing little cries and quiet little weeps, but at 7:45 o'clock long lines of young and old, gaily arrayed for a day's outing, could be seen wending their way toward the North Avenue station. Many who couldn't go, went to the station to see their more fortunate friends depart shoreward.

This time it was the turn of the Sunday-schools of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian, Grace P. E., St. Stephens P. E. churches and Bethel mission. A large crowd was expected and prepared for. Had the day been a pleasant one it would have undoubtedly been one of the largest excurisons to leave this city this season.

The first section was waiting at the station while the excursionists scurried around in all the excitement and hurry of departure. The first five cars of the first section were devoted to seating the colored folk of Bethel mission. They turned out in all the glory of their gala attire despite the threatening showers. They filled their cars to overflowing and laughed and chatted in great good humor.

There were eleven cars in the first section and there wasn't an empty seat in one of them. The train was filled long before 8 o'clock and was ready to pull out immediately after the departure of the 7:55 express.

The second section came down from Dunellen at 8:05 and collected those who remained. There were enough of them to occupy the major portor of the seats in five cars. The other cars of the section, seven in number, were dropped off at Roselle.

It was the typical excursion crowd and everybody was filled with the enthusiastic anticipation for a first glimpse of the shore. There was little or no preparation to encounter rain and most of the young women appeared in white gowns while golf or duck trousers were frequent among the young men.

One small boy tried to steal a ride but was discovered by a brakeman and howled most melodiously as the brakeman carried him off the train like a sack of meal and dumped him on the platform.

While the excursionists will probably encounter some showers, the Park will probably be very comfortable as the south-east wind that blew this morning will mean a sea-breeze on the coast.

WHOSE BOY IS THIS?

Found in New York and Says That He Lives in Plainfield.

A young lad named John Wilson, who gives his age as 13 years, was picked up in New York last evening by the police who found him wandering about. When questioned the boy said that he lived on Lincoln street, near High street, in Plainfield. The police immediately telephoned to Captain Grant and inquired about the boy's folks. The captain had no knowledge of the boy or his parents. In company with Roundsman Frederickson he made a tour of the city and borough this morning inquiring about the boy. They were unable to learn anything about him.

The boy told the New York police that he went to the city to see his father, who is a sea captain, and that he lost his way. There is no High street in Plainfield or North Plainfield.

RECTOR MURPHY'S ADIEU

FORMER CHURCH OF HOLY CROSS RECTOR SAILS FOR EUROPE.

A Big Delegation of Friends on Hand to Wish Them Bon Voyage—Many Floral Tributes—To Travel Extensively

When the White Star liner Brittanic sailed from New York yesterday noon it took among its passengers Rev. T. Logan Murphy, Mrs. Murphy and their daughter, Miss Annie Murphy, of this city. There was a big delegation of friends on hand before the time of sailing to say good-bye. The last hour preceding the departure was turned into a regular reception to the departing ones. Among those who came to see Rev. Mr. Murphy and his family off were a number of his former parishioners.

Flowers, fruit and other gifts were received in profusion by the members of the little party, and they were nearly buried beneath the remembrances of their many friends in Plainfield, New York and Brooklyn.

They will land at Queenstown and take a pleasure trip through Ireland, stopping at the Lakes of Killarney and Dublin. Then their travels will take them throughScotland and finally down into England. Paris will be their final destination, where they will be in time to see the great Exposition. They will also visit Rome and Switzerland. They expect to be in Europe for nearly two years.

PRETTY SUMMER HOME.

CHARMING PLACE IS THAT OF MR. AND MRS GEORGE MELLICK.

Situated on a Sightly Knoll Near Hillside Golf Grounds—Has a Rustic Appearance—A Beautiful, Cool Place on a Hot Day.

One of the prettiest homes in this locality is that occupied by Councilman George P. Mellick and wife, near the Hillside Tennis and Golf club grounds. Early in the season Mr. Mellick erected a bungalow on a hill near the golf grounds, and after selecting the site, which is an ideal one, he decided to purchase about seven acres of land, which is very choice.

Mr. Benson, of this city, was the architect and he took a great deal of personal interest in the construction of the house. It is built of wood and stone, and has a rustic appearance. A strong foundation was built and a commodious cellar provided for. The front of the bungalow is provided with a spacious piazza, from which one of the best obtainable views of Plainfield and the surrounding country is to be had.

The house is one story and there is one large reception room which, if necessary, can be converted into a room for sleeping purposes. It is provided with large easy chairs, and recesses, and a large old-fashioned fireplace and chimney gives this room a picturesque appearance. There is also a kitchen of good proportions, where all the necessaries can be cooked and served in quick order. The means of lighting the place at night are through the use of candles, but when the breeze is brisk it is difficult to keep them lighted. To overcome this difficulty Mr. Mellick has provided a number of lanterns, which he terms his "candelabra," and these serve every purpose.

The grounds about the place is nicely graded and a fine driveway is provided. From each of the four corners of the building there is suspended old-fashioned lanterns with various colored glass, and at night the scene is entrancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Mellick frequently go to the bungalow and enjoy the cool breezes during the warm weather and occasionally they entertain their friends in their usual hospitable manner. The house is arranged for every convenience and with the idea of affording the greatest possible comfort.

MUST KEEP OUT OF MIDDLESEX.

Paul Ford's Sentence Suspended on on that Condition.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, July 6.—Paul Ford was arraigned before Judge Strong yesterday having signed an allegation for immediate trial. He pleaded guilty to the charges of breaking and entering preferred by Mrs. Bradford, of Metuchen.

Ford's sister, Laura Ford, who has stood by him devotedly through all his escapades, made a strong plea to the Court, representing that her brother had enlisted in the marines and would shortly go to Manilla. Robert Adrain, appearing for the prisoner, seconded the plea for mercy, and, after rebuking Ford, who appeared in the uniform of a United States marine, Judge Strong suspend sentence on condition that he keep out of the county.

Matthew Addison, of Brooklyn, has been the guest of Clarkson Mundy, of Stone street.

FROM DUNELLEN TO SCOTCH PLAINS.

Trolley Cars Now Make the Entire Run.

TRIP IS SEVEN MILES LONG.

NETHERWOOD CARS ARE RUN ONLY TO NORTH AVENUE STATION.

The Completion of the Scotch Plains Extension Has Resulted in Change of Arrangement of Cars—Complaints of Signs Have Had Their Effect—New Ones are Prepared—Twelve Minutes' Headway.

Scotch Plains is beginning to wake up. The trolley line to that village is now in full operation and the cars are running between that place and Plainfield every twelve minutes. After a little delay in getting the line in proper running order, the regular schedule has been put into operation.

One change has marked the beginning of the regular schedule on to Scotch Plains extension. The cars, that went out West Front street to Dunellen and then returned to Netherwood, are now running to Scotch Plains instead of Netherwood. Beginning with Tuesday, the change was made. The Netherwood cars now run only to the North Avenue station, there giving exchanges for the other lines.

It is seven miles from Dunellen to Scotch Plains and the trip can now be made without transfer for a single fare. That is the best that Plainfield has seen yet for cheap transit. The situation at Dunellen between the Plainfield and Brunswick companies remains the same. The cars now make a point to wait for each other, however. The Brunswick cars leave Dunellen on the quarter and three quarter hours. The Plainfield cars leaving the North Avenue station at the even hour and twenty-four minutes thereafter make direct connections.

There have been many complaints to Superintendent Adelmann about the signs on the cars, which have been decidedly misleading. He says that hereafter there will be no more trouble. The Dunellen Scotch Plains cars will be properly marked, as will the Netherwood line. The boards on the sides and the others on the ends are being lettered according to the new arrangement.

$5,000 Bail in Malpractice Case.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 6—Judge Vail of the Union County Court yesterday fixed bail for the release of Mrs. Sophia Meyer, of Newark, who was sentenced to twelve years imprisonment for causing the death of Annie Krause by malpractice at $5,000. The application was made by Jeremiah Kiernan. A writ has been granted by the Court of Errors, and Mrs. Meyer will leave the prison as soon as bail is secured for her.

To Fix the Budget.

At the regular meeting of the Borough Council tomorrow evening the question of fixing the amount to be raised for expenses during the year will be considered, and it is expected that there will be several applications received to macadamize new streets.

Dr. Frank Linbarger, of Red Bank, is visiting Plainfield relatives for a short time.

TEXAS FLOODS CONTINUE.

Over Three Hundred Dead, is Estimated Loss of Life in Flooded Districts.

WORST IS NOT KNOWN.

The Fairest Part of the Lone Star State is Almost a Wilderness—Sickness May Follow.

River Bottom Covered With Slimy Mud, Carcasses of Cattle and the Bodies of Human Beings—Damage to Property May Be Over $15,000,000—Many Bodies Not Found.

Houston, Tex., July 6.—A newspaper correspondent who has returned from the flooded districts says the half has not been told of the havoc wrought. The disaster is so appalling that description is not possible. After the flood, sickness is almost certain to follow, and what a week ago gas the fairest part of Texas is now almost a wilderness. The waters of the Brazos have for six days covered the valley to a depth of from six to thirty feet. Where a week ago there were on every hand fields of cotton and corn and thousands of acres of watermelons and cantaloupes, to-day there is nothing but slimy mud and the carcasses of cows, mules, pigs, dogs and cats, maylap humans, for many are missing.

"Our party left Bryan at sunrise," adds the reporter, "going to the Navasota bottoms and to a point about three miles from Millican. There we encountered everywhere an overflow from the Navasota, which spread out fully two miles on either side of the Houston and Central tracks. Everything is under water from two to seventeen feet. It looked on all sides like a great lake, and the water was so high that for a vast area it submerged the telegraph and telephone lines. The Navasota bottoms are a perfect sea, four or five miles wide at certain points. I saw hundreds of houses there submerged, and as many more had been swept from their foundations and destroyed. The planters of the bottoms are moving their help and whatever is left of their stock to places where they can be cared for. They are all nobly helping each other and taking refuge wherever they can, some of them seeking safety on housetops.

"The planters said that the outside world had no conception of the floods or losses incurred by the destruction of crops, stock and buildings. Almost every planter has built boats and sent them through the flooded district to render assistance to the people, and if possible save some of their drowning stock. The flooded district has a length of more than 500 miles, a breadth of probably fifty miles, and in all that vast space damage incalculable has been done.

"The loss of life will never be known, perhaps. The bottoms were populated mostly with negro tenant farmers. To show the damage done the following estimates have been made by men who are in a position to know:

"Lives lost, from 100 to 300; loss to farmers, including crops as well as live stock, from $5,000,000 to $15,000,000; damages to railroads and country bridges, $2,000,000 to $4,000,000. These estimates take in the whole area. It is known that more than sixty persons have met their death. Many of the bodies have been recovered, but it is not believed that all of them will ever be found."

Disastrous Texas Floods.

Austin, Tex., July 6.—The town of Dewey, on the Katy River, is reported to have been entirely wiped out by the flood. The river is ten miles wide at that point. Dewey was a small place, but the neighborhood is thickly settled by truck farmers.

Brookshire, south of Dewey, urgently appeals for help. Two miles from where the river ordinarily flows, streets are overflowed. The whole country is a sea. Unless boats are sent the loss of life will run into the hundreds. The Brazos River at Sealy is more than five miles wide.

Flood Victims Dying in the Trees.

Galveston, Texas, July 6.—The latest despatches from Brookshire tell an awful tale of destruction and death by the flood. It is impossible at this time to make an approximate estimate of the number dead. Scenes in river bottom around Brookshire are agonizing. Men, women and children are lodged in trees and are dying from hunger and exhaustion. Every effort is being made by Houston and Galveston to succor the distressed people. Rescuing parties are constantly bringing cargoes of famished and drowned people.

Died of Yellow Fever.

Washington, July 6.—The War Department received a cable despatch from Santiago announcing the death from yellow fever of Major Clendennin, of the Medical Department of the army. Major Clendennin was a surgeon attending the yellow fever patients at Santiago.

Lord Asked to Remove McKinley.

Topeka, Kan., July 6.—"It is proper to invoke a just God to remove a President who retains H. Clay Evans as Pension Commissioner." This is a resolution adopted by Custer Post, G. A. R., at Spring Hill, Kan., and received by Department Commander Coultor here.

Was Grinding Giant Powder.

Youngstown, Ohio, July 6.—William Landers will likely die as the result of a foolhardy trick. He attempted to grind giant powder in a coffee mill. He is in the hospital with prospects in favor his not recovering.

McAfee Hanged for Murder.

Carthage, Mo., July 6.—Joseph McAfee, the wife murderer, was hanged in the jail yard here at 9:30 this morning. His body was cut down twenty-one minutes after the drop fell.

WOMAN DOCTORS AID.

Ten Persons Badly Hurt in a Collision Near Newark, N. J.

Newark, N. J., July 6.—A Milburn open car crashed into the rear of an Irvington closed car at Irvington at nearly full speed, throwing the passengers in a heap. Some of them were knocked senseless.

Dr. Nellie Tilton, of Brockton, Mass., and her sister, Dr. Ida F. Bruce, of Irvington, who were on the forward car, promptly turned their attention to the injured.

William Edwards, one of the passengers had several of his ribs fractured and was otherwise injured.

The other injured were Edward Kaiser, of Newark, injured internally; George Allsop, of Newark, head, face and hands badly cut; Mrs. Ella C. Harris, of Newark, unconscious and suffering from shock; Gilbert Harris, aged seven, badly injured on head; Mrs. Henry Osborne, of Springfield, injured internally; Mrs. Edward M. Arcularius, of Hilton, badly cut and bruised on head; Hazel Arcularius, aged six, injured about head and body; Mrs. John Frost, of Newark, badly bruised; Conductor Johnson, injured internally.

The injured were cared for at the homes of friends. Both cars were badly damaged.

The Pope's Health Improving.

Rome, July 6.—Pope Leo has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to receive visitors again, and is apparently stronger than he has been for some time. The report sent out from London that the Pope was on the verge of collapse was without foundation.

Train Parted Where They Sat.

New Brunswick, N. J., July 6.—Two men, one supposed to be Albert Hicks of New York, were killed on the Freehold & Jamesburg Railroad at Jamesburg. The men boarded a freight train at Monmouth Junction. They sat upon the bumper of one car with their feet extended to the bumper of the next car. The train parted between these cars and the men fell to the rails and were instantly killed. One of the men was a negro. Their clothing was examined, and notes and photographs on the white man indicated that he was Albert Hicks. The identity of the negro has not been established.

Had Heart Sewed Up and Still Lives

Binghamton, July 6.—For probably the first time in medical history the left ventricle of the heart has been sewed up and the patient lives. Louis Ginsburg, a Jewish rabbi, was stabbed by a negro and fell dying. Ginsberg's wife rushed to his side imploring him not to give up. A physician who was called injected saline solution to replace the blood. The man still lived, the ribs were parted and the heart exposed. Between pulsations, with lightning rapidity, a needle and thread was passed through the left ventricle, several stitches being taken. Then the patient rallied.

Buildings Wrecked With Dynamite.

Oxford, N. H., July 6.—Three buildings here, including the post office, were wrecked by dynamite. The persons responsible are known and will be arrested. One of the men, whose house was destroyed, declares that the damage was done as a result of a law suit, which he recently had. An outbuilding of the grammar school, about which there had been a controversy, was also destroyed. The dynamiters then went to the house of W. H. Evans, with whom one of the gang had had a quarrel, but owing to the misplacement of the cartridge only slight damage was done.

Fatal Leap From a Window.

Boston, July 6.—Irene Faulkner, 25 years old, threw herself from a third story window in Charles street. She died at the City Hospital from the injuries sustained. Walter Ovenden, her lover, is under arrest, pending an investigation. He says that during the woman's call at his room they had quarreled and she threw a cuspidor at him. She afterward tried to make up with him, without success, and then carried out a threat to jump out of the window.

Smallpox Near Fredericktown.

Frederickstown, Mich., July 6.—Two cases of smallpox are reported by Dr. Newberry, four miles south of Frederickstown. The patients are Henry White and his wife. The disease was brought to their home by their son who has been working in the Flat River country, where smallpox has been prevalent for several weeks.

Reward of $500 for a Murderer.

New Brunswick, N. J., July 6.—The Board of Freeholders has adopted a resolution offering a reward of $500 for the capture of the murderer of the unknown man found with his skull crushed, in a swamp near Jamesburg, one week ago. The victim had three concentric stars tattooed on his left hand.

Baptist Church Dedicated.

Mt. Vernon, Ill., July 6.—The Baptist Church at Kell, nine miles north of this city, has been formally dedicated. A large gathering witnessed the exercises and the dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. B. F. Rodman of Duquoin.

Plenty of Proof Right Here at Home in Plainfield.

Claim is one thing; proof another.

Columbus claimed the world was round.

Did people believe it? Not until he proved it.

Unproven claims have made the people skeptics.

Every claim made for the "Little Conqueror" is proven.

Proven in Plainfield by local experience.

It's not what we say, but what your neighbors say.

Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by citizens.

Here is one case from the many we have:

Mr. S. J. Conklin, traveling salesman for a New York Confectionery house, living at 134 West Front street, says: "I was subject to kidney complaint for seven years. My symptoms were pains in the back and hips, which at times I felt in my side. I tried different kinds of kidney cures but received little or no relief. I read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and I went to L. W. Randolph's store and got a box. I took three altogether and was wonderfully improved. Doan's Kidney Pills are a good remedy and accomplish all that is claimed for them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

POLICE AT THE COLLIERY

Officers Prevent Scenes of Threatened Disorder in Pennsylvania.

ONE COMPANY RESUMES

The Non-Striking Miners Jeered and Hooted as They Took up Their Various Positions.

Difficulty Arises Over the Use of a Miner's Lamp—About 1,000 Men in All Are Out—No Attempt Has Yet Been Made to Start the Dorrance Mine.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 6.—A large detail of policemen in uniform at the Dorrance and Prospect collieries prevented the scenes of disorder that had been threatened, owing to the advertised intention of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company to start operations. There was a good deal of jeering and hooting as the non-strikers appeared, and it looked as if a general scheme of intimidation was to be practiced.

A sufficient number of men did not appear to start the inside workings, but the outside forces were fairly well represented and the breaker was in opration, though with a reduced force. No attempt has been made to start the Dorrance. About 1,000 men in all are out. The officers say they cannot recede from their stand to compel the use of the safety lamp, for a single big disaster, which would always be imminent, would be far more expensive to them than a protracted strike.

There are at present no indications of the miners of the Susquehanna Coal Company or the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad going on strike. They use the same lamp to which the Lehigh Valley men objected. The temper of the striking miners has been thus far kept in check by the police, but if the strike should be prolonged, as now seems likely, there will undoubtedly be serious trouble.

Chicago May Go Dark.

Chicago, July 6.—Unless something is done by the City Council, Chicago is likely to be in darkness after the middle of this month. No appropriation has been made for street lighting by gas after Aug. 1, and the appropriation already made will be exhausted by July 15. Many Aldermen oppose any new appropriation, on account of alleged extortion by the companies and insist that the city is more powerful than the trust. The official record shows that the gas companies have served notice on the Mayor that they will not supply gas to the city for street lighting purposes after Aug. 1 unless arrangements are made by the city to insure payment.

Decision Beats Pingree.

Lansing, Mich., July 6.—The Michigan Supreme Court has declared unconstitutional the McLeod law, which authorized the appointment of the Detroit Street Railway Commission, whose object was the purchase and municipal ownership and operation of street railways of Detroit. The decision is that there is no such office as the "Detroit Street Railway Commission;" that Gov. Pingree and the other commissioners have no title thereto, and that judgment of ouster must be entered against them.

Neck Broken, But May Live.

Toledo, Ohio, July 6.—Mrs. Mary E. Perry of this city, is at home with a fractured neck but in a fair way to recover. With her husband and son she was driving across the Lake Shore tracks when a fast train cut the wagon in two just back of the seat. None of the occupants of the wagon were badly injured, apparently, but local physicians say Mrs. Perry's neck is broken. They say, however, that she will recover.

Woman's Body Found.

Rye, N. Y., July 6.—The body of a woman, apparently about 30 years old, has floated ashore here. It has not been identified. To all appearances the body had not been in the water long, and the clothing, which is of excellent material, was in good condition. Coroner Banning of Mount Vernon took charge of the case.

Trust Company Changes Its Name.

Kansas City, Mo., July 6.—The Missouri, Kansas & Texas Trust Company, of this city, will soon be known in the financial world as "The Guardian Trust Company of Chicago and Kansas City." The stockholders ratify the change of name at an election to be held on July 15.

Shot the Man That Clubbed Him.

Princeton, N. J., July 6.—During a quarrel near Princeton Basin between Samuel Crews, a negro, and John Larkin and two of his brothers, Crews struck John with a heavy club. Larkin shot at Crews and two bullets pierced Crews' left breast, killing him almost instantly. Larkin gave himself up to the police.

Tried Suicide in Watering Trough.

Rochester, N. Y., July 6.—James W. Martin, 55 years old, attempted suicide three times by jumping into a watering trough. He was fished out each time and was finally landed in the police station. Martin told the police sergeant that he wanted to die for his country.

Fire Chief's Back Broken.

Memphis, July 6.—Chief James E. Cleary had his back broken and Assistant Chief Ryan was severely injured and an unknown negro killed by falling walls at a fire which burned four buildings, including the old Gayoso Hotel.

The Trouble in Belgium.

Brussels, July 6.—All the windows in the house occupied by the Premier, M. Van den Peereboom, at Onderlecht, a suburb of this city, were broken by unknown persons who formed themselves into an uncontrollable mob.

DISMAL SWAMP SOLD.

A Company Will Drain It and Secure the Timber.

Norfolk, Va., July 6.—It is asserted that the Camp Manufacturing Company, lumber manufacturers of Franklin, Va., have bought the famous Dismal Swamp. This great swamp lies half in North Carolina and half in Virginia. Through it a canal known as the Dismal Swamp Canal has been dug at enormous cost. One end of the canal is near Norfolk, and the other is on the North Carolina Sound. In the mud underlying the waters of the great swamp are thousands of cedar trees, which have been submerged and preserved from decay.

It is understood that the purpose of the Camps is to drain the swamp and secure the timber. Should they do so they will leave the Dismal Swamp Canal high and dry, eighteen feet above tidewater. The few who know of the reported purchase of the swamp express great interest in the matter, which it runs, etao eta eta etpurposeo and opinions differ as to whether the purchasers may legally drain the swamp and thus destroy the canal, or whether by the purchase the great tract through which it runs, the Camps acpuire the canal. Some lawyers say that the purchasers of the Swamp may legally drain it, although their action render the canal useless if a railroad is built along the towpath.

Zinc Miners Again Warned.

Joplin, Mo., July 6.—The Western Federation of Miners and the Western Labor Union have sent another agent here to warn Missouri lead and zinc miners against going to Idaho to take the place of the miners under arrest there, charged with blowing up the plant of a mine that cut wages. Nearly 200 Missouri miners have already gone to Idaho. The Zinc Miners' Association received a letter from Miss Mabel Lee, of St. Louis, who offers to pose for the proposed zinc statue to be exhibited at the Paris Exposition. She enclosed her photographs, which indicate that she is a well-developed young lady. She claims to be a descendant of Richard Henry Lee. The association has not yet taken any decisive steps concerning the zinc statue.

Kansas Woman Hangs Herself.

Wichita, Kan., July 6.—Near the little town of Kecki, Mrs. William Friend committed suicide by hanging herself. She went into the barn, climbed on a big box, and, tying one end of a rope around her neck and the other to a cross-beam, she kicked the box away and swung into the air. She was 40 years old, and her suicide is attributed to quarrels she had with her husband.

Lawyer Henderson Fined $5.

New York, July 6.—Lawyer H. C. Henderson, charged with disorderly conduct before the Mazet Investigating Committee, while acting as counsel for Captain Price, has been fined $5 in the Jefferson Market Court by Magistrate Olmstead. He was arrested June 2. He had himself committed, paid the fine under protest and said he would appeal the case.

Incorporated at Trenton.

Trenton, July 6.—The Cumberland Coal & Coke Co. with $2,000,000 capital, has been incorporated here to carry on the business of planters, miners, quarry owners, iron washers, steel makers, colliery proprietors, coke manufacturers, brickmakers, oil producers, and to purchase and otherwise acquire landed property in the State of Tennessee, where the company will operate.

Tornado Near Lake George.

Glens Falls, N. Y., July 6.—A tornado struck this section of the State, large trees were uprooted, and other damage done. James Nesbitt, a farmer living east of Lake George, who was driving, was blown with his horse and buggy from the road over a fence and into a field. He was injured so severely that he died. The track of the storm was about half a mile wide.

Sixty Years for Murder.

Mason City, Io., July 6.—Loren R. Bone, who was convicted of the murder of James Allison, has been sentenced by Judge C. John Sherwin to sixty years in the penitentiary at hard labor. An effort had been made by Bone's attorneys to secure a new trial, but it was refused. It is not likely that an appeal will be taken.

Woman's Burns Prove Fatal.

Peoria, Ill., July 6.—Mrs. Fred Kettenringe died here from the effects of burns received at her home. With her father-in-law, she was cleaning a room with gasoline, and a lighted match caused an explosion. Her clothes were burned from her body, and she inhaled the flames. She leaves a husband and two small children.

Hotel Keeper Shoots Himself.

Wilmington, Del., July 6.—Fredus A. Sturgeon, proprietor of the hotel at Newport, committed suicide at his home at that place by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. Sturgeon was 45 years old and was a Democratic politician. He held the place of tax collector for years.

Protest Against the Gift.

Santiago de Chile, July 6.—All the newspapers here are protesting against a proposal to award William J. Buchanan, the United States Minister to the Argentine Republic, the sum of £20,000 for his intervention in the boundary dispute between Chile and Argentina.

Bishop Newan Dead.

Saratoga, July 6.—Bishop John P. Newman of the Methodist Episcopal Church died here yesterday afternoon. His death was caused by paralysis, complicated by pneumonia. He was 78 years old and was born in New York city. He was elected a Bishop in 1889.

Street Railway Deal Denied.

St Joseph, Mo., July 6.—W. T. Van Brunt, general manager of the local street railway system, says that he has not been advised that the Standard Oil Company, or any other interests, contemplated the purchase of the street railway lines of this city.

A farmer in the State of Washington has solved the problem of counteracting the evils of a farmer's life by using Ripans Tabules. As it is often the case, the farmer's wife was the wiser, and having read about Ripans Tabules, insisted upon her husband trying them. He afterwards said: "Well, I am glad I had sense enough to try them, for after a few days use I could eat to satisfy my hunger without suffering." For years previous to this he had been suffering from a disordered stomach and often its symptoms made life positively hateful. Now he enjoys a good, hearty meal as well as any one, but to guard against the effects of over-indulgence, Ripans Tabules are always to be found in his vest pocket.

WANTED.—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. You can buy R·I·P·A·N·S on the package and accept no substitute. R·I·P·A·N·S 10 for 5 cents or twelve packets for 48 cents may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Expert Horse Shoer,

No. 28 Somerset Street.

Don't trust your shoeing to any one who as not made a study of the horse's foot, it is too delicate in its construction to be handled by a carpenter or butcher. We are having great success in levelling and balancing horses that have been ungaited by being shod by inexperienced men and boys. Our reference is NOT to people who are out of the State, but to OUR CUSTOMERS, who can be found right here in the city and vicinity.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Christian Endeavorers Open Convention at Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., July 6.—The eighteenth annual convention of the National Christian Endeavor Society opened here last night with delegates present from every state in the union. Many foreign countries were also represented. Mayor Mayberry, on behalf of Detroit, delivered an address of welcome which was responded to by Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, president of the society. At the Regular business meeting the following officers were reelected:

The Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, president; John Willis Baer, secretary, and William Shaw, treasurer, arrived at 10:30 a. m., and at 11 Dr. Clark called to order the annual meeting of the United Society in the Hotel Cadillac. Dr. Clark addressed the members of the legal organization in part as follows:

Robert E. Speer of New York was elected a trustee to succeed the late Rv. Dr. J. Clement French of Newark, N. J.; and the Rev. Dr. N. B. Grubb of Philadelphia was made an additional trustee to represent the Mennonnites, which denomination heretofore has been unrepresented on the board.

Victory for Americans.

The Hague, July 6.—The American delegates scored a great success in obtaining from the Peace Conference a unanimous vote in favor of having the question of private property at sea in time of war dealth with at a special conference, to be called hereafter.

Much diplomatic management was necessary and many obstacles had to be surmounted before this result was reached.

The Second Committee met and Andrew D. White, head of the American delegation, broached the subject. The question of its admissibility under the conference mandate was discussed. No vote was taken, but an agreement was arrived at to allow the Americans to present their case in full.

Had a vote been takenimmediately the Americans would doubtless have carried their point by a majority of one or two, and to avoid this a resolution was proposed recognizing the importance and complexity of the question and recommending the calling of a special conference.

A Much-Wanted Swindler.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 6.—John R. Greene, an alleged bunco steerer, was put in jail here ten days ago, and ever since then detectives have been fighting for him. A sheriff and his deputy reached here from Walla Walla, where Greene is wanted for swindling a farmer out of $5,000. About the same time a Chicago detective turned up with a requisition for the prisoner, who is wanted in Illinois for swindling farmers. Detectives are now on their way from Illinois and Iowa for Greene, and Detective Sheffler of Westmoreland county turned up with a warrant for him. Sheffler says the prisoner swindled William Barnhart, a Westmoreland county farmer, out of $1,000 in 1887. Greene has money, and he employed one of the best lawyers at the Dauphin county bar. He is sixty-four years old, and he says he expects to spend the remainder of his life in prison, beginning at Greenesburg.

Union Miner Dies of His Wounds.

Carbondale, Ill., July 6.—Cecil Williford, a union miner—one of the men on strike at Harrisburg—was shot and mortally wounded by John Neil, a non-union man. Williford is a nephew of former State's Attorney Williford, of Saline County, and was well and favorably known in this section of the state. His assailant is an ex-convict. Williford died from his wound. Neil made his escape, declaring that he would not be taken alive. Sheriff Baxter and a posse are searching the surrounding country.

Woman's Mysterious Death.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 6.—Mrs. Sallie Wilson, a widow, 25 years old, was found dead in her room at Cerulean Springs, with an empty pistol at her side and a wound in her breast near the heart. It was supposed that she committed suicide, but at the Coroner's inquest circumstances were disclosed that led to the arrest of James Bush, a neighbor, charged with murder. Bush admits that he was present when the shot was fired, but he swears the woman killed herself. He is in jail at Cadiz, pending an investigation.

Will be Roosevelt's Guest.

Indianapolis, July 6.—A letter addressed to United States Senaor Beveridge reached this city from Governor Roosevelt of New York, asking the Senator to spend several weeks with him at his summer home at Oyster Bay. The Senator is expected to return from his Philippine trip within a few weeks, and it is understood that he will visit the Governor as requested.

Shot a Bicyclist.

Buffalo, July 6.—Joseph Pezzolante, of No. 229 West Genessee street, is lying in a critical condition, a bullet hole in his left lung, and the police are on the watch for a man named "Tom" Collins, who, it is said, deliberately shot him because he was obliged to stop while Pezzolante and two companions passed on bicycles.

OPINIONS OF A PESSIMIST.

Many a man is suspected of being cruel, when his wife's pained expression is due to tight shoes.

If men could see themselves as others see them the woods would be full of people.

The man who is always striving for things that are beyond his reach frequently gets others that are equally as good.

As a rule homely girls know more than pretty ones, but most men are afraid to praise them for it.

The woman passenger who says she would rather stand, when you offer your seat to her, gets mad if you take her word for it.

Some men are held back by their wives, but they probably wouldn't get there anyway.

12 REGIMENTS FOR OTIS.

The War Department Will Enlist Ten of Them in the United States.

A DECISION IS REACHED

Major Rice, of the Third Infantry, Will Be in Command of the Twenty-Sixth Volunteers.

Latest Decision in the Matter Will Increase the Fighting Force in the Philippines by 13,260 Men—The Twenty-Sixth Regiment to be Organized in New England.

Washington, July 6.—It has been officially announced here that ten regiments of volunteers, to be numbered from 26 to 35 inclusive, will be organized for service in the Philippines. This will give Gen. Otis an additional force of 13,260 men. Such volunteer regiments as Gen. Otis may be able to raise in the Philippines are not included in these ten. He is now organizing two skeleton regiments.

The War Department has announced the appointment of Major Edmund Rice, 3d Infantry, to be Colonel of the 26th Volunteers. Col. Rice commanded the 19th Massachusetts Regiment in the War of the Rebellion and the 6th Massachusetts Regiment in the Spanish war, serving in Porto Rico. The 26th Regiment will be organized in New England, with headquarters at Plattsburg Barracks, N. Y.

Engineers Off for Manila.

Willets Point, L. I., July 6.—Company B of the Battalion of Engineers, numbering 152 men, under the command of Capt. William L. Sibert, First Lieut. John C. Oakes and Second Lieut. Harley B. Ferguson, accompanied by a surgeon, left here bound for Manila. The steamboat Gen. Canby took them as far as Jersey City, and from there they started overland to San Francisco, by way of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. The men formed in line in front of Company B barracks, opposite the parade ground, and, headed by the post band, they marched to the steamboat.

The largest crowd of relatives, sweethearts and friends that ever assembled here to witness the departure of soldiers to the front welcomed them at the boat and wished them godspeed on their long journey. There was a great deal of weeping among the women. Major John G. D. Knight, post commander, was on the dock to see them off. The band played the farewell airs of "Auld Lang Syne" and "The Girl I Left Behind Me" and the boat drew away. The company was the finest and strongest body of men that ever left this post. It consisted of a great many soldiers that had been trained in the engineer service for over twenty-five years.

Soldier Dead at Manila.

Washington, July 6.—Gen. Otis, in a despatch dated Manila, July 5, reports the following deaths since his last weekly report:

"Typhoid fever, June 26, Fred C. Fritzen, E, 13th Minnesota; 28th, Paul J. Rhode, K, 13th Minnesota; Arthur Troggatt, H, 9th Infantry; Herbert Streator, C, 13th Infantry; 29th, Fred Przykalla, corporal, H, 9th Infantry; July 1, Paul Pugh, L, 51st Iowa, from wounds in action; June 25, Harvey J. Lowe, A, 14th Infantry; 29th, William Lapp, L, 12th Infantry, drowned, accidental; 22d, Alfred H. Koch, F, 21st Infantry; 25th, James Armstrong, L, 9th Infantry, tuberculosis; 14th, Thomas Connors, M, 12th Infantry, dysentery; 22d, John Holman, H, 17th Infantry pneumonia; 30th, William Hussey, C, 17th Infantry, variola; James Allen, G, 3d Artillery.

Aguinaldo May Release Prisoners.

Washington, July 6.—The War Department has received from General Otis advices relative to the negotiations proceeding in Luzon between the Spanish Commissioners and Aguinaldo looking to the release of the Spanish prisoners. General Otis' report indicates that there is a fair prospect these unfortunates will be set free; if not all of them, then certainly a large number. It is not known whether the captives of the Yorktown's crew are to be included in the prisoners to be released, but it is feared that owing to the different status they will be held by the natives.

Died Rather Than Go to Jail.

Selma, Ala., July 6.—Alma Benson, an unfortunate, committed suicide in the law office of Ben H. Craig by taking a large dose of carbolic acid. She had just been bound over to the grand jury for mortgaging property not her own. She could not make the bond, and, rather than go to jail, killed herself.

Unknown Man Killed.

Kansas City, Mo., July 6.—An unknown man, in whose pockets was a card bearing the name "Asa Lowe," was found near the Pacific tracks at Southwest Junction with his skull crushed. He is believed, from papers in his pocket, to have come from some Southern state.

Two Tons of Gold.

Seattle, Wash., July 6.—When the steamer Humboldt left Dawson a pack train of twenty horses had just arrived from Eldorado Creek bringing two tons of gold, worth fully $1,000,000. It is said that over half of this amount came from one claim.

Prominent Odd Fellow Dead.

Fredericktown, Mo., July 6.—Felix G. Gregory, proprietor of the Gregory House, died suddenly here. He was an ex-Confederate soldier and a prominent member of the Odd Fellows and the Christian Church.

Fire in Gloucester, Mass.

Gloucester, Mass., July 6.—There was a $60,000 fire in the heart of the business section of this city. The Farr block and other buildings were destroyed. All were wooden structures.

City's Unenviable Position.

Plainfield is certainly put in an unenviable light among the municipalities of New Jersey by the fact that the city is a rank violator of its own ordinances, and a persistent defiant of one of its most august bodies—the Board of Health.

This condition of affairs is given prominence to by the letter of City Judge Runyon to the Common Council Monday night, in which he calls attention to the disgraceful condition of the so-called police station and the fact that the building was condemned as unfit for habitation by human beings over a year ago by the Board of Health.

What would happen to an individual that had ignored the edict of the Board of Health in the same manner as the Common Council has, is a question to conjure with.

A rumor was current yesterday that Governor Voorhees has tendered to Alexander McLean the appointment of Sheriff of Hudson county, to fill the unexpired term of the late William Heller, and that he will accept Mr. McLean is a well-known newspaper writer. He has been a legislative correspondent for many years, and is on the editorial staff of "The Jersey City Evening Journal." His name was suggested by Governor Voorhees, it is said, to the rival factions as a compromise appointee, but neither faction was inclined to accept the suggestion.

There is irony in the fact that when the Plainfield Street Railway Company was granted a franchise to Scotch Plains one of the iron-bound considerations was that the company should build out Arlington avenue when the consents were secured, but now that that has been accomplished, and the necessary application has been made to the Council, there appears a vehement and vigorous protest against any such proceeding. This is a hard world to please.

The town clock may not be an indispensible institution, but it is a very convenient and accomodating feature of local life, and the Common Council has committed an act of poetic justice in appropriating sufficent money to remove the dust from its cogs and set it going as the timepiece of the populace.

You can talk about your great Fourth of July celebrations, but just wait till Admiral Dewey comes sailing up New York bay. Then there will be a time that will put every other celebration in the shade.

New Brunswick's Common Council has authorized the telford paving of six miles of city streets. Next to fewer pot-house politicians, there is nothing that the old Dutch city needs more than better streets.

The City Union of King's Daughter's will soon have their Babies' Camp in operation. Their financial needs are not yet satisfied, and a small contribution to The Daily Press fund will be very welcome.

Between making an unpopular political alliance and talking too much, Governor Pingree is in a heap of trouble just now.

As a knocker-out of the Tammany boom of Augustus Van Wyck for President, Mr. Hogg, of Texas, stands preeminent.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The awful tragedy in a Plainfield dry goods store Saturday last brings to mind the most criminal neglect of people generally in not learning themselves and teaching others what to do in case of fire. The victim of last Saturday's direful event was a lady of wealth, beauty and accomplishments. Clad in light summer clothing she trod on a match which had been carelessly or accidentally dropped on the floor. In an instant she was in flames, and in her efforts to save her life she did just what she should not have done. She ran. The draft of air thus caused fanned the flames to greater fierceness, and she was burned so that death followed in a few hours. The very best thing for a child or a woman to do when her skirts take fire is to throw herself down as flat as possible, and roll carpet or a rug or something around her to smother the flames. This devoted lady's life might have been saved had she been taught this method and followed it. Let every woman who reads of this shocking accident remember this lesson, and let her tell it to her children so that they will never forget it. It may save many a life and untold sorrow.—Elizabeth Journal.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe was elected president of the New England Woman Suffrage Association thirty-three years ago, when it was first formed, and she is its president still. At its annual festival Wednesday evening Dr. Nathan E. Wood, of the Commonwealth Avenue Baptist church, said that woman suffrage was sure to come, and that those who doubted it or who were impatient lacked faith in God. At the close of his remarks Mrs. Howe arose and said: "I agree with what our brother has said, but if he were a woman, and a woman suffragist, and eighty years old, he would think a little hurrying up would not be amiss." This was received with great applause.

SOME STATISTICS.

A single human hair wil suport four ounces without breaking.

At the present rate of combustion it is thought the sun will last from 7,000,000 to 15,000,000 years before burning itself out.

The Indian population of the United States is 248,340. In 1492 they were the lords of the whole country; now they have reserved for them 144,496 square miles.

The largest mass of pure rock salt in the world lies under the province of Galicia, Hungary. It is known to be 550 miles long, 20 broad and 250 feet in thickness.

Russia with a population of 127,000,000 has only 18,334 physicians. In the United States, with a population of about 75,000,000, there are 120,000 physicians.

A french statistician has calculated that the human eye travels over 2,000 yards in reading an ordinary sized novel.

The average human being is supposed to get through 2,500 miles of reading in a lifetime.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

It takes two to make a quarrel, unless one of them is a woman.

A girl's pocketbook is about like her heart, only it won't hold as many samples.

If men didn't believe that women were better than they are, they would believe that they were worse.

After a woman has had a baby, she looks pityingly at all the old bachelors she knows; after she has had three or four, she begins to wonder if they aren't looking pitingly at her.

The woman who marries a man to make him better, two years afterward is generally putting in her time taking care of her complexion.

There is no revenge so bitter or so lasting as the revenge of a lover.

A man's reputation is his capital; a woman's capital is her reputation.

Reading a person like a book to most people means skipping the preface.

Love never begins to come home to a man till he beg'ns to come home to love.

Very few people fall in love who have the excuse that they didn't know any better, anyway.

That Throbbing Headache.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15 and 25c.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 6.—The regular monthly meeting of the Common Council was held last Monday evening. But little business was transacted. Two sidewalk ordinances were passed and one was put on its second reading. Marshal C. M. Wyhuskey resigned his position and John Rhinehart was appointed to the vacancy. No assistant was named to fill the position of assistant, which was held by Mr. Rhinehart.

The two story frame house of Abram Smalley, situated about a mile from this village in West Dunellen, was totally destroyed by fire at about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The fire is believed to have caught from a defective chimney. But few of the household effects were saved. There was a small insurance on the house, which would have expired in a few days. Mr. Smalley's barn and cider mill were not damaged.

About twenty-five young ladies of this place enjoyed their Fourth at Washington Rock. They all took a luncheon and accompanied by their gentlemen friends left about 3 o'clock for the Rock, where they had a delightful time. They all remained to witness the fire works which could be plainly seen from the rock.

A public meeting of the citizens will be held July 13th for the purpose of taking action in regard to compelling the Brunswick Traction Company to carry passengers for one fare to and from this village and Plainfield.

Rev. Geo. C. Wilder, of St. James M. E. church, Elizabeth, will lecture at the M. E. church Thursday evening. "To the Top of Mt. Hood."

A. F. Samson and R. F. Bogardus, together with their families, have been visiting in Perth Amboy.

Mayor Swackhamer had as his guests over the Fourth John Wherley and family and Dewit Smith.

Mrs. Joseph Trimmer and daughter Miss Leila, from Phillipsburg are the guests of Mrs. Fowler Vail.

Charles Vail and Ernest Peters leave tomorrow on their wheels for a trip to South Beach, S. I.

Miss May Apgar has been entertaining her friend, Miss Emma Apgar, of Plainfield.

George Richardson was among the visitors to New Brunswick on the Fourth.

The regular meeting of the Board of Education will be held this evening.

Charles Adams has been visiting relatives and friends at Mauch Chunk.

Alvah Gray has been entertaining his brother John Gray, of Irvington.

John W. Beetham has been entertaing company from Brooklyn.

Rev. A. I. Martine and wife are visiting friends in Flemington.

Charles Coriell spent the Fourth at Bound Brook with friends.

Henry Garretson passed the day at New Brunswick, Tuesday.

Mrs. Clarence Oakland is visiting in New Brunswick.

G. R. Grandall is visiting friends at Mauch Chunk.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 6—Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stillger are spending a week with Mr. Stillger's parents.

Miss Josephine Herbert, of New York city, has been spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Shott. Miss Herbert has charge of the primary department of the North Baptist Sunday-school, of New York city, Mr. Shott's former charge.

Mrs. Rogers and daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Rogers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Ryno, have returned to their home in Brooklyn.

Arthur Chapin is quite badly bruised and sore, the result of a bad fall he had in the fifteen-mile road race held in Westfield on the Fourth.

The old well-curb on the Baptist parsonage grounds has been replaced by a more modern convenience—a pump.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hazel, of Elizabeth, have been spending a few days with friends in town.

Bucket and Engine company held their regular monthly meeting in their rooms last evening.

Harry and Herbert Lyons are spending two weeks with relatives in Warwick.

Mr. Brockway, of Brooklyn, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Gere.

Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., meet in their rooms this evening.

A Frightful Blunder.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—Newark's postoffice increased its receipts by $20,000 in the past year.

—It is estimated that 30,000 excursionists visited Asbury Park Tuesday.

—Hammonton's new cut glass factory will start of Monday morning next.

—Tomorrow evening the regular July meeting of the Borough Council will be held.

—The borough officials are planning to lay sidewalks and crosswalks in their domain.

—Queen City Lodge, I. O. O. F., will install its officers at the meeting, Monday evening, July 17th.

—The meeting at the W. C. T. U. rooms this evening will be conducted by Rev. W. C. O'Donnell.

—Last Tuesday the management at the Hotel Kensington gave a very handsome menu card to their patrons.

—The Plainfield Street Railway Company has decided to purchase some new cars to give the people first-class service.

—The Woman's Relief Corps will hold a regular meeting tomorrow evening and every member is requested to be present.

—A remarkable fact is that during the entire day and evening of the Fourth there was only one accident case treated at the hospital.

—The new Calvary Baptist church will be dedicated some time during this month. Rev. Scott Wallace, pastor, is now arranging the details.

—An effort is being made by Mrs. Jackson, wife of Rev. E. E. Jackson, of the Mt. Olive Baptist church, to organize a circle of King's Daughters in that church.

—Two weeks from tonight the Common Council will meet and consider the application of the Plainfield Street Railway Company to extend their tracks out Arlington avenue. There promises to be a strong protest.

—Among the members of the Primary Union from Plainfield who are in attendance at the Summer School in session this week at Asbury Park are Mrs. J. H. Powlison, of Somerset street, and Miss Edith Cairns, of West Fifth street.

—In connection with the sad death of Mrs. Sylvester J. O'Sullivan, it has just been learned that a few days before the terrible accident she went to Langhorne's photograph gallery and had a large picture of herself take. It is one of the best that she ever had taken and will be prized highly by her grief-stricken husband.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Die Königliche Kunstgewerbeschule zählt im laufenden Sommersemester 94 Schüler (gegen 69 im vorjährigen Sommersemester). — Der ehemalige Präsident der zweiten Kammer, Staatsrath a. D. Karl von Hohl, ist im Alter von 74 Jahren gestorben.— Die für Stuttgart bestimmte Bismarck-Säule wird auf dem Gähkopf bei der Feuerbacher Heide errichtet werden.

Biberach. Der württembergische Brauerbund, bestehend aus den Mittel- und Kleinbrauern des Landes, hat auf seinem kürzlich hier stattgehabten diesjährigen Verbandstag unter Anderem folgende löbliche Resolution einstimmig angenommen: Wir stehen noch auf dem Boden der Beschlüsse des Heilbronner Brauertags vom Jahre 1897, dahingehend, es solle ein Gesetz geschaffen werden, alle Surrogate und Rohfrüchte wie Reis, Mais u. s. w zur Bierbereitung zu verbieten, und es soll in Württemberg nur Bier gebraut werden aus Wasser, Gerstenmalz und Hopfen.

Böhmenkirch. Neupriester Heinrich Röhrle von Villingendorf wurde zum Vikar dahier ernannt.

Cannstatt. Das Volksfest auf dem Cannstatter Wasen wird in diesem Herbst ohne staatliche Betheiligung und ohne landwirthschaftliche Ausstellung stattfinden. Mit Rücksicht auf die in der zweiten Septemberwoche auf dem Cannstatter Exerzierfelde stattfindende Kaiserparade hat der König die Nichtabhaltung des offiziellen Festes angeordnet.

Göppingen. Eine Giftmordaffaire macht zur Zeit viel von sich reden. Der Vereinsdiener Rau dahier war Anfangs Mai verhaftet worden unter der Anklage, einer Frau Strähle Gift verschafft zu haben, damit sie sein außereheliches Kind, das bei ihr in Pflege war, aus der Welt schaffe. Der Mordplan ward ruchbar und Rau wurde verhaftet, während die Strähle entfliehen konnte. In der Untersuchungshaft verübte Rau Selbstmord; die Strähle wurde an der Schweizer Grenze verhaftet und hierher eingeliefert. Sie steht auch im Verdacht, ihre Schwiegermutter vergiftet zu haben.

Heilbronn. Zwei italienische Arbeiter, die in der Trunkenheit im Neckar ein Bad nehmen wollten, fand neulich Mittags ertrunken.

Röthenbach. Unser früher vielbesuchtes Bad ging sammt einem Areal von 12 Morgen Feld um den Kaufpreis von 50,000 Mark in den Besitz der Württembergischen Alters- und Invaliditätsversicherungsanstalt über. Mit einem Kostenaufwand von circa 30,000 Mark soll ein neues Badehaus errichtet werden. Röthenbach wird ein Erholungsheim für Rekonvaleszenten werden.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Eine größere Anzahl von Vertrauensmännern der nationalliberalen Partei beschloß in Verbindung mit dem engeren Ausschuß der Partei, die „Badische Landeszeitung" anzukaufen. Die Ankaufssumme im Betrage von 115,000 Mark ist bis auf Weniges zusammengebracht. Als Verleger wurde in der Versammlung unter Anderen auch Victor v. Scheffel, der Sohn des Dichters, genannt, der sich in letzter Zeit wiederholt an Finanzunternehmungen betheiligt hat.

Bruchsal. Dieser Tage warf ein Reisender während der Fahrt zwischen hier und Heidelberg eine Flasche aus dem Schnellzug und traf einen neben der Bahnstrecke auf dem Felde arbeitenden Mann, der tödtlich verletzt wurde.

Ettlingen. Hier kam der Seminarist Manuwald aus Impfingen beim Aufsteigen auf ein geliehenes Velociped unter einen schweren Steinwagen und erlitt derartige Verletzungen, daß er bald darauf im Krankenhause starb.

Mannheim. Der Stadtrath beschloß, das Maximalgehalt der Lehrer und Lehrerinnen an den städtischen Volksschulen um je 200 Mark zu erhöhen, so daß die Sätze jetzt 3700 Mark und 2400 Mark betragen.

Pforzheim. Bei der Wahl der Stadtverordneten der Niedersteuerten brachten die Sozialdemokraten ihre 16 Kandidaten mit 1225 bis 1218 Stimmen durch. Die vereinigten Gegner, Nationalliberale, Konservative, Ultramontane, Zünftler und konfessionelle Arbeitervereine brachten es auf etwa 960 bis 980 Stimmen.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Der erste Spatenstich zu dem monumentalen Neubau eines Ministerialgebäudes dahier ist dieser Tage erfolgt. Das Gebäude wird im deutschen Barockstil errichtet.

Diedenhofen. In Nieder-Jentz wurde der angebliche Diakon Georg Elie Nataniel aus Asien verhaftet, der ohne polizeiliche Erlaubniß in der hiesigen Gegend eine Kollekte angeblich zu Gunsten von Waisenkindern aus seiner Heimath veranstaltete. Er hatte seinerzeit die hierzu erforderliche behördliche Genehmigung erhalten, diese war jedoch zurückgezogen worden, nachdem in Erfahrung gebracht worden war, daß es sich um einen Schwindler handle. Daß das Geschäft ein ziemlich einträgliches war, beweist der Umstand, daß der Genannte bei seiner Festnahme im Besitze einer Summe von circa 14,000 Mark war.

Kolmar. Kürzlich ist die erste Bergbahn in den Vogesen, die Drei-Aehren-Bahn, feierlich eröffnet worden. Die Bahn führt von der Bahnstation Türkheim bei Kolmar nach Drei-Aehren, dem 659 Meter über dem Meere gelegenen Luftkur- und altberühmten, im Jahre 1491 gegründeten Wallfahrtsorte, der Perle der Vogesen. Die elektrische Bergbahn ermöglicht es nunmehr, Drei-Aehren von Kolmar aus in einer Stunde zu erreichen.

Wien. Professor Hugo Weidel, der Leiter des ersten chemischen Universitätslaboratoriums, ein noch rüstiger Mann von 49 Jahren, starb neulich früh während der Vorlesung in Folge eines Schlagflusses.—Ferner starb Baron Gustav v. Heine, der Eigenthümer des „Fremdenblatt." Er war ein Neffe Heinrich Heines.—Im Hofburgtheater brach bei dem Heldendarsteller Emil Drach, als ihm sein Verlangen auf Bewilligung eines sofortigen Probegastspiels abgeschlagen wurde, die Tobsucht aus, so daß er nach einem Irrenasyl überführt werden mußte.—Dem Ingenieur Paulitschky im Eisenbahnministerium wurde die Bewilligung zur Vornahme technischer Vorarbeiten für eine das Donaubett durchquerende Tunnelbahn von Klosterneuburg nach Korneuburg ertheilt.

Baden. Hier fuhr der Maschinenfabrikant Kornitzer mit Frau und zwei Kindern auf einem Benzin-Motorwagen, als plötzlich das Benzin explodirte. Kornitzer wurde an beiden Beinen schwer verletzt, ein Kind getödtet.

Budapest. Der aus der Affaire der Entführung der Prinzessin Louise v. Coburg bekannte Oberlieutenant Mattasich Keglevich wurde vom Kriegsgericht zu fünf Jahren verschärftem Gefängniß verurtheilt.

Gran. In Estergon ist das Stubenmädchen Laura Heincz unter dem Verdacht verhaftet worden, die im vorigen Oktober unter verdächtigen Anzeichen verstorbenen zwei Kinder des Grafen Hadik Bakoczy vergiftet zu haben. Sie gestand nach hartnäckigem Leugnen ein, die Kinder durch Gift getödtet zu haben. Laura Heincz vergiftete auch vor Jahren ihr eigenes Kind.

Graz. Der kaiserlich und königliche Major a. D. Adolf Kirschner hat sich im Verfolgungswahn durch einen Revolverschuß entleibt.

Innsbruck. In Tirol wird demnächst die erste alpine Automobilomnibuslinie eingerichtet. Es soll ein regelmäßiger Motorwagenverkehr eröffnet werden zwischen Meran und Trafoi, ein Motor von zehn Pferdekräften für 15 Personen; zwischen Landeck und Trafoi, ebenfalls zehn Pferdekräfte für 12 Sitz- und sechs Stehplätze; endlich ein schnellfahrendes Postautomobil mit Briefkasten und zehn Passagieren.

Mako. Der hiesige Bürgermeister und fünf andere Beamte der Stadt wurden wegen großer Mißbräuche suspendirt.

Salzburg. Der bekannte Besitzer der Restauration „Glocknerhaus" am Wege nach der Schmittenhöhe, Sebastian Brunner, ist in Zell am See, wohin er sich zur Erholung zurückgezogen hatte, gestorben.

Saros. In der Ortschaft Palocsa sind 140 Gehöfte niedergebrannt. Di Einwohner verloren alle Habe.

Schweiz.

Bern. Der 28jährige Lithograph Reichmann von Wien, seit zwei Jahren in Bern wohnend, ist bei der Besteigung des Stockhornes abgestürzt und war sofort todt. Er hinterläßt betagte Eltern in Wien.—Die ursprünglichen Kostenvoranschläge für den Bau der Jungfraubahn sind von der jetzigen Aktiengesellschaft wesentlich abgeändert worden. Während vorher für die Ausführung der gesammten Bahn 8,000,000 Francs budgetirt waren, sind nunmehr für den Bau des Theilstückes Scheideck-Eigerjoch allein 5,500,000 Francs vorgesehen, worin die Summe von 2,700,000 Francs für das bereits im Betrieb befindliche Theilstück Scheideck-Eigergletscher eingerechnet ist. In der letztgenannten Summe stecken allerdings auch die Kosten für die elektromotorischen Anlagen der Bahn in Lauterbrunnen.

Zürich. Der sechste Verbandstag des Deutschen Journalisten- und Schriftsteller-Verbandes findet vom 30. Juni bis 3. Juli in Zürich statt.—Die kantonale Volksabstimmung ergab mit rund 41,400 gegen 25,800 Stimmen die Annahme des neuen Volksschulgesetzes, das die achtklassige Primarschule und die Unentgeltlichkeit der Lehrmittel und Schulmaterialien für die Primarschule und Sekundarschule bringt.

Freiburg. Im Bahnhof Freiburg stieß ein Arbeiterzug auf leerstehende Wagen; acht Arbeiter wurden mehr oder weniger schwer verletzt.—Bei Aumont wurde im Boden ein Topf mit 49 Goldmünzen von der Größe eines Zwanzigfrancsstückes gefunden mit lateinischer Inschrift.

Appenzell. In Teufen fand unter allgemeiner Theilnahme der Bevölkerung die Beisetzung der bei dem Eisenbahnunglück in Wiesenberg getödteten Tochter des schweizerischen Gesandten in Berlin, Roth, statt. Im Gefolge befand sich der deutsche Gesandte in Bern, v. Bülow.

Aargau. Der Lokomotivführer des kürzlich im Aarauer Bahnhof verunglückten Nachtschnellzugs ist verhaftet worden. Nach den Zeugenaussagen soll er die drei Bremspfiffe erst nach dem Passiren des Bahnhofes gegeben haben.

FASHION HINTS.

Sheer Fabrics, Guipure and Lace In Great Favor.

Guipure and thick lace, so largely used as incrustations on velvet and cloth during the winter, appear with equal frequency upon summer fabrics, being much employed as a decoration for crepe de chine and silk canvas.

Shirred silk crapes of all kinds and mousseline de soie are elements which enter into most of the summer novelties in trimming and accessories. Boas and high collars are still in fashionable favor, although they are by no means appropriate to warm weather. Ostrich feathers and fancy plumage are often introduced, but fur, which a freak of fashion carried through the summer several years ago, is not seen at all this season.

MOUSSELINE GOWN.

Chemisettes of mousseline de soie, liberty satin or lawn with incrustations and insertions of lace are much worn with boleros. A pretty way of bringing the gown into harmony with different hats is to have detached choux of taffeta or mousseline de soie matching the hats, these choux to be used as adjuncts to the collar and plastron.

The gown shown in the cut is of plaited pink mousseline de soie over pink taffeta, drawn in at the waist by a belt of pink satin with long ends. The wrinkled sleeves are of plain pink mousseline over taffeta. The sleeveless mantle of unlined guipure is loose, and has a plaited flounce of pink mousseline de soie around the lower edge, while the sides of the open front are trimmed with coquilles of pink plaited muslin, which also form the collar.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE WARDROBE.

Gray, Ecru and Beige Gowns For Warmer Weather.

Costumes of gray or ecru crepe de chine are of extreme elegance. Crepe de chine is usually made up into princess or tunic gowns, and the trimming consists of incrustations of lace or plaitings of mousseline de soie. The fastening of the princess gown is always concealed as much as possible and usually occurs at the side, although sometimes it is placed under the arm. The closing at the back has been in a great measure abandoned as being too conspicuous.

VEILING GOWN.

Although sleeves are tight and have no gathers at the shoulder as a rule, a little extra fullness is allowed at the top and taken in by several darts, a stiffening of canvas being placed inside to hold the top out and so slightly increase the apparent breadth of the shoulders.

Many kinds of new goods may be found of extra width to facilitate the cutting of the seamless skirt, which is all in one piece and opens at the front, side or, less often, at the back.

Fringe is again coming forward as a fashionable trimming.

The gown illustrated is of light beige woolen veiling and is trimmed with mohair braid of a deeper beige tone, which borders the front of the skirt and outlines a tunic at the side. The bodice, which is slightly full in front, is trimmed in continuation of the tunic effect and has a pointed yoke of guipure over white silk. The tight sleeves have three tucks at the top and square tabs at the wrists. The toque of spangled cream tulle is trimmed with pink roses, with their foliage. The belt is of brown velvet and fastens by a gold buckle.

CULINARY HINTS

Many Dainty Trifles to Tempt the Jaded Appetite.

A recipe for using pieces of dry bread is a bread-and-butter custard. Beat two eggs, without separating, until light. Add four tablespoonfuls of sugar and a pint of milk, mix and add a grating of nutmeg. Turn into an ordinary baking dish, cover the top with buttered bread, butterside up. Bake in a moderate oven, as you would ordinary custard, until the handle of a spoon can be put into the centre and come up free from milk.

One of the best ways of utilizing cold potatoes is called, according to the place where they are served, plain hashed, brown creamed potatoes, Delmonico potatoes, or potatoes au gratin. To four large cold potatoes, chopped fine, is allowed a pint of cream sauce, to which has been added four tablespoonfuls of grated cheese. Mix the potatoes with the sauce, turn into a baking dish and brown in a quick oven.

A salad which few people make, and which is recommended by de Loup, is made of Little Neck clams. The raw clams are cut into small pieces and mixed with twice their bulk of lettuce. A French dressing is used, with a few drops of onion juice from an onion of not too pronounced flavor.

The cheese fingers to serve with salads are made by sifting a cup of flower into a bowl and working into it with the fingers a tablespoonful of butter and adding half a teaspoonful of salt, a little paprika or other mild pepper, and a half teaspoonful of baking powder. Beat the yolk of one egg light, and add to the mixture with four tablespoonfuls of grated cheese. Cold water should be added in sufficient quantities to make a soft dough that will roll well. Roll to about one-third of an inch in thickness, and cut into strips half an inch wide and about four inches long. Grate a little cheese over them, and bake in a biscuit pan in a moderate oven until they are a delicate brown.

Cheese balls, served hot with the salads, are made of a cup of grated cheese, half a cup of fine bread crumbs, five drops of Worchestershire sauce and one egg well beaten. Mix together, roll into balls, and place in a wire frying basket, and just before time to serve plunge the basket into boiling fat and allow the basket to remain until a delicate brown.

It is well always to remember the proportions of vineagr and oil in the French dressing—three-fourth of oil to one-fourth of vinegar, though the proportion varies to some extent, according to the individual taste.

The nasturtium sandwiches, which are delicious served with salads, are made of the petals of the flowers or the young leaves placed between slices of thinly buttered bread, the plate being decorated with the blossoms.

Be True to Yourself.

A corespondent of the Household Department of Farm and Ranch, discussing the sometimes discord that prevails in families, does not place all the blame upon the husband. She says:

"An aunt of mine, a woman of great intelligence, once said to me, 'Any woman who will talk about her husband and live with him will tell a lie.' That sounds plain, but of the few that I know of this class I find it about as mild as is necessary to put it. They are deceiving the very man who toils and sweats for their bread, and such a woman would be untrue to her own mother or child. This subject brings down in the secret avenues of the heart the key to it all—a loveless marriage, false vows, false living, which often terminates in a ruined home and disgraced family. Girls be true; be not bought by the glittering gold. Millions at her command never made a loveless woman lovable. Mothers, never invade that sacred spot called home; better never know your child's sorrows than to be called to the judgment bar for breaking up one home. 'That which God hath joined together, let no man put asunder.'"

A Girl's Allowance.

A girl can scarcely be too young to have some idea of the value of money, and a weekly allowance will teach her the pleasure of providing little gifts and knicknacks out of her own pocket. At the age of fifteen or sixteen years every girl should have an allowance, out of which she should buy her own gloves, stationery, ribbons, &c. This will teach her the use her pocket money can be put to, and will save her the annoyance of coming to her parents for everp penny she spends, and every gift she bestows. As she gets older her allowance should include money for her entire wardrobe. Such an allowance should be probationary, and should depend upon the girl's judgment and care in the choosing of her clothes during the period when the first allowance is spent. She must learn that she should keep an account of every penny she spends. This will teach her many things in the handling of money, and she will profit by her mistakes, becoming much wiser through the experience.

Women Smoke Tea Cigarettes.

A recent crusade against tobacco cigarettes in London has developed the fact that a large number of women are slaves to the tea cigarette.

These cigarettes are made of a coarse grade of green tea, which has but little dust, and is composed of an unbroken leaf. This is dampened, so that the leaves may be stuffed into the paper cylinders. The taste is said to be disagreeble at first, the effect on beginners being a sense of oppression in the head. After a few cigarettes have been smoked, intense exhilaration follows the depressed feeling. Physicians claim that the effect on the nerves of continuously smoking tea cigarettes is as deleterous as drinking absinthe. The first step toward a cure is a cup of strong tea.

A PERNICIOUS HABIT.

"HANGING AROUND" THE STREET CORNER WITH A GANG.

It Is the Stepping Stone to Every Kind of Temptation and the Open Door to the Broad Road That Leads to Destruction.

If there is one thing more than another calculated to diminish a young man's chances of getting along in the world, it is the pernicious habit of "hanging around." This habit has many victims, as any one may readily see. Scarcely a street corner in the residence districts of your towns and cities but has its group of boys and young men, lounging and lolling around with apparently no desire to do anything useful, but with every temptation and every likelihood to fall into evil ways. The snatches of conversation that are occasionally heard by passersby coming from those groups are, to say the least, not edifying, and there are many such crowds of corner boys whom it is impossible to pass without insult or injury. Coarse jests savoring of the low theater and the lower saloon, oaths, nasty stories and noisy quarrels are the things that seem to delight them most, and the greater the annoyance they can inflict upon the people dwelling in the neighborhood, the better they seem to like it.

How any Catholic young man with any sense of decency or duty can ally himself with such disorderly gangs and become part and parcel thereof is a puzzle. But such crowds are generally composed of the evil and the thoughtless, and as one is judged by the company he keeps, the latter, in the eyes of the community, differs in no way from the former and receives just as much odium.

For this reason a young man should be very careful as to the company he keeps after he has left school, for it is between the time of leaving school and the time of going to work that young men generally acquire the habit of "hanging around" and affiliate themselves with some such gangs as we have described above. For the ambitious youth there are many opportunities in this land of ours if he will but embrace them. There are means for self culture that are not to be despised by any one who gives thought to the future. Time—precious hours and years wasted in frivolous pursuits or worse—will be bitterly repented of in the days to come, when the opportunities exist no more and the casket of promise is empty.

To be useful, to be up and doing something for oneself or for others, should be a young man's desire, that he may reflect credit upon his family and upon those who have hoped and prayed and struggled for him in the years when he was helpless. Poverty is a misfortune, but it is not the greatest of all ills, and, considering the number of those who have risen from a lowly station, particularly in our own country, it is safe to say that here a humble condition of birth is no barrier to the attainment of honor and emolument.

But we fail to read in history or biography of any man who, whatever his origin, started on the road to success by the way of the academies of crime that hold their sessions on the street corners. Third or fourth rate politicians may have begun in such schools, but just now we are speaking of men of honor and integrity—true Christian gentlemen, the existence of one of whom counterbalances a host of petty, tricky individuals who enjoy a momentary prosperity through the weakness of others and their own questionable practice. No boy or young man who devotes his spare moments to the cultivation of slang and low conversation will ever amount to anything, and if any young man hopes to get out of the common rut and desires to keep himself from the temptations that have led so many into crime let him set before himself the resolution never to allow himself to be conquered by the evil habit of "hanging around."—D. A. McCarthy in Weekly Bonquet.

The Busy Are the Happy.

The unoccupied are always unhappy. It is the very wealthy and the very poor who are restless, miserable, criminal, sinful. It is not necessarily so. We all know, among those in the deepest poverty, certain ones whose lives are governed by the highest ideals. Poverty does not make all men gross and brutish. Again, many of the noblest of the world's noblemen, like the rich young man who came to Christ, are to be found among those who have great possessions, but in these two conditions there are the greatest temptations and the strongest influences to lead away from truth and right. Therefore, as poverty is undesirable, so also great riches are not to be coveted. As we pray daily to be delivered from temptation, so we should strive to free ourselves from the temptations which surround the exceedingly poor and remember to be glad that we need not meet those which come with great wealth.—Catholic Universe.

Mary's Motherhood.

It would be no extravagance to say that all the joys of the angelic world could make no joy that should compare, either for quantity or quality, with the single joy of Mary's motherhood. She had many joys besides that. Although, whether we look forward to her Assumption or backward to her Immaculate Conception, the maternity was the fountain of them all. But, considering exclusively the direct joy of her maternity, it overtops and outshines the entire joy of the angelic creation.

Charles Carroll.

Another Catholic is to have a place of honor in Statuary hall at the national capital. The state of Maryland has appropriated $25,000 for a statue of Charles Carroll of Carrollton.

LUMEN IN CŒLA.

Nor as the sharp electric flame that leaps
With danger fraught athro' an angry sky;
Nor like those lesser gems that gleam on high
Inconstant; nor as Luna pallid creeps
Faint with reflected rays, the sun that sweeps
Supreme amid his kindred orbs is thy Meet emblem, who dost strongly lead us night
To Eden land, whose glory round thee peeps.

Yet Lee, whose pure ray doth cheer us on
O'er darkling deeps, what light sustaineth thee?
Does Mary, Morning Star, before the dawn
Of Justice's sun becalm the storm tossed sea
And surely guide thy bark, the darkness gone,
Into the portals of eternity?
—J. J. M. in Donahoe's Magazine.

THE CHURCH AND ART.

An English Tribute to the Merits of Catholic Genius.

Reynolds' Newspaper, an English publication, in an article on "What Is Christmas?" says:

"No subject has exercised pen, pencil or voice more than the birth of Christ. But here comes in a curious fact—that while the Protestant communities have never ceased to dwell upon the virtues and teachings of this marvelous personality it has been the Roman Catholic church which has established the theme in the most striking manner.

"Our own national gallery, and hundreds of picture galleries abroad, are filled with religious pictures of priceless value. The overwhelming majority has been painted by Catholic artists. The sublime churches—poems and pictures in stone—that decorate Europe, including our own cathedrals and abbeys, have been the work of Catholic architects, who have been mostly monks. The vast bulk of sacred music, including the best pieces used in Protestant services, have been composed by Catholics.

"Now, if people really believe in their religion, they would give the best to God. Yet in England we find that buildings erected for secular purposes exceed in magnificence those devoted to the service of God, and the Protestant communities have not built a single sacred edifice, with the exception of St. Paul's cathedral, which comes within a hundred thousand miles of the great Roman Catholic structures, such as Westminster abbey, the cathedrals of Peterborough, Norwich, Salisbury, Lincoln, and so on.

"Indeed not only is this the case, but, further, modern church buildings are the most ghastly, unsightly, repulsive lumps of stone and mortar that the dullness of mankind has ever conceived. These are facts; our readers can draw the moral."

PRIESTS IN THE NAVY.

A High Compliment to Our Chaplains on War Vessels.

In a recent address in New York city—and, by the way, it was delivered in a Methodist church—B. S. Osbon, rear admiral of the National Association of Naval Veterans, paid a high compliment to the Catholic chaplains in the navy. He said:

"The chaplain of today is a great improvement over the chaplain of 50 years ago. Then the chaplain read the services one hour once a week and kept clear of the sailor the rest of the time. Nowadays the chaplain stands in with his men. He's with them; he's of them, he's one of them on ship and ashore.

"The best thing that ever happened to the American sailor was when Roman Catholic priests were introduced in the navy. They are the most faithful men in the service. They watch Jack; they talk with him; they walk with him; they live with him. The upshot of their work is that the American sailor is a cleaner hearted fellow than he ever was before the Roman Catholic priest came. Christian organizations on shore don't do Jack any good. Tracts are worthless, and Bibles and prayer books are about as useful as tracts. Hash is a good deal better than both. But one good, whole souled, manly chaplain is a whole army in himself."

Archbishop Corrigan.

Archbishop Corrigan prepares his important sermons and addresses with great care. For several days previous to delivery his mind is employed constantly at the work of elaborating his subject. When he finds time, he reads such passages as he thinks will help. A few hours before he is to speak a stenographer is called in and the address dictated slowly and with every word well weighed. Then the notes are typewritten, after which comes the most minute revision. Frequently the first draft is all scored up with erasures and interlineations, with the purpose of increased simplicity and directions, after which the whole is typewritten for the second time. Two or three readings after that suffice for complete memorization, and when delivered the address is almost always spoken without notes.

The Washington University.

The Catholic Knights of America, at their recent convention in Kansas City, unanimously voted to endow a chair at the Catholic University of America at Washington. This is likely to be the chair of English literature.

This action of the Catholic Knights has been received with great satisfaction at the university, as it is the second chair endowment this year, the Knights of Columbus having previously agreed to endow the chair of American history. This makes in all 17 chairs endowed since the establishment of the university.

An Innovation In Gotham.

For the first time in the history of Ludlow Street jail, New York, mass was celebrated in that institution a week ago. The celebrant was the Rev. William Smith, S. P. M., fire chaplain. Arrangements have been made by which Father Smith will frequently say mass at the jail hereafter.

A GOOD THING TO DO.

Hold it back, tie it down,
Bind it fast and tight,
Set your lips together close—
Which will win the fight?

Let it go wild and free,
Running reckless riot?
Surely that will quickly be
An end of peace and quiet.

Strongest men of all you know
Find it hard to do.
If you try your very best,
Victory for you.

Try it hard. Bring to it
Firm determination.
If you rule it well and good,
You can rule a nation.

To all the heroes who have been Tried and told and sung,
Let us add the sturdy boy
Who can hold his tongue.

A SHARK IN HARNESS.

How the Florida Reef Boys Play With the Sea Monsters.

On the shallow lagoons of the outer Florida reef the bottom in ten feet of water is often pure white, so that dark objects resting upon it stand out with startling distinctness. One of the frequenters of the reef is a shark, known as the nurse, a huge fellow, nine or ten feet in length, who seeks the seclusion of the shallows and apparently goes to sleep. At least, pretends to, as he is seen lying perfectly quiet for hours, often permitting a boat to sail over him.

Naturally so sluggish a fish was easily captured, and one day, after watching the sharks swimming around the lagoon and refusing to leave the white shallow bottom, it occurred to a party of boys that the nurse shark would make an admirable steed, and immediate plans were formulated to capture him.

The sharks were most plentiful near a long, narrow island, and here the boys made their headquarters. Their mode of transportation was extremely primitive. The boat in which they crossed from the main island where they lived was the wooden casing of an arch some masons had been making, a boat-shaped affair, blunt at both ends. This had been calked and provided with rowlocks, and in it the boys made frequent excursions. The plan was to sail the boat quietly over the sharks, then lower a large slip noose down and take one by the head.

The rope and a pair of grains were thrown into the boat, and, all being ready, the boys started on their expedition. They soon sighted a black spot, which told of the presence of the school of sharks, and a few moments later were quietly drifting over them. Not a word was spoken, and the greatest caution was observed as one of the boys held the boat in place while another lowered the noose. Unfortunately an oar dropped overboard, and, with a whirl of their tails, the big fishes were off in every direction.

In the excitement of the moment a third boy seized the spear, and hurled it at a shark that was passing beneath the boat. The weapon took effect, and the next moment the line, which was fastened to the pole, stiffened out with a jerk, whirling the boat round and round, and throwing the boys down violently into the bottom. When they picked themselves up they found the flat-bottomed boat dashing along at a rapid rate. They had secured a steed, though not in the manner anticipated.

Up the reef the nurse swam, now pulling the boat down dangerously near the water and sending out a big wave on either side, then turning with a rush to avoid a coral bank, that grew on the edge of the channel, and racing back to the starting point.

All this was very exciting. One boy held the line by bracing back; another took an oar and attempted to steer the craft in its wild race, while the other boy was merely an enthusiastic passenger. Suddenly the shark turned again, and the bow boy, rising to see what new direction it was taking, lost his balance and was jerked overboard. Before his companions realized fully the situation he was being towed along on the surface by the demoralized shark. The reef boys were as much at home in the water as on land, so the unforeseen accident simply added to the sport. The remaining boys rowed the boat across the lagoon cutting off the shark, soon picking up their companion who had pluckily held the line during the exciting tow. The shark soon became weary of dragging the boat and was then run ashore by his captors.—C. F. Holder.

Fish from a Bottle of Ink.

A simple and pretty little trick, that almost anybody might do, is the changing of a glass full of ink into an acquarium. The glass of ink is exhibited to the audience, then a handkerchief is placed over it and immediately removed, showing a glass of water with a fish in it. Of course the water and the fish are there at first. The ink is perfectly represented by a piece of black rubber cloth, laid against the inside of the glass. A bit of thread is fastened to the cloth and hangs over the side of the glass away from the audience, with a little cork at the end of it. When the magician places the handkerchief over the glass he takes hold of the cork and brings away cork, thread and all, hidden in the handkerchief, leaving the water and the fish disclosed.

A SQUIRREL BONANZA.

Boys Capture Over One Hundred of the Animals on the Potomac River.

The boys near Cumberland, Md., recently had what boys everywhere would call a "bonanza." Somewhere in the mountains above Cumberland the squirrels for some reason, probably lack of food, became discontented with their home and they held a great council of war and decided to migrate to the southward in a body. So they all set out one bright morning and traveled until they reached the Potomac river. Here they all leaped in and swam across. Some boys on the further shore saw them coming in a vast, dark body that nearly choked up the river. At first they were frightened, but when they knew that they were squirrels they lay in wait and caught more than 100 of them. People who saw the migration estimated that there must have been more than 3,000 squirrels in the company. Such migrations are not at all uncommon, although it does not often fall to the lot of boys to be on hand to see them. Rats, lemmings and other small animals migrate in the same way.

Tops and Top-Spinning.

Top-spinning is one of the oldest games in the world. It has been played for thousands of years, and there are few even of the savage nations of Asia and Africa who don't play the game with some sort of top. Long before Columbus sailed for America the Indians knew a good deal about tops and top-spinning. The Sioux whittled them out of bits of wood, something like the one shown in the picture. In Ceylon, Siam and China nearly all the tops are so fixed that they whistle or sing when they spin. The ordinary top used by the American boy is probably the most popular in the world. It is extensively used in England and in all of her colonies. The German top is larger and more expensive, and the French top is quite different in shape. None of them will stand the pegging and battering of the stubby little American top.

How Indians Poisoned Their Arrows.

On the deserts of Arizona are to be found the most venomous, the largest, most active and most dangerous rattlesnakes in the world. Six feet is an ordinary length for these reptiles. Recovery from their venom is exceedingly rare. In August they become large, yellow, bloated things, and it is at this time of the year that the Apache Indians seek them to obtain poison for their arrows. A deer's liver, smoking hot, is torn out and laid before the reptile. He is punched and angered so that he strikes it again and again, the morsel turning a blue black from the poison even before the snake has finished striking. This delightful morsel is then placed high on a pole to rot and decompose in the sun, after which it is brought down and the arrows stuck into it, they being afterward dried in the sun to retain the poison—a most horrible custom among the worst Indians on the continent.

Busiest Animals at the Zoo.

The busiest of all the park animals in Chicago, are the prairie dogs. The other animals all enjoy aristocratic leisure, with plenty of men to wait on them. They feel no responsibility about earning their living or providing themselves with a comfortable home; but the prairie dogs, which come from the breezy and energetic west, will brook no such laziness. They dig to the bottom of their sand heap, build a big mound above it, and sit proudly on their home for half a day or less, and then they tear down what they have built and dig another home. As soon as it is done, that, too, is destroyed, and they begin on a third. In this way they keep busy night and day, and have all the enjoyment of moving into a new flat every week.

Drive a Needle Through a Copper.

An apparent mechanical impossibility may be accomplished by simple means, using a copper cent, and a cork, with a common cambric needle as accessories. Announce that you will drive a small needle through a coin, and few will be ready to accept your statement, yet it is very simple and any one can do it. Take a copper coin, place it upon two small blocks of wood, leaving a very narrow open space between the blocks. Now, having selected a good, sound cork, force the needle through it until the point just appears at the other end. Break off the portion of the head of the needle showing above the top of the cork. Place the cork upon the coin and strike it a fair, smart blow with a hammer. The needle will be driven entirely through the penny by a single blow.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Peter Sims, Plainfield's crack colored rider, started in three races at the meet held in Trenton Tuesday afternoon. He found his high gear something of a handicap and failed to qualify in any of them.

The bicycle club of the Y. M. C. A. will take a run to Springfield this evening if the weather permits. They will return to the building for lemonade, crackers and a plunge. A meeting of the club will be called for Thursday evening, July 13th.

ROD AND GUN.

One of the biggest catches of the season was that of a carp weighing sixteen pounds and measuring thirty inches in length. It was caught yesterday in Tier's pond and it required the strength of several men to pull him out of the water. "Pop" Treat, a local painter, caught the fish and he then called for assistance.

GOLF.

The next event in the schedule of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club is Sept. 4th, when there will be play for the golf committee cup. In the meantime there is likely to be other events outside of the schedule.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Kenney and daughter, of the borough, have gone to the new Frontenac, Thousand Islands, where they will remain during the summer.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongued coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Charlotte Meyers, of this city, is visiting Brooklyn relatives for a time.

Henry B. Drake, of Duer street, is home after a short visit at Jamesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Townsend, of Myrtle avenue, are sojourning at Belmar.

Mr. Leggett and Mrs. Brown, of Princeton, are the guests of Druggist J. H. Leggett.

W. L. Smalley, Jr., and family, of Princeton, spent Tuesday in Plainfield with relatives.

Harvey Carle, formerly of this city, is visiting Miss Gertrude Jackson, of East Sixth street.

H. C. Crowe and family, of Rockview avenue, have gone to Nova Scotia for the summer.

Miss Bertha N. Jenkins, of East Front street, has returned to her home near Scranton, Pa.

Miss Swackhamer, of White House, who has been visiting Plainfield relatives, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Melcher, of Elizabeth, have returned home after a pleasant visit with Plainfield relatives.

Frank Herbert Chandler and wife, formerly of Plainfield, are visiting D. L. Hulick, of 174 Duer street.

Thomas Schaffer has returned to Philadelphia after spending the Fourth at his home in Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lister, of Watchung avenue, have been entertaining company from Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorn, of East Second street, have been entertaining their daughter from Orange.

Messrs. Charles and Fred Case, of New York, formerly of Plainfield, spent the Fourth with friends in town.

Miss Kittie Daley and Miss Emily Mosher, of Crosby & Hill's, are now enjoying their annual two weeks vacation.

The relatives from Philadelphia who have been visiting the Misses Fisher's, of West Fourth street, returned home this morning.

Former Mayor W. L. Saunders, of Washington Park, is much improved from his illness of typhoid fever, and the symptoms are better.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Runyon, of Park avenue, are spending the day at Mt. Pocono, Pa., where they are arranging to make a more extended stay later in the season.

Thomas Hanna, an employe at the freight house, will sail Saturday on the Anchora for Queenstown, where he will visit at his former home for two months for the first time in many years.

T. J. Mott, Jr., wife and child, of Jacksonville, Fla., all visited the family of Harry Drier on the Fourth. Mr. Mott says the heat was more oppressive here on Tuesday, when the mercury indicated but 89, than it is in Jacksonville where a much higher temperature is recorded.

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, of Chicago, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Lewis, of West Seventh street, was called yesterday to Alfred to attend the funeral of Mr. Langworthy's mother. From Alfred she will go immediately to her home in Chicago.

DEATH OF DANIEL SUYDAM.

A Highly-Respected Citizen of Flemington Passes Away at a Ripe Age.

Daniel Suydam, a well-known citizen of Flemington, died at the residence of his son, Asa, Saturday morning about 3 o'clock, aged 79 years. Mr. Suydam's health had not been satisfactory for some time. His ailment, however, was considered by the members of his son's family as being that incidental to old age, and no particular anxiety was felt, until a few days before he died. The deceased was a highly-respected citizen, noted for his benevolent characteristics, which were unostentatious. For more than sixty-one years he had been a member of the Baptist church at Flemington and it was largely owing to his generosity that the handsome edifice at that place was built. His death is lamented by a large circle of friends in Flemington and other places where he was well-known. He is survived by two sons, Asa Suydam, of Flemington, and H. C. Suydam, of Bound Brook, who is a practicing attorney of this city. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the Baptist church, burial being had in Flemington.

TROUBLE OVER A HORSE TRADE.

New Market Farmer Comes to Plainfield in Quest of Justice.

Fred Anderson, a good-natured farmer living near New Market, was in town early this morning looking for justice. Anderson was real mad and said he had been the victim of a horse dealer's sharp tricks.

He told a Press reporter, to whom he related a tale of woe, that he had traded horses with a couple of strangers who happened along last Tuesday. Anderson said he had agreed to trade his horse for the strangers' horse and to give $25 "to boot," payment to be paid next month. He gave his note to bind the bargain.

In the absence of a lawyer Anderson had enlisted the kind offices of the village blacksmith to draw up the agreement which was "sealed, signed and delivered" to the satisfaction of all parties to the transaction.

The "swap" was made evidently in good faith, he said, and each man took his horse. Wednesday afternoon while Anderson's boy was using his new horse to plow with, the horse dealer, accompanied by couple of men, appeared upon the scene. Without any ceremony they proceeded to remove the harness from the horse, and unhitched him from the plow made off with him. The horse which Anderson had traded with them they left hitched to the fence along side the road.

When Anderson heard of the transaction he was madder than a wet hen and early this morning he started for this city. He wanted Chief Grant to send send a man out to look for the horse dealer, who he said lived "somewhere near Newark," but he did not know his name. The Chief took Anderson to Justice Nash who advised him to consult a lawyer. At last accounts the unsophisticated granger was looking for a limb of the law with the intention of obtaining satisfaction.

DINED AT THE KENSINGTON.

Medical Association Enjoyed an Excellent Banquet.

The quarterly meeting and banquet of the Plainfield Medical Association was held in the dining hall of the Hotel Kensington last night. Nearly all the members of the association were present.

The dining hall was beautifully decorated in a patriotic manner for the event by Mine Host Staats. The menu served was excellent and was very satisfactory to the guests, who were loud in their praise of Proprietor Staats' efforts. This was the second dinner of the association held at the Kensington, and it is likely that in the future all of them will be held at that place.

After the dinner the paper of the meeting was read by Dr. N. W. Currie, which was instructive and interesting to the other doctors.

Rev. Mr. Sindall to Preach.

Rev. Mr. Sindall, of New Market, will preach morning and evening in the Park Avenue Baptist church on Sunday next in the absence of the pastor, who has gone to Boston to attend the funeral of his father.

THE WORKINGMEN'S HOME.

Plans Completed for it Today by Architect French.

Edward V. French, of this city, the architect engaged to prepare plans for the Home for Aged Union Workingmen at Lincoln, finished the plans today, and they will be submitted to the annual conference of the New Jersey Federation of Trades and Labor Unions at Orange August 21st. The plans provide for a four story frame building, covering ground 125x90 feet. The front will face the north and the back the south. Broad porches will be built around the first floor on both front and rear, and on the second and third floors there will be big porticos, which will be open in the summer, but in the winter are designed to be enclosed with glass, thus making fine sun parlors.

The kitchen, store rooms, etc., will be located in the basement. On the first floor will be the dining room, office, library and assembly room. The other three floors will be taken up with the bedroom and wards for the inmates. The front elevation is of handsome design, and when completed will make a pretentious building.

If the conference of trades unions undertake the project of establishing the home the plans will, of course, be subject to alteration.

NEW OFFICERS IN CHARGE.

Important Meeting of Seventh-Day Baptist Christian Endeavorers.

The monthly business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist church was held last evening. The recently-elected officers took charge and the reports for the past year were received. The report of the secretary showed the membership of the society to include seventy active members, thirty honorary and two associate members. The treasurer's report showed that $225 had been raised and expended for charitable and benevolent purposes.

A committee was appointed to visit the Westfield Fresh Air Camp at intervals during the summer, and $5 was donated to that cause. Homes were provided for five of the "fresh air" children from New York who come to spend two weeks here.

This Week's Offerings

in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Trousers will comprise a remarkable lot of stylish clothing, doubly remarkable because of the low prices we will sell them. Part of the offerings are traceable to our recent extremely favorable purchases, deals in which spot cash and a great need of it by two manufacturers played an important part.

Some of the offerings come from our regular stock that but a few days ago we had an idea of reducing, but the season is advancing, our stock is still heavy, but the only method of reducing stock that we have faith in, is a great reduction of prices.

MALONEY FOUGHT THE COURT AND OFFICERS

He Was Painting Bernardsville a Lurid Hue.

CAUSE, JERSEY APPLEJACK.

THREW A BOOK AT JUDGE AND KICKED CONSTABLE IN THE RIBS.

The Prisoner Was From Newark, But Now He Languishes in the Somerset County Jail on the Charge of Atrocious Assault—Bound Hand and Feet in Order to Subdue His Capers.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, July 7—Michael Maloney, of Newark, is now resting in the Somerset county jail under the charge of atrocious assault, preferred by Justice of the Peace Dunster, of Bernardsville, which is alleged to have been committed by the prisoner when he was arraigned in the court of Justice Dunster Wednesday, after having attempted to paint the rural community in the Somerset hills a lurid hue.

After becoming duly-inflated with Bernardsville applejack Maloney made such a row that Constable David Moffett attempted to arrest him. Maloney put up a great fight for liberty, but was finally overpowered by half a dozen men who came to the rescue of the constable. The choler of Maloney did not falter one whit when he came into the presence of the Justice on the charge of being drunk and disorderly, but on the contrary seemed to increase in frenzied purpose of defying the arms of the law.

No sooner had Justice Dunster made out commitment papers for Maloney to be taken to the county jail than the recalcitrant prisoner grabbed the documents from the Justice's desk and tore them into shreds. While the Court stood aghast at such a proceeding Maloney grabbed a big law book and threw it at the Justice's head. The Justice, who is an aged man, dodged the book with considerable difficulty.

This was the signal for Constable Moffett and the several specials on hand to pounce upon the prisoner, and Maloney went down under the force of superior numbers. Grabbing a rope from the wall Constable Moffett pinioned Maloney's arms and then allowed him to get on his hat. But no sooner had Maloney acquired his equilibrium then he kicked the Constable in the ribs and the officer fell against the wall short-winded. As soon as he could recover the constable started to retaliate, but he got too near Maloney's foot again and received a terrible barking on the shins. He retired for repairs at this stage of the encounter. Then the crowd fell upon Maloney again and he was bound more securely. He was thrown into a platform wagon and to the accompaniment of frantic yells and mad struggling was driven to the county jail several miles away. There Justice Dunster made the charge of atrocious assault against him, and now Maloney will have to answer to the Grand Jury for his capers at Bernardsville.

TO DECIDE BY FISTICUFFS.

Two Newsboys Were Going to Settle Their Differences By Physical Force.

What promised to be a lively "scrap" last evening was ruthlessly interrupted by an officer of the law in the person of Dog Catcher Henry Frisbee. The "pugs" were two newsboys, who had decided to settle their differences a la Marquis of Queensbury in an area way off of Somerset street.

They had selected as referee a well-known law student, who has a reputation for giving the boys a run for their money. Time had been called and the lads were about to put up their "fins" when the dog catcher pounced upon the crowd and grabbed the principals. He was marching them up toward Front street when the disciple of Blackstone effected the boys' release. Quite a crowd had collected to witness the battle and some of the older boys gave Frisbee a piece of their mind for what they considered an unwarranted interference.

Enjoying a Yachting Trip.

Chas. W. McCutchen and family, of Washington Park, are enjoying a sailing trip on Long Island Sound in a yacht owned by Mr. Busby, a member of the firm in which Mr. McCutchen is associated. Next week Mr. McCutchen's family will go to their summer home in the Adirondack mountains, where they will remain until fall.

NEIGHBORS WARRED IN THE CITY COURT.

Donohue—Rotenhouse Feud at Its Height.

ARREST MRS. ROTENHOUSE.

HEARING THREATS OF ACTUAL WARFARE, DONOHUES EXPERIMENTED.

Sent Their Daughter in to See if Rotenhouses Would Assault Her—War of Words in Court—Came Near to Blows as Their Anger Grew—Judge Decided There Had Been a Disturbance.

The Donohues and the Rotenhouses were arrayed against each other in the City Court this morning. 'Twas a lively time in consequence. Fate has ordained that they should occupy adjoining parts of a double house on East Front street. For two years they have been at war and the feud that has grown out of the first quarrel is worthy of the "blue grass" country.

The particular event that gave City Judge Runyon the benefit of the Donohue—Rotenhouse feud was the arrest of Mrs. Jane Rotenhouse on complaint of her neighbor, Mrs. Mary Donohue, for profane and indecent language and threatening to assault Mrs. Donohue's daughter.

The examination of the witnesses brought forth an explosion from both sides. Mrs. Rotenhouse rose up in her might, despite the entreaties of the officers, and denounced Jim Donohue as a "dirty blackguard," said he was a disgrace to the neighborhood, and caused poor Jim to writhe in his chair under her stinging epithets.

It was rather difficult for the Judge to find out just what the alleged offence was except that a lively war of words raged on the Fourth of July and that the Rotenhouses swore that they would chastise the Donohues and that the Donohue girl was sent in by way of an experiment to see if the Rotenhouses would begin with her.

It looked at one time as if the Donohues and the Rotenhouses would get together right in court, but they contented themselves with much wagging of tongues. The Judge decided that there had been considerable disorder, but he suspended sentence on Mrs. Rotenhouse with a warning that her future appearance would be the occasion for severe punishment.

THIS BOY A ROMANCER.

CLAIMS PLAINFIELD AS HIS HOME, BUT NO ONE KNOWS HIM.

Incidentally He Seems Able to Have Fits Whenever it Suits His Purpose, Which Seem to be Quite Frequently.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Brooklyn, July 7—The police of the Flatbush station have had a great deal of trouble made for them by a small boy who has shown equal facility in throwing fits and spinning yarns. The lad says he is John Wilson, thirthirteen years old, of Plainfield, N. J.

He was on a Flatbush avenue car Wednesday evening when he was apparently seized with a stroke of epilepsy. He was carried into Meyer's drug store, where he was recognized by a policeman as a boy who, he declared, had been shamming epilepsy frequently to gain sympathy and pennies from tender-hearted citizens.

The boy came to in a remarkably short space of time. He said his father was Lee Wilson of the yacht Olinda, which was at Bergen Beach, where he was going to join his father. The police learned that the yacht was not at Bergen Beach nor was she expected there.

The boy later told conflicting stories which caused the police to believe the lad was a glorious little fakir. He didn't know a person in Plainfield save a grocery store clerk.

He was a trifle too big to be treated as a lost child, although the police notified the Children's Society, and was too small to be locked up in the station-house. So the police held him while they tried to locate his relatives. No one in Plainfield knew him or his parents.

Last night he was technically charged with vagrancy and turned over to the Children's Society. On the way he indulged in another fit.

Minister's Victory Over Saloons.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, N. J., July 7—The temperance people are jubilant over a victory won yesterday by Rev. Joseph L. Ewing, paster of the Presbyterian church, at Jamesbury, who succeeded in having the license applications of John A. Bennett and J. H. Elliott, of than place, knocked out. The minister got up a strong remonstrance and made an argument before Judge Strong against licensing the two places.

REFORM IN THE AIR AT SCOTCH PLAINS.

Citizens' League Has Been Organized to Cope With Evils.

REV. MR. SHOTT AT THE HEAD

THEIR FIRST AIM WILL BE TO STOP SUNDAY LIQUOR SELLING.

The Majority of Best Citizens Have Identified Themselves With the League and Will Raise a Fund to Prosecute Violators—County Physician Westcott One of the Officers of the League.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 7—The agitation which has been vigorously carried on for the past two months by Rev. G M. Shott, pastor of the Scotch Plains Baptist church, looking to the reform of the morals of this town, has culminated in the organization of a Citizens' League, which will invoke the law to bring about the desired changes.

The organization was completed in the Baptist church Wednesday night, when a constitution and by-laws were decided upon and officers elected. The officers are as follows:

President, Rev. G. M. Shott; vice-president, County Physician F. W. Westcott; secretary, Norman Dunn; treasurer, H. P. Robison. Rev. Mr. Shott was induced to become the leader because of his experience with similar organizations in other towns.

A majority of the influential citizens of the town have already identified themselves with the movement, but the charter roll will be kept open until August 1st, in order to give everyone that so desires a chance to become a charter member.

It has been decided that the first reform that will be undertaken will be the suppression of illegal liquor selling Sundays, which acts as a magnet for a large number of Plainfielders to visit Scotch Plains every Sunday, much to the annoyance of the church-going class. Nothing effective will be done, however, till the finance committtee is able to raise sufficient money to employ legal counsel and detectives to secure evidence. It is understood that about $1,000 has been promised to carry on the crusade under the direction of Rev. Mr. Shott.

It is the purpose to make the league a permanent fixture and after the desired reforms are brought about to keep it in good condition to prevent their recurrence.

RAISED UP NEW CHIEFS.

Deputy Great Sachem Westphal and Staff Went to Carteret Last Night.

Deputy Great Sachem William A. Westphal, accompanied by his staff, took the trail for Carteret, last evening, and there raised up the new chiefs of Quinnipiac Tribe. They also worked the adoption ceremonies on one candidate. After the meeting, the visitors were escorted to a neighboring hotel where a collation was served.

Deputy Great Sachem Westphal was accompanied by Past Sachems A. J. Stiglitz, D. C. Allen and Charles M. Ulrich, Sachem George Housman, Great Senior Sagamore William Newcorn and Braves Francis J. Blatz, Harry Dreier and Fred Huff.

Wussler Gets a License.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 7—The attempt of certain members of Elizabeth's Board of Excise to hold up applicants for saloon licenses, unless they would agree to sell only Elizabeth beer, failed last evening, when the application of William Wussler, held up at another meeting, was taken from the table for action. Wussler was going to sell Newark and New York beer, and for this he was boycotted by certain Excise Commissioners. The talk had scared the Excise men and Mussler got his license.

Pension for Children.

Through the kindly influence of Gen. W. H. Sterling, of First place, who always interests himself in behalf of the soldier, his widow or children, there has been secured a continuance of the late Alonzo C. Townley's pension for the children. The customary fee which General Sterling is entitled to and which he received was generously given to the children. William F. Townley was made executor of the estate of his father.

Contract for Bridge Awarded.

At a recent meeting of the Somerset County Board of Freeholders the plans of the Berlin Iron Bridge Company on the bridge to be located on Greenbrook road in front of John F. Wilson's property, were accepted, at the bid of $2,740. Wm. Farrier, of New Market, was awarded the masonry work. W. T. Kirk, of this city, bid on the work and his figure was $2,790.

COOL DAY AT THE SHORE.

PLAINFIELD EXCURSIONISTS FOUND IT SO AT ASBURY.

Over a Thousand People Went on the Crescent Avenue Church Excursion Yesterday—Delightful Day was Enjoyed.

While the good folk in Plainfield were sweltering yesterday in the heat and sultriness of the atmosphere, the thousand and more persons who went on the Crescent Avenue church excursion to Asbury Park yesterday morning were positively complaining of the cool weather. The excursionists had a delightful day of it, however, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of their trip.

The first section of twelve cars was under the charge of the popular Conductor Ross, who has had charge of the excursions of that church for many years. The second section of eight cars was in charge of Conductor Seden.

The run to Asbury Park was made in a little over two hours and the return trip in one hour and fifty minutes.

The excursionists found a great surprise in the weather conditions at the shore. The light summer gowns that had seemed so acceptable at home were far too light and the excursionists were vainly wishing for wraps and overcoats to keep warm. A refreshing shower came at 3 o'clock and was much enjoyed as it was a little warmer after the shower had passed. Bathing and trolley riding were not indulged in to the usual degree on account of the cool weather. Those who went for a dip in the Atlantic were disappointed for there was only an occasional bather who ventured into the water.

JOCKEY CLUB TO SELL OUT.

Decides to Sell the Track Located Near Elizabeth.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 7—The New Jersey Jockey Club has decided to part with its race track in Elizabeth, opened in October, 1889. The recent court decision sustaining the anti-gambling amendment settles the race track question.

The grounds and the fitting up for racing purposes cost more than $300,000. The valuation on the track now is $15,000, of which $10,000 is on the land.

At the meeting to decide on the disposal of the property, 3,550 of the 5,000 shares of stock were represented.

A committee, consisting of F. E. O'Reilly, C. H. Cornehlsen and M. F. Dwyer, was appointed to dispose of the race track.

THE KISSING BUG.

Prof. Smith Says That He Is An Old-Timer.

Professor John B. Smith, of New Brunswick, State entomologist, has been interviewed in reference to melanolestes pecipes, or the "kissing bug." He declares that it is not agressive, and that its bite cannot compare with that of a Jersey mosquito. It has lived peacefully on the banks of the Raritan for years, he says.

Professor Smith showed a reporter a specimen of the "kissing bug." It is a small, inoffensive looking creature, and the only thing it has worthy of mention is its bite. It jabs its victim with a beak that feels like a red hot needle, but leaves no baneful effects. He is useful to mankind.

OIL STOVE CAUSES TROUBLE.

Threatened Richmond Street Home With Destruction by Fire.

An oil stove performed some strange stunts at the home of Louis Hedemark, 826 Richmond street, shortly before noon today. It set fire to the woodwork and the ceiling and threatened the whole house with destruction. An alarm was sent in from box 27. E. M. Ayres was one of the first on the scene and he carried the offending oil stove out into the back yard. The fire department arrived on time but buckets of water put out the flames.

The loss will reach $40 There was no insurance on the contents. The house was owned by E. C. Mulford.

Slow Work of Commissioners.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 7.—The commissioners on the proposed Westfield avenue boulevard traveled yesterday in carriages over the road to Cranford to survey all the tracks of land that are still to be appraised in Union township, and hear what the owners had to say as to the value they put upon their holdings. The commission is progressing slowly with its work, and the opposition trolley company will have its line finished and in operation long before the trolley on Westfield avenue to Plainfield from this city is built.

—Preparatory services will be held at Bethel Chapel tonight at 8 o'clock.

FREEHOLDERS WANT MONEY FROM KEAN.

Calls For an Advance on County Trolley Franchise.

KEAN LIKELY TO DECLINE.

SENATOR WANTS TO BE ASSURED OF ENTIRE RIGHT OF WAY.

Freeholders do Not Expect to Get Right of Way Beyond Cranford, and This Will Form the Basis of Kean's Refusal to Pay Anything to Reimburse the County for the Work Already Done.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 7—The Union County Board of Freeholders yesterday afternoon resolved to draw on Senator John Kean for a part of the $250,000 for which he is under bond to pay for the franchise for a trolley line in Westfield avenue, from Elizabeth to Plainfield. The money received on this, the first installment, will be used to widen the road from Orchard street, Elizabeth, to the Cranford Township line, a distance of six miles, and which is as far as it is expected the County will be able to widen, owing to the strong opposition to the scheme among the people of Cranford. It is said that the board dosen't expect to use the money to actually begin the work, but to reimburse the county for the expense already incurred for surveys, commissioner's carriage hire, committee work, advertising, printing and other preliminaries.

It is understood that Mr. Kean will demur to the payment of even a portion of the $250,000 unless assured that the county will secure the right of way the entire distance of twelve miles, and widen the street from Elizabeth to Plainfield.

THE BABY CAMP.

Building Will be Ready for Occupancy by the 18th.

Considerable interest is being manifested by the citizens generally of a benevolent disposition in regard to the Baby Camp soon to be opened on Watchung mountain. Subscriptions are coming in quite satisfactorily and there is every prospect that a sufficient amount of money will be secured to carry on the noble work which the City Union of King's Daughters have undertaken.

At this morning's meeting of the City Union, held in the directors' room at the Y. M. C.A., plans were fully discussed and arrangements perfected for beginning the good work. The construction of the building was begun last Wednesday and it is to be finished next Tuesday. The formal opening will be held Tuesday, July 18th, when the public will be given an opportunity of inspecting the building and then can gain a more tangible idea of what is the purpose of the young women who have enlisted themselves in this noble work.

Send in your subscriptions to The Daily Press.

ATTENDANCE BETTER AT Y. M. C. A.

Sunday Afternoon Meetings Seem More Attractive Than Last Year.

Thirteen members of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. were present at the regular monthly meeting held last evening.

Written reports were received on religious work, educational work, boys' work and on rooms. Verbal reports were also received from the anniversary and the finance committees. It was shown that the attendance at the Sunday afternoon men's meeting was fifty-eight per cent. larger this year than for a corresponding period last year and the largest attendance for June during the past five years, with the exception of 1897.

Social of Ladies' Aid Society.

An enjoyable social was given last evening in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the church. There was a fair attendance and genuine sociability reigned. There was no programme arranged, but during the evening ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. J. A. Haynes, Mrs. VanWinkle, Mrs. Snedliker and Mrs. Theophilus Bond, who had charge of the affair.

A Ray of Sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Vail, of Elmwood place, are receiving the congratulations of their many friends over the birth of a daughter, who came last evening to throw a ray of sunshine about the fireside.

New Vestry Officers.

The new vestry of the consolidated Church of the Holy Cross held its first meeting Monday evening and elected officers. Horsley Barker was chosen treasurer and A. E. Faber, Jr., secretary.

THREW THE PIPE INTO THE STREET

Merchants Object to Use of Sidewalks for Storage Purposes.

AN EXCITING DISCUSSION.

M. ABRAMS BROKE SEVERAL SECTIONS OF CONDUITS.

The Pipe Intended for the Use of the Electric Light Company—Shoedealer Did Not Want it Piled in Front of His Store—He Acted on the Advice of a Lawyer—The Police Quickly Ordered a Clean-up.

There was good prospects for a lively scrap on West Front street last evening about six o'clock, when two men employed by Wm. Hand began to unload conduits for the Plainfield Electric Light Company in front of the places of business of Frank Linke and M. Abrams. The conduits have to be distributed along the street until such a time as the contractor gets ready to use them. The two merchants objected to having them piled in front of their stores, and while they were doing so a large crowd gathered to watch the fun.

The men did not experience much trouble with Mr. Linke, but when they began to place pipes in front of Mr. Abrams' place affairs grew interesting. Abrams said he would not have them there, blocking the entrance to his store, and he picked up some of the pipes and threw them in the street where they were smashed to pieces.

In the meantime Lawyer William Newcorn was summoned and he advised the men not to block up the front. They insisted, however, and Mr. Newcorn then advised Mr. Abrams to throw the pipes into the street after they were piled up. But Mr. Abrams decided that he would not do that. A little later the police ordered Mr. Abrams to pick up the broken pieces of pipe in the street, which he did rather reluctantly.

Mr. Abrams told a Press reporter that when the first load of pipes arrived one of the men on the truck approached him and said that if he (Mr. Abrams) would give him something, he would not place the pipes in front of his place, but in front of some other business house. To this proposition Mr. Abrams refused to accede. The matter has been adjusted, however, and no further trouble is expected.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

HAPPENINGS IN A FEW LINES FROM ALL OVER JERSEY.

More or Less Important Happenings and Events in Various Sections Served For a Quick Glance at.

The New Brunswick Board of Education has decided to grant a public hearing to Miss Catharine Victory, one of the five teachers recently removed after a secret meeting of the Board. The other four teachers have resigned and will make no fight.

Owing to the failure of the people of New Brunswick to contribute, plans for a series of public concerts during the summer have been abandoned by a committee.

The Raritan Electric Manufacturing Company plant, formerly the Beacon Lamp Company, at New Brunswick, burned July 31, had the building insured for $8,000 and the stock, machinery and equipment of the plant for $73 000. The fire caused a total loss. Thirty-two insurance companies are represented.

Senator John Kean is pushing rapidly the work of building his trolley road through Elizabeth, and expects to have the cars running over the line in six weeks.

The pattern-makers at the Worthington Pump Works in Elizabeth have gone on strike for nine hours. This is part of a concerted effort of pattern-makers throughout the country. The Worthington Company refused to grant the demand.

Elizabeth's Board of Education has elected Charles Kurtz, President in place of Wickliffe B. Sayre. The President, like his predecessor, is a Democract. Andrew P. Hughes, Democract, was re-elected secretary.

Settled Fire Loss.

The London and Lancaster Fire Insurance Company through their local agents, E. C. Mulford & Son, of North avenue, settled the loss yesterday with E. E. Pray, of Hillside avenue, for the loss of his barn by fire July 4th. This is considered a very quick settlement.

Specials at VanEmburgh's.

One case of fine lawn wrappers at 59 cents each; a bargain. Also, two specials in children's hosiery at 10 and 15 cents a pair.

CENTRAL'S SHOPS AT ELIZABETHPORT.

Contracts for Buildings Expected to Be Awarded Soon.

TO COVER SEVENTY ACRES.

LEHIGH MAY LOCATE SHOPS AT CRANFORD JUNCTION.

Central's New Plant Will Add 3,000 to the Population of Elizabeth—New Location Will Facilitate the Handling of Freight and Also Afford Escape From Hudson County Taxes.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 7—The contract for building the Jersey Central Railroad Company's immense shops on the salt meadows, opposite the Elizabethport station, will be let within the next few days. The engineers staked out the ground about a month ago, and architects have since executed elaborate plans for the gigantic plant. It is predicted that ground will be broken in a few days and the work of constructing switches, round-house, docks and shops will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

The company recently bought seventy acres of the meadow land on the sound in Elizabethport, which it will transform into its principal yard and shops, thereby relieving the Jersey City terminus of the road of its congestion.

The object the company has in removing its shops to this place is not alone to facilitate its work, but to escape from the heavy taxes of Hudson County, besides which it will be cheaper for the men to live in and around Elizabeth.

The present shops at the foot of Broadway will be converted into a freighthouse, where all miscellaneous freight will be sorted and classified according to destination, while the full cars will go straight through, be loaded on the floats and sent on without delay.

The new plant, when in full blast, will probably add over 3,000 to the population of the city.

It was said here yesterday by a well-known real estate speculator that the Lehigh Valley Railroad will shortly follow the Jersey Central's example and get its shops and yards out of Jersey City, the probable location being at Cranford Junction, with a possibility of Waverly. He says that the Lehigh's object in getting out of Jersey City is due partially to friction with the authorities there over grade crossings and tax levies.

ACTION EXPECTED TONIGHT.

Trolley Magnates Are Tiring of Their Troubles in Roselle.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Roselle, July 7.—The troubles between the Borough Council and the Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railway Company promise to come to a head this evening. There will be a meeting of the Council tonight and the trolley magnates declare that they are getting tired and must either have a favorable answer from the borough authorities or else they will take another course for their trolley line connecting Elizabeth and Plainfield. The application for a franchise will be presented tonight and the capitalists are in hopes that the Council will act on it this time.

BAD FALL FROM BICYCLE.

Frame of Wheel Gave Way and Precipitated Rider Into the Roadway.

J. C. VanDyke was quite seriously bruised last evening by a fall from his wheel. He was riding on his wheel on East Front street about 6:20 o'clock when the frame of his bicycle gave way, precipitating him into the street. He fell upon his head and face and was slightly stunned by the fall. Mr. VanDyke sustained a severe cut over the eye and was otherwise bruised. His injuries were dressed at A. D. Mallinson's drug store, corner Watchung and North avenues.

Rev. H. C. Eyme Sails for Europe.

Rev. Herman C. Eyme and wife, of 78 Duer street, left today for New York to board the steamship Patricia that sails early tomorrow morning for Hamburg, Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Eyme will spend the summer with Mr. Eyme's parents at Lichtenberg, Braunschweig, Germany, returning to Plainfield early in October. Mrs. Eyme's mother, Mrs. Berens, who resides with her daughter, goes to the City of Mexico to spend the summer with her son, whose home is in that city.

—This is the weather for a hot and cold water bater bath with shower at Dave's barber shop, 213 West Front street. Finest in the city. Open Sunday.

MANY HOUSES WRECKED.

Much Property in the Vicinity of Ainsworth Neb., Destroyed by Tornado.

ONE WOMAN WAS KILLED

The Queer Motion of the Funnel-Shaped Cloud Witnessed by the Entire Population.

Everything in Sight Totally Demolished Where the Storm Struck—Cellars and Caves Save Great Loss of Life—Debris Scattered in Every Direction.

Ainsworth, Neb., July 7.—A destructive storm passed Ainsworth two miles to the north, killing one woman and tearing houses, barns, fences and bridges into kindling wood. The cyclone seemed to form about fifteen miles northwest of Ainsworth. The motion of the funnel-shaped cloud was most distinct, and was witnessed by nearly the entire population.

Its first destructive work was on the farm of John Strohm, four miles northwest of Ainsworth, demolishing everything in sight. Luckily the family took to a cave and no one was injured. It struck the house of William Lockmiller, a mile to the east. Mrs. Lockmiller had sought refuge in the cellar with three small children. Her oldest son not coming, and, fearing he might be caught in the barn where he was working, Mrs. Lockmiller started to call him just as the cyclone reached them. As she arrived at the door, the house was moved from its foundation and she was crushed into a lifeless mass and her body nearly severed in twain at the waist. The children, however, were unhurt, the funnel doing no further damage than moving the house a few feet, tearing off a portion of the roof and hurling the portions a distance away.

The farm of Rev. T. W. De Long, about two miles north of the town was next visited. Here the funnel remained almost stationary for a few minutes, while its tail swung around to the east of the house, striking the stable, corn crib and shed and whirling them in a confused mass over the prairie to the north, leaving the house intact. A moment later it enveloped the house in a cloud, and when it had cleared away nothing but the foundation was left standing. Rev. De Long and family, consisting of wife and three children, had taken refuge in the cellar and were unhurt.

A little later the storm reached a farm-house belonging to George W. Brown, tenanted by Charley Trotter. Here it made so complete a wreck that not a vestige of the house remained. Fortunately, Mr. Trotter and family left home for Ainsworth a short time previous. James Strohm, a farmer, living a few hundred yards away, seeing the storm approaching, with his family, took refuge in Mr. Trotter's cave, and, though within a few feet of the demolished house, all were uninjured. The last place visited was an untenanted house belonging to W. H. Hurring, of Ainsworth, a mile further on. The wreck was complete here.

Big Fire at Pratt City.

Birmingham, Ala., July 7.—Fire broke out at Pratt City, and for three hours the flames raged furiously in the business part of the mining town. The fire was only stopped by tearing down a number of houses. The fire brigade worked hard, but could do nothing. The Birmingham fire department was called on, but could render no assistance with the wells. Fifteen buildings were destroyed entailing a loss of $75,000.

Shot by a Deputy Constable.

Mountain Grove, Mo., July 7.—Clay Wyatt, a special deputy constable, shot and dangerously wounded a man named Hopper, from Douglas County. Immediately after the shooting Wyatt fled to the outskirts of he city to avoid further trouble, the Hopper faction being here in full force, and eager for vengeance. He later informed officers of his whereabouts, and is now under heavy bond. The trouble arose over an old feud.

Sold the Ball and Chain.

Anderson, Ind., July 7.—James R. Ralya, who escaped from the insane asylum at Richmond Saturday, has been captured in this city. When he left the institution he had a ball and chain on. He managed to get this off and sold it to a junk dealer, realizing enough money to buy him a lunch. He went insane worrying over a $200,000 suit which he carried into the Supreme Court and lost.

To Make Harvesting Twine in Chicago

Chicago, July 7.—The McCormick Harvesting Machine Company has obtained a building permit for the erection of a brick five story twine mill. The mill is to cost $300,000. The company, which has heretofore made the twine in Boston and four other places, will in the future do the most of this manufacturing in Chicago.

Match Trust to Secure Another.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 7.—The plant of the Independent Match Company of this city has been sold to a New York syndicate. The syndicate has been negotiating with the company for some time, and it is understood the plant will enter the trust. It will remain under its present management.

Pleasure Party Run Down.

Pittsburg, July 7.—A shifting engine on the Pittsburg Junction Railroad ran down a pleasure party of colored persons in Shenley Park. One man was killed and two women probably fatally injured.

Lieut. McLaughlin Dead.

Washington, July 7.—The War Department has been advised of the death, from yellow fever, at Santiago de Cuba, of Lieut. McLaughlin, Volunteer Signal Corps.

WILL REVEALS DOUBLE LIFE

William Moran, of Black Hills Fame, Had Two Wives.

Deadwood, S. D., July 7.—The report of the death of William Moran, who is supposed to have started his fortune in the Black Hills in the early history of this part of the State, has reached Deadwood. Moran is found to have had two wives. He was married in Chicago, and after failing in business there he came to the Black Hills, where he made a good stake. A report was circulated in Chicago, so that it reached his wife, that he had died. Moran went East and married again. In his will he left his money to his "daughter by his former wife, now living in Chicago." From this clew his first wife has been found, and all of his property, amounting to about $300,000, has been turned over to wife No 1. Moran made his start in placer mining in Deadwood Gulch here in the Black Hills. He changed his name to William Lewis on his return to the East.

Aguinaldo Surrenders Spaniards.

Manila, July 7.—The Spanish Commissioners returned here from their conference with Aguinaldo at Tarlac. They brought with them the Spanish garrison of Balter, which recently surrendered to the Filipinos after a siege of more than a year, and fourteen civil prisoners. The commissioners were unable to arrange with Aguinaldo for a general release of the Spanish prisoners in the hands of the Filipinos. They report that the American prisoners held by the natives have been sent to Vigan and Ilocoinorte, on the northwest coast of Luzon.

Year's Sentence for Dr. Toms.

Freehold, N. J., July 7.—Dr. Frank D. Toms, a prominent Keyport physician, has been sentenced by Judge Conover to one year in prison for atrocious assault and battery upon William H. Smith. Smith was jealous on account of the reported intimacy of Toms with Smith's wife, and one day last spring entered the Doctor's office and remonstrated with him. Dr. Toms seized a bottle of suphuric acid and threw the contents in Smith's face, burning his neck and cheeks and causing the loss of one eye.

Next Speaker Visits White House.

Washington, July 7.—Representative Henderson of Iowa, who arrived in Washington Wednesday, has visited President McKinley at the White House. He remained with the President for more than an hour, but he said afterward that he merely had a friendly conversation with Mr. McKinley about current events. He denied that the conversation had any reference to legislation based on his assured election as Speaker of the House.

Taylor on First Ballot.

Lexington, July 7.—At a conference held between leading Republicans here and in Louisville it was virtually decided to stop all negotiations looking toward the nomination of a compromise candidate for Governor, and all factions will get in line for Attorney-General W. S. Taylor, who will be declared the nominee for Governor at the State convention here next week on the first ballot. He has a big majority of the instructed votes.

Incorporated at Albany.

Albany, July 7.—The "Baron Hirsch" Cemetery Company has been incorporated with a capital of $200,000 to establish a cemetery in Richmond borough. The directors are David M. Dublon, Albert Kahn, Louis Bernstein, Herman E. Braun, Lawrence N. Martin and Albert Dublon of New York city. The Monroe Brewing Company of Rochester has also been incorporated with $250,000 capital to manufacture lager beer and ales.

Eight Lives Lost.

St. Paul, July 7.—Eight lives are reported lost at Crookston and much damage done all through the Red River valley by a severe storm. The only report thus far has been received from St. Cloud, having reached that point by train. The railroads have no details of the storm damage and the same is true of the telegraph companies. The storm swept district is thinly settled.

To Be Majors of Volunteers.

Washington, July 7.—The President has named the following officers to be Majors of the volunteer infantry: First Lieut. Harry L. Hawthorne, 6th Artillery; First Lieut. Walter C. Short, 10th Cavalry; First Lieut. E. D. Anderson 10th Cavalry; Capt. F. M. Steele, 8th Cavalry; First Lieut. Albert Laws, 24th Infantry; First Lieut. Geo. L. Byram, 1st Cavalry; Second Lieut. Joseph Wheeler, Jr., 4th Artillery.

Busy Boston Firemen.

Boston, July 7.—The city firemen, who were already exhausted by three days' battling with fires, were called out again by three alarms for a blaze in a six-story brick building at 5, 7 and 9 Hawkins street. The building was a total loss. The damage was $125,000. A cigar firm occupied the main part of the building and engineering and manufacturing concerns occupied the rest.

Columbia Defeats Defender.

New York, July 7.—The new Cup defender Columbia beat the Defender in a thirty mile race sailed off Sandy Hook for a cup offered by the New York Yacht Club. She crossed the finish line two minutes in the lead. The start was made from Sandy Hook lightship. The course was triangular, ten miles on each leg. The wind was light from the southeast.

Suicide at Sea.

New York, July 7.—The British steamship European, which has arrived here from London, reports that on June 28 Luke Balfe, a fireman, was reported missing, and was believed to have committed suicide by jumping overboard.

Hanged Herself in the Woodshed.

Boson, July 7.—Mrs. Lizzie Fatkin, 43 years old, committed suicide at her home, 80 Washington street. A servant found her lifeless body hanging in the woodshed. Financial troubles are supposed to have been the cause.

TO SEIZE THE HIDDEN GUNS

Governor-General Brooke Is Out With an Order That They Be Gathered In

IT MAY CAUSE TROUBLE.

The Location of the Four Depots Near Santiago Has Been Kown For Some Time.

Now That the Cuban Army Is Paid Off the Authorities Think It Wise to Seize the Stores as Yellow Fever May Decimate the American Troops Trouble May Result.

Havana, July 7.—An important conference took place here between Governor-General Brooke and Secretary of the Interior Capote relative to concealed deposits of arms in the province of Santiago. Gen. Brooke told the Secretary that he had received information that there was a large supply near Niquero, and that arms had also been concealed in other places. He asked Señor Capote to investigate, and the latter telegraphed to Civil Governor Demetrio Castillo asking him to act on the information and seize all the arms found in places that might be considered suspicious.

Gen. Brooke has known of the existence of these supplies for at least two months. Some time ago a man who alleged that he knew the exact location of places where large quantities of arms had been deposited, and who asserted that he had complete information regarding a conspiracy, endeavored to tell his story, but he was not considered worthy of attention at that time It was feared, too, that any injudicious move might precipitate trouble, which, while it could not be serious, might be annoying. Now that the Cuban army is practically all paid off and that problem settled, the authorities appear to deem it wise to make a clean-up of all arms, especially in Santiago, where yellow fever may put the American troops in a condition in which it would not be easy for them to put down even a serious form of brigandage.

A telegram from the Alcalde of Santa Maria del Rosario, Havana province, says that an American named Reeves was attacked by four men who alleged that they were rural guards. Reves was wounded and robbed. The thieves, who were not guards, are now being pursued.

Senor Sagrario, the new Spanish Consul General, arrived here to-day and was warmly welcomed by the Spaniards. He presented his credentials to Gen. Brooke and visited Secretary Capote.

The Gaceta Official prints a decree from Seretary Lanuza concerning the examination of foreign lawyers who desire to practice here. They must pass an examination in Spanish, but physicians and the members of other professions can pass examinations in English.

Soldiers Die of Fever.

Santiago de Cuba, July 7.—The yellow fever epidemic appears to have gained in virulence and the record was startling. There were five deaths from the disease, and ten new cases. The new camp at Boniato seems to be thoroughly infected, and a new fever hospital will be established near the camp. This is rendered necessary by the crowded condition of the other hospital. All the victims, with the exception of one American civilian, are soldiers. As yet the scourge has not appeared in the city.

Rev. Sims' House Blown Up.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 7.—The residence of Rev. N. C. Sims, of Highland Place, a suburb, was dynamited. The foundation of the house was shattered, but Mr. Sims and his wife escaped injury. He hurried out of the door, revolver in hand, and, seeing two men running away, fired at them, but they escaped. Not only was the foundation shattered, but every window in the house was broken. Mr. Sims said he could not explain the attempt on the lives of himself and wife, except that a neighbor with whom he had a slight trouble, may have done the dynamiting. He gave the name of the man to the police, who are trying to obtain evidence on which to make an arrest.

The Endeavorers Objected.

Detroit, Mich., July 7.—Fifteen thousand delegates were present at the Christian Endeavor convention yesterday. The New York delegates made a protest against the big whiskey barrels used on the grounds to hold drinking water, the odor of whiskey still clinging to the barrels. The New York delegates called on the Chairman of local arrangements in a body, but received no satisfaction, and the whiskey tainted water still continued to be dispensed.

Cattle Worried to Death by Flies.

Guthrie, Okla., July 7.—In the great cattle pastures along the South Canadian River, in Cleveland and Pottawatomie Counties, and across the line in the Chickasaw Nation, flies are swarming on the cattle as never before. Dead cattle are found daily in every herd, literally worried to death by the hordes of small flies, which sting like bees. If the pest continues, thousands of fine cattle will be killed.

Charles B. Brown Bankrupt.

Chicago, July 7.—Charles B. Brown, of Chicago, in the novelty advertising and promoting business, has filed a petition in bankruptcy, scheduling his liabilities at $1,636,078 and assets at $5. Among the creditors are Alexander Holiday, New York, $285,728, and Joseph McDonald, New York, $72,895.

The Wrong Man Slain.

Charlestown W. Va., July 7.—Louis Cohen, a farmer, 30 years old, was found murdered on Big Otter Creek, 15 miles from Clay Court House. It is believed that he was mistaken by the murderer for some one else, as he was poor and was not known to have any enemies.

ROBERT BONNER DEAD

He Passes Away Peacefully Surrounded by Friends.

New York, July 7.—Robert Bonner, died in his home, No. 8 West Fifty-sixth street, shortly before 8 o'clock last night. He had been ailing for some time, but was able to be about until a week ago last Tuesday. His death was due to a general breaking down of his system.

Mr. Bonner always enjoyed remarkable health until some months ago, when his lifelong friend and confidant, the Rev. Dr. John Hall of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, died. The two men were inseparable, and the death of Dr. Hall affected Mr. Bonner greatly. He kept indoors more after Dr. Hall died. A second severe shock that left a heavy weight on Mr. Bonner was the death of his son, Andrew Allen Bonner, on December 27 last.

After this heavy loss Mr. Bonner's attitude changed completely. He made fewer trips to his magnificent farm near Tarrytown, and contented himself with a short drive every afternoon.

The only society to which Mr. Bonner belonged was the Scotch-Irish Society of America, of which he was president. The vice president of that organization, the Rev. John F. McIntosh, a warm friend of Mr. Bonner's, will conduct the funeral service, which will be held in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Swindler Gets Diamonds.

Chicago, July 7.—Diamond Broker O'Neil, who has an office in the old Stock Exchange building, was swindled out of $2,000 worth of diamonds by a clever rogue, who gave the name of William D. Rice. Two weeks ago Rice registered at the Hyde Park Hotel and opened an account with the Oakland National Bank, depositing $100. Then he called on O'Neil, and representing himself to be a diamond broker, bought a stone worth $90.

He called again and selected $2,000 worth of diamonds, paying for them with what purported to be a certified check for that amount. O'Neil called up the bank by telephone and asked if Rice still had an account there. Receiving an affirmative answer, he took the check and went to the bank for his money. He found that Rice's balance was $10 and that the certification of the check was worthless.

Soldier's Wife Insane.

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—Eva Fairleigh has been adjudged insane by a Kansas probate court. Mrs. Fairleigh is the wife of Jesse S. Fairleigh, a private in Company B, 20th Kansas Volunteers, now at Manila. He enlisted in Kansas City, Kan., June 15, 1898, leaving a young wife and a baby two years old. A short time ago Mrs. Fairleigh began to fail in health. Her mind seemed affected and she was taken to Montgomery County in hopes that she would be better. She became worse, however. She was seized with the hallucination that her husband had been killed in the Philippines. The physicians think that when her husband returns she may recover her mind.

Station Agent Robbed.

Lebanon, Mo., July 7.—The Frisco depot here has been the scene of a hold-up and robbery. Arthur Joslyn, the night operator, was sitting at his desk writing when two masked men appeared at the office door with revolvers drawn and demanded his money. He gave them the contents of the cash drawer, about $10, which was all he had access to. Then they ordered him to open the safe, and, on being informed that it was locked with a time lock and he was powerless to open it, they consulted a few moments and left.

Woman Struck by Lightning.

Malone, N. Y., July 7.—A severe thunder storm which did considerable damage to property and injured one person so badly that she will die, passed over the northern side of the Adirondacks. Mrs. Joseph Mushiar of St. Regis Falls was struck by lightning and mortally injured. Peter W. Gallagher's house in Malone was burned, and several other buildings more or less damaged.

Girl Roused Protest With the Flag.

Stamford, Conn., July 7.—The storm of objection amounting to a small riot, aroused by Miss Muriel Russel, an English girl by displaying a British flag is increasing. One man drew a revolver, but the flag remained up. Even the Mayor was unable to have it hauled down. Miss Russell's uncle says it is all a joke.

Attempt to Assassinate King Milan.

Belgrade, July 7.—While former Knig Milan, father of King Alexander, was driving through the streets of the capital, an attempt was made to assassinate him. A young man fired four shots at the former King. One of them grazed His Majesty, and another wounded an adjutant who was riding with him in an open carriage.

Edison Suing for His Name.

Newark, N. J., July 7.—Thomas A. Edison has made application to Chancellor McGill for an injunction restraining Frederick M. Prescott of Montclair from using the name of "Edison" in his business. The Chancellor took the papers in the case and said he would render a decision later.

It was not until about noon that Pretonius finally awoke. He felt greatly fatigued, as usual. The evening before he had been with Nero at a feast, which had continued late into the night. For some time past his health had not been good. He said of himself that he felt like a log of wood in the mornings, and barely had sufficient strength to collect his thoughts.—QUO VADIS—opening paragraph.

Had Ripans Tabules been invented then one would have done Pretonius good had he swallowed it at the moment he awoke. Had he taken one at the moment of retiring his condition when he awoke would not have been so lamentable. R·I·P·A·N·S banish pain; prolong life; one gives relief.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR [illegible] The [illegible] is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons [illegible] by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. [illegible] Spruce Street, New York. Single cartons (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents. RIPANS TABULES may also be found of grocers, general storekeepers, news agents and at liquor stores and barber shops.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain up on the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

QUAY TO RETURN SOON.

Will Hold a Conference Regarding Pennsylvania's State Ticket.

Harrisburg, July 7.—Senator Quay is expected to arrive here from Florida next week, when there will be a conference with his lieutenants with respect to the make-up of the State ticket. There is reason to believe that Judge William D. Porter of Pittsburg is still being considered for the Supreme Court Bench vacancy. It is said that Judge Wallace of New Castle is also making a canvass for the place. T. Larry Eyre will be succeeded as Vice-Chairman of the State Committee by W. R. Andrews, Gen. Frank Reeder taking Attorney-General Elkin's place as Chairman. The secretaries will be Jere B. Rex and Charles E. Voorhees. It is suspected that J. Hay Brown of Lancaster for Supreme Court Judge is opposed because of his close relations with Senator Magee.

Another Negro Exiled.

Wilmington, N. C., July 7.—Another negro, who had indulged in incendiary talk against the whites, was driven from Wilmington. Several days ago one of the white leaders of last November's uprising received a letter threatening his life and defaming white women. Detectives traced the authorship to a negro named Hilly Blue, and it became known that Blue had compelled his 12-year-old son to write it at his dictation. The negro was arrested and placed in jail, while rumor after rumor was sent out to the effect that Blue's life was in peril.

The authorities realized the truth of these rumors, and advised him to leave the city. The authorities also realized the danger of leaving him unprotected and to save his life he was escorted out of the city under guard.

Snake Bit His Lip.

Louisville, July 7.—Lucien Moore, son of Samuel Moore, a prominent farmer of Danville, has always manifested an interest in snakes, and is in the habit of catching water snakes and blacksnakes and making playthings of them. While he was passing through a woodland, he captured a fine specimen of the blacksnake and took it home. Suddenly the snake sprang toward the young man's face and caught his upper lip firmly in its mouth. The lip was firmly gripped and no amount of pulling and pinching would induce the snake to let go. A member of the family finally came to the rescue and with a sharpened stick the snake's jaws were pried open.

Girl's Burns Were Fatal.

New Rochelle, N. Y., July 7.—Esther Johnson, the 5-year-old daughter of Christian Johnson, has died in the New Rochelle Hospital from the effects of burns received on Wednesday. She was endeavoring to set off some firecrackers which she had picked up in front of her home on Weyman avenue, when her dress caught fire and she rushed screaming into the house. Her mother tore off the child's burning garments and her own hands were badly burned. The girl's hair was all ablaze, and she was so badly burned that the doctors had her removed to the hospital.

Panic at Chicago Fire.

Chicago, July 7.—Fire broke out in the Illinois Car Company's factory at Townsend and Superior streets, where 200 men and women were employed, and for a short time there was a panic among these employes, who were making frantic efforts to get away from the flames. The building was a six-story brick structure, and the fire made such rapid headway that a general alarm was sent in. The fire started on the third floor. It is believed that all those who were in the building escaped without injury. The building and contents are a total loss. The loss is estimated at $125,000.

Express Rates For Fruit.

San Francisco, July 7.—The fruit growers express and the continental express have announced an advance of 8 1-3 per cent. in their "icing" charges, and all shipments of green deciduous fruits that go east after this date will be taxed the new rates. The reason given for the advance is the recent action of the Southern Pacific in advancing its carload minimum on fruit from 24,000 to 26,000 pounds.

Killed Mother and Babe.

Topeka, July 7.—At Coates, Kan., Willie Porter, aged 9, playfully pointed a revolver, which he found lying in the hired man's room, at his baby sister, who was sitting on her mother's lap, and pulled the trigger. The ball passed through the baby's head and the mother's heart, killing both instantly.

Negroes Retaliating.

Columbia, S. C., July 7.—The negroes in Horry, in the neighborhood of Conway, are excited over the killing of Frank Green by a white boy named John Dew, whom they made an attempt to lynch. They promise to kill Dew as soon as he is acquitted. His acquittal is certain.

Delivered Himself to Justice.

Richmond, Ky., July 7.—After dodging officers sent to arrest him, all night, Wm. Turpin, who shot Alton King here, and painfully wounded his brother, Henry Turpin, came in and surrendered to the officers. King will recover.

SITUATION IS APPALING.

Death List in Flooded District of Texas Continues to Increase Hourly.

100,000 ARE IN DISTRESS.

Piteous Appeals For Assistance Have Aroused the Sympathies of a Generous Nation.

Voices of Women and Children Are Heard From the Drift—Hundreds Thought to Have Been Swept Into Gulf of Mexico—People Falling Into Water From Tree-Tops.

Dallas, Texas, July 7.—The flood district extending approximately from Waco on the north to the Gulf of Mexico on the south, is 100 miles wide by 300 miles long. In that vast delta between the Trinity, the Brazos and the Colorado Rivers, nearly, if not quite, 400 lives have been lost and $20,000,000 worth of property destroyed within the last two weeks. Fully 100,000 persons, mostly negroes, are in distress and on the verge of starvation.

Gov. Sayers has had to appeal for temporary aid to the Federal Government, promising to pay back what is advanced in the way of rations and other relief when the Legislature meets. Reports received from the lower Brazos are much the same as those for the past three days. There is no perceptible fall in the waters, and bodies of drowned persons continue to float with the current past Sealy, San Felipe, Tulsey, Caldwell, Thompson, and other places. The telegraph wires are working only as far south as Calvert, and that place is 100 miles north of Sealy, the present flood centre. Reports from Caldwell are to the effect that the voices of women and children can be heard from the drift rushing by in the angry waters.

There is no telling how many persons have been carried out by the rivers into the Gulf of Mexico. A movement has been started to have tugs from Galveston search the coast line for floating persons who may yet be alive.

The telegraph operator at Dewey has sent the following brief message:

"River falling slowly since last night. Conditions here terrible; everything in country swept away. Large number lives lost in bottoms. Looks like starvation for those left. Situation has not been exaggerated. Several days before line repairs be made with anything like system."

Deputy Sheriff Swearinger said over the telephone from Sealy: "There is no improvement in this section of the flood district. If anything, the situation is growing worse. No relief boats have yet reached here from Houston or Galveston. Sealy and neighboring towns have about exhausted their resources for relief. Another negro family was seen from here drowning. Several more lives have been lost among the refugees on the mound near old San Felipe. A number of negroes have fallen into the waters from tree tops from sheer exhaustion after hanging there three days and nights. Of course they are doomed. A rumor is current here of an awful disaster near Richmond below here in Fort Bend county. As we are cut off from all that southern section we cannot tell definitely what has happened, but the situation naturally must be as bad as here, if not worse. If we could only get relief boats from Galveston! The people are drowning before our eyes and we are unable to help them."

Governor Asks for Aid.

Austin, Tex., July 7.—Gov. Sayers has sent this request to Secretary Alger:

"Please immediately order by wire boats at Galvaston to ascend rivers, using launches and yawls to rescue people from the waters, which are widespread over the lands of the lower Brazos.

"Please also order commanding officer at San Antonio to place at my disposal for immediate distribution 10,000 rations. Recommend to Legislature to refund to the United States their value when it next meets, and do not doubt that it will be promptly done.

"Devastation great. Immense loss of life probable. Prompt action very important. Answer."

Rescuing the Refugees.

Sealy, Texas, July 7.—A few boatloads of refugees have been brought here from among the trees in the bottoms nearest the town. They are in a deplorable condition from hunger and exhaustion. In another day the system of rescue will probably be in good order and the rescue of the surviving sufferers will proceed rapidly. It will be at least three days before the water will be low enough to make it possible to learn anything definite as to the extent of the loss of life.

Texas Gets Help.

Washington, July 7.—The War Department has granted the request of the Governor of Texas for aid for flood sufferers. Government boats will be placed at the disposition of the Governor and the rations asked for will be issued at once.

Fishing Party in a Fix.

Galilef, N. J., July 7.—The steamboat Johna left New York for the fishing banks with a party of 150 to enjoy a day's fishing. She arrived at the banks safely, but in steaming around broke her shaft. A fisherman brought the pilot ashore here, and he telephoned to the company for assistance, and the Moran Towing Company sent a tug to bring her home.

The Fuse Burned Slowly.

Valparaiso, Ind., July 7.—At Hebron, Carl King loaded a gun barrel with dynamite. The fuse worked slowly, and while King was making an examination it exploded, nearly severing his head from the body and tearing his breast to pieces. He was 22 years of age.

Summit's Water Problem.

The citizens of Summit are seriously concerned over the scant water supply that they are afforded, but at a meeting of the Common Council held last night to consider the problem they decided to recommend something that would seem, in the light of recent events, to be like jumping out of the frying pan in the fire.

The Council decided to notify the Union and Essex Water Company that the new wells on the banks of the Passaic river must be abandoned and the city supplied from the Greenbrook watershed at Feltville, or suit would be commenced.

It will be remembered that only a few weeks ago the Supreme Court affirmed a decision of the Somerset County Court which mulcted the Mountain Water Company for diverting the source of Green brook to commercial purposes, and in view of this it looks as though the Summit Council was taking hold of the water question in a very defective way.

Preparing for the future, however, the Council did a very sensible thing. That was to appoint a committee to find out what it will cost the city to buy the water company's plant. When all municipalities own the water supply of the town there will be less trouble, probably, in securing adequate and satisfactory service, for then there will not be the greed for monster profits that impel private owners now to supply several towns where they should only serve one.

THE NEW CUP CHALLENGER, SHAMROCK.

The new cup challenger, Shamrock, which was launched from Yarrow's yard at Blackwall, England, recently, has a length over all of 130 feet 6 inches, length on water line 89 feet 6 inches, beam 24 feet and draft 19 feet 8 inches. Her sail spread will be over 13,500 square feet.

The Employment of Teachers.

The attack made in the newspapers by Miss Elizabeth Allen, of Hoboken, upon local school boards throughout New Jersey, charging them with favoritism in the employment of some teachers, and with unjustly dismissing many other teachers for personal or trivial reasons, is not taken very seriously in the office of the State School Superintendent. Deputy State School Superintendent Betts says that he has no official knowledge of the different cases of dismissals and appointments cited by Miss Allen, as the State has no further control over the appointment of teachers than to insist that they possess the required certificate for the grade in which they are to teach.

He says it is true that in the country districts personal reasons too frequently enter into the employment of teachers, but he thought it better to submit to this than to have a law which would prevent the removal of teachers except for cause. Such a law would enforce the retention of teachers who might pass good examinations and be very faithful, and still not get good results in the schoolroom.

Mr. Betts said he did not know of a school board in any place of importance that was not willing to do right by teachers, and he knew of cases where teachers not up to the standard are retained sometimes in lower places out of sympathy or to avoid clamor from friends who would not be able to appreciate the real facts.

Public Ownership.

New Zealand is one country that has had a very healthy experience in owning and operating its public franchises and offers a practical insight into the public ownership of such rights that is instructive to this country. The ownership of railways in New Zealand is beyond the stage of experiment; it is at the point of assured success. The experience has been a long one, dating back to 1863.

The number of miles of railway in operation in 1893 was $1,886. The net profit for the year 1893 was $2,246,900. The wages of the employes average 30 per cent higher than those paid on the railways of the United States. You can ride thirty miles for 10 cents.

The annual profits from the railroads, postal telegraph, telephone and express are sufficient to pay all the federal taxes. Notwithstanding the great extent of the country and its sparse population, first class service is rendered the people.

It has been aptly said that the wheel of fortune sometimes drops men on a barren rock, and sometimes on a treadmill, says the Philadelphip Record. According to the experience of mankind most of them land on the treadmill. Having got there, the best plan is to devise ways and means by which some good may be got out of their enforced labor. In this connection the case of a busy merchant, who like most of his fellows is on the treadmill, is worth consideration. Being industrious and persistent, he devotes all his energies to the achievement of the best results, and especially makes it his constant aim exploit his business by means of a first class newspaper's advertising columns. As an inevitable result he makes his tramp on the tread mill pay.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

During the recent excavations in Park avenue for the storm sewer and its connecting links, a discovery was made that brought back to remembrance the times when Park avenue was a mere lane through the fields and was called Cherry street. A gang of men were digging a trench from the sewer to the Codington building, corner of Park avenue and Second street, when they came upon something hard. It proved to be an old tree stump, a foot and a half below the street level and a short distance from the curb. The stump was in a good state of preservation despite the old time it must have been buried underground.

The night before the Fourth was a time when everyone felt unusually privileged while the police were inclined to look with lenient eye on pranks that, on other occasions, would be promptly ended. A crowd of boys and young men of various ages were in and around the business centre of the city all the evening and numerous were the jokes they played on whoever happened to pass their way. Ben Silverstein, proprietor of the lunch wagon, finally had his turn. Without any warning, the crowd seized upon his wagon and away went the wagon with its enraged proprietor inside down Park avenue to Front street and up and down that thoroughfare. Ben was wild at the unexpected visitation and, it is said, lost his temper. He stood in the wagon and hurled tumblers and glasses at his human steeds while the contents of his wagon rattled about him. After a wild ride, Ben and his property was returned to the place where they belonged.

Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, in an article on "The Home Life Ideal and College Manners," speaks of the bad manners occasionally shown by some college girls. She says:

"The mother of a feminine undergraduate spoke to me lately of the difficulty she found in persuading her daughter to keep her things in order. The young lady had become accustomed at college to leaving her belongings scattered about her room, knowing that the faithful and long-suffering chambermaid would come in an straighten out the chaos as often as might be necessary. When her mother pointed out to her that in her own home the maid had not time to perform those labors of Sisyphus, our junior replied: "I have no sympathy with menials." Poor girl! However well versed in Latin or Greek she may be, she has learned a very small fraction of the true lessons of life if she has no sympathy with the toilers of this world, the hewers of wood and drawers of water. The undemocratic spirit shown by this remark is one which we note with pain in some college-bred women, though not in the majority. It shows itself in a lack of appreciation of the institutions of our country, in a disbelief in universal suffrage, and an opposition to the enfranchisement of women. The conceit of a feminine sophomore, when it does show itself, is even less agreeable to the onlooker than that of her male prototype. In justice to our girls, however, it should be said that they display conceit less often than our boys.

Mrs. Hall urges that some influence akin to that of home life should be provided for girls during their college course:

"Let them by all means be taught by accomplished professors and tutors, men and women, but let them also come under the influence of older women, who have taken a degree in the School of Life, and, if possible, of those who have received one of the highest forms of education, the education of wifehood and motherhood."

—Eden L. Boice, who has been janitor at Washington Hall for many years, resigned his position Tuesday last.

Mulford Casterline, of the Nelson House, spent Thursday in Plainfield.

The annex to the Hotel Nelson has been closed.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 7—Fred Clark, the liveryman, had a bad runaway at the station yesterday afternoon. The rig was in charge of one of Clark's drivers and was left standing in front of the station while the young man was transacting some business in the telegraph office. The horse became frightened at something and started to run away. Before anyone could catch the animal he had turned around and was tearing madly up the road towards the village. Fortunately very few wheels or vehicles were on the street at the time, so the animal had a clear run. When it reached the village it started to turn in home, when an open umbrella scared the animal about this time and it plunged into the gate leading to the stable, completely demolishing the surrey. The animal escaped unhurt and was soon caught.

Township Committee met in the town rooms last evening but immediately adjourned until Tuesday next on account of the illness of the chairman, T. J. Nichols, who was taken suddenly ill Thursday and was unable to attend the meeting.

The improvement that the railroad have been making about the station are about completed and the place presents a much prettier appearance than it did with the old wooden steps.

Master VanBuren Braker, the young son of Rev. and Mrs. J. S Braker, of Waltham, Mass., is visiting the Misses Hayes, of Fanwood.

John Marsh, who has been seriously ill for sometime, is improving slowly and is now able to be around the house again.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Collins and daughter, of Fanwood, have returned from a short stay at Greenwood Lake.

Miss Annie Radford, of Brooklyn, is spending a week with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Paff, Sr.

The adjourned contract case of De Meza against Hoffman will be tried in Judge Clark's court this afternoon.

The Misses Henstens, of Brooklyn, have been spending a few days with their aunt, Mrs. John Marsh.

Mrs. George Rockwell has been making a number of improvements about her home.

Miss Minnie Squires, of Rahway, spent Thursday with friends in town.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 7—Charles Hummer, of Plainfield, who finished third in the fifteen mile road race held here on the Fourth of July, has filed a protest against awarding the second prize to Stewart Roberts, of Jersey City, he claiming that Roberts did not make the last turn at the upper turn but stopped and waited for the bunch in the middle of the course. The winner, Charles Embleton, of this town, says that Roberts rode with him all the time and that he did make the turn. The judges have looked into the matter and have decided that Hummer has no grounds for complaint.

Central Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., has elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Councilor, Thomas Welles; vice-councilor, Ross Edwards; recording secretary, one year, W. M. Stamets; assistant recording secretary, George A. Clark; financeal secretary, one year, John C. Hall; treasurer, one year, A. R. A. Woidt; warden, William Howarth; outside sentinel, Fred W. Wells; trustee, eighteen months, William Howarth. These officers will be installed this evening by J. C. Hall, the installing officer, assisted by a delegation from Overlook Council, of Summit.

That Throbbing Headache.

—Blair, the Park avenue gents' furnishing goods dealer, has a choice stock of straw hats, summer shirts and summer wear to select from. Give him a call.

—Grand Union Tea Co., 138 West Front street, still continue to give with one pound of baking powder a very useful article, the home and vegatable slicer.

—George M. Rittenhouse will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. Special music and free lemonade will be features of the services.

—Monday evening there will be a meeting of the Association Volunteer League of the Y. M. C. A. It is the regular monthly meeting. Russell Bond is to read a paper on "Turkey" and the Bible lesson will be "Jonah, the First Foreign Missionary."

—Work has been started on the foundation for the new dwelling that Mrs. Blair is having erected on East Second street. While the work on the building is progressing and until it is completed the family will remain at their cottage at Belmar. The building will be ready for occupancy by the fall.

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich seal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about ¼ as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25c.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Die Entlassung des Freiherrn von Hammerstein aus dem Zuchthause fand neulich Mittags statt. Er bestieg mit einigen seiner harrenden Freunden eine mit mehreren Koffern beladene Droschke, fuhr nach dem Bahnhof und reiste mit dem nächsten Zuge ab.—Der frühere Schutzmann Victor Huebusch, welcher hier eine Detektiv-Agentur betrieb, wird von der Staatsanwaltschaft steckbrieflich verfolgt, weil er sich namhafte Unterschlagungen zu Schulden kommen ließ.—Von der hiesigen Polizei werden augenblicklich nicht weniger als sieben verschwundene Mädchen im Alter von 13 bis 22 Jahren gesucht.—Als gefährlicher Fahrraddieb wurde der Polizeibeamte Otto Schlichteisen dingfest gemacht und als seine Mitschuldigen ein Wachtmeister und drei Schutzleute.—Der Rabbiner Dr. Hildesheimer ist, 78 Jahre alt, gestorben.

Guben. Die Schlesische Tuchfabrik von R. Wolff ist total niedergebrannt. Glücklicher Weise stand das Gebäude isolirt, so daß für die Nachbarschaft keine direkte Gefahr vorhanden war. Durch den Brand sind über 50 Arbeiter brodlos geworden. Ueber die Entstehungsursache verlautet nichts Bestimmtes, doch wird Brandstiftung vermuthet.

Potsdam. Durch Hagelschlag ist in dem westlichen Theile des Kreises Niederbarnim unermeßlicher Schaden angerichtet worden. Bei Rummelsburg beginnend, zogen die Hagelwolken gelegentlich eines heftigen Gewitters über Biesdorf, Kaulsdorf dahin, ihre Spuren auf den Getreidefeldern und in den Obstgärten zurücklassend.

Provinz Hannover.

Hemelingen. In der hiesigen Jutespinnerei und Weberei haben die Weber wegen Lohndifferenzen die Arbeit eingestellt.

Hildesheim. Der hiesige Tischlerausstand hat mit einer Niederlage der Gesellen geendet, deren Hauptforderung, die Verkürzung der Arbeitszeit, die Meister nicht bewilligten.

Osnabrück. Neunzig Mann des hier garnisonirenden 78. Infanterie-Regiments sind dieser Tage in Folge Genusses verdorbener Wurst nicht unbedenklich erkrankt.

Wittingen. Niedergebrannt sind die Wohnhäuser des Milchfuhrmanns Nagel und des Klempners Kausel.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Kassel. Wegen Todtschlags des Brauereidirektors Lorenz Schmid wurde der Oberbrauer Fehlner vom Schwurgericht zu 4½ Jahren Gefängniß verurtheilt. Fehlner hatte im Februar d. J. den Schmid erschossen, weil er von ihm bei seiner Entlassung ein geforderstes besseres Zeugniß nicht erhalten hatte.

Biebrich. Die Stadtverordneten bewilligten für eine neue Werftanlage bis 445,000 Mark. Der Kostenanschlag beziffert sich auf 950,000 Mark. Der Staatszuschuß wird voraussichtlich 200,000 Mark betragen. Wiesbaden betheiligt sich mit 200,000 Mark, der Bezirksverband, Kreis und Interessenten tragen den Rest der Kosten.

Frankfurt. Einen neuen Versuch von Arbeitslosenversicherung innerhalb einer Berufsvereinigung macht der Kaufmännische Verein dahier. Durch Erhöhung des Mitgliedsbeitrags um 1 Mark hofft man die Stellenlosen während ihrer Stellenlosigkeit so unterstützen zu können, daß sie standesgemäß, aber bescheiden leben können.

Provinz Pommern.

Stettin. Die hiesige Bäckerinnung beging die Feier ihres 500jährigen Bestehens.—In Grabow brach ein Feuer aus, welches die Werfte „Oderwerke" erheblich beschädigte.—Der in Folge Zusammenstoßes mit dem Dampfer „Pölitz" beim Züllchower Freistaden gesunkene Dampfer „Blücher," auf welchem 15 Personen, meist Schulkinder, zu Grunde gingen, ist wieder gehoben worden. Kapitän Ehrke vom Dampfer „Pölitz," dem man die Schuld an der Katastrophe beimißt, wurde verhaftet.

Ostswine. Von Schulkindern, die im Walde Eichhörnchen suchen wollten, wurde ein Soldat an einem Baume erhängt gefunden. Der Selbstmörder ist der Oberfeuerwerker Lustig, der seit mehreren Tagen vermißt wurde. Die Eltern waren den Tag vorher aus Greifswald gekommen und hatten den Vermißten ohne Erfolg suchen lassen.

Provinz Posen.

Posen. In der Warthe bei Owinsk wurde die Leiche des Viehhändlers Hase gefunden. Da eine größere Geldsumme fehlt, so wird Raubmord angenommen. Der Ermordete war in der Umgegend von Namslau in Schlesien wohnhaft.

Schneidemühl. Wegen Mordes wurden der Sattlermeister Paul Gehrke aus Jastrow und dessen Ehefrau verhaftet und in das Gerichtsgefängniß dahier eingeliefert. Die Verhafteten vergifteten ihr Kind und nahmen selbst Morphium. Die eingenommene Dosis hatte jedoch nicht den gewünschten Erfolg. Gehrke ist 30, seine Ehefrau 33 Jahre alt.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Braunsberg. Hier wurden die Wittwe Lau und der Dienstknecht Wilbrodt hingerichtet, weil sie den Gatten der Lau gemeinschaftlich ermordet hatten.

WHALE AT LEAPFROG.

Exciting Adventure of Ship's Crew While Chasing a Sea Monster.

A ship commanded by Capt. Basil Hall was lying in one of the harbors of the Bahama islands when a large whale was observed. The men asked permission to take it, such a capture being a windfall to the natives. At first Capt. Hall refused, fearing that the boats might be injured, but finally, when it was seen that the huge animal was confused and unable to find its way out of the harbor, he gave permission, and the boats' crews, armed with harpoons and lances, were allowed to go.

"The whale had evidently lost its bearings and was swimming slowly along the edge of the channel, and the boats had little trouble in reaching it. Finally one shot ahead and the harpooner threw his iron deep into the black disappearing mass. The whale immediately sounded, tossing its tail high in the air and plunging down into the deep channel with so much force that the boats were drawn into the wirlpool so formed.

"An old whaler among the crew shouted that the big creature was liable to come up in about the same place, and advised pulling off; but the men would not believe it.

"Suddenly the old whaler, who had been peering down into the clear water, cried, 'he's coming; back for your lives.' But it was too late; the enormous body came up like a rocket or a shot from a gun, breaking water not 10 feet from the boat, just clearing it.

Up it went before the eyes of the astonished men, rising higher and higher, until it cleared the water by 20 feet, and poised directly over their heads in the most gigantic game of leapfrog ever known, where an animal weighing many hundreds of tons leaped completely into the air.

The whale not only leaped into the air bodily, but passed directly over the boat, so that the men looked upward and saw the largest living animal, its head 70 feet and its tail 20 feet above, passing over them—the most stupendous spectacle and leap ever seen. The whale fell with a tremendous crack and the boat was almost swamped by the waves that came bolling over it.

The whale now dashed away and swam around the harbor, towing both boats, as the other harpooner had succeeded in putting a lance into it, and was finally kiled after a hard struggle, the enormous creature sweeping the water in its efforts to reach the boats. It was found that in sounding the whale had struck the bottom so violently that both its jawbones were broken or shivered, so that in all probability the animal would have died.

The Fighting Maoris.

Some 300 Maoris were shut up in intrenchments at a place called Orakaw. Without food, except a few raw potatoes, without water, pounded at by artillery, and under a hail of rifle bullets and hand grenades; unsuccessfully assaulted no less than five times—they held out for three days, completely surrounded. Gen. Cameron humanely sent a flag of truce, inviting them to surrender honorably. To this they made the ever-famous reply: "Enough! We fight on, forever!" Then the general offered to let the women come out, and the answer was: "The women will fight as we!" At length, on the afternoon of the third day, the garrison in a body charged at quick march right throught the English lines, fairly jumping over the heads of the 40th regiment as they lay benind a bank. Half of them fell; the remainder got clear away. The earthworks and the victory remained with us, but the glory was theirs.

Tallow Candles as Medicine.

In France the peasantry still stick to medicines calculated to turn the average doctor's hair gray with horror. Wine is an ingredient of every prescription. In fever cases it is always the predominant one. The French peasant's faith in fermented grape-juice is truly beautiful. If his children are stricken with the measles he gives them beakers of wine, well sweetened with honey and highly spiced with pepper. For a severe cold he administers a quart of red wine and a melted tallow candle mixed. For scarlet or brain fever he gives eggs, white wine and soot well beaten together. Not all their superstitions are curious; some are pathetic. A mother, for instance, often buries her dead child with its favorite toy or a lock of her own hair in the coffin "that it may not feel quite alone."

Early Typewriting.

It is generally supposed that the typewriting machine is quite a modern invention, but there is a record in the archives of the English Patent Office for 1714 of an application for a patent for such a machine. Exactly 100 years later the firm of Bain & Wright applied for a similar grant, and the construction of their machine afforded a basis that enabled a Mr. Thurber, at Worchester, to improve the system. In the year 1815, a Frenchman of the name of Foucall obtained an English patent for a very ingenlously conceived writting machine which was shown in London the same year, and created no small sensation.

The Oldest Flag.

The Union Jack in its present form only dates from 1801. Other flags of great nations are also very new. The French tri-color was adopted in 1794; the Spanish flag, as at present displayed, in 1785; while the German and Italian banners are no older than the present administration of those countries. Curiously enough, the oldest flag belongs to the newest nation. The United States adopted their present flag as long ago as June 14, 1777, and the only change in it since has been the addition of new stars for every new State added to the Union.

His Idea of Luck.

"We don't have no luck at our house like they have over to Jimmy Smithers's."

"Why, what kind of luck do the Smithers have?"

"Jimmy Smithers's father has dyspepsia, an' there's always a piece of pie left over an' Jimmy gits it!"

MILLINERY NOTES.

Pretty Fruit Trimmings For Ball Costumes.

There are hats of all kinds this season—toques, large hats, small round ones, marquise shapes and turbans of straw, tulle or mousseline de soie. In many cases the hat or bonnet matches the gown.

Among toques the preference is given to valois toques of straw, with a trimming of spring flowers—lilac, wistaria, wild rose, hawthorn or laburnum—mingled with tulle and gauze.

A novel idea for the ball gowns of young girls is a decoration of fruit. For example, on a bodice of white gauze appears a twig of cherries, with leaves. A pink costume has the decolletage encircled by a fringe of strawberries. Of course such adornment requires to be used with moderation and judgment, but it is new and attractive, besides being charmingly juvenile. Only small fruits are available, but besides cherries and strawberries there are red and white currants, than which nothing can be prettier, as well as less edible varieties, such as hawthorn berries and rose tips.

A picture is given of a princess gown of pink foulard with black dots. It is closed at the side by jeweled buttons and pink silk cords. The skirt, which is finished by three folds, opens at the side over a lower skirt of plain pink foulard covered with cream guipure. The bodice, which has triple revers, shows a pointed chemisette of cream guipure draped over pink silk, coquilles of lace passing down the left side. The sleeves are of guipure over pink silk. The collar of pink silk is trimmed with black velvet. The hat of gold straw has a decoration of pink azaleas and white tulle.

SUMMER GOWNS.

Costume of Swiss Muslin and Other Thin Materials.

Costumes of white swiss muslin, the conventional attire of sentimental heroines of the old school, are seen in abundance, but they are not by any means of the poetically simple type. On the contrary, they are lavishly embroidered and are diversified by lines of valenciennes insertion, arranged to form stripes, squares and other ornamental designs. These gowns are worn over underdresses of colored taffeta, because that is the fashion, but as far as attractiveness goes they are much prettier over pure white, the color being confined to the belt, collar and other accessories.

The latest novelty in costumes is the toilet composed of two different fabrics and colors. For example, a skirt of white taffeta, made with many ruffles, is worn with a tunic of lavender crepe de chine, or, in the more simple class of gowns, a tunic of dark blue wool opens over a skirt of Scotch plaid. The same idea may be carried out in plain and plaid or striped cambric or zephyr or plain and fancy foulards.

A gown is illustrated which consists of a princess tunic of pearl gray crepon above a skirt of plaited nile green mousseline de soie over silk. The tunic is draped at the shoulder, where it is fastened by a rhinestone buckle, and is bordered all around with an application of white guipure. The yoke and the tight sleeves are of guipure over nile green silk, the sleeves having a puff of nile green mousseline de soie at the top.

Nora O'Flanagan, Mike O'Flanagan's wife that is, who lives around in Dead Horse alley, has just bought a pyanny fer her Mary, and, sure, mum, if they's gittin as common as thot yez don't want one."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

WOMEN'S REALM

Costume of Chavannes Green.

Chavannes green (which is the artist's present name for soft leaf green China crape) is appliqued with soft pink passion flowers, with green leaves, touched up by black spangles. One border runs around either circular ruffle of a captivating skirt. The waist is laced together with green cord over black velvet, the velvet continuing spangled around the yoke of plaited white chiffon. There is a wisp of black velvet, less than an inch deep, for a girdle. It takes a parasol all white and a hat of the same purity to make possible this seaside costume of pink and green and sparkle.

CHAVANNES GREEN WITH APPLIQUES.

Philosophy of the Eyes.

Blue eyes are said to be the weakest.

Upturned eyes are typical of devotion.

Wide open eyes are indicative of rashness.

Side-glancing eyes are always to be distrusted.

Brown eyes are said by oculists to be the strongest.

Small eyes are commonly supposed to indicate cunning.

The downcast eye has in all ages been typical of modesty.

The proper distance between the eyes is the width of one eye.

People of melancholic temperament rarely have clear blue eyes.

Eyes with long, sharp corners indicate great discernment and penetration.

The white of the eye showing beneath the iris is indicative of nobility of character.

Gray eyes turning green in anger or excitement are indicative of a choleric temperament.

When the upper lid covers half or more of the pupil the indication is of cool deliberation.

An eye the upper lid of which passes horizontally across the pupil indicates mental ability.

Unsteady eyes, rapidly jerking from side to side, are frequently indicative of an unsettled mind.

It is said that the prevailing colors of eyes among patients of lunatic asylums are brown and black.

Eyes of any color with weak brows and long, concave lashes, are indicative of a weak constitution.

Eyes that are wide apart are said by physicians to indicate great intelligence and a tenacious memory.

Eyes of which the whole of the iris is visible belong to erratic persons, often with a tendency toward insanity.

Wide open, staring eyes in weak countenances indicate jealousy, bigotry intolerance and pertinacity without firmness.

Eyes placed close together in the head are said to indicate pettiness of disposition, jealousy and a turn for fault finding.

When the under arch of the upper eyelid is a perfect semicircle it is indicative of goodness, but also of timidity sometimes approaching cowardice.

All men of genius are said to have eyes clear, slow moving and bright. This is the eye which indicates mental ability of some kind, it does not matter what.

Blue eyes are generally considered effeminate, but this is a mistake, for blue eyes are found only among Caucasian nations, and the white races rule the world.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Unimportant Bridegroom.

The bridegroom is always bashful and ill at ease from a most unwarranted sense of his own importance, for, as every one knows, no one ever notices him, unless it be the minister or the bride herself. Even his mother is scrutinizing her new daughter's air and bearing, and "the other woman" if she is there, has come only to see his last choice. But the effete east is flattering in its recognition of the bridegroom compared to the breezy west, where women most do rule. In Kansas, for instance, the bridegroom's name is not even mentioned in the wedding notices. Listen to this society note from the Stockton (Kan.) News: "Miss Della Hill is married. Her husband is a travelling man of considerable means, and she does not have to labor, not even to make her own bed. Her husband is some years older than she is and weighs 256 pounds."

The Polite Way.

"Yes, Algernon, I will be your wife!" she said simply.

The heart of the bronzed soldier beat high with joy.

"Then you have not forgotten me?" he exclaimed.

"I may have forgotten you, but I hope I haven't forgotten my manners!" she replied, with something of hauteur.

Of course, it is always the polite thing to comply with requests.—Detroit Journal.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning July 9—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—A good vacation.—Mark vi, 7, 12, 13, 30-32.

Man absolutely requires rest. It is a poor economist who makes no provision for a vacation—a season of quiet rest and recuperation. But the usefulness of a vacation depends entirely upon its character. It may be a blessing, or it may be a curse; it may stimulate us for an increased interest in the duties of life, or it may rob us of much of the interest that we previously possessed. How to make our vacation a good vacation is a very important question.

The incident in the topical reference is very suggestive. The 12 have returned from an arduous and successful tour, and Christ takes them apart for rest, fellowship and communion. It may well be called a good vacation.

1. The apostles deserved their vacation. They had labored and were weary. They had preached the gospel, cast out devils, healed the sick. They were weary because of their toils. It was impossible to rest where they were, as "they had no leisure so much as to eat." No vacation can be a good one unless it is deserved—unless we feel that because of constant, earnest effort we have a right to a rest and need it.

2. The apostles sought a suitable place for a vacation. It was a "desert place apart," a quiet, uninhabited place. Many a vacation is spoiled, so far as proper results are concerned, because the places visited are the very ones where "many are coming and going." Recreative rest is impossible in a crowded seaside resort. It means weariness and not rest, nervous depression and not recuperation.

3. The apostles had Christ with them on their vacation. He took them. The object was quiet communion with Him and fellowship with one another. Christ took them upon their search for rest. Does Christ go with us on our vacations? Do we take Him or do we leave Him behind? Alas, too many Christians leave Christ at home when they go to the seashore, the mountains or to the lakes. You would not know from their "daily walk and conversation" that they knew Christ. No vacation can be a good one unless we have Christ with us. If we leave Christ behind, it must be harmful and not helpful, injurious and not inspiring. Whatever else we do, let us take Christ on our vacations.

4. The object of the apostles' vacation was a good one. They went apart to rest awhile, that they might be the better prepared to perform the duties of the future. This is the only worthy object of a vacation—that we may be better fitted and prepared for the duties of life upon our return.

Bible Readings.—Gen. xlix, 14, 15; Ex. xx, 8-11; xxxiii, 12-14; Ps. xxxvii, 7; lv, 6; lxiv, 10, 11; Isa. xviii, 4; Jer. vi, 16; Math. xi, 28-30; xii, 43; xviii, 20; John iv, 1-10.

God's Law.

Sin is never a matter of public opinion. It takes neither shape nor color from its surroundings. It is always a transgressor of God's law, else not sin at all. God's law may or may not be in harmony with ours. We build our little social barriers and feel they bound the kingdom. So did the elders in olden times, and by this law they would try the Christ. Our general assembly is prone to give what it calls deliverances on matters concerning which the Bible knows nothing. They are at best mere opinions, which have naught to do with manhood. God's law was here before we were. It requires no action of congress or assembly to determine what it is. Envy, jealousy, hate, covetousness, malice, evil speaking—these are sin. They are not bad manners, low breeding, offensive conduct, but sin, plain, unvarnished sin. They strike at God. As such they ought to be understood and treated. There is no lesson in culture equal to a penitent hour. It uproots selfishness from the heart and makes one mindful of another.—Presbyterian Journal.

The Principal Idea.

The principal idea in life molds all others to conformity with it. Judas' principal idea was money getting, and it led up to thieving and betrayal of his Lord. The principal idea of the chief priests was the retention of their power. To do that they must murder any one who seemed more popular than they; hence the importance of having the principal idea of life right and high. What is yours?—Sunday School Times.

In the Wrong Place.

It is sometimes sickening to see the kind of men who succeed in winning popular applause. It is sometimes discouraging to note the men who fail; but, after all, in the long run, the unworthy succeed only with the unworthy, and the fitting fail to survive only when they are in the wrong place.—Christian Register.

Like the Tails of Comets.

Some books I read and some sermons I hear are like the tails of a comet. They are grand and brilliant, but extremely light. As to real solid matter, a million square miles of their substance might be condensed into one square inch of the same density of common atmosphere which supports our life.—Spurgeon.

By Our Sympathy.

We often do more good by our sympathy than by our labors and render to the world a more lasting service by absence of jealousy and recognition of merit than we could ever render by the straining efforts of personal ambition.—Archdeacon Farrar.

Garments of God.

Sorrows are often like clouds, which, though black when they are passing over us, when they are past become as if they were the garments of God, thrown off in purple and gold along the sky.—Henry Ward Beecher.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning July 9, "A Good Vacation"—Text, Mark vi, 7-12-13-30-32.

"Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place and rest awhile."

It is an old saying that "the devil never takes a vacation." This is sometimes quoted against pastors and other Christian workers who do take an occasional rest. It has no pertinence in this connection. We are not to take our orders from him nor to imitate his example. Our Master in His earthly life did rest, and told His apostles to do so. We are not wrong in following His example. No labor is so exhausting to nerve force as work of mind and soul in caring for men's spiritual needs. The manual laborer tires muscles; food and sleep repair the waste. The manager of affairs of business has a heavier task and more exhausting service in brain care and nervous strain. He needs relaxation from thought problems. Sleep and exercise and change of scene become necessary. But he who carries sorrows of heart, burdens of men's sins, anxieties of soul for the eternal well being of his fellows, taxes all powers of body, mind and spirit. He needs to escape from the sight of men to the hills and woods and sea. He needs to replace the babel of voices with the songs of birds, the murmur of breezes in the tree tops and thunder of surges on the sand. Here God speaks to him, and angels strengthen him for renewed service. Moses talked with God in the wilderness. He left the crowded camp and in the mountain top saw visions of the heavenly sanctuary which he copied for earthly service. He there learned laws which have molded the legislation of all later ages. Elijah in the same mountain height received messages from God and went back among men to anoint a prophet and two kings who should change the fate of nations.

Jesus in the mountain mapped the whole of His life course and overcame the power of the tempter. He often sought rest and recovery of strength in solitary communings by day and by night in the wilderness with Him who is the source of all strength.

But it is a great mistake to use a vacation just for pleasure. Mere enjoyment is unworthy the seeking of any one. Nor has a person the right to a vacation who has not earned it by hard toil or found the need of it in some sickness or infirmity. As digestion waits on appetite, so does benefit in vacation depend on the sense of need. These resting times should be so used as not to tax the powers already tried, but to bring to them recuperation and new vigor. Summer schools and exhausting travel may be serious mistakes in one's experience. Idleness is not always best, but change of surroundings and occupation and opening of new fields of thought and experience are valuable. Let the city worker seek the country. The country toiler may well visit the city and find new life and energy and uplift for his part in the work of the world. Whoever we are, and wherever we go, we should always get closer to God.

A World Bishop.

Little did John Wesley realize the meaning which would in after years be given the words when he uttered that memorable phrase, "The world is my parish." His labors were almost wholly confined to England, with short trips to parts of Scotland and Ireland. His travels, so extensive as to astonish the world by his ceaseless activity, were small in comparison of miles traversed with those of his helper, Francis Asbury, in America. But Asbury's journeys were short compared with those of one of our present bishops, who literally traverse the earth in their episcopal tours. Bishop Henry W. Warren was elected to the episcopacy in 1880. He was a pastor at the time. He entered the ministry in the New England conference, but filled some of the most important pulpits in other conferences before he was made bishop. He is one of the best balanced, "all round men" in the land. As preacher, administrator, writer, counselor, he is eminent. During the past year he has been visiting our South American missions. Peru and Chile on the west coast were first seen; then he crossed the Andes to Buenos Ayres, Uruguay and the east coast missions. He has supervision for two years. His next foreign field may be Europe or Japan and China. So our bishops keep oversight of the worldwide field of Methodism.

The unhappy Christian doesn't have much oil in his lamp and so the wick smokes. He has to turn it low to save oil and so it doesn't give much light. Fill up, brother, and turn up the light; plenty of oil, if you will only use it!

The man who lives mostly for self keeps very busy, but does a small business and gets little profit.

PHILIPPINE AGRICULTURE.

Observations by a Government Explorer Among Sugar and Rice Fields.

THE PRIMITIVE METHODS

A San Fernando Sugar Manufactory Which Is Owned By a Chinaman.

Six Months Work on One Crop of Cane—Climatic Conditions Exceedingly Favorable to the Production of Sugar and Rice—Hard Conditions of Agricultural Labor—Rice on Irrigated Lands.

At the present time it is somewhat difficult to ascertain the value of the Philippine Islands under normal industrial conditions. In the first place, all the industries are disturbed, and only such as are absolutely necessary are conducted with any vigor.

In Manila the distribution of money by the American army and navy causes considerable activity in some lines, but the usual trade is dull. The whole country is waiting for "something to turn up."

After my arrival at Manila, says Dr. S. A. Knapp, I determined to penetrate the insurgent lines and travel as far as they would permit. Mr. Cadwell, formerly of Iowa, joined me, and, with a Filipino for interpreter, we took the train for San Fernando, about seventy-five miles by rail. The section of country through which we passed was quite level and intersected by streams. There were a few fields of sugar cane, but most of the land was planted to rice. Occasionally a tract was irrigated, but the larger portion depended upon rainfall, and showed generally a light crop.

The harvest had just begun. Men and women were in the fields with their sickles, cutting and binding tiny bundles—two handfuls. Each bundle is then stood up—heads upon the ground and butts in the air. After standing this way about twenty-four hours it is removed and piled in small ricks on the levees which separate the rice fields. Each rick is about three feet wide by three high, and from fifty to one hundred feet long. The heads of the rice form the sides of the rick. When sufficiently dry the grain is removed by drawing the straw through a hatchel.

GRINDING SUGAR CANE.

As we approached San Fernando the lands became dryer and more sandy, and were generally planted to sugar cane. We walked out to the southern border of the city to look at a sugar manufactory owned by a Chinaman. He gave us permission to examine the premises.

It was a large factory, but more primitive than any in the United States. The cane was ground in a three-roller ox-mill geared to a small engine. For boiling the juice there were eight kettles with cast-iron bottoms and wooden sides. The juice was run into these kettles, limed and boiled; no filtering and little skimming. When sufficiently boiled it was poured into earthen jars shaped like an inverted haystack, and holding about one hundred and thirty-three pounds of sugar. In the bottom was an orifice two inches in diameter, over which a straw filter was placed before the syrup was poured in. These jars are called Pilones, and they rest upon an earthen crock holding twelve quarts, which receives the molasses.

After the sugar has stood in the pilones for some weeks it is emptied onto mats and divided into three parts, according to color, depending on drainage. The top third is fairly light, the middle third is quite dark and the bottom third looks like tar. The top and middle thirds are sun dried and packed in mats for shipping; the lower third is stored in a mat and redrained. Such sugars are worth from 1½ to 2½ cents a pound, according to grade.

The molasses is sold to be manufactured into rum. While we were there they were emptying the molasses into an immense tank in a boat, to be transported to the distillery. With such primitive methods it would not be possible to do much in the United States, but here they can work at a crop of cane for six months. The cane is twelve to eighteen months old when grinding begins, and is very rich in saccharine matter.

As a rule, only one crop of cane is obtained from a planting. This appeared so contrary to our knowledge of cane in the United States and Cuba that I made careful inquiry among owners of sugar estates in Manila, and the statement was confirmed, except upon new and rich land, where the cane is allowed to rattoon for several years.

Climatic conditions in the Philippines are exceedingly favorable to the production of sugar and rice. The enormous and uniform rainfall during the spring, summer and fall and the comparatively dry weather during the winter, when the cane is harvested, are considerations of the utmost importance to the sugar producer. Some may be disappointed by the fact that only one crop is made from each planting, but it must be borne in mind that these lands have been cropped for hundreds of years without fertilization and without the use of any renovating processes. With deeper plowing, better tillage and improved methods of extraction the sugar production in these islands will become a profitable and important industry.

MY LITTLE "PRUE."

A demure, silent little lass
I very often see;
She is the dearest, queerest girl—
Her name is Prudence Lee.

My little Prue is quaint and prim;
She comes of Pilgrim stock;
Her father was a member of
The band at Plymouth Rock.

She always wears a long, plain dress,
Of sombrest, darkest hue;
From underneath her large brown hood
Blue eyes peep out at you.

Dear little Prue of olden time—
So full of artless grace—
How well I love to sit and gaze
On thy fair sweet face.

The face that long has ceased to smile,
The witching eyes of blue;
Oh, nothing more is left of her,
My bonny little Prue

For she is but a picture now—
A child of bygone times—
Who now is looking down at me
From far and fairer climes.

THE FLOATING NEEDLE.

Several Methods of Executing This Simple Little Trick.

It is an accepted theory that a solid metallic body cannot float on the surface of water. Take a needle and be sure that it is devoid of moisture and perfectly dry. Gently place it carefully on the surface of the water, remove the hand just as carefully, and if you are fortunate the needle will be seen floating as if it was a bit of wood instead of steel. If the hand is not very steady the needle can be lowered to the water by two loops of thread, or on the prongs of a fork, failing in either of these methods, place the needle on a piece of cigarette paper, which you place on the water. As soon as the paper becomes saturated it sinks to the bottom, but the needle remains floating placidly on the top.

Philippine Pets.

Speaking of roosters, they are the native dog in the Philippines. The inhabitants pet and coddle them, smooth down their plumage, clean their combs, or pell out their tail-feathers to make them fight, to their hearts content, and it is a fact that these cackling glass-eaters really seem to show affection for their proprietors in as great measure as they exhibit hatred for their brothers. Every native has his fighting cock, which is reared with the greatest care until he has shown sufficient prowess to entitle him to an entrance into the cockpit. In case of fire, the rooster is the first thing rescued and removed to a place of safety, for babies—common luxuries in the Philippines—are a secondary consideration and more easily duplicated than the feathered biped.

It is almost impossible to walk along any street in the suburban part of the town without seeing dozens of natives trudging along with roosters under their arms, which are being talked to and petted to distraction. At every other little roadside hut an impromptu battle will be going on between two birds of equal or unequal merit, the two proprietors holding their respective roosters by the tails in order that they may not come into too close quarters. The cock-pits, where gatherings are held on Thursdays and Sundays, are large inclosures covered with a roof of thatch sewed into a framework of bamboo; they are open on all sides, and banked up with tiers of rude seats that surround a sawdust ring in the centre. Outside the gates of the flimsy structure sit a motly crowd of women, young and old selling eatables whose dark, greasy texture beggars description, while here and there in the open spaces a couple of natives will be giving their respective roosters a sort of preliminary trial with each other. As the show goes on inside, shouts and applause resound at every opportunity and at the close of the performance a multitude of two-wheeled gigs carry off the victors with their spoils, while the losers trudge home through the dust on foot.

A Clever Bantam.

Dan Parshall is the cleverest trick bantam in private life. His accomplishments are endless. For he is the prize pet of little Edith Parshall, of Chicago, who has carefully trained him until he is a most accomplished drawing-room performer.

He lies on his back on a tumbler, plays dead and comes to life at the word of command, catches the family flies and jumps a rope. He climbs a toy ladder, is an expert wire-walker and is equally happy when turned upside down, for with his toes in the air he lies like a fashionable feathered hat on Edith's bonny head.

HOW TO SPLICE A BROKEN ROD.

It Will Make It Almost as Good as New and Quite as Strong.

Many a boy breaks his fishing rod or his tennis racket, or his camera tripod, or his ball bat, and doesn't know how to mend it

If the fracture is a "splitting" break—that is, if the bat or stick is not broken "short off"—mending it by means of splicing threads or cord is one of the easiest and neatest ways in the world. It will make the rod almost as good as new and quite as strong, where glue would only be a temporary and unsatisfactory relief.

Before trying to mend anything by this means, however, it is best to get a little practice first.

say on a broken broom handle. Always use waxed cord or coarse pack thread. For large bats and handles fine fishline is the very best thing to use. Place the broken ends of the handle firmly together and hold them with the left hand or tie them temporarily with a bit of string. Make a loop from 1 to 2 as shown in the picture and lay it on top of the handle, holding it in place with the left thumb. It should be of sufficient length to reach beyond the break—represented by the dark line. Take two turns very carefully so as to hold firmly the end of the loop at 2, and then wrap the string tightly and closely around and around the stick until 1 is nearly reached. The picture represents the string loosely wound so as to show how the loop is made. In winding the real splice, of course, the string should be as close together as the thread on a spool. On reaching the end of the loop at 1 thread the loose end of the string through the loop, being careful to keep the wrapping tight. Then pull at the other end of the string at 2 until the loop is half way under the splice. Thus both ends of the string are well out of the way and perfectly secure from unwrapping. Cut off the projecting ends close to the splice, and your work is done. If very large cord is used a groove should first be cut in the wood to accommodate the loop. Soft annealing wire can be used instead of string for splicing, and it sometimes makes a much prettier piece of work.

Odd Things About Rainbows.

Did you ever see a rainbow in the west?

In discussing this curious question the Philadelphia Times gives some interesting facts in regard to a rainbow and how it is formed:

1. It is never seen except when the sun is shining in one part of the sky, and rain is falling in the other, or opposite, part.

2. It is generally seen in the east, because our showers come from the west and pass off toward the east.

3. It cannot be formed in the east except in the afternoon.

4. It cannot be formed in the west except in the morning.

5. It is never seen at midday, because the sun is then above us, and we cannot, therefore, stand between it and the rain.

Some of you may wonder why a rainbow is always semi-circular in shape. As a matter of fact, it is always a complete circle, but we cannot see but one-half of the circle, because the earth cuts off our view. If we were poised in the air, high above the earth, we could see it all. The circular shape is due to the fact that the raindrops are round and that each drop reflects but one color to our eyes. It may strike you as a strange thing, but it is true, that no two persons see the same bow. This is because no two persons can possibly occupy the same position, and thus the reflections fall differently upon their eyes.

Odd Industry for Boys and Girls.

Boys and girls of Brussels, Belgium, have been having a lesson in the value of small things. The children attending the public schools of the city were requested by their teachers to gather up, on their way to and from the school, all such apparently valueless objects as old metallic bottle capsules, tinfoil, tin cans, paint tubes, refuse metals and other things, and deliver their collections daily to their teachers.

In the period from Jan. 1 to Oct 1, 1895, or within eight months, the following amounts were collected: Tinfoil, 925 pounds; old paint tubes, 220 pounds; bottle capsules, 4,415 pounds; scraps of metal, 1,221 pounds; total, 7,781 pounds. This apparent rubbish was sold and the proceeds applied so as to clothe completely 500 poor children and send ninety sick ones to the country, and there still remained quite a balance, which was distributed among the poor sick of the city.

Oil on the Troubled Waters.

"Pouring oil on the troubled waters" as a quotation is hundreds of years old, but it is only recently that it has been actually adopted as a means for calming real storms on the ocean. Within the last few months many of the seamen who navigate our own great lakes have begun to carry oil in bags on their vessels. These bags will be hung over the sides of the ship and the oil will be allowed to dribble out slowly and form a coating over the surface of the water. Its effect is to prevent the breaking of the waves, converting the sea into long, smooth swells.

"Just see, father, how this stocking is ruined, and I've only worn it once. I thought it was because Jane had rubbed it too hard, but mother says it's all the fault of the soap that Jane used. And she wants you to be sure and order a box of Ivory Soap to-day."

A WORD OF WARNING.—There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

GOLF.

There will be the usual number of enthusiasts on the Park Golf Club links tomorrow afternoon to continue play for the Mrs. C. W. McCutchen cup. A number of the crack players were absent last week but promise to be on hand this time and compete for the trophy.

Strange to say, there are very few of the young women of the Park Golf Club who have taken any active participation in the sport so far this season. The Buttfield Cup was offered with the view of interesting a number of them in the game but so far it has not been very successful in bringing out candidates for honors.

Now that golf has become such a popular sport in Plainfield, a number of the golfers, who are quite enthusiastic over the game, have laid out putting greens on their lawns and there spend their odd moments, when they haven't time to go to the regular course, in practicing putting and approach shots.

ROD AND GUN.

Game Warden George Miller and his assistants cast a net in the Raritan river near the Head Gates for carp yesterday morning. At the first haul Mr. Miller found a large number of fine black bass in his net. After successive hauls he caught about forty carp, but the number of black bass that got in the net was so great that he was obliged to stop fishing for the carp to save the bass. Mr. Miller says there are more bass in the Raritan and its tributaries this year than has ever been known before. Some of the bass weigh six pounds each.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

"Away to the Vaudevilles!" is the midsummer tocsin of theatregoers. Naturally, in seeking diversion in the vaudeville theatres, the public turns to the Proctor continuous houses, the Twenty-third Street Theatre, just west of Sixth avenue and directly in the centre of the shopping marts, and to the Pleasure Palace at Fifty-eighth street and Third avenue, New York. At the Palace, by the way, the special summer prices to the ladies and children of only 10 cents for orchestra seats in the afternoon is crowding Mr. Proctor's uptown theatre to the capacity at the matinees. The stars at the Twenty-third Street Theatre for the week of July 10th will be: George Henry Trader, the young actor and his own company, in "Oscar's Birthday;" Musical Dale, the famous instrumentalist; Sankey Brothers, gymnasts; Daly and Devere, and thirty others. At the Pleasure Palace, week of July 10th, will be: Willis P. Sweatman, the minstrel monologist; Casino Comedy Four, comedians; Barney and Dick Ferguson, acrobatic comedians; and thirty others.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongued coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store

UP THE HUDSON.

Handsome Steamers of the People's Line Between New York and Albany.

The only four story steamboat in the world is the floating palace "Adirondack" (Capt. S. J. Roe) which is but one of the handsome boats owned by the popular People's Line, whose substantial, fast and superb steamers, including also the Dean Richmond, fly on the picturesque Hudson river between New York and Albany. These steamers are veritable floating palaces, thoroughly equipped, having electric bells and lights in every state room. They also have their dining rooms on the main deck. The People's Line is the pioneer evening line on the beautiful Hudson, connecting with all stations on the New York Central and West Shore Railroads and connecting lines. The boats of the People's Line give the most direct and altogether the pleasantest route to Saratoga, Lake George and the Adirondack summer resorts. A sail up the "Rhine of America," as the picturesque Hudson is appropriately named, will never be forgotten by those who have enjoyed it. The scenery is grand and magnificent.

The handsome steamers of the People's Line are not surpassed any where in America and the excellent service afforded is up-to date and superb in every detail. Send to W. B. Waters, general passenger agent, Albany, N. Y., for full information, time tables, etc.

DRAKE DESCENDANT CLAIMS MILLIONS.

Confident That She Has Much Property in New York.

HAS ENGAGED A LAWYER.

LANDS ON THE WATER FRONT OF EAST AND NORTH RIVERS.

Mrs. Cornelia Laing, of Oak Tree, is the Claimant, and Cites Some Wonderful History to Prove Her Right to the Valuable Property—An Irrelevant Circumstance is Also Related.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, July 8—Millions upon millions of property in New York, consisting principally of land on the water front of the East and North rivers, is claimed by Mrs. Cornelia Laing, of Oak Tree, Middlesex county, and so confident is she that part of Manhattan is hers by right of inheritance that she has retained George S. Silzer, a lawyer of this city, to look after her interests, and seek to recover what she believes to be rightfully hers.

Mrs. Laing is a grandniece of Sir Francis Drake, who is descended from Sir Francis Drake, the scourge of the Spanish Main, who chased the dons of Castile until they had neither breath nor ships left. The famous English admiral, especially honored by Queen Elizabeth for his intrepid courage and his achievement in being the first to circumnavigate the globe, left behind him several sons, to whom he had given vivid descriptions of the wealth of the New World, and one, or perhaps two of them, as adventurous in spirit as their father, emigrated to North and South America.

Mrs. Laing contends that a large tract of land on the island of Manhattan was owned in fee by Ann Seaman Drake, and that it fell to Francis Drake, reputed to be her nephew. The claimant does not make it quite clear how the land passed out of the possession of Francis Drake into other hands, and while it is asserted that the property is in the hands of the public administrator, no particulars of how that condition came about are given.

An affidavit has been made by Mrs. Laing in which a rather remarkable and seemingly irrelevant circumstance is related. She avers that her uncle, David Drake, son of Francis, told her that her father's aunt, Ann Seaman Drake, married a drover in New York. The drover's business kept him away from home a great deal, and one dark night when he had a pressing engagement he sent his negro servant to guard her. The children were tucked away in bed and Mrs. Laing's great aunt sat up for a while, with a shotgun for company. She heard a noise outside, and asked "Who's there."

No answer was given and Mrs. Laing's grand-aunt fired the gun. Next morning the body of the negro servant was found lying on the ground, his right hand clasping a hugh knife. Just what connection the killing of the negro has with the claim of part of New York's water front is not apparent, but it is part of the affidavit.

ENGINEER RICK WANTS DAMAGES.

He was on the Local Train in the West Dunellen Collision.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, July 8—E. W. Rick, the engineer of the local train that was in the collision on the Lehigh Valley Railroad at West Dunellen, January 9th, when eighteen persons were killed and forty injured, has been unable to secure a satisfactory settlement with the railroad company for the injuries sustained in the wreck, and has engaged R. V. Lindabury, of Newark, to prosecute his claim for heavy damages in the courts. Rick was badly injured, being confined in the Muhlenberg hospital in Plainfield for several weeks, and has never fully recovered from the hurts. When the wreck first occurred an attempt was made to put the blame for the collision on Rick's head, alleging that he had disregarded orders, but he claims that he followed orders explicity and that by doing so the wreck occurred and he was badly injured.

Independent Shooting Club.

One of the attractive features of the Fourth of July parade was the Independent Shooting Club. There were 14 men in line wearing light colored suits and hats. They were led by the Raritan brass band and had a handsome float, upon the top of which was a man, who personated William Tell, posing in the act of shooting the apple from Gessler's head. The float was much admired and was as unique as it was handsomely constructed.

$18,000 TO PAY FOR RUNNING BOROUGH.

The Annual Appropriation Made by the Council.

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

OLD COUNCILMEN THOUGHT $18,000 WAS NOT ENOUGH.

Councilman Valiant Questioned the Policy of Trying to Run the Borough on Too Narrow a Margin—Mayor Smalley Anxious for Lower Tax Rate and Thought $18,000 was Sufficient.

There was an unexpected difference of opinion displayed at the regular July meeting of the Borough Council last evening when the question of fixing the amount of money to be raised this year for expenses was introduced by Councilman Clark. The resolution offered by this member provided that the sum of $18,000 be fixed as the amount to be raised for the present year and that the assessor be notified to assess on that basis.

Immediately Mr. Valiant seconded the resolution, and at the same time he stated that he would oppose the same. He thought it unwise to raise a smaller amount this year than last, inasmuch as a number of notes had been left over from the last administration they would have to be cared for and a reduction in the amount to be raised he did not consider good business principle. Furthermore, he said that the Council would have to borrow money from now until December, when the taxes begin to come in. In view of these facts he thought it would be better to have enough money to meet all obligations than to keep on borrowing. He did not think the basis upon which the reduction is made was a good one, although he favored a lower rate if it would do the work. However, he thought it wise to continue the present rate.

Mr. Valiant also spoke about the debt on the Watchung avenue improvement and thought some provision should be made to liquidate that debt, and he did not think good progress would be made if a reduction in the amount should be decided upon.

Mr. Swackhamer spoke on the subject and he took the opposite view. He said that he had looked into the matter and had come to the conclusion that $18,000 would be sufficient for the present year. He did not think there would be any cause for repudiating any borough obligations, as Mr. Valiant had suggested. He spoke about the successful retrenchment of expenses, and he was convinced that if $18,000 is within a safe limit the Council has no right to go over that figure and work for a surplus.

Mr. Valiant asked Mr. Swackhamer what provision he proposed to make for paying off the Watchung avenue indebtedness of $10,000 or $12,000.

To this Mr. Swackhamer replied that in such an improvement, which is a permanent one, arrangements should be made to extend the time of payment over a period of years so that the burden would come as light as possible on all.

Mr. Clark spoke on behalf of the resolution he introduced, and stated that he had fixed the amount at $18,000 on the information furnished him by Mayor Smalley, who is in closer touch with the borough's financial matters than anyone else, although he did not claim to be wiser than the finance committee. He certainly believed that the people are entitled to a reduction even if it is a small one.

Mr. Clark stated that the street department had been allowed so much money for this year, and the committee would keep the expenses within that amount. He believed that the Watchung avenue debt should be made as light as possible. He thought that some provisions should have been made by the past administration to liquidate that debt, and to this remark Mr. Valiant took exception by stating that the present administration was trying to put it out on the next administration. By way of explanation he said that the Watchung avenue matter was in litigation and arrangements for clearing the debt was impossible last year.

At this time Mayor Smalley took a hand and President Swackhamer took the chair. He said that the amount fixed in the annual borough report was $20,400, and he thought, after careful investigation, that the amount could be reduced to $18,000. He made the assertion during the last campaign that if he should be elected Mayor he would see that the tax rate would be reduced, and he thought he could see his way clear to accomplish it. He said that he was not worrying about who would receive credit, and he

BUILDING TROLLEY NEAR CRANFORD NOW.

Lack of Rails Delays Work on the Line.

WILL OPEN BY SEPTEMBER.

WHEN MORE RAILS ARRIVE, WILL WORK EAST FROM PLAINS.

It is Expected That the Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railway Company Will Open Its Line Between Plainfield and the Roselle Borough Line by September 1st—Big Gang Working Near Cranford.

The trolley road of the Riker combination, that is planned to connect Elizabeth and Plainfield, is steadily growing. The link between Plainfield and Scotch Plains was rushed through to comply with the terms of the franchise secured in the latter village. There is a scarcity in the supply of rails and it was found necessary to bring some of the rails from Westfield to complete the Scotch Plains line. That line completed, the company has turned its attention to the part of the line near where its present supply of rails is stored.

A gang of three hundred men is now at work at Cranford under Edgar I Serrell, superintendent of construction. Tracks are being laid from the Roselle borough line through Cranford to Garwood. The road there is to be double track. There is a sufficient supply of rails now on hand to continue this work for a week or two. By that time it is hoped that the rolling mills will have shipped more. There is some work to be done between Cranford and Garwood in grading the proposed line and that is being staked out, ready for work at once.

As soon as the supply of rails warrants it, the contractors intend to start work at Scotch Plains and build the road through Fanwood toward Westfield and meet the other gang now at work near Cranford.

It is expected that the line will be complete from Plainfield through to Cranford and possibly further before the first of September. Cars will then be run over all the completed route.

LOOKS FAVORABLE FOR ROSELLE.

Trolley Company Will Undoubtedly Secure Desired Franchise.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Roselle, July 8.—The Roselle borough council last night again delayed action on the application of the Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railway Company for a franchise through that place. Another hearing will be given July 21st. It is understood, however, that the application will be granted. As an intication of such action the Council will allow the Company to lay its rails along the porposed line in anticipation of the granting of the franchise. If the Roselle Council grants the franchise, as it is almost sure to do, it will mean the total collapse of the Union county boulevard project, for the right to build a trolley road over which United States Senator Kean offered to pay Union county $250,000.

WHO IS THIS WILSON BOY?

Picked up in Brooklyn, He Persistently Says He Lives in This City.

John Wilson, the 12-year-old boy who was seized with a fit in a Flatbush avenue car in Brooklyn a day or two ago, and who claimed a home in this city, was turned over to the Gerry Society yesterday. While in the society's rooms the boy was again seized with a fit. The police believed that Wilson was shamming, but Agent Folk of the Gerry Society said there was no doubt as to the genuineness of the boy's sickness. Justice Steers, before whom the unfortunate was arraigned, accepted the opinion of the agent and discharged him and also gave him money to return to his home.

The police of this city do not believe that Wilson lives in this city. They have not learned that any boy of Wilson's description is missing from this city.

Death of Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Myra Taylor, aged 63 years, sister of George Cobb, of Fairview avenue, died at the home of the latter Thursday after a long illness with Bright's disease. A short service was held last evening at the house after which the remains were sent to Warwick, where the funeral services will be held from the late home of the deceased tomorrow.

From Cop to Teamster.

Marshal George Wise, who resigned his position at the Borough Council meeting last evening, has engaged at once in his other business, that of a teamster. The resignation took effect immediately and tonight the new appointee, Fred J. Emmons, will go on duty.

DOG WATCH HOLLOW TO BE MADE A LAKE.

Syndicate With Plenty of Capital Back of the Project.

WANT THE WATER SUPPLY.

DAM 150 FEET HIGH AND 1,000 FEET LONG TO BE BUILT.

The Artificial Lake Will Cover Several Hundred Acres and Will Furnish a Pure and Adequate Water Supply—Residents Fear Repetition of Johnstown Flood—Are Opposed to It.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, July 8—People who reside along the little stream that winds its way from Dog Watch Hollow, four miles north of Bound Brook, down to the Raritan river, are much concerned over the project that a syndicate of capitalists are pushing, which brings visions of a second Johnstown flood to their minds. This syndicate is negotiating for land and water rights at the mouth of Dog Watch Hollow, to extend for a mile or two back in the Somerset hills, and covering an area of several hundred acres of land.

It is their purpose to erect a monster dam, 150 feet high and 1,000 feet long, at the mouth of the Watch Hollow, thereby daming the stream that runs through the gully all year around. This will result in making a monster acqueduct, which would supply millions of gallons of water to be furnished to New Jersey towns and cities. The artificial pond would cover portions of Bridgewater and Warren townships, and would necessitate the abandonment of several public highways which run through the gully to the Somerset highlands in the upper section of the county.

Representatives of the syndicate are already working among the owners of the land in the vicinity to secure the necessary land and water rights. It is understood that they have already secured the rights owned by George Main, John Guttman, Andrew Main, Cornelius Giddis and several others. The syndicate is said to be backed with plenty of New York and Newark capital, and if their plans succeed it will be the solution of the problem of a proper and adequate water supply for Newark and Jersey City.

Those who live between the proposed artificial lake and Bound Brook are fearful, however, of a terrible inundation sometime by the breaking of the dam in spring freshests, and is likely they will interpose objections to its construction on the ground that it is a menace to life and property.

HIGH HONOR FOR PROF. RHEES.

Chosen President of the Rochester University—To Succeed Dr. Hill.

A high honor that is shared in a large measure by many Plainfielders has just been bestowed on Prof. Rush Rhees, formerly of this city, and now a professor in the Newton (Mass.) Theological Seminary. He has been elected president of Rochester University, to assume office in July, 1900, which will be the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of that institution. He has also been elected a trustee of that institution. Prof. Rhees succeeds David J. Hill, a native of Plainfield, who is now assistant Secretary of State. Mr. Hill resigned three years ago, and his place has been filled temporarily by Prof. H. F. Burton, who will continue during the coming year.

Prof. Rhees spent the greater part of his younger days in Plainfield and attended the public schools, from which he was graduated. He is a nephew of Charles W. McCutchen, of Rockview avenue. He is comparatively young man. Thursday evening last Prof. Rhees was married to Miss Harriet Seelye, daughter of President Seelye, of Smith College.

NO ONE TO BLAME.

County Physician Westcott Investigates the Accident to Mrs. O'Sullivan.

Crosby & Hill have received the following letter from County Physician Westcott:

July 4th, 1899.

Messrs. Crosby & Hill, Dear Sirs: A thorough investigation has been made into the facts in connection with the burning and death of Mrs. O'Sullivan at Crosby & Hill's store, Saturday, July 1st. The firm and its employes are fully exonerated in every respect. The employes deserve much credit for the heroic efforts they made to extinguish the flames, many of them rushing forward at the risk of their lives to relieve the suffering woman.

Yours truly,
F. W. Westcott, M. D.,
County Physician.

ON THE MOUNT WHERE COOL BREEZES BLOW.

A Delightful Resort is Mountain Park Inn.

AWAY FROM THE TURMOIL.

BUT LIFE IS NOT DULL THERE BY ANY MEANS.

Mrs. Ambrose Reeves, Who is in Charge This Season, is Arranging Several Smart Events for the Guests—One of the First Will Be a Cakewalk—Some Who Are Stopping There.

Up on the summit of the first range of the Watchung mountains stands the Mountain Park Inn, a delightful resort for people who want to escape the heat and turmoil of a and yet be within easy access of New York. It's cool up there, even in the warmest weather.

The Inn has been well known to moet Plainfielders in the past few years of its existence. This year this charming summer hostelry is as inviting as ever under the direction of Mrs. M. Ambrose-Reeves, the new proprietress, whose long experience in hotel management has ensured its success from the first.

There is something fascinating in the broad piazzas with their wonderful outlook over the neighboring plains in front and the deep gorge on the right. The spacious parlors and dining-room are cool and comfortable. Everything about the place lends its share toward making pleasant the life of the guests.

The guests are there to appreciate it all. The summer visitors have already begun to flock to the Inn and there is every promise of a very successful season. The month of July, although young as yet, has brought its share of guests. Others have engaged rooms for July and August. September promises to find the hotel well filled. At the request of her guests, Mrs. Ambrose-Reeves has decided to keep the Inn open until October 15th.

The life at the Inn this summer will not be a dull one by any means. Mrs. Ambrose-Reeves has made a good reputation in the past by the bountiful and complete menu she prepares for her guests. She is still devoting every attention to see that the cuisine is fully up to the usual standard. But there will be other attractions. The novel Fourth of July matinee was a foretaste of a varied list of interesting events at the Inn. With the advent of the younger guests, there will be informal dancing every week-day evening with a formal hop on Saturday nights.

The first of these events has been set down for next Saturday evening, when a "cakewalk" will be held. It is not to be given by outside talent or the hotel employes, but by the guests themselves. Miss Emma Steiner, of New York, will lead it. Miss Steiner has figured as leader in similar affairs at many of the homes of prominent New Yorkers.

Among the guests now quartered at the Mountain Park Inn are Mrs. Flora Adams Darling and her brother, John Quincy Adams, of New York. Mrs. Darling is founder-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, while Mr. Adams is a leading figure in the Betsy Ross Memorial Association. Among the other guests are Miss Brackenbridge, of San Antonio, Tex; Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Edwards, of this city; Leo Rosengarten and family, of Brooklyn; B. Koehler and family, L. C. Whiton and family, Charles S. Stickney and family, of New York; H. A. Wheeler and family, of Bayonne; Miss Gibson, of Philadelphia; Mrs. L. W. Ferris, of California; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Runyon, Mrs. F. O. Herring and G. P. Moore, of Plainfield.

Mrs. Frank Leslie, the well-known journalist, has announced her intention of spending the month of August here.

Cranford Club Effects Attached.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, July. 8—The goods and chattels of the Cranford Athletic Club, which is composed of wealthy New York business men, were attached by Sheriff Kirk last night on an attachment gotten out by Mrs. Margaret R. Thompson, owner of the building occupied as a clubhouse. She has a bill for $230, which is unpaid. Among the effects attached was the baseball suits of the members of the ball team, who made vain efforts to get them last night. Township Clerk Samuel T. Marshall is president of the organization.

BOROUGH HAS ALL THE WORK IT CAN DO NOW.

Council Declines to Construct a New Drain.

HAVE NOT ENOUGH MONEY.

COLLECTOR BROWN MAKES A DETAILED REPORT OF TAXES.

Marshal Tenders His Resignation and Fred J. Emmons is Appointed to Succeed Him—Financial Matters Provided for by the Council—Decided to Macadamize Orchard Place Immediately.

In addition to fixing the amount to be appropriated for the maintenance of the borough government this year, which is reported in another column, the Borough Council last night received a petition from J. B. Mills, Chas. Hyde and others asking the Council to lay a twelve-inch pipe for a drain on Brook and Franklin avenues, 30 feet on the former avenue and 70 feet on the latter, to carry off surface water for an extra deep gutter. The Council did not feel able to make the expenditure, as the money for the street work this year is provided for. Mr. Mills was present and urged favorable action, and thought that inasmuch as he had done a good deal for the borough they might do a little for him. He agreed to do the work if the Council would buy the pipe which would cost 13 cents per foot. Mr. Clark reported adversely on the petition and the Council refused to act favorably.

Marshal George Wise tendered his resignation, stating that he had an opportunity to engage in another business more pleasing to him. The resignation was accepted and Fred J. Emmons was appointed to take his place.

The report of Collector George F. Brown showed that $526 52 had been collected for 1897 taxes and $232 60 for 1898. The interest with Watchung avenue improvement was $795.72, special school fund money received amount to $242.98, and $8 26 was reported from Board of Health tax. The sum of $7,323 13 was reported from Watchung avenue assessment. The following amounts were also reported: Macadamizing Summit avenue, $7.50; licenses, $27.50; fines, $33; rent, $11.50; sale of dirt, $2 95; stone and labor, $2.60; balance June 1st, $3,038.85; total receipts, $12,253.11; disbursements, $5,983.82; borough fund, $540.92; Watchung avenue fund, $5,728.37, balance to date, $6,269.29. In connection with this Clerk Rowley reported that he had received $73.55 in fines, and that Recorder Long had received $17 during June from fines.

Mr. Clark, of the street committee, reported that during the past month $42.50 had been expended for labor, and that nearly fifty-one tons of stone had been used at an expense of $45.31. The total expenditures for the month were $95.81.

Mr. Valiant offered a resolution providing for the drawing of a warrant of $6,000 on account of certificates for the Watchung avenue improvement; also another resolution providing for a sufficient amount to meet interest on the $6,000 certificates now due. He offered still another resolution providing for the borrowing of $1,000 for six months to be charged to the borough account, and a fourth resolution provided for the acceptance of six per cent. on the payments for the Watchung avenue improvement for an indefinite time.

Mr. Clark brought up the matter of macadamizing Orchard avenue, according to a petition received. He stated that $115 had been subscribed by the property owners, of which amount $90 had been paid in. He stated that the work would cost about $200 and he reported favorably on it, and moved that the work be started at once. Mayor Smalley stated that one man had not paid his subscription, but he knew he was good for it, but if he did not pay he would guarantee the payment. The Council decided to do the work.

Mr. Clark brought up the matter of an open fire well on Jackson avenue near Watchung avenue. He said that frequently he had to put the cover over the well for he feared that children would fall in and a suit for damages would be started against the borough. Superintendent of Highways Thomas Doud was present and he said that the well was being filled up with dirt. Mr. Clark stated that he understood that a surface drainage was running in the well, and he thought that some provisions should be made for perfect safety. The matter was finally left to the street committee to attend to after which the Council adjourned.

POLITICAL SNARL IN UNION COUNTY.

All the Plums Must Not Be Given to Elizabeth.

VOORHEES FOR HARMONY.

GOVERNOR AND SENATOR KEAN WANT REPUBLICANS TO WIN.

This May Be a Difficult Job if Bob Houston's Friends Insist and Elizabeth Captures Both Senator and Sheriff—Democratic Organization Said Not to Be So Bad After All.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, July 8—New Jersey politicians are ever on the alert. Even during the hot weather they continue their slate-making and slate-smashing just as industriously as if the thermometer was close to the zero mark. Of course, the Republican politicians are the busiest, because their party is in the ascendancy, and they want to keep it there. Excepting in a few counties they have much to lose and nothing to gain.

There is no doubting the fact that the Republicans are in a snarl in most of the big counties, and if they are not careful they will come out at the small end of the horn at the November election. In Union county there is an element in the party which is showing opposition to the renomination of former Judge Cross for the State Senate. The real leaders of the party there are in favor of Mr. Cross' nomination, and doubtless they will be successful in bringing it about. It is well understood that Governor Voorhees, Congressman Fowler, Senator Kean and former Mayor Rankin, of Elizabeth, are heartily in favor of the Judge. That, it seems, should settle the matter; but it does not. There has always been a rivalry in Union between the Republicans of the city of Elizabeth and those of the townships over a division of the offices. The township people charge that Elizabeth now enjoys a monopoly, and that it is about time that it was broken up. On the strength of this they claim the nomination for Senator, and they have brought out no less a person than former Assemblyman J. Martin Roll for the office. Had they named any other candidate, perhaps the leaders would pay more attention to their suggestion. The contrast between Mr. Cross and Mr. Roll is so great as to provoke redicule.

Besides a Senator, Union county will also elect a Sheriff and a County Clerk. The nominations for these lucrative offices, are naturally, much sought after, and have much bearing on the Senatorship. One thing seems certain—all these fat plums must not be given to Elizabeth, or there will be merry war all arounnd, much to the edification of the Democrats, who have not thrown up the sponge, by any means. They are biding their time, so as to profit by the mistakes of the enemy.

In a conversation held with a prominent Republican of Union the other day he stated that, while the nomination of Mr. Cross was almost assured, there was much ill-feeling over the other offices. For a number of years the nomination for Sheriff had been promised to Assemblyman Houston. These promises have never been kept, and, consequently, his friends are now up in arms in his behalf. They insist that he must get the nomination this time, or else trouble will be caused by the rank and file, which may lead to disaster to the whole ticket. Mr. Houston has a large and influential following at Elizabethport, where he lives, and without their active participation in the campaign the Republican ticket would surely go under. It will never do then to disappoint Mr. Houston. But, again, should he be given the nomination, the monopoly charged against the city of Elizabeth would be continued, and the township people would resent it with bitterness. Here is where the dilemma comes in, as caused by the office-seekers of the rival sections of the county. It is stated that County Clerk Howard is almost certain of a renomination. He was the first Republican clerk elected in Union in a number of years, and it would be considered unsafe now to throw him overboard.

Naturally Governor Voorhees and Senator Kean take much pride in keeping their county in line for their party. They are doing their utmost in the interest of harmony, and they hope to be able to settle the difficulty over the nominations for Senator and Sheriff. The Democratic organization there is not in as bad a way as some people imagine. It is not so many years since the county was considered doubtful. In fact, in those days the now minority party used to elect

RESCUING FLOOD VICTIMS

Government Life Saving Crew Doing Some Excellent Work in Texas.

BUSINESS IS SUSPENDED.

All Railroad Communication Between Northern and Southern Texas Is Completely Cut Off.

Reports of Damage Still Continue to Come In—Many Who Take Refuge on the Hills Have Nothing to Eat But Green Melons—Relief is Hurrying to the Distressed.

Dallas, Texas, July 8.—The railroad situation because of the floods is so much worse that the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe has had to abandon its through trains from St. Louis and Kansas City at Dallas and Fort Worth respectively. The Santa Fe had, until Friday night by running on a roundabout way, managed to get through to Galveston, but the new washouts in the lower Brazos country stopped even this traffic. The abandonment of the Santa Fe trains severs the last link of anything like direct connection between Northern and Southern Texas. To reach these points now, it is necessary to travel via Shreveport, La. The flood damage to railroad property in Texas is now conservatively estimated at more than $3,000,000.

A dispatch from Richmond says: "Business is practically suspended. Many plantations are under water. All trains save those on the Southern Pacific West have been abandoned. Provisions are running low, and unless something is done quickly there will be great suffering here within a few days. It is believed there will be at the very least from 3,000 to 5,000 persons to feed from this place within a week.

"Stories of drowning and disasters are coming in constantly. The water has reached the river bridge, and is dashing between the iron guy rods under it, and for the first time the railroad company has stopped all traffic over it."

The special Santa Fe train, which left Galveston for Thompson and Arcola, has returned, with the officials of the road aboard. They had left the rescuers to do their work, which was progressing well. General Superintendent Ressegue seemed to believe that the people were not suffering at the places visited. He said:

"I am of the opinion there have been no casualties in that immediate region. It appears the people had time to get to high ground. On the approaches to our bridge there are at least a hundred people, who are comfortable and propose to stay there until they either have to move or the flood subsides. They have a tent and provisions enough to last them for ninety days.

"The crews of the life-saving station are doing excellent work. These boats were just what was needed. They took up two life boats, a cedar boat and a skiff and we furnished four boats from our picnic grounds. All these were manned by men from the Cutter Galveston.

The following is the list of the drowned in Robertson County:

T. S. Dawson, Joe White, Joe White's two sons, Mart Turner, two unknown men, white; Dave White, colored; Tom Tyson, colored; Rosanna Brown, colored; Loua Chop, Chinese; two children of Tom Dallas, colored; four men on Tom Anderson's farm, colored; five men below Hearn, colored; Illely Norcross, colored, making a total of 23.

Situation Grows Worse.

Galveston, Tex., July 8.—A special despatch from Duke says: "The flood situation grows in seriousness. The river rose three feet during the night and is still rising. The life savers from Galveston have started out to rescue the imperilled inhabitants.

"A message has been received here by Capt. Hutchings inquiring if anything has been heard of Chief Engineer Felt of the Santa Fe Railroad, who started from Thompson's, coming this way Thursday. Nothing has been heard from him yet. Refugees are flocking from all sides of the river, which is now between ten and twelve miles wide here. The only pieces of the Santa Fe track not submerged between Duke and Crabb are at the Brazos River proper, where the big bridge and just a little of the embankment still are dry. All smaller bridges between these points are gone. One mile of trestlework will have to be rebuilt before the trains can pass.

Four more deaths by drowning have been reported near here in the last twenty-four hours. The dead are Elias De Shay, negro, of Juliss plantation; Mrs. Adams, an aged white woman, drowned near Oyster Creek; Mose King, a negro, who lived two miles north of Duke; a child of Henry Snow, negro, drowned five miles northwest of here.

W. B. Fordtran of Galveston, whose plantation is near here, telegraphed to the Dominican Sisters of Galveston to send a special train here. Four girls from the Sister's Academy have been staying at Fordtran's plantation. He considers the situation critical. Fordtran reports 300 refugees on Blue Ridge, three miles north of Duke; 250 at Howard's plantation, seven miles north of Duke, and 200 at Stafford's, a station on the Southern Pacific, with no food except green watermelons.

His Head Was Cut Off.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio, July 8.—R. H. Tyler was at the Hocking Valley Depot to see his niece, Mrs. Mame E. Beckwith, of Fostoria, off for home, and had entered the car to get her a seat. As he was coming out he stumbled and fell under the train, and his head was severed from his body. He was formerly a Captain in a local military company.

Skyrocket Killed Him.

Montpelier, Ohio, Juy 8.—At Tedrow Joseph Searbrouch was struck by an accidently lighted skyrocket, which entered his back, penetrating the lungs and causing death.

MISS WILLARD'S MEMORIAL

Novel Plan to Pay the Debt on the Chicago Woman's Temple.

Chicago, July 8.—The Trustees of the Chicago Woman's Temple recently put into operation, a novel plan of raising money for the Institution which is proving popular among the friends of temperance and bids fair to bring in a large amount of money. The new plan consists of a little book, containing one hundred coupons, each of which represents ten cents, making ten dollars for each book. The person first receiving one of the books tears out coupon No. 1, writes his or her name on the face of it, and then mails the coupon with a dime to the Temple Treasurer, James H. Eckels. After registering his name in the back, the book is mailed to a friend who follows the example of the first contributor, tearing out the next coupon, and so on until the entire one hundred are exhausted. The idea works on the principle of the chain letter, but there are no letters to write as the book explains itself to every person receiving it. By this method a great many people are reached who contribute a small amount and who would, perhaps, never think of giving to the enterprise in any other manner.

These little books have been mailed to persons in all parts of the United States and hundreds of letters are daily arriving at the Temple, containing amounts ranging from ten cents to ten dollars.

The Trustees of the Temple are endeavoring to raise $300,000 to secure legal control of the building, when it will be made a memorial to the late Frances E. Willard. Of this amount, $210,000 has been provided for, leaving only $90,000 yet to be raised. Marshall Field of Chicago, has promised a donation of $100,000 to the Temple, provided the Temple trust bonds are retired by Jan. 1, 1900.

The Temple has had a hard struggle the past few years, but its friends are now coming to its rescue, and it is hoped that within a few months it will be free from debt.

A Murderer Suicides.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 8.—William Keaton, who on June 6 shot his wife, Ida, inflicting wounds from the effects of which she died on July 4, has committed suicide in his cell in Moyamensing Prison, by hanging himself with his suspenders. Keaton also shot two other women at the time he fatally wounded his wife, but their injuries were not serious. The prison officials refused to allow Keaton to attend his wife's funeral, which is said to be the cause of his suicide.

Stale Beer May Kill Him

Springfield, Ohio, July 8.—Wiegel Brunner, an eight-year-old boy living on Central avenue, drained the beer from kegs used at a picnic and drank it. He became beastly intoxicated, abused his mother and finally fell unconscious on the ground. He was removed to the station house, where a physician was called to treat him. The doctor has little hope of his recovery.

Arrests In Murder Case.

Bay Shore, L. I., July 8.—The authorities have arrested on a charge of killing of John Dunn, the colored coachman, near the railroad depot on the morning of July 5, Frank Thompson, Richard Johnson and Mrs. Ira Cuffie, all colored. Johnson is proprietor of the dance hall where Dunn spent the night. At the inquest the evidence showed that on the night of July 4 Thompson and Dunn had a quarrel in the dance hall.

Fought Girl in Duel.

Arlington, Ill., July 8.—Charles W. Saltseman and Miss Kate Horfoldsteimer fought a duel with revolvers in a buggy near Seatonville, Ill., and the doctors believe both will die.

The cause of the duel was the desire of the young woman that Saltseman should marry her, and the refusal of the young man who had been keeping the company of Miss Horfoldsteimer for many months.

Big Independent Brewery.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., July 8.—The Berghoff Brewing Company is to be reorganized within the next few days and its capital will be increased to $250,000. New members of the company will be T. B. Shoaff, of New York, and A. B. Trentman and S. B. and W. H. Fleming, of this city. Hubert Berghoff said: "The new company will be independent of any combine."

Prisoner Thrashed Captor.

Plainfield, N. J., July 8.—Michael E. Maloney, of Newark, now confined in the Somerset County jail, has made a record as one of the most refactory of prisoners. Maloney, committed for drunkenness, tore up the papers under Justice Dunster's nose, then threw a big law book at his head. After being bound with a rope he thrashed a constable. A crowd lay down on him until he was subdued.

Yale to Run a Bank.

New Haven, July 8.—The Yale treasury will, it is expected be turned into a regular bank next fall. For five or six years the treasury has taken money on deposit from students as an accommodation. The demand for a regular banking service has grown so great that the change is regarded as almost certain.

Storm at Stormville.

Matteawan, N. Y., July 8.—A violent storm passed over this section of the country doing considerable damage. The large stock barn of George E. Harpell at Stormville was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Many valuable cattle perished in the fire.

Fatal Mine Explosion.

Newark, July 8.—A telephone message from Dover, N. J., reports that a mine explosion occurred at Port Oram in which Superintendent Edwin Mills and two miners, William Murtha and Fred. Shiffner, were killed.

The Fleet Leaves Newport.

Newport, July 8.—The North Atlantic Squadron has left here for Portsmouth, N. H., and Portland, Me., with Capt. H. C. Taylor, of the Indiana, in command

President McKinley Would Like to Shake Hands With All of Them.

A REVIEW AT PITTSBURG.

Wants to Personally Thank all of Those Who Took Part in the Philippine Campaign.

Returning Volunteers From Philippines to be Paid on Train After Leaving San Francisco—Gen. Henderson Leaves Washington With a Contented Mind.

Washington, July 8.—The East may have a review of returned volunteers from the Philippines before the West celebrates the arrival home of her gallant boys who have also been fighting in the Philippines. The President has promised to stop at Pittsburg on his way to St. Paul next month and review the troops of the Tenth Pennsylvania, who are expected back to the Smoky City about the first of next month. When Gov. Stone and the Pittsburg committeemen mentioned the fact to the President that he could stop over in Pittsburg on his way to St. Paul and in this way greet the Pennsylvanias, who had done such excellent work in the Philippines, the President readily consented, saying: "I feel that I want to grasp the hand of every soldier who fought in the Philippines, and thank each man personally for the great honor they have done their country."

Gen. Henderson, has left for the North, where he and his family are going to spend the rest of the summer, and was in a particularly happy and contented frame of mind. He is in excellent health, and is ready for the great work ahead of him as Speaker of the next House. He was quite busy conferring with various members of Congress who called to see him during his visit, but he himself did more listening than talking. The General is satisfied that there will be no necessity for an extra session of Congress, and went away with the intention of remaining at the sea shore until late in the summer. After his talk with the President, he said that there was nothing ahead to necessitate an extra session but some unforeseen event in the Philippines, and in view of the President's action in raising new regiments and the recent reports from Gen. Otis there was little or no likelihood of anything occurring there to call Congress together.

The War Department has decided to muster out the Pennsylvania soldiers at San Francisco, but not to pay them until the trains bearing the troops have started on their homeward way. Thus, the soldiers will get their money before they get home, but they will not have a chance to spend it in San Francisco. The committee that came here with Gov. Stone was told by Gen. Corbin that this plan had been adopted in regard to all the regiments. While it may be disappointing to the Californians not to have the soldiers paid in that State, yet this method will be of the greatest advantage to the soldiers themselves, for it will bring home with them and give to their families, large sums of money which otherwise in many instances, would be wasted. Some idea of what this means can be gained from the fact that the Tenth Pennsylvania will be paid over $120,000 alone, more than $1,000 to each soldier, for there are only about 750 men in the regiment.

The President is receiving hundreds of telegrams and letters from all over the country congratulating him on his selection of officers for the new Philippine regiments. He has certainly struck a popular chord by naming only regular army men to command the new regiments and selecting as other field officers men who have seen service in the late war and who have won the deserved promotions. The army men are also delighted at the President's course and claim it a great victory for the regular service. The fact that regular army men and experienced officers are to command the new regiments will have great effect upon the enlistments, and a better class of men will enlist, knowing that they are to serve under tried and gallant officers.

It has just been discovered that one of the young lieutenants recently appointed in the army has yet to celebrate the fifth anniversary of his birth. The discovery created a good deal of talk in army circles and set every one to asking why the President had nominated a child to a command in the army. It was then explained that the young man was 19 years old, having been born on the 29th of February, 1880, and, therefore only had a birthday once in four years. He is beyond doubt the youngest man in the United States army so far as birthdays go.

Capt. Louis C. Scherer, of the Fourth Cavalry, leaves next week for the Philippines, where he has been ordered to join his regiment. Capt. Scherer, during the war, was connected with the Army Information Bureau, which was part of the Adjutant-General's office. He was especially valuable in inventing ciphers for the use of the army in Cuba and the Philippines. Since the war ended Capt. Scherer has been in charge of the work of preparing the pictorial history of the war and arranging the thousands of photographs sent to the War Department.

A CASE OF SELF-DEFENSE.

The Slayers of General Luna Have Been Acquitted on These Grounds.

THE TRIAL IS AT AN END.

Testimony Presented Showing That General Luna Had Conspired to Assassinate Aguinaldo.

Other Officers Claimed to Have Been In the Plot to Kill the Filipino Leader and Make Luna Dictator—General Bates to Make a Trip To the Sulu Islands.

Manila, July 8.—The trial at Cabanatuan of the slayers of Gen. Luna, the Filipino leader, who was assassinated by the guard of Aguinaldo's residence, is ended. The accused were acquitted on the ground of self-defense.

The testimony showed there was a conspiracy on the part of Luna and other officers to kill Aguinaldo and make Luna dictator.

Luna's death seems to have strengthened Aguinaldo's leadership for the time. Luna's supporters are now outwardly loyal to Aguinaldo.

The transport Churruca is to take Gen. Bates to the Sulu Islands on a diplomatic mission. The General will endeavor to arrange an understanding with the Sultan of Sulu, who claims to be friendly to Americans. Under the Sultan's treaty with Spain he received a subsidy.

Gen. Wheaton is to take command of Gen. Hale's Brigade at San Fernando. Gen. Hale is returning to the United States with the Colorado regiment.

The members of the Spanish colony here are lionizing the survivors of the Spanish garrison of Baler, who returned here with the Spanish Commissioners sent to treat with the Filipinos for the surrender of the Spanish prisoners. A dozen banquets have been arranged in their honor and a subscription has been started for their relief.

Lieut. Martin, the only surviving officer of the garrison, denies the story that he killed Capt. Morenas because he tried to raise a white flag. Martin says the Captain died of berri-berri.

The Wheeling Strike.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 8.—Judge John J. Jackson of the United States bench has taken a hand in the case of Deputy Marshal J. E. Kaster, and has ordered his release on a writ of habeas corpus, thus taking the matter out of the hands of the State courts. Last Saturday night Deputy Kaster shot and slightly wounded William McFarland, a Benwood mill man, because he had attempted to escape arrest for yelling at the non-union employes of the Wheeling Railway Company.

The affair resulted in serious riots. The marshal was arrested by the Benwood police and sent to jail in default of bail. The interference of the State courts has resulted in a clash, and it is hinted that the town's authorities will be drawn into the United States courts and punished if found guilty. As soon as Judge Jackson was officially informed of the action of the Benwood authorities he issued a writ for the release of the imprisoned deputy, who is now at Parkersburg. Benwood is a town made up of mill workers whose conduct in the big trolley strike has been highly offensive to the Uuied States authorities.

Wharf Privileges in Porto Rico.

Washington, July 8.—There was a further discussion at the Cabinet meeting in regard to wharf privileges in Porto Rico at points where the Government asserts ownership of adjacent waters to a line drawn sixteen feet from the parallel with the shore. It was decided, upon advice of the Attorney-General, that wharves might be built at such places, but that the permission is subject to revocation in special instances where the needs of the Government may require it.

Amos Bowman, of Marietta, Dead.

Lancaster, Pa., July 8.—Amos Bowman of Marietta died here at the age of 62 years. He was President of the First National Bank, President of the Marietta Hollow Ware Company and director of the Marietta Gravity Water Company and various turnpike companies, as well as manager of the large estate of the late Col. James Duffy of Marietta.

Stripped of His Limbs.

Calumet, Mich., July 8.—Nineteen sticks of dynamite exploded at the bottom levels on No. 6 shaft of the Osceola mine, blowing the arms, legs and head off one man named John Dekli and seriously injuring several others. Mine Inspector Hall is conductig an investigation of the accident.

Wreck on Burlington.

Kansas City, July 8.—A northbound passenger train on the Burlington Railroad went through a culvert near Waldron, Mo., seventeen miles north of Kansas City. Fireman Charles Welty, of St. Joseph, Mo., was killed, and five or six passengers are reported to have been injured seriously.

Stranglers Nabbed.

Buchanan, Mich., July 8.—Two men supposed to be the murderers of Martin Meier, the wealthy recluse, who was strangled to death at his home in Chicago, June 7, have been arrested here. One man goes by the name of Smith and the other says his name is Brock.

Milan's Defender Rewarded.

Belgrade, July 8.—It is announced that Major Lukitch, who was with former King Milan when an attempt was made to assassinate His Majesty, has been promoted for his valor in defending the former King.

Col. A. T. Britton Dead.

Washington, July 8.—Col. A. T. Britton, First Vice-President of the American Security and Trust Company, and widely known in financial circles, died at his country home near this city.

A LOAD OF DEMONS.

The miseries of dyspepsia and biliousness are like a load of demons. Each misery has a different name, but they all belong to one fiendish family. And they all travel together. No use trying to get rid of any one of them by itself; you can't shake off a single passenger. The only way is to cut the traces and quit the whole load at once. Headache, nervousness, constipation, mental depression, dizziness, dullness, lassitude, catarrh, skin eruptions, liver complaint and a hundred other complaints are all caused either by a disordered stomach or sluggish liver or bowels. Put these three great life-supporting functions in regular condition and all the horrible symptoms will disappear together. That is what Ripans Tabules do. That is why they completely cure every form and symptom of biliousness and indigestion.

They cure the severest long-standing cases which have been pronounced "incurable." They cure after everything else has failed. They cure so that you stay cured. The most skeptical people, whose sufferings had caused them to lose all faith in medicine, have been cured and convinced by

RIPANS TABULES.

There is no other remedy for dyspepsia and constipation so absolutely perfect and certain in its action.

They are more than a mere relief. They impart new organic strength and tone to the stomach and the entire digestive tract so that digestion becomes a natural and easy process. They are the prescription of a regular physician; and are recommended by the most skillful doctors in the world, as perfectly mild and harmless, yet absolutely certain in their effect. They are specially valuable as a regulator and preventive for people of sedentary occupations, particularly women.

The great danger of dyspepsia and constipation is that they weaken and poison the entire system, leaving it open to serious, often fatal, diseases. Ripans Tabules insure a constant supply of pure blood and a vigorous condition to resist dangerous illness. If you are dragging a load of dyspeptic trouble, RIPANS TABULES WILL CUT THE TRACES.

Two Feet of Pain.

Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.

Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.

Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:

ENDEAVORERS PROTEST.

They Do Not Want Expositions to Do Business on Sunday.

Detroit, July 8.—The trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor met and discussed several matters of considerable importance yesterday that had been overlooked at previous meetings. One of these was the consideration of a protest from the Ministerial Alliance of Toledo against the opening of the gates of the Ohio centennial on Sunday. After some discussion, and contrary to the expressed wishes of the Toledo representatives who were present, a general resolution was authorized protesting in the name of the Christian Endeavor Society against opening the gates of any National exposition or fair on the Sabbath.

Another resolution was authorized protesting against the seating of Congressman-elect Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah.

The trustees also discussed the 1900 convention at London and the methods and rates of ocean transportation, but adjourned without definite action. A plan is under consideration for the chartering of several large ocean steamships to carry the American Endeavorers to England. Secretary Baer says the idea is to make a straight fare for all parts of the ship and have the second cabins and steerages fitted up as nearly as possible on an equality with the first-cabin staterooms, and also to allow passengers full privileges of the upper decks and provide them with all possible conveniences.

Last evening's session was devoted principaly to evangelistic exercises.

Captain Dickens' Wife Killed.

Washington, July 8.—Official and unofficial Washington alike are shocked by the tragic death from an explosion of gasoline in her home just west of the British Embassy of Mrs. Marguerite Dickins, one of the best known women in social, literary and charitable circles in Washington, and wife of Captain Francis W. Dickins, first assistant in the Bureau of Navigation. The accident had many distressing features and came as a fearful blow to Captain Dickins, who was suddenly summoned home from the Navy Department to find his wife dead and the upper part of his house a wreck.

Killed Mother-in-Law and Himself.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 8.—On Wednesday morning Zane Ferguson, who resides near Wilbur, Ritchie county, went to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Hester Davis, on Little Camp Mistake, with his rifle. He fired at the woman, the ball entering her back causing death. To end the tragedy Ferguson shot himself with a revolver the same evening, causing instant death. He was fleeing from a posse at the time of his suicide. The cause of the murder was domestic trouble.

Idaho Mine Troubles.

Wallace, Idaho, July 8.—A deputy marshal went to the Last Chance mine and told the foreman, John Pressley, to make all men without permits apply for them within five minutes. Pressley walked out of the mine vowing he would never apply for a permit, and several miners followed his example.

Later notices were posted that all men who had quit work could return if they wanted to, but only a part of them acceped the invitation.

Used His One Good Arm.

Altoona, Pa., July 8.—Sergeant H. C. Scribner of the 6th Regiment of Infantry, who was wounded in the thigh in the Cuban campaign, has opened a recruiting station for the United States Army in this city. A one-armed man applied and when examination was refused him on account of his physical disability he made a drive at Scribner's head with his good arm. The sergeant dodged the blow and the willing warrior was ejected.

Big Steam Yacht Sunk.

New York July 8.—As the steam yacht Fra Diavalo was steaming down the Hudson River a short distance north of the Battery, she was struck by the wrecking tug Hustler and sunk. The Hustler is one of the fleet of the Merritt-Chapman Wrecking Company, and one of the strongest in the harbor. No lives were lost.

To Settle Tin Plate Wage Scale.

Pittsburg, July 8.—The Conference Committee of the Amalgamated Association and the Independent Manufacturers have gone to Chicago, where the conference on the wage scale for the current scale year will be reopened with the Executive Committee of the American Tin Plate Company.

Admiral Cervera Acquitted.

Madrid, July 8.—Admiral Cervera and the other commanders of the Spanish fleet destroyed in the battle of Santiago, whose conduct has been the subject of inquiry by special court martial, have been acquitted and formally liberated.

O'Brien Defeats Hawkins.

New York, July 8.—Jack O'Brien got the decision over Dal Hawkins, of California, in a twenty-round glove contest before the Broadway Athletic Club. O'Brien showed to better advantage than the Californian from the first to the last round.

KIDNAPED CHILD RETURNED

A Farmer is in Jail on Complaint of a Little Girl.

Woodbury, N. J., July 8.—Della May Lewis, the eight-year-old girl who is alleged to have been kidnapped by Patrick Rany, a farmer of Malaga, has been returned to her parents, John and Mary Lewis, of 14 South Tenth street, Darby, Pa.

The child was found almost in a nude state, covered with wet bags, lying in the bottom of Rany's wagon, which was under the shed at a hotel in Barnsboro. He had driven with the little girl a distance of about twenty miles through a heavy rainstorm. He was under the influence of liquor and on reaching the hotel went to bed, leaving the little girl in the wagon. She was discovered there by Joseph Zurita, a young man, of Philadelphia, who had traced Rany's wagon to Barnsboro.

Rany was hurried off to jail, as it was feared he would meet with violence if he fell into the hands of the excited farmers.

Rany will be prosecuted on a charge of abducting the girl.

Stone Commends the Plan.

Harrisburg, July 8.—Gov. Stone in an interview here is quoted as commending the plan of the War Department in deciding not to pay the volunteer troops until the train which will bear them to their destination has left San Francisco. He believes that it will aid many of the soldiers greatly in keeping what the government has saved for them during the campaign in the Philippines.

Arbitration Plan is Up.

The Hague, July 8.—The Third Committee of the Peace Conference discussed the scheme for the Mediation and Arbitration Convention drawn up by the Comte d'Examen. It was decided that when the committee adjourns it will be until next Friday, in order to allow the delegates a week in which to consult their governments and receive final instructions. The scheme is headed "Draft of Convention for the Pacific Settlement of International Conflicts." The first part deals with the maintenance of general peace; the second part with arbitration.

Ticket Scalpers Enjoined.

Detroit, July 8.—Judge Lillibridge, in the County Court, sustained the temporary injunction issued on Monday enjoining the local ticket brokers from "scalping" Christian Endeavor tickets. He, however, modified the injunction by limiting its operation to the sale of the special limited ticket requiring the purchaser's signature. This judgment applies only to the tickets of Michigan railroads. Judge Swan, of the United States Court, will hear the petition of the foreign railroads on Monday.

Jeffries and Mitchell Sure to Meet.

London, July 8.—Jim Jeffries and Charlie Mitchell will fight ten two-minute rounds with five ounce gloves between August 25 and 30. The place of meeting is to be decided later. The fight will be governed by Marquis of Queensbury rules, with the exception that there will be no hitting in the clinches or breakaways. Brady, manager for Jeffries, and Mitchell met and ratified a match on the terms described. The referee and timekeeper will be mutually agreed upon later.

Dreyfus' Health is Good.

Rennes, July 8.—Dreyfus's health is now good. He sleeps well and his power to reason and understand everything clearly has returned. He is studying the papers furnished him by his lawyers. Dreyfus says that his treatment on Devil's Island varied with the strength of the agitation in his case. Sometimes he was treated well and again like the worst criminal.

Golf Stick Gouged Her Eye Out.

Morristown, N. J., July 8.—Mrs. Thomas Nesbit, of Mendhan, N. J., has had her left eye gouged out with a golf stick. Mrs. Nesbit was watching the play of a friend, Miss Thompson, on the private golf links of Harris Thompson, of this place. She stood close to the tee, and Miss Thompson, in attempting to drive, struck Mrs. Nesbit accidentally with the driver.

Death Beats a Divorce.

Plainfield, N. J., July 8.—Death has made it unnecessary for Chancelor McGill to sign the decree of divorce which Mrs. John Wilson had obtained from her husband. Since the decree was granted, on the ground of desertion, Wilson has died in the City Industrial Home.

Broker's Wife Bankrupt.

Boston, July 8.—Mrs. Caroline G. Mussey, wife of Edward W. Mussey, a stock broker living at the Bartol, on Huntington avenue, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. Her total liabilities exceed $76,295.79. The only assets are jewels, scheduled at $950.

State Printing Contract Let.

Albany, N. Y., July 8.—The legislative printing contract for two years beginning January 1 next, has been awarded to John A. McCarthy, of Albany, for $138,315.47.

Judge Grosscup Much Better.

Ashland, O., July 8.—Federal Judge Crosscup is considerably improved. He is now believed to be on a fair way to complete recovery.

When You Are Away

For a week, or a month, or the whole summer, there is nothing more welcome than the news from home. There is only one way to get this news in the right shape, and that is by having The Daily Press sent to you at your vacation stopping place. When leaving town for a season be sure to order The Daily Press to follow you by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired. Ten cents a week will cover all expenses.

COMING EVENTS.

July 9—George M. Bittenhouse will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. at 4:15 p. m. Vocal and instrumental music.

July 10—Monthly meeting of the Volunteer League at Y. M. C. A.

The Borough's Tax Rate.

The determination of Mayor Smalley and his Councilmanic colleagues to reduce the tax rate in the borough the coming year is a laudable one. There is nothing that touches the people of a community so favorably, in relation to the municipal government, as a moderate tax rate, or at least one which is made by a sensible and economic administration of affairs. It is evident that the present borough admistration is going to strive hard for that goal of popularity.

In this day and age, when such numerous improvements are demanded hither and thither in the domain ruled over by municipal officials, it is a difficult and ingiorious job to do what is just right. It can be reasonably assumed that the granting of one improvement and the refusal of another is bound to make illfeeling towards the officials by the ones who would have profited by the one that is not made.

It requires a delicate discrimination, therefore, to keep matters evenly balanced, and it is here where officials are most liable to err in deciding as to where, when and how a limited sum of money shall be spent, especially when all have a common right to the benefits that must come from it.

With an appropriation of only $18,000 it will be readily admitted that the borough will not be able to indulge in any frills, but with a reduced tax rate everyone will be happy notwithstanding.

JOCKEY REIFF, TOD SLOAN'S NEW RIVAL.
Tod Sloan's American rival, Johnny Reiff, known as "Midget" Reiff, who is hotly disputing the first place on the English race tracks, comes from Kansas. Johnny rides at 82 pounds and is considered a wonder. He has been riding only a year, but has scored many successes.

Municipal Owners of Water Supply.

Former Mayor Fisk, when he was at the head of the city govenment, urged the Common Council to take steps to acquire the Plainfield Water Supply Company's plant. The suggestion in Mr. Fisk's message was as far as the matter ever progressed until Mayor Rockfellow assumed the duties of chief magistrate of the city. He, too, called attention to the advisability of municipal ownership, and urged the Council to take active steps in that direction. But seemingly the project was sleeping soundly, the meanwhile city and individuals paying enormous rates for the consumption of the commodity that should be the freest and the cheapest, until now Councilman Hetfield appears upon the scene with a resolution directing the Fire and Water Company of the Council to undertake the investigation of the subject in a thorough manner. It is to be hoped that results of a substantial nature will now be shown. The city should own its water supply.

In estimating the strength of Wm. Jennings Bryan as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for President, the Nebraska man's friends classify New Jersey as among the anti-Bryan States, the delegates of which Bryan men do not expect to control. New York is classified as doubtful, but leaving New York and New Jersey both out of consideration it is claimed that Bryan will have more than enough votes from the south and the west to nominate him on the first ballot.

The election of Prof. Rush Rhees to the presidency of the Rochester University is a high tribute to the public schools of this city, of which he is a graduate.

The business failures last week were 178 against 285 in the corresponding week of 1898.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

There seems to be a good prospect of having a twelve-foot macadam laid in Piscataway township on Union avenue and its continuation, toward Dunellen, the work to be done by Middlesex county this fall. Dr. Cleaver and some other enterprising citizens along the line have lately stirred up matters with good results.—Bound Brook Chronicle.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The expression "From A to Izzard" is about the only reminder we have of the fact that the letter Z was called Izzard. One of our Plainfield families tells the story of a relative who was absent from school for several months at the time the last letter of the alphabet was changed from Izzard to Z. Not knowing of the change, on his return, he astonished the school with spelling the word Buzzard after the manner—"B—u—izzard—izzard—a—r—d. Buzzard."

Mrs. Clark, of Newark, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Pope, of West Fourth street, has returned home.

J. W. Sandford and wife, of West Seventh street, will spend the summer at Poland Springs, N. Y., to which place next week.

Miss Gussie Allen, of Plainfield, who has been spending a week with her cousin, Miss Mamie Cavalier, of this city, has returned home.—New Brunswick Times.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

HAPPENINGS IN A FEW LINES FROM ALL OVER JERSEY.

More or Less Important Happenings and Events in Various Sections Served For a Quick Glance at.

Andrew Lane presented the Washington Camp Ground Association with a beautiful flag pole, which has been erected and is plainly seen from a long distance.

The men employed in the beaming department of the Gloucester Cotton Mills are out on strike for an increase of wages. About twelve men are employed in the department, and ten are now out.

A company of capitalists from New York have bought the old Aaron Parkhurst property at Branch Mills, and intend to erect a large summer hotel there. The grounds around the lake are to be improved and beautified.

The farmers fear that the sweet potato crop in Gloucester County will be almost a failure, owing to the dry weather in May and June. In many localities 50 per cent of the plants have died, and those remaining are said to be stunted.

The Hunterdon county farmers will hold their annual picnic August 16th and 17th, when the politicians will gather as usual to start their booms for the fall elections. Hunterdon this fall elects a Sheriff, two Assemblymen and a Surrogate, and there are a score of candidates.

Rev. Dr. George L. Spining, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, South Orange, announces that $10,000, the amount of the mortgage on the church's parish house, has been pledged by members of his congregation, and the mortgage will shortly be cancelled. Rev. S. Bayard Dod, of South Orange, was chairman of a special committee which secured the necessary subscriptions.

NEW BRIDGES.

Board of Freeholders Autherize the Improvements.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 8—At the meeting of the Board of Freeholders Thursday, on resolution of Freeholder Wohle a committee of five was appointed to build a brick and iron-beam bridge on Central avenue, in New Providence, at a cost not to exceed $450.

Freeholder Adams offered a resolution directing the committee appointed to superintend the repair of bridge over Rahway river at Vreeland's mills to expend $1,600 in the construction of a new iron plate, girder bridge, the committee being unanimous that a new bridge was necessary. The resolution was adopted.

Freeholder Adams offered a resolution directing the construction of an iron bridge, not to exceed $900 in cost, on South avenue, Cranford. The resolution was adopted.

Sale of Summer Goods.

Deeply cut prices will rule throughout our wash goods. High priced goods are cut to the price of much cheaper fabrics, and many remarkable bargains may be had by investigating.

Same state of affairs exists in our Shirt Waist Department. Reduced prices on Shirt Waists are made low enough to sell every waist, and that quickly. Of course as stock is reduced some difficulty will be experienced in regard to sizes. If interested, allow us to suggest an early visit.

Children's Lace Caps.

All to go at ridiculously low prices. Our policy is to sell everything so as to be able to show only new goods for next season. Some rare values are to be obtained in this line.

White Goods.

This Department is kept fully stocked the year round, and no better assortment of reliable white goods is to be found between N. Y. and Philadelphia.

Our line of Pique ranges in prices from 19c to 50c per yd
Our line of India Linens ranges in price from 10c to 50c pr yd
Our line of French Organdie ranges in price from 15c to 75c pr yd.

A special lot (about 25 styles), Fancy Piques that are worth 20c yd. We are selling at 10c pr yd.

You can easily understand that we can only hint at the many good things scattered throughout an establishment the size of ours. Many special values are not mentioned. A visit will reveal to you more than we could tell of in a month.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 8—John Wagner, who always boasts of a fine garden, is at present displaying a head of lettuce that is one of the largest ever seen in this town. By actual measurement the bunch which Mr. Wagner has been exhibiting to his friends is 33 inches in circumference and 28 inches in diameter. The bunch weighs some thing less than a pound and a half. Many claim that this bunch of lettuce is the largest ever raised in this borough.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Education held Thursday evening only routine business was transacted. The vacancy existing in the position of janitor has not yet been filled. There are a number of applications for the place.

The pastor's theme at the Methodist church tomorrow will be "The Coronation of the Redeemed," and the evening theme, "Deathbed Scenes, or Final Words from the Chamber of Death."

Rev. Frank Fletcher, pastor of the Baptist church, who was reported seriously ill, has recovered and will hold services as usual next Sunday, preaching both morning and evening.

The hours for holding the Sunday school of the Presbyterian church have been changed from 2:30 p. m. to to 9:30 a. m. during the months of July and August.

Miss Lillian Warden, daughter of A. F. Warden, is expected to return next Monday from an extended visit with friends in Georgia.

New topic cards have recently been issued to the members of the Epworth League that are considered very handsome.

The topic of the Epworth League on next Sunday will be "A Good Vacation." The meeting will be led by A. R. Apgar.

The annual excursion of the Presbyterian Sunday school will be held on July 20th. Asbury Park is the destination.

W. H. Brokaw, of Philadelphip is visiting friends on Centre street.

Paul Rausch has purchased a handsome new Chickering piano.

Miss Edna Coriell has been visiting friends in Rahway.

There is a letter in the postoffice for Mrs. D. Brady.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 8—Charles H. French, who was awarded the contract for the town lockup or cages, expects to have the material here the first of the week and will erect them immediately, so it is safe to say that Scotch Plains will have a temporary resting place for drunks and disorderly ones in less than a week. Two cages will be erected. Each will hold one prisoner nicely, and by crowding two can be incarcerated in each cell. The drunks probably will not object to the crowding.

Rev. Mr. Shott will continue his sermons on the sin and immorality of the village tomorrow evening. The text of the evening will be, "The Two Yokes—The Wooden and the Iron."

Rev. Mr. Lewis, who is occupying Mr. Woodruff's pulpit during his absence, is making his home during his stay in town with Mrs. Annie Goodman and family.

Rev. Mr. Shott led an interesting prayer meeting in his church last evening. Notwithstanding the warm weather Mr. Shott's meetings are well supported.

The contract case of DeMeza against Hoffman, which was to have been tried before Justice Clark yesterday, was settled out of court.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Egan, of Terrill road, entertained a number of their friends at a lawn party at their home Thursday evening.

The sale of the old blacksmith shop on Front street, which was advertised to be sold yesterday, was postponed until a later date.

Miss Mamie Mead, of Spring Lake, spent Friday with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Paff, Sr.

Mrs. Albert Darby, of Plainfield, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. John R. Marsh, yesterday.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 8.—The people of this town are very much disappointed over the present Board of Education. At a school meeting held early in the spring the Board asked for an appropriation with which to build a new school, but as the amount was, in the minds of the voters too large, and as the site selected by the Board was not desireable, the appropriation was refused. A committee was then appointed to act with the Board in making some arrangements for increased school facilities, but as yet they have failed to report, although the meeting asked that they make a report at a special meeting to be held not later than June 1st. The Board has now advertised for sites on the north side of the town, although the majority of the people and property owners think that the new school should be located on the south side, and near where the scholars live who will have to attend the school.

At a meeting of the Township Committee held last evening, it was decided to enforce the ordinance which compells all peddlers to take out a license costing $10 a year. Edward Edgar was instructed to get the names of all peddlers doing business in the township, and to report them at the next meeting of the Committee, which will be held Monday evening.

THE CITY WATER SUPPLY

ONE OF THE NEW JERSEY TOWNS THAT NEED HAVE NO FEARS.

Some Interesting Facts in Connection With the Idea of the City Purchasing and Operating the Water Supply.

Strange as it may seem, Plainfield is now enjoying the distinction of being one of two places in New Jersey that has a reliable water supply that can be depended upon at all times. The other place is Newton, Sussex county, which place secures its supply from Morris Lake, some distance away and which comes to the place by gravity.

The above facts were furnished a Press representative yesterday by a person who is an authority on water supply in this State. In many respects Plainfield's water plant is vastly different from any other, and is perhaps one of the most costly in this country. The person who is authority for this information says that soon after Plainfield's water supply was established he satisfied himself that it would be impossible to exhaust the supply, and his confidence in this statement and belief has been strengthened each successive year. In view of these facts and the report that an effort will be made to ascertain how Plainfield can purchase the plant for its own exclusive use, there is some information that is valuable at this time.

Plainfield's system is a costly one, as every precaution was taken in installing it to make it perfect. When the city comes to figure on buying the plant no doubt its idea of worth will be far from what the company believes it to be worth. A very important feature about the local plant is that it is self-protecting; that is if it should happen that a pipe burst in any section and a big fire break out at the same time, the accident would have no effect on the system and water in abundance could be furnished to put out the fire. This possibility is provided for in this way. There are an ample and sufficient number of gates provided in every section, so that if necessary the supply can be shut off anywhere desired. This is not true of all plants, for generally the gates are stationed so far apart that they are of no value in case of such accidents.

Another important feature is that there are three inlets to the city and in case one or two should be out of order there would still be a third one to use, and the water can be sent to any part of the town or it can be confined to any particular section to suit the will.

Regarding other supplies in this State the Press reporter was informed that they cannot be depended upon. He was told that in Trenton the water company give toothpicks to their consumers to remove the gravel stones from their teeth, and in Newark the residents do not hardly dare to use water for drinking purposes unless the temperature is so low that all impurities are frozen. Other important places in the State were cited, where if a big fire should occur, the water supply would be exhausted and a famine follow. Summit was mentioned as a sample of what other places would suffer.

Considering these facts it certainly appears that Plainfield is highly favored with her water supply, and there is not only an abundance of it, but it analyzes absolutely pure, and no better or purer water can be found anywhere.

Mrs. S. S. Swackhamer, of the borough, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Herr, of Whitehouse.

Thomas Hanna, of this city, sailed today on the Anchoria for Ireland, where he will remain for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vail, Jr., of this city, will spend Sunday at the the home of Mrs. Vail's parents, H. T. Williams, South Amboy.

A Frightful Blunder.

Will often cause a horrible Burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

THE BOROUGH COUNCIL.

stated further that if he had had as much money to spend as the last administration he did not believe there would be many notes left over for the present administration. He believed that next year the Council could commence to pay off the Watchung avenue indebtedness by arranging to pay $1,000 a year for twelve years.

Mr. Burtis made a few remarks in which he stood by the past administration and took exception to a few statements made by the Mayor.

Mr. Clark spoke again and stated that he had no desire to throw off any obligations. At present there are fifteen or twenty new houses being built in the borough and others would be built which would make more taxable property and a greater income.

The question finally came to a vote and it was carried, Messrs. Clark, Swackhamer, Codington voting for it and Messrs. Valiant and Burtis against it. Mr. Rogers was absent.

A POLITICAL SNARL.

nearly all of the county officers, and when John Kean ran for Governor the county gave a majority for his Democratic opponent, George T. Werts. Dissensions in the Republican ranks would give the Democrats encouragement to make a stiff fight, which would end, probably, in a victory. Should Mr. Cross be refused a renomination for Senate, then the Democratic opportunity would arise.

COUNTY ROAD WORK.

Highways are Being Improved in Various Sections of the Bailiwick.

County Road Inspector Fink has reported that there has been completed since his last report county road work as follows:

On Westfield, or North avenue, 23,645 lineal feet of road repaired with 1½ inch stone; 10,447 lineal feet top dressed with fine stone, and 53,903 feet of gutters cleaned.

South avenue, through Westfield, 15,303 lineal feet of road top dressed.

Central avenue, 5,455 feet of road repaired with 1½ inch stone; 3,835 feet top dressed, 14,610 feet of gutters cleaned.

The total of work consists of 5½ miles of road repaired; 5¾ miles top dressed, and 12¾ miles of gutters cleaned.

At present county work is in progress on St. George avenue.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongued coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store

WAS MAKING PROGRESS.

The Patient Showed Symptoms of Approaching Convalescence.

The gentleman who rung the bell several times before the servant let him in was looking surprised and a trifle apprehensive when Mrs. Blykins came into the room.

"I called," he explained, "to inquire about your husband's health. He and I belong to the same organization, and several of the members desired me to call and see how he is getting along. We were very sorry to hear of his illness."

"It's very kind of you," she answered.

There was a crash which shook the chandelier.

She paid no attention to it.

"I think it will be only a day or two before he is able to get out and go down town," she added.

The slamming of doors echoed heavily through the house.

"Has he been dangerously sick?"

"Not until to-day."

"But I understood you to say that he was convalescent."

"I think I may say that he is so. He wasn't well enough to be dangerous til this morning. But before noon he had discharged the trained nurse, quarreled with the cook, smashed a rocking chair against which he stubbed his toe and thrown the canary bird out of the window. Those are always hopeful symptoms with him, and I feel fairly justified in saying that he is convalescent."

Her Silence Explained.

A young lady from the country was suing her ex-sweetheart for breach of promise, and the lawyers were, as usual, making all sorts of inquisitive inquiries.

"You say," remarked one, "that the defendant frequently sat very close to you?"

"Yes, sir," was the reply with a heetic flush.

"How close?"

"Close enough so one cheer was all the settin' rom we needed."

"And you say he put his arm around you?"

"No, I didn't."

"What did you say, then?"

"I said he put both arms around me."

"Then what?"

"He hugged me."

"Very hard?"

"Yes, he did; so hard that I come purty near hollering out."

"Why didn't you holler?"

"'Cause."

"That's no reason. Be explicit, please. Because why?"

"'Cause I was afeered he'd stop."—Golden Penny.

In Washington

"Why those men are fighting!"

"Oh, don't mind them."

"That's nothing."

"And the other has his opponent's ear between his teeth!"

"Oh, come along."

"But wait. It may be a murder!"

"Will you come along?"

"Tell me first what they are fighting about."

"They are not fighting."

"Not fighting? What are they doing?"

"Arguing over the constitution."

An Exhibition of Great Love

Mamma—So you think George loves you?

Mildred—Yes; I am sure of it.

Mamma—What has he ever done to prove it?

Mildred—The engines and trucks went past here last night, but he didn't care to let go of my hand even long enough to run around the corner and see where the fire was.

THE FASHION.

Flowers Are Essential to the Mode of the Moment.

Flowers are fashionable, and, whether a woman cares for them or not, if she wishes to be in the mode she must wear them and decorate her house with them, and there is always room for new ideas on the subject of floral adornment for the home. A pretty Parisian fashion is to intwine the hanging chandelier of the dining room with sprays of climbing roses, wistaria or honeysuckle vines.

With neutral tinted costumes, gray or beige, parasols of bright plaid silk are carried, which supply a gay note to the otherwise low toned gown. For light or bright toilets, however, there are white parasols, with lines or bands of the color of the gown as a border. For example, a white parasol to accompany a pink gown has a pink border and lining, and the light it throws upon the complexion is most becoming.

An extremely simple but very attractive gown is depicted which is suitable for the seaside or the mountains. It is of red and black mixed wool, the skirt, opening at the left side, being bordered there and round the foot with black mohair braid having a red edge. Small black buttons trim the skirt. The bodice, closing at the side and slightly draped, has revers and scalloped epaulets and is trimmed with braid matching that on the skirt. The plastron and collar are of plaited red surah, the belt of the trimming braid. The red straw hat is trimmed with red flowers and black quills.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION HINTS.

Suggestions For Summer Traveling Attire.

The Louis Quinze bolero is fashion's favorite, and with good reason, for its form renders it becoming to all figures. It just reaches the waist at the back, while in front it is elongated in a point, or sometimes in rounded tabs.

SILK COSTUME.

Poplin is a revived fabric which is most serviceable and attractive for summer wear. It composes neat, cool tailor made gowns, highly suitable for traveling, as it sheds dust and is of light weight.

The sailor hat or the alpine, in some one of its many modifications, is usually chosen for wear during a journey. It is only the inexperienced traveler who appears in a hat loaded with flowers and other perishable and cumbrous trimming. A neat, plain straw, decorated with ribbon and quills or a buckle, is the only suitable thing, as it is easily put on and off and may be put in the rack of a car or exposed to dust and rain without noticeable disfigurement.

The cut shows a gown of periwinkle blue silk. The plain skirt has coquilles of plaited white mousseline de soie at the sides of the tablier. The tight bodice has a full guimpe and plastron of white mousseline de soie, with a high collar to match. The sleeves, which are of elbow length, are wrinkled and terminate in a frill of lace. The revers and belt are of white satin embroidered with silver, and there are silver buttons on the bodice. The hat of blue tulle is trimmed with bluets, part of which are so arranged as to rest upon the hair.

HAIR ORNAMENTS.

More in Demand Than Any Other Articles of Jewelry.

Ornaments for the hair seem to be more in demand than any other article of jewelry, to judge by the variety of these baubles displayed in the big gem-shpos. A tiara of diamonds with a row of splendid emeralds across the top and a tiny crown of rubies and diamonds are worth a king's ransom, as emeralds and diamonds were never more expensive than they are at present. A pair of diamond wings, movable to any angle, is to be worn with a feather aigrette, and an airy, delicate aigrette has exquisite opals and diamonds on quivering stems. An aigrette of diamonds palm-leaves is new and graceful. It is mounted on a diamond scroll. But newest of all is a humming bird in gold set with rubies emeralds and diamonds, holding a single diamond in its mouth, and mounted on a white feather aigrette. Diamond aigrettes with pendent, quivering turquoises are beautiful. The necklace of first water diamonds strung on a golden wire, so that on the neck only the drops of fire are visible, is admired by everyone, but it does not become common even among the very rich, as the stones in a necklace of this description have to be well-nigh perfect gems and perfectly matched to have the proper effect. A regal necklace is of diamond scrolls and rosettes, each studded with a single ruby, the pendant is a wonderful pear-shaped ruby. A necklet for a young girl is a chain of diamonds with a cross wheel slide set with a single pearl.

A new corsage pin is a diamond cherry leaf, with a gold stem and single turquoise for fruit. A pink pearl for great beauty, and enormous value, is rimmed with diamonds and suported by two large white pearls; and all these are set among scrolls and leaves of diamonds. Another corsage ornament is a large shamrock composed of three huge white pearls, set in the finest brilliants; a small shamrock shows a black, white and pink pearl, each encircled by brilliants and connected in the centre by one single white stone. A novel ornament is a ribbon of diamonds, tied into a succession of true lover's knots in graduated sizes, each bow forming a separate broach.

Mrs. Mary B. G. Eddy as an Author.

Some idea of the enormous income derived by Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, head of the Christian Scientists, from the sale of her books may be gained from her published statement that she has given almost $90,000 in charity in the last three years. Judge Hanna, the editor of the Christian Science Journal, adds that if she desired she easily could be a millionaire within a few years, from the sale of her books alone. Another man, high in authority in the church, says that she is the best paid author in the world.

MRS. MARY B. G. EDDY.

Solace For Lonely Souls.

All of a sudden the much-alive metropolitan clubwoman seems to be interested in the sister whose life is apt to be one awful round of monotony—the farmer's wife. As is well known, there is a preponderant per cent. of these "let alone" women in the insane asylum, says a writer on club topics.

One bright idea is the opening in town of a "rest room," where the farmer's wife may stay on Saturday. With the latest magazines and the ever-comforting cup of tea, this weary weekly shopper may find mental and bodily refreshment. This work has been particularly espoused by Missouri clubwomen. In other parts the farmer's wife is looking out for herself, as instanced at Lapeer, Michigan. In this town the women of the surrounding country have rented two rooms in the courthouse. Each member furnished one yard of carpet, one chair, one cup and saucer, and every Saturday came together to spread lunch and "talk things over." The city clubwoman, in order to give both dollars and diversion to the country woman, who sadly needs a little financial independence, is also making a market for domestic manufacturers. This is a new work especially espoused by Mrs. Candace Wheeler, of New York. Such industries as weaving of home-made rugs in imitation of Oriental textiles, and of odd designs in table linen, have been encouraged with artistic results.

Farmers' wives away out West, in the meantime, drive many miles over rough mountain roads for their one social pleasure—the monthly literary club. The big city clubs, such as the Denver Woman's Club, on the other hand, regularly send periodicals and club papers to the lonely women too remotely situated for a chance to belong to any club.

Ready to Be Thrilled, and She Was.

An Ohio lady visiting Boston for the first time has been doing the sights. "I had my greatest thrill down at Copp's Hill burying ground," she said. "Yes, that's just the place for the historic emotions," commented her interlocutor. She smiled. "As soon as my sister-in-law and I got into the place," she said, "I found myself almost stepping upon a grave with an inscription on a queer little iron-cover sort of tomb. I jumped back, feeling the way you do when you step on a grave, and read the inscription, just three initials no name or date. 'Isn't it pathetic?' I said to my sister-in-law. 'Oh, I don't know,' she answered. 'B. W. W. means Boston Water Works.'"

Her gown with beauty is designed;
All must admit its charm.
But the way she holds it up behind
Will one day break her arm.
—Washington Star.

CUBAN FREEBOOTERS.

Savages Who Have Reverted to the Type of Their Primitive Ancestors.

They are mostly mongrels, weather-hardened and soul-hardened savages, who have reverted to the type of their primitive ancestors, and reacquired the faculty of making a feast day compensate the hardships of six fast days; digesting the sun-dried bull beef of their bivouacs as readily as the made dishes of a ransacked hotel, and sleeping in quagmires on a pillow of willow hurdles as soundly as in a feather bed. Their fox-trail instinct will easily prevail against the methods of civilized warfare, and their raids have already depopulated numerous districts, some of which once boasted prosperous farms, but are now shunned as the haunts of the predatory Kabyles are shunned by the Algerian settlers.

In the Sierra Mesilla, northeast of Bayamo, the industrial population has almost entirely disappeared under the terror of the freebooters, whose campfires can be seen smoking in the summit glens and whose constant raids at last ceased to leave the farmers a living share in their agricultural products. The Cerro de Cobre, some eighty miles further south, is approached only by cattle hunters with a military escort; travelers who have attempted the passes of the old overland road have rarely returned to tell the results of the all but inevitable encounter with the scouts of the outlaws. The valley formed by the west fork of the Rio Verde, in the Province of Puerto Principe, was long dreaded as a haunt of runaway slaves, and these refugees have now been joined by desperados numerous enough to become savagely aggressive. Their neighbors, too, have abandoned hundreds of farms that can no longer be hoped to repay the toil of tillage. In stress of circumstances the outlaws eke out a subsistence by hunting and fishing; but withal continue to extend the range of their marauding expeditions, and recently one of their restless leaders was caught and hanged by a posse of exasperated rancheros, on the charge of having decorated his headquarters den with arabesques of human heads, "nailed up spread-eagle fashion, or like a collection of dried fern leaves." The total value of the property destroyed by these moss troopers has been computed to exceed half a billion dollars, and a list of their murders would resemble the bulletin of a Dahomey war chief. —The Forum.

Women in the Ladrones.

At the present day the women of the Ladrones are a charming, light-hearted lot, beautiful in their youth, with their golden brown complexions, soft brown eyes and silky black hair. The matrons of the island, smiling, good-natured and plump, have lost most of their beauty by middle age, but their general kindliness of expression makes up for any loss in mere physical attractions of line and color.

Simple, cheerful and hospitable, the home of the average islander is like those of most natives of the tropics, little more than a thin wall and palm-thatched roof to keep out the rain. In the Ladrones it rains every day. Clothes spread out on grass plots to dry therefore seldom escape a second dampening about midday, a fact that does not in the least disturb the laundresses, as the rays of the sun are so warm that they are soon dried off and are indeed whiter than ever.

Most of the inhabitants wear few clothes and so the weekly washings are not of such alarming proportions as one might imagine in so warm a climate.

The natives of the islands are Chamorros, a people resembling the Philippine islanders in many respects. The Caucasians who have visited the Ladrones have married and intermarried with the natives until the proportion of Chamorros is now very small.

The houses of the Spaniards are a little more elaborate than those of the Chamorros. A typical middle-class dwelling is built with a thick stone wall on the ground floor, through which is cut the large entrance door. The rooms are unfloored, the earth being trampled hard. The first floor is about seven feet from the ground. Rude steps of hewn logs lead to it. The living-room is on the first floor and is as a rule covered with rough hewn logs of mahogany. The end of the house has a gallery built outside beneath the overhanging roof, and it is there in the shade of the banana and pineapple or palm trees that the women of the household sit to do their sewing and to gossip.

The Trekking Wagon.

The South African wagon is a long, heavy cart mounted on four high wheels, as a rule, with a sort of canvas tent over the back half, leaving the front clear to carry the miscellaneous furniture of its owner, drawn by sixteen, eighteen, or twenty oxen, curiously fierce looking with their immense spread of horn, sometimes as much as eight feet from tip to tip and rarely less than six, but in reality as patient and hard-working beasts as one could wish to find. Their mode of progression is certainly slow, but there is a strangeness and a fascination about it which may draw men to it almost as the Alps draw their devotees. In front there marches the "voor-looper," generally a small boy, leading the two foremost oxen by a rein or rope passed through their nostrils.

The driver walks alongside with the long and terrible whip he uses so unsparingly, or else sits on the front of the wagon and gets off occasionally to lash up the whole team with unfailing impartiality. The traveling is all done at night, starting a little before sunset and marching till perhaps 11 or 12 o'clock; then there is a halt till a little before the first signs of dawn when they go on again till the sun begins to get hot overhead, and then they lie by for the day.

Another Thing to Consider

"Do you think a man has a right to open his wife's letters?"

"Well, he may have the right; but I don't see how he could have the courage."—Chicago Record.

Scientists have demonstrated that the purest air in the cities is found about twenty-five feet above the street surface. This goes to prove that the healthiest apartments are those on the third floor.

BATTLE ON STILTS.

An Exciting and Novel Game Introduced by Western Boys.

Several boys in Chicago improved the last stilt season with an exciting game on stilts which they called "stilt fighting." Nearly every afternoon they would gather in an open lot just south of Washington park, and the stilt contests attracted no little attention. Each boy had a pair of stout stilts, with the steps about eighteen inches above the ground. Two of the boys were chosen as leaders or captains and they picked out their men, taking turns in making the selections. Then the sides separate and line up as in pull away or any of the old games. At a word of command from the umpire they advance on each other, walking steadily on their stilts. When they get close up together they jostle and push one another in the endeavor to throw the soldiers of the other side from their stilts without tipping over any of the soldiers on their own side. The moment a man falls the umpire calls time, the man who is down goes over to the side of the enemy, and the battle begins over again. Sometimes a skillful stilt soldier will plunge into the ranks of the enemy like a mailed knight of old and tip over a whole row of them without once losing his balance. The game is never out until every man is won over and lined up on one side, and oftentimes when only the general of an army is left he can, by making a few bold strokes, win back all his soldiers. This is what makes the game particularly exciting.

IN BATTLE ARRAY.

Several times the boys have brought brooms along with them for arms, and each of them, with a broom held fast under his arm, charges down on the enemy. In this warfare a soldier may hit the enemy anywhere but in the face or head, using his best efforts to push him over. If a soldier drops his broom he is "dead," or out of the fight. This sport is even more exciting than the ordinary battles, but it is hard on the brooms.

Electricity Defined.

It is related of the deceased Italian scientist, Galileo Ferraris, that in answer to a young lady's request he inscribed in her album the following definition of electricity: "Since Maxwell has demonstrated that the vibrations of light might consist of periodical changes of electro-magnetic forces, and as Hertz has given Maxwell's theory an experimental basis with his proof of the similarity existing between electro-magnetic waves and light waves, the belief becomes more and more firmly established that this light-conveying ether and the medium in which the electric and magnetic forces act are identical.

"Therefore, I may well reply to the question, Oh, studious and charming maiden, 'What is electricity?' that it is not only the fearful agent which at times lights up the heavens suddenly and startles thy soul with its loud clapping of thunder, but also the life-giving and life-awakening cause, which as light and heat brings forth the magic of color and breath of life, which transmits to thy heart the pulsations of the universe and awakens in thy soul the charm of glance and smiles."

Hyenas Fought to the Death.

Kakim and Kekker lived together in amity for fourteen years. Then they fell out on the question of food, and now Kekker is in the hospital and Kakim ought to be there.

They are hyenas in the Philadelphia Zoo. Hyenas are always hungry, so those who make a study of the interesting animals say. These, though imported direct from Africa at a cost of $300 each, had all the hunger of their kind, and the other morning when Kakim managed to gulp his own food down in amazingly short time, he turned his attention to his comrade's. Then began a fight which is described as the fiercest, loudest and most bloody that the Zoo has ever seen.

The combatants were separated before they had quite killed each other, but authorities on hyenas say that they would resume it immediately were they ever put together again.

From Corn Husks to Clothes.

Clothing made of corn husks attracted so much attention at a fair recently held in Atchison, Kas., that it is planned to have a similar exhibit at the great fair to be held in Paris in 1900.

These costumes are so attractive, many of them, that any girl might well be proud to appear in one. Dresses of the daintiest designs imaginable and with any number of delicate frills and flounces were shown. They proved so effective that a new industry has sprung up in Atchison. It is called "corn millinery," and those who practice it make charming looking hats for women and girls from corn husks. One of the most successful corn milliners recently sent a husk hat to the wife of President McKinley.

SWING SONG.

Up and down in the swaying swing
Brother is swinging me;
Like the swallows he makes me fly—
The air and the leaves go rushing by;
I can look clear away when I go so high,
And there's so many things to see!

Brother's so strong and big and good;
He smiles when he calls to me;
I can see for an instant over the wall,
Where the trees by the shore let their shadows fall,
And when he runs under, I see so small,
The boats far out on the sea.

Every time when the swing comes back,
How he pushes—you ought to see!
And if even the treetops are holding still,
When I'm swinging a breeze comes over the hill;
I guess he'll explain that—I know he will—
He explains so much to me.

He knows just when my arms get tired,
Though how I do not see;
Then the swing goes slow, and the wind goes down,
The sea disappears and the meadows brown—
And the wall—hides the trees—and the distant town,
And the swing—stops—with—me.

—Caryl B. Storrs.

CRICKETS FOR PETS.

How You May Get One to Sing Upon the Hearth.

We are accustomed to think of the "cricket on the hearth" as something very old-fashioned, belonging to the days of grandmothers, powdered hair and open fireplaces. Lacking the hearth, the cricket does not visit us.

At this time of year the crickets, hidden away under the edges of the sidewalks and in the long grass that grows up around country fences, are playing the last tunes of the year. As soon as the nights begin to get genuinely frosty they will slip away into some snug crack and sleep until next spring—unless they can find a place indoors where there is a comfortable hearth with plenty of convenient cracks for hiding places; and they will remain lively all winter and provide the householders with musical selections every evening.

We can't all have a cheery cricket on the hearth to bring luck to the home where it stays, but any boy or girl can have a cricket or two or three of them in a box.

Go out some afternoon and catch a few fat crickets, being careful not to injure them. Prepare a home for them by stripping the cover from a cigar box and substituting in its place a piece of open-meshed wire gauze. In the bottom of the box a small quantity of sand should be placed and sprinkled over with a handful of grass. Two or three chips, under which the crickets may hide, will furnish the home complete.

Put the little fiddlers in and you will be astonished to see how quickly they take possession of their new abode. In a short time they will grow tame and friendly, even eating crumbs out of your hands. Enough food for them can be obtained each day from the brushings of the dining table. A little water should be sprinkled occasionally on the grass to take the place of their regular beverage—dew.

Every afternoon they will tune up their orchestra and play a great many cheery tunes and half convince you even in the snowy days of winter that summer has come again. There is a great deal of pleasure in watching the life doings of the crickets—how they eat, sleep, what they find to work at and other interesting things about their habits. One of the strangest things is the way in which the cricket does the chirping—by rasping his wings together over his body. This and other odd things can be seen by any boy or girl who keeps a cricket menagerie.

Under Water to the Pole.

An engineer of Baltimore, Md., makes the claim that a submarine boat can be propelled under the great fields of ice that have thus far stopped northern navigators from reaching the north pole. This gentleman, Albert Riedel, proposes to build a boat for the journey at once and to start from somewhere in upper Canada.

Those who believe in Mr. Riedel's plan claim that the boat will have to travel under 600 miles of ice before an open sea around the north pole is reached. They believe that enough open places will be found on the journey to enable the boat to go to the surface to replenish the air. It is proposed to run the boat by electricity provided by storage batteries.

Kind Hearted Abe Lincoln.

"Once when I was a girl at school," said Kate Roby, "Schoolmaster Crawford had given out the word 'defied,' which had been misspelled several times when it came my turn. Abe Lincoln stood on the oposite side of the room and was watching me. I began 'd-e-f,' and then I stopped, hesitating whether to proceed with an 'i' or a 'y.' Looking up, I saw Abe, a grin on his face, pointing with one forefinger to his eye. I took the hint, spelled the word with an 'i,' and it went through all right."

BAD COMPANY HIS RUIN.

JAY VAN ARSDALE IS GUILTY OF EMBEZZLING MONEY.

Was a Driver of One of Morey & LaRue's Laundry Wagons—Helped Himself to $80 of the Firm's Money.

Jay VanArsdale was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Weaver on a warrant charging him with embezzlement. The warrant was issued by Justice Moffett upon complaint of James E. Stem, local manager for Morey & LaRue, who keep a laundry at 19 Somerset street, this city, which is a branch of the firm's business in Elizabeth.

VanArsdale is about 18 years old. For a considerable period he has been employed as the driver of one of the firm's delivery wagons. Besides collecting and delivering laundry VanArsdale had authority to collect money from the firm's customers when making his deliveries.

For the past two years these collections have not been satisfactory and it was suspected that VanArsdale was not turning in a sufficient amount of cash.

Manager Stem set about looking into the matter and from what he learned was satisfied that his suspicions were well founded.

The last seen of VanArsdale was Monday afternoon, July 3. He was said to have left the city and as subsequent events show he went to Philadelphia where he spent the Fourth with several companions.

He returned yesterday and was arrested.

The amount of VanArsdale's peculations is about $80.

When charged with the crime in Justice Moffett's court late yesterday afternoon, the young man admitted his guilt. He began to take small sums from his collections as early as last May.

Like poor dog Tray, VanArsdale fell into bad company and began to dissipate, and this finally lead to his downfall. Previous to this his habits had been correct and Manager Stem considered him one of his best men. The young man is well connected and his friends are much grieved at the trouble in which he is now involved.

At the trial yesterday J. P. D. Kirch appeared for the accused. Justice Moffett held him to await the action of the Grand Jury, bail being accepted in the sum of $200.

"COUNT" WILL SUE CITY

FAILED TO APPEAR FOR TRIAL THIS MORNING.

After Corporation Counsel Looked Over the Charge, He Discontinued Present Case Against VanNess—Attorney Talks.

"Count" VanNess was not tried this morning for discharging firearms within the city limits. City Judge Runyon awaited him on the bench. Corporation Counsel C. A Marsh was there, so were Chief Grant and Patrolman McCarty, the principal witness. But the "Count" didn't come. He either forgot it or did not care to obey the mandates of the City Court.

The trial was to have been held two weeks ago, but was adjourned on account of the illness of the Corporation Counsel.

It was then set down for this morning. Judge Runyon fixed the hour at 9:30 o'clock. At that time all the necessary officials appeared ready for the trial but the "Count" and his counsel never came.

Corporation Counsel Marsh looked over the preliminary proceedings in the case and decided that in some points the present case was weak. Consequently the city discontinued the case.

A Press reporter talked with Attorney George Ball, the lawyer for "Count" VanNess, concerning the case. He said that he was not surprised that the case was discontinued. He knew, he said, that the city did not have a strong enough case to convict the "Count."

He further stated that "Count" VanNess was going to institute a damage suit against the city for false imprisonment. No proceedings have been started as yet.

A new complaint has been issued against the "Count" and he will be held on substantially the same charge as before. His hearing in the new complaint will take place shortly.

Experiments With Liquified Air.

Andrew E. Kenney, of the borough, who has, for several years been interested in liquified air, made some very interesting experiments with a pint of the air a few evenings ago. The results were not only interesting but profitable.

A TERRIBLE TALE.

An Account of Corporal Hardtack's Large Order and Rude Awakening.

CHAPTER I.

Corporal Hardtack entered Delmonico's the moment he arrived in New York City. He had his month's pay, which amounted to several thousand dollars and 15 cents.

Carefully he looked over the gold-plated menu.

"Bring me turtle soup," he said to the garcon.

"Oui."

"Baked salmon trout."

"Oui."

"And a bottle of Sauterne."

"Oui, monsieur."

"And when that is out of the way, bring me Little Neck clams on the half shell, chicken salad and sweetbreads."

"Oui, monsieur," murmured the perspiring waiter.

"Then bring me venison steak."

"Oui."

"Fried potatoes, boiled potatoes, hashed potatoes, and baked potatoes."

The waiter now nodded.

"Rare roast beef, tongue, chops, beefsteak, orange ice, turkey, with cranberry sauce, quail"—

The waiter feel down in a faint, and another took his place.

"Quail on toast," went on Corporal Hardtack, "ortalans, terrapin stew, ham and eggs,—

"Oui, monsieur," trembled the ne garcon, panting.

"A bottle of champagne, absinthe frappe, a gin cocktail, and apple, pumpkin, mince and prune pies, Rochefort cheese, Fromage de Brie, Dutch cheese, cream cheese"—

Just then a terrible thing happened.

CHAPTER II.

Corporal Hardtack woke up.

(The End.)

The Exchange He Made.

"Miss Williston," he pleaded, "I am going away. I shall travel thousands of miles before I return. May I ask you for your photograph before I go?"

Jeanette Willistone looked at space and sighed gently.

"I don't know," she replied, "why you should ask me for my picture."

"Our friendship, he said; "surely that is something."

"Yes," she answered, "that is—something. But it doesn't seem to me that you have the right to carry my portrait near your heart—yet."

"Jeannette!" he cried, "will you be mine?"

"Ah, Percy," she said, after it had been arranged that they should be married a week from the following Thursday, "how did you dare to ask me? What reason had you for not fearing that I would bid you go away and never show yourself in my presence again?"

"I don't know," he humbly replied; "perhaps is was intuition."—Chicago News.

Systematic

Crimsonbeak: "My wife is very systematic."

Yeast: "You don't say!"

"Yes; when she wants me to remember to bring home sugar, what do you think she does?"

"Puts a string about your finger."

"String, nothing! What's a string got to do with sugar? She ties a piece of sandpaper on my hat."

"Good!"

"And when she wants butter, what do you suppose she does?"

"Couldn't guess."

"Why she ties a lock of hair about my finger."—Yonkers Statesman.

DEATH WAS UNEXPECTED

PETER N. KLINE PASSES AWAY AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS.

Neuralgia of the Heart Was Fatal—Lived in Plainfield for Twenty Years—Member of Crescent Avenue Church

The sudden death of Peter N. Kline, aged 63 years, of 435 East Sixth street, occurred yesterday. Mr. Kline passed away at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon from neuralgia of the heart, which disease had troubled him for several days. His wife left him sitting up in bed while she went down stairs to prepare his food. When she returned she found him gasping for breath, and a few minutes later he died.

Mr. Kline had been ill for several days, but yesterday he was considered a great deal better, and the family physician, Dr. Jenkins, felt quite confident of his recovery.

The deceased was a native of New York, and has been a resident of this city for twenty years. In his early business career he was engaged in the insurance business in Jersey City, and later he was employed in the New York commission house of Helfridge & Co. After that he came to Plainfield and for nearly two years he was employed at the Pond Tool Works as time-keeper.

Mr. Kline was a faithful member of the Crescent Avenue church. For several years his health was not the best and he was unable to engage actively in any business, but for some time he was employed at intervals by Druggist Armstrong as a bookkeeper.

Several near relatives survive him. He was a brother to Mrs. Alburtus Swalm, of West Front street; Mrs. T. S. Armstrong, of Duer street; Mrs. A. Willett, of Craig place; Mrs. Startup, of Middletown, N. Y., and Lewis Kline, of Boston, Mass. He also leaves a wife and four children, three daughters and one son. A recently-married daughter and her husband started Monday last for a pleasure trip to Montreal, and they have been telegraphed to come home.

The funeral services will be held from the late residence, 435 East Sixth street, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment will take place at Bound Brook on Monday.

Putting Wires Underground.

The work of placing the electric light wires underground is now progressing favorably. Madison avenue and West Front street have been opened and travelers will be bothered for a time, but it is to be hoped that the streets will not be torn up again for years to come.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will everyone who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. # This Week's Offerings

in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Trousers will comprise a remarkable lot of stylish clothing, doubly remarkable because of the low prices we will sell them. Part of the offerings are traceable to our recent extremely favorable purchases, deals in which spot cash and a great need of it by two manufacturers played an important part.

Some of the offerings come from our regular stock that but a few days ago we had an idea of reducing, but the season is advancing, our stock is still heavy, but the only method of reducing stock that we have faith in, is a great reduction of prices.

One Hundred Men's Business Suits made of cassimers, cheviots and worsteds, in plaids, checks and gray mixtures, well lined and trimmed, wholesale price 9.00; for this week.

Men's Black Clay Diagonal Coats and Vests, in sack or frock, soft finish at 4.00; valued at 10.00.

IS MAC MURRAY NO LONGER A CANDIDATE?

Rumors That He Has Withdrawn From Race.

FOR COUNTY CLERKSHIP.

PROMINENT LOCAL REPUBLICANS MAKE THAT STATEMENT.

His Withdrawl Would Clear Local Political Atmosphere Considerably—Reasons Why Roll Will Not Get Senatorial Nomination--Squier Would Be Willing to Take It—County Gossip.

Is City Clerk J. T. MacMurray no longer a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Clerk? Two prominent local Republicans, each a leader of a particular faction, and one of them the great friend and supporter of Mr. MacMurray, have made the statement that he has withdrawn from the race and is no longer after the place. So far, however, no statement to that effect has been made by the City Clerk himself. The authority for the statement comes from such an authoritive source that it sounds very plausible. The withdrawing of Mr. MacMurray would certainly clear the local political atmosphere considerably. Plainfield's only chance to get something out of the county convention is to go as a unit and with a clear understanding of what's wanted.

Far seeing politicians are not deceived by the boom of Former Assemblyman J. Martin Roll, of Summit, for the senatorial nomination. He has little or no chance of the nomination, they say. His attitude toward the corporations when in the Assembly is said to have sorely wounded him politically. It prevented him from renomination to the Assembly and will now prevent his successful candidacy for the senatorial plum.

Assemblyman George Squier is a factor in Union county politics that must not be forgotten this fall. There seems but little doubt but that he can go back to the Assembly if he wants to and there make a stiff fight for the Speakership. Rumors are afloat that Mr. Squire would like to be county clerk, also that he would not object to being the Republican nominee for the State Senate in the place of Judge Cross.

Already there is a long and powerful howl going up all over the county at the proposed monopoly of the Republican plums by the Elizabethans. If Squier tries to run away with another of them, particularly the county clerkship, there is likely to be lively warfare in the party. The township voters want representation this year, and they are trying to gently, but firmly, impress that fact on the minds of the leaders in the county seat. Republican supremacy in the county is not so secure that the leaders can afford to ignore entirely these demands if they are only done with something like unity. If the townships get wrangling among themselves then Elizabeth will step in and smilingly walk off with everything, save a solitary remembrance perhaps for Plainfield.

AT HOTEL HUNTERSTON.

Progressive Euchre Party Tomorrow Evening—Lawn Tennis Has the Call.

The popular Hotel Hunterston, at Netherwood, is enjoying a good season. The house is well filled and many rooms have been booked for next month. Lawn tennis is the popular amusement among the young set and there is considerable rivalry, especially among the young ladies to see who will carry off the honors. In the opinion of many Miss Dessie Morris, daughter of the late Col. Morris, U. S. A., is considered the most expert player, while Miss Dora Furman, of Topeka, Kas., is a close second.

Tomorrow evening a subscription euchre party is to be given, the tables to be set in the spacious ballroom. Among those interested in the affair are: Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Keane, Miss Keane, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Cudlip, Miss Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Coleman, Miss Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Misch, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Condit, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shaw, the Misses Jennie and H. A. Garre and Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Carson.

To Visit Moosehead Lake.

Edward White, of this city, has arranged with a party of his friends to spend two weeks at Moosehead Lake, Me., and the party will leave next Monday morning. Those who will go include W. A. Coddington, S. S. Squier, J. E. McClintock, S. P. T. Wilbur, Mayor N. B. Smalley, Geo. Hodgson, H. E. Rider and Nelson Giles.

THE TWO YOKES OF LIFE.

REV. MR. SHOTT CONTINUES HIS SERMONS ON PUBLIC MORALS.

Says That the Crusade in Scotch Plains is Getting Along Nicely and That he Will Keep Up the Agitation.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 10.—Following up the organization of the Citizens' League in Scotch Plains, Rev. G. M. Shott, pastor of the Baptist church, continued his sermonizing on the morals of town yesterday.

In his morning sermon he said that now that the law abiding citizens of the place are rallying to the support of the movement for a higher plane of morals, he felt somewhat relieved of the responsibility that he had assumed, but this would not deter him from continuing to agitate progress in an aggressive way in respect to the reformatory work.

The principal moralizing was done in the evening when he took for his sermon "The Two Yokes—The Wooden and the Iron." Speaking of intemperance he said that he did not confine sobriety solely to the practice of drinking, but to temperance in fine clothes, fast life, fine houses and other worldly pleasures and perquisites. He said that people who indulged in these latter things were wearing the iron yoke of sin. He urged that parents be careful in training their boys, for the boys were to marry the girls, and if brought up in a false light of life the result would be unhappy and miserable homes for all. "When I arrived in Scotch Plains I found many people wearing the iron yoke," said Mr. Shott, "and it was my duty to speak out and offer the less burdensome yoke of my Master."

Rev. Mr. Shott severely scored the sight he witnessed in Plainfield the Fourth of July, when a brewery wagon in the celebration parade carried several kegs of beer, from which three or four young men were constantly drinking. He thought that it was a terrible sight for the rising generation of young people.

FEARFUL OF THE RABIES

A GENUINE MAD DOG SCARE IN SCOTCH PLAINS.

Head of the Brute Severed and Sent to the Pasteur Institute to be Used in Treatment of One of the Mad Dog's Victims.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 10.—The mad dog that invaded Scotch Plains last Sunday and bit several people, afterwards being dispatched with a baseball bat by John Thys, has occasioned quite a scare in that place. All those who were bitten by the brute have had their wounds cauterized, but Lynas Walpole, whose young son was attacked and bitten by the dog, is fearful of an attack of the rabies and he has concluded to have the boy undergo the Pasteur treatment.

Consequently the head of the dog that did the biting was severed and sent to the Pasteur institute in New York, where some of the virus was inoculated into a rabbit, to be subsequently used in the treatment of the boy, but as yet none of the signs of the dreaded hydrophobia have appeared in the rabbit. The result of the Pasteur treatment is anxiously awaited.

EXAMINATION FOR BAGGAGEMEN.

Must be Able to Answer Questions Asked About Their Duties.

According to a new rule all the train baggage men in the Central Railroad Company's employ are to be examined similar to a postal civil service examination. The work will be done by divisions. This morning an examination was held at Jersey City for the men at this end of the road. The examinations will be continued until all are reached.

The employes are obliged to know the route of a piece of baggage, a trunk, etc., from a given point to any other point designated by the examiners. The new rule is causing some anxiety among the employes as it seems to be understood that some changes are in store for them.

To Give Mountainside the Go-by.

The people of Mountainside borrough are up in arms over the action of the Borough Council in refusing to allow the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railroad Company a franchise for a trolley line through that place. As now planned the trolley people have about decided to go around the borough. The line will run on Mountain avenue to Dudley avenue, then through private property to Branch Mills and then by Echo Lake, and so on through private property to Springfield.

IT IS COSTLY WORK FOR UNION COUNTY.

Boulevard Commission Bills Will be Rather Heavy.

BIG PAY FOR EVERYBODY.

COUNTY ATTORNEY CODINGTON ABLE TO CHARGE $50 A DAY.

Other Employes of the Commission Also Able to Charge at a Proportionally High Rate—Only One Half of the Work in Connection With the Project Has Been Furnished, Though.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 10—The Westfield avenue property condemnation commissioners have finished their labors in Union Township, from Elizabeth to Cranford, and will wind up their business today. The commissioners have passed upon eighty-five tracts of land and appraised their value for submission to Judge VanSyckel. Many of the property-owners are not satisfied with the awards made by the commissioners, but they will probably have to submit to their decision, as the Court is pretty certain to ratify the commissioners' work.

The commission has been a rather expensive body for the taxpayers, as every time they met each of the three commissioners received $10 a day. Stenographer Knight, of Newark, who assisted them, also got the same amount, as did also John Keron for inspecting the land and getting options from the property owners.

County Attorney Codington, who met every day with the commission, can charge, it is said, $50 a day for his services, while James Carey, the commissioners' messenger, was paid $2 50 a day, so that each day the commissioners met, the cost to the county was over $100.

Another commission will have to be appointed by the Court to appraise the land in Cronford Township that is wanted for the new county boulevard and trolley line. It is more than probable that Judge VanSyckel, in view of the fact that the Union Township commissioners have had the necessary experience required to do the work, will reappoint them on the Cranford job.

A WANDERING HORSE.

Falls Into the Hands of the Police and was Not Stolen.

A large gray horse, attached to a two seated surrey carriage, was found by Patrolman Vanderweg strolling over Belvidere avenue about 9 o'clock last evening. The officer took charge of the conveyance and made inquiries about Netherwood as to its ownership. After some little time the policeman learned that the rig was the property of William K. Banks, 1116 East Second street, who had been out calling and had hitched his horse to a post in front of a friend's residence some time previous to the officer's finding him. When Mr. Banks came to look for his horse and carriage he was surprised to find that they had disappeared. He was of the opinion that they had been stolen. As soon as possible Mr. Banks came down town and notified Sergeant Kiely, who in turn was about to send a general alarm throughout the precinct, when Officer Vanderweg hove in sight driving the much-wanted conveyance, which was found to be intact and none the worse for its peregrinations about the streets.

Mr. Banks thanked the policeman and said he would "see him later."

Five New Houses at Netherwood.

Netherwood real estate is on the boom. Five houses are soon to be erected in that portion of the city. Three handsome residences will be built on LaGrande avenue, and one each on South, near Woodland avenues, and on LaGrande, near Belvedere avenues.

THIEVED AS HE WORKED.

CLEVER RUSE OF A SNEAK THIEF IN THE HOSPITAL.

Claimed to be an Electrician and Secured Entrance to the Nurses' Home—Articles Missed After He Had Gone.

A man claiming that he represented the Plainfield Electric Light Company recently called at Muhlenberg Hospital, and stated that he had been sent there to make a thorough examination of the electric light wires at the hospital and at the home for nurses. He carried a satchel in which he was suppossed to have the tools to to make any repairs if necessary. He arrived at the hospital between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning and worked until about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. For a short time previous to his quitting he was at work in the home for nurses. Just before he left he told someone on duty that he had not quite finished his work, but would return and complete it after he had his dinner.

That was the last of him and the last seen of some valuables that were in the various rooms at the home for nurses, for there was strong evidence that the stranger had placed the things in his satchel before leaving and had walked away with them. The man had never been seen before by those in charge at the hospital, but it was supposed that he was sent from the Electric Light Company, as he stated.

It is not known exactly how much he took with him, but the losers are sorry that the man gained entrance to the buildings, and in the future the nurses will probably be more careful as to who they admit to work about the place.

ARRESTED FOR BELL RINGING.

Small Boy Captured by Constable Gjettleson on East Front Street.

The career of John Gjettlesen, since his election to the office of constable in the First Ward, has not been a particularly smooth one. Saturday afternoon he succeeded in arousing considerable indignation by arresting a small boy on the charge of ringing door bells on East Front street and taking him to the station house with the intention of locking up the lad.

Gjettleson is janitor at the Y.M.C.A. building. It was reported that some small boys were amusing themselves by ringing door bells and running away. He went on the war-path and captured young Tony Cagie, a lad of ten summers.

Gjettlesen took Tony to the stationhouse and then waited for Judge Runyon. As the latter wasn't around, Gjettlesen wanted until Roundsman Frederickson appeared. The Roundsman took the lad home where the latter's parents promised to see that he appeared when the Judge wanted him.

Funeral of Late Peter N. Kline.

The funeral service of the late Peter Nevius Kline were held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence, 435 East Sixth street, and there was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, officiated and after reading selecting from the Scripturee, spoke words of comfort and consolation. He also addressed feeling words to the bereaved ones. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful and consisted of several set pieces. The interment took ploce today at Baund Brook.

Sheriff Still in Charge.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, July 10.—The clubhouse of the Cranford Athletic Association is still closed, the result of the attachment served by the Sheriff Friday afternoon. However, the baseball team played the scheduled game with the Manhattanville Club, of New York, on the home grounds Saturday afternoon, and won by a score of 16 to 5.

Mrs. E. Frankenheim and children, Louis and Louise Frankenheim, of New York, have returned after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. M Leichentritt, of Central avenue.

PROPOSED HOME FOR AGED UNION WORKINGMEN AT LINCOLN, N. J.

THE HOME FOR AGED UNION WORKINGMEN

The Philanthropic Scheme of Mayor Silas Dewey Drake.

PLANS FOR THE BUILDING.

PREPARED BY ARCHITECT E. V. FRENCH, OF PLAINFIELD.

It Will be Four Stories in Height and Will be Fitted Out in an Up-to-date Manner in Every Respect—The Site Will be at Lincoln Where 15 Acres of Land Have Been Offered to the Labor Unions.

Having built several towns, a theatre, a church, advanced women's suffrage and done several other notable things, Mayor Silas D. Drake, of Lincoln, February 4th last, when he was fifty-five years of age, resolved to do something in a philanthropic line. The result is the proposed Home for Aged Union Workingmen at Lincoln, the scheme for erecting which, according to the ideas of Mr. Drake, will not cost the Federation of Trades and Labor Unions, who are urged to undertake it, one cent of outlay.

Mr. Drake, representing the Lincoln Realty Company, offers to donate 15 acres of land to the Federation, which will provide the site for the proposed home, as well as allow the cutting up of a large portion of the property into building lots, to be sold by the Federation to such of its members as could be induced to purchase, the profits of which are calculated to be enough to establish the home in good shape.

When the twenty-first annual congress of the Federation of Trades and Labor Unions meet in Orange August 21st, Mr. Drake will be on hand to exploit the project and to exhibit the plans of the Home which he has engaged E. V. French, an architect of this city, to prepare.

The building plan which Mr. French has prepared is a pretentious one. The building will be 125 feet long and 44 feet wide, and will face the north, bringing into full view the Watchung range of mountains and the historic Washington Rock. The centre pavilion will be 66 feet high. The basement, which covers the whole site of the building, will be divided into store-rooms, baths, lavatories, etc. The first floor will be divided into the main entrance in the centre pavilion, the dining room, assembly hall and officers' headquarters. On all sides of the building on the first floor will be a wide porch, and on the second and third floors will be constructed balconies, or porticoes 28 feet long and 6 feet deep, which are designed to be opened in the summer, and the winter enclosed with glass, so that they may as sun parlors.

On the ground and third floors there will be 23 bedrooms each, of an average size of 9 x 15 feet. The fourth floor will also be devoted to bedrooms. There will be accommodations for 200 inmates. The estimated cost of the building is $30,000.

The project has already been under serious consideration of the executive committee of the Federation of Labor and Trades' Unions, and has secured their approval. Chairman Gottlob is especially interested in the idea, and has devoted considerable time in getting it before the unions that will be asked to help establish it.

LUNCH WAR OVER.

Harry Silverstein's Opponents Decide to Locate Their Wagon Elsewhere.

The war clouds which have been hovering about the lunch wagon business in this city for the past two weeks or more have suddenly disappeared and once more the dove of peace has appeared.

It was expected that Harry Silverstein's father and brother, now having a lunch wagon at Plainfield, were coming here. They went so far as to take out a license and were looking for a location.

Last Saturday night, however, they made application to the city clerk for the return of their license money, as they had decided to locate elsewhere. The fee no doubt will be returned to them.

Mr. Silverstein some days ago secured a revokal of the privilege given his opponents by the Howard Savings Institution to stand their wagon along the Masonic Hall site. It is thought the newcomers were unable to get another good location and consequently decided to stay at Plainfield. —New Brunswick Times.

Killed a Valuable Dog.

A valuable hound dog owned by Marshal Campbell, of the borough, had to be killed last evening. It was thought that the animal had been poisoned, but symptoms of hydrophobia developed before the dog was killed. "Hank" Frisbie did the act with his painless method.

HORSE WAS STARVING.

OWNER WILL PROBABLY BE PROSECUTED BY S. P. C. A.

The Animal Collapsed on Craig Place—Taken in Charge by Agent Pangborn, Who Caused it to Fed.

From all appearances Wm. Ruttman, of Manning avenue, is liable to be an object for treatment at the hands of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, as his case is now being considered by Special Agent Wm. N. Pangborn.

Ruttman, who does odd jobs in the carting line, was driving his horse through Craig place early this morning. There was a pretty good load on the wegon, and the horse, weak from want of something to eat, could go no further and simply dropped into the roadway. Miss Lulu Vail, of Elmwood place, was passing on her wheel and the horse in falling narrowly missed striking her. It is said by those who saw the affair that Mr. Ruttman was striking his horse and urging him on.

Soon after the animal dropped Ruttman left and did not return for over an hour. In the meantime people gathered and wondered what would become of the unfortunate beast. W. L. Smalley, Sr., in front of whose house the horse fell, secured some oats and hay and fed the animal, who seemed to eat as though he had never seen feed before.

Before the owner of the horse returned Mayor Smalley and several other officials of the borough appeared and succeeded in getting the horse on his feet, and the Mayor ordered a colored man to take the horse to Dreyer's Hotel stables. Just as he started off with the horse the owner appeared and wanted him. Marshall Campbell interfered and refused to let Ruttman have him, and the Mayor informed him that they had a case against him for cruelty to animals.

The horse was finally stabled and given some feed. In the meantime the matter will be investigated by Mr. Pangborn, and if it is found that there is a good case against the owner of the horse, he will be prosecuted.

RAIN STOPPED GOLFERS.

ONLY THREE SCORES FOR M'CUTCHEN CUP HANDED IN.

Play on the Park Golf Club Course Was Suddenly Ended Saturday Afternoon—Players Were All Drenched.

There was a score of golfers out on the Park Golf Club links Saturday afternoon when the storm came rolling over the mountain and caught them unawares. Immediately there was a grand scattering in the direction of the clubhouse, and those who were unlucky enough to be in the vicinity of "Grand-View," the fifth hole, reached the haven of refuge in a sadly dampened condition. Some of the braver ones remained at play for a little while, but the heavy downpour soon converted the course into a lake and play was entirely out of the question.

There were just three scores handed in for the Mrs. C. W. McCutchen cup, the other contestants giving up on account of the rain. Wm. A. Townsend and Gifford W. Cooley divided the honors for the afternoon with C. E. Faber, a good third.

Their scores were:

| | Gross. | Handicap. | Net. |
|---|---|---|---|
| G. W. Cooley..... | 105 | 9 | 96 |
| W. A. Towasend.... | 112 | 16 | 96 |
| C. E. Faber..... | 128 | 30 | 98 |

Miss Daisy Eisberg has been doing some remarkably good playing for the last two or three weeks and Saturday afternoon completed the necessary one round and entered her score for the Buttfield cup. Her gross score was 82, with a handicap of 18, which made a net score of 64. This is the first time in three weeks that there has been any competition for that trophy.

CRANFORD CARNIVAL.

Commodore Miller Calls a Meeting to Revive the Famous River Spectacles.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Cranford, July 10 — An effort is being made by some of the leading men of this place to arrange a river carnival for Cranford this fall. These carnivals have been held on the Cranford river for many years past, and have made Cranford famous.

Commodore J. Harvey Miller, of the Cranford Boating Association, has called a meeting for this evening, at which time the question of holding a carnival will be discussed. Many new boats have been bought by the residents during the past year, and a carnival this year will excell all others ever held.

Discharged From Hospital.

Geo. Perrine and Cornelius Splane, of this city, who have been at Muhlenberg Hospital under treatment, were discharged today cured.

FORMER POLICEMAN WOULD KILL A MAN.

Accueed Baseball Player of Throwing a Game.

HE SHOT AT THE PITCHER.

FORTUNATELY, THE BULLETS DID NOT ENTER THE FLESH.

George Stevenson, of Raritan, Guilty of the Desperate Act—His Intended Victim was James McInness, at Whom He Became Angered Over the Result of a Game of Baseball Saturday

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, July 10 — George Stevenson, a former policeman of Raritan, attempted to kill Pitcher James McInness, of the Bound Brook baseball team, late Saturday night in Bound Brook. The Bound Brook team and a nine from the Thirteenth Regiment, of Brooklyn, played a game at Bound Brook Saturday afternoon which resulted in a victory for the Thirteenth Regiment team. Stevenson attended the game, and bet heavily on the Bound Brook team. After the game Stevenson accused Pitcher McInness of throwing the game in favor of the Brooklyn team. He followed McInness around in public places during the night, and several times repeated the charge.

McInness, who had continued to ignore Stevenson, lost his temper and knocked him down. As Stevenson regained his feet he drew his revolver and opened fire on McInness, who stood near the station of the Brunswick Traction Company in Main street. At the first shot McInness started to run across the street, but fell directly in front of a trolley car. The car was stopped and McInness jumped to his feet and ran behind it. He was followed by Stevenson, who continued to shoot at close range. A number of bullets from his revolver hit the trolley car and created a panic among the passengers, who quickly jumped out of the opposite side of the car. Stevenson kept on firing until he emptied his revolver.

McInness in the meantime had started on a rapid run up the street. When overtaken by his friends several blocks from the scene he was uninjured, but there were two bullet holes in his coat. Stevenson disappeared after the shooting, and he has not yet been arrested. Stevenson was suspended from the Raritan police force last week. He came to Bound Brook Saturday as a special officer to serve a warrant.

STORM SEWER WORKS WELL.

It Carried off Saturday's Storm in Great Shape.

The advantages of the Park avenue storm sewer were clearly demonstrated on Saturday during the heavy storm that visited this city. Usually the street has been flooded to such an extent that it would be impossible to cross, and planks have been used frequently to get from one side of the street to the other. The sewer shows that it is able to take the water as fast as it appears, and when the street is put in first-class condition the efficiency of the sewer will be far greater. At present the street is in a wretched condition, there being many depressions that hold the water back. However, the Council is to be congratulated upon putting the sewer in the street, and the residents along the street appreciate what has been done. Another advantage shown was under the Park avenue railroad bride. The water did not block travel at that point as usual.

Midland Beach Excursion Company.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 10—Articles of incorporation of the Midland Beach Excursion Company were filed in County Clerk Howard's office Saturday morning. The company's headquarters is to be at Scotch Plains, and its business will be to charter boats and do a general excursion business in waters adjacent to New York. The capital is $20,000 and the incorporators are Louis R. Stegman, Scotch Plains; John R. Halpin, New York; Edward D. Cundell, Paterson.

Death of Member of Old Family.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 10.—William Lederick, 88 years old, died here yesterday. He was a contractor, whose ancestors came from Holland in 1710 and settled at West Camp, N. Y. One of his grandfathers was an officer under Braddock, in the French and Indian war, and his father was an officer in the War of 1812. Mr. Lederick voted for Fremont and for every Republican Presidential nominee since.

FIGHTING YELLOW FEVER.

Every Effort Being Made to Keep the Disease Out of Havana.

BARRACKS DISINFECTED.

Havana Papers Strongly Urge the Establishment of a Quarantine Against Vera Cruz.

Governor-General Brooke Studying the Yellow Fever Zones—Autonomists Making Strong Efforts to Obtain Admission to the Cuban National Party.

Havana, July 10.—Brigadier-General Randall has had all the barracks occupied by his command disinfected, believing that prevention of disease is better than cure. The local papers strongly urged the Marine Hospital service to establish a quarantine against Vera Cruz, where the deaths from yellow fever average fifty a day. Havana is exceptionally healthful now, and it is thought that arrivals from Vera Cruz seriously menace the public health. Of the two persons reported on Thursday to be ill with yellow fever, one has been proven to be suffering from typhoid.

Governor General Brooke is studying the yellow fever zones of Havana of previous years for the purpose of discovering the healthful and unhealthy parts of the city.

Fifteen hundred invitations were issued for the reception and ball given by Gen. Ludlow. The palace was a bower of flowers, and the decorations of flags and bunting were profuse. Every available inch of space in the building was brought into requisition. Over twelve hundred persons were present.

Senor Sagrario, the Spanish Consul General, paid an official visit to Gen. Brooke. The talk was made up mainly of social platitudes.

The Autonomists are making a strong effort to obtain admission to the Cuban National party. Senors Galvez, Govin, Freyre and Marcos Garcia and the Marquis de Montero, the first two named being provincial Governors during the Autonomist regime, have formed a club and issued a call requesting the names of all members of the old party for the purpose of presenting a petition asking recognition.

They are encountering bitter opposition, as a majority of the Cubans regarded the Autonomists as little worse than the Spaniards, and desire that harmony may prevail, especially among the heads of the party and earnest thinkers desiring united action between all elements in the island.

A party of bandits are reported to have made a raid upon the Victoria stock farm, near Limonar, Matanzas province, and stole a number of head of cattle.

A meeting of the Santiago Society of Havana was held to arrange for the holding of a dinner on the 17th inst., to celebrate the Spanish surrender. Gen. Chaffee, Chief of the Governor-General's staff; Gen. Ludlow, Captain Lucien Young and about thirty others are expected to attend the function.

Democrats Fight at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 10.—The Democratic County Convention here broke up in the biggest kind of a row and resulted in considerable blood being shed in a general free-for-all fight. The convention split up into three separate and distinct factions and finally adjourned without transacting any business. In the fight several men were knocked off the stage and the police had to be called upon to quiet the disturbance.

Rich Klondike Clean-Up.

Tacoma, Wash., July 10.—Dr. L. O. Wilcoxin, of Chicago, who has arrived from Dawson, brings news of an enormous clean-up that took place in the first half of June, when pack trains arrived at Dawson daily from Bonanza, Eldorado, Hunker and Sulphur Creeks, each bringing $500,000 to $1,000,000 in dust. The big pack trains made several trips from Prof. Lippey's claim, on Eldorado Creek, which produced two tons of gold dust.

Three Men Killed in a Fight

Louisville, Ky., July 10.—A fight in which three men lost their lives, occurred at Combs Post Office. The fight was between James Willis, Bob Freeman and Tom Coyle, all distillers, on one side, and Rufus and Scott Baker on the other. The two Bakers were killed. The others were hurt. The fight was the outgrowth of a drunken brawl, the parties having just taken a barrel of whiskey out of bond.

Yale University Buys Land.

New Haven, Conn., July 10.—Yale University, through Treasurer Farnam, has just completed a real estate purshase involving near a half square of city property. The total cost is $146,000, and the property acquired includes all the land on the College Street Square north of the Scroll and Keys Fraternity House.

Killed in a Diamond Mine.

Cape Town, July 10.—A disaster has occurred at the new Jagersfontein Diamond Mine, where the fall of thousands of tons of earth has buried many people, including an Australian named Forsythe. Some other Australians were killed, several persons were injured and sixteen are missing.

Fatally Hurt By Dynamite.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 10.—A despatch from Belmont says Everett Austin, aged eighteen years, was probably fatally injured by a dynamite explosion at Cuba Lake. It is said jealousy over attention paid a party of woman campers is at the bottom of the affair.

Will Not Be a Governor.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 10—Major Alexander Shaw, of Baltimore, who is in Saratoga, has been mentioned in Maryland as a probable Republican candidate for Governor of that State. He says he would not accept the nomination even were it tendered to him.

FAMILY NEARLY WIPED OUT

Father, Mother and Four Children Killed at Columbus.

Columbus, Ohio, July 10.—All except one of the seven members of the family of William Reinhard, of this city, were killed, and the remaining one was badly injured, by a Big Four passenger train. The dead are: William Reinhard, 41 years old; Rachael Reinhard, 40; William Reinhard, 12; Arthur Reinhard, 9; Karl Reinhard, 7; Edward Reinhard, 5.

Clarence Reinhard, 14, suffered from a broken collar bone.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard and their five children were out for a drive in a surrey. They approached the railroad crossing from the east, crossing the track just as the west-bound passenger train came along.

The vehicle was knocked into splinters and Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard and Arthur and Karl were killed outright. Edward and William were so badly injured that they died after being removed to a hospital. It is believed that Clarence will recover.

The horse was literally ground to pieces. The crossing has long been regarded as a dangerous one, the view of incoming trains being obscured by a high fence around the fair grounds. The train was running at high speed.

Held His Wife While She Burned.

Corning, N. Y., July 10.—The details of a fiendish attempt to murder have reached here from Blossburg, Pa. According to the story of the victim, Mrs. Isaac Borrell, her husband, who keeps a bakery at that place, deliberately set fire to her clothing with lighted paper and then held her hands while he watched the flames enveloping her. The shrieks of the suffering woman attracted the neighbors, and she was taken away from the man and the flames extinguished. Her body was badly burned and her recovery seems improbable. Borrell and his wife are each about 60 years old and have a large family.

Boy With Lockjaw May Die.

Orange, N. J., July 10—At the Orange Memorial Hospital it was said that the condition of Stanley Pierson, the fourteen-year-old boy who is suffering from lockjaw, is still critical. While loading a revolver on the Fourth-Pierson shot himself in the hand. The cartridge was a blank one. He went home and his mother removed the wadding and dressed the wound, which appeared to be slight. Saturday he complained of pains in the jaw, and when examined by a physician the latter pronounced it lockjaw.

Killed on an Ice Wagon.

Hartford, Conn., July 10.—Florence May Hatch, a seven-year-old girl residing with her parents on Retreat avenue, climbed on the rear end of an ice wagon to get a ride. As the vehicle jolted along the road a large cake of ice was dislodged and fell out of the wagon, striking the child on the head and felling her to the ground. She was quickly carried to the hospital, a short distance away, where it was found that her skull was fractured. The ice had struck her on the temple. She died an hour later.

Memorial to David L. Follett.

Syracuse, July 10.—A memorial in honor of the late Justice David L. Follett was spread upon the minutes of Justice Frank H. Hiscock's special term of the Supreme Court held here. Former Senator Frank Hiscock, Congressman Michael E. Driscoll, W. P. Goodelle and N. E. Lyman spoke. The memorial was written by former Chief Judge Andrews, of the Court of Appeals.

Hanged Himself in a Garret.

New Haven, Conn., July 10.—The body of Henry M. Chamberlin, of Guilford, was found hanging in the garret of his home here. Mr. Chamberlin was one of the best-known citizens of Guilford. In May he had some trouble with his wife. She left him and has been suing him for non-support. He worried a great deal over this trouble, and it is believed that this led to his suicide.

Worked Box Trick Once Too Often.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 10.—John R. Greene, the alleged bunco and confidence man, has been taken to Greensburg, to answer a charge of fleecing William Barnhart out of $1,000 by the tin box trick. The crime was committed in 1887, and Mr. Barnhart has since died. Greene says he will plead guilty. The prisoner is wanted in Seattle for murder and all over the country for working the tin box trick.

Dreyfus' Persecutor Punished.

Paris, July 10.—M. Deniel, Governor of the Salut Islands and administrator of the penal settlement on Devil's Island, where Captain Dreyfus was imprisoned, has been removed, and will be succeeded by M. La Soucan. M. Deniel was responsible for much of the punishment meted out to the prisoner in the hope of compelling him to declare himself guilty.

Large Crowds Hear Endeavorers.

Detroit, Mich., July 10.—A large crowd was in attendance at Christian Endeavor meetings yesterday afternoon and last evening, and all were entertained with eloquent speeches by several of the visiting delegates. Some of the city pastors also spoke. All of the sessions have been of a very intereting nature.

A Changed Opinion.

Mr. Crimsonbeak: "Yes; but that was before he took to selling sugar."—Yonkers Statesman

"That's a swell hat you are wearing," said the city editor.

"Just look what a swell head it is on," answered the court reporter, in thoughtless haste.—Indianapolis Journal.

Goes to Washington in Response to Telegram From President McKinley.

CALLED IN CONFERENCE

Asked For Advice in Regard to Appointment of Officers For New Philippine Regiments.

He Suggests the Appointment of Only Those Who Served in Spanish-American War—The Governor Declares That He Will Not Be Secretary of War.

Washington, July 10.—Gov. Roosevelt, of New York, in response to a telegraphic summons from President McKinley, was a guest at the White House, and during his stay had several important conferences with the President on the Philippine situation.

The purpose of the President in summoning the Governor, as Mr. Roosevelt himself said, was to have a talk with him regarding the organization of the ten new regiments of volunteers about to be recruited, and particularly with reference to the appointment of principal officers for the regiments. The President and Gov. Roosevelt had a long conference in regard to the appointments, it being the desire of Mr. McKinley to carry out consistently the announced policy of the Administration to appoint these officers solely on their merits. After his first interview with the President, Col. Roosevelt said:

"Now that the President has asked my advice in regard to these appointments I have no hesitation in expressing to him my opinion that the officers for the new regiments of volunteers should be chosen strictly from the list of those who served in the Spanish-American war, and so far as possible from those who served with special distinction and from first to last demonstrated their capacity for taking care of and commanding their troops. If a sufficient number of these veterans are available it would seem particularly wise, in the interest of justice and efficiency, to appoint them to commissions in the new volunteers. I shall take occasion, of course, to recommend a number of my old comrades in arms in the Rough Riders' regiment, for they deserve places and some of them want them. But I have no favorites, except as they may deserve consideration on account of their services during the recent war."

The President was asked to appoint Col. Ward, late of the 202d New York Volunteers, to a colonelcy in the new volunteers, and it is understood that this officer is among those who will be favorably recommended by Gov. Roosevelt.

A reporter asked Gov. Roosevelt if there was any truth in the report that he had been summoned to Washington to have the post of Secretary of War, to succeed Russell A. Alger, offered to him.

"There are some stories that are not worth denying," was the reply, "and this is one of them. To begin with, the President wouldn't offer me the place of Secretary of War, and, in the second place, if there were fourteen Secretaries of War, I would not give up the Governorship to be one of them."

Referring to anti-expansion and the anti-expansionists, Gov. Roosevelt said: "Of course every American worthy the name must stand behind the President in his resolute purpose to bring the insurrection in the Philippines to an end. I have no question that by the beginning of the rainy season Gen. Otis will be in a position to stamp out all resistance. Then the President will see that the reign of absolute law and justice follows. It cannot be too clearly kept in mind that the whole trouble is due to men who for two months prevented the ratification of the treaty of peace and to those who declined to give the President the troops he needed upon the terms asked. Those who opposed the ratification of the treaty have on their souls the responsibility of most of the bloodshed, both by our own troops and the natives, and those who have ever since been encouraging Aguinaldo to the limit if their small capacity share the guilt so far as their feeble powers permit. Those who opposed giving the forces needed showed themselves enemies of the country and flag. Every man who so voted in the Senate may have the satisfaction of knowing that he has done all he could to bring discredit on the flag and disgrace upon our arms."

Says He Has Talked Enough

New York, July 10.—Governor Roosevelt returned here from Washington last night, but refused to be interviewed. He said he had nothing further to say on the Philippine question than he had given out for publication while in Washington.

To Refrigerate Without Ice.

Trenton, N. J., July 10.—The Electric Axle, Light and Power Company, with an authorized capital of $25,000,000 has been incorporated here. The company is formed for the purpose of lighting, heating, ventilating and refrigerating railroad cars by means of an electric current generated by the revolution of the car axles.

The Yosemite at Singapore.

Singapore, Straits Settlements, July 10.—The United States auxiliary cruiser Yosemite, from New York May 11 for Guam, one of the Ladrone Islands, with Capt. Richard P. Leary, United States Navy, the new Governor of that place, with a detachment of marines to garrison the island on board, has arrived here from Columbo, Ceylon, which port she left July 1.

Work of Insane Man Foiled.

Reading, Pa., July 10.—H. W. Sellers, 35 years old, was detected in the act of wedging spikes and bolts to the rails of the Mount Penn Gravity Railroad. Trains run frequently, and on Sunday carry their greatest crowds. Had the man not been detected a terrible wreck no doubt would have followed.

OUR EXPORT TRADE

Increased Demand Abroad for American Products

Washington, July 10.—The details of exports from the United States during the fiscal year just ended show that every part of the world has evinced an increase desire for American products. To Asia, to Africa, to South America, to Mexico, to Canada and to the Hawaiian Islands and Oceanica our sales have increased in quantity and value as compared with the phenomenal year 1898, the only grand division from which our receipts have been smaller this year than last being Europe, and even there the reduction is confined to four countries, the United Kingdom, France, Belgium and Spain, and is due to the fact that a large home supply of breadstuffs has reduced their payments to us for this class of products.

Polygamy Exists

Salt Lake, July 10.—The Anti-Polygamy law of Utah is to be enforced, if it can be, in one case at least. Mormons deny that Polygamy longer exists, but the leaders each maintain several wives who bear their names, though the difficulty of proving a marriages saves them from prosecution.

ANGUS M. CANNON.

Angus M. Cannon, president of the Salt Lake State of the Church of Latter Day Saints, has been arrested on a charge of polygamy. The evidence on which the charge is based is proof of the birth of a child to one of his polygamous wives, Martha P. Hughes-Cannon, who is at present a member of the State Senate.

Engineer Asks Damages.

Plainfield, N. J., July 10.—E. W. Rick, engineer of the local train of the Lehigh Valley Road which was wrecked in a collision with another train at West Dunellen last January, has engaged R. V. Lindabury as counsel in a suit which he intends to bring in the courts for heavy damages for injuries received in that wreck. He has been unable to make any satisfactory settlement with the company up to this time. Eighteen persons were killed in the wreck and forty were injured. Rick lay in the Muhlenberg Hospital for several weeks, and has never entirely recovered from his injuries.

Fierce Tornado in Wisconsin.

Manawa, Wis., July 10.—A tornado passed over Union township, five miles north of this city. Only the fact that no city or village lay in its track prevented a result equaling the New Richmond horror. The storm struck the township at the western boundary and plowed a furrow across it six miles long and from fifteen to forty rods wide. Practically everything in its path was destroyed. Many farmhouses, barns and outbuildings and miles of fencing were wrecked. There was no loss of life, however, and so far as can be learned no person sustained injury.

Shot as Spy By Filipinos.

Altoona, Pa., July 10.—A comrade of Grant Cullom, of Company C, Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, until recently in service in the Philippines, has written to friends here that Cullom was captured and shot as a spy at Caloocan. Cullom was fluent in the Spanish language, and for that reason was detached as an orderly to Otis. Near Caloocan he entered the Filipino lines, but a rainstorm destroyed his disguise. He was captured and shot in sight of the American outpost. Cullom leaves a widowed mother residing in Beaver Falls.

Paymaster Wilcox Sentenced.

Washington, July 10.—Paymaster W. B. Wilcox of the navy has been tried by court-martial at the League Island Navy Yard and found guilty of drunkenness and sentenced to be dismissed from the service. Six of the seven members of the court recommended that Executive clemency be shown the accused. Acting on this recommendation the President has mitigated the sentence to the reduction to the foot of the list of paymasters and a loss of one-half pay for one year.

Marcus Daly's Copper Holdings.

Butte, Mont., July 10.—Marcus Daly, President of the Amalgamated Copper Company, popularly known as the Copper Trust, has returned from the East, and in an interview made emphatic denials of the published reports that he had sold out his interests in Montana and intended to leave the State and take up his home in Denver or elsewhere.

H. H. Hanna at Narragansett.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., July 10.—H. H. Hanna, of Indianapolis, has arrived here and will have a conference with the members of the Senate Sub-Committee, who are considering the question of currency reform.

Compressed Air Power Company.

Trenton, N. J., July 10.—The Continental Compressed Air Co., with an authorized capital of $15,000,000, has been incorporated here. The company will produce and furnish compressed air and other power.

President Declines Invitation.

Concord, N. H., July 10.—Governor Rollins has received a letter stating that President McKinley will be unable to attend "Old Home Week" in New Hampshire next month.

Gen. Rios Arrives at Madrid.

Madrid, July 10.—Gen. Rios, recently Spain's principal commander in the Philippines, has arrived here.

For three years and a half I suffered horribly with dyspepsia; everything I ate disagreed with me. I gave up all rich foods and consulted several physicians, but still I did not get any better, was badly constipated, had frequent headaches and dizzy turns. In February last I began taking Ripans Tabules and felt better almost immediately. I have taken three Tabules a day ever since, and would not know what to do without them.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Two Feet of Pain.
Pain is not usually measured by the foot, yet it is a fact that the unfortunates who suffer the miseries of aching feet endure an inch of torture to every square inch of foot they own.
Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.
Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:
D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. ## CIGAR MEN LOCKED OUT

Five Thousand Operators Involved and Long Fight Expected.

Tampa, Fla., July 10.—Twenty of the largest cigar factories of this city have started a lockout, which means the paralysis of the cigar-making industry here for an indefinite time. Five thousand operatives are thrown out of work, involving the suffering and deprivation of 12,000 persons.

The trouble culminating in the present lockout began three months ago, when the employes of the Ybor Manraro factory, the largest in the city, walked out because of the decison of the management to weigh all fillers gven out to operators for making into cigars. Efforts to amicably settle the strike failed, and cigarmakers at other factories joined with the strikers to defeat the purpose of the manufacturers. To protect their own interests the manufacturers formed an organization, and twenty firms signed an agreement to shut down indefinitely in case the strike was not settled immediately.

Committees of leading citizens met representatives of the manufacturers and strikers in hopes of settling matters. The strikers presented three demands, three of which, being trivial, the manufacturers granted. The fourth, calling for the abolition of the plan of weighing "fillers," was refused.

The shutdown means a loss of $60,000 to $75,000 in weekly wages. As Tampa makes 65 per cent. of the clear Havana cigars produced in the United States, the result will be felt all through the country.

Engine Left the Rails.

Reading, Pa., July 10.—While the accommodation train from Pottsville, on the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, was running through Shoemakersville, near here, at a speed of forty miles an hour, the locomotive struck the frog at a switch, left the rails, and, after going a short distance on the sills, turned over on its side. The tender and baggage car left the rails and were also overturned. Engineer Westley and his fireman stuck to their posts and were not injured at all. The baggage car was dragged for some distance, but its occupants were only slightly hurt. The passengers in the coaches were badly shaken up, but not one was injured.

Two Boys Killed by Falls.

Belleville, N. J., July 10.—Two Belleville boys were killed by accident almost instantly. Ernest Kalvio, 14 years old, of No. 85 Winthrop street, was picking cherries in Soho when the limb of the tree gave way, and he fell to the ground, breaking his back. A companion ran to get him a glass of water, but before he returned the boy was dead. Tracy Titus, 19 years old, leaned too far from the window of his home, in Stevens street, and fell two stories to the ground. His back was broken, and when a member of the household ran out to pick him up he was dead.

Editors Elect Officers.

Portland, Ore., July 10.—The National Editorial Association has elected these officers: President, R. H. Henry, of Jackson, Miss.; First Vice-President, "Matt" Parrott, of Waterloo, Iowa; Second Vice-President, F. M. Ballis, of Cleburne, Tex.; Third Vice-President, Albert Lozier, of Portland, Ore.; Corresponding Secretary, F. M. Page, of Jerseyville, Ill.; Recording Secretary, R. M. White, of Mexico, Mo., and Treasurer, James G. Gibbs, of Norwalk, Ohio. New Orleans was chosen as the place for holding the next annual convention in February, 1900.

Much Damage by Storm.

Torrington, Conn., July 10.—A heavy rain, together with a small-sized cloudburst, completely flooded a suburb of this place called Lower Germantown, and the 400 residents were driven from their homes to that part of the place called Upper Germantown, which is located on a hill. About fifty acres of land are covered with water on an average of three feet deep, and in places the water reached a depth of six and sven feet. In this city the basement stores are filled with water and the streets are badly flooded in places.

Gain Entrance Into Detroit.

Lansing, Mich., July 10.—The Detroit River Terminal & Railroad Company, capitalized at $500,000, has filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State. The company will build sixteen miles of standard gauge road from Detroit to Slocum Junction, the avowed purpose being to furnish a terminal for the Pennsylvania and other lines which now stop at Toledo, and which have been seeking an entrance into Detroit for some years.

Electrical Storm at Catskill.

Catskill, N. Y., July 10.—The First Baptist Church, the Prospect Park Hotel, and the Wiley Knitting Mill were struck by lightning during the terrific electric storm that passed over Catskill. A blaze in the knitting mill called out the Fire Department and for a time a panic prevailed among the operatives.

Surveying a Pacific Cable Route.

San Francisco, July 10.—The British survey steamer Egeria has arrived from Esquimalt, B. C. The English and Canadian Governments are to establish a cable between British Columbia and Australia, which will touch at Samoa and Hawaii. The Egeria is now engaged in surveying the route.

Peace Congress to Meet in Spring.

London, July 10.—A telegram from St. Petersburg asserts that The Hague conference will adjourn at the end of July, the members agreeing to reassemble in the spring, and that during the interval Emperor Nicholas will visit the principal European courts.

Munitions Going to Transvaal.

London, July 10.—A Rome despatch says the German steamer Reichstag has sailed from Naples with 15,000 rifles, 500 tons of war material and 500 mules for the Transvaal, and that another steamer with a like cargo will sail July 14 from Arenas.

Cleveland Not Yet Chosen.

Princeton, July 10.—The report that ex-President Cleveland has accepted a professorship at Princeton has been pronounced untrue.

Generous People do Creditable Work in Furnishing Relief For the Destitute Inhabitants.

Estimated That From 40,000 to 100,000 Are in Absolute Want—Government Rations Being Distributed Throughout the Flooded Districts.

Austin, Tex., July 10.—Gov. Sayers has received telegrams from many places adjacent to the widely inundated district of south Texas, giving graphic description of the terrible situation and suffering of the thousands of people. It is conservatively estimated that there are from 40,000 to 100,000 in absolute want. The work in rescuing the water-bound people from tree-tops and other places of refuge from the high waters is not yet completed. Over five hundred people have been rescued in Brazoria and Fort Bend counties. They were nearly all in a famished condition when found. Some of them had been clinging to branches of trees for four days without food and shelter.

The Government received the following telegram from J. J. Juliff, a prominent citizen of the town of Juliff, in Fort Bend county:

"Lots of people are still in the bottom, if not drowned. We have no boats or dry land to take them on. We need ten good boats quick."

The following telegram was received from M. E. Masterson, of Alvin:

"The condition of affairs in Brazos bottoms, from Sandy Point, Fort Bend county, down to the mouth of the river, is alarming. The Sheriff is at work with all his available boats. More boats are being built as rapidly as possible."

There are several hundred negroes at Angleton, Sandy Point, Chenango and Columbia in absolute need. They have no food and only the clothes they have on.

The Governor at once communicated with the committee having charge of the boats at Duke, and urged that immediate relief be sent to the suffering negroes. County Judge E. P. Curry, of Washington County, telegraphed Governor Sayers as follows:

"The loss from overflow in this county is very great. It is impossible as yet to estimate the amount. About 2,000 people in this county are in destitute circumstances. So far by a noble response to the demands of humanity our people have been able to relieve all cases of suffering."

Many cash contributions for the relief of the suffering have been received by the Governor. Among them was $3,800 from the Mayor of Boston, Mass; $1,000 from the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railway Company; $1,000 from the National Enamelling and Stamping Company of New York City; $3,000 from Milwaukee, $2,200 from Minneapolis; $1,500 from Detroit, Mich.; $4,700 from Chicago; $100 from the Hamilton Brown Shoe Company, St. Louis. Kansas City, Topeka and many other places have also contributed liberally both in cash and provisions. The money is being distributed under the personal direction of the Governor. The shipment of 20,000 Government rations has reached Richmond, and the work of distributing them among the needy people who are gathered here has been going on since and will continue without interruption.

The boats sent from Galveston and Houston succeeded in saving several thousand lives. Nearly all of the refugees were on the verge of starvation, as they had had nothing to eat for four days. The children especially are in a deplorable condition, and physicians say that many of them will die as a result of the exposure.

Brother Sides With Brother.

Muncie, Ind., July 10.—Philander Jester, of this place, brother of Alexander Jester, who arrived in Oklahoma three weeks ago and was taken to Missouri to answer the charge of murdering a brother of John W. Gates in 1871, has made a statement of importance. A sister charged Alexander with killing her sweetheart while the two men were coming back to Indiana in wagons from the West. Philander states that he has investigated and finds that on the date of the alleged murder his sister was the wife of a man in Kansas City, Kan., with a family of children. He denounces the woman as of unsound mind, and will go to his brother's assistance.

200,000 Gallons of Oil Seized.

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—Nearly 200,000 gallons of illuminating oil has been confiscated in Georgia as the result of the order of Commissioner Stevens directing inspectors throughout the State to seize all supplies that failed to come up to the standard set by law. This statement was made at the office of the Commissioner of Agriculture, and is taken to indicate that the fight on legal and dangerous oils, which the report of State Chemist McCandless showed abounded in the State, is on in dead earnest.

Yellow Fever in Mexico.

Austin, Tex., July 10.—Advices received by the State Health Department from places in southern Mexico in reference to the yellow fever situation showed that the epidemic is still raging at several places, including the city of Vera Cruz. The municipal and Federal authorities have done good work in improving the sanitary conditions of Tampico, and there has been no cases of the disease reported there for several weeks.

Bear Island is Safe.

Washington, July 10.—Minister Jackson reports to the State Department that the North German Gazette has made a semi-official denial of the report that the German Government intends to annex Bear Island, near Spitzbergen.

When You Are Away

For a week, or a month, or the whole summer, there is nothing more welcome than the news from home. There is only one way to get this news in the right shape, and that is by having The Daily Press sent to you at your vacation stopping place. When leaving town for a season be sure to order The Daily Press to follow you by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired. Ten cents a week will cover all expenses.

COMING EVENTS.

Collapse of Boulevard Project.

The great scheme of a boulevard running between Plainfield and Elizabeth, to be built and maintained by the county of Union, seems more visionary than ever, notwithstanding the fact that the taxpayers of the county are to be called upon to foot some heavy bills entailed in the preliminary work of trying to consummate the project.

The scheme seems to have met with unalterable and fatal opposition at at Cranford, where the majority of the citizens are undoubtedly opposed to it. The changes in the topography of the land along the proposed route are greater in Cranford than at any other point, and consequently, in adjusting the difference in what the county can afford to pay as damages and what the property owners think is their just due, there has developed a wide chasm in the plans looking to the success of the scheme.

Without a complete route between Elizabeth and Plainfield United States Senator Kean will probably consider that his offer of $250,000 for the right of way for a trolley line over the boulevard will not hold good in proportion to the distance that the county will be able to place at his disposal. In his case it will undoubtedly be the whole thing or none.

If Mr. Kean does not see fit to pay any share of the $250,000, which he has offered, towards helping liquidate the expenses already incurred, and the county is unable to force him to do so, then there will be only one thing to do. That will be for the taxpayers to foot the bills with the best grace possible under the circumstances.

PROFESSOR LANGLEY'S WAR AERODROME.
Professor S. P. Langley's perfected war aerodrome resembles a great bird in appearance. It is built largely of aluminum, and the body or car is about 25 feet long, 6 feet wide and 8 feet high. It is operated by a liquid air engine of 20 horse power and buoyed by liquid gas. Professor Langley's aerodrome was built in Washington.

The platform adopted by the Socialist-Labor party, at its State Convention in Kentucky Thursday, is one of the most remarkable over written in the interest of labor. It takes the position that the ills of the workingmen are not caused by the trusts and the money power and ridicules the cry "down with the trusts." The document holds that trusts are not wrong in themselves, that capital has a right to exist and perpetuate itself, but that the power to legislate should be with the people The platform argues that either the gold nor the silver question has anything to do with the material welfare of the nation.

Speaking of the difference of opinion in various cities as to what constitutes the best street pavement, the Newark Advertiser says this of asphalt: "Asphalt properly laid, at reasonable prices, on residential streets, is the most desirable pavement to be had, and it is quite as economical as any other, both in the paving and maintenance. The trouble with Buffalo is that it got "too much of a good thing," put it down in the wrong places and in a wrong way, under an insufficient guarantee, and paid too much to the contractors for the job."

The retirement of City Clerk MacMurry from the canvass for the Republican nomination of County Clerk will clearifiy the political atmosphere in the local G. O. P. circles considerable. With Mr. MacMurray and Roger Franklin Murray both out of the field for nominations at the hands of the county convention the chances for Sheriff Kirk to land the nomination of County Clerk ought to improve considerable, providing he can secure the unanimous support of the city delegates to form a combination with the Houston henchmen.

Information comes to the New York Tribune by way of an East Indian paper that Mr. and Mrs. Thambynayagampillai are now on a visit to Kovilkudyirruppu. Mr. Thambynayyagampillai is the son of Judge G. S. Airianayagampillai and son-in-law of Mr. A. Jambulingammudelliar. From this it is easy to reach the conclusion that society reporters in India lead a busy and interesting life.

What a calamity it would be for New York State to lose the services of Governor Roosevelt and have to put up with the administration that Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff would furnish. But it is scarcely likely that the Bough Rider will exchange his present place for one in President McKinley's cabinet, as has been suggested.

The kissing bug is said to be stronger than the Jersey mosquito, but we should advise the smacking insect to keep away from Elizabeth. The superior force of numbers might prove disastrous for him in that place.

A sheriff without political obligations to fulfill in the administration of his office ought to be a change that will be highly appreciated in Hudson county.

The Trenton True American asks: "Is it envy of the Jersey mosquito that has led Philadelphia and New York to the invention of a kissing bug?"

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Here is the way the Plainfield Press pokes it at us: "New Brunswick's Common Council has authorized the telford paving of six miles of city streets. Next to fewer pot-house politicians, there is nothing that the old Dutch city needs more than better streets." We haven't much to say, just now, but you wait a while!—New Brunswick Fredonian.

* * * * *

The New Jersey Court of Error and Appeals, which has evidently studied closely the opinions of that eminent Jerseyman, Attorney General Griggs, has been moved to decide in the case of the Sanitary Ware Trust against Oliphant and others that the Oliphants' agreement not to go into the business again is not in restraint of trade nor against public policy. Moreover, says this sapient tribunal, it is a question whether sanitary ware is a necessity of life; and, anyway, only a very few individuals were taken out of business under the agreement of the Trust with the Oliphants. Clearly, New Jersey is the place for the Trusts, where they may wax fat untroubled by pestilent agitators or severe and proscriptive judges. But what a rotten borough it is, after all!—Philadelphia Record.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The first essential for enduring hot spells is to get plenty of sleep. There is eminent medical authority for the statement that heat prostrations are due much more to the exhaustion incident to insufficient sleep on successive hot nights than to the actual intensity of the daily heat.

An effort is being made in this city to secure an observance of the Saturday half holiday among the local merchants, and already not a few have signified their willingness to close for a half day. Of course, the butchers and grocers can not and will not close, but there are many that can, and those in charge of the movement have reason to feel encouraged at the outlook. On the other hand there are a number who say the scheme is not a good one and they will not agree to it.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rushmore, of Rockview avenue, have leased a residence at Cranford, to which place they will move in a few days.

George Kirch, of Liberty street, who was burned recently about the face, is slowly recovering. He is obliged to wear silk caps over his ears which were burned to such an extent that special treatment has to be given.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee 15 and 25c.

An Unparalleled Sale of WHITE GOODS.

'Twould seem that we had supplied half the State with white good—but the end is not yet. Where have they gone? Where are they going? We cannot tell. We simply know they have gone and are still going at an astonishing rate. The natural inference is our goods and prices must be right. Certain we are that no concern in these parts offers so great a variety of new and in every way reliable white goods.

Piques, Dimities, India Linons, French Nainsooks, English Nainsooks, Check Nainsooks, Swisses, Mulls, Organdies, Tarlatans, Lace Stripe Muslins, Etc., in infinite variety. A full assortment of Sheets, Pillow Cases and Bolster Cases, all widths, hemstitched and with plain hem.

The very large purchase of Table Linens and Napkins spoken of a few days since, enables us to not only show a wonderful line of qualities and designs, but to give extraordinary values.

Bear in Mind the Fact that the prices on all Summer Goods, such as Shirt Waists, Wash Fabrics, Crash Skirts, Crash Suits, Pique Skirts, Duck Skirts, Etc., Etc., have been mercilessly cut and are selling freely. Wise persons will make early selections while sizes are complete.

Enthusiastic Ladies simply go in raptures over our White Lawn Dressing Sacks. We quite enjoy their ejaculations of delight upon first seeing the dainty garments. Most skillfully designed, exquisitely finished, they appeal very strongly to Ladies of refined taste.

Miscellaneous Vanities.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 10—Mrs. Fred Wilcox, who has been visiting Mrs. Ace, a former resident of this place, but who now lives in Strousburg, Pa., has returned home.

Miss Anna Titsworth and Miss Mary Garretson have been making a prolonged visit with their sisters at Ashaway, R. I.

The cosy barber shop of John Peters has been treated to a coat of paint, which greatly improves its appearance.

Miss Lizzie Flemings, of North Plainfield, has been visiting at the home of A. Ryno on Centre street.

C. M. Clary, who has been spending a week at Asbury Park, has returned home.

The heavy rain of Saturday night was of great benefit to vegetation.

The extended drouth has nearly ruined the gardens.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 10—The trolley did a good business yesterday, nearly every car arriving in the afternoon being well filled. A great many enjoyed a walk through the town while some came merely for the ride and returned on the same car. Ties are being piled along Westfield avenue and it is expected that the work of continuing the line on to Elizabeth will begin shortly.

The remarks that Mr. Shott's sermons on the sins and morality of the town would scare the usual summer boarders away from this quiet little hamlet this season, does not seem to be so, as the number equals if not exceeds the records of previous years.

The heavy showers of Saturday night left the roads in fine condition for wheeling, and the local hotels were kept busy attending to the needs of the many wheeling parties that pass through town every pleasant Sunday.

Owing to the heavy rain Saturday evening no dance was held at Emery's Pleasure Garden. A prize waltz and dance will be held Thursday night.

Col. Stegman, of Grand street, started Saturday for Europe, where he expects to combine business with pleasure for six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stillgar, who has been spending a week with Mr. Stillgar's parents, have returned to their home in Roselle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Scheelen, Jr., has started housekeeping in the Hawthorne place on Mountain avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Virtue and family, of Newark, are spending the summer at Mrs. Hosinger's, on Park avenue.

A special collection for Home Missions was taken up in the Baptist church yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and son, of Duer street, North Plainfield, visited friends in town Saturday.

The Misses Wagner, of Madison, are the guests of their cousins, the Misses Cook, for a few days.

Mrs. Hoffman, of Fanwood, led the young people's meeting in the Baptist church last evening.

Mrs. Thomas Gere, of Brooklyn, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Jr.

T. J. Nichol, who was taken suddenly ill Friday, is able to be around again.

Mrs. George Schick has entirely recovered from her recent illness.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 10.—Nine boys were boys were summoned before Justice Collins at Westfield Friday to answer to the complaint of Officer Zechel on a charge of disorderly conduct on the morning of July 4th. They were: Samuel Vought, Elmer Woodruff, Herbert Love, Actarius Knight, Chas. Kimball, Harry Green, William Bogart, Walter Farrar and Louis Daven port. The boys were not represented by counsel, but so ably conducted their own case and pleaded patriotism and Fourth of July favor that the Justice after giving them a short lecture on how far they should carry their fun, dismissed the cases.

A petition, headed by George B. Dickerson and H. Huffman Brown, from the residents and property owners on Dudley avenue, asking that some action be taken in regard to the Union Water Company giving a better service on that street, has been sent to the Township Committee. Last week two boilers collapsed because the water was so low. The petition was passed by the Committee and sent to the Union Water Company, with a request that something be done at once.

A committee of young men living here have decided to hold a series of sports and races Labor Day, Sept. 4th. There will be among other events a fifteen mile road race, open to all comers.

SATISFACTORY EXCUSE.

Where Court Was Adjourned and Bills Received an Apology.

"I suppose some of these stories from the West are exaggerated, but this I saw myself." The speaker was a reliable Detroit lawyer, who first tested his professional fortunes in Northern Missouri.

"Everything else being anywhere near equal out there in those days, the man who was the best rifle shot had the most enviable popularity. Scott and Bills were two rival marksmen in the village where I practiced, and their jealousy of each other was so great that it was frequently predicted that they would some time turn loose on one another.

"Scott was elected Justice of the Peace, and at the time of this incident was having a jury trial in which I was employed. Bills had been subpoenaed as a witness, but did not appear. I declined to proceed without him. After fumbling and saying unbecoming things from the bench, the court ordered that Bills be brought in dead or alive. "He can't show no contempt fur this court and git away with it,' and the Squire hit the table a resounding blow.

"'He won't come,' reported the constable a few minutes later, 'and he says all the officers in Missourey can't bring him, ne'ther.'

"'He do, do he?' and Scott sprang to his feet, his eyes blazing. 'Whar is he?'

"'To a shootin' raffle out to the edge of the town.'

"'A shootin' raffle? why warn't this court noterfied? Case is adjourned. Git my riffle, officer, and then apolergize to Bills, or the darned critter 'll be tellin' I was fur puttin' the law on him so he could't make a record. Course he wouldn't come.'"—Detroit Free Press.

The Awakening.

She had not been married so long that she had broken herself of the habit of occasionally fishing for compliments, and she liked above all things to hear him say how he prized her. But this time he was taken off guard and spoke thoughtlessly.

"It was a $20 gold piece you gave the minister who married us, wasn't it?" she asked.

"Yep," he answered without looking up from his paper.

"That's a lot of money, George," she suggested, and then waited for him to throw down his paper and say: "Not for such a treasure," or something like that, but he didn't. Instead he replied with a depth of feeling that was unusual:

"Well, you can just everlastingly bet that it is."

She hasn't been much of an angler since.—Chicago Post.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Only 50 cents and $1.00, every bottle guaranteed.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Der Bauarbeiter Paul Ludwig, der in der Vorstadt Striesen seine Frau und sein Töchterchen erdrosselte und dann zu verbrennen suchte, ist durch einen Forstbeamten im Großröhrsdorfer Forst festgenommen worden. Obwohl er eine geladene Waffe bei sich trug, ließ er sich ohne jeden Widerstand fesseln. Er gestand unter Weinen das Verbrechen ein und gab an, es aus Nahrungssorgen begangen zu haben.—Der 68 Jahre alte Justizrath Hecker hat sich hier in seiner Wohnung durch einen Revolverschuß aus unbekannten Gründen getödtet.

Leipzig. Das Reichsgericht verwarf den Antrag auf Revision der Photographen Wilke und Priester in Hamburg, sowie des Försters Spörcke, die am 18. März d. J. von dem Landgericht in Altona wegen Hausfriedensbruches, begangen durch unbefugtes Eindringen in das Sterbezimmer des Fürsten Bismarck, zu sechs beziehungsweise drei und fünf Monaten Gefängniß verurtheilt worden waren. Ferner wurde auch die vom Staatsanwalt beantragte Revision verworfen, der darüber Beschwerde geführt hatte, daß das Landgericht nicht auf Einziehung der photographischen Platten erkannt hatte.

Lommatzsch. Der kürzlich verstorbene Privatus Karl Heller hat der Stadt die Summe von 5600 Mark vermacht, deren Zinsen wohlthätigen Zwecken zu Gute kommen sollen.

Mochau. Im Armenhause beging die Wittwe Kretzschmar ihren 100. Geburtstag.

Zwickau. Von der 64 Meter hohen Elsterthalbrücke bei Jocketa ist ein Unbekannter herabgesprungen. Der Körper des Unglücklichen wurde beim Aufschlagen furchtbar zerschmettert.

Blankenburg. Zur Erinnerung an die Thatsache, daß Friedrich Fröbel in Blankenburg den ersten Kindergarten eingerichtet, hat der Allgemeine Kindergärtnerinnen-Verein beschlossen, hier ein Friedrich Fröbel-Haus zu errichten. Das Haus soll einen Kindergarten, ein Fröbel-Museum und eine Erholungsstätte für Kindergärtnerinnen in sich schließen. Die Stadtgemeinde hat den Grund und Boden zur Verfügung gestellt.

Gera. Zu Erneuerungsarbeiten an der hiesigen Salvatorkirche will der Ausschuß einen Wettbewerb deutscher Architekten ausschreiben; für die Baukosten sind 50,000 Mark vorgesehen.—Die hiesige Strafkammer verurtheilte den 21jährigen Hausburschen Weidehaas wegen Besudelung des hiesigen Bismarck-Denkmals zu einem Jahr Gefängniß.

Koburg. Ein hiesiger Kaufmann, Hoflieferant Hermann Gräf, versendet ein Cirkular an seine Geschäftskommittenten, worin er mittheilt, daß drei seiner jungen Leute „ohne jeden Grund" kündigten und mit einem Vierten ein neues Geschäft eröffnen wollen. Schließlich heißt es in dem Cirkular: „Wenn Ihnen nun an einer ferneren Geschäftsverbindung mit mir gelegen ist, so bitte ich Sie, mit genannten jungen Leuten jeden geschäftlichen Verkehr zu meiden."—Auch ein nettes Stück Terrorismus!

Hamburg. Die Hamburg-Amerika-Linie hat ihren Schnelldampfer „Columbia" von der spanischen Regierung zu einem angemessenen Preise wieder zurückgekauft.—Hier soll die von Professor Robert Koch vorgeschlagene Station für Tropenkrankheiten errichtet werden. Kochs Vorschlag auf Einrichtung der Beobachtungsstation in Berlin ist fallen gelassen, natürlich aus Gründen der Zweckmäßigkeit, denn die mit Tropenkrankheiten behafteten Passagiere und Seeleute, die wohl ausnahmslos hier landen, brauchen dann die Fahrt nach Berlin nicht zu machen. Die Station wird hier im Seemannskrankenhause eingerichtet werden, zunächst für 30 Personen.

Bremen. Der Norddeutsche Lloyd bewilligte den Marinemannschaften, welche bei der Flottmachung des Dampfers „Kaiserin Maria Theresia" behilflich waren, 3000 Mark Gratifikation.

Lübeck. Auf Veranlassung des Senats wird ein Gesetzentwurf betreffend die Geschäftssteuer von der Steuerbehörde ausgearbeitet.—Der Reisende Lueders, Angestellter einer hiesigen Großhandlung, verübte Selbstmord wegen im Laufe der letzten fünf Jahre verübter erheblicher Unterschlagungen.

WAS ALL RIGHT AT HEART.

But He Did Not Understand the Ways of Polite Society.

For years this man was a rough Westerner, toiling with brain and muscles for a fortune. He made a big one and after he had shown his family all the principal cities of the country, they decided to settle in Detroit. His children are highly educated and of fine social standing, but his ways and ideas were fixed when he settled down to a questionable enjoyment of his remaining years.

He has a way of referring everything perplexing to his lawyer, whom he hires by the year, so that there may be some understanding as to terms. The other day the old gentleman secured an audience with his legal adviser and begun business at once.

"What kind of feller is that Blank?" he inquired. Kind of durned fool hain't he?"

"He's regarded as one of our most exemplary and promising young men. I know him well, and he'll succeed."

"Well I hope so, but I tell you he hain't got the sand. He's been shinin, 'round the oldest gal of mine and the other day he kim sneakin' inter my private den, made a fine speech tellin' me how he loved her and asked me could he have her. I tole him mighty quick to do his own courtin', and if he was to doggone skeered to ask her he needn't look to me to pull his ches' nuts outen the fire. What he thanked me fur I hain't figurd out yit. Next day she showed me a big diamon' ring on her finger she said he gave her and tole as how they wer engaged. Then I kicked up 'norther muss. If she wants diamonds I'm a durned sight abler to buy 'em 'an he is. When I tole her to send it back and behave herself, her and the old lady stampeded and I hain't been able to 'round 'em up no how. Now, how is it?"

After the lawyer had drawn on his social code for the benefit of his client, the latter swore a paragraph or two at himself and went out to look for a nice little home he could buy for "that feller Blank and the gal."—Detroit Free Press.

Good Use for Good Money.

"Will you give a poor fellow a dime, boss?"

"I suppose you want to buy whiskey with it?"

"No, boss, I want to get my hat cleaned."

Not Married Yet.

I rode up to a country store, where a young girl stood on the porch swinging a sunbonnet and talking to a mountaineer. I had left her in that position a year before, and her father had told me then his daughter and the mountaineer would soon be married. Talking to the father a few minutes later, I asked:

"Is your daughter married yet?"

"Naw, an' I don't think she will be."

"What is the trouble? I saw her talking to her lover just now."

"Yaas—she don't do much else. Thet feler ain' no 'count. He's ben courtin' for three y'ar, an' axed Sal ter marry 'im y'ar ago. I tol' him ter clean out, an' s'posed he'd 'lope with her. I tol' Sal she could hev my bes' hoss ter run away with, but he never did make no propersition. I ain' goin' ter the expense of no weddin' fixin's, an' it looks like he wan't goin' ter run off with her, so it jes' stan's thar. I ain' goin' ter have no home weddin'; kain't afford no sich nonsense; an' I've hed six gals run off an' git married, and that feller don't seem to hev no appreciation of the sittywation."

As I left the girl was still talking to her lover, while the old man watched them from behind a tree.

A Long-Felt Want.

Delinquent Patient (quietly entering doctor's office)—I judge, Doctor, by that array of drugs before you, that you are trying to devise some new medical compound.

Doctor—I am; I'm trying to study out a new form of emetic much needed by our profession.

Delinquent Patient—A new form of emetic, did you say?

Doctor—Yes. Something to operate on the pockets of our patients.

Getting Some "Trimmins."

"Where is your old man this morning, Auntie?"

"He done gone down to the tavern, sah, to git some trimmin's."

"Trimmings? The tavern is a queer place to go for anything of that sort, isn't it?"

"I reckon not, sah. Dat's de on'y place he ebber go ter git de kine he done use; I mean de kine wha' de doctor call delirum trimmin's."

The Urgent Need.

"Say, old man, lend me a quarter. I have a sure thing on the Stock Exchange."

"What you only need a quarter?"

"Yes. I want it to tip the doorkeeper, so as I can get on the floor, where I can borrow $100 from my rich cousin."

The Modern Method.

"It is an awful thing not to know where one's next meal is coming from."

"Yes, but a good many of us married men are experiencing it since the grocery stores got to advertising bargain sales."—Indianapolis Journal.

WHAT HE YEARNED FOR.

Quite Sure That Humor Has Degenerated Since the Old Days.

"I tell you what it is," said the man with tired, drooping eyes and a scrubby fringe of fur a ound his overcoat, "humor ain't wha it used to be. Back in the days when I used to write the real stuff for the Whangsville Monitor—never heard of the Monitor? Why it was the sensation of the day. I couldn't go to a minstrel show or pick up a book without seeing some of the good things I had had in the Monitor; changed, of course, but I could recognize them."

"Do you think humor has degenerated since then?" inquired his auditor, whose interest seemed rather slight.

"I should say so. I don't see any of the good, old-fashioned, out-and-out fun that used to delight me. Where is that joke about the mother-in-law? It has drifted from the scene. Like the giants of oratory and statesmanship and acting, it is no more. The way they used to get up things to hurt the feelings of mothers-in-law and show 'em they had no right to say a word if a man chose to stay out all night and come home intoxicated and fumble around the keyhole did my heart good. That always used to make me laugn; the way they would depict a man in a state of total inebriety fumbling at the keyhole, with his mother-in-law and wife inside, wondering whether it would be safe to let him in or not."

"We don't see as much of that sort of humor as we used to, assented his friend.

"No. They seem to have lost the knack. The spirit of the age is iconoclastic. The tendency is to slight the old classics; even to sneer at them, and think that things pretty near as good are being produced. There was the young man who went trembling into the old man's study to ask him for his daughter's hand. What has become of him? The way the old party would take him by the ear, lead him out to the front door and kick him clear out to the curbstone—he always lit on the curbstone—used to tickle me nearly to death. I have laughed for hours as I thought of him lying there with his best clothes spoiled, waiting for somebody to come along and send for the ambulance."

"He is not very much in evidence, that's a fact," was the reply.

"Then there was the little boy who ate things that didn't agree with him—green apples, usually—and went to join the angels. That used to keep me in roars. The idea of that little boy—well, there's no use trying to describe it. It's too funny to talk about. And the servant girl who blew herself into atoms trying to light the fire with kerosene, and a lot more of them, have about disappeared. Once in awhile they try to flicker to the front, but they ain't what they were when I was writing the real stuff for the Whangsville Monitor. Those were the palmy days of humor, and I have my doubts if we'll ever see anything like 'em again."

And he heaved a long, long sigh.

A Vindication.

The shades of night were deepening and the sky was overcast. The girl stood at the casement, watching the raindrops which dotted the white pavement, heralds of the storm which soon was to follow. She knew that very soon a youth would pass on the opposite side of the street—a youth, who would wave his hand and who would smile to see the flutter of her handkerchief in reply.

Herbert quit work at half-past five. How pitilessly the rain beat down! Soon she saw a figure in the distance. The overcoat was buttoned up to its owner's chin and the hat was pulled down over his ears, but she recognized the walk. She held her handkerchief in readiness to be fluttered, but he did not pause as usual. With a low cry of joy she saw that he was crossing the street. She ran to fling open the door, and as he ascended the steps exclaimed

"I knew you could live down these calumnies. Come!"

"Where to?"

"Into the library. I want my father to meet you face to face."

"But I'm all wet."

"Yes hurry before you dry off, or he may not believe us. It wasn't twenty minutes ago Herbert, that he was saying you hadn't sense enough to come in out of the rain, and I want him to see how cruelly he has wronged you!"

THE MODE.

Items of Interest Concerning Summer Fashions.

Wash veils of white brussels net, with a border of embroidery or application, are pretty for summer wear, and, unlike other white veils, are serviceable, since they may be laundered as easily as a handkerchief.

Summer traveling wraps, which have taken the place of the long since obsolete linen duster, are of changeable silk, pongee or taffeta, and, while very light in weight, are yet of extreme elegance and often made with great elaboration. The usual form is that of a loose redingote, finished with one or more circular flounces.

The fancy for contrasting colors in different parts of the costume is subsiding, and now the more harmonious fashion of keeping the gown, hat, belt and other accessories in the same scheme of color is again revived. Indeed, even the petticoat and stockings are sometimes included, as well as the parasol. This does not mean that all these articles are of one unvarying shade, but that the prevailing color of the gown is repeated in them to a greater or less degree.

The bicycle costume illustrated is of iron gray diagonal. The short skirt is finished with a leather facing at the foot. The closed bolero has two elongated tabs in front and a man's collar and revers. The tight sleeves have three corded plaits at the shoulders. A linen collar and a red satin cravat are worn. The hat of gray straw has a curling brim and is trimmed with a red band and a steel buckle. JUDIC CHOLLET.

A BLUE SEASON.

The Favorite Color For the Summer Wardrobe.

Blue of all shades is a favorite color, but by no means universally becoming. Only the darkest navy blue should be worn by a woman with a brunette skin unless indeed she wants to look yellow or swarthy. The best way to obviate the bad effect of blue, when it is unbecoming to the wearer, is to introduce large quantities of white or yellow, in the form of a bow or chou, to take the yellow look away from the skin. For a fair complexion nothing can be prettier than the periwinkle, pastel and bluet shades produced this season.

Tucked taffeta is a novelty for summer wear. Like tucked nainsook, it is what is called an "all over" material—that is, it is tucked in the manufacture and sold by the yard. It is used for boleros, vests, revers, waists and collars.

The illustration given today shows a bolero of blue cloth, very short at the back and elongated in two tabs in front. Stitched straps of the cloth edge the bolero and outline a yoke and sleeve caps. The revers and collar are faced with tucked blue silk and bordered with white and gold galloon. The blouse worn beneath is of plaited surah, and the collar and cravat are of plaited white mousseline de soie. The hat of blue straw is trimmed with blue and white pompadour ribbon. This bolero may be used as a separate wrap or made to match the skirt. JUDIC CHOLLET.

How She Tames Them.

Mrs. John Etitch, Jr., of Denver, who has been very successful as an animal trainer, says of her methods: "After getting intimate with them by feeding them I follow up the acquaintance by being kind to them, never teasing them, and always carrying them something of which they are fond. In speaking to them I always pitch my voice in the same key. I always use one kind of perfume which they readily recognize, even in their sleep, awakening at the scent."—Denver News.

OUR CUBAN SISTER.

HER LIFE STILL RESTRICTED BY OLD SPANISH CUSTOMS.

Her Loves and Hatreds Intense—She Is Carefully Watched Over By Her Parents Or Chaperone—Passionately Fond of Music—Her Patriotism.

The American girl has adopted three new sisters, concerning whom we have all heard more or less. An interesting group they make—the daughter of long suffering Cuba, and her dark-skinned sisters from the wide Pacific! Which will prove herself the most worthy in the new era about to open up for each of them?

We expect to find the Cuban girl very Spanish in her tastes and inclinations—and we are not mistaken. Though the Cuban nature is derived from a mixed source, the Spanish blood is the strongest, and we find the Cuban woman characterized by the self-same traits as mark the Spaniard. Her loves and hatreds are intense, and there is the same fondness for such brutal amusements as the bull-fight.

The Cuban woman is quite mature at an early age; when young she is considered very beautiful, possessing the soft, winsome beauty of Southern climes; indeed, at any age the Cuban woman may be called good-looking, for she possesses that charming trait of never looking really old; rarely is she wrinkled and ugly.

With large dark eyes; a round face, crowned with a wealth of jet-black hair, a complexion clear as amber, the skin being of that soft velvety texture, and having the appearance of a rich, healthy tan, the Cuban girl is certainly "good to look upon." Can we wonder that the young Cuban soldiers fought so bravely and so well with such an inspiration!

The Cuban girl is happy and contented, though her life is simple and uneventful and it must at times be somewhat monotonous; for, like the woman of Spain, she has been hemmed in by customs which should have perished back in the middle ages. With few exceptions, she is convent-bred, and the education given by the gentle nuns, though it cannot be said to be very broad, is nevertheless good. She, of course, studies English, and there is the usual music, French and Latin.

Very rarely is the Cuban woman seen in the daytime, and when she does appear it is never alone. Accompanied by her parents or husband or a watchful chaperon, there is small chance for the Cuban girl to indulge in even the most harmless flirtation. In fact, there are very few amusements which she is permitted to enjoy.

As she is passionately fond of music, one of her chief pleasures in Havana is to go to the park every evening, where a band concert is almost always given. There are dances, of course, at certain seasons of the year, and here the Cuban girl is very much in evidence, but of the delights of out-of-door sports, which form so great a part of the life of the present athletic American girl, she knows very little. With the freedom of Cuba, old customs may pass away, and the Cuban girl take on athletic attainments, for she is certainly not wanting in spirit or an ability to share in man's privileges and work, as the many stories of the women's heroism, during Cuba's long struggle, go to prove. In patriotism, she is, indeed, the equal of her American sister.

Wedding Months.

There is a popular idea that June is the favorite month for weddings, and that the young woman who loves romance and wishes fortune to smile upon her nuptials in every way must choose this of all months. Cold and unromantic fact, however, shows that the three most popular marriage months are October, November and December. Fifty years' records show this to be true, and also demonstrates the fact that the most unpopular months for marriage are January, February and March.

Kansas Women In Office.

Kansas has more women in public office than any other State in the Union. Twenty per cent. of the county superintendents of education, five county registrars of deeds and a State librarian are women. Then there are a few mayors, several police magistrates, city marshals and police officers who are among the fairer and supposedly weaker sex.

High Collars Injurious.

Medical examiners say that the high collars so much worn by both men and women are productive of direful physical results. The head is thus thrown forward to relieve the back of the neck, and this narrows the chest and decreases the lung space.

Patti's First Appearance.

It was in Cuba that Adelina Patti sang for the first time in public, when she was 14 years old. It was at a concert, and her success was complete.

HE MADE A DISCOVERY.

An Instance Where a Superabundance of Knowledge Was Disastrous.

"I hear a good deal about luck," said the oculist as he polished away at a pair of eyeglasses and smiled in a sorrowful way, "but I don't believe in it. The man who has luck is the man who don't make a fool of himself, as I did a year or two ago. If I'd had two grains of sense in my head on an occasion twenty months ago I'd have been enjoying a soft snap to-day.

"No it was'nt a ground floor speculation," he continued, after breathing on the glasses and holding them up to the light. "I got a letter from the President of one of the biggest railroads in the country, asking me to call at his office. When I called I discovered that he wanted to pay me $5,000 per year to test the employees of the road for color blindness. I closed with the offer as quick as I could get my breath, and a day was named for me to bring up my samples and show the old gent the modus operandi of the thing. I was on hand when the hour arrived. I had all the colors ever used about a railroad, and after looking them over the President sagaciously observed:

"'This green doesn't seem to me to be quite as deep as our signals, but perhaps it will answer well enough.'

"I turned to him, and I hope to drop dead in my tracks if he wasnt looking at the brightest kind of red—the danger signal, you know!

"You mean this," I said as I pointed to the deep green.

"'No, sir, I mean this,' he replied, as he put his finger on the red.

"Ah, me!" sighed the oculist, "but what a fool I made of myself! The President of that big railroad couldn't tell red from green, nor blue from white, and I was ass enough to give it away that he was color-blind. It was only between us two, but he flew mad and called me an impostor and an idiot, and I was virtually kicked out of his office."

"You ought have lied about it," was remarked.

"I ought to have kept my mouth shut and never said a word. It was nothing to me whether he could tell the color of his hat or not, but it was a heap to him to learn that he'd been married for thirty years and didn't know whether his wife had black hair or red!"

Getting a Cinch on Him.

"He'll propose all right," said the old man confidently. "I have him fixed."

"What did you do?" asked the anxious mother.

"I asked him to lend me $50, and he did it. Oh, he is in earnest and no mistake."

"But you didn't want the money," protested the anxious mother.

"Of course not," answered the foxy father. "I only wanted to encourage him. He thinks he has me fixed so I can't object, and he'll come to the point in a hurry now."—Chicago Post.

A Little Too Much.

The Gentleman—How's this? Last week it was the right leg you had lost?

The Grafter—Say, you can't expect a fellow to stand all week on one leg

A Sir One

"Didn't you know it was against the law to beg for money?" said the lady to the tramp at the back door.

"I wasn't going to beg for money, ma'am," was the reply of the humble wanderer.

"It's just as bad to beg for bread."

"I ,wasn't going to beg for bread, ma'am."

"What are you going to beg for, then pray?"

"Only for one of your pictures, ma'am."—Yonkers Statesman.

The Mean Thing

"Are you going to make biscuits to-day, dear?"

"No,I wasn't going to; but if you want me to, I will."

"Well I wish you would. I might as well pay that election bet to-day as any other old time."—Yonkers Statesman.

A Long-Felt Want

Tom—I saw a nickel-in-the-slot machine to-day that will tell whether a man is in love or not.

Jack—Well, the inventor ought to make a fortune out of it. Most any man will gladly give up a nickel to find out whether it is love or dyspepsia that ails him.

Too Many Already

"But could you bring yourself to marry a woman who smoked cigarettes?" they asked the young man who had insisted that women had a right to smoke if they chose.

"No. I have enough people begging my cigarettes now."

An Exceptional Man

Diggs—"Simkins certainly has a wonderful memory."

Biggs—"Why do you think so?"

Diggs—"He never leaves his umbrella anywhere."

By Way of Illustration.

"What is non-sequitar. Uncle Alec?"

"A non-sequitar is when a widower advises a widow to marry, and then doesn't propose."—Chicago Record.

A Query.

"They say barking dogs don't bite. You know it and I know it, but does the dog know it?"

MORALS OF BIRD AND BEAST.

Fierce Jealousy of Sparrows and Generous Cows, Dogs and Horses.

The sparrows on the roof were making a great disturbance, and their twitterings, with an occasional note of distress, drew the attention of a man to the window. It was the old story, five or six of the tiny brown rowdies were hectoring one of their companions, which darted hither and thither to escape the torments of sharp bills and battering wings. The victim secured a corner and proceeed to put up a brave fight, but it was of no avail. One of the little rascals darted up in the air, and then like a flash swooped down and drove the victim from the position of vantage, and the unequal battle begun anew, nor did it end until the object of their wrath was pecked and battered to death. But their enmity did not end alone in death, for they battered away at the remains until the man stepped upon the roof and rescued the inanimate bunch of feathers, bravery and bird tragedy and took it to his desk for examination.

Why had the sparrows killed their once companion. He laid the dead bird upon his palm and gave it a minute examination. The tips of the wings and tail feathers as well were dyed a brilliant scarlet. This was not blood, for the coloring had dried. It was paint. The bird in his flight had evidently dashed against some fresh and moist paint, and thus ornamented its naturally plain plumage. The enmity or jealousy, or call it what you will, impelled its companions to destroy it forthwith. Mayhap it made mention of its new plumage, was proud or vainglorious, who can say? But as it was more beautiful its companions put it out of their way.

Horses and cattle know nothing of selfishness. A cow if it finds a fine spot for feeding, will not go and draw its pasture companions to the nice find, but if they perchance follow the cow will share it with them and never deter them from feeding. The horse possesses equine brotherhood, for when it finds a good plat to nibble it will neigh, and thus call its mates to its side to enjoy and have a good time at the feast.

The horse and cow are alike unselfish, but the former is a creature of higher grade in the animal kingdom, hence is prone to call its mates to share its good things. Food in the manger, or provided and put there by man has a different effect. Few horses and as few cows wil poke their muzzles into the same manger without resisting the efforts of a companion to do likewise. This is neither selfishness nor greed. The horse and cow both possess cleanly tastes as to feeding, and they simply do not like to have the nose of their fellows in their repast.

The vagrant dog that finds a back yard of plenty or a servant with a kindly disposition and a plate of food will generally noise the good news about, and their canineships will rejoice and follow the lucky, generous, and whole-hearted guide forthwith to the back yard of plenty and kindly dispositioned servant. They may fight and snarl and jaw over the food, and each will try to get the most. But a dog will not sneak away from its companions to enjoy a good meal without informing the others of the fact. Cats are selfish and never fail to steal away their food and eat it in seclusion. No cat would ever stop to consider the most famished condition of a companion when about to go to its dinner.

Has More Toys Than Any Other Boy.

The most original collection of toys on record belongs to Dudley H. Dorr, a fourteen-year-old boy, living in East Boston. The boys father takes pleasure in buying Dudley the most unique playthings to be found. Among his collection is a summer house made out of a horse-car, a miniature ferry system modelled exactly on that of Boston's ferry department, and a perfectly equipped night-lunch wagon, 6 feet long and fitted up with the full set of kitchen utensils of a regular lunch wagon. This cart is decorated in white and gold, has stained-glass windows, and is drawn by a Shetland pony. Among the boy's other odd playthings are a tiny railroad station, with trains and tracks, and models of steamships, ice-wagons and perambulators

A TOY LUNCH WAGON.

For Boys and Girls.

In the spelling game a prize is given to the best speller, and a wooden spoon or other booby prize to the worst. The words to be spelt should be written out clearly on slips of paper, with the definition added below, and all placed in a box on the table round which the players are seated. The person to start the game draws out one of the papers at random, pronounces, the word distinctly, and reads out the definition. The player seated next to him, spells the word. If she does so correctly she takes the paper, draws another and pronounces it, and reads the definition to the next neighbor; but if she misses the word the one pronouncing it spells it aloud and places it by itself. This continues round the table, the papers being drawn in turn till the game comes back to the starter. No one is allowed to try twice to spell a word. Each player keeps his own pile of correctly spelled words, and as many rounds may be played as agreed on at the beginning of the game. The prize goes to the one who has spelt the best. To people who get interested in this game it affords a great amount of amusement, often those who feel quite confident about the spelling of a word being those who make the most amusing mistakes.

"I just think mamma is an awful gossip," said 6-year-old Walter to his sister. 'Oh, how can you say such a thing?' "Everything I do she runs and tells papa."

"IT JUST HAPPENED."

Why a Girl's Engagement Was Not Announced Sooner.

The other night—or, rather, it was very early in the morning—the telephone in a certain newspaper office rang loud and long. Most of the workers had gone home for the forty winks that newspaper people contrive to put in between times, but there was one man on the "dog watch"—that is, you know, he was the one person detailed to stay around the office and be ready for anything from a murder to a fire. At that hour of the day—about, well, somewhere around 3 o'clock a. m. — when the telephone in a newspaper office rings it generally means a police story that is worth looking up, so the "dog watch" hastened to answer the summons.

"Hello," said a voice. "Is it too late to get something in to-morrow morning's paper?"

"Not if it's important," was the reply.

"Oh, it is," assuringly.

The reporter rushed for a pad of paper and a pencil, screwed his ear up to the telephone again and said:

"All right. Fire away there."

Then the voice was heard again:

"The engagement of Miss——to Mr. ——is announced."

There was an explosion of wrath at the press end of line and the rules of the telepone company restraining irate persons from indulging in profanity were smashed into smithereens.

"Why under the blankety-blank-blank" (that wasn't exactly what was said, but it will do, you know) "didn't you send in such stuff earlier in the day?"

"But I couldn't" said the voice apologetically. 'You see, it just happened.'

Knew What He Was Talking About.

Mrs. Blinks—Goodness, this jar is sealed so tight I can't break it.

Mr. Blinks—Give it to the baby to play with.

His Sure Thing.

Three negroes not long ago made a bet among themselves that each could name a supper that would be better than the others could name. They put up one dollar each, and the one that named the dishes that would constitute the best supper was to take the three dollars. They drew straws as to which one should be the first and the last to make up the menu for the imaginary meal. The first man said he couldn't think of anything better than than greens boiled with hog-jowl. For side dishes he would take cornbread, souse and black-eyed peas and wash them down with buttermilk. The other two smacked their lips.

"Well, for me," said number two, "I'd take fried chicken, hot biscuits buttered and spread over with preservs—and den, 'n den—let's see—yes 'n simmon beer and ginger cakes."

The mouths of the other two spilled water, and it was apparent that they were hungry. It came number three's time.

"W'y, youse niggers don't know what's good," said he. "Tell me, fools, what's beter 'n possum baked sweet taters scattered all 'round it, swimmin' in de gravy? Hey? 'N den atter youse done nibble at de bones tell ley ain't no moa meat on 'em, der set le watermillyon staring you in de face lik'. Hey?"—and with that he started to pick up the money.

"You leave dat money alone," the other two yelled in chorus. "We weren't bettin' agin no sure thing."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Papa's Humor.

"Why were you sitting in the dark when I came in?" inquired her father.

"The electric light went out," replied Mabel. "George said he thought it was something the matter with the armature."

"Well, it did seem a little out of place," said the father thoughtfully.

"What seemed out of place, papa?"

"The arm-at-your waist."

And the pleased old man went down to tell his new pun at the club.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Lucky Man.

"What will she say when you get home?"

"Not a word."

"Eh?"

"That's right. She's wearing one of these rigid beauty masks. But you can bet your life I don't light up anything."

"Why not?"

"I wouldn't want to see the expression of her eyes."

Living Up to His Principles.

"Look here," exclaimed the woman who had made the sandwich for a tramp and then thoughtlessly left him alone for a minute within the reach of two whole pies, "what do you mean by eating all that pie?"

"Madam," replied the tramp politely, I am a believer in expansion."—Chicago Post.

Johnny—Pa, is there anything more valuable than diamonds?

His Father—No, son; why?

Johnny—Oh, I was just wondering what they gave Methuselah on his 500th wedding anniversary.

SNAKES DO NOT BITE.

Jaws Connected Only by a Cartilage and Cannot Come Together With Force.

It is a common error that snakes bite. Snakes do not bite. Their jaws are connected only by a cartilage and cannot be brought together with any force. The poisonous snake strikes from its coil, throws its head and body forward and hooks its fangs into the object aimed at. The entire work is done with the upper jaw. The serpent does not swallow its prey, but slowly draws itself over the creature it devours. It is enabled to do so by the elasticity of the skin and the extraordinarily loose condition of the teeth-bearing bones of its fangs. As for a snake depositing a thick slime all over its prey before swallowing it, it is a mistake. The tongue does not carry moisture enough to do this, but when once inside the animal there is an abundance of saliva. The tongue is looked upon as a sting, and the common rexpression is "Look out for its sting!"

The tongue is a mobile, extensile organ of both touch and taste. So far from being a sting, the delicate implement is of the greatest use, and expresss fear, anger or pleasure. The tongue of a snake is very important to its owner, as the slightest injury even to its tips generally results in the snake's death.

Bag Ball.

Bag ball is a new game freshly imported from England. It is adapted to the tastes of both old and young and may be played under cover or in the open air. The game is played with tennis balls and rackets and a receiving board. Forty-five feet is suggested as a proper distance from the striking point to the receiving board, but this is not arbitrary. The balls are to be 12 red and 12 white lawn tennis ones, and the game is won by those who first play six balls through the holes into the net at the back of the receiving board. The server or bowler delivers, underhand, 12 balls into the rebound unless the striker is "out" before the 12 are bowled. Balls that do not pitch into the rebound are "no balls," and three bowled thus in succession count one to the striker. The striker stands with one foot within or on the line forming the striking circle and hits the ball as it rises from the rebound, endeavoring to bat it into one of the holes on the receiving board. The striker is "out" if he misses three properly bowled balls in succession, or if the ball should be caught by an opponent as it rebounds from the receiving board, or if caught by the server, and also when 12 properly bowled balls have been delivered. The server takes the place of the striker in turn. When more than two are playing, all may play against one another or sides may be chosen.

Lizard Against Snake.

A remarkable story of a contest between a snake and a lizard comes from Greenup, Ky. The contest took place in a cluster of saplings and lasted for nearly half a day. The lizard would run up a sapling clear to the top and patiently wait while the snake wound its way about half way up the sapling. Then he would jump from the top of the tree to the ground, and the snake would also fling itself from the tree, both striking the ground about the same time, but before the snake could get himself straightened out the lizard, which did not have to uncoil, would scale up another sapling. Then the snake would repeat its efforts to procure a dinner. The snake, not being a ready climber, was at a great disadvantage in the contest, and after many efforts apparently gave it up as a fruitless job.

A Kind Voice!

You sometimes hear boys and girls say words at play with a quick, sharp tone, as if it were the snap of a whip. If any of them gets vexed, you will hear a voice which sounds as if it were made up of a snarl, a whine and a bark. Such a voice often speaks worse than the heart feels. It shows more ill will in tone than in words. Such as these get a sharp voice for home use and keep their best voice for those they meet elsewhere. We would say to all girls and boys, "Use your best voice at home." Watch it by day as a pearl of great price, for it will be worth more to you in the days to come than the best pearl hid in the sea. A kind voice is a lark's song to heart and home.

THEIR NICKNAMES.

'Tis "Fanny"—"Frankie"—"Frank"
and "Fan,"
Though her real name is ——.

Then "Larry"—"Laurie"—"Lanty" comes
(Though he always writes it——);
And his sister twin whom most address
As "Flo" or "Flcy" for ——.

The last is "Lizzie"—"Betty"—"Bess,"
"Bettina"—and "Elspeth"—
"Betsy" — "List" — "Beth"—"Bet"—
"Lib,"
And she's ——.

BABY LOCOMOTIVE.

Built and Put in Operation by Two New England Boys.

Edwin H. Warren and Ernest C. Warren are two Montvale (Mass.) boys, aged respectively 17 and 15. They are students at the Woburn high school from which they will probably be graduated two years hence. Unlike most boys of their years, they care little for baseball and less for the mad scrimmage of the football field. Their home is on rising ground near the railway station and their newest toy is a locomotive which they, with the aid of their father, Mr. Herbert A. Warren, constructed and placed in operation on a 120-foot track. The locomotive weighs about a ton and a half, and were such engines animals that developed like cows this one might very aptly be called a yearling.

It is an out-and-out locomotive from headlight to cab. The wheels on the bogie track once did duty as pulleys in a mill. They are 22 inches in diameter. The drivers once were pulleys, but they are larger, measuring 30 inches. There is no connecting rod, but in its stead a belt is compelled to impart power to the drivers from the force induced by the twin cylinders under the forepart of the boiler. The boiler is three feet long and two feet bore. It was originally intended for a heating apparatus and the three feet of the fire box makes the iron part of the locomotive about six feet in length.

Recently the engineers and firemen on the Boston & Maine road were amazed one day to see a saucy duplicate in miniature of the big moguls of the regular rail. The little engine tooted salute after salute as the local and express trains rolled passed the Warren home, and engineers and firemen waved responses from the cab windows. The engine was a success and from the morning that it was first run out of the little eight by twelve house built to shelter it there has never been a time that it has refused to answer to the requests of the throttle and the reverse lever.

Our Boys Should Remember,

That piety is not priggishness.

That bigness is not greatness.

That it requires pluck to be patient.

That it takes more than muscle to make a man.

That selfishness is the most unmanly thing in the world.

That consideration for mother and sisters does more to mark a gentleman than the kind of neckties he wears.

That the only whole man is the holy man.

That to follow the crowd is a confession of weakness.

That street corners are a poor college.

That one real friend is worth a score of mere acquaintances.

That to be afraid of one's noblest self is greatest cowardice.

That it is never too soon to begin the business of making a man of one's self.

An Ostrich's Appetite.

An ostrich will eat almost anything. It swallows oranges, small turtles, fowls, kittens and bones. A South African writer tells of one swallowing a box of peaches, tennis balls, several yards of fencing wire and half a dozen cartridges. One followed the workmen and picked up the wire as they cut it. Most frequently the ostrich does not swallow each dainty separately, but collects several in its throat and then swallows them all at once. Sometimes it is strangled. Its windpipe is then cut, the obstacle taken out and the wound sewed up, when all goes well again.

Shed Their Clothes in Winter.

When the boys and girls are putting on more clothing to keep out the cold a curious rock crab that lives in the salt water along the New England coast sheds its shell. These little creatures begin casting their hard shells in December, and the shedding process continues for two months. After the hard shells are cast the crabs are quite soft, and are considered very desirable for the table.

Little Princess' Trick Awheel.

The best cyclist among the royal children, who are all instructed in the art of managing a bicycle so soon as they arrive at a suitable age, is the little Princess Margaret of Connaught. Her royal highness has a firm seat and a graceful carriage and often astonishes her cousins with her clever little tricks.

The soldier's life is hard and stern;
But there's no need that he should suffer
From using common soaps, which burn
His skin, and make his clothing rougher.
Pure Ivory Soap—it floats—is best
For bath, for clothes, and all the rest.

GOLF.

There were special features at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club grounds Saturday and the absence of a tournament of any events made the day a quiet one. There was, however, a number of players on the links and several private matches were arranged. There was a good-sized crowd at the clubhouse and the social features proved to be very enjoyable for those present. During this month and August it is not likely that there will be any events of special interest as most of the members will be away. The golf season will open in the fall with several interesting events. It can be said that this season's golf exceeds that of any previous one, and the best golf ever played in this city has been witnessed. The entries have been large and every event a success as to excellence of play and interest shown.

MILLBURN—SPRINGFIELD.

Springfield Decides in Favor of the Proposed Trolley Road.

The public meeting called by the Springfield Town committee to consider the application of the Elizabeth and Plainfield trolley company for a franchise to build a trolley road from Westfield avenue, across the Flemer property and along Main street to the Millburn line, was held Tuesday night at the Springfield town hall. The meeting was largely attended, and was in favor of the trolley. Council Edward H. Hine made a speech setting forth the advantages of a trolley road to suburban communities, also informed the conditions on which a franchise would be considered. The company agreed to complete and have the road in operation by July 1, 1900. The cars were to be run on a headway of one hour between the hours of 6 a. m. and 10 p. m., and from then to midnight as the travel would warrant. The Millburn or Mountainside school tickets to be sold to school children at the rate of 33 rides for $1.

In answer to the inquiries of Rev. William Hoppaugh as to the rates of fare to be charged to different towns reached by the road, Col. Hine said that the fare to Elizabeth would be 17 cents; to Plainfield, 15 cents; to Westfield, 10 cents, and to Boynton Beach, 25 cents. The Committee decided to adjourn the meeting to Friday evening, July 14th, when the ordinance will be taken up for third reading and final passage.

Two Lively Scraps.

Two scraps marked the passing of Saturday evening in Plainfield. One well-known young man about town became engaged in an an altercation with a colored man. It finally ended in blows and the colored man was badly done up. A well-known business man came out of a local hostelry and was assaulted by two men and badly beaten. It was said to be the settling of an old grudge. No arrests have been made in either case.

Extending the Switch.

The switch on the line of the Plainfield Street Railway at the North avenue station is being extended to provide for the increase in service. The work was started this morning to extend the switch to East Second street. The job will probably be completed tomorrow.

This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

HAPPENINGS IN A FEW LINES FROM ALL OVER JERSEY.

More or Less Important Happenings and Events in Various Sections Served For a Quick Glance at.

Gloucester County farmers who have a good crop of potatoes are reaping a big harvest, as the price is $2.50 per barrel.

Albert Stanger, a famer living near Woodbury, sold $900 worth of radishes, beets and onions during the month of June.

Notwithstanding the report that the hay crop was a failure in Burlington county, Frank Carter, of Chesterfield, has harvested twenty-five tons from fourteen and a half acres.

Active operations looking to the establishment of the largest shipbuilding plant in the world in Camden will be begun Friday or Saturday. A lot of material has arrived at the grounds, and more is expected. The large yard has been surveyed and staked off. It was said by one of the surveyors that the first work to be done will be the erection of a fence around the land. The deed for the tract was placed in the Surrogate's office Monday afternoon. The consideration, as given in the deed and as represented by the revenue stamps, is $176,000.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Peter Roseberry Drops Dead of Heart Disease at His Home.

Peter Roseberry, a machinist, employed at the Potter Press Works, died suddenly about 6:30 o'clock this morning at his home on West Front street, aged 45 years. Mr. Roseberry has been ill for a few days and had been attended by Dr. T. S. Davis.

Saturday the family moved from West Fourth street owing to a disagreement with his landlord, Dennis J. Falbraith, to a house on West Front street opposite Brady's ice house. It is believed that the wrong incident to the troubles with Mr. Galbraith so preyed upon Roseberry as to bring about a sudden change in his condition and death resulted suddenly from heart trouble.

The deceased is survived by a wife and five children.

Above the Clouds.

Airships have not yet been invented, yet it is possible to sail for a day and a night in a fairly comfortable steamboat at a height of over two miles above the sea. The water on which you accomplish this remarkable feat is Lake Titicaca, which lies between Peru and Bolivia. It is a huge lake, 120 miles long and nearly 60 wide, and is over 1,000 feet deep. It is away up Nine rivers flow into it, besides a vast amount of snow water, yet it has no visible outlet.

The 600-ton steamers which sail on Lake Titicaca were built in Scotland, carried over the passes in sections, and put together on the spot. The fuel is Australian coal, brought from 7,000 miles away. In the lake are many beautiful islands, and the cliffs which line the shores are magnificently rugged. In no place can a ship anchor. The water, even sixty feet from shore, is hundreds of feet deep. The native boats on Lake Titicaca have straw sails.

Prussian Girls Not to Be Whipped.

The teachers whip wil no longer be a source of dread to Prussians girls, for the pedagogues throughout the country have received the following Government edict:

In deference to the sentiment of our time, neither male nor female teachers will be permitted hereafter to inflict bodily chastisement on female pupils. Since girls are possessed of a delicate sense of honor, the extreme punishment for disobedience or lack of diligence in their case should be to be placed on a sort of "bench of penitence" near the teacher's desk.

A Fellow Feeling.

Little Edgar, on seeing his mother approaching with a stick in her hand to punish him, immediately crawls under the bed; whereupon his mother informs the father, who gets down on his knees and pokes his head under the bed, saying:

"Are you there, Edgar?"

Edgar—Yes, papa, is she after you.

His Cruel Retort.

"Her face," she said, when speaking of her dearest neighbor, "is like an open book."

"Yes," he replied, heartlessly, "I infer from the few remarks her husband let drop that she keeps it open most of the time."

Profit on a Whale.

The profit of a single whale that is captured is very large. One about fifty feet long weighs 140,000 pounds, and will give 60,000 pounds of blubber, from which 48,000 pounds of train oil can be made and 3,000 pounds of whalebone.

Chinese Babies.

Chinese babies are fed on rice and nothing else after they are a few months old. Cow's milk is never given to them. Chinese houses are never heated. If the baby is cold he is given a sun bath.

This Week's Offerings

in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Trousers will comprise a remarkable lot of stylish clothing, doubly remarkable because of the low prices we will sell them. Part of the offerings are traceable to our recent extremely favorable purchases, deals in which spot cash and a great need of it by two manufacturers played an important part.

Some of the offerings come from our regular stock that but a few days ago we had an idea of reducing, but the season is advancing, our stock is still heavy, but the only method of reducing stock that we have faith in, is a great reduction of prices.

One Hundred Men's Business Suits made of cassimers, cheviots and worsteds, in plaids, checks and gray mixtures, well lined and trimmed, wholesale price 9.00; for this week.

Men's Black Clay Diagonal Coats and Vests, in sack or frock, soft finish at 4.00; valued at 10.00.

MURRAY MAY RETURN TO TRENTON AFTER ALL.

His Retirement From Political Arena a Wise Move.

CAN'T TURN HIM DOWN NOW.

PLAINFIED HOWEVER, MAY DEMAND HIS CANDIDACY.

A Strong Movement to Send Him Back to Assembly May Overcome Objection From Squier and Others in the County Seat—They Will Work Hard to Prevent His Renomination—The Independent Stand.

Is Assemblyman Roger Franklin Murray out of politics this year? He has stated that he is not in any sense a candidate for renomination by the G. O. P. for the Assembly or any other office for that matter. While the popular young Republican may not be a candidate of his own accord it is still possible, however, that a general demand from the fellow workers of his party in this city might result in his name appearing on the ticket this fall after all.

Everybody, who has paid any attention to the doings of the State legislative body at Trenton this winter, has heard of how Roger F. Murray backed the Republican organization in the Assembly. While there were some who thought many of his acts unwise, he won the respect of all for his straightforward independence. His independence gained for him the opposition of of Assemblyman Squier and other staunch party men in Elizabeth. When Murray braved their demands, they decided that his political career must end if they could end it.

When the coming campaign was first discussed there was general interest in how Murray and his opponents would meet and what would be the result. It was well-known that Squier and his cronies would try to turn down the young Plainfielder if it lay in their power. The first move, however, came from the astute Assemblyman from this city.

Mr. Murray is not in a position to devote most of his time to politics; his business interests have to be attended to. So he announced a short time ago that he was out of the political arena this year. The fact that he had the opposition of many of the party leaders in the county seat may have influenced him and it may not. At any rate, his decision placed him beyond the reach of his political enemies and any chance for a turn down on their part.

This action of his, however, does not prevent him from being a possibility on the Republican ticket this fall. Murray, it must be remembered, is a very popular man among the Republican voters of the county, and his independent action, particularly in fighting the corporations single-handed on the floor of the Assembly, has endeared him to the voters more than ever. He has powerful friends in the party yet who would be glad to see him back in the Assembly.

Now Squier and his friends could afford to refuse any requests of Murray for office owing to his independent stand. If, however, there is a demand through part of the county, headed by the Plainfield delegation, the Elizabeth combination cannot refuse such a demand if Mr. Murray consents to accede to the demand and accept the renomination.

So it may be that Plainfield will see her valiant young defender back in the State House after all.

THE BOY FAKIR CAUGHT.

Deceives the Conductor by Pretending He Was in a Fit.

John Wilson, the thirteen-year-old boy fakir who has been imposing on the people of Flatbush and other places has turned up in Elizabeth. He fell in a fit on a Central Railroad train Saturday night when the conductor asked him for his ticket, and was taken to the Elizabeth General Hospital. The physicians were soon satisfied he was an impostor, and told him so.

Young Wilson begged to be released. First he said his home was in Plainfield and afterward in Union Hill. A message was sent to Union Hill, and the lad's father arrived at the hospital and said the boy was incorrigible. His real name is Metzger.

The boy gets money from charitable people. He will probably be sent to the reform school.

CAME BACK HOME BROKE.

FLEMINGTON MERCHANT LOST ALL SEEKING GOLD IN THE KLONDIKE.

His Pitiful Plight—After Spending Several Thousand Dollars He Returns on Freight Cars—Tales of Wealth Exaggerated.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, N. J., July 11.—"Kit" Kuhl, who sold out a large furniture and housefurnishing business in this place in 1897, to embark on a Klondike expedition to search for gold, has just returned. He brings back a large bundle of experience for which he has exchanged every dollar that he was worth. Kuhl left Flemington with more than $8,000. His return was at the expense of the railroads over which he traveled and was made principally on freight cars. It took him some three months to reach New York.

The returned Klondiker tells of many adventures and of many privations during his stay and his story of the gold found in the Northwest does not agree with the reports sent out from Seattle and other points. His first effort to get into the interior was over the fourth glacier at the head of Disenchantment Bay. With a large party he attempted to get into the district where they expected to find the head waters of the Tananna river. This proved an impossibility and he, with two companions, Guy Bissby and Thomas O. Hiel, of St. Paul, Minn., returned to Seattle. Upon their arrival a Seattle paper published that they had returned with fortunes, the combined amount of which was one hundred and ten thousand dollars in gold nuggets.

Kuhl then went into British Columbia, fifty miles north of Greenwood, which had been published in the West as a great gold field. He says he found that British laws prevented Americans from placer digging and a licence fee had to be taken out yearly for quartz mining, which simply prohibited any individual mining opportunites. William Cook, with whom he traveled, pushed on to Dawson City by the St. Michael route. A letter which Kuhl recently received from Cook states that there has been no gold of any amount found at Dawson City except on Bonanza and Eldorado Creeks. Mr. Kuhl is broken in health as well as purse, having suffered a severe attack of mountain fever.

THOUGHT TO BE CRAZY.

Wm. Albertson in Bellevue, But Doctors Say Alcoholism is to Blame.

Wm. Albertson, who has resided with his family at 950 Park avenue since last fall, was taken to Bellevue Hospital in New York yesterday afternoon from 74 West Twenty-third street in that city.

He was acting queerly and at first it was thought he was crazy. When he arrived at the hospital, however, the doctors diagnosed the case as one of alcoholism.

Albertson has a wife and children. He is of short stature, and has a sallow complexion. He is of an exceedingly nervous temperament, and in going about the city attracted attention from people he met by his flighty manner.

He kept a horse at Hedden's boarding stable on East Fourth street, and was devoted to horseback riding, but a week ago took the horse away. Of late he has been a patient of Dr. Endicott.

MISSING WHEEL RETURNED.

Was Taken From A. A. Stryker's Barn on West Seventh Street.

A. A. Stryker, of West Seventh street, purchased a wheel for his son last Saturday. Sunday morning the wheel was left in the barn while the family went to church. When they returned the wheel was missing.

Yesterday forenoon the wheel was found in the barn again, appearing as mysteriously as it disappeared. Part of the equipment was missing, however. Mr. Stryker reported the disappearance to the police. He now says that he knows who the thief was, and, unless the missing parts are replaced or paid for, the unbidden guest at the barn Sunday morning will get into trouble.

Horse Was Not Killed.

A report was circulated yesterday that the horse owned by Wm. Ruttman, of Manning avenue, and which fell from exhaustion on Craig place, was shot during the early afternoon. This was not true. The horse after being fed at Dreyer's stables seemed to regain much strength and later in the day was turned over to the owner, who has promised to properly care for him. It is quite likely that a suit will be instituted against the owner for cruelty to animals.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dreier have been visiting Mrs. Jacob Rosenthal, at Rockaway.

MANY MASKED MEN CAPTURED A CHURCH.

Used Great Bell To Welcome The Fourth.

'TWAS AT 3 O'CLOCK A. M.

DROVE SEXTON ANGERBAUER BACK WITH POINTED REVOLVER.

Crowd of Celebrators Visited Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church in the Early Morning of the Fourth of July and Took Possession Despite the Sexton's Earnest Protestations.

The great bell of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church rang at midnight preceding Independence Day and also at 3 o'clock that morning. Concerning the latter time Henry Angerbauer, the sexton of the church, has related a strange tale to his friends.

Sexton Angerbauer was on hand at midnight and the bell pealed a noisy welcome to the National holiday. After the sexton had decided that the welcome had been a sufficiently noisy one he remained in the church to prevent any visitations from the boys that thronged the streets.

It was about 3 o'clock when he heard someone trying to gain entrance to the church. He found a crowd of young men and boys at the door. This same crowd, he said, had visited the church at midnight, but had found him there ringing the bell, and had retired. A revolver, he says, was pointed at his head, and he was instructed to go inside and not make any disturbance. They had decided to ring the bill, the nocturnal visitors said, and any resistence on his part would be utterly useless.

There were thirty or forty of them, Angerbauer says, and they wore false faces or masks of handkerchiefs and small flags. He could see none of their faces in consequence and so was unable to identify them. Believing that resistance was useless, he did as he was told and the bell again rang out.

After the masked ones had spent some time in welcoming the break of day in this manner, they departed as quietly as they came, leaving no clue behind that would lead to the discovery of their identity.

ENDEAVORERS AT WESTFIELD.

Young Christians Conducted Meeting at the Fresh Air Camp.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church had charge of the Westfield Fresh Air Camp last night. A large stage-load of the Endeavorers and their friends went down from Plainfield early in the evening, and a number also went down on their wheels. The stage party enlivened the long drive by singing Christian Endeavor hymns.

The meeting was led by Miss Florence Genevieve Hawkins, a member of the Park Avenue Society, and president of the Plainfield Local Union. Her subject was "A Good Vacation," and her talk was very practical and helpful. Two songs were rendered by the Sunday school quartette of the Park Avenue church, composed of Miss Ada Runyon, Miss Adelia Runyon, Thomas Adams Cuming and Henry Cuming. Miss Myra Runyon acted as organist. A solo with autoharp accompaniment was sung by Miss M. G. Morse, of the Congregational Endeavor Society.

FLYING TRIP FROM WHEEL.

Lantern Fell in Front Wheel and Nearly Caused Serious Injury.

Allen Coddington, who is in charge at the North avenue office of the Plainfield Ice and Cold Storage Company, took a flying trip over the handle bars to his wheel yesterday afternoon in a way entirely unexpected by that young man. He was speeding along East Front street, near Johnston avenue, when the acetelyne gas lamp, which was clamped to his front forks, suddenly gave way and fell into the front wheel. The wheel stopped suddenly and Mr. Coddington went on. Luckily he escaped without serious injury, but his lamp was a wreck.

Taking Down Overhead Wires.

Linemen for the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company are now engaged in taking down some of the old wires out of use. A large gang of men will be brought to Plainfield later in the season when all of the overhead wires not in use will be taken down and the poles removed.

Park Avenue to be Torn Up Again.

Much-abused Park avenue is again to be treated to a tearing up process in a short time. It is the gas company that wants to put a larger and better gas main in the street, and it is better to do it now before the permanent pavement goes down.

MINUS HIRSUTE GROWTH

HAIRLESS AND BROWLESS MAN WANTED BY THE POLICE.

He is Wanted for Stealing Valuables From His Employer, Nurseryman Dorish—He Will Be Easy to Identify.

Officers from Westfield are looking for a slick thief, and the police of Newark, Jersey City and New York have been asked to aid in the search. Lawrence Webber is his name and he is wanted for robbing his employer, Nurseryman Dorsh, of two gold watches, a diamond stickpin, $11 in cash and other small articles, while Mr. and Mrs. Dorsh were at church.

Webber got employment in Westfield last April and was supposed to have come direct from the barge office, but from old pawn tickets and papers found in some clothes left behind him, the police are of the opinion that he has made a business of going around the country getting a job merely as a pretense to rob his employers.

He is also wanted at Perth Amboy for a similar piece of work. He is about 5 feet 6 inches tall, 22 years old and has neither eyebrows nor hair, and should be an easy mark for any one to spot him.

MYSTERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Italian Struck by a Train is Unable to Explain How He Was Hurt.

An Italian whose name cannot be ascertained, owing to his inability to talk the English language, was struck by a train on the Central Railroad this morning near the freight house. No one seems to know what train struck him or just how the accident occurred, but he was found by one the employes at the freight house and the ambulance was sent for to take the man to the hospital.

An examination of his injuries disclosed two slight scalp wounds of not a very serious nature and he will get well. The man appeared to be more frightened than anything else. During this afternoon it is likely that an interpreter will be secured to ascertain something regarding the Italian and how he was injured.

MARRIED FIVE YEARS.

Pleasant Celebration Arranged by Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Tildon.

A pleasant affair of last evening was the celebration by Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Douglass Tildon, of Richmond street, of their fifth wedding anniversary. In honor of the event they invited a number of friends, mostly from Mr. Tildon's congregatian at Bethel chapel, to assemble at their home and join in the festivities. There were about fifty guests present, including several from Newark and New York.

During the evening the celebrants were the recipients of a large collection of costly and useful presents, and after a very enjoyable evening had been passed the host and hostess served their guests with a collation. All wished Mr. and Mrs Tildon many happy returns of the occasion as they departed for their several homes.

The Foundation of Health.

Just as the strength of the building depends upon its foundation, just so does the comfort and strength of man depend upon his feet. With sound feet his step is elastic; his eyes clear, his compexion fresh, his handshake magnetic. Before such a man the weaklings and nervous go down in the struggle for riches and honor like chaff before the wind. Feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions, for when the feet ache we ache all over. Geo. B. DeRevre, proprietor Revere House, says: "I actually feel ten years younger since my corns and bunions were completely cured by Specialist Brown's painless method." Mr. DeRevere states that he had his feet treated by some of the very best doctors in New York but could never get a permanent and lasting cure until treated by Mr. Brown's improved system. Geo. Egel, Grandview meat market, says that his bunions were so painful he could feel the pains to his knees. He was advised by cured friends to see Specialist Brown at 145 West Front street. Mr. Egel says after a painless treatment he never had an ache or a pain in his foot since. The market is at Somerset street and Grandview avenue. P. H. Brown's Plainfield visit will close July 22d.

Mrs. F. H. Smith's Father Dead.

Word has been received in Plainfield of the death of B. C. Bentley, of Westerley, R. I., father of Mrs. Frank H. Smith, of Madison avenue. A short time ago Mr. Bentley had a paralytic stroke and it was from this that he did not recover. Mrs. Smith and her husband, Councilman Smith, were with him when he died on Sunday night.

ANOTHER DELAY IN THE "COUNT'S" CASE.

VanNess Not Tried In City Court Yesterday.

ADJOURNED UNTIL TODAY.

CORPORATION COUNSEL MARSH COULD NOT BE PRESENT.

Councilman W. L. Hetfield Represented the City But Had Had No Time to Prepare—Lawyer Ball Took an Independent Stand—The Judge Adjourned Case Until 5 o'Clock Today.

"Count" J. K. VanNess will be tried this afternoon sure. So says City Judge Runyon, and he ought to know. An attempt was made to hold the trial yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, but it was not successful. The "Count" and his legal adviser, George Ball, were on hand this time, but Corporation Counsel C. A. Marsh was unable to be present. So the trial was laid over until this afternoon at the same hour.

It will be remembered that VanNess was arrested June 11th, on complaint of Patrolman McCarthy, for discharging firearms within the city limits. He had a small cannon loaded with buckshot, which he declared he was going to turn on the trolley people if they invaded his property. He discharged the cannon, it is alleged, to get the range of the invading army.

This complaint was lately discontinued and a new one drawn up. It was on the new complaint, which was substantially the same as the old, that he was arrested Sunday and brought up for trial yesterday.

The "Count" was on hand, accompanied by his lawyer and a court stenographer, Mr. Johnson, from New York, for it's the "Count's" intention to take the case into a higher court if defeated here. After waiting twenty minutes for the Corporation Counsel, Councilman Walter L. Hetfield appeared with a telegram from Mr. Marsh to his brother, asking Mr. Hetfield to conduct the case for the city as Mr. Marsh would be unable to be present and suggesting that it be adjourned a day.

Mr. Hetfield explained that he was not at all acquainted with the circumstances of the case and would not care to try it then. He, therefore, presented Mr. Marsh's wish. Attorney Ball did not favor the scheme at all. He wanted the trial at once.

Judge Runyon suggested that the case be adjourned, and then Mr. Ball could see the Corporation Counsel and arrange definitely about the trial. The "Count" wanted the case laid over until cool weather.

"I'm not going to chase the Corporation Counsel around," exclaimed Lawyer Ball. "If he wants to see me, he can come to my office."

The Judge grew indignant. "The case will be tried tomorrow afternoon," he declared.

"I ask that the trial go on at once," persisted the prisoner's counsel.

"The case is adjourned until tomorrow afternoon." After saying which the Judge rose from his seat, put on his hat and stepped out into the room.

As the stenographer could not be in Plainfield at 3 o'clock, the Judge made the hour of trial 5 o'clock.

A conference was held this morning in which the date of the trial was postponed until September 11th with the consent of Corporation Counsel Marsh and Count VanNess and his lawyer. City Judge Runyon will therefore formally adjourn the trial until that date at five o'clock this afternoon.

Working at Westfield.

Work on the Elizabeth and Westfield trolley line is now being pushed at Westfield. For the present work had to be stopped on the Scotch Plains route on account of lack of rails which are expected every day. When they arrive the second track will be completed from Terrill road to Scotch Plains. In the meantime the single track is being used over that territory.

Illness Among Firemen.

Two regular members of the Plainfield Fire Department are off duty on account of illness. Harry Bush, tillerman of the truck, has been ill since the Fourth and E. E. Vail is filling his place. George Fiering, driver of No. 3 hose wagon, was compelled to lay off yesterday. Daniel Force is acting in his place at the West End engine house at present.

A Crushed Finger.

Walter Baker, of this city, went to the hospital this morning to receive treatment for a crushed finger. The injury was slight, and details concerning it were not obtainable at the hospital. Baker did not remain after the finger was crushed.

THE BROOK WATER PURE.

A CHEMICAL ANALYSIS MADE FOR BENEFIT OF SUMMIT.

Summit Will Receive it for Private Use Instead of Securing That From Driven Wells, Which is Said to be Impure.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Summit, July 11—The Board of Health met tonight and received from Dr. Charles F. Chandler, of Columbia University, a chemical analysis of the water from the wells recently sunk on the banks of the Passaic river by the Commonwealth Water Company. The analysis states that owing to the amount of free ammonia shown by the analysis the water is not fit to use. The Council immediately accepted the analysis, and received word from the secretary of the water company, Carrol P. Bassett, that, though he dissented from the analysis, the water would not be used from that well, but that Summit's water supply would be sent through the company's pipes from the Green Brook, near Feltville. This water has been analyzed repeatedly, found to be pure, and is one of the principal advantages of the Hill City.

Summit has had a great deal of trouble with its water supply during the present dry weather, and several days ago the Board of Health issued a circular warning the citizens against using water from the new well without boiling it. A number of summer cottagers have left on this account, but the city's water supply is again plentiful and excellent.

DEAF MUTE LOST.

Unfortunate Predicament of a Girl From New Market.

A young girl not yet in her teens was found last evening by Patrick Connolly, of West Front street, wandering about and not knowing where she was or how to get home. Mr. Connolly asked the girl some question, but soon learned that she was deaf and dumb. He attempted writing on a piece of paper, and all he could learn was that her home was in Piscataway township and that she was lost and did not known how to get home.

He then took the girl to the home of John O'Harra, of West Front street, and left her there while he hunted up Sergeant Kiely. The latter accompanied Mr. Connolly to Mr. O'Harra's home and made arrangements to have the girl remain where she was for the night. This morning it was learned where the girl's home is and she was sent there. She lives near New Market and had come to Plainfield on an errand. While making the trip she got turned around and did not know how to get home. She belongs to one of the several families at New Market who are deaf mutes.

MAD DOGS AND FRACTIOUS COW.

They Afforded Plenty of Excitement at Greenbrook a Few Days Ago.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 11—A cow and two mad dogs furnished plenty of excitement at Greenbrook a few days ago. A strange dog put in an appearance and frightened the whole neighborhood. While the crazy animal was running about he bit another dog, which also went mad, and began running about furiously. By this time some of the men apppeared with shot guns, and after a hot chase succeeded in killing the mad dogs.

This excitement was barely over when a valuable cow owned by Joseph Johnson, of this place, attempted to jump a high rail fence, and in doing so her feet became tangled up and in the fall she broke a leg. Assistance was rendered immediately, but after an examination it was learned that the cow would have to be killed and the owner had her shot.

Going Up the Sound.

Miss Mary Holton, of Grove street, Miss Agusta Vallentine, of Central avenue, and Mrs. Cory, of Somerset street, left this afternoon for New York from which place they will sail on the Puritan for Boston. They expect to spend some time about Boston and Lynn, Mass., after which Mrs. Cory will go to Portsmouth, N. H., to remain for some time, and other members of the party will return home.

A Favorite Hymn Sung.

At the funeral of the late Peter V. Kline, held from his residence on East Sixth street Sunday afternoon, there was a solo by Charles L. Lewis, "It Is Well With My Soul." The hymn had been a great favorite with Mr. Kline during his lifetime. Frank J. Smith acted as accompanist to Mr. Lewis.

ANTI-TRUST ISSUE FOR THE DEMOCRATS.

Good Political Capital Considered in this Subject.

IT MEANS A HOT CAMPAIGN.

TO THROW THE RESPONSIBILITY ON THE REPUBLICANS.

The Democrats Believe That as a Party They Have Clean Hands in Making New Jersey the Stamping Ground of Monopolies—They Will Try to Keep the Issue Actively Before the People.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, July 11—As there will not be any State ticket in the field this year, neither political party will have an opportunity to declare itself officially on the issues of the day. To form vital issues it is necessary to hold State conventions. Issues, however, can be suggested and agitated, and then made semi-official by both parties, and that course, no doubt, will be taken in the campaign for the election of Senators and Assemblymen, which has already been opened.

The Democrats are considering the advisability of making their leading issue "anti-trusts." They feel that a heap of capital for their party can be made in that way, and that the entire burden of trust formations under the present State laws can be placed upon the Republican party. They contend that Republican legislation is responsible for all the trusts, and they point to the recent decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals in the Oliphant pottery case as a sustainment of their views. The present corporation laws of the State were revised by a Republican commission and re-enacted by a Republican Legislature in 1896. They say there is no disputing that fact. Chief Justice Magie, in his opinion in the Oliphant case, very plainly says that the formation of trusts is legal and that the Legislature did not deem it wise to change the statute on the subject.

In giving birth to this Trust issue in New Jersey the Democrats feel that that they are playing a game of good politics. In that opinion they are supported by no less a person than former Senator James A. Bradley, of Asbury Park, who in a recent interview declared that the party which took a decided stand against Trusts would surely win the day in New Jersey. Mr. Bradley declared that Trusts destroy competition in trade, and therefore raise the prices of commodities and the necessaries of life, while wages were reduced and the employment of labor curtailed. He gave several illustrations of his own knowledge to prove his assertion. "Anti-Trusts" may then be taken as the shibboleth of the New Jersey Democracy in the campaigns of this and next year. Of course, the Silver Democracy will not consent to the repudiation of their doctrine, nor to the unhorsing of Wm. Jennings Bryan. But they, no doubt, can be appealed by the drafting of a platform, when the time comes, by which Trusts and their financial theories can each be given a fair consideration. Congressman Daly, in a speech at the Tammany Hall celebration the Fourth of July, told his hearers that New Jersey is the mother of Trusts, but the Democratic party could not be held responsible for them. He added that his party would see to it that the people were fully informed as to the true condition of affairs, and the tocsin of war against Trusts would be sounded at an opportune time. The Republicans apparently feel serene over the Trust question, and they say they will take good care of it when the proper time arrives. They have no apprehension whatever that it will cut any figure at all in the present campaign.

Death of Mrs. Hyde.

Mrs. F. W. Runyon and Mrs. G. F. Odiorne received word this morning of the death of their sister, Mrs. Mary E. Hyde, of Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. Hyde was the widow of Eugene L. Hyde, of Richmond, Va., and the daughter of the late Dr. William Munnell, of Wheeling, West Va. She leaves no children and had lived for many years at the home of her brother-in-law, Dr. S. P. Stoddard, of Indianapolis. Besides the two Plainfield sisters she is survived only by the sister with whom she lived, Mrs. Stoddard.

Articles for the Babies' Camp.

Persons who intend to donate articles of furniture or anything else to the City Union of King's Daughters' Babies' Camp are requested to send them to the home of Miss Edith B. Little, 144 East Ninth street, tomorrow night. This is desired so that the donations can be transported to the camp at one time. The camp will be formally opened next Tuesday.

YELLOW FEVER VICTIMS.

General Brooke Makes Another Report of Recent Deaths in Cuba.

PRECAUTIONS ARE TAKEN

Other Places Than Santiago Appear to Be Afflicted With the Terribly Fatal Disease.

Charles Hale in a Letter Describes How the Surgeons Are Guarding Against the Spread of the Fever—Twenty-seven Men Die Out of One Regiment.

Nashville, Tenn., July 11.—A letter received by Will T. Hale, of this city, from his son Charles, now in Santiago, Cuba, gives some insight into the yellow fever situation there. Mr. Hale is an officer in the Fifth United States Infantry. He says:

"Since I wrote you last yellow fever has broken out here. It carried off four members of the regimental band in three days, and in two weeks we have lost twenty-seven men out of our regiment. Four of these were of Company M. the one to which I belong.

"One night at 2 o'clock the physician made us get outside the barracks with nothing on but the Cuban atmosphere, our guns, belts and one hundred rounds of ammunition. He would not allow us to carry a 'rag' out with us. The next morning our company was divided up into small squads in charge of non-commissioned officers and scattered all about the country."

Gen. Brooke Reports Fever Victims

Washington, July 11.—Gen. Brooke reports the following deaths:

Santiago, Private Andrew Sterling, G, Fifth Infantry, died 7th, yellow fever; Puerto Principe, Private John W. Hariem, G, Fifteenth Infantry, and Private Robert Giffen, A, Eighth Cavalry, both died 6th, yellow fever; Santiago, Private John Leonard, M, Fifth Infantry, died 7th; Private Patrick E. Manning, M, Fifth Infantry, died 8th, both yellow fever; Guantanamo, Private George Platt, H, Fifth Infantry, died 7th, intestinal obstruction; Puerto Principe, Joseph Lawrence, civilian employe, Quartermaster's Department, yellow fever, died 8th.

Wood Begins Raid on Fever.

Santiago, July 11.—General Leonard Wood, the military Governor, has returned from the United States and immediately began vigorous action to stamp out the yellow fever. He finds the situation more serious than he had anticipated.

Headquarters have been moved to Songo, twenty miles north on the railroad, a point about a thousand feet above sea level, as well as all the administrative departments, except the sanitary and a few immune clerks in the quartermaster's and commissary staffs.

The paymaster has been ordered to suspend all payments to the Cuban troops until the fever has been stamped out, the special order being to prevent the soldiers from drinking during the epidemic.

The Defender's Bent Boom.

Bristol, R. I., July 11.—The steamer St. Michaels, tender of the yacht Columbia, has arrived here with the Defender's steel boom, which was bent on Saturday by fouling with the Columbia's bowsprit. The boom, which is considerably damaged, will be repaired as quickly as possible, but it is uncertain how long a time will be required, as possibly the sections of the boom may have to be taken apart and straightened separately.

For a Big Forest Reserve.

Chicago, July 11.—A National park, or formerly reserve association, for the government preservation of over 7,000,000 acres of land in northern Minnesota will be formed in Chicago this month. The organization starts with the cordial indorsemnet of Gov. Roosevelt, of New York; President Hill, of the Great Northern Railway; Col. John S. Cooper, of this city, and prominent Congressmen and Government officials.

To Sue the Arbuckles.

New Albany, Ind., July 11.—J. M. Casper, a wholesale grocer at Madison, has retained counsel to bring a $25,000 damage suit against the Arbuckle Coffee Company, of New York, on account of damage to his reputation by a suit recently filed against him in the United States Court here by the Arbuckle Company. The Company sued Mr. Casper for infringement on label copyright.

Seals Seem Likely to Vanish.

Seattle, Wash., July 11.—Major E. W. Clark, special agent of the Government, in charge of the seal islands in the Behring Sea, has arrived from his headquarters on the island of St. George. He says that seals are not one-tenth as numerous as in former years. Destruction of the herd is still progressing under pelagic sealing.

Manchester to Have Telephone.

Frankfort, July 11.—Manchester, Clay County, famous by reason of the Baker-White feud, is to have telephone connection with the outside world. Clay is one of the oldest of mountain counties, but has been completely cut off from civilization, not having a mile of railroad, telegraph or even of ordinary turnpike.

Steamer Norseman on Fire.

Boston, July 11.—The steamer Norseman, lying at anchor off Castle Island, was badly damaged by fire. The city fireboat and several tugs responded to an alarm and the fire was put out after several hours' work. The staterooms on the starboard side of the vessel were burned out.

Heir to Russian Throne Dead.

St. Petersburg, July 11.—The Grand Duke George, brother of the Czar and heir to the throne of Russia, is dead.

STEAMER PORTIA WRECKED

All of Her Passengers and Crew Landed Safely.

Halifax, N. S., July 11.—The Red Cross steamer Portia, from New York bound in to Halifax, with seventy-five passengers on board, was wrecked on Flinn's Island, off Sambro, a point fifteen miles to the eastward of Halifax.

The disaster occurred during a thick fog. Everybody on the steamer, 117 all told, were landed on the island in safety and are being well cared for there. They will be transferred to the mainland, only a short distance away.

As soon as possible Captain Farrell with a boat's crew rowed to Sambro, whence he sent the news of the wreck to Halifax.

The Portia is full of water and will prove a total loss. She had a large cargo on board for Halifax and Newfoundland. The passengers are nearly all summer tourists.

The disaster occurred shortly before 7 p. m. The place where she struck is known as Big Fish Shoal, and is one and a half miles west of the light on Sambro Island.

Watkins Admits Blame.

New York, July 11.—Why the American line steamship Paris struck and was wrecked on the Manacle rocks on the morning of May 21 has been made public. It came in Captain Frederick Watkins's report, which was given out by the local Board of Steamboat Inspectors. The inspectors also made public their report relative to Captain Watkins's statement. The board has suspended the commander of the Paris for two years for the negligence which he admits. The grounding of the Paris occurred through an error made by Captain Watkins in the reckoning.

Lieut. Frank Inman Dead.

Philadelphia, July 11.—Lieut. Frank Inman, assistant to Major MacCluey, Deputy quartermaster, U. S. A., died here of Bright's disease, aged 50 years. Lieut. Inman enlisted in New York City on August 22, 1862, in the 133d New York Volunteer Infantry. In October of that year he was appointed regimental commissary sergeant, and in August, 1863, became first lieutenant and regimental quartermaster. He was mustered out June 5, 1865. In September, 1868, he entered the quartermaster's department as clerk, serving continuously until his last illness.

Le Briton Held for Trial.

Philadelphia, July 11.—After an extended hearing on the charge of larceny, preferred by Miss Mabel Pendleton, of New York, Charles Le Breton, a young man who was arrested on complaint of stealing the young woman's diamonds, has been committed for trial. It is understood that the name given by the man is fictitious, and that he is the son of a wealthy resident of the Borough of Bronx. He met the young woman in a New York resort, and declares that the charge has been trumped up in the hope of extracting money from him or his relatives.

Had Been Dead for Days.

Mount Holly, N. J., July 11.—Miles Atkinson was found dead in his home in an isolated part of Burlington County. The body was badly decomposed and the man had evidently been dead for several days. He was last seen alive on Thursday of last week. He was eccentric and lived alone. His brother is said to be president of the Phidadelphia Builders' Exchange.

Two Killed; Five Hurt.

San Francisco, July 11.—A collision between a freight and a passenger train bearing delegtes to the National Educational Association Convention at Los Angeles occurred at Newman, Cal. Two passengers, Mrs. Thomas, of Seneca Falls, N. Y., and Mrs. Harris, of St. Louis, were killed and five others slightly injured.

Two Miners Fatally Burned.

Altoona, Pa., July 11.—Five men were injured, two fatally, by an explosion of gas in the Loughman mines at Ehrenfeld. Henry and James W. Hoyer will die. The explosion was due to a defective lamp carried by Henry Hoyer.

Archbishop Ireland Returning.

Liverpool, July 11.—The White Star Line steamer Majestic, which is scheduled to sail from this port July 12 for New York, will have among her passengers Archbishop Ireland, the Earl of Yarmouth and Mr. Alexander Geddes.

Land Company With Large Capital.

Trenton, N. J., July 11.—The Tacoma Land and Improvement Company has been incorporated here with an authorized capital of $13,000,000 is to be preferred stock, with 7 per cent. cumulative dividends.

Flood-Sufferers Want Corn.

Washington, July 11.—The Secretary of Agriculture has been asked to send a supply of corn to the Texas flood sufferers. He has been compelled to decline, as the department has no appropriation for such a purpose.

Ontario Senator Drowned.

Hamilton, Ont., July 11.—Senator W. E. Sanford, of this city, was drowned while boating on Lake Windermere Muskoka. The Senator was very well know throughout Canada and the United States.

The Oppressed Sex.

A widow went to the office of the insurance company where her late husband had insured himself in order to receive payment of her claim. During the conversation which ensued the clerk remarked sympathetically that he "was very sorry to hear of her husbands death." Whereupon she fairly staggered him by remarking: "You men are all the same—always sorry when a poor woman gets the chance of a little money."

They Agreed.

Temperance Man—I was glad to observe that at the recent launching your vessel was christened with pure water, instead of wine.

Old Salt—That's so! I just said to myself, "Cap'n Seadog," says I, "this thing has got to stop. I ain't goin' to waste any more good liquor on such foolishness."—New York Weekly.

CONVINCING PROOF.

The Average Plainfield Citizen Must Accept the Following Proof.

The great Sir Isaac Newton, one of the most profound reasoners the world ever produced, once cut a large hole in a board fence to allow a favorite cat access to two gardens, and cut a smaller hole to allow her kitten to follow her. The weakness manifested in Sir Isaac's action was due to want of thought. Any Plainfield citizen who mentally debates the proof offered here about Doan's Kidney Pills and arrives at any other conclusion than that stated in this citizen's statement, is as short of reasoning powers as the philosopher when he turned carpenter.

Mr. P. J. Krettling, proprietor of barber shop and cigar store, living at No. 253 West Front street, says:—"I had all kinds of pains in my back and loins for five or six years. Standing all day long at a barber chair aggravated the difficulty very much. If I stooped and remained in that position a short time it was very hard to straighten again and if I attempted to lift anything heavy, twinges caught me in the back. I used different kinds of plasters but they did not relieve me. After reading several statements in my paper about Doan's Kidney Pills curing people similarly afflicted, I made up my mind to try a box and procured them, and after a short time was entirely relieved. Doan's Kidney Pills not only cured the pain but they strengthened my back. My wife was troubled in a similar way and was also cured by Doan's Kidney Pills. We both consider them a good medicine and will gladly recommend them to anyone suffering from symptoms of disordered kidneys."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

VETERANS WANT TO FIGHT.

Capt. Moss's Organization Is In Hopes That it Will Be Accepted Soon.

SERVICES ARE TENDERED

The New Company is Named "McKinley Sharpshooters" in Honor of The President.

Captain Moss Thinks the Prospects Are Bright For His Company to See Service in the Philippines—Another Batch of Volunteer Officers Are Named.

Washington, July 11.—The officers and members of the volunteer company composed of men honorably discharged from the army at the close of the Spanish-American war which has been raised in this city for service in the Philippines, are wondering what action the War Department will take in regard to the tender of their services, made some time ago. Capt. Percy W. Moss, formerly of the 2d Arkansas Volunteers, is in command of the organization. He thinks that the chances of the company for seeing service in the Philippines are good. It has been named the "McKinley Sharpshooters," in honor of the President. In company with Gen. Hawley, Capt. Moss called upon the President last Wednesday, but a meeting of the Cabinet made an interview impossible. Adjt.-Gen. Corbin has also been seen, and letters of indorsement from Gen. Wheeler and others were filed in his office. Capt. Moss and Lieut. Dickinson have called upon the President to talk the matter over.

The Captain is a veteran of the Confederate army. He was in General Wheeler's corps and has the record of being a hard fighter. He was regarded as one of the best volunteer officers in service during the recent war. The men in his command are from every State in the Union and are seasoned veterans. The company has 115 officers and men. Should its services be accepted the men will be mustered in separately and assigned to the same company, which Capt. Moss hopes to command. If Capt. Moss does not receive a commission the men will enlist in whatever company they can. Both officers and men are anxious to go to the Philippines. The fact that they are seasoned and experienced veterans will probably have considerable weight with the President in determining the question of acceptance.

More Volunteer Officers Named.

Washington, July 11.—The War Department has made public the following appointments by the President of Lieutenant-Colonels of Volunteers:

Capt. J. F. Bell, 7th Cavalry; Capt. Herbert H. Sargent, 2d Cavalry; Capt. John J. Brerton, 24th Infantry; Capt. E. H. Plummer, 10th Infantry.

The new officers all are graduates of West Point Military Academy, and are appointed because of meritorious service during the Spanish-American war.

President and Cabinet Ignore Alger

Washington, July 11.—Signs that Secretary of War Alger is no longer in the confidence of the President, multiply daily, and his resignation from the Cabinet seems certain. He has been supplanted as counsellor in War Department affairs by Adjutant General Corbin. It is announced that only one of the appointments recommended by the Secretary of War for the officering of the new provisional regiments was made. His advice, it is said, is no longer sought as to the conduct of affairs in the Philippines. The Secretary of War it is said, was not invited to the conference at the White House, in which Governor Roosevelt participated, and in which War Department affairs were discussed.

Western Reserve University.

Cleveland, July 11.—Mrs. H. V. Harkness, of New York, has given $30,000 toward the erection of a chapel for the College of Women of the Western Reserve University. President Thwing states that this is the second large gift which Mrs. Harkness has made. She gave $50,000 three years ago to found a Biblical Chair in memory of her daughter, Florence Harkness Severance.

Australia's Lattimer Riot Claims.

Vienna, July 11.—The "Fremdenblatt" asserts that the United States Government declines to submit the matter of compensation for the killing of Austro-Hungarian subjects in the strike riots at Lattimer, near Hazelton, Penn., to arbitration.

To Build a Big Cotton Mill.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 11.—C. E. Buck of Richmond, Va., and a party of wealthy Eastern capitalists have formed a company to erect a mammoth 5,000-spindle cotton mill at Kensington, Ga. The mill will cost about $500,000.

Explosion in California Mine.

San Francisco, July 11.—There was a premature explosion of giant powder in Melon's mine in Calaveras county. Nicholas May, a miner, was killed and three other miners are imprisoned in the tunnel.

The Plague in Egypt.

Alexandria, July 11.—Three more cases of plague have been reported here. The inhabitants are discontented with the sanitary precautions and have threatened trouble.

Brought From Mexico.

Auburn, Ind., July 11.—Eugene Girardot, an engineer of this city, was killed in a railroad wreck in Mexico. His remains were brought here for interment.

Appointed Census Supervisor.

Washington, July 11.—Frank A. H. Weed, of Potsdam, N. Y., has been appointed Supervisor of the Census for the Sixth New York District.

GREETING TO PRESIDENT.

Ten Thousand Turn Out to Tent Meetings Held in Rain.

Detroit, Mich., July 11.—President Francis E. Clark, of the Christian Endeavor Society, yesterday afternoon wired the following message to President McKinley:

"Twenty-eight thousand American and Canadian Christian Endeavorers, assembled in international convention, received with hearty enthusiasm your kindly message, and pray for God's richest blessing upon yourself, your administration and the great republic of which you are the Chief Magistrate."

Although a rainstorm prevailed, nearly 10,000 people attended meetings in the tents Endeavor and Williston. The tent Endeavor greetings from missionaries in China, Japan and other foreign countries were received.

Detroit, Mich., July 11.—The closing day of the International Christian Endeavor Convention was the busiest day of a busy week. Eight great gatherings were held. The evening session which was largely attended closed the Convention. Delegates are leaving the city to-day on every train.

Killed at Church Services.

West Liberty, Kan., July 11.—A tragedy occurred just at the close of services yesterday at a Baptist meeting at the Wells schoolhouse, three miles from here. The two Fugat brothers and Jesse Day, a young farmer, met in the church house and as soon as the benediction was pronounced they began shooting. Day was killed and one member of the congregation was shot in the arm. Men, women, and children fled from the church panic-stricken. After the shooting the Fugates made their escape. A posse was quickly organized and it is scouring the country for them. The tragedy was the result of bad feeling that has existed between these men for years.

Train Crashes Into Its Helper.

Cumberland, Md., July 11.—The Baltimore and Ohio St. Louis Limited No. 1 ran into her own helper, which was waiting on the main track near Rowlesburg, W. Va., on the seventeen-mile grade and derailed both engines. Engineer Joshua Turner and Fireman John Schmutz of the passenger train were both scalded, the former about the hand and the later seriously from the waist down. Helper Engineer Carnes had his collarbone broken. The helper was waiting on the main track for the arrival of the train to take it up the grade.

May Lynch Him Again.

Alma, Kan., July 11.—Dick Williams, a negro charged with the murder of two white men, was lynched here. The mob left the negro hanging to a telegraph pole. Six minutes later he was cut down by the town marshall when he recovered consciousness. The negro is still alive, but cannot live.

The people of Alma and the country surrounding are greatly excited and, while great precautions are being taken to prevent further trouble, it is feared the murderer will be again taken from the jail.

A New Power House.

New York, July 11.—Plans and specifications have been submitted to the department of buildings for a one and two-story brick and granite fire-proof electric power-house, to be erected for the Third Avenue Railroad Company, at the northeast corner of Ninth avenue and 216th street, from plans prepared by Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Co., engineers, who estimate the cost of construction at $1,000,000. The building will have a steel frame and will occupy a plot 319x246.

Judge Company Dissolved.

New York July 11.—Justice Bischoff, of the Supreme Court, has signed an order dissolving the Judge Publishing Company, publishers, 110 Fifth avenue, in a suit brought for a voluntary dissolution of the company by Bartlett Arkell, James Arkell and William J. Merrill, directors, and appointed William J. Arkell receiver. His bond was fixed at $1,000.

Fire Workers Strike.

Lisbon, O., July 11.—Skilled workmen in the local tin mill went on a strike for the recognition of the union. As a consequence every department of the plant is stopped and 800 men are idle. A branch of the Amalgamated Association was organized. The mill has been paying the scale of wages.

Major Portor Promoted.

Washington, July 11.—Major Carlisle P. Porter of the Marine Corps has been promoted to be lieutenant-Colonel under the provisions of the law which permits officers to retire after thirty years' service, on their own application, with the rank and retired pay of the next higher grade.

Clementon Man Killed by a Train.

Norristown, Pa., July 11.—A man having papers in his pocket identifying him as Henry Steiner of Clementon, N. J., was struck by an express train this morning at Spring Hill and died shortly afterward. It is believed that he committed suicide.

Big Fire in a Wisconsin Town.

Chicago, July 11.—A despatch from Portage, Wis., says that a considerable portion of the town of Montello, in Marquette county was destroyed by fire. Ten stores were burned entailing a loss of $75,000, with practically no insurance.

Postoffice Robber.

Columbus, July 11.—J. W. Platt, alias J. W. Pierson, a Federal prisoner, has been received at the penientiary from Virginia to serve a 10 years' sentence for postoffice robberies.

Bad Sleeping Place.

Orleans, Ind., July 11.—John T. Brown, of Paoli, was killed by the branch train two miles south of this place. He was lying on the end of the ties asleep.

Josiah Quincy Gives It Up.

Boston, July 11.—Mayor Josiah H. Quincy has announced that he would not be a candidate for Mayor next year under any circumstances.

I am an oil well operator, and, in consequence, am exposed to all kinds of weather and subject to irregular hours of work, which has told on my health in many ways. I have had all sorts of trouble, caused by dyspepsia loss of appetite, kidney and liver trouble, and would take cold at the least exposure. In fact, my health was completely run down. I tried various remedies without avail, and having noticed the persistent advertising of Ripans Tabules in the papers and magazines I decided to give them a trial, and in less than a week noted good results, and now, at the end of six months' rather steady use, am fully restored to health, and never felt better in my life, all of which is due to R·P·A·N·S. I can not speak too highly of them, and am glad to recommend them to any one whose condition of health is similar to mine [illegible] months since. I might add that during my illness I was more or less troubled with rheumatism, and as that has left me entirely I certainly owe it to R·P·A·N·S as my blood is now in a healthier condition. My age is thirty-eight years.

WANTED: A [illegible] Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce Street, [illegible] 9 cents to mail for 48 cents. R·P·A·N·S, 10 for 5 cents, of 12 packets, [illegible] selling to sell a standard medicine also a moderate profit. They [illegible] Note the word R·P·A·N·S on the packet. Accept no substitute.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Making People Happy.
Pain of any kind causes a strain up on the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.
Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:
D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. ## HERE'S A HERO OPERATOR.

Ahern Blocked Train Before Falling Unconscious.

Wilmington, Del., July 11.—William Ahern, block operator for the Delaware Railroad at Ginn's crossing, below Middletown, was discovered at his desk in the tower bleeding and unconscious from wounds on the head. He had been assaulted by two negroes, who robbed him of $25.

Before becoming unconscious Ahern set the signals in both directions to stop coming trains, and the signals, coupled with the fact that no response was received to whistling, caused the crew of a southbound train to make an investigation.

But the precautions taken by the brave and desperately wounded operator prevented the possibility of train collisions.

A posse was promptly organized and the assailants were traced to Summit bridge, about seven miles distant, where they were arrested and taken to jail.

They were James Young and Chester Rasin, of Uniontown, Md.

New Rule on Jersey Central.

Plainfield, N. J., July 11.—A civil service examination for the baggagemen employed on the Jersey Central road is one of the new reforms instituted on that road under its new management. All of the men in this department of the service of the road will be compelled to undergo an examination to hold their positions. The questions to be included in the examination will concern the route of a piece of baggage from one station to another on the same lines or on different lines and the manner of tracing lost articles.

Peacemaker Was Killed.

Washington, July 11.—Charles Oliver, a farmer, was stabbed to death by Charles Armstrong at Jackson Mill, Fairfax County, Va. Charles and William Armstrong quarreled. William Oliver, brother of the man that was killed, separated the Armstrong brothers. This action infuriated Charles Armstrong, and he turned upon the peacemaker with a knife. Charles Oliver saw his brother's peril and rushed upon the knife wielder, only to receive the fatal blow.

She Died of Fright.

San Francisco, July 11.—Death called Dr. Mary C. Edmonds, a well-known physician of this city, in tragic fashion at her home, 913 Bush street. The accidental setting off of a burglar alarm wrought up her nerves to such a strain that she suffered death by fright. She went to a window and blew a whistle. Help came, but just as she opened the front door she tottered and fell dead.

No Strike on Metropolitan.

New York, July 11.—All chances of a strike on the Metropolitan Street Railway Company's lines have been removed by the action of a large body of the motormen, gripmen and conductors employed by the line, said to be 95 per cent. of the whole number, in repudiating the actions of those who are agitating certain alleged grievances.

Eraser Saved His Life.

Chicago, July 11.—A steel eraser which S. C. Woodward of 8124 Emerald avenue carried in his vest pocket saved his life when he was attacked and shot at by two robbers. A bullet from a revolver in the hands of one of the highwaymen struck him over the right breast, but glanced from the eraser and did no injury.

Hiccoughed Himself to Death.

Auburn, Ind., July 11.—Dr. S. D. Johnston, who was the first man to practice dentistry in Dekalb County, died after an illness of two weeks. He was taken with severe hiccoughing, and this caused his sudden death. Dr. Johnson was born in Wayne County, Ohio, 63 years ago. He was a Lieutenant in the Civil War.

To Build Big Power House.

Anderson, Ind., July 11.—Contracts have been let for a $250,000 power house to be erected at this point at once to supply power for the entire system, operative and prospective, of the Gas Belt Electric Railway. It will be the largest power house of the kind in the Central States.

Ohio Will Recognize Bryan.

Cleveland, O., July 11.—W. J. Bryan, who has just completed a trip through Ohio, will attend the State convention at Zanesville. He expects indorsement there of himself and the Chicago platform, and this much seeems to be assured as a result of his visit.

Deaf Woman Killed.

Eaton, Ohio, July 11.—Mrs. Sarah Shank, living at Union road, along the Dayton and Western Traction, was run down and instantly killed by a car. She was deaf, and a sunbonnet she was wearing made her totally oblivious of the approaching car.

Portions of a Man.

Fremont, Ohio, July 11.—Portions of the remains of a man were found scattered along the Wheeling and Lake Erie track north of the city and later identified as those of William Krawetski. It is supposed Krawetski had been drinking.

Newsboy Drowned at Cairo, Ill.

Cairo, Ill., July 11.—Arthur McRaven, a newsboy, aged 18 years, was drowned in the Ohio River and his body has not been recovered. He attempted to jump from a barge to the steamer Mayflower but stumbled and fell into the river.

Slashed by a Burglar.

Evansville, Ind., July 11.—George H. Hartman, a farmer living in Perry Township, two miles from this city, was attacked by a negro burglar and badly slashed about the face and hands. He cannot recover.

Congressman Walker Free.

Bristol, Tenn., July 11.—The jury in the case of Congressman James A. Walker, charged with shooting with intent to commit murder, rendered a verdict of acquittal, after having been out only 25 minutes.

THE FLOODS ARE RECEDING.

Considerable Improvement is Shown in the Situation In Texas' Calamity.

PUSHING RELIEF WORK.

The Loss of Life in Some Sections is Considerably Greater Than Had Been Anticipated.

Governor Sayers Adopts a System of Distribution of Supplies—State Organizations Asked For Assistance—The Water in Some Places Falls Below Danger Line.

Dallas, Tex., July 11.—Clear weather is reported throughout Texas and the flood situation shows considerable improvement. The Western Union wires are working direct from Dallas to Galveston for the first time since July 1. Small armies of laborers are scattered along the Central, the Santa Fe, the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, the International & Great Northern and the Southern Pacific in the flood district wherever the waters have subsided enough to push repairs. It will be at least ten days before these repairs can be continued with anything like regularity. It will be longer than that before the different lines are in their former running order.

The following bulletin has been received from J. J. Fenn of Duke, in Fort Bend county: "Boats just returning from exploring down the Brazos, toward Columbia and Velasco, report the distress as being beyond description. The loss of life is very large—much larger than heretofore reported or expected."

Relief work is being pushed vigorously. All of last week had to be devoted primarily to life saving and to furnishing subsistence as well as could be done. From now on the relief work will be directed to supplying all the sufferers with the necessities and as many of the comforts of life as possible. This is going to be an enormous task. No one estimates the number of homeless persons at less than 40,000. The absolutely needy will swell the number to twice these figures. In addition to food supplies, clothing is needed. A large proportion of the refugees are practically naked. At present temporary shelter only is provided for. Thousands of negro cabins and farm dwelling houses are gone. The planters have lost so heavily that most of them are unable to replace their lost plantation quarters.

Help from outside the State is badly needed, but personal, local and State pride will prevent open appeals. Gov. Sayers has made special appeals to all State organizations for assistance. He has divided the flooded district into geographical sub-divisions and named the places where certain blocks of counties may send aid. The persons authorized by the Governor to receive aid for the sufferers are: E. Hannay, at Waler, Hempstead county; the Mayor of San Felipe, in Austin county; Capt. L. P. Selker, at Richmond, Fort Bend county; the Hon. A. W. McIver at Caldwell, Burleson county; E. P. Curry at Brenham, Washington county; J. A. Foster at Calvert, Robertson county; the Hon. C. Adams at Bryan, Brazos county, and W. N. Norwood, Sr., at Navasota, Grimes county.

Reports from Sealy, San Felipe, Angelton, Brookshire, Thompson and other places north of Richmond, say the water has fallen below the danger point. Bodies of dead horses, mules, cattle, hogs and other farm animals poison the air, and decaying vegetation is also making trouble. Epidemics of sickness are feared.

About a dozen dead bodies of negroes have been found scattered among drifts where the water is receding. More will be found, as the waters leave the overflowed districts.

Say Wife Killed Him.

Erie, Pa., July 11.—Clarence Shattuck, one of the proprietors of a billiard room at Four-Mile Creek, near here, was shot and killed and his body placed on the tracks of the Erie motor line. His wife, Ella Shattuck, is locked up in the Erie police station, charged with murdering him. An examination of the body by Coroner Steinmetz showed that the man had been shot in the head, arm and back. Two bicyclists who were near the roadway in the immediate neighborhood of the trestle heard a cry of "Murder!" twice before the shots were fired, and they saw a woman hurry down toward the mouth of the creek.

Unconscious for Seventy-eight Days.

New Albany, Ind., July 11.—Clarence Madlung, the six-year-old son of J. R. Madlung, of this city, is a sufferer from a remarkable case of spinal meningitis. For 78 days the child has been dangerously ill of the disease, and for two and a half months he has lain in semiconscious condition, apparently at death's door. There has been no perceptible change in his condition either for better or worse, and the tenacity with which the child hangs onto life is looked upon with amazement by the physicians. During the first few days of his illness the child lost his hearing, speech and sight.

Soldier Brought Back a Bride.

Altoona, Pa., July 11.—John D. Fenton, Company I, Tenth Pennsylvania Regiment, has returned to his home in Greensburg with a bride. On the trip to the Philippines the boys tarried quite a while in San Francisco. The girls of that city showed them so many attractions that, according to Fenton's story, a dozen weddings will likely result. Fenton repeats the story that several American soldiers have taken Filipino brides, but says none of the Pennsylvania boys have.

Juby and Wife Under Arrest.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 11.—Charles Juby and his wife, who were arrested here on a charge of passing a forged check for $200, have been taken to Dayton, Ohio, to answer to similar charges. Detective Farrell, of this city, took the pair east.

When You Are Away

For a week, or a month, or the whole summer, there is nothing more welcome than the news from home. There is only one way to get this news in the right shape, and that is by having The Daily Press sent to you at your vacation stopping place. When leaving town for a season be sure to order The Daily Press to follow you by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired. Ten cents a week will cover all expenses.

Interpretation of a Contract.

Great interest has been taken in the decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals in the Oliphant case, which many take to mean that hereafter New Jersey will be the freest and most open field for the operation of genuine trusts in the United States. Many persons and newspapers accept the decision as indicating that New Jersey will not—in fact, can not under the application of the law—prevent the formation of monopolies designed to restrict and control industry and prices. The Newark News takes a a different view, however, in the following portion of an able editorial on the decision that has caused widespread interest:

In some directions this decision is being hailed as a triumph for trusts. It is difficult to see why it should be so defined. It is a decision requiring that a reasonable observance shall be given to a convenant entered into when a business was sold on terms satisfactory to the seller. The goodwill, protected by the restraining clause, was a valuable asset of the business, and doubtless commanded a liberal share of the price. The decision leaves the Oliphants at liberty to carry on the pottery business anywhere outside of New Jersey. The contract withdraws no workmen from the industry and leaves the entire capital of the country, except that of these capitalists, free to enter New Jersey and engage in the business. The decision upholds a reasonable interpretation of a contract, as binding when made with a big corporation as with a little one or between individuals.

As for the matter of trusts, the opinion discusses the action of the American Sanitary Potters' Association, in which the Trenton Potteries Company, by means of its purchases, secured the interests of five out of eight members each having a vote. The association had controlled and for a time continued to control prices. The Court says that no such agreements to limit or distribute products so as to control prices could have been enforced, and that no damages would have been awarded for their breach.

JAMES BROOKS DILL, THE TRUST BUILDER.

James B. Dill believes disaster is coming to the big trusts which are inflated like toy balloons, but thinks the popular cry against them is "based on a misconceived theory." Mr. Dill, who is called the "father of the trusts," has organized scores.

It is not a safe policy for a merchant to proceed in his business on the plan that the public will consult him as to its needs, says the Philadelphia Record. He should understand that he must be in advance of the public. This is a requirement not optional with him; it is a matter of necessity if he be really eager to succeed. The public knows that it wants things; but it is self-willed and exacting, and having money with which to pay for the trouble it causes and for the wares it demands it simply turns to the alert merchant, who, being able to read human nature, caters to its exactions and whims by telling in the advertising columns of the daily newspaper all about his establishment and the wares which he has for sale.

Speaking of former Governor Hogg's overturn of the Tammany programme, the St. Louis Republican says: Those who think Mr. Hogg's performance was the product of sudden impulse or the result of accident, are not well informed. Mr. Hogg is not a politician of the impulsive school, neither does he proceed according to the rule of accidents. He is one of the most experienced managers of politics, considering his age, in the country. Slatemakers between now and the time of meeting of the Democratic National Convention of 1900 should keep an eye on Mr. Hogg, of Texas.

The Sun says that Alger's days are numbered—meaning, of course, in the President's cabinet. In the light of The Sun's previous position towards Alger its present cheerful reconciliation to his retirement affords another novel phase of humor for which The Sun is famous.

The permanent paving that is to be made in Plainfield will be put down in streets used for the heaviest traffic in the city. Consequently the experience of other cities with pavements laid in residential streets will scarcely offer an example that it would be well to follow.

Having thrown a veritable political bombshell into the Tammany camp on the Fourth, Governor Hogg is now hobnobbing with the very leaders whom his advice so disconcerted. Hogg knows how to give and take.

If the political prophets who are following the career of Roger Franklin Murray speak by the book the political retirement of the young Plainfield Republican may be ended before the real political season arrives.

The principal business of Governor Pingree seems to be to supply interviews and that of Secretary Alger to deny them. Which ever way it happens to be they are both kept busy.

A dollar or a few cents, according to the size of the donor's purse, will be as welcome for the Babies' Camp Fund now as it was a month ago. Help along the good work.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

A correspondent makes this very interesting suggestion concerning a trolley depot; "A grand central trolley depot for Plainfield is suggested as a necessity for that system; and also a needed shelter for transfer and other passengers from sun, rain and snow, on Watchung avenue. Such may be made, a light arched iron frame building reaching overhead and across both streets, embracing carriage way; with ornamental front facing North avenue, and both ends on Watchung avenue facing Front street and also facing the Jersey Central Railroad bridge. A structure somewhat of this character could be made ornamental to that part of the city, an attraction in full view of Central Railroad passengers, and a splendid monument to the success of the trolley magnates. Waiting rooms, if needed, could be placed on both sides, above the roadway after the fashion of the elevated roads in New York and Brooklyn.—Wm. Hewson."

Some one told a 20th Kansas boy that mosquitoes would never come into the neighborhood of a dog, so he captured one of the curs running about the town and took him to bed. As a result the dog filled the bed so full of fleas that he hasn't been able to get rid of them yet, and he is sleeping out under a banana tree. "Mosquitoes are bad enough, the Lord knows," says our soldier boy, "but they are an ice-cream festival when compared to a Philippine flea."

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Standard excellence in the matter of programme; unusual accessibility in the way of location; uncommon coolness in the auditoriums, and the maintenance of a low price of admission, all tend to the great popularity of F. F. Proctor's two theatres in New York—the Twenty-third Street Theatre in the very centre of the shopping district, and the Pleasure Palace at Fifty-eigth street and Third avenue. Elecric fans and iced water add to the comfort of patrons and none of the discomforts of summer indoor theatres. That is why these houses are kept open all summer. The special 10-cent tickets to the ladies at the Palace for orchestra seats in the afternoons is proving the greatest magnet at Mr. Proctor's uptown house. Refined vaudeville is indeed offered at "bargain rates" at such a price. The stars at the Palace for the week beginning July 17th are: George Fuller Golden, the monologist; Mr. and Mrs. Augustin Neuville, Lynch and Jewell, Ford and Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Darrow, and thirty others. At the Twenty-third Street theatre next week, beginning July 17th, are: George Henry Trader & Co. in "Oscar's Birthday;" Chas. Wayne and Anna Caldwell, Webb and Hassan, Hooker and Davis, Blanche Ring and a score more.

An Unparalleled Sale of WHITE GOODS.

'Twould seem that we had supplied half the State with white good—but the end is not yet. Where have they gone? Where are they going? We cannot tell. We simply know they have gone and are still going at an astonishing rate. The natural inference is our goods and prices must be right. Certain we are that no concern in these parts offers so great a variety of new and in every way reliable white goods.

Piques, Dimities, India Linons, French Nainsooks, English Nainsooks, Check Nainsooks, Swisses, Mulls, Organdies, Tarlatans, Lace Stripe Muslins, Etc., in infinite variety. A full assortment of Sheets, Pillow Cases and Bolster Cases, all widths, hemstitched and with plain hem.

The very large purchase of Table Linens and Napkins spoken of a few days since, enables us to not only show a wonderful line of qualities and designs, but to give extraordinary values.

Bear in Mind the Fact that the prices on all Summer Goods, such as Shirt Waists, Wash Fabrics, Crash Skirts, Crash Suits, Pique Skirts, Duck Skirts, Etc., Etc., have been mercilessly cut and are selling freely. Wise persons will make early selections while sizes are complete.

Enthusiastic Ladies simply go in raptures over our White Lawn Dressing Sacks. We quite enjoy their ejaculations of delight upon first seeing the dainty garments. Most skillfully designed, exquisitely finished, they appeal very strongly to Ladies of refined taste.

Miscellaneous Vanities.

Fancy Shirred Chiffon in black, white and colors, Fancy Shirred Tucking and Puffing for Dress Fronts, Dainty Valenciennes Laces and Insertings, Rich Black Silk Laces and Insertings, Imported Shell Pompadour Combs, Side Combs, Twist Combs, and the Combs for supporting the back hair, Beautiful Waist Sets, Collar Clasp, Belt Buckles, and a remarkably attractive line of Ladies' Fine Belts.

FASHION

has decreed that plain Taffeta Ribbons shall be much used. Our line of these is particularly strong. Prices on all Fancy Ribbons are deeply cut. We carry the narrow velvet ribbons in all widths in both Linen back and Satin back.

Trunks and Traveling Bags.

When we say we have the best Trunks and Bags—we know we are right and we are bound to stick to it.

Examine our assortment of these goods, and then tell us if you ever saw stronger-looking; better-lined, finer-finished goods anywhere.

A good trunk is a most desirable companion when journeying.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 11—Rev. Geo. C. Wilding, D. D., pastor of St. James M. E. church at Elizabeth, will deliver his famous lecture on "To the top of Mount Hood," in the Methodist church in this borough Tuesday evening, July 18, at 8 o'clock. The lecture will be preceded by a short musicale. The admission will be 25 cents. Children under 12 years of age, if accompanied by their parents, will be admitted free. The doctor has the rare faculty of interesting all classes of hearers, old or young, educated or uneducated. As the lecturer has climbed the mountain he is in a position to speak intelligently of the many interesting features that are to be seen there. It is predicted that a large audience will go greet Dr. Wilding on the occasion of his visit.

Large sized posters have been issued and placed about town calling attention to the public mass meeting which is to be held on the 13th inst, at the borough building, to protest against the action of the Brunswick Traction Co. in regard to the method which is now in force by that campany with reference to transfers. Much interest is manifested in the matter.

The young ladies of the tennis club had their first practice game today. The new courts have been put in good condition and are now in the best shape they have been in some time. Tennis is now the popular game of the borough.

The Land Improvement Co. is having the house to be occupied by Prof. Morris, the Superintendent of Public Schools, thoroughly overhauled and put in first-class condition for his reception. He is expected home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swackhamer and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oakley at New Brunswick.

Mrs. Emily Apgar entertained friends from New Brunswick and Westfield last Saturday.

Walter G. Runyon has returned from a visit with friends at Morristown and Basking Ridge.

Percy Abbott spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Abbott, at Somerville.

James Dalrymple has returned from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Sproul, of Jersey City.

A. N. Randolph and family spent Sunday at Piscataway with the family of Manny Randolph.

Mrs. Annie Abbott and Mrs. William E. Terry have returned from visiting friends in Metuchen.

Geo. W. Churchill, of Asbury Park, has been visiting friends in this place.

Mrs. William H. Terry has been visiting friends in Brooklyn.

The family of O. A. Douglass has been entertaining friends.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 11.—Col. F. R. Stegman has become identified with the Midland Excursion Company. Col. Stegman, although a recent arrival in the village, has made many warm friends during his short residence and all unite in wishing him success in his new venture. The head office of the company will be in charge of the Colonel and will be located in the village.

A game of baseball was played Sunday afternoon near Graceland between a team from Westfield and a team from Summit. Scotch Plains does not seem to have trouble enough with the sins of its own residents, but must bear the sins thrust on them by neighboring villages.

The Township Committee are making preparations to build a sidewalk along Park avenue on the west side. There was never much trouble on this side of the street, but when the trolley came to town the need of a walk on both sides was seen at once and attended to.

Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Jr., accompanied by her mother, Mrs. T. A. Gere, of Brooklyn, started Monday for a two weeks visit with relatives in Delaware.

Fanwood Council, R. A., meet in their rooms this evening. A visit from Grand Deputy Farmer is expected and a large turnout of members is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Stanton Pentz, of Bergen Point, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Pentz's grandfather, Charles Kyte, of Fanwood.

A meeting of the deacons of the Baptist church was held after the morning service Sunday.

The adjourned meeting of the Township Committee will be held in the town rooms this evening.

Miss Nancy Wade led the Epworth League meeting Sunday evening in the Methodist church.

John E. Flannery, of Plainfield, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. John Flannery.

Miss Carrie Bettman, of Fanwood, has returned from a week's stay at Asbury Park.

Wm. Jimerson, of Lyons Farms, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Edward Wade.

Mrs. Johnston, of Tenafly, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Johnston.

Frederick Hoppell, the dairy man, is out with a handsome new delivery wagon.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 11—Charles Embleton, the winner of the fifteen-mile road race field here on the Fourth, was badly hurt in a collision near Milburn Sunday. He with several other riders was scorching along the road when the crowd ran into a heavy rider and Embleton fell under the man and was badly hurt. His side is bruised and cut and he is now under the care of a physician.

Nicholas Wolfinger, formerly in charge of the soda water department at Randolph's pharmacy, has again taken the position for the summer. His friends are pleased that he has returned.

Harry Yaegar, of Elmwood place, and an employee at Stern's, New York, has taken an excellent position at Asbury Park for the summer months. He expects to return to New York in the fall.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Only 50 cents and $1.00, every bottle guaranteed.

Miss Mary Graves, of Liberty street, is detained at home by a slight illness.

Louis Miller, formerly of this city, and later of the U. S. S. Texas, is now stationed at San Juan for awhile. He soon expects to sail for Chili.

Edson C. Martin and wife, of Putnam avenue, have returned from a pleasure drive to Morristown, where they have been visiting friends.

George Moncton, who was stricken with paralysis a few days ago, seems to be improving slightly. He is still at the home of his uncle on Highland avenue.

The condition of Mrs. Gideon Allen, of the borough, remains about the same. Yesterday she seemed a little better, but the slight improvement was only temporary.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Braunschweig. Lippe.

Velpke. In einem der früheren Steinbrüche, die jetzt mit Wasser angefüllt sind, wurde die Leiche des Kanoniers K. Ferdinand von hier gefunden. Derselbe soll den Zug nach Wolfenbüttel verpaßt haben und aus Furcht, vor in seiner Garnison zu erwartenden Strafe, den Tod gesucht haben. Ferdinand diente im ersten Jahre.

Detmold. Dem Salomon Adler'schen Ehepaar wurden anläßlich seiner goldenen Hochzeit zahlreiche Ehrungen seitens der jüdischen Gemeinde und auch von anderer Seite zu Theil. Der Graf-Regent Ernst ließ neben einem Glückwunschschreiben eine prachtvolle—Bibel mit eigenhändiger Widmung überreichen.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Die Staatsanwaltschaft hat gegen den Kaufmann Simon Heil, welcher hier ein Herrenkonfektionsgeschäft betrieb, eine Untersuchung wegen betrügerischen Bankerotts eingeleitet.—Der Geheime Oberrechnungsrath Wilhelm Melchior, der an hochgradiger Nervosität litt, hat sich erschossen.

Alzei. Der Großherzog hat das bei Erbes-Büdesheim gelegene große Gut des Landtagsabgeordneten Karl Römer von hier um den Preis von 625,000 Mark käuflich erworben.

Armsheim. Gastwirth J. Feldmann, der seit einiger Zeit verschwunden war, wurde mit durchschossener Brust in seinem Keller aufgefunden. Der Mann, der schon längere Zeit leidend war, hatte sich den Tod gegeben.

Friedberg. Ein Gewinn von 200,000 Mark aus der Aachener Dombaulotterie kam in die Kollekte des Kolonialwaarenhändlers und Unterkollekteurs Stamm dahier. Ein Viertel davon erhält der in mäßig bürgerlichen Verhältnissen lebende Küfer Karl Müller, ein anderes Viertel der Halbinvalide und frühere Eisenbahnbremser Seun und das dritte Viertel der im Geschäfte des Herrn Stamm angestellte Lehrling. Das letzte Viertel entfällt auf einen bäuerlichen Besitzer in Reichelsheim in der Wetterau.

Offenbach. Oberst von Hanneken, Kommandeur des 168. Infanterie-Regiments, ist an den Folgen einer Blinddarmentzündung gestorben.

Bayern.

München. Die hiesige Universität zählt in diesem Sommersemester 4257 Studirende.—Der Prinzregent genehmigte, daß die Büste des Stenographen Gabelsberger in der Ruhmeshalle bei der Bavaria aufgestellt werde.—Von den 16,234 im vergangenen Jahre in München vorgekommenen Geburten waren 28.6 Prozent unehelich.—Im Planegger Walde wurde dieser Tage die erste bayerische Volksheilstätte für Lungenkranke eingeweiht. Der Schloßherr von Planegg, Baron Hirsch, spendete dazu 100,000 Mark.

Augsburg. Bei Oberhausen wurde neulich Nachts versucht, einen Postzug durch Schienenlockerung und Nägelausziehen zum Entgleisen zu bringen. Noch im letzten Augenblick wurde der Anschlag entdeckt und der Zug rechtzeitig zum Stehen gebracht. Die Thäter sind noch nicht ermittelt.

Bayreuth. Außerhalb der Stadt erschoß sich der königlich preußische Steuerdirektor Bassert aus Hof. Da er früher längere Zeit in einer Nervenheilanstalt in Görlitz untergebracht war, scheint er die That in einem Zustand geistiger Störung begangen zu haben.

Donauwörth. Die städtischen Kollegien haben die Errichtung einer zweikursigen, gewerblichen Tagesfortbildungsschule beschlossen, die schon mit dem nächsten Schuljahr mit vorerst einem Kurse in's Leben treten soll.

Erlangen. Die Zahl der Studirenden an der Universität im laufenden Semester beträgt 1055; davon sind 463 Nichtbayern.

Kempten. Dieser Tage sprang ein Reisender, Namens Johann Sommer aus Osterberg, zwischen Memmingen und Heimertingen von einem Personenzuge ab und wurde sofort getödtet.

Landshut. Die Stätte, wo die in den Kriegsjahren 1806 bis 1809 auf dem Schlosse Trausnitz verstorbenen 415 Krieger ruhen, bezeichnete seit langen Jahren ein Kreuz. Da dieses schadhaft geworden, hat der Veteranen- und Kriegerverein Landshut nun ein Denkmal aus Stein errichten lassen.

Neustadt a. S. Der Mineralwasserfabrikant Ludwig Stolberg entleibte sich, indem er sich mit einem Rasirmesser die Luftröhre durchschnitt. Stolberg befand sich in guten Verhältnissen. Auch sein Bruder hat durch Selbstmord geendet.

Nürnberg. Der verstorbene Großindustrielle Freiherr Lothar v. Faber in Stein hat bekanntlich im Jahre 1880 mit einem Kapital von 125,000 Mark eine Stiftung errichtet, deren Zinsen alljährlich einem gut beleumundeten jungen Mann aus Nürnberg oder Stein zur Begründung seiner Selbstständigkeit als Gewerbetreibender verabreicht werden sollen. Die für dieses Jahr zur Vertheilung kommende Präbende von 4000 Mark wurde kürzlich in feierlicher Weise dem Graveur und Zinngießer Johann Josef Bischoff von hier zuerkannt.

This Week's Offerings

in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Trousers will comprise a remarkable lot of stylish clothing, doubly remarkable because of the low prices we will sell them. Part of the offerings are traceable to our recent extremely favorable purchases, deals in which spot cash and a great need of it by two manufacturers played an important part.

Some of the offerings come from our regular stock that but a few days ago we had an idea of reducing, but the season is advancing, our stock is still heavy, but the only method of reducing stock that we have faith in, is a great reduction of prices.

One Hundred Men's Business Suits made of cassimers, cheviots and worsteds, in plaids, checks and gray mixtures, well lined and trimmed, wholesale price 9.00; for this week.

Men's Black Clay Diagonal Coats and Vests, in sack or frock, soft finish at 4.00; valued at 10 00.

Men's All-wool Trousers, cassimers, cheviots and tweeds, worth 3.00, at 1.25. Men's worsted trousers, better grade, at 1.50, worth 3.50. Good working pants at 65c.

The Finest Dress Trousers made, this season's style, in checks, stripes and Bedford cords at 1 80, 2 25 and 2 50; worth from 6 00 to 7 00.

An Extraordinary Chance to buy your bicycle suits made up in the latest style, all wool bike suits at 1,50, 2 50 and 3 50

Children's Crash Blouse suits at 75c, worth 1 50.

Three piece vestee suits at 1.00, 1.25 and 1 50; worth from 3 00 to 4.00.

CHILDREN'S FASHIONS.

Summer Clothing For Very Little People.

White is the best of anything for small children, as it is never injured by washing, and a child's clothing requires constant laundering. Nainsooks, lawns and batistes are used for the little gowns, while summer coats are made of duck or pique. While the fit of a little child's garments is of no great importance, so long as the general shape is good and does not cramp movement, the style should be carefully chosen with reference to the type of child who is to wear them. A slight, small child looks well in fluffy clothing, with ruffles, big collars and similar adornments, while a heavy, plump, robust child requires plain dresses and coats and comparatively small headgear. To overload a plump child with trimmings is to convert it into a mere bundle.

The best way to make a two piece dress for a small child is to mount the skirt on a plain underbodice of cambric or muslin, buttoning at the back. This holds the skirt in place without inconvenience, and if an open jacket is to be worn the front of the underbodice may be trimmed to give a chemisette effect. Mother Hubbard gowns are still, however, preferred for little children.

The picture shows a little girl's dress of pique. The skirt is trimmed with stitched straps of the same material, which outline the tablier and pass around the lower part. The straight loose jacket is trimmed in the same way and fastens with two rows of pearl buttons. The fronts are rounded, and there are a coat collar and revers. The hat is trimmed with bows of taffeta, stiffened at the edges with a bordering of straw braid.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

TUNICS.

They Are Universal Favorites This Season.

Tunics recalling the classic type are more and more seen. For evening gowns they often assume the princess form, with a low cut bodice, and are worn with skirts adorned with circular flounces.

SUMMER CAPE.

Embroidery, spangles, open needlework and incrustations are all pressed into the service as decorations and are used with the lavish richness of Byzantine ornamentation. Tunic gowns are usually fastened in front or at the side.

Cloth of very light shades is enjoying immense favor. Of course it is the thinnest possible weight, very fine and smooth, and is really no more oppressive nor unsuitable to the season than any other thin wool goods. Cloth costumes for elegant wear are pearl gray, light beige, ecru, putty color, pastel blue or lavender and are made with a long skirt, very flaring at the foot. The trimming, consisting of fine braiding or stitched bias bands of satin, is arranged to simulate a corselet on the bodice and a tunic on the skirt, or the bodice is a bolero opening over a chemisette, which for a slight figure is full and fluffy, but for rotund contours is kept flat, like a plain, pointed vest.

The tiny cape illustrated is a pretty finish to a summer costume. It is of black spangled tulle over white satin and is trimmed with two plaitings of black mousseline de soie. The high, flaring collar, which is lined with plaited white mousseline de soie, is bordered with a ruche of black mousseline. In front are two scarfs of black mousseline de soie, held in place by choux of the same material.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Naming the Apostles.

Not one of our readers can repeat impromptu the names of the 12 apostles. Try it. Then find the lists in the gospel and try it again.—Christian Register.

For the Hall.

The admittedly odd looking contrivance that figures in the cut would be found very serviceable in a modern hall, providing as it does an ample umbrella stand and a handy glove and brush cabinet. It serves as a convenient and appropriate auxiliary to any of the quaint hanging hat and coat racks that are now quite the proper thing in a well appointed hall.

Kitchen Hints.

In making jelly it must be borne in mind that the less stiring there is the better. If stirred too much the jelly is not clear, while the tendency of sugar to granulate is increased by stirring.

Two tablespoonfuls of washing soda disolved in a gallon of boiling water makes an excellent disinfectant for the kitchen sink. Pour in while boiling hot.

A good test for the right consistency of jelly when boiling is to let it drop from a spoon. If the last drop sticks to the spoon it is sufficiently hard.

For canning, pickling and preserving, keep a supply of special cloths and holders to use, as the stains cannot be removed.

A little kerosene mixed with the blacking used to polish stoves before putting away for the summer is said to prevent rust.

In baking cakes or gems in gem pans, if there is not enough batter to fill all the little pans, put water into the empty ones before setting in the oven to bake.

If in using sour milk with soda for griddle cakes or muffins the milk does not foam as it should to produce the desired lightness, a teaspoonful of vinegar added to the milk will give the desired result.

An excellent and simple remedy for a sprain is said to be found by mixing the well-beaten whites of six eggs with a half cupful of table salt. Spread between thin muslin cloths and bind over the sprain.

When preparing the little cucumbers for pickling, do not forget to add a little horseradish root to the vinegar the cucumbers are put in; it helps to retain the strength in the vinegar, and prevents mould from coming over the top of the liquid.

Time Table for Baking Meats.

Beef, sirloin, rare, for each pound, 8 to 10 minutes; beef, sirloin, well done, for beef, rib or rump, for each pound, 12 to 15 minutes; beef, long or short fillet, 20 to 30 minutes; mutton, rare, for each pound, 10 minutes; mutton, well done, for each pound, 15 minutes; lamb, well done, for each pound, 15 minutes; veal, well done, for each pound, 20 minutes; pork, well done, for each pound, 30 minutes; turkey, weighing 10 pounds, 3 hours; chicken, weighing 3 to 4 pounds, 1 to 1½ hours; goose, weighing 8 pounds, 2 hours; tame duck, 40 to 60 minutes; game duck, 30 to 40 minutes; grouse, 30 minutes; pigeons, 30 minutes; small birds, 15 to 20 minutes; venison, for each pound, 15 minutes; fish, 6 to 8 pounds, long, thin, 1 hour; fish, 4 to 6 pounds, thick, 1 hour; fish, small, 20 to 30 minutes.

A Hint in Pie-Making.

People find that, though they put plenty of sugar into a fruit pie it is not sweet when baked. The ordinary cane sugar used is converted into grape sugar when heated with any acid, and that sugar has only about one-third the sweetening power of cane sugar. But if a little baking powder is added to the fruit, so as to neutralize the acid, the sugar will retain its sweetness in the cooking.

Few Words for the Butler.

Let him keep his table silver bright by soaking it in strong borax water for several hours, occasionally. The water must be at boiling point, and should be poured on the silver. When well soaked, a simple rubbing with a chamois leather will suffice to make the silver as bright as new.

Fire Irons.

Fire-irons that have to be laid by during the summer months should be protected from rust by being coated with a mixture of india rubber, dissolved to the consistency of cream in naphtha. This coating can easily be rubbed off the steel when needful.

PROOF TO THE CONTRARY.

It Really Looked as Though the Bald Young Man Had Lied.

The prematurely bald young man, with a downy white mustache, had been doing his best to make a profound impression on his rural relatives There was no reason why he should do this except in obedience to a natural tendency which is second only to that of self-preservation, the desire to show off. The old gentleman with heavy-soled boots and a black string necktie had listened silently for a long time. He broke in on the series of travelers' tales with the remark. :

"It kind o' beats my time that the west end o' this continent should be so different from the east."

"Oh, if you haven't traveled much and don't know the difference, this part of the world is all right," was the answer.

"Yes. But it oughtn' to be so misrepresented. They ought not to complain that the East has gone an' organized monopolies to gobble everything worth havin, when the West has all the geysers an' the petrified forests and the trees that you can drive a horse and wagon through, if you can find an augur big enough to make the hole. I know its all truth fur I've seen pictures of those things in the geographies. But this lake you was telling about—I can't help thinkin' you got imposed on somhow there."

"You mean the Great Salt lake in Utah. It's there. I saw it with my own eyes.

"The lake that's so salt fish can't live in it?"

"Certainly."

"An' when you went bathin' you found the water so salt that you couldn't sink if you tried."

"Yes 'indeed. And what's more——'

"Hold on. I'm not doubting your veracity. I don't say you don't tell every bit of this in good faith. I've had the same kind of experiences. One time I was in a room where breakfast had just been set, and although I was a stranger in the house, I walked up and took a fried egg off the plate with a spoon and put it in my mouth. Imagine my surprise when I immediately began to raise up and toward the ceilin'. It was amazin' how fine I floated. My wife an' the girls were just as surprised as I was when they came in an' saw me, and I'll never forget how funny they looked hoppin' up into the air tryin- to do the same thing After a while I wanted to get down, but I couldn't make it. I began to get worried. I started to call for help and accidentally bit into the egg. As soon as I did so I was gently lowered till I had the use of both feet as usual. And it all seemed so real that when I got up the next morning I thought eatin' breakfast an' feedin' the pigs must be a dream."

"But, my dear sir——"

"It's all right. I don't attach any blame to you. But you can't make me believe that anybody could bathe in water as salt as you say that was and come home so uncommon fresh. It couldn't be done."—Washington Evening Star.

The Officer's Ball.

Rare Compliment.

"These are remarkably fine biscuits of yours, my dear,' said Mr. Northside, as he balanced a specimen on the tip of his finger.

Mrs. Northside flushed with pride.

"It is so good of you to say so," she murmured.

"Yes, indeed," the wicked man went on, "I have rarely seen any so heavy for their size."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

No Doubt of It.

"Say," asked the Governor, on meeting a warm admirer from a rural village, "has that incendiary that I pardoned at your request shown satisfactory evidence of reform?"

"The very strongest possible, Governor. He's at the head of our volunteer fire company."—Detroit Free Press.

Right.

"Tommy," said the teacher to a pupil in the juvenile class, "what is syntax?"

"I guess it must be a tax on whiskey," replied Tommy.

And the teacher thought he was entitled to a credit of 100 per cent.—Buffalo News.

ABOUT THE APPLE.

IT IS THE MOST EXTENSIVELY USED OF ALL THE FRUITS.

Has Figured in History and Possesses Many Virtues—An English Ceremony Which Insures a Full Crop—Where the Fruit Came From Originally.

The apple is the most used of all the fruits grown. It is world renowned, and has figured in history and the lives of most nations since the earliest record. Poets and philosophers have told of it, and mythology has endowed it with wonderful virtues. The golden fruit of Hesperus was an apple; also the famous tree of knowledge bore apples. It was an apple which Eve ate and offered to Adam, and the fruit in the garden guarded by the dragon which Hercules finally overpowered were apples. Apples were fabled in all the myths and were believed to have many wonderful powers, such as conferring immortality, and were reserved by the gods as a special food for those who felt themselves growing old. As a relic of this old reverence for apples, the farmers of Devonshire, in England, still keep up the custom of "saluting the apples" in the spring to insure a full crop. This ceremony consists of the farmers going out under the tree and pouring part of a wassail bowl of cider on the roots of the tree, hanging a bit of the toast (which is in the bowl) on the branches, while the farmer and his men dance slowly around the tree, singing the following:

Here's to thee, old apple tree,
Whence thou may'st bud, and whence thou may'st blow,
And whence thou may'st bear apples enow,
Hats full, caps full,
Bushels and sacks full!
Huzza!

The apple is a native of all temperate climates, and although most of the kinds cultivated in this country are from seed brought from some part of Europe, the trees have so adapted themselves to our soil as oftentimes to bear better in this country than in their original homes. It is a very hardy and somewhat slow bearing tree, but very long lived. In many cases trees will live and bear for a century, and when well cared for even longer. Naturally, the apple tree bears well only every other year. This, however, is remedied by helps given to the fruit by the farmer, so that the tree is able, by means of extra fertilizing and careful pruning, to overcome the debility caused by putting so much strength in the crop, and, unless climatic changes interfere, each year is a full bearing one in good orchards.

Young trees are raised from seed, the pulp of the cider mills being sent to the nurseries for this purpose. The seedlings grow unhindered for a year, when they are sorted and transplanted in the nursery. After this they are grafted and left to grow for at least another year before being put out in the orchard. Then they are set out in rows about forty feet apart, where they will continue to grow slowly and bear good crops until old age or some blight destroys them. The custom of planting apple trees in rows originated with the ancient Romans, and has been followed by all farmers since that time. Almost any kind of soil will suffice for the apple, but it thrives best in a strong, sandy loam and in a moderate climate.

The apple is popular on account of its variety of uses and its adaptability for use as a food, both raw and cooked, and the kinds most in demand are those that can be eaten either of these ways. A few apples ripen early in the summer and in the early fall months, but the majority of the crop reaches maturity during the months of October and November, and even later in the season. These winter apples are picked when full grown and colored, being allowed to stay on the trees as long as the frosts will permit without doing injury to them; when they are packed and sent to market. Many are reserved for drying, this part of the apple consumption being larger than would appear from the small quantities used in our markets. The dried apple is shipped all over the world, and when cooked makes a very palatable dish, especially in those climates where the fresh fruit will not keep. Many crops in whole regions are used by the driers, and large plants are established to carry on this industry. South America and other southern countries are the chief market for apples thus prepared, although a large part of each year's crop is consumed in our own Southern States. Then the cider mills absorb a part of the crop, usually the smaller, uneven shaped fruit being sent there, with the sour varieties which of late years do not find as ready a market among the fruit sold for eating purposes.

New Burglar Alarm.

Professor Colman has invented a new burglar alarm system, in which Hertzian waves are employed in the place of the ordinary conductors now used. In this invention the connecting conductors are dispensed with, and a transmitter is provided in the protected structure, which is thrown into operation immediately upon any tampering with the protecting barrier. A series of vibrations in then produced, capable of transmission through the intervening medium to actuate a cohering receiver at the alarm station. The receiver thereupon closes the local alarm circuit, causing the bell to produce a signal until it is stopped.

Cavalry and Artillery.

Carefully collected figures shows that the proportion of cavalry to the other arms has been steadily diminishing for a long period. The artillery has been increased, the cavalry diminished. Austria, Turkey and Spain are the only countries whose cavalry exceeds their artillery force.

Origin of Wedding Presents.

Wedding presents originated in a feudal tribute from the vassals to their lord. When feudalism ceased the presents became voluntary. In the days of Queen Elizabeth a pair of knives or scissors were a common gift, and symbolized the cutting of unfaithful love.

MAKING A LAZY FISH WORK.

Manner in Which the Chinese Make Use of the Remora.

Most voyagers in tropical seas are acquainted with the remora, which is known generally by the trivial name of the sucker. The distinguishing characteristic of this fish is laziness. Unwilling to exert itself overmuch in the pursuit of food, it has developed an arrangement on the back of its head exactly like the corrugated sole of a tennis shoe, and as artificial in appearance as if made and fitted by the hand of man.

When the sucker finds itself in the vicinity of any large floating body, such as a ship, a shark or a piece of flotsam, whose neighborhood seems to promise an abundance of food, it attaches itself firmly thereto by means of this curious contrivance, which permits it to eat, breathe and perform all necessary functions while being carried about without any exertion on its part. It can attach and detach itself instantaneously, and holds so firmly that a direct backward pull cannot dislodge it without injury to the fish.

Several good sized specimens of the fish having been caught the Chinese fishermen fits small iron rings to their tails, to which he attaches long, slender, but very stout lines. Thus equipped the fisherman sets out, and when a basking turtle is seen two or three of the suckers are put overboard. Should they turn and stick to the bottom of the raft they are carefully detached and by being pushed forward with the inevitable bamboo, are started on the search again. At last they attach themselves to the supine turtle. Then the fisherman hauls in the lines, against which gentle suasion the hapless Chelon struggles in vain. Once on board the raft the useful remora is detached and is at once ready for use again.

Origin of Blind Man's Buff.

This favorite sport of childhood and youth is of French origin and very high antiquity, having been introduced into England in the train of the Norman conquerors. Its French name, "Colin Maillard," was that of a brave warrior, the memory of whose exploits still live in the chronicles of the middle ages.

In the year 999 Liege reckoned among its valiant chiefs one Jean Colin. He acquired the name Maillard from his chosen weapons being a mallet, wherewith in fight he used literally to crush his opponents. In one of the feuds which were of perpetual recurrence in those times he encountered the Count de Lourain in a pitched battle, and, so runs the story, in the first onset Colin Maillard lost both his eyes. He ordered his esquire to take him into the thickest of the fight, and, furiously brandishing his mallet, did such fearful execution that victory soon declared itself for him.

When Robert of France heard of these feats of arms he lavished favors and honors upon Colin, and so great was the fame of the exploit that it was commemorated in the pantomimie representations that formed part of the rude dramatic performances of the age. By degrees the children learned to act it for themselves, and it took the form of the familiar sport.

The blindfolded pursuer, as, with bandaged eyes and extended hands, he gropes for a victim to pounce upon, seems in some degree to repeat the action of Colin Maillard, the tradition of which is also traceable in the name—blind man's buff.

To Hypnotize a Chicken.

There are many interesting tricks children can do with little trouble and expense. They are really applications of scientific principles, but when properly done look like magic.

For the first thing they might hypnotize a chicken. To do this have a dark table and draw a white chalk line across it, beginning from directly under the bill of the chicken, whose beak should be held down to the table so that it must look at the line. A rooster will become senseless and nerveless by the time the line is two feet long, and remain with his beak glued to the line sometimes over a minute—and that seems long.

Excuses for Baby.

Teasing Friend—What makes that new baby at your house cry so much, Tommy?

Tommy (indignantly)—It don't cry so very much; and, anyway, if all your teeth were out, and your hair off, and your legs so weak you couldn't stand on them, I fancy you'd feel like crying yourself!

Where Babies Can Swim.

The Sandwich Islanders are so fond of the sea that they actually teach their children to swim long before they are able to walk.

The tiniest mites play games in water well out of their depth.

Crown Prince of Siam.

The Crown Prince of Siam is among the boy authors of the world; he has written several stories for English children's magazines, and can write fluently in three European languages.

Ants That Commit Suicide.

Fire will frighten almost any creature, but it has no terror for the driver ant, which will dash at a glowing coal, fix its jaws in the burning mass, and shrivel up in the heat.

TRICKS WITH MATCHES.

They May Be Easily Done by the Boys and Girls.

Volume upon volume has been written about magic; thousands of works on second-sight tricks which only adepts could master have been produced, but the most novel recent contribution to literature of this nature is that of a Frenchman named Traumele. This man has spent a lifetime conceiving tricks to be performed with ordinary household matches.

In his work more than a thousand tricks are illustrated, wtih full instructions how to perform them. They range from the construction of animated figures to the building of temples of intricate architecture. All are produced by the clever use of that commonest and cheapest of all household necessities, the wooden match.

One of the simplest tricks demonstrates the old story of the marooned negro, the sailor-captors and the negro all being represented by matches. There are nineteen sailors, making twenty men, represented by twenty matches all told. It is decided to kill one man, and the marooned negro is given his choice of position in line. He is represented by a reversed match. Count is to be made in rotation, and each seventh man is to go free. The last man left is to die.

Where must the count begin so that the negro captive will be the victim?

The solution is simple. Let him select any position and then begin to count so that he will be No. 3 at the outset and his white captors will be safe. The reversed match alone will be in position at the conclusion. Figure A shows one of the many positions in line in which the reversed match may be placed.

Several different sets of ten matches each may be taken from twenty-five arranged as in figure B, in such a manner that only four squares remain. Figure C shows three solutions.

From forty matches arranged as in figure D sixteen are to be taken so that two large squares, equal in size, remain. Figure E shows how to do it.

Figures of persons and animals made to move by means of bent matches are amusing. Cut the body of the object you wish to represent out of thin cardboard. In order that they may move, the limbs must be cut out separately. On the back of the figure—to be more realistic, the front might be decorated by a colored drawing—fasten the limbs to the body by using bent matches, the hinges being near the top of the limbs. Each end of the bent match must be secured to the cardboard. For this the best thing to use is a drop of shellac. Figures F, G and H illustrate how this may be done. When complete place the figure flat on a thin layer of water, touching the matches only, and it will move and appear to be animated. After drying, the figure may be used again.

This French match expert gives hundreds of simple problems, but they are none the less puzzling because of their simplicity. Here is one of them: How can three fourths of a dozen matches be placed on a table so that they will form three and a half dozen matches? Following is the explanation: Place three matches together in a pile and six others in another pile, and there you have three and a half dozen matches.

Here is another: Three matches rest side by side. How can the middle one be taken out of its position in its group without touching it? By placing one of the outside matches next to the other outside match.

A Mean Dog.

He was a small boy—not such a very small boy—in an out of town school. He had written a composition. It was upon the subject of dogs. Now, the teacher of the school was a man, and he was not popular. He was what the boys call "mean." They disliked him thoroughly, from the tips of his shining shoes to the end of his pompadour combed hair. In the composition there was a story of a dog. It was the story of a very mean dog, and as the composer of the literary effort came to the last line he read it emphatically and with great distinctness of utterance, and the hearts of all the other small boys in the room, as they listened, quaked, half with delight and half with fear, knowing what was to follow, and gazing, fascinated, at the upright coiffure of the master, as the reader ended: "And that dog was so mean that his hair stood on end."

Warned by a Thistle.

It was thought by the Danes to be cowardly to attack an enemy after nightfall, but on one occasion they deviated from their usual rule. On they crept noiselessly and unobserved, in their bare feet, upon the unsuspecting Scotchmen. When near the camp one of the Danes trod upon a thistle and, in his pain, cried out. This aroused the sleeping Scotchmen, and they gave the alarm. The Danes were defeated, with terrible loss of life, and ever since that time the thistle has been the insignia of Scotland, with the motto, "Nemo me impune lacessit!"

The Art of Style.

"I wish," said the young man who was writing a speech, "that I could think of the word that I want."

"What kind of a word is it?" asked his wife.

"Something that means cutthroat, robber and villain. Its got to be a word of at least four syllables, because I want it to be a polished sarcasm."—Washington Star.

Signs of Intellect.

"What's the reason you're so careless in dress of late, and why do you never wear your hair in that pretty style I used to admire?" asked the husband who liked to spend his evenings at home.

"I am preparing a lecture," replied the wife, "on the 'Dawn of Esthetic Life.'"—Detroit Free Press.

Lacked Experience.

"Am I to understand," said the unsuccessful candidate, "that you accuse me of having used money in the Legislature?"

"No," answered Senator Sorghum, with a pitying smile. "You didn't use money. You just wasted it."—Washington Star.

A Terrifying Dream.

"I'd never go to sleep ag'in if I thort I'd have a 'nother nightmare like that," sighed the weary hobo.

"Was it horrible?"

"The horriblest I ever. I dreamed I wor a keg of hard cider and wor' a-workin'."—Detroit Free Press.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

HAPPENINGS IN A FEW LINES FROM ALL OVER JERSEY.

More or Less Important Happenings and Events in Various Sections Served For a Quick Glance at.

The contract for a bridge to span the Manasquan river has been awarded to the Berlin Iron Company, of New York, for $5,000. The bridge will be sixty feet long.

The epidemic of scarlet fever at Milford, Hunterdon county, has not abated. New cases are being reported almost daily. So far there has been three deaths from the disease.

Gov. Voorhees has appointed David Chambers Lewis, of Cranbury, as a delegate from the Third Congressional District of New Jersey, to attend the Farmers' Congress, in Boston, in October.

Six damage suits, aggregating $35,000, were filed for prosecution in the Essex County Clerk's office yesterday against the North Jersey Street Railway Company. The cases involve claims for injuries.

Gloucester county farmers are elated over the good prices received for early truck. White potatoes are netting them a big profit. The price averages 50 cents per basket, or from $2.25 to $2.50 per barrel. Tomatoes are bringing $1 to $1.25 per crate, and egg-plants, $1.75.

Asbury Park's court has been formally attacked in a suit against Geo. Potts, which the latter now seeks to have set aside on the ground that the court is illegal. The constitutionality of Asbury's court is questioned on the same grounds that the Atlantic City District Court was declared illegal.

No Committee Meeting Held.

Owing to the lack of a quorum there was no meeting of the soldiers' monument committee last evening. Councilman Smith is in Westerly, R. I., and Councilmen Mellick and Buckle had to attend a meeting of the fire committee from the Common Council. An effort will be made to hold a meeting at an early date to take decided action as to what shall be done.

Missions the Topic.

An interesting meeting of the Association Volunteer League, or missionary study class of the Y. M. C. A., was held at the association building last evening. Joseph W. Gavett presided. A paper on Turkey was read by Russell Bond. "Jonah, the First Foreign Missionary," was the subject of the Bible study. The attendance was encouraging.

Worked All Night.

Work was continued nearly all of last evening on the extension of the trolley switch on Watchung avenue and the work will be continued today. The switch is over three hundred feet in length and will be ample to accommodate the cars of the company.

In Santa Clara, Cuba.

Fred. W. Bowden, of this city, who is a member of the military band associated with the Second U. S. Cavalry, is now located at Santa Clara, Cuba, where he says he enjoying himself immensely.

New Jersey Central's Dividend.

The directors of the Central Railroad of New Jersey have declared the regular quarterly dividend of one per cent.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

John V. Beekman, Jr, of West Eighth street, is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. John Rittenhouse, of New street, has gone to Niagara Falls to spend the week.

Corra Ryno, of The Daily Press office, is confined to his home with a severe attack of tonsilitis.

Mrs. W. L. Smalley, Jr., and son, of Princeton, have returned home after a pleasant visit with Plainfield relatives.

J. M. Dryden, of Watchung avenue, left this morning for Baltimore, where he will visit relatives for a time.

Assemblyman Roger F. Murray and family left today for Watch Hill, L I., where they will remain for sometime.

Miss May Squier, of Astor place, has resigned her position at Wieda's confectionery store, West Front street.

Councilman George T. Rogers and family, of Washington Park, are away from home enjoying their summer outing.

Among the many Plainfielders who have recently gone to Europe for the summer are the Misses Dietrich, of Grove street.

Willie Schorb, a bright four year-old boy, enjoyed a birthday party yesterday afternoon at the home of his parents on East Front street.

City Clerk J. T. MacMurray and wife, of Westervelt avenue, will take their vacation during August and they will probably spend it in the mountains.

Owen Smith, of Watchung avenue, has resigned his position at the freighthouse to accept a position as reporter on the staff of the Brooklyn Eagle.

Miss Emma E. Egel, Mayor Drake's efficient secretary, is taking a much needed rest in Pennsylvania and will spend a few days at the Delaware Water Gap.

W. F. Arnold and family, of this city, are summering in Hunterdon county. Mr. Arnold, cashier of the City National Bank, commutes back and fourth every day.

Mrs. John Gray Foster, of Mercer avenue, who took a trip to Egypt and the Holy Land and who has been ill with typhoid fever in Venice, has so far recovered as to be able to travel, and is planning to sail for home the 27th of this month.

Hearing for the Naval Reserves.

The resolutions adopted by the Common Councils, of Newark, Jersey City and Hoboken, protesting against the recent reorganization order by Governor Voorhees disbanding one-third of the Battalion of the East, Naval Reserves, will be laid before the Governor this week. A hearing will also be asked on the subject.

Bishop Wigger to Visit Palestine.

Bishop Wigger, of Newark, and Rev. L. C. M. Carroll, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Jersey City, yesterday made arrangements for a trip to the Holy Land next fall.

HIGH LIGHTS.

Sentimentality is the foolish elder sister of sentiment.

When the heart loses freshness it becomes reminiscent.

Our facts are earthly; by our fancies touch heaven.

Experience teaches man long after he thinks he has taken a diploma.

Early to bed and early to rise makes even a genius tiresome to his family.

The wise man knows he is a fraction: the fool tries to be the whole thing.

The woman who is down on gossip doesn't say so until she has heard it all.

Women hope for the best and then go and buy articles that have been marked down.

The drawback to the noble ancestry is that it sets up in business a lot of bragging decendants.

It is an inconsiderate husband who needs a new overcoat the same winter that his wife needs a new cloak.

It would be a better world if women praised their husbands as heartily as they do their favorite baking powder.

A man thinks that in knowing one woman he knows the whole sex; whereas he may know the rest of the sex without knowing that one woman.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

ROMANCE OF A DIAMOND.

Saying of Men Directly Due to the Pope's Precious Gem.

Pope Leo is the owner of what is believed to be the largest diamond in the world. It has a most romantic history, having been the cause of the assassination of a king, numerous other crimes, and of a small war, in which several thousand men were killed.

Memela, an aged South African negro, has told the secret which links him in history with Pope Leo and President Oom Paul Kruger of the Transvaal.

It was Memela who owned the diamond for many years. As an act of gratitude to Kruger for freeing him, many years ago, from the Boers, whc had captured him, he gave him this precious stone, which he had carried concealed on his body through strange and terrible hardships and adventures.

For a century before that it had been a sacred talisman of savage chieftains. It belonged first to Meshesh the powerful chief of the Basuto nation, who gave it as a friendly offering to the great king of the Zulus Chaka.

The envy that it excited in his brother led to Chaka's assassination. Then followed a long line of plotting and hideous crimes for its possession among rival chiefs.

White men, seeing it, finally attempted to secure it, but failed. The native chief's suspicions being aroused, a war against the whites was begun, which resulted in the killing of 1,000 Boers, and many times that number of blacks.

When many chiefs were dead Memela came into power and got possession of the wonderful gem.

His capture, slavery and escape, and his gift of the talisman to Kruger in gratitude complete the history of what is believed to be the largest and most precious diamond in the world.

When to Bow.

A young lady would be right in bowing to a gentleman by whom she had been taken to dinner.

She should bow to him on meeting him again after an introduction by a mutual friend.

She should not bow if she has merely talked when casually meeting at a friend's house, when no introduction took place.

In England a lady bows first.

Abroad this is reversed, and care should be taken to follow the custom which prevails.

Women generally bow to each other simultaneously, but, as a matter of fact, a married lady should bow first to an unmarried one; and a lady of higher rank should take the initiative.

If a lady bowed to a gentleman of her acquaintance who was accompanied by a friend no acknowledgement need be made to the stranger; though both men would raise their hats.

Proposals for Macadamizing.

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Common Council at the Council Chamber, No. 100 Park Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, at eight o'clock p. m., on Thursday, the 20th day of July, 1899, for doing the work and furnishing the materials for the macadamizing contemplated in the agreement between The Plainfield Street Railroad Company and the inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, dated January 3d, 1899, and as provided for in the specifications on file in the office of the Street Commissioner, said macadamizing to be from curb to curb, that is to say, thirty-six feet wide, to a depth of six inches at the centre of the street and a depth of three inches at the curbs. The streets to be macadamized are East Second street, east of Richmond street, and Richmond street, from East Second street to Putnam avenue.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the Common Council will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents thereof in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, provided said parties or agents choose to be then and there present, and also make proper record of said prices and terms.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved by the Common Council.

Separate proposals must be submitted for each street, endorsed, "Proposals for Macadamizing."

BIG CELEBRATION WINDS UP AFFAIRS.

Fourth of July Committee Meet to Pay its Bills.

THE COST WAS OVER $1,000

TO CELEBRATE THE NATION'S BIRTHDAY IN PLAINFIELD.

Heads of Various Committees Met Last Night and Audited All Bills—There's Enough Cash to Settle All Claims—Resolutions of Thanks Tendered to Various Persons and Organizations.

The general committee of the Fourth of July celebration held its final meeting in Red Men's Hall last evening. In the absence of Chairman William Newcorn, who is out of town, Mayor Rockfellow presided.

The Mayor, as chairman of the subscription committee, reported that cash to the amount of $1,034.62 had been subscribed and paid in. There was also $5 which he expected from another source to be added to the above amount, which would bring the sum total up to $1,039.62. This amount, he said, did not include the $100 which the Common Council had offered, providing the committee needed it to liquidate the expenses of the celebration.

The report of E. M. Laing, chairman of the finance committee, showed bills outstanding to the amount of $1,020.16. The more important expenditures included $145 for music, $95 to W. H. Brokaw for building grandstand for the fireworks, and $25 to Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis for his splendid address. There are a number of smaller bills to come in, but it is believed that there is sufficient funds in the hands of the finance committee to pay all bills, and there may be a small balance to use as a neuclus for a future celebration, without calling upon the Common Council for the promised $100, but which Mayor Rockfellow said they had no right to appropriate for the purpose for which it was intended.

Some discussion was precipitated owing to the bill of W. H. Brokaw for building the grand stand. The original agreement with Mr. Brokaw was $70, but as the stand he had constucted was not considered safe by Chief Doane, who is the inspector of buildings as well as fire chief, some members of the executive committee had authorized Mr. Brokaw to strengthen the stand which he had agreed to do for an additional $25, although he strenuously maintained that the stand he had at first built was perfectly safe and capable of holding as many people as could be seated upon it.

In consideration that Mr. Brokaw had fulfilled his part of the contract, it was the sense of the members of the committee that he should be given the extra allowance of $25, as had been promised him.

No action was taken upon the letter of H. P. Baldwin, general passenger agent of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, which stated that the railroad company was compelled to decline making any concession in railroad fares on the Fourth of July, in view of the low rates which are at present in force.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved. That the thanks of this general committee be and they are hereby tendered to the people of Plainfield and North Plainfield for their generous contributions, thereby assuring the decided success of our celebration; to Mrs Wm. White for the use of her grounds for the fireworks display; to the Woman's Relief Corps of the G. A. R. for their lavish entertainment of the visiting Naval Reserves; to Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, I. O. R. M., for the use of their meeting rooms, and to all who assisted in making the celebration the largest and grandest in the history of our city.

Similar resolutions were also offered and adopted with reference to Dr. M. S. Simpson, Charles M. Ulrich, chairman of the executive committee, and Wm. C. Smith, chairman of the parade committee.

After giving the finance committee full power to settle all outstanding accounts, the general committee wound up its affairs by adjourning sine die.

Mrs. VanEmburgh's Sister Dead.

Mrs. Harriet Miller, only remaining sister of Mrs. G. L. VanEmburgh, of East Second street, died at her home, Little Falls, N. Y., Saturday last, and was buried at Chester, Orange county, N. Y., yesterday. Mrs. Miller had been ill for a long time and was fully prepared for the great change, being a faithful follower of her Saviour.

—A prize waltz and dance will be held at Emery's Pavilion, Scotch Plains, tomorrow evening.

—When in Newark lunch in the coolest, cleanest dining room in the city, "Walsh's Blue Room," 677 Broad, corner West Park.

BEFORE THE GRAND JURY

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENTIESTS MAY BE VIGOROUSLY PROSECUTED.

Facts Regarding Mrs. Porcella's Death to be Laid Before the Inquest—Prosecutor English Talks Very Severe.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 12.—Prosecutor English, of Union county, who has just returned from a trip through the great lakes and Northwest, informed a reporter yesterday that the facts regarding the death three weeks ago of Mrs. Santiago Porcella, of Cranford, would be laid before the October Grand Jury.

Mrs. Porcella, who was the wife of a wealthy importer, died of hasty consumption after having been treated for several weeks by Christian Scientists. Before her death she abandoned Christian Science treatment and placed herself in the hands of physicians, but the disease could not then be checked.

"These alleged Christian Scientists," declared Prosecutor English emphatically, "are not better than a pack of frauds, and the death of this woman under the circumstance surrounding it was an outrage. I don't know whether we have a law in Jersey to punish such persons, and it may be that a special law will have to be enacted to cover the subject, the same as has been done in some other States.

"One thing, however, is certain, and that is the Grand Jury will make a searching investigation into the Porcella matter, and if the facts elicited by the Grand Jury are the same as published in the newspapers; then if there is any way to bring the participators in the affair to justice, it will be done. I have not had a chance since returning to fully look up the law, but will do so before the Grand Jury meets."

SQUIRE'S LIVELY CANVASS.

Making Strong Efforts to Secure the Nomination for County Clerk.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 12.—Assemblyman George A. Squire is making a most vigorous hustle for the County Clerkship nomination. He is visiting all parts of the county and claims to have pledges of support from unlooked for sources.

The Assemblyman expects to encounter strong oppostion in this city from the friends of Senator Cross, who is after a renomination, and also those of Assemblyman Houston, who wants to be Sheriff. As the Senator is the first to be nominated, and next comes the County Clerk, it looks as if the struggle, so far as Elizabeth is concerned, will be between Squire and Houston, as it is now pretty well conceded that Senator Cross will be renominated, as there is no formidable candidate against him. Should Squire then secure the County Clerkship, the Sheriff would almost surely have to come from outside of Elizabeth, as this city cannot reasonably expect to secure all three offices. Both Squire and Houston fully understand this, and hence Houston's friends will do their level best to throw the Clerkship nomination either to Rahway or Plainfield, both of which places have candidates, and thus clear the way for the nomination for a Sheriff being given to Elizabethport.

The Foundation of Health.

Just as the strength of the building depends upon its foundation, just so does the comfort and strength of man depend upon his feet. With sound feet his step is elastic; his eyes clear, his compexion fresh, his handshake magnetic. Before such a man the weaklings and nervous go down in the struggle for riches and honor like chaff before the wind. Feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions, enlarged great toe joints, etc, make us almost helpless and miserable, for when the feet ache we ache all over. Geo. B. DeRevre, proprietor Revere House, says: "I actually feel ten years younger since my corns and bunions were completely cured by Specialist Brown's painless method." Mr. DeRevere states that he had his feet treated by some of the very best doctors in New York but could never get a permanent and lasting cure until treated by Mr. Brown's improved system. Geo. Egel, Grandview meat market, says that his bunions were so painful he could feel the pains to his knees. He was advised by cured friends to see Specialist Brown at 145 West Second street. Mr. Egel says after a painless treatment he never had an ache or a pain in his foot since. The market is at Somerset street and Grandview avenue. P. H. Brown's Plainfield visit will close July 22d.

Crop Report.

The following is John Neagle's crop report this week for this section: Recent showers have helped all crops; grain nearly all housed, some in shock still in the fields; corn and potatoes improving; rainfall, 2.08 inches.

HOW THEY KEPT INDEPENDENCE DAY

Celebrating Fourth of July in Santa Clara, Cuba.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS MARCH

CUBANS CHEER TO THE ECHO THE FLAG AND THE TROOPS.

A Plainfield Boy Attached to the Second United States Cavalry Tells of the Enthusiasm Displayed by the Natives, Who Helped to Observe the Day—City Gaily Decorated With Flags.

The enthusiastic manner in which the National holiday was celebrated in Cuba this year, may be gained from an interesting letter recently received by the editor of The Press from Frederick W. Bowden, a former well-known Plainfield boy, who is a member of the band attached to the Second United States Cavalry, now stationed at Santa Clara, Cuba. He says:

When it is realized that the Cubans never witnessed a Fourth of July celebration as only Americans know how to celebrate, one can imagine how much interest they manifested in the monster mounted parade which Uncle Sam's soldiers made on that memorable day.

Though the weather was extremely hot, old Sol blistering everything with its hot rays, the soldier boys were early astir. They were up with the lark, reville being as early as 5:15 o'clock. After a hearty breakfast the boys saddled their horses and by 6:50 were ready to start.

The superb band of the Second Cavalry, under the leadership of John H. Scully, never looked better or played more inspiringly. Their instruments shown like silver, while the hahki suits and horses of the troops were the pink of neatness. The parade, which started early and passed through the principal streets of the city, was one of the largest ever seen there. Every man in the parade was mounted, even to the members of the band.

Every public building and all private residences were handsomely decorated, palm leaves and bunting being everywhere, while "Old Glory" and the Cuban flag were conspicuous on every hand, and both cheered to the echo.

When Leader Scully's musicians struck up Sousa's inspiring air—"The Stars and Stripes Forever," the crowd of natives lining the streets set up a tremendous shout, and as the troops passed over the line of march the applause was spontaneous and hearty.

Along the streets, following closely at the horses' feet, were hundreds of Caban children shouting as the ran: "Americano Mucho Whano," meaning "the American is Very Good." Guns and pistols were fired and the greatest enthusiasm possible prevailed. Men cheered and handsome Cuban women waived their handkerchief and parasols at the troops as they passed the homes of these greatful people.

At one street as the parade came in sight the soldiers were met by a Cuban brass band playing the "Star Spangled Banner." While this band could not execute the popular air quite as correctly as did the splendid band attached to the Second Calvary, nevertheless, their efforts were so well directed as to cause the soldiers to liberally applaud them.

The parade was a splendid one and greatly pleased the natives, who appeared to be as enthusiastic over the celebration of the day as were the soldier boys, some of whom, however, would have liked to have been at home on that day.

The day's festivities were brought to a close by a grand ball, which was attended by the officers of the Second Cavalry and the elite Cuban society of Santa Clara. The music for dancing was supplied by the orchestra of the Second Calvary.

The entire celebration was as interesting as it was creditable to the soldiers and Americans who were instrumental in bringing it off.

George Hallock an Incorporator.

DRUNK PARIS GREEN; HE CANNOT LIVE

Queer and Probably Fatal Beverage of Dunellen Man.

HE SUFFERS INTENSE PAIN.

AMBROSIA MARIENSCHENK IMBIBED THE POISONOUS FLUID.

He Prepared it for the Purpose of Killing Potato Bugs—Found By His Family in Intense Agony—Fought the Doctors When They Tried to Save His Life—Final Act of Many Incidents.

What will probably be the last act of a long series of queer deeds was performed yesterday afternoon by Ambrosia Marienschenck, a well-known character of Dunellen, when he drank about a half-pound of paris green while under the influence of liquor.

Mr. Marienschenck has a small garden at his home and has always taken a great deal of pride in raising potatoes. Early yesterday afternoon he went to his garden, after mixing a large quantity of paris green, and sprinkled the deadly stuff over his potatoe vines. He had partially gone over the patch when, without any apparent reason, he raised the vessel containing the poison and drank a quantity of it. It is said that the quantity he drank would equal almost a half-pound of the stuff.

It was about 2 o'clock that the family heard terrible screams and groans and following the sound traced it to one of the bedrooms upstairs. There they found the old man groaning and in terrible agony. He cried as best as he could for a drink of water. As quickly as possible the water was secured, but all attempts to hold the the water down were fruitless. As the man's condition was becoming serious, Dr. Brakeley was sent for. When the physician arrived he made a hasty examination and determined that something must be done with haste.

The doctor prescribed the proper medicine, but he could not get his patient to take it. He fought like a tiger and refused to take anything but water. After many efforts were made to get the medicine in the man's stomach, Dr. Brakely decided to use a pump. In the meantime, a member of the family was sent post haste for Dr. Whitford, of New Market, and when he arrived the two physicians went to work and used heroic measures to rid the stomach of the poison. Their efforts were attended with some success but the physicians expressed little hope that the man would recover. He had become so thoroughly saturated with the poison, and it was so difficulty to get the proper medicine in him, that it was feared that the poison had accomplished its work before the effects could be counteracted. Another bad feature was the quantity of liquor drank by Marienschenck. This had a tendency to work against any medicine that might be given. The physicians succeeded, however, in easing the patient of pain.

Mr. Marienschenck is a native of Germany and during his residence in Dunellen has been at different times the central figure in many scrapes. On more than one occasion he has driven his family from the house by means that were forcible. When sober he is considered a good father, husband and neighbor, but when under the influence of liquor he is generally considered a dangerous man.

The latest report received from Dunellen is that Mr. Marienscheck will probably not live during the day. He is suffering intense pain and is only partially conscious.

BIG CAR WORKS TO REOPEN.

Extensive Plant at Elizabeth May Manufacture Automobiles.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 12—The New York and Brooklyn Car Works at Elizabethport, which have been closed for a year, are about to reopen, it is said, and run on full time. The works will employ a large number of men, as it is said an order has been received for 500 cars.

It is also reported that the company will manufacture automobiles. The plant was formerly that of the Fowler Car Company, and is a large one. For some reason it was never successful and was only a short time in operation. It afterwards passed into the hands of the Brooklyn and New York Car Company.

Pittis' Estate Sale.

The postponed auction sale of the Pittis estate on Central and Field avenues will be held tomorrow afternoon on the premises, 912 Central avenue, by Special Master in Chancery Reed. The time of sale will be 2 o'clock. This property is very desirable and will be sold without reserve.

BABIES' CAMP WILL BE OPENED NEXT TUESDAY

All Interested in the Work Are Invited.

WAGON TO MEET TROLLEY.

SUBSTANTIAL STRUCTURE FOR THE SHELTER OF LITTLE ONES.

Efforts of The Daily Press to Raise Money to Carry on the Noble Work Have Been Generously Rewarded—Nearly $250 Contributed—Contribution of $7 From Several Young Women.

The Babies' Camp of the City Union of King's Daughters is now almost a reality. The substantial little wooden structure on the side of the mountain has, in fact, been already completed. Tuesday afternoon the camp will be formally opened to the public, who will be invited to be present on that occasion and inspect the arrangements made for the care of the little ones.

The efforts of The Daily Press in behalf of that worth charity have been very successful. Contributions have been steadily pouring into this office and have been turned over to the treasurer of the City Union. The money has been well spent but there is still more needed to complete the work so well begun.

The camp will be all ready for occupation Tuesday when the formal opening will take place. Arrangements have been made to have a wagonette meet the trolley at the Somerset street terminus and carry the guests to the babies' camp on the mountain. There will be a committee from the City Union present to receive the guests. All the friends interested in the good work are cordially invited to be present on the occasion of the opening of the new camp.

A bevy of bright young people, desiring to do all they could, arranged an entertainment for the benefit of the baby camp which was given yesterday afternoon on the veranda of the home of Emil Woltman, 669 West Seventh street. The whole affair was a most creditable one and the young people by their efforts were able to make $7 for the camp. The entertainment consisted of tableaux and recitations chiefly, while an occasional song or duet added interest to it. The following tableax were given: "A Spanish Child," "The Violet," "October," "Little Jack Horner," "June," "Faith, Hope and Charity," "Once I Was a Bachelor," "Little Bopeep," "Goddess of Liberty." The following recitatations were also given: "Maidenhair," "The Gingerbread Man," "The Baggedy Man," "Little Lizette," "Good Advice." Other features were a scarf dance and vocal duet.

Those who arranged the affair and took part were the Misses Ellena Woodcock, Rosa Woltman, Grace Weeks, and William Fladders, John Douglass and Jerry Manning. After the entertainment a committee called at The Press office and contributed the $7 profits for the baby camp and on behalf of those in charge of the camp received their thanks.

A check for $33.15 was sent by The Daily Press today to Mrs. Harriet M. Myers, treasurer of the Camp Fund for the City Union of King's Daughters, making a total of $220 63 already turned over to the City Union. To-day the fund stands as follows:

|---|---|
| Amount sent to Mrs. H. M. Myers, treasurer Camp Fund | $220.63 |
| Entertainment at 669 West Seventh street | 7.00 |
| A friend of the babies | 10.00 |

NAVAL RESERVES CRUISE

Will Go To Sea on the Converted Cruiser Prairie.

The battalion of the east and two divisions of the battalion of the west, New Jersey Naval Reserve, will start on their annual summer cruise next Wednesday on the converted cruiser Prairie.

On leaving Hoboken the Prairie will steam to Sandy Hook, thence to the eastern end of Long Island, where target practice and boat drills will be given. She will then proceed to sea and arrrive in Hoboken on July 27th.

The First Baptists' Excursion.

Tomorrow bids fair to give the friends and members of the First Baptist church Sunday-schools a fine time at Asbury Park, at which time the annual excursion will be held. This church is also noted for having a good time and those who go will surely have nothing to regret. With a clear day and good people to go with nothing remains but an enjoyable time for all. The train will leave in the morning at the usual time which can be ascertained by looking at the advertisement in this paper.

SOLDIERS' BURIAL PLOT.

VETERANS OF THE CIVIL WAR TO HAVE A RESTING PLACE.

The Hillside Cemetery Association Has Kindly Donated a Piece of Land Where Deceased Soldiers and Sailors Will Rest.

After months of untiring energy and painstaking efforts on the part of the members of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., that organization has finally succeeded in securing a suitable site for a soldiers' and sailors' lot in the handsome Hillside Cemetery.

Some time ago a committee, consisting of E. D. Moffett, Capt. J. Frank Hubbard and Col. Mason W. Tyler, was appointed by the Post to look into the matter of securing a plot of ground, which will be a proper place in which to deposit the remains of deceeased soldiers and sailors of the Civil War. Through the efforts of this committee the Hillside Cemetery Association has now kindly donated a plot of ground for this purpose.

At last evening's meeting of the Post, the committee reported the result of their efforts. A resolution of thanks to the Hillside cemetery association was tendered on behalf of the members of Winfield Scott Post.

The plot of ground which has been donated is 50x50 in size. It is located on the right of the main entrance to the cemetery, being on a knoll and commands a fine view of the surrounding country.

The plot will be dedicated at an early date, but no definite time has been set for the services.

In the near future the members of the local parts expect to erect a monument on the plot, which will greatly add to the beauty of this pictureseque city of the dead.

MRS. ALBERTSON EXPLAINS.

Says That Her Husband Was Suffering Pain From a Bad Tooth.

Mrs. William Albertson, of Park avenue, writes to The Daily Press today to explain the circumstances of her husband's commitment to Bellevue Hospital in New York, which was reported in this paper yesterday. Mrs. Albertson says that the statement given out that he was intoxicated is grossly inaccurate. She says that he has been suffering intensely for the past month with a bad tooth. Monday he went to a dental office on West Twenty-third street to have it extracted and while there he was badly injured in the operation performed.

He was unable to control himself owing to the excruciating pain and the doctors bundled him off to the hospital without reason. He returned home yesterday afternoon and was greatly mortified to read the report that had been given out by the New York authorities. She says the report that he is a drinking man is untrue.

Library Directors Meet.

A special meeting of the Board of Directors was held at the Library last night. There were present Messrs. M Tyler, Rowland Cox, J. C. Dumont, Alex. Gilbert, W. H. Lafrabee, J. Evarts Tracy. In the absence of the secretary it was moved and carried that Miss Adams act as secretary protem. It was moved and carried that the bills presented for the general library be paid from the library fund, and those of the Babcock scientific library be paid from the Babcocd fund. After the transaction of some miscellaneous business the meeting adjourned.

Injured Italian Lives in Westfield.

The Italian who was struck by a train near the freight house yesterday morning has been identified as Augustine Eit, aged 23 years, a resident of Westfield. He is not married. He was on his way to Plainfield when he was struck by a train. These few facts are all that can be ascertained about him, and they were obtained by a fellow Italian, who was taken to the hospital yesterday to be treated for a slight injury.

Fun Among the Red Men.

This evening an entertainment will be given the wives and families only of the members of Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe, No. 193, I. O. R. M. Sachem V. W. Nash will deliver an address and remarks are to be made by Great Chief Westphal and Chiefs from Miantonomo Tribe. Songs, recitations and musical selections will fill in the evening. Refreshments are also to be served.

At Patchogue, L. I.

Silas Yerkes, Miss Margaret Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, Miss Carrie Moore, Mrs. W. B. Maxson, Miss Mabel Moxson, Miss Mary D. Compton, Mrs. I. W. VanSickel, all of this city, are stopping at Patchogue, L. I., and most of them are at the Clifton House.

TALK OF CHANGE IN TROLLEY EXTENSION.

Substitute Considered for Arlington Avenue Line.

THE NEW LINE IS SHORTER.

IT WOULD LEAVE PRESENT TRACKS AT RICHMOND STREET.

The Line Would Go Out That Thoroughfare to Watchung Avenue and Thence to Prospect Avenue by a Private Right of Way—Prospect Avenue Would Lead to Woodland, to Cemetery.

The southern end of the city patiently awaits the arrival of the trolley. The Plainfield Street Railway Company has agreed to build one in that direction and the City Fathers are anxious to open up that section. The hopes of the trolley advocates in that part of Plainfield seemed about to be fulfilled when there came the determined opposition to the Arlington avenue extension of the city trolley system. But there are other ways besides Arlington avenue to reach the southern end of the city. Already the trolley company is considering a substitute for the proposed Arlington avenue route that will practically cover the same territory.

One of the aims of a line in the southern section was to reach the Crescent Oval, the Hillside cemetery and the Hillside Club golf links, as well as open up the property all through there. This the company intends to accomplish as soon as possible.

The route that the company is now considering is very different from the other. It will branch off of the Netherwood line instead of the West Fourth street line. It is planned to continue the tracks out Richmond street south from Putnam avenue, where the Netherwood line now turns. The new route will follow Richmond street to Watchung avenue and thence through a private right of way on the property of Isaac P. Brown and Jas. E. Martine.

This private right of way would extend to Prospect avenue, not far from Park avenue. The line would then continue east on Prospect avenue to Woodland avenue and south along that thoroughfare to the point by the cemetery originally intended to be the terminus of that extension.

This new route finds favor with the company in that it is considerably shorter and consequently cheaper and is not likely to encounter any opposition along its line. It would be about as near as Park avenue at Ninth street at the route at first proposed although the section south of Ninth street and west of Park avenue would not find it anywhere near as convenient.

The company is now quietly looking into this line and may take action on the matter very shortly.

ALLEGED BICYCLE THIEF.

James Wood Charged With Stealing a Wheel at Westfield.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, July 12—James Wood, of Fanwood, was committed to the county jail yesterday for the larceny of a wheel from Geo. Gluck in Westfield. Ever since the bicycle was stolen Gluck has been on the lookout for it. He has examined all wheels left alone by their owners in various parts of the town, and a few days ago his vigilance was rewarded. While in Crizen's bicycle store in Westfield he saw the front wheel of his machine, which had been left there for repairs.

On making inquiries he found that the wheel had been left there by Cornelius O'Donnell, who had obtained it, together with the rest of the bicycle, from Frank Wood, son of James Wood, who gave it to him as security for a horse which he had bought. Gluck, satisfied that he had found who took his machine, at once took steps which resulted in the arrest of James Wood and his lodgment in the county jail, where he is at present.

A Card of Explanation.

We are daily receiving inquiries from customers asking when their premiums are to be delivered to them. We desire to make our position clear in the matter. When the present firm purchased the business from Edward White, Febrary 20th last, the latter agreed to furnish premiums to all customers who had turned over their coupons to him previous to the date of the sale. (This being one of the conditions of the sale of the business.) The present firm assumed no responsibility in the matter and cannot be held responsible for the delay or failure of our predecessor to fulfill the conditions of the contract.

Carrington and Flavelle Narrowly Escape Being Assassinated.

THE PLOT FRUSTRATED.

American Explorers in Venezuela Warned of Danger in Time to Save Their Lives.

One of the Plotters Makes a Confession to the Venezuelan Authorities—Sensation Death of Speaker of Barbados Assembly May Be Explained.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 12.—Two American explorers, Messrs. Carrington and Flavelle, of New York, have just had a narrow escape from assassination in the wilds of Venezuela by Barbadian brigands. One result of the incident has been to throw some light on the profound mystery of the assassination of J. A. Pile, speaker of the Barbados House of Assembly, which created a sensation last September, followed as it was by anonymous threats to assassinate the Governor and other officials.

Some weeks ago Messrs. Carrington and Flavelle landed at Barbados from one of the New York steamers, on their way to Venezuela. Through the Government Emigration Agency they secured the services of four well recommended black men to accompany them in the capacity of general servants and "bushmen," they having had previous xeperience traversing the dense tropical forests on the mainland, and at the Callao gold mines, whither the travellers were proceeding.

When the party had penetrated into the heart of the forest that lies between the city of Bolivar, on the Orinoco, and the mining district of Callao, one of the Barbadians is reported to have secretly disclosed to Mr. Carrington the startling fact that his three companions had made preparations in concert with certain native brigands who were known to be prowling about in the vicinity on the lookout for unwary travellers, to murder the Americans while they slept that night and appropriate their baggage and money.

By prompt and decisive action the plot was frustrated and the three Barbadians were made prisoners and incarcerated in the Bolivar jail.

Mr. G. S. R. Archer, the Barbados emigrant agent, has communicated to the government a letter which he received from Mr. Carrington detailing the circumstances and stating that the chief of the conspiracy, Ernest Macallister, had confessed to the Venezuelan authorities that he, together with certain other men still in Barbados, had last year shot a man in Barbados in the back, and that without his evidence the whites would never find out who committed the deed.

Macallister's sensational confession may not be true, but it is generally credited and the victim is thought to have been Pile.

Found the Goods.

Muncie, Ind., July 12.—During the Elk's carnival in this city a car loaded with merchandise was broken open and a part of the contents stolen. No trace was ever found of the goods until yesterday, when the police unearthed the stolen articles in an unused culvert west of the city. No clew to the thieves has been obtained. The merchandise was being shipped to Cincinnati.

Indiana Adventists.

Anderson, Ind., July 12.—Indiana Seventh Day Adventists have decided upon a grove between Alexandria and Elwood as their state encampment ground this year. They will occupy it between August 10 and 25. They own all of their own camp equipment and maintain military sway when in their annual camps. About 3,000 generally attend.

Dislocation From Sneezing.

Anderson, Ind., July 12.—Attorney J. E. Hall sneezed his right shoulder out of place, and is now in the hands of a physician. He was taken with a violent spell of sneezing, and was almost exhausted when the shoulder was thrown out by a particularly severe sneeze.

Jumped From a Car.

Dayton, Ohio, July 12.—Eva Fogle, 17, in jumping from a moving electric car in front of her house, fell with her head against the pavement. She was taken to the hospital in a dying condition from a fractured skull.

Will to Be President.

Kansas City, Mo., July 12.—Thomas E. Will, President of the Kansas Agricultural College, has been offered the Presidency of the new Socialist college which the Buffalo Reform Conference voted to establish in Boston.

Steamboat Rate War.

New Haven, Conn., July 12.—A steamboat rate war is waging between the Sound lines. The Fall River line of the Consolidated Railroad has cut rates from $3.50 to $3 to meet the Narragansett line reduction.

To Stop Sunday Golfing.

Bayside, L. I., July 12.—Rev. A. McNichol, who stopped the Sunday ball games here, has started a movement which aims to put an end to Sunday golfing. He is now preaching against the latter.

Says England Seeks War.

Paris, July 12.—The 'Temps' declares that a supreme effort is being made by England to bring the Transvaal crisis to a belligerent denouncement.

Spanish Consuls Are Recognized.

Washington, July 12.—All the Spanish Consuls in the new American territories have been formally recognized.

Cambridge Shuts Out Oxford.

London, July 12.—In the university tennis games, Cambridge succeeded in shutting Oxford out.

POSTAL COMPANY SUED.

Bill Filed in Tennessee Asking That Receiver Be Appointed.

Chattanooga, July 12.—A bill was filed in the Chancery Court here asking that the Postal Telegraph Company in the State of Tennessee be placed in he hands of a receiver. Some time ago a judgement was rendered in the courts at McMinneville for $1,999 in favor of Thomas Lupton against the Postal Telegraph Company. An execution was levied by the Sheriff of this county, but the Postal company responded that it was not their property, but that of the Commercial Cable Company.

The bill filed charges that the Postal company is fraudulently insolvent, has outstanding judgments all over Tennessee which cannot be collected by law and asks that a receiver be appointed to take charge of its affairs. Chancellor McConnell issued an injunction restraining the company from disposing of any property it might have in this State.

The Postal company says that this action will test a long-wanted legal question which it desires to get into the Federal courts and have finally determined and passed upon.

A Hot Shot for Winslow.

Boston, July 12.—Erving Winslow, who is secretary of the so-called Anti-Imperialist League, in a letter addressed to Captain N. M. Dyer, formerly of the cruiser Baltimore, has directly insulted the army and navy of the United States. In his letter and a subsequent interview he refers sneeringly to the army and navy as a police force. The letter was shown to Captain Dyer at the home of his sister in Melrose. The Captain said the letter was too silly for him to pay any attention to and the man who wrote it should be denounced as a traitor to his country and his flag. He further said he wished to have nothing to say to or do with a fellow of Winslow's stripe.

Welcome Teachers to Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 12.—It is like a holiday in this city and the music of bands is heard on every hand. The New York delegation to the National Educational Association, the special excursion parties from Eastern points, Ohio, Pennsylvania and the South have arrived. The special that was in collision with the freight train in the northern part of the State has also arrived, bringing the Missouri and other delegates, except the injured, who are in San Francisco. When the last special arrives from Chicago this evening it is estimated that there will be 12,000 teachers here.

Steamer Willkommen Disabled.

London, July 12.—The German oil tank steamer Willkommen, Captain Schafer, from New York June 7, for Flushing for orders, has arrived off Prawle Point, and signaled that the shaft to her high pressure engine is broken; that she is able to proceed, but would easily become unmanageable. The German tank steamer Deutschland, Capt. Schierhorst, from Hamburg for New York, is standing by to render assistance if needed.

Dreyfus Studying the Evidence.

Rennes, July 12.—M. Demange had a two-hour interview with Dreyfus. He found him in excellent health and spirits. Dreyfus has almost finished his study of the dossier, and he and M. Demange will work together on it for the remainder of the week. Commandant Carriere will finish his report between July 20 and 25 and the court-martial will meet at the beginning of August.

No Poison in the Pie.

New Brunswick, N. J., July 12.—Dr. J. G. Demelsbock has made a chemical analysis of a part of a pie sent to Mrs. Cora Slover, in Coldbridge, a few weeks ago, which was supposed to contain poison and to have been sent by some one who desired to kill the young woman. The County authorities, therefore, have dropped the investigation of the case.

He Blames His Wife.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., July 12.—John Loftus, of Sparta Township, was lodged in jail here by Sheriff Laws on two separate charges of larceny. His wife followed the officers to town and swore out a peace warrant against her husbnad, declaring that she believed her life was in danger from him. He blames her for the discovery of the alleged crimes.

$125,000,000 Liquor Trust.

Trenton, N. J., July 12.—A monster distilling company has been incorporated here under the name of the Distilling Company of America, with a capital stock of $125,000,000. Fifty-five millions is cumulative 7 per cent. preferred. The incorporators are Geo. E. P. Howard, East Orange; Francis R. Foraker and Walter S. Dryfoos, of New York.

Every State Will Be Represented.

Austin, Texas, July 12.—Gov. Sayers has announced the fact that the proposed anti-trust conference to be held in St. Louis on Sept. 20, will be a great success. He says that he has assurances that every state in the Union will be represented.

More Than a Hint.

Steady Company (after running comment on business success in general): I must say, Miss Florence, that if there is one thing I particularly admire in a man it is business enterprise.

Miss Florence: So do I! There's young Rushman, for instance; he's only been calling on Miss Sparks two months, and they're engaged already.

At the Foot

"I hope they don't give my little boy any naughty nicknames in school?"

"Yes, ma, they call me 'Corns.'"

"How dreadful! And why do they call you that?"

"'Cause in our class, you know, I'm always at the foot."—Detroit Free Press.

One on Him.

Mr. Crimsonbeak: "There's a terrible smell of boiling cabbage throughout the house."

Mrs. Crimsonbeak: "Yes; we're boiling the lace curtains, in the hope of getting the tobacco smell out of them."

TEXAS FEARS AN EPIDEMIC

The Most Serious Conditions Are Expected to Result From The Flood.

PERSONS YET IN DANGER

Many Deaths Are Likely to Occur Among the Refugees as a Result of Exposure.

State Health Inspector Goes to the Inundated District—Governor Sayers Asked to Solicit Contributions of Cotton Seed For Replanting the Devastated Country.

Dallas, Tex., July 12.—Texas is going to have a serious problem in sanitation to meet in the Brazos flood region. State Health Officer Blount realizes this and has gone to the heart of the flood-swept section of Texas. He will inspect the Brazos valley from Calvert to the Gulf—a district 300 miles long by 50 miles wide. Strong local health and sanitary organizations will be formed to act as aids to the State Health Department. Many deaths are expected among the flood refugees as a result of exposure and hunger and from sickness contracted therefrom.

The fears of an epidemic are creating keen anxiety. All the imperilled persons have been rescued except in remote districts close to the Gulf coast, where the Brazos delta is wide and isolated places are not easy of access. An appeal has been made to Gov. Sayers by a replanting organization, of which the following is a copy:

"Please wire the Mayors of towns named below asking immediate donations of cotton seed for replanting in flooded districts. Must start immediately to be successful: Brenham, Austin, Houston, Waco, San Antonio, Temple, Belton, Bryan, Corsicana, Waxahachie, Dallas, Hillsboro, Alvarado, Brownwood, Palestine, Groesbeck, Ennis, Wortham, Sherman, Paris, Texarkana, Denison, Flatonia, Luling, Halletsville and Weimar. In addition to cotton seed the flood sufferers need black-eyed peas, sorghum seed and kaffir, or other quick-maturing corn to plant as soon as the flood recedes."

The Governor complied with the request. Mayor Taylor of Dallas had already started such a movement among the cotton seed men of Northern Texas, and the response to the call is of a very encouraging nature. Many shipments of seeds are already on the way to the flooded district and some have already arrived there.

Railway Employes to Meet.

Altoona, Pa., July 12.—Representatives of all the railway employes' associations will meet in Tyrone, this county, on Saturday and Sunday next. While the meeting is called primarily for social purposes, it is said that a very important business meeting has been arranged. Among the orders to be represented are Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Order of Railway Conductors, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Order of Railway Telegraphers. The territory included extends from the Mississippi to the Atlantic, except the New England and extreme Southern States.

The Alaskan Boundary.

Washington, July 12.—In the absence of official information the report that Canadian mounted police are to be sent into the Porcupine country, claimed by both the United States and Canada, is not credited at the State Department. It is pointed out that our Government withheld a garrison from Pyramid Harbor, in that section, at the simple suggestion from the British authorities, and it is not conceivable that a permanent force is to be maintained in that region by the English. The British embassy also gives no credit to the story.

Fire in Hopewell, N. J.

Hopewell, N. J., July 12.—A fire wiped out the principal business block of this town. For a time it was feared that the entire town would be destroyed. Among the places burned out were: Douglas's barber shop, Zanelli's confectionary store, P. J. Shepperd's grocery store, the house of P. J. Shepperd, lodge rooms of the Knights of Pythias, James Smith's tailor shop, Holt & Vandyke's law offices, the central station of the Bell Telephone Company, and several other establishments.

New Road to Atlantic City.

Trenton, N. J., July 12.—The Delaware & Atlantic Railroad Company has been incorporated here with an authorized capital of $6,000,000 to construct a railroad from Gloucester City to Atlantic City. The incorporators are: Z. P. Boyer, Jr., Henry Pennington, Walter M. Boyer, Frederick G. Nicholson, J. Theodore Ninesteel, all of Philadelphia; Charles T. Maloney, J. R. Roe, A. W. Captell, Benj. H. Davis, Thomas Andrews, Arthur Y. Hall, of Woodbury, and J. T. Suckley, of Clarksboro.

No More Troops for the Yukon.

Ottawa, Ont., July 12.—The report that more mounted police are to be sent to the Yukon is officially denied. As was stated in Parliament, the Government intends to withdraw some of the militia from there. There are at present about 250 members of the police force in the Yukon, stationed mostly at Dawson. Some of them are stationed along the trail in twos and threes. The military force consists of 200 men, of whom 120 are at Fort Selkirk and eighty at Dawson.

Jamaica and Canada.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 12.—It is now announced that the real object of the government in sending the reciprocity delegates to Ottawa after completing the negotiations at Washington is to endeavor to secure the imposition by the Dominion Government of countervailing duties on European beet sugar.

FRAUDS IN NEBRASKA.

Populist Makes Affidavit to Having Forged Ballots.

Lincoln, Neb., July 12.—A committee of State Senators, all Republicans, have begun an investigation into various abuses of State government. The most sensational testimony was that of a former Populist janitor, Edward Simon, who testified to have assisted at a fraudulent marking of ballots in 1897. At the election in 1896 a constitutional amendment increasing the number of Supreme Court Judges was submitted. It lacked about 10,000 votes of adoption, but the Populist Legislature ordered a recount, as their constituent nominees had been elected.

Simon testified that in several counties blank ballots were taken by himself, ex-Oil Inspector Edmiston and two clerks and marked for the amendment. Some bore the signatures of Judges on the back, but on those unmarked the names of Judges were forged. He identified various ballots as some he had marked. A. D. Christian, a banker, picked out of the ballots a large number he said bore the forged signatures of Judges in York county. The amendment was returned as not carried in spite of these changes.

The committee was compelled to meet in a hotel, the Populist State officials refusing to give them room at the Capitol. The Governor had previously vetoed an appropriation to pay expenses.

To Tunnel Lookout.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 12.—Chief Engineer Wells of the Southern Railway is in Chattanooga raising a force of men to begin work on a $5,000,000 tunnel through Lookout Mountain. The tunnel will be made to connect Chattanooga with Gadsden, Ala., saving many miles of road building. It will go straight through Lookout Mountain and be three miles in length. It will also go through some of the richest coal and mineral veins in this section. All surveys have been made, and laborers are being hired to be worked under the supervision of the engineers now on the grounds.

Secret Trial for Gallinger.

Concord, N. H., July 12.—United States Senator Jacob H. Gallinger is on trial before John B. Harlow, of Washington, and M. S. Brewer, of Michigan, of the Civil Service Commission, charged with violating the Civil Service law by soliciting campaign contributions from Government employes. Senator Chandler and ex-Governor Busiel, who are conducting the prosecution, wanted the public admitted, but at Senator Gallinger's request the Commissioners made it a star chamber hearing.

Elias Hatfield to Give Up.

Wheeling, W. V., July 12.—An unconfirmed despatch from Grey, W. Va., says that Elias Hatfield, the 18-year-old slayer of Duputy Sheriff Ellis, has agreed to surrender to guards sent by Gov. G. W. Atkinson. At last accounts the young desperado was hiding in the mountains of Kentucky, across the river. The State is taking active steps in the matter for fear that the old Hatfield-McCoy feud may break out anew.

Died in the Klondike.

Washington, July 12.—United States Consul McCook, at Dawson, reports to the State Department the death in the hospital at Forty-Mile City, Yukon territory, about Feb. 1 last, of W. H. Sutton, from overexertion and exhaustion during a "stampede." The man's home address is supposed to be New York, and as he left a great deal of valuable property at Dawson and Forty-Mile, the Consul suggests that relatives come forward without delay.

Fire Destroys Factory in Steinway.

Steinway, L. I., July 12.—Fire Destroyed the works of the Oakes Manufacturing Company, in Blackwell St., near Berrian's Creek, at this place. The company manufactured dyestuffs, and the building and the small wooden buildings about it were filled with dyes and inflamable materials. The flames spread with great rapidity. The loss is estimated at about $100,000, covered by insurance.

Addicted to Use of Opiates.

Plainfield, N. J., July 12.—William Albertson of No. 920 Park avenue, who was arrested in a store in West Twenty-third street, New York, on suspicion of being crazy, and taken to the Bellevue Hospital, where it was said that he was suffering from alcoholism, has resided in Plainfield since last fall. He has a wife and several children. He is addicted to the use of opiates.

Shoshones Restless.

Elko, Nev., July 12.—Advices from White Rock, Shosbone Indian Reservation, say there are prospects of disturbances on that reservation in connection with the Indian school and that the fourth attempt to burn the school building has been made. A telegram has been sent to the commissioner of Indian Affairs apprising him of the situation.

J. M. Cowperthwait Dead.

Asbury Park, July 12.—J. M. Cowperthwait, who for fifty-three years was connected with the Bank of America in New York and who retired eight years ago, died at an Asbury Park hotel. Death was caused by apoplexy. For several years past he had lived at Washington. Mr. Cowperthwait leaves a widow.

Havana Customs Receipts.

Washington, July 12.—The war department announced that the customs receipts at the port of Havana for the month of June were $1,012,899. The total receipts for six months of 1899 are, to be exact, $5,146,830. The average per month for six months is $857,805.

One Death at Ponce.

Washington, July 12.—Gen. Davis cabled the war department news of the death of Private Frank Blake, company A, eleventh infantry, at Ponce, of acute dysentery.

May Save the Paris.

London, July 12.—The steamship Paris has not broken up, and a thorough investigation reveals the fact that the big vessel may yet be saved.

A special Associated Press reporter has knowledge of the remarkable cure of the wife of a carpenter who related her experience as follows: "For a good many years I have been bothered an awful sight with my stomach. I got so I couldn't eat anything at all without it souring on my stomach. Lots of times while working I would spit up great mouthfuls of stuff bitter as gall. I kept getting worse all the time, and took piles of doctor medicine, but I might as well have taken that much starch for all the good it did me. It run into neuralgia of the stomach and worked itself all over me. The new doctor up on 20th street told me when I saw him it was my stomach that caused all the trouble and give me an order to the drug store. I took it there and the boy give me a box of

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Making People Happy.
Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.
Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:
D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

PHILADELPHIA EXPORTS.

Strathgyle Carries Largest Cargo of Grain on Record.

Philadelphia, July 12.—Probably the largest cargo of grain ever sent from this port is that of the British steamer Strathgyle, which has just cleared for Rotterdam, with about 250,000 bushels of oats, valued at $82,000, and 110,000 bushels of corn, valued at $44,000.

Another vessel to clear with a cargo of grain for Rotterdam is the British steamer Carlton, which has aboard about 60,000 bushels of oats, valued at $20,000, and 120,000 bushels of corn, valued at $48,000. The British steamer Milton has also cleared, having on board 185,000 bushels of corn, valued at $74,000, bound for Copenhagen.

John Sherman Much Better.

Mansfield, Ohio, July 12.—Hon. John Sherman's condition is much improved. He takes a ride daily, and he has rapidly recovered from his illness of three weeks ago. At the present there seems to be no immediate cause for alarm as to his health.

JOHN SHERMAN.

Miss Thatcher Dead.

New Haven, July 12.—Eloise Hardy Thatcher, author of Christmas Anthems, is dead. She was eighty-six years old, and was named after Admiral Hardy, to whom Lord Nelson uttered the dying words: "Kiss me, Hardy." When very young she fell in love with Lieut. Cullom, one of the engineers who built Fort Trumbull. Her father forbade the match. Cullom went away, won renown and a fortune and left the fortune to his sweetheart, who always remained true to his memory.

Coughlin Forfeits Bond.

Chicago, July 12.—When the case of "Dan" Coughlin, widely known on account of his arrest and conviction for participation in the murder of Dr. Cronin, was called in court here, he failed to appear. He, with his bartender, William Armstrong, was accused of bribery and conspiracy to bribe in a damage suit against the Illinois Central Railroad. Armstrong was also absent and his bonds with Coughlin's amounting to $20,000, were declared forfeited.

New Sound Steamer.

Baltimore, July 12.—The Chester W. Chapin, a twin-screw passenger steamer, built of steel for the New Haven Steamboat Company, to run between New York City and New Haven, Conn., was launched at Sparrow Point. She is the largest vessel of her kind ever launched at this port. Her dimensions are: Length on deck, 324 feet; length on water line, 310 feet; molded beam, 48 feet. She is calculated to maintain a speed of 21½ miles an hour.

Pennsylvania Roads Consolidate.

Philipsburg, Pa., July 12.—The absorption of the Altoona and Philipsburg and the Wopsononock railroads by the Pittsburg, Johnstown, Ebensburg and Eastern Railroad was announced here yesterday. Work is to be started at once on the unfinished portions of the absorbed roads, and a new line will thus be opened from Philipsburg to Altoona and Johnstown, town.

Gold Ship Returns.

Victoria, B. C., July 12.—The steamer Queen has arrived here with 350 passengers, excursionists, returning miners from Dawson, some disappointed prospectors from Atlin and gold variously estimated at from $350,000 to $1,000,000. The captain is authority for the latter amount, the passengers placing the treasure at almost any sum between the two figures given.

Bride of Six Weeks is a Widow.

Newark, Ohio, July 12.—Frank Byrd, aged 38, was killed by a Baltimore & aged 38, was killed by a Baltimore & depot here. He had just come in from his run as brakeman on the Midland division and was walking on the track. The body was taken to Mansfield. He was married six weeks ago, his bride being at Plesantville, Ohio.

The Orleanist Intrigues.

Paris, July 12.—At a Cabinet meeting, the Minister of the Interior confirmed the authenticity of the Orleanist intrigues set forth in the report of the Prefect of Police, published by the "Gazette de France," and an investigation will be made to find out how it reached the newspapers.

Launching of the C. W. Chapin.

Baltimore, July 12.—The steamer Chester W. Chapin, built by the Maryland Steel Company for the New Haven Line, was launched at the company's works at Sparrow's Point. The new steamer will run between New York City and New Haven.

Cape Town Mail Contract Renewed.

London, July 12.—The Cape Town mail contracts with the Union and Castle lines of steamships have been renewed by the Government. The new contracts stipulate that the mails shall be carried in sixteen and a half days.

Couldn't Secure Work.

Louisville, Ky., July 12.—George H. Conrad, aged 60 years, committed suicide here by hanging. Failure to find work caused the rash act. He was a widower and left three grown children.

WHEELER OFF FOR MANILA

"Fighting Joseph" Leaves the National Capital for Duty In the Philippines.

HE HAS NO FIXED PLANS.

Thinks it Proper That He Should Be Outranked by Generals Otis, Lawton and McArthur.

He Will Not Resign His Seat in the House—Will Sail For Manila July 20—President McKinley Hopes to See the Philippine Insurrection Crushed by Dec. 1.

Washington, July 12.—Gen. Joseph E. Wheeler left Washington yesterday afternoon en route to the Philippine islands. He will go via Chicago, Omaha, Denver and Salt Lake, but as he is scheduled to reach San Francisco on Saturday, will not stop long at any place on the way. He will sail for Manila on the 20th.

"I have no plans of campaign," he said before leaving, "and shall not know what I am to do until I receive my instructions from General Otis. I should like to have it understood," he continued, "that I go to the Philippines in an entirely subordinate capacity. Not only General Otis, but Generals Lawton and MacArthur will rank me, and it is proper that they should, for while Generals Lawton and MacArthur were my juniors, they have been in the field while I have not, and deserve to have places superior to any assignment that may be given me."

He said he would not resign his seat in the House.

Alger's Resignation.

Washington, July 12.—Ever since the formal announcement of the Alger-Pingree alliance and Pingree's denunciation of President McKinley, leading Republicans and friends of the President have urged him to ask for the resignation of Secretary of War Alger. The demand became so strong during the last fortnight that the President intimated to the Secretary that they had reached the parting of their ways. The Secretary did not resign at once, and the President then asked for the Secretary's resignation in a more formal way. Mr. Alger, after several days' consideration, sent a resignation to take effect some months hence. It was intended that this should not be made public until late in the fall, but now that it has leaked out it will undoubtedly cause the date of Alger's resignation to be changed. The formal announcement of his retirement from the Cabinet may be looked for at any moment.

Alger Makes Denial.

Washington, July 12.—Secretary of War Alger declines to believe that any members of the Cabinet are unfriendly toward him, or that his resignation would be agreeable to the President. He has told his friends that there is nothing in the talk about his retirement. In answer to a direct inquiry the Secretary dictated the following statement:—

"I deny emphatically the report that I have refused to resign or that the President has intimated to me that he wants my resignation."

Yellow Fever in American Camps.

Washington, July 12.—Surgeon Sternberg has received two cables from Major O'Reilly, chief surgeon at Havana, regarding the yellow fever situation. In the first he says:—

"Harvard, at Santiago, telegraphs revised list, showing 122 cases, with 24 deaths, including four officers, Fabricius, Clendenin, McLaughlin and Heatwole; also 20 civilian cases and 5 deaths. No cases in camp in last three days. Headquarters ordered to interior."

The other despatch reports two additional cases of yellow fever at Manzanillo, five in all.

Hopes to Crush Aguinaldo Soon.

Washington, July 12.—The Cabinet discussed the situation in the Philippines and the arrangements for the new volunteer army. President McKinley believes that the Filipino insurrection can be crushed by December 1, and will make every endeavor to end it before Congress meets, so that the form of government for the archipelago may be one of the first matters up.

The Cabinet decided to suspend the tariff duty of $1 a head on cattle imported into Cuba for breeding purposes, and to allow 50,000 head to enter duty free.

More Volunteer Officers.

Washington, July 12.—Among the volunteer officers appointed by the resident yesterday was Daniel B. Case, Colonel of the Fourth Pennsylvania volunteers. John Biddle Porter, Second Pennsylvania, to be majors; to be captains, Charles S. Campbell, adjutant Second Pennsylvania and Frank H. Peck, captain Ninth New York.

Albert Smith Hanged.

Harrisburg, Pa., July 12.—Albert E. Smith, the colored murderer was hanged in the jail yard here in the presence of about 100 spectators. His body was cut down twenty-one minutes after the drop fell.

The Shamrock Injured?

London, July 12.—It is reported here that the Shamrock has been drydocked at Southampton. The report leads to the belief that she has injured one of her plates.

Filipinos to Hold Spanish.

Madrid, July 12.—According to a despatch from Manila, Aguinaldo refuses to liberate the Spanish military prisoners in the hands of the Filipinos.

Dee Baker Dying.

London, Ky., July 12.—Dee Baker, brother of Tom Baker, was taken with convulsions at his home here and is in a critical condition.

Tunnel Would Be a Great Thing.

In discussing the chances for the growth of this section of New Jersey, the New York Tribune lays great stress on the advantages that a tunnel under the North river would afford in the upbuilding of the territory, in the following editorial printed in yesterday's issue:

The development of the northern and eastern portions of New Jersey has been remarkable. Besides its manufactures and its trade, its railroad traffic and its shipping, it is the home of thousands who do business in New York. The crowded ferryboats, laden with young men and old, and with women, too, testify each morning and evening to Jersey's contribution to the bustle and hustle of the toiling, thriving metropolis. But the capacity of this section of New Jersey is far from taxed. It offers sites for homes for thousands more—sites that are attractive through the favors of nature for suburban homes. Each year adds appreciably to the population, but not at the rate which the local advantages of New Jersey amply warrant. This is because communication with New York is solely by ferryboats. Usually swift and connecting closely with trains and trolley cars, these ferryboats are at times subject to delay by fogs and floating ice. Really these unfavorable conditions exist comparatively rarely, yet the fact that such delays do occur sometimes inclines people to set up the roof trees of their homes in suburban places less favored by nature, and reached only by tedious journeys on elevated roads and trolley cars. The possibilities of occasional fog or ice prejudice people against crossing the North river twice a day the year round, and keep them from the very region which is otherwise most attractive.

It is these facts which should stir New Jersey enterprise and tax the coffers of New Jersey capitalists. The Hudson River should no longer remain the barrier that it now is to New Jersey's progress. Spanned by bridges and with tunnels underneath, it would cease to be an obstacle, and the improved means of communication would make New Jersey the favored home of many thousands, and would carry such volumes of traffic that the returns to the investors would be a prompt and ample reward to capital.

GIANT BUFFALO AT BUFFALO EXPOSITION.

One of the chief features of the Pan-American exposition to be held in Buffalo in 1901 will be a gigantic representation of a buffalo. The head will rise 200 feet in the air and the prospective builder would place a restaurant in it. The body of the animal is to contain a vaudeville theatre to seat 2,000 people.

Money at Big Interest.

A prominent merchant declares that "the money expended for advertising is the same as if placed on interest," says the Philadelphia Record. This is the proper view to be taken of advertisements placed in a popular newspaper. Not only is there a valuable return resulting from the profits in wares which may be specified in a merchant's business announcement, but the additional sales made extend and more firmly establish the advertiser's trade. Thus this great medium of communication with the public enables the tradesman to enlarge his sphere of operations, and as a natural consequence to assume a more important standing in the commercial world. The returns for a merchant's outlay in advertising far exceed in value the interest that would be received on the amount of money so expended.

Between 8,000,000 and 10,000,000 people in the United States take a vacation every summer, according to a fiend with a fondness for estimating. They spend more than $400,000,000, of which New Jersey gets its share.

President McKinley's record for handshaking is 4,816 in an hour and forty-five minutes. This is at a rate of forty-six shakes a minute, and every shake carries with it the hope of a vote.

Congressman Ketchan, of New York, has a unique claim to fame. He has served in thirteen Congresses and has never made a speech.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The Plainfield Press announces that City Clerk MacMurray has retired from the canvass for the Republican nomination for county clerk. This, it claims, "will clarify the political atmosphere," and it adds: "With Mr. MacMurray and Roger Franklin Murray both out of the field for nominations at the hands of the county convention, the chances for Sheriff Kirk to land the nomination of county clerk ought to improve considerable, providing he can secure the unanimous support of the city delegates to form a combination with the Houston henchmen." While The Press is not the Republican organ of Plainfield, it sometimes contains a good deal of political news that is pretty reliable. It announces the withdrawal of Mr. MacMurray on the authority of one of the latter's warm political adherants. It is only a short time ago, however, that Mr. MacMurray emphatically declared "I'm going to land the nomination." If he felt so sure of it then, it is a little surprising that he withdraws now; for unless some agreement has been reached his chances are just as good as they ever were.—Elizabeth Journal.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

This is the season when people take to the woods, figuratively speaking. Summer resorts are just now doing a land office business. Last year the the Spanish-American War prevented many from taking a vacation. The war scare is now a thing of the past and seashore resorts need have no fear of flying shells or danger of bodily harm. Timid people, who last year kept away from the seashore, are today found there in great numbers. In fact the shore resorts are doing a land office business, greater in many respects than in previous years for the past decade. But the seashore resorts are by no means the only ones to be benefitted by a change in affairs of the Nation. The resorts at the mountains are also receiving their share of attention. Hotels in the Adirondacks, the Catskill and White Mountain towns are being filled to their limit. At Saratoga, Lake George, Cooperstown, along Champlain, the St. Lawrence and other northern resorts the crowds are daily increasing, and hotel men and boarding housekeepers are rubbing their hands in glee over the prospects of a golden harvest.

• • • • •

Many physicians tell us that our health would be the better at this season were we to eat less meat and more fruit and vegetables. There is a great plenty of both. In the fruit line the Plainfield markets have an abundance of berries, apricots, the juicy musk and watermelion, pineapple, several varieties of plums, etc. While beets, beans, peas, squash, new potatoes and other garden truck are to be had for little money. Soon will appear the suculent green corn, considered by many the most palatable of all summer vegetables. To enjoy it thoroughly it should be eaten from the cob, notwithstanding that polite society questions its being in good form and in accord with modern table etiquet. "Nearer the bone, sweeter the meat," applys equally in regard to sweet corn when eaten from the cob. If cut away from the cob the corn seems to loose its sweetness and likewise its flavor. The question as to the strictly proper method of eating sweet corn when at the table has never been definitely settled and much discussion has resulted; but the point is still in dispute. Nevertheless, corn, when removed from the cob, also has some supporters. Be this as it may, there is no disputing the statement that vegetable is not only a most palatable dish but is also very healthy. Eat it in any style you choose.

DRINK GRAIN-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich seal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about ¼ as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25c.

AMERICAN STEAM LAUNDRY,

HOSIERY SALE FOR TOMORROW.

Ladies' fine hose—"Lourve" fast black, full regular made, every pair guaranteed to be worth 25c pair. Our price for tomorrow 15c pair, and you may have as many pairs as you wish. This is simply one way of making business through the approaching "dull season" and will afford an opportunity to buy some excellent hosiery at a ridiculous price.

WHITE GOODS.

'Twould seem that we had supplied half the State with white good—but the end is not yet. Where have they gone? Where are they going? We cannot tell. We simply know they have gone and are still going at an astonishing rate. The natural inference is our goods and prices must be right. Certain we are that no concern in these parts offers so great a variety of new and in every way reliable white goods.

Piques, Dimities, India Linons, French Nainsooks, English Nainsooks, Check Nainsooks, Swisses, Mulls, Organdies, Tarlatans, Lace Stripe Muslins, Etc., in infinite variety. A full assortment of Sheets, Pillow Cases and Bolster Cases, all widths, hemstitched and with plain hem.

The very large purchase of Table Linens and Napkins spoken of a few days since, enables us to not only show a wonderful line of qualities and designs, but to give extraordinary values.

Bear in Mind the Fact that the prices on all Summer Goods, such as Shirt Waists, Wash Fabrics, Crash Skirts, Crash Suits, Pique Skirts, Duck Skirts, Etc., Etc., have been mercilessly cut and are selling freely. Wise persons will make early selections while sizes are complete.

Enthusiastic Ladies simply go in raptures over our White Lawn Dressing Sacks. We quite enjoy their ejaculations of delight upon first seeing the dainty garments. Most skillfully designed, exquisitely finished, they appeal very strongly to Ladies of refined taste.

Miscellaneous Vanities.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 12.—A few days ago Walter Sisty was indulging in a boxing match with a friend, and in warding off a blow he threw his arm out of joint. Dr. Brakeley was called to set the arm. Mr. Sisty suffers much pain as a result of the accident, and it will be some time before he will have the use of the arm.

There is every prospect that the citizens' mass meeting to be held to morrow evening at the Borough Council rooms will be a success and largely attended. There will be some good speakers, and the trolley troubles will be aired in a lively manner.

Last Monday evening the members of the Great Expectation Club enjoyed a boating party on the New Market lake. Several boats were employed to accomodate the party and a delightful time was had by all.

It is noticed that the Watchung Water Company has failed to put North avenue in the same condition that it was previous to their tearing it up. Here is a little missionary work for the Council

S. B. Merrill took a party of boroughites to Boynton Beach today in his large stage. The party was composed mostly of married people who desired to spend a day at this nearby popular resort.

Joseph Thomas, of Washington avenue, who was graduated from Princeton University last June, is now attending a medical college in Maine, and intends being a physician.

The following advertised letters are at the postoffice: J. B. Allen, Mrs. E. Barber, M. Hefti, Mrs. C. Gain, Mrs. J. Bonney and J. G. Lewalling.

Mrs. Trimmer and daughters, of Phillipsburgh, who have been visiting borough relatives, have gone to Point Pleasant to remain for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Randolph, of Washington avenue, are entertaining Mr. Randolph's brother, John Randolph and wife, of Newark.

Miss Lillian Warden, of Washington avenue, who has been spending several months in Georgia, returned home Monday evening.

Miss Barlow and Edward Thomas, of Newark, have returned home after a visit with Miss Minnie VanMiddlesworth, of Front street.

Miss Ruth Keeling and Miss Eva Ward, of New York, have returned home after a pleasant visit with friends.

J. F. Snell, Gilbert Herlich, Edward Herlich and Fred Giddis have returned from a pleasure trip to Midland Beach.

Miss Josie Dealaman, daughter of Postmaster Dealaman, is assisting Miss Gaskill, the assistant at the postoffice.

Thomas Thomas, a graduate of Princeton University this year, is visiting relatiees in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Phillip Harman and children, of North avenue, have returned from a visit with Somerville relatives.

Tomorrow evening Dr. Wilding, of Elizabeth, will give his celebrated lecture at the M. E. church.

Walter G. Runyon, of North avenue, has returned from New Brunswick, where he has been visiting.

The Misses Mabel and Ethel Jamison, of Church street, are entertaining friends from Boonton.

Ernest Peters, of North avenue, who has been visiting Cranford relatives, has returned home.

Miss Essie Moore, of Brooklyn, is spending two weeks with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Terry.

Frank Elliott, of Brooklyn, has been visiting T. W. Day and family, of Front street.

Miss Josephine Dunham is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Hunt, of Westfield.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 12—Rev. Gideon M. Shott, pastor of the Baptist church, started Wednesday upon a two week's vacation which will be spent in Virginia and West Virginia. Mr. Shott will attend the three days national convention of Baptist young people to be held in Richmond, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Mr. Shott goes as a representative of the local society. After the convention Mr. Shott will spend the balance of his time visiting his father and other relatives and friends through that section. Sunday next he will occupy the pulpit in the church he was ordained in a number of years ago. During his absence the pulpit will be occupied by a supply. The Citizens League movement through its committee will go right on with the reform movement during its leader's absence.

There is one thing the trolley people could do to make the residents of the village happy, especially the ladies. That is to build a temporary platform at the terminus so that women and children would not be obliged to climb into the cars as is now the case.

The result of the trolley extension into the village is already giving us a real estate boom. Real estate dealer T. M. Paff, Sr., has already had two offers for his Park avenue property, which adjoins the trolley.

LeRoy Guest, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Guest, of Fanwood, entertained about twenty-five of his little friends yesterday afternoon in honor of his sixth birthday.

Fanwood Council, R. A., held an interesting meeting in their rooms last evening. The council enjoyed a visit from Deputy Grand Regent Farmer, of Jersey City.

Harry Flannery has given up his position in New York and accepted a more lucrative one in the office of the Pond Tool Co., in Plainfield.

The adjourned meeting of the Township Committee was held in their rooms last evening. Routine business was transacted.

Miss May Johnson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, of Fanwood, has returned to her home in New York.

Miss Mackey, of Plainfield, is spending a few days with her cousins, the Misses Marsh's.

Miss Janet Cody, of Trenton, is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. George Schick.

John Wade is spending a few days with his aunt at Lyons Farms.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 12.—A pretty wedding took place at the Methodist church yesterday afternoon when Miss Katherine E. Embleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Embleton, became the wife of Wellington Morehouse. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson amid a bower of palms in front of the pulpit. Many guests were present from Westfield, Plainfield, Cranford, Brooklyn and New York. After congratulations had been extended the newly married couple left on an afternoon train for New York. They will remain away about three weeks, during which time they will visit Maine.

D. N. Force, of Plainfield, has started the erection of a three story dwelling house at the corner of North avenue and Ross place in this town. It is understood that Mr. Force's sister will occupy the house when it is completed.

W. L. Burtis, of this town, has purchased of Alex. Kanouse, of Dover, the bay pacer, Rattler, with a record of 2:17¼. Saturday Rattler went a heat at Woodbridge in 2:19, two seconds under the track record.

D. D. G. M. Horton and staff, of Plainfield, will be here this evening to assist in the installation of officers of Westfield Lodge, No. 169, I. O. O. F. A delegation from Summit will also be present.

Ezra Bloodgood, of this town, was Tuesday evening elected a sergeant of Company C, Second Regiment, N. G. of N. J. E. R. Pearsall was elected corporal.

—The work of the roller is yet needed on Sycamore avenue on the city side which was recently macadamized. It will then be all right for use.

—William Olmstead, for several months in the employ of G. Q. Packer, has accepted a position at F. W. Dunn's grocery store, and goes on duty tomorrow.

—Rev. James R. Bryan, of Somerville, formerly a Plainfield pastor, will lead the union gospel meeting in the rooms of the W. C. T. U. Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

POOH POOHS KISSING BUG.

No More Dangerous Than the Bed Bug, Says Prof. Smith.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, July 12—John B. Smith, the State entomologist, when asked yesterday regarding the bite of the kissing bug being fatal, said that the insect does no more harm than a bed bug. The stories about the kissing bug, he said, were largely the result of a craze similar to that of some time ago, when everybody who was bitten by any kind of an insect attributed it to a spider.

Professor Smith declares in his opinion there is no danger in the kissing bug bite.

CAPITAL'S RUSH INTO CUBA.

Many Capitalists Anxious to Invest Money for Commercial Footholds.

There should be great comfort to the intelligent people of Cuba in the spectacle of the capitalists in rivalry for commercial footholds upon their island. The syndicates are forming to control this, that and the other industry. Vast sums are being raised to exploit plantations and factories to run railroads, conduct various lines of enterprise, develop mines, operate steamer routes, and so on through a course of commercial activity which is certain to regenerate the industries of Cuba and more than restore her former prosperity. The island is unquestionably fertile and productive. Its mineral wealth has never been fully measured. All of its opportunities for culture and productivity have been more or less handicapped by the pressure of Spanish misgovernment and the danger of frequent insurrections. Now the prospect is changed, and the men of wealth are competing in lively fashion for the chance to spend money and to make money in consequence. The latest effort is to secure control of the tobacco factories, along with great areas of tobacco lands. Following the present tendency, the projects in this direction now on foot are of the trust sort, with the main issues between American and English capital. It ought to matter little or nothing to the Cubans in their present plight whether the money which is to restore the industrial prosperity of the island comes from one side of the Atlantic or the other. Americans would naturally prefer to see the bulk of the trade chances controlled—if by others than Cubans—by American capitalists. But from the Cuban point of view the matter is of relatively slight importance. The fact remains that here come men of means and executive ability, used to handling large enterprises, anxious to hire armies of laborers, to build factories and railroads and establish communities in the interior and upon the coast, starting an endless chain of buying and selling and sending coin into the meanest hovels on the islands. With capital in abundance eager for openings, and confident that insular conditions will remain stable under the temporary guardianship of the United States, it will be but a short time before Cuba will bloom as a garden. This result will be the more certain and speedy of accomplishment if by American governmental enterprise the sanitary conditions are improved, the swamps are drained, the cities are cleaned and the pests of yellow fever and smallpox are reduced as well as they may be by the application of common sense, science and a little instructive forcing by the authorities.

A Colossal Umbrella.

Thirty thousand persons are to be sheltered under a single gigantic parasol which is to be exhibited at the Paris Exposition next year by Mme. Percha-Giverne, the inventor and patentee. Her announced object in preparing the great shield is to protect great outdoor gatherings from the scorching rays of the run in torrid weather in the simplest manner possible. The device will also ward off the rain from the exhibition grounds if the inventor's assertions are founded on facts.

She has applied for and obtained the privilege of erecting her colossal umbrella in the grounds, and the managers are eager to find out what will happen to it the first time one of those thirty-mile gales comes whistling down the Seine. In the meantime Mme. Percha-Giverne has probably closed a contract to flash a soap or soup advertisement on the inside of that parasol to the delight and profit of some manufacturer and the everlasting benefit of the assembled multitude.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Only 50 cents and $1.00, every bottle guaranteed.

THE SOLE AIM AND OBJECT

of this sale is to reduce stock. To reduce stock quickly means price reductions, big price reductions. We have made these reductions, made them honestly, made them intelligently, made them with the single purpose of making this sale go down in history as a merchandising event of the utmost importance. We want to throng this store with satisfied buyers during the entire period of the sale. We want our public to feel that this is the supreme selling effort of a most successful season. Printed promises prove nothing. We ask you to fit each item to what we say about it; you will need no further proof of our earnestness in this matter.

A CLEAN UP IN SILKS—No such silk offerings have been made hereabouts for many a long day. Prices cut so clean that you will be sure to quickly secure the bargains.

This Week's Offerings

in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits and Trousers will comprise a remarkable lot of stylish clothing, doubly remarkable because of the low prices we will sell them. Part of the offerings are traceable to our recent extremely favorable purchases, deals in which spot cash and a great need of it by two manufacturers played an important part.

Some of the offerings come from our regular stock that but a few days ago we had an idea of reducing, but the season is advancing, our stock is still heavy, but the only method of reducing stock that we have faith in, is a great reduction of prices.

One Hundred Men's Business Suits made of cassimers, cheviots and worsteds, in plaids, checks and gray mixtures, well lined and trimmed, wholesale price 9.00; for this week.

Men's Black Clay Diagonal Coats and Vests, in sack or frock, soft finish at 4.00; valued at 10 00.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Speyer. Zwei Burschen von Mechtersheim, Namens Weiß und Kauter, fuhren mit einem Nachen über den Rhein. Der Nachen kippte um, Kauter ertrank, Weiß konnte sich an dem Nachen festhalten, der den Rhein hinuntertrieb; gegen 12 Uhr Nachts wurde er bei der hiesigen Schiffsbrücke gerettet.

Frankenthal. Die Strafkammer verurtheilte den Hundehändler und Wirth Georg Britting von Ludwigshafen wegen Beleidigung des Kaisers zu einer Gefängnißstrafe von zwei Monaten.

Kaiserslautern. In der Grube Nordfeld ging ein Sprengschuß verspätet los. Zwei Bergleute wurden sofort getödtet, ein Bergmann lebensgefährlich, zwei leichter verletzt.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Der Verein deutscher Rosenfreunde trat kürzlich hier zu einem Kongreß zusammen und veranstaltete eine große Rosenausstellung in der Liederhalle. Etwa 1200 Sorten mit insgesammt 8000 Rosen waren zur Schau gestellt.

Biberach. Der durch seine naturwissenschaftlichen Forschungen und als Kunstkenner in den weitesten Kreisen bekannte Pfarrer Dr. Probst von Unteressendorf hat seine reichen werthvollen Sammlungen von Versteinerungen und altdeutschen Gemälden und Skulpturen nebst einschlägiger Literatur unserer Stadt zum Geschenk gemacht. Die Gegenstände entstammen hauptsächlich der Gegend zwischen Donau, Iller und Schussen. Dr. Probst war von dem idealen Gedanken geleitet, daß sich seine Schenkung, der in der Folge wohl noch weitere ähnliche Zuwendungen folgen dürften, im Laufe der Zeit zu einem oberschwäbischen Museum für christliche Kunst und Naturwissenschaft entwickeln werde. Die Stadtgemeinde hat den edlen Geber zu ihrem Ehrenbürger ernannt.

Heilbronn. Hier ist die Wittwe des berühmten Naturforschers und Entdeckers der Mechanik der Wärme, Robert v. Mayer, Wilhelmine, geborene Cloß, im Alter von 84 Jahren nach längerem Leiden gestorben.

Mähringen. Pfarrer Rilling von hier wurde neulich Abends in der Nähe von Ulm von unbekannten Burschen überfallen, mißhandelt und seiner Brieftasche mit 300 Mark Inhalt sowie seiner goldenen Uhr beraubt.

Maulbronn. Die württembergischen Waldensergemeinden feiern in diesem Jahre das 200jährige Jubiläum ihrer Gründung. Das Hauptfest soll am 21. September in Schöneberg bei Mühlacker abgehalten werden, wo Henri Arnaud, der einstige Führer der Waldenser, in der Kirche begraben liegt. Es wurden auch schon Jubiläums-Medaillen geprägt. Dem König soll durch eine Deputation eine Dankadresse überreicht werden.

Radolfszell. Der Küfer Huels dahier versetzte seiner Frau, mit der er im Unfrieden lebte, drei Stiche in den Hals, so daß der Tod erfolgte.

Ulm. Die städtischen Kollegien beschlossen die Errichtung einer Alters- und Invaliditäts-Versorgungskasse für die im Dienste der Stadt stehenden Arbeiter. Ein Anspruch auf eine Invalidenrente tritt nach zehnjähriger ununterbrochener Arbeitszeit in städtischen Diensten ein, während die Altersrente nach vollendetem 65. Lebensjahr und wenigstens 20jähriger Dienstzeit gewährt wird. Die Renten bewegen sich je nach den Dienstjahren zwischen 220 und 450 Mark. Irgend welche Beiträge haben die Arbeiter zu dieser Kasse nicht zu leisten; die Renten werden aus einem anzusammelnden Grundkapital geleistet, für dessen Ansammlung alljährlich der städtische Etat einen Betrag vorsieht.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Der Großherzog hat der Frau Catterine Wolfe Bruce in New York die goldene Kunstmedaille verliehen.

Gernsbach. Die hier tagende Hauptversammlung des badischen Schwarzwaldvereins wählte den Professor Neumann-Freiburg einstimmig wieder zum Präsidenten. Als Ort der nächsten Hauptversammlung wurde Säckingen bestimmt.

Heidelberg. Die diesjährige Kirschenernte ist quantitativ gering, qualitativ sehr gut. Das Pfund wurde durchschnittlich mit 30 Pfennigen bezahlt.

Konstanz. Im Hofe des hiesigen Zuchthauses wurde der Doppelmörder Weber hingerichtet.

Mannheim. Ein starker Hagelschlag richtete bedeutenden Schaden in den Gemarkungen Ladenburg und Friedrichsfeld an.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Oberrabbiner Weil ist im Alter von 59 Jahren gestorben.— Dieser Tage hat der Arbeiter in der kaiserlichen Tabaksmanufaktur, Gustav Muttrer, der bereits neun Menschen vom Tode gerettet hat, einem 4½jährigen Knaben Namens Friedrich Wilhelm Bischoff, der in die Ill gefallen war, das Leben gerettet.

Hagenau. Der hiesige Gemeinderath hat das Gesuch des Vorstands des Schulvereins um Kommunalisirung der fünfklassigen, bisher konfessionell gemischten höheren Mädchenschule abgelehnt.

REVIVAL OF THE POKE.

The Old Style Bonnet Is Now the Newest Thing In Millinery.

I think we shall all like the new bonnets and hats. Much ink has been wasted ridiculing them, but then that is how space writers make their living, and women pay very little attention to such things. If anything, it seems to fix them still firmer in their likings. That is woman's nature, and in some instances it is a good thing that it is.

The poke bonnet is here to stay—that is, if it is fastened so firmly to the head that all the breezes of Newport cannot pull it off. The original shape of a poke is a very large round flat, with a high crown, sometimes tipped forward and sometimes in a sugar loaf form. The brim is then bent far down at the sides, cut away in a half moon at the back or with that portion bent back upon the rest. This brings the front up as high above the face as the brim will allow.

The rest is a matter of taste and the milliner's art. Some of them have wreaths of roses all around the wider side of the brim, and others have a crape facing drawn smoothly over the surface, and some are shirred, while others have rows of black velvet milliner folds. It is optional whether the brim shall be left in the natural curve or bent and indented.

The prettiest and richest trimming is plumes in bunches. Flowers are used. So are ribbons and in fact all sorts of things. With all of the poke shapes strings are worn, tied under the chin. These may be narrow velvet or wide taffeta ribbon, whichever proves more becoming.

For "runabouts" there is a very chic little hat called the Newport. It is particularly well adapted to the requirements of that spirited place. The brim is flat and as round as a dollar. The crown is about three inches high and is in bell shape. That gives an opportunity for a very novel trimming—viz, a narrow band of black velvet, with a quill in front curling around the brim, standing upward or outward in sharp defiance of wind, fog or sun. And they have all these in abundance at Newport. A little ribbon bow in front or a great flaring rosette is often added.

A toque for that favored spot, for carriage or for any other very dressy function, aside from a lawn party, is rice straw, turned up all around like a close turban with a low round crown. This has one immense fawn colored quill trained round the crown to the left side, while on the right one there is a large moss green velvet windmill rosette with a fancy jeweled clasp in the center. There is one row of velvet around the crown, partially hidden under the brim.

I may say that while plumes are always elegant, summer and winter, there are places where they are a delusion and a snare and an abject misery, and Newport is one. The damp sea air takes all the fluffiness and curl out of them, and they look draggled, like a wet rooster. I think I heard that some new method has been discovered by which they can resist dampness.

That reminds me to say a word about muslins and all light washable attire. A strong solution of alum water added to the rinsing water will make all cotton and linen goods fireproof. It can be added without injury, and the colors look brighter. The cloth irons even better than without it. I use a pound of alum to four gallons of water, and boil it until it is dissolved. It costs but 10 cents and it is a great satisfaction to know one is fireproof. If curtains were treated in the same way there would be many less fires.

So far there is not much bathing at Newport. Society has not all reached there, and it will still be some days before they settle down for the gay days for which it is so famous. But there are some pretty suits waiting for the proper time to come. They are so scant, however, that they are hardly worth speaking of.

One suit for a young lady whose name is known the wide world over was made in France. It is of deep red and white striped taffeta and is all in one piece. The trousers portion reaches just to the knees, and there is a band of white silk over buckram, which draws them in a little, somewhat like Turkish trousers. Over this is a design of arabesques done in fine black silk soutache. The upper part is in form of a blouse, with a belt and front plait of the white braided to match. There is a white sailor collar wrought in the same way. It opens down, V shaped in front. This is not much to look at without the wearer inside of it, but when she with her red slippers and black silk stockings gets into it the whole thing becomes a dream.

Another pretty suit was of white mohair, with a blouse and short skirt over the trousers, which were not gathered. There was very dark blue narrow ribbon on all the edges and on the sailor collar.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

HOUSEHOLD TALKS

Boudoir Notes and Hints.

Cream face powder is best for brunettes; white and pink are suitable for fair people.

The too frequent use of greasy preparations for the face will produce a growth of down.

Cocoanut oil brushed over the eyebrows will promote their growth and give them a glossy appearance.

An excellent cure for brittle nails is to soak them daily for five minutes in sweet oil warmed to a blood heat.

A valuable lotion for retaining the natural color of the hair is made of four ounces of bay rum and one ounce of sulphur.

Lemon juice applied with a camel's-hair brush night and morning will remove freckles, if they are not too long standing. Lemon juice will also whiten the hands and remove stains.

A Dainty Cabinet.

A unique design for a cabinet for the library or sitting-room is shown in the accompanying illustration. The closet at the top has a drop door, with side chains, which gives added room for the examination of any articles the little closet may contain. The drawers are convenient always and everywhere, while the top and the open shelf in the middle will hold books or ornaments, the top making an especially appropriate place for a handsome lamp. The design is so simple that such a cabinet could easily be made in the home work-shop, barring the curved supports, and these would need only a moderate amount of skill to produce, as they are first sawed on a curve out of a piece of inch and a half stuff, then cut into the form shown with chisels and knife. Such a cabinet made of oak, with the top, shelf and panels of quarter-sawed oak, is especially attractive, though any wood can be used.

A DAINTY CABINET.

Jewish Girls.

In marriage a Jewish girl gains everything. As a wife she holds a position superior to that of most all women on earth, for in the household her word is law and she commands both reverence and respect. The old Jewish law most sternly enjoins that in choosing a wife the characteristics of her family shall be most carefully considered, "for a woman generally resembles her father and a man his maternal uncles." This old law is still obeyed among some of the Jews of Africa and many of the Jews of Asia.

When Man Is a Nuisance.

If there is one thing more than another that annoys careful housekeepers, it is to have a man sit calmly reading his newspaper, or, worse yet, idle, while she is sweeping, says Good Housekeeping. He gets dusty, if nothing worse happens, and then she has to brush his clothes, for that kind of a man would never know he was dusty or think to brush himself. If he is not amenable to reason or coaxing, then one has to invent an excuse to get him out of the room.

Poison for Rats.

By mixing three parts of squills and one of sugar powder a sure poison for rats, mice, etc., may be made. However, it must be spiced with fennel essence sprinkled on the sugar. Keep it in a well-closed vessel, because the powder of squills will ferment in contact with the air. Mix a pinch of this powder with the paste, cheese, butter, flour, meat or grease intended for the vermin. Rats and mice are particularly fond of it. This is harmless to dogs, cats and other domestic animals.

To Destroy Black Beetles.

Fill dishes with sweet beer, and incline a few pieces of wood against them to act as ladders. This makes them tumble in, and they are unable to get out. Another good remedy is to strew the floor with the green peel of a cucumber or rhubarb leaves, smooth side downwards, but the most reliable thing is powdered borax sprinkled on the floor.

Scrubbing Made Easy.

For use in scrubbing floors a new brush has an adjustable plate to be strapped on the foot, the back of the brush having pins which are held by hooks to secure the brush to the plate, making it unnecessary to get down on the hands and knees to clean floors.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS

HAPPY GO LUCKY.

Happy Go Lucky has cheeks rosy red.
Ten times a day he will stand on his head.
Happy Go Lucky is brimful of fun,
Up in the morning as soon as the sun,
Sliding on banisters, all the way down,
Playing at circus and bumping his crown.
When he has shocked all the house with affright,
Off he goes, screaming with roguish delight.
Happy Go Lucky once climbed up a tree
Just to look round and see what he could see.
Crack! went the bough. Such a terrible fall!
Didn't hurt Happy Go Luck at all!
Maybe the fairies, with some potent charm,
Because he's so cheerful, have kept him from harm.
Mother so wishes that he would be still
Only for once, but the rogue never will!
Happy Go Lucky runs out in the streets,
Asks in to dinner each beggar he meets,
Happy Go Lucky—now just think of that!—
Tied granny's spectacles on the poor cat!
When he knows mother is going to scold,
Up he trots gravely, in tears, I am told,
Then he will kiss her and hug her with joy.
Any one got such an out and out boy?

JOHNNIE'S MISTAKE.

Why He Wants to Grow a Big Man Right Away.

The other day Johnnie's mother told him he could go out and play for an hour. As he trotted around the corner three young men, all of whom he knew, hailed him. Johnnie hopped over to where they were, and then saw that an old battered hat lay on the sidewalk.

"Johnnie, can you kick?" asked the first young man.

"C'n I? Well, I guess."

"You can't kick as far as Willie," said the second young man.

"Willie kicked that old hat across the street," declared the third young man.

"I c'n kick it acrost the street 'n over the fence."

"Rats!" chorused all three young men.

Johnnie lost no more time in words. He went at the hat with a run and planted his foot against it with all his strength. The hat flopped over, and a brick which lay under it was moved about a foot. Johnnie fell down with the worst stubbed toe of his lively and always more or less bruised young career. He rose painfully and faced the three young men, who were laughing immoderately.

"He's going to cry like a little baby," said the first young man.

"I wouldn't cry fer such trash as you big stiffs," said Johnnie slowly. Then he turned, and though zigzag lightning was running from his toe clear up his spine he walked away without a limp. Just before passing out of hearing he turned again and shouted:

"I'll get even with you duffers some day."

And that is the reason he wants to grow to be a man in just a month.

He Made a Lawyer.

A young man, anxious to become a lawyer, made application for a position in the office of a barrister, whereupon the following unconventional dialogue ensued.

"Well, young man, and so you'd like to be a lawyer?"

"Yes, sir; I think I would like to be one."

"Where's your gun, my boy? I want to see your gun, my young gentleman. Fond of sporting, eh?"

"I have no gun, sir; don't know whether I'd like gunning."

"No gun? Well, you keep a boat, then? Like boating?"

"I do not own a boat, sir; do not know how to use one."

"You wear a watch, or keep a dog?"

"I am too poor to wear a watch, and I have no dog."

"You'll do, my lad, if you persevere in the course you have begun. The law is a jealous mistress, and cannot be won except by undivided attention. Remember this, my lad, and I will insure your success. You may rely on any assistance I can render you."

The young man entered the office and in time became a famous lawyer.

Root Was Still There.

Two little brothers, aged respectively four and six years old, fell in with a stray kitten, which, suffering by the hands of some cruel person, had of its tail scarcely half an inch remaining. "Poor little kitten," said the younger one. "Who has cut off its tail, I wonder if it will grow again?" To which the elder gravely remarked: "Of course it will! Don't you see the root is there?"

Delights of Growing Up.

Aunt Gertrude—And what will you do when you are a man, Tommy?

Tommy—I'm going to grow a beard.

Aunt Gertrude—Why?

Tommy—Because then I won't have nearly so much face to wash.

Women Of the Peace Conference

The Part They Have Played In the Effort To Rob War of Its Terrors

By JEANETTE DEVOE.

If the hopes and prayers of womankind throughout the world shall be realized and the influence of notable women at The Hague shall be effective, the international peace congress will not have been held in vain.

It is a pretty well established fact that the czar received the inspiration from a woman which led him to issue the rescript requesting the nations to send delegates to a conference looking toward general disarmament and universal peace. That woman was the Baroness Bertha von Suttner, the author of the novel "Lay Down Your Arms."

Just before issuing his famous peace proposal, which then quite startled the nations on account of its unexpected source, the czar had read Baroness von Suttner's book, and it was this that determined him to become the champion of peace. There is one passage in the book, written ten years ago, which in view of the czar's action is prophetic:

"If even we may be nearer to barbarism than most people believe, we are perhaps nearer to our ennoblement than most people hope. The prince or statesman is perhaps already alive who is to bring to perfection the exploit which will live in all future history as the most glorious of all exploits—that which will carry universal disarmament."

Not only was the czar of all the Russias moved by the stirring appeal of Baroness von Suttner's "Lay Down Your Arms," but he has been influenced by the czarina in the direction of greater tolerance in the management of the affairs of his own realm as well as a desire to promote international comity.

Baroness von Suttner has been at The Hague during the peace conference and has been accorded the special privilege of admittance to the gallery during the sessions, which are nominally secret.

Other notable women are there as representatives of various peace societies in the United States and Europe, though the baroness is the leader of the unaccredited feminine delegates who are exerting a good influence on the conference. Her spacious apartments at the Grand Central hotel are their headquarters.

Baroness von Suttner has established a salon at the hotel. As she is a woman of worldwide reputation and of the highest social standing in the capitals of Europe, she has attracted to her temporary home and table many of the most influential and distinguished members of the congess.

Political salons conducted by women have not in the past always proved of benefit to humanity, but there is ground for belief that the baroness' receptions will be productive of much good. By bringing together the diplomatists in a social way she hopes to remove misunderstandings and smooth over differences of opinion. She holds, too, that they need watching, guidance, good advice and general attention from the outside.

Baroness von Suttner has long been devoting her energies in the direction of international arbitration and general disarmament. Nearly 30 years ago she began to attract attention in the line of thought which has since made her famous. She is a native of Vienna and the daughter of Field Marshal Graf Kinsky, a gallant Austrian soldier.

Another prominent woman who is at The Hague working in the interest of peace is Mme. Margareta Lenora Selenka, the wife of a professor at the Munich university. She is, by the way, a colleague of Professor von Stengel, who, though a member of the conference, is said to be hostile to disarmament.

Early in the conference Mme. Selenka presented to Baron de Staal an album containing hundreds of dispatches which she had received from women's mass meetings held simultaneously all over the civilized world, the object of these gatherings being to pass resolutions indorsing the czar's peace programme. Mme. Selenka was engaged about six months in organizing this demonstration, in which she was ably seconded by distinguished women throughout the world.

In this country the movement was conducted by the National Council of Women, under the leadership of Susan B. Anthony and May Wright Sewall. In hundreds of cities in this country mass meetings of women were held, and the propositions for peace and disarmament were strongly indorsed and encouraged.

In England Lady Somerset and Lady Aberdeen have been especially active in securing popular indorsement of the czar's plans, while in France Mme. Camille Flammarion, the wife of the distinguished astronomer, has organized a movement among the women of the people in favor of general disarmament, in which the market women have taken an especial interest.

In Germany Fraulein Anita Augspurg, who is a graduate of the law school of the University of Zurich and at the time of her admission the only woman lawyer in Germany, has been working zealously in the propagation of peace sentiment, her recent speech in Berlin on the conference at The Hague arousing intense interest.

Queen Victoria, Queen Margherita of Italy, the empress of Russia and Queen Wilhelmina, within whose realm the conference is held, have exerted their potential influence in behalf of the peace plans. When the story of the congress at The Hague shall be written, it will be found that the resultant good will in a measure have been due to the influence of women.

THE CARE OF PIANOS.

How to Keep Your Instrument Looking and Sounding Well.

To begin with, pianos are extremely sensitive to heat, cold and dampness. Therefore great care should be taken, as exposure dulls the beautiful polish and deadens the tone. During the night and when not in use it should remain closed.

Tuning once in three or four months, especially if the piano is new, is quite necessary, and great care should be taken in the selection of a tuner.

The top of the piano should be covered with the usual covering, and no photographs, vases, plants or bric-a-brac of any sort should ever occupy the top, as this greatly injures the tone of the instrument. Do not push it close against the wall or allow it to be placed too near a fire, as extreme heat shrivels the wood and affects the sounding board.

The sound is greatly improved by turning the piano so that the player may sit face toward the room, if the room will allow of this, and if the piano is upright the back may be draped with silk to match the other coverings.

In upright pianos the wood inside sometimes becomes too dry. This is remedied by placing upon the lower shelf, inside the piano, a small dish of water after removing the board just over the pedals.

If from too little usage the pedals become stiff, a few drops of sewing machine oil will make them sufficiently pliable.

For a duster use an old piece of soft silk and never wash the keys with water, as it yellows the ivory. The keys require a special amount of dusting and should be wiped off once every day if the piano is in use.

If the keys have become discolored from lack of care or from age, they may be whitened by rubbing with lemon juice and, before dry, putting on a little whiting, wet with the lemon juice, which, when dry, may be brushed off with a soft, clean paint brush, being very careful that the mixture does not lodge between the keys.

If the keys are so extremely discolored as to require a stronger treatment, sulphuric acid and water, equal parts, applied with a brush, and taking care that only the ivory is touched, and removing with cold water and a clean piece of flannel, drying well each key, will tend to whiten. This should be done one key at a time.

Miss Anthony Was Arrested.

Miss Anthony's departure for Europe recalls the fact that during her only previous trip abroad Miss Anthony was arrested in Berlin because she mailed a letter in an envelope having printed on the outside, "No taxation without representation," and it took all the efforts of the United States consul and minister to free her. She does not expect a similar experience this time.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

MY LEAF BOATS.

I like it here beside the brook
When all the leaves are brown.
I sit here on the bank and look
Where they come sailing down.

They're dry and twisted now, you know,
And float upon the stream,
And as I sit and watch them go
Like little boats they seem.

One end is always curled up high
Just like a little sail,
And when a breeze comes whisking by
They scud before the gale.

I watch them sail and sail away
And disappear from sight.
And by and by they'll reach the bay
Where ships are sailing white.

And what will all my vessels think
When they get out to sea?
For some will sail and some will sink,
But none come back to me.

—A. B. P.

DRUMSTICK STRATEGY.

Small Boy Evolves a Plot Worthy of a Statesman.

A little boy dropped his drumstick into a well. In vain he entreated his parents, the gardener, the footman, the coachman, the cook, the housemaid to go down into the well to recover his drumstick. In his distress a brilliant expedient occurred to Master Tommy—he secretly carried off all the plate from the sideboard, and threw it into the well.

Great was the consternation when the plate was missed, and an active search for the robbers took place. In the midst of the alarm and the confusion Master Tommy ran with the news that he had found the plate. "Where?" was the cry. "Down the well," replied Tommy. "I saw it quite plain shining at the bottom—spoons, ladles, bread baskets, salvers, and all."

The housemaid hurried to the well, at the bottom of which, sure enough, the plate was seen. A ladder was procured, a servant descended and the plate was brought up. Just before the last article was fished up Master Tommy whispered to him: "John, please bring up my drumstick when you go down for the soup ladle."

Pelican Versus Duck.

In Kew Gardens, in London, in the presence of a considerable number of spectators, an affair of honor was settled between a pelican and a duck.

The birds had had words together, so to speak, and the pelican determined that the next best thing to making the duck eat his words was to eat the duck. So, after a little thrust and parry on the water, he made for the smaller bird, and snapped it into his pouch.

Then a battle royal began inside the pouch of the pelican. The duck struggled, kicked, quacked and occasionally managed to get a leg or a wing outside, while his captor threw his beak high in the air, then dipped it into the water, and kept it there, as if trying to suffocate or drown its enemy.

At last the duck got his head and one wing out, and then with a magnificent effort, managed to get entirely free. Once again on the water the duck declined further combat and fled, while the pelican remained, looking as if honor were thoroughly satisfied.

Cheap Aquarium Stock.

Some of the rarer Japanese goldfish cost many dollars each, but some small goldfish can be bought for five cents each. This is the lowest price for a goldfish, but there are other small fishes for aquarium uses that can be bought cheaper still. Little catfish, an inch or two in length, can be bought three for five cents. Tiny rockfish, which are hardy and long-lived in captivity, can be bought for the same price, and so can little silverfish. Three little lizards can be bought for five cents.

This small and cheap aquarium stock is bought both for home aquariums and to give life and variety to larger aquariums.

The Young Princes.

When driving out with the nurses, Prince Albert of York occupies the place d'honneur in the barouche, and Princess Victoria of York sits on the head nurse's lap. The prince often wears a white serge suit and white hussar cap with a white busby, and gravely returns the salute of any one who acknowledges the baby couple. The position of "eldest line" is strictly adhered to, even in the nursery arrangements.

Poison Parts of Snakes.

All poisonous serpents have movable fangs, which are found in the upper jaw, and when not in use close up like the blade of a penknife.

At the base of every poison-fang there are numerous germs of others, and the fang, if broken or lost, is replaced in a few weeks by the growth of another.

Mice That Spin Like Tops.

Japan has a breed of mice which are a puzzle to naturalists. At different periods of the day they whirl round and round for hours at a time. If a person should lift a mouse when it is whirling, the animal will resume its whirling the moment it is set down.

She Squeaked.

Little Mary was discovered one day by her mother vigorously applying the oil can to the kitten's mouth. On being reproved, she replied: "Why, mamma, kitty squeaks so awfully when I pull her tail."

A child fresh from its bath in clean dainty clothes is a suggestion of Ivory Soap. All dainty washable things may be restored to their original freshness without injury, by use of Ivory Soap.

A WORD OF WARNING.—There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

GOLF.

The Hillside Tennis and Golf Club house is becoming very popular as a place for dinner parties. Almost every evening the house is visited by a party and dinner is served.

A meeting of the board of governors of the Park Golf Club will be held this evening. There are several applications to be acted upon, and routine business to be transacted.

While no special event is scheduled for Saturday on the links of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club no doubt there will be a large complement of players out and there will probably be a number of private matches.

Among the young men of the city who are rapidly coming to the front in golf is Edgar I. Serrell, of Myrtle avenue. Serrell has only recently joined the Park Golf Club, but he is already a great enthusiast and is making rapid progress in the sport. In past years he has distinguished himself on the bicycle track and in the High School Athletic Association, where he one year won the all-round championship. His athletic training has helped Serrell to rapidly pick up the elementary points of the sport.

AMONG THE STEPPERS.

There will be some good trotting next Saturday on the track of the Gentlemen's Driving Park if the weather is favorable.

CYCLING COMMENT.

A business meeting of the Bicycle Club of the Y. M. C. A. will be held tomorrow evening.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

HAPPENINGS IN A FEW LINES FROM ALL OVER JERSEY.

More or Less Important Happenings and Events in Various Sections Served For a Quick Glance at.

The Naval Reserves of Camden and Haddonfield are making active preparations for their eight days' cruise on the auxiliary cruiser Prairie from July 19th to July 27th.

The Union township committee has passed on first reading an ordinance to construct a sewer in that portion of the township near Roselle station. There will be four rows of pipe, and the cost will be about $15,000.

The finance committee of the Cranford Athletic club have succeeded in raising the necessary funds to relieve the club from a writ of distainer taken out by the landlord for rent due. The matter will in no way affect the baseball team.

A FIREMEN'S PARADE.

Warren Engine Company to Arrange Such an Event.

A regular meeting of the members of Warren Engine Company was held last evening, at which time there was a discussion regarding the new uniforms about to be purchased. The uniform was decided upon. The contract will probably be given out today.

The members also decided to hold a firemen's parade in October next and a committee composed of J. D. Anderson, F. A. Long, L. B. Bodine, George Schlereth and James Daly was appointed to make all arrangements for the parade which will be a grand affair. It is the intention to invite a number of fire companies from various parts of the State and make the parade one long to be remembered.

A WOMAN'S GRATITUDE.

Prompt Payment by Plainfield Council Pleases Mrs. Dayton.

Mrs. Arraetta W. Dayton, widow of John W. Dayton, wishes through the Press to express her gratitude to the members of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, for their promptness through D. W. Littell, the treasurer, in paying to her $3,000, the amount of death benefit due to her husband, who was a prominent member of Plainfield Council. In a letter to the council last night, Mrs. Dayton says: "I cannot express my gratitude; it seems impossible. There are things we feel but cannot express. If you are so prompt and kind to all as you have been to me, your Arcanum is a blessing to womankind."

SISTER OF U. S. SENATOR.

DEATH OF MRS. FRANCIS A. BALDWIN NEAR DUNELLEN.

She Was Highly Connected in the South, Where she Held 1,200 Acres—Lived on Stites Farm With Daughter.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 12—The death of Mrs. Francis A. Baldwin, aged 45 years, occurred Monday evening at her home on the old Stites farm, near the foot of the mountains. Death was caused by heart trouble, with which the deceased was a great sufferer. She lived with a single daughter, and has another daughter living in New York.

The death of Mrs. Baldwin discloses some interesting facts. She was the sister of former Senator Call, of Florida, from which state she came to Dunellen sometime ago. She owned a cotton plantation in Georgia containing 1,200 acres, and intended to trade her southern property for the one she has been occupying. For sometime past lawyers have been arranging the legal matters pertaining to the exchange, and it was expected that it would be effected at an early date. The exchange would have been completed a few weeks ago, but for an error in one of the papers which necessitated considerable work in correcting.

At one time Mrs. Baldwin was very wealthy, but during her latter days she was considered property poor. For a time prior to her coming to the borough she was in a hospital under treatment, and it was thought that she would be benefitted by a change of climate. Arrangements for the funeral are under the direction of Walter G. Bunyon, funeral director.

KNOCKED DOWN A GIRL.

An Italian Resents a Familiarity and Assaults a Young Woman.

Andrew Dominick, an Italian, employed by Charles Hand, was arrested yesterday by Officer Pangborn, charged with assaulting Nellie Steige, a servant girl.

The alleged assault took place at a party held on the night of July 4th at friends house on Grove street.

The girl maintains that in a friendly frolic she knocked off Dominick's hat, when he knocked her down. She fell upon her side and two fingers of her right hand were broken, and she was otherwise injured.

Justice Smalley had an examination of the case last evening and held the accused in $200 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

STARVED HIS HORSE.

The Suffering Animal Was Shot to Put Him Out of Misery.

To put him out of his misery, Officer Wm. N. Pangborn, local agent for the S. P. C. A., this morning shot and killed a horse owned by Wm. Ruckman, of Manning avenue.

It will be remembered that the poor beast fell from exhaustion on Craig place Monday morning. At the suggestion of Officer Pangborn the animal was taken to the Somerset hotel in the borough.

Although notified by the officer to look after the sick horse Ruchman paid no attention to the order. It being evident that the horse would not recover Officer Pangborn decided to kill it. The animal had been literally starved to death.

Steps have already been taken to prosecute Ruckman.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Townsend Rushmore and family, of this city, have gone to Point Breeze Camp, Wolfboro, N. H., where they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Case, of Duer street, left today for Hydeville, Vt., where they will remain for two weeks at the Glenwood.

Mrs. Wilbur J. Chamberlain and daughter, of Brooklyn, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Chamberlain's father, "Uncle" Amos Moffett. Mr. Chamberlain is a member of the New York Sun staff.

There appears to be no hopes of the recovery of Moses D. Brown, of East Fourth street, whose serious illness is well known to the friends of the family, who will have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their affliction.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

SLAVES IN ANCIENT GREECE.

Men of Culture and Education Were Often Found Amongst Them.

The ordinary price for a slave was from $20 to $35. Abundant supply kept the price low. Society was built on slavery. Slaves, or as in Sparata and Crete, serfs attached to the soil, were the farm laborers; in manufactories they took the place of modern machinery; they were a form of investment, being often rented out in gangs, as for work in the mines; large numbers were used, too, for domestic service, seven being an average number for an ordinary house. Corinth is said to have had 460,000 slaves, Aegina 470,000, and a census of the year B. C. showed 400,000 in Attica. These figures have sometimes been doubled, but other known facts go to confirm them. Most of the slaves apparently came from outside Greece, as from Lydia, Syria, Bithynia, Thrace and Illyria, but there were also among them Italians, Egyptians and Jews.

The supply from outside was maintained by the slave traders, who obtained them either in barter or by robbery along the coasts of the Aegean and the Euxine. The slave market was a feature of every city agora, and especially of the temple fairs. Captives in war were, like the rest of the booty, treated as merchandise. They were disposed of chiefly by the professional traders and sold mostly abroad. Thus men of culture and education often appeared in the condition of slaves. Employed as teachers, readers, secretaries, muscians, they often served the purpose of spreading the knowledge of art, manners and life among other peoples, and aided in mixing the so'ls and forwarding the interest of cosmopolitanism.

The Story of Ponce.

Ponce is an old story to-day. In its history is a fairy tale which has the merit of being true. In the years when time went slower a page lounged through the leisures of Ferdinand's court. He was young, impudent and abominably good-looking. A princess smiled and beckoned. That was enough. There and then he was sent to another world, to a better one, to the tropics which Columbus had founded. He landed at Boriquen, assisted with easy gallantry in eliminating the natives, assisted also in gathering the gold which they left.

Meanwhile Boriquen had been christened Porto Rico. Incidently the page had grown old. Whether he regretted his princess is problematic. That he missed his good looks is clear. In an effort to recover them he took a trip. The story of El Dorado had not yet been told. But another story, equally if not more seductive, was current then. It was to the effect that somewhere near by were the fountains of eternal youth. In search of these waters he sailed. The land which he reached was so rich in flowers that he called it Florida. But of the waters not a trace.

And yet, may it not be that the legend of them typified fame. For it was that which he did find. His name was Ponce de Leon, and it was he who founded Ponce.

Too Big a Name for a Recruit.

An army officer has a bit of a story to tell which throws a sidelight on the ways of recruiting officers. In his command during the Cuban campaign was a private who came every day to ask for letters. Joseph Murphy was his name on the roll, but the tang of his tongue did not suggest even remotely the Emerald Isle. Day after day, and no letter came. Murphy's face grew longer, his query more pathetic every time he appeared.

"No letter," said the officer one morning. "No letter for you. There's only one addressed to—let me see—to Giovanni Paladini Castellazzia—or something like that. None for you."

Murphy's face beamed with delight. "That-a-one for me," he said. "My name like that. I go to the recruiting office. I am wanting to fight. Officer says, 'What your name?' I say, 'Giovanni Paladini Castellazzia,' and he say, 'Oh, hellaouse, that no name for you. You not fight with name. You fight with gun. Kill that name trip you up. You be Joseph Murphy.' I be Joseph Murphy now, and that is my letter."

Carefully Considered.

"What," inquired the psychological student, "do you regard as the chief end of man?"

"Well," answered Mr. Blykins, "it depends on what you want the man for. If you want him to do brain work it's his head, and if you want him to run errands it's his feet."

FRANCHISE WANTED BY INVADING COMPANY

Developments in Bound Brook's Telephone War.

APPLICATION TO BE MADE.

N. Y. AND N. J. COMPANY WILL ASK PERMISSION TO ERECT POLES.

As the Advent of That Company Probably Means Death to the Local Company, the Latter Will Fight the Granting of the Franchise at the Next Meeting of the Borough Council.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, July 13.—The power of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company in Bound Brook is growing despite the opposition of the Somerset Telephone Company, a local corporation. The number of 'phones of the outside company in this place has grown from three to nine. Furthermore the New York and New Jersey Company intends to apply for official recognition from the Bound Brook Borough Council.

While the big telephone company is securely established on either side at Somerville and Plainfield, where there are large and flourishing exchanges, Bound Brook has been inclined to stand aloof and consequently had but three instruments. Then came the formation of a local company two years ago and the establishment of an exchange here. The lines of the new company were run to Mt. Bethel and also to Washingtonville with a view of finally stretching on to Newark, and there connecting with a company which is working in opposition there to the New York and New Jersey Company.

The local company answered satisfactorily as long as only local calls were wanted, but any long distance telephoning necesitated a trip to the pay station of the other company. The officials of the big company watched the situation in Bound Brook with interest and prophesied a certain failure for their rivals.

The Somerset Company hasn't failed yet, but the N. Y. and N. J. Company has decided to attempt to enter the town and establish an exchange here. Two weeks ago the Daily Press told of the opening move on the part of big company in running its wires across Main street without asking permission of the Council and securing new subscribers to its service. The local company considered the act as a declaration of war and prepared to fight. The borough officials were also on the lookout for any act that would bring the invading corporation into the light of an offender of borough ordinances.

The stringing of the wires across Main street was permissable as long as no new poles were set. The greater corporation is anxious, however, to reach the whole town. So, at the next meeting of the Borough Council, Charles W. Runyon, Plainfield manager of the company, will present an ordinance to the Conncil. The ordinance provides for the erection of poles on the Bound Brook streets at such points designated by the Council. The telephone people are of the opinion that the ordinance will be granted and the big company allowed to enter the town.

One of the chief inducements that the big company offers is that it can give better service to the town at a cheaper rate than the Somerset Company. The latter concern has been giving its service for $36 a year. The New York and New Jersey Company proposes to give the same service now given in Plainfield, a telephone with a service limited to 500 messages a year for $30.

One of the prominent stockholders of the Somerset Company is alleged to have stated that even at the prosent rate that corporation was not making any money. The big company is not likely to buy the plant of the other concern and should the great corporation establish an exchange here, it will probably compell the Somerset company to go out of business. As it will mean a fight for existance, the home company is likely to fight the passage of the ordinance.

Out-of-Town Visitors.

Mrs. Dr. William Dennchy and Miss Dennchy, Jersey City, Prof. J. D. Morton and Mrs. Morton, Princeton, Mrs. Samuel Colby and daughter, Perth Amboy, Mrs. A. E. Bamberger, Newark, were in town yesterday to have their feet treated by Mr. Brown, Chiropodist, 145 West Second street.

TEA AND HISTORIC LORE.

CHARMING EVENTS BEING HELD AT MOUNTAIN PARK INN.

Given Under the Direction of Mrs. Darling and Participated in By the Guests at Resort on the Mountain.

Life at the Mountain Park Inn these delightful summer days has been very enjoyable. The guests at that hostelry, that occupies such a commanding position on the ridge of the Watchung Mountains, have found much there to please and entertain them. Tuesday afternoon another novel but very satisfactory feature in the social life at the Inn was inaugurated. It was a Colonial Tea, arranged by Mrs. Flora Adams Darling, whose prominence in the various Colonial societies of the country is well known. She was assisted by Miss Brackenridge, of El Paso, Texas.

It was the first of a series of five o'clock teas which will continue Tuesday afternoons throughout the season. On those occasions Mrs. M. Ambrose-Reeves and her guests will receive amid charming surroundings.

Judging from the initial occasion, these social functions in the hotel life will prove very enjoyable affairs. All of the ladies were handsomely gowned. The tea room was artistically decorated with maple-ferns and lilies interwoven with the national colors in a manner that gave a charming effect and lent a Colonial character to the event. Miss Maud Reeves and Miss Angeline Whiton presided at the tea table.

BAPTISTS AT THE PARK

IT REQUIRED SEVENTEEN COACHES TO CARRY THE EXCURSIONISTS.

Children and Their Elders Leave Plainfield for the Sea Shore Where Some of Them Enjoyed a Dip in the Briny Deep.

More than one thousand residents of Plainfield swooped down upon Asbury Park this morning and made themselves at home about the seashore. It was the annual excursion of the First Baptist church and its missions. For two years the Baptists have been treated to showers on the date of their annual outings, much to the disappointment of the children and to the discomfiture of the elders. Even Baptists dislike two much water when it interferes with their pleasures.

Last night's heavy rain cooled and purified the air and when morning dawned there was every indication of a clear day. By 8 o'clock, when the excursion was ready to start, the bright rays of the sun shown forth and all nature seemed to smile upon the excursionists.

As early as 7:30 the excursionists began to arrive at the North Avenue station. Many carried baskets and boxes containing tempting luncheons, which they clung tenaciously to, while the children, dressed in their best bib and tucker, and with faces wreathed in smiles, watched with pleasureable anticipation the gathering of their friends. The colored contingent was a conspicuous factor among the excursionists, and it required no unusual intellect to discover that this race realized that they were welcomed among their Caucasian friends. They were an orderly, well-behaved crowd, and all were neatly dressed. It was to the colored children the one day in all the year that they looked forward to with avidity and in expectation of a sniff of the ocean breezes and a dip in the briny deep.

It was a jolly, good-natured crowd and it required seventeen coaches to haul the excursionists to their destination. The first section was in charge of Conductor Knapp, who had twelve coaches to look after. These were filled to their limit. The second section, in charge of Conductor Brown, was made up of 12 cars also, only five of which were well filled. The empty coaches were cut off at Roselle. At this writing there is every indication of a clear, pleasant day. While the excursion of the First Baptist church was a large one, it was not equal, in point of numbers, to that of the Presbyterians last week.

Pythian Officers Installed.

The installation of officers did not take place at the meeting of Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias, last evening. Acting Deputy Grand Chancellor S. J. Robinson and staff were present but a number of the newly elected officers were absent on account of the storm so the installation was postponed a week when it will surely take place. The newly elected officers are particularly requested to be present. The first rank was worked on one candidate at the meeting last night.

MOTHER LEFT BEHIND.

WHILE HUNTING FOR HER POCKETBOOK THE TRAIN WENT AWAY.

Mrs. Yettmann's Anticipated Pleasure at Asbury Park Today Was Rudely Disturbed By Her Unfortunate Luck.

Mrs. Robert Yettmann lost her pocketbook and incidentally her two children this morning. The pocketbook has been found and returned to its owner, but the children haven't and are probably in Asbury Park now.

Mrs. Yetmann goes to the Mt. Olive Baptist church. This morning she and her two children, aged five and seven years, planned to go with the Sunday-school of that church on its excursion to Asbury Park. They took the Somerset street car to the North Avenue station and there the two children were put aboard the train. Mrs. Yetmann started to follow, but suddenly discovered that her pocketbook was missing. Turning about she started to hunt for it.

The train was not very considerate, and departed with the Yetmann children, leaving the mother behind. She reported her loss to Roundsman Frederickson. He communicated at once with Superintendent Adelmann, of the Street Railway Company, and found that Conductor Hatfield had found the pocketbook on the car and turned it over to the company's office. The pocketbook was returned to its owner with the contents intact.

The children are probably all right, as the officers of the Sunday-school would soon discover the fact that the mother was left behind with the tickets, and will undoubtedly look after them.

DIED SUDDENLY.

Albert Ayres, of New Market, Passed Away Unexpectedly.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Market, July 13.—Albert Ayres, aged sixty years, one of the best known citizens in Piscataway township, died suddenly this morning of heart disease. He had been employed for sometime past by J. G. Burdick, carpenter and builder, who is his son-in-law. Mr. Ayres has lived in this vicinity most of his life, and was well-known and well thought of. Dr. Whitford was called as soon as Mr. Ayres showed signs of illness, but life was extinct. Mr. Ayres is survived by a wife and three children.

FOXES MAKE TROUBLE.

Strange Tales That Come From Oak Tree Agriculturists.

A strange tale comes from Oak Tree concerning the foxes that are said to be troubling the farmers in that vicinity. Abe Drake, of Dark Lane, is said to have been unusually troubled by these foxes which are said to have robbed his corncrib and stolen his young chickens.

According to the tale, Drake secured two of the neighbor's dogs and waited for the nocturnal visitors. Monday night they came and the farmer and dogs pursued them and finally killed one of the foxes.

The Talk of the Town.

It is astonishing how good news will travel. From every ward and street we hear of people talking about the painless and bloodless treatment for corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails, and what a blessing and comfort to sufferers from aching feet. T. J. Lyness, agent for Wheeler & Wilson's sewing machines, 149 West Front street, says: "For a good many years I was almost a cripple from bunions and enlarged great toe joints so sore and painful. I had my feet treated several times by some of the best specialists in New York, but they didn't do me much good. Mr. Brown's method of treating the feet is entirely different from all other foot specialists. When I went to his office, 145 West Second street, my feet were in pretty bad shape. Now I feel like a new man. My feet are as sound as a dollar and my bunions were made small, and what is remarkable the treatment was painless and bloodless." T. F. Browne, machinist at Pond's, home 208 Lee place, says: "Specialist Brown reduced my enlarged great toe joints and bunions to their natural size. I can now wear close-fitting shoes, and walk and work with ease and comfort."

Recovered Through The Press.

During yesterday a valuable fountain pen was lost by Nelson Giles, of East Second street. Later in the day it was found by Mrs. F. O. Herring, of Park avenue. She advertised it in The Daily Press and when the paper appeared on the streets Mr. Giles, who is a faithful reader of it, secured one and saw the advertisement. He called at this office and secured his pen for which he was very thankful.

B. S. Braider, of Manning avenue, has not been able to go to business for several days on account of an attack of chills and fever.

WEDDED AT HOMESTEAD.

POPULAR YOUNG WOMAN OF DUNELLEN BECOMES A BRIDE.

Miss Jennette Douglas Clawson Becomes the Wife of George Wiegand, of Pluckamin—Many Friends Present.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 13—The home of Randolph Clawson was the scene of a very pretty wedding ceremony Wednesday evening, when his eldest daughter, Jennette Douglas, and Geo. Wiegand, of Pluckamin, were united in marriage. Rev. Martin Sindall, pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, performed the ceremony.

The bridemaid was Miss Lillian Suydam, of Franklin Park, and the best man was Walter Clawson, brother of the bride. Alfred Wilson and Ralph Titsworth were the ushers. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's pretty wedding march, rendered on the piano by Miss Lorretto Clawson, sister of the bride. The bridal party took places beneath a handsome, arch formed of evergreens and white flowers in the east corner of the spacious parlor, where the ceremony was performed.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of organdie over white silk, and she carried a bunch of bridal roses. The parlor was handsomely decorated, festoons of evergreens being suspended from the four corners of the room and caught in the centre over a hanging lamp, while the mantle was banked with moss and cut flowers, palms and potted plants being also in profusion.

After the ceremony and congratulations had been offered the happy couple, a sumptuous collation was enjoyed by the guests. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Wiegand left town for a short wedding tour.

The newly wedded couple received many handsome presents, which is a good evidence of the esteem in which they are held.

The bride is an estimable young woman and numbers among her friends the best citizens of Dunellen. For some years she has been a teacher in one of the public schools at Bound Brook, where she is also highly esteemed.

Among the invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Barny, of New York; the Misses Yeatner, Henry Hutchinson and family, Mrs. VanRenneselaer, Miss Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fulton and Robert Fulton, Ed Hutchinson and sister, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harris and the Misses Harris, of Rahway; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Tapsett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. Winn, of Plainfield; Gains Hoffman, of Bound Brook and Miss VanSyckel, Miss VanDoren, Miss Holmes and Miss Bartolette, teachers in the Bound Brook school; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Suydam, of Franklin Park; C. R. Clawson, of Salem College, Salem, West Va., Mrs. C. R. Clawson and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilson, of Spottswood, N. J.

FOR RECREATIVE PURPOSES.

New Country Club to be Located Near Bernardsville.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, July 13.—The Somerset Hills Country Club has filed articles of incorporation with County Clerk Somers, of Somerset county. The club will be located near Bernardsville and will be devoted to social, intellectual and recreative purposes. The trustees for the first year are as follows: George W. Ide, C. L. Blair, Henry R. Kunhardt, George B. Post, of New York; Clarence B. Mitchell, Charles M. Chapin, Julius A. Stanberry, R. V. Lindabury, A. Wright Post, Percy R. Payne, of Bernardsville; Grant B. Schley, of Far Hills; S. T. H. Talmage, of Mendham and Robert L. Stevens, of Hoboken.

THE PRESIDENT INVITED.

Asbury Park Council Also Asks Mr. Hobart to Visit the Resort.

By invitation of the Asbury Park Common Council and the suggestion of Senator Bradley, President McKinley and Vice President Hobart are expected to visit Asbury Park and attend an informal reception at such time as would suit their convenience.

The City Council will be resolved into a committee of the whole to receive the guests, and the Beach Auditorium will be used for the public exercises.

No intimation has yet been received whether President McKinley will accept.

Good Weather Wanted

The annual excursion of Trinity Reformed church and Sunday-school will take place Thursday, August 10th. It is predicted that the weather will be just right for a fine day at Asbury Park, the destination. The excursion will leave the beach at 7 o'clock p. m.

CUT OFF HIS CHILDREN

"GIANT BEN" LEFT HIS MONEY TO AN OLD FRIEND.

Will of a Queer Character of the Sourland Mountains to be Contested by His Four Children—Estate Worth $1,000.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, July 13.—The will of Benjamin Bush, known familiarly as "Giant Ben of the Sourland Mountains," owing to his immense stature and hermit ways, who met a tragic death by being cremated in the old house he lived in in the woods several months ago, is to be contested. "Giant Ben" spent all his life in the Somerset highlands, and succeeded in gathering together property worth about $1,000. This he willed entire to Josephine B. Cruser, wife of Cornelius B. Cruser, of Montgomery township, who did many little favors for the queer old man during his latter days when he lived a hermit-like exisitence. His four children, Martin, of Chicago; Peter, of Princeton; Garret D., of Skillman and Mrs. Mary LaTourette, of North Plainfield, were not mentioned in the will, and they have resolved to contest its provisions. Hon. Alvah A. Clark, of Somerville, represents the appleants and County Prosecutor Nelson R. Dungan will appear for the appellee. Surrogate Spencer will give a hearing to the contest July 28th.

PARIS GREEN WAS FATAL

AMBROSIA MARIENSCHENCK SUCCUMBED TO THE POISON.

He Suffered Intense Agony Until the End Came at 6 o'Clock Last Night—The Entire Family is Prostrated.

Ambrosia Marienschenck, the unfortunate German who swallowed a salution of paris green Tuesday afternoon, while under the influence of liquor, lay in a comatose state all of yesterday until 6 o'clock when he died. Although everything possible was done by Dr. Brakeley to save the foolish man's life the physician was unable to avert a fatal ending.

At times Marienschenck would become partially conscious and then give evidences of enduring great pain. His family who are quite respectable, are nearly destracted over the unfortunate affair.

It is said that this is not the first attempt that Marienschenck has made upon his life. He has had considerable trouble with his family, and when "in his cups" was a perfect demon. Marienschenck's death was a horrible one, and those who witnessed his sufferings will never forget the scene.

MISSING FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

When Italian Lad Returned He Would Not Tell Where He Was.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 13.—The Italian settlement at this place has been in a state of excitement since last Monday, due to the strange disappearance of Mowry Delnero, aged 16 years, son of Nicholas Delerno, who conducts a grocery store on Forest avenue. The young lad owns two teams and was employed on the trolley extension and later took up work at Cranford. On Monday morning the lad's brother went to his room to call him to go to work, and was greatly excited when he learned that the brother was not there. The parents were aroused and from that time until Tuesday night a hunt was made for the missing boy, as it was thought some harm had come to him. All the nearby towns were searched but with no success. The boy left $70 of his earnings behind, and the parents could offer no excuse for his disappearance. Tuesday night the family were again greatly surprised to see the boy walk in the house. He returned as suddenly as he disappeared. When questioned he would give no reason for going away. This did not deter the family from giving their son a royal welcome and Wednesday evening there was a great celebration in honor of the prodigal's return.

TO USE OVERHEAD BRIDGE.

Cross-County Trolley Line Will Go Over the Lehigh Tracks.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, July 13.—It has been decided by the officials of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company to cross the Lehigh Valley Railroad tracks at Picton on their trolley line from Westfield to Rahway by bridge. Civil Engineer Harry C. VanEmburgh, of Plainfield, is now at work drawing plans for the proposed bridge. The trolley will pass through the village of Picton on private property, but according to a statement made by the officicals of the company they will open up a street 80 feet wide and dedicate it to Picton and the bridge will be built to accommodate the whole traveling public, both vehicles and pedestrians.

HEAVY DOWNPOUR OF RAIN LAST EVENING.

Storm Accompanied With Hail, Thunder and Lightning.

THE SEWER WORKED FINE.

FARM BARNS STRUCK AND BURNED NEAR BOUND BROOK.

No Serious Damage Reported in This City, Though the Streets in Some Sections Were Flooded—Park Avenue Not the Miniature River as in Former Storms—Lightning Struck at Scotch Plains.

The most severe electrical and thunder storm of the season was that which visited Plainfield last evening. For more than two hours the rain fell in torrents, deluging the parched earth and giving vegetation a thorough drenching. The lightning was most vivid and the thunder following each flash was terrific in its force. As crash after crash came it seemed as though heaven's artillery was let loose and firing a salute as a welcome to the rain.

The scene was both startling and awe-inspiring. However, the rain did a vast amount of good to Mother Earth and the growing crops which were in great need of moisture. And then, too, the shower cooled the atmosphere and made it a delightful night to sleep.

So far as the streets about town being flooded there was really less trouble than usual. The new sewer in Park avenue worked to perfection and carried off the water in good shape. On Watchung avenue, under the railroad bridge, there was a quantity of water, but the conditions were not as bad as usual. In a short time another catch basin will be installed near the bridge and this it is thought will do away with future trouble. On Richmond street the greatest trouble was experienced. The street was flooded from curb to curb and it was impassable for several hours. New street also came in for a good share of flooding, and plans are under way to remedy this difficulty.

A great quantity of water gathered on Second street between Liberty street and Plainfield avenue, flooding the street to a large extent. The fact that the grade is not just right caused the water to back up toward Plainfield avenue making the street almost impassable. Patsy Christmas is under contract to make the grade right in this locality, and when that is done no further trouble is expected there. Clinton avenue escaped its usual flood as the drainage seemed adequate. The fact that the new Park avenue sewer has been connected with several of the cross streets accounts in a measure for the absence of any great amount of water in the vicinity of Watchung avenue and adjoining streets, and when Park avenue is put to proper grade and the gutters fixed the efficiency of the sewer will be far greater.

An appalling accident occurred last evening at the home of a well-known Park avenue family. The high wind upset a large hennery in which was confined eighteen fine thoroughbred chickens. The little chick being five weeks old were too weak to withstand the wind and flood and they were in consequence drowned.

The force of the storm was felt severely at Elizabeth, where the sewers were choked, streets were flooded and surface traction stopped temporarily. The Postal Telegraph wires were burned out and the operators were driven from the keys.

The large barns belonging to Chris Harleick, a truck farmer living on the road between Springdale and Bound Brook, were destroyed by fire last evening. A bolt of lightning struck the principal structure, setting fire to it and all were destroyed. A bucket brigade formed by the neighbors, saved the house from a similar fate. The loss will reach $1,500, which was partially covered by insurance.

The total rainfall for last evening was 2.23 and in one hour and a half the fall amounted to 2.10. This report is from Sergeant Neagle, who has charge of the weather bureau in this vicinity.

The house occupied by Augustus Frentz, on Westfield avenue, Scotch Plains, was struck last evening by lightning, and the rear porch was damaged to some extent. The chimney on the house was also wrecked and a number of boards torn off by the lightning.

The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company suffered somewhat from last night's storm but none of the damage was of a serious nature. Some fifteen lines were temporarily disabled by the burning out of fuses but it is thought that the cables suf-

THINKS GATES STILL LIVES

A Convict in Missouri Penitentiary Throws Light on Murder Mystery.

IT IS A PECULIAR CASE.

The Man Supposed to Have Been Murdered, Said to be in Mining Business in Arizona.

Sister Kept Alleged Secret Twenty-Eight Years Before Her Conscience Made Her Talk—A Strang Monument Erected by Gates' Brother in a Chicago Cemetery.

Mexico, Mo., July 13.—James Lee, an inmate of the Missouri Penitentiary at Jefferson City, Mo., has written to a newspaper here that Gilbert Gates, brother of John W. Gates, of Chicago, for whose murder twenty-eight years ago Alexander Jester is under arrest, was alive in 1894. The letter in full follows:

"I have noticed the publication in regard to the Jester case, and will kindly ask you if a deposition from me will be given consideration, as I am well acquainted with Gates, and know that he was alive and well in August, 1894, and living in Arizona under the name of George Dorsey. If you will write to Monahan & Murphy, who run a general store in Needles, Cal., they will remember him, for we were mining and prospecting partners, and often bought supplies from them. If I can be of service in the case I will give you all the information I can. Yours truly, JAMES LEE.

Box 47, Convict No. 14,388."

Jester refuses to talk about the convict's letter. He is growing stronger every day and seems confident that he will be cleared of the charges. He still denies that he is the man wanted.

The Gates case is peculiar. Gilbert Gates is supposed to have been murdered twenty-eight years ago by Alexander Jester, with whom he was travelling in a "praire schooner" from southwest Missouri to St. Louis. The object of the murder was supposed to be robbery.

John W. Gates, brother of the alleged victim, is president of the American Steel Company. In a Chicago cemetery he erected a monument to his brother which set forth that the latter had been murdered by a supposed friend.

A sister of Jester a few days ago revealed Jester's whereabouts. She, it was said, was once the sweetheart of Gilbert Gates. She declared that her brother, who for years had been in hiding in Indian Territory, had killed her sweetheart for his money. After concealing her knowledge of the affair for more than a quarter of a century her conscience troubled her and she confessed.

John W. Gates, who was at the Oriental Hotel, Manhattan Beach, N. Y., when Jester was arrested, hurried to Oklahoma and succeeded in having Jester taken to Mexico, Mo.

The territorial authorities charged that Jester was kidnapped but the prisoner declared that he went to Missouri of his own accord.

A few days later a brother of Jester, living in Indiana, published a statement that his "conscience stricken" sister, who had made charges against Alexander, was a wife and mother in Kansas City, when, according to her statement she was awaiting the arrival of Gilbert Gates, her fiance. The Indiana brother expressed confidence in the Oklahoma brother's innocence of the murder of Gates.

The unravelling of the mystery is left to the Missouri courts.

Passenger Train Robbed.

Trinidad, Col., July 13.—Southbound passenger train No. 1 on the Colorado and Southern Railroad was robbed by four men at a point five miles south of Folsom, N. M., the same place at which a passenger train was held up last September. After the train had been brought to a standstill and the crew had been intimidated by guns, the robbers used dynamite with good effect, blowing open the sides of the express car.

Superintendent Webb and the Wells Fargo agent, Glover, both say positively that nothing was obtained by the robbers.

Street Duel Causes Two Deaths.

Crawford, Miss., July 13.—Shields Erwin and F. A. Tarleton shot each other to death here. Bad blood had existed between the men for some months and when they met after the exchange of only a few words they drew their pistols and began firing at each other. Tarleton was almost instantly killed while Erwin lived a few hours.

New Dreyfus Court-Martial.

Rennes, France, July 13.—Maitre Demange, counsel for Capt. Dreyfus, had another long conference with the president of the court-martial, regarding the procedure and the date of the trial, which is not yet fixed. The lawyer afterward had a two-hours' interview with Dreyfus.

The Paris Afloat.

London, July 13.—The situation of the American Line steamship Paris is most favorable. She is afloat, clear of the rocks. Divers are now patching the holes. Her pumps are working successfully and it is expected that she will be towed to Falmouth at high tide if the weather is favorable.

Open After 12 Years.

Bethlehem, Penn., July 13.—The Thomas Iron Company's Hellerton furnace has been put in blast again, giving employment to 150 hands. The company's iron ore mines near Hellerton are being prepared for mining again after being closed twelve years.

Lightning Wrecks Town.

Jamestown, N. Y., July 13.—Lightning caused the destruction of the business portion of Frewsburg, near this city.

FIERCE ELECTRIC STORM.

Considerable Damage Done in New York City and Vicinity.

New York, July 13.—This city, from one end to the other, was caught in a storm of lightning, rain wind and thunder last night, which deluged it with water, brought the mercury tumbling down, and caused much damage in Brooklyn, for which the lightning was responsible. The rain came down in torrents during the storm and in less than two hours, one and one-half inches had fallen, and within twenty minutes there was a drop of fourteen degrees in the temperature. The ferryboat Robert Garrett was struck by lightning but no one was injured. The lightning did considerable damage in different sections of the city, at least 25 buildings being struck.

Geneva, N. Y., July 13.—Lightning struck the sons of a farmer named Sparks half a mile north of Geneva. They stood in the doorway of the barn, and one of them was knocked unconscious. The other two were only slightly stunned.

The crops in this neighborhood were considerably damaged by a heavy hailstorm. Cornfields suffered especially.

Lowville, N. Y., July 13.—Damage amounting to several thousand dollars was caused by lightning here. Two houses and two large barns were struck.

Middletown N. Y., July 13.—A severe electrical storm passed over this city. Several bolts of lightning struck a number of houses, but only one was destroyed.

Attempted Suicide Hastens Wedding

Kingston, N. Y., July 13.—Because of a report that her daughter had been forsaken by a young man to whom the girl was engaged to be married next month, Mrs. Charles Slater, of Rosendale, near here, attempted to drown herself in a creek near her home. She was restrained by persons who happened to be at the stream, and was returned to her home. The fiance of Miss Slater, Levi Keator, was summoned, and after assuring the mother that the report was groundless he sent for the Rev. Mr. Bearker, and in the presence of a few friends of both families the young couple were married.

Insurance Men at Buffalo.

Buffalo, July 13.—Nearly three hundred delegates were present at the opening of the convention of the Life Underwriters. Major Conrad Diehl welcomed the delegates to the city and President Richard E. Cochran, of New York, responded. A new president of the association is to be elected, and as President Cochran is ineligible for reelection, the contest promises to be very warm. Among the candidates are Joseph W. Pressey, of Rochester; I. Layton, Register of Philadelphia; James L. Johnson, of Springfield, Mass.; Henry C. Ayres, of Pittsburg, and Mr. Gage, of Detroit.

Bank Burglar Surprised.

Bay Shore, L. I., July 13.—It was here an attempt was made to rob the South Side Bank. Shephard Rhoades, the night watchman of the bank, heard a peculiar sound in the rear of the bank. When he reached the rear he saw a man leap through one of the windows and run rapidly up Main street toward the railroad depot. Rhoades chased the stranger and fired his revolver in the air several times, but the man succeeded in losing himself in a dense thicket behind the Congregational church, and could not be found. Nothing was stolen from the bank.

Smoked 100 Cigarettes a Day.

New York, July 13.—Marc Sanche, 25 years old, became violently insane, as the result of excessive cigarette smoking, and attempted to jump from a third-story window at his home, 261 Firth avenue. He was finally overpowered by his father, a watchman employed in the building, and Policeman Marvin, and is in Bellevue Hospital. Sanche smoked seventy-five to a hundred cigarettes a day. He left home about two months ago, and was reported to the police as missing. He returned two days later.

Allen May Succeed Reed.

Portland, Me., July 13.—The indications daily become stronger that Amos L. Allen of Alfred will succeed Thomas B. Reed as Congressman from the First Maine district. It seems almost a certainty that the Republican nomination—which means an election—will be tendered to Mr. Allen by acclamation.

Sixteen Deaths From Lockjaw.

New York, July 13.—During the past three days there has been sixteen deaths from lockjaw in this city as a result of wounds received from toy pistols on the Fourth of July. Several cases of the disease are now being treated at the hospitals.

Paris Safe in Falmouth.

Falmouth, July 13.—The steamship Paris, formerly of the American line, has been towed into this harbor and it is said she will be a sea-going vessel again inside of six months.

A Wonderful Shawl.

A wonderful shawl is possessed by the duchess of Northumberland. It once belonged to Charles X of France and was made entirely from the fur of Persian cats. Although the shawl is eight feet square, it is of such fine texture that it can be compressed into an ordinary coffee cup.

Such a Brute.

Wife of His Shirt Bosom—Are these your new collars.

Husband—Yes, dearest.

W. H. S. B. (in a tone of grieved astonishment)—But these are 16's and I wear 14's; and those last neckties you bought didn't match a single gown I've got.

Largest Room.

The largest room in the world is at St. Petersburg. It is 620 feet long by 150 in breath. It has been used for military displays, and a whole battalion can completely manoeuvre in it.

CONVINCING PROOF.

The Average Plainfield Citizen Must Accept the Following Proof.

The great Sir Isaac Newton, one of the most profound reasoners the world ever produced, once cut a large hole in a board fence to allow a favorite cat access to two gardens, and cut a smaller hole to allow her kitten to follow her. The weakness manifested in Sir Isaac's action was due to want of thought. Any Plainfield citizen who mentally debates the proof offered here about Doan's Kidney Pills and arrives at any other conclusion than that stated in this citizen's statement, is as short of reasoning powers as the philosopher when he turned carpenter.

Mr. P. J. Krettling, proprietor of barber shop and cigar store, living at No. 253 West Front street, says:—"I had all kinds of pains in my back and loins for five or six years. Standing all day long at a barber chair aggravated the difficulty very much. If I stooped and remained in that position a short time it was very hard to straighten again and if I attempted to lift anything heavy, twinges caught me in the back. I used different kinds of plasters but they did not relieve me. After reading several statements in my paper about Doan's Kidney Pills curing people similarly afflicted, I made up my mind to try a box and procured them, and after a short time was entirely relieved. Doan's Kidney Pills not only cured the pain but they strengthened my back. My wife was troubled in a similar way and was also cured by Doan's Kidney Pills. We both consider them a good medicine and will gladly recommend them to anyone suffering from symptoms of disordered kidneys."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

SAYS ATTACKS ARE CRUEL.

Secretary Alger Doesn't Like What His Critics Say About Him.

REPORTS ARE ONLY "A R"

Declares That He Shall Not Retire From the President's Official Family This Year.

Conditions of Health and Business Affairs May Induce Him to Retire Some Time in the Future—Ship Brokers Offer to Buy Vessels Captured During Late War.

Washington, July 13.—Secretary Alger has made to a newspaper representative another personal statement concerning the reports that he is about to resign from the Cabinet. When asked as to the truth of the rumors the Secretary said:—

"What do you mean exactly?"

"I mean to ask whether or not the stories that you are to retire from the Cabinet in the near future are true?"

"There is nothing in these reports but air," replied the Secretary. "I shall not retire this year certainly, and cannot say as to the future. My private business and the state of my health will govern my future course.

"These constant assaults and repeated baseless reports are, of course, very annoying to me and extremely distressing to my family, but I have never yet retired under fire and do not propose to do so now.

"Nothing that I have ever heard of or known of has been so cruel as these attacks upon me. If my critics can point to one thing in my official career I have done that I ought not to have done, or I have not done that I should have done, I shall be very glad to surrender my present official duties."

Secretary and Mrs. Alger will leave Washington to-morrow to spent Saturday and Sunday at Long Branch with Vice President Hobart.

The Secretary of the War Department was a guest of the Vice President last summer for a day or two, and was so well pleased with his entertainment by the Vice President, who is his intimate friend, that he will repeat the trip.

Did Spain Want Them?

Washington, July 13.—An offer from a prominent firm of ship brokers, doing a large foreign business, to purchase the Reina Mercedes and any or all the other craft captured during the war, has aroused a suspicion that Spain is trying in this indirect manner to obtain possession of the vessels, and thus remove the offense to Spanish pride caused by the floating of the American flag over her ships. The offer mentioned no figures, but simply requested that the Navy Deparment name its price for the Mercedes and the remainder of the captured Spanish ships. The Navy Department will not sell any of these vessels, and that answer will be returned to the writer of the letter.

Secretary Long has decided that it would not pay to attempt to renovate the Mercedes and use her as a warship. The cost would be not less than half a million dollars, and the ship would, when repaired, be of an old type, and not up to the requirements of a modern naval vessel. Therfore the repairs will be confined to a little painting and cleaning, and the Mercedes will be left as a show ship, like the old Constitution, to gratify the patriotism of the American people.

Major Woodruff Dies of Fever.

Washington, July 13.—The War Department received the following cable despatch from Col. Comba announcing the death in Cuba from yellow fever of Major Thomas M. Woodruff, Adjutant of the 5th Infantry:

Boniato, Cuba.

"Woodruff, Adjutant, 5th Infantry, died of yellow fever 7 p. m. last night. COMBA."

Major Woodruff was a cadet at the United States Military Academy from Sept. 1, 1867, to June 12, 1871, when he was graduated and appointed Second Lieutenant, 5th Infantry. He became First Lieutenant on July 5, 1879, Captain on March 9, 1891; Major and Inspector General of Volunteers on May 12, 1898, which place he held till June 13, 1899. He was brevetted First Lieutenant for gallant service in action against Indians at Bear Paw Mountain, Montana, on Sept. 30, 1877.

Kentucky Republicans.

Lexington, Ky., July 13.—The Republican State Convention was called to order in Chautauqua Auditorium. Judge Vincent Boreing of Laurel county was temporary chairman and K. J. Hampton of Clark county, Secretary of the State Central Committee, secretary. Judge George Denny, Jr., of Fayette county, is slated for permanent chairman. These men are strong supporters of Attorney-General W. S. Taylor, who has enough instructed votes to nominate him for Governor.

Beat Off Negro Assailant.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 13.—Mrs. Mary Sherfield, wife of a planter, was assaulted by a negro while driving in her buggy from Chappel Hill, Marshall county, to Shelbyville. She beat the assailant from her buggy with a whip and by a desperate effort escaped. The man has been arrested in Maury county and will be brought back to Shelbyville and locked up. A lynching is almost certain to follow if the man can be identified.

Child Fired the Barn.

Bucyrus, Ohio, July 13.—John Tortence, aged 4, aroused the family by shouting "I've set the barn on fire." The barn was a total loss, together with all the contents.

Commodore Buys Old Buildings.

Greenwich, Conn., July 13.—Commodore E. C. Benedict is buying all the objectionable houses and stores near his Indian Harbor estate and destroying them.

OFFICERS SUSPECT HER.

A Woman Believed to Have Shot a Revenue Officer.

Atlanta, Ga., July 13.—Deputy Marshal Galloway has returned from the Blue Ridge Mountains. He says a woman, or a man in woman's clothes, went to the house of Earl Fields, in Cherokee County, and reported that there was a dead man in the road. She said she had been talking to the man and while doing so he was shot twice from ambush.

Fields found H. C. Lowry's body, as described by the woman. They returned to the house and found the woman had departed. She is suspected of the crime. Lowry was a Government revenue informer. It is believed that he was lured from his home and at a convenient spot shot down by a waiting moonshiner for revenge.

Dewey at Suez.

Suez, Egypt, July 13.—Admiral Dewey's flagship, the cruiser Olympia, has arrived here. She is from Colombo, Ceylon, which port she sailed from on June 28.

The Olympia has been quarantined, no communication with the shore being allowed. Consequently the Admiral was talked to from a launch alongside the cruiser.

Admiral Dewey said he was in very good health. He appeared to be in excellent condition, which was also the case with the officers and men. Most of them have suffered from malarial fever, but have now quite recovered.

After passing through the canal the Olympia will call at Trieste. Thereafter the Admiral's plans are uncertain. Possibly he will go to Gibraltar and thence to New York.

Horse Against Catamaran.

Averne, L. I., July 13.—An ocean race between a horse owned by George H. Cornish and Life-Saver Harry C. Miner was witnessed off this place. Cornish's coachman wanted to give the animal a plunge in the surf, but the horse refused to venture in. Life-Saver Miner got on his back to ride him in. Finally the horse made a vicious plunge into the surf, unseating Miner, and struck boldly oceanward. The horse kept going seaward until those on the shore became alarmed, when Miner set off in his catamaran, and after a lively chase overtook the animal a long distance from shore, and succeeded in turning him shoreward. When the horse reached land he shook himself and appeared to have enjoyed his long swim.

Mr. Astor Objects.

New York, July 13.—William Waldorf Astor, of London, has through his counsel, Charles A. Peabody, obtained from Justice Stover, in the Supreme Court, a writ of certiorari directing the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to review their decision in assessing his personal property here at $2,000,000. The writ is returnable on the first Monday in October. Mr. Astor says that he testified before the Tax Commissioners that he did not own the property assessed. He protests that he is a resident of Great Britain and that so informed the Commissioners; that the assessment is unjust and wrongful, and he asks the Supreme Court to direct that it be rescinded.

Mother Drowns Herself and Child.

Putnam, Conn., July 13.—Mrs. C. Talbot, twenty-eight years old, wife of a well known business man of this place, drowned herself and her two-year-old boy in the Quinebaug River. She left the house with her child some time after midnight. Their absence was not discovered until four hours later when a note, which had been left by Mrs. Talbot, was found. About two months ago an infant child of hers died and since then the young mother has grieved greatly. It is believed that she was temporaily insane.

President's Trip Postponed.

Washington, July 13.—The President has decided to postpone his trip to St. Paul until October if Mrs. McKiniley's health will 'not permit him to go earlier. He does not desire to go without her. In October he has made a positive engagement to attend the Chicago celebration, and if his St. Paul trip is postponed until that time he will extend his journey from Chicago to the Twin Cities.

Heroine Fell Dead on the Beach.

Boston, July 13.—Mary B. Kemper, sixteen years old, of Butte, Montana, is dead, as the result of her successful efforts to save a little sister from drowning. The little one became panic stricken while Mary was teaching her to swim at Nantasket Beach. Mary got the child ashore after a hard struggle, then fell dead. The doctors say her heart was weak.

May Use the Queensland Troops.

London, July 13.—The Government has expressed its appreciation of the offer of the Queensland Government to furnish a force of 250 mounted infantry with officers and a machine gun in the event of hostilities in the Transvaal, and intimated that if it should become necessary the offer would gladly be accepted.

Assistant Secretary Allen at Boston.

Boston, July 13.—Fifteen guns booming out from the Navy Yard battery welcomed Assistant Secretary Allen of the Nevy Department and the United States despatch boat Dolphin, which brought him here from Newport News. The object of his visit is the annual inspection of the yard.

More Anti-Tax Riots in Spain.

Madrid, July 13.—The state of siege which was recently declared at Valencia in consequence of the anti-tax riots has been raised. Reenforcements of gendarmes have been sent to Igualada, near Barcelona, where riots have occurred against the payment of octroi dues.

An Oswego Boy Dies of Lockjaw.

Oswego, N. Y., July 13.—James McGinn, thirteen years old, has died of lockjaw here as the result of a wound inflicted by a toy pistol July 4.

Budget Debate in Madrid.

Madrid, July 13.—The budget debate began in the Chamber of Deputies on the consideration of the unification of the public debts.

The matron of a well known Masonic Home mentions one inmate, seventy years of age, who has been in the infirmary for three years, a great sufferer from indigestion, and has been taking Ripans Tabules about a year and a half and finds them so beneficial that he is never without them. He is willing that his name should be used in a testimonial, as it might be of use in persuading some other person to try them. A second old gentleman, in the same institution, eighty-four years of age, has had liver trouble for many years and finds that R·I·P·A·N·S help him very much. They also have two nurses there, one thirty years of age, the other forty-two; both suffer from indigestion, causing headache, depression of spirits and nervousness. They take the Tabules and find them so useful that they always have a package in their pockets. The matron also states that she is forty-five years of age and at times suffers with indigestion, causing pain and paroxysms of belching, and finds that the Tabules are very good indeed and is perfectly willing to have her name used in a testimonial.

WANTED:—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R·I·P·A·N·S on the package and accept no substitute. R·I·P·A·N·S, 10 for 5 cents, or twelve packets for 48 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. Making People Happy.
Pain of any kind causes a strain upon the nervous system, and if prolonged and unchecked will create depression of spirits and despondency.
Aching feet are vexatious, aggravating and irritating, and nothing is more annoying than feet deformed and distorted from corns and bunions. Mr. Brown's painless method for the treatment and cure of corns, bunions, ingrowing and club toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty, chafed and burning feet, is endorsed by all eminent physicians. He has made diseases of the feet a life study. Corns, bunions and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago in Plainfield have not come back and the feet today are sound and well. Read the proof:
D. S. Scheuer, grocer, Front St; H. A. Weber, grocer, Liberty and Second streets; S. Sharkey, grocer, Third and Richmond streets; G. Voehl, bakery, 127 Front street; F. R. Vanderhoof, at F. Endress' meat market, Front street, and many others had corns, bunions, and ingrowing toe nails cured by Mr. Brown ten years ago; no trouble since. Albert Runyon, 41 Mountain avenue; J. Q. Miles, J. P., 28 Somerset street; F. Cullen, and Mrs. Cullen, 1001 Second street; Mrs. M. C. Terry, 331 East Third street; J. D. Smalley, meat market, 153 Front street; H. L. Overbaugh, 118 Elmwood place; W. W. Warnock, bakery, 138 North avenue; J. J. Stites, blacksmith, Dunellen; and hundreds of others say that Mr. Brown completely cured their bunions, ingrowing toe nails, enlarged great toe joints, sweaty and tender feet, etc. They all say the treatment was painless; no soreness after.

THERE MAY BE TROUBLE.

150 Witnesses Will Testify Against Captain Dreyfus.

Paris, July 13.—The Dreyfus court-martial will meet in the audience chamber of the Prefect of the Department of Ille-et-Vilaine at Rennes, in order to insure the utmost secrecy. The medical officers have examined the chamber, and declare that its sanitary condition is perfect. The trial will occupy thirty sessions of the court. The prosecution will summon 150 witnesses.

Sebastian Faure and other Anarchists are expected to be in Rennes at the time of the trial, and it is likely that there will be trouble.

M. Quesnay de Beaurepaire has addressed to the authorities a request to be heard at the court-martial of Dreyfus at Rennes. He promises to reveal a collection of facts and inferences connected with the affair, together with new facts which must affect the case.

The Fonde says that ex-Major Du Paty de Clam will be tried in the civil court, and that his wife will also be prosecuted as an accomplice, she having forged the letter of which her husband made use.

Honors For Depew.

New York, July 13.—United States Senator Chauncey M. Depew, who recently returned from Europe, was the guest of honor at a welcome-home reception at the Republican Club, No.

HON. CHAUNCEY DEPEW.

450 Fifth avenue. The Senator is president of the Republican Club, which lent additional interest to the jubilation. There was a general handshaking and exchange of felicitations, clever speech-making, and enjoyable music followed with an elaborate banquet.

Yields Oil Instead of Water.

Flemingsburg, Ky., July 13.—The town well, which has supplied citizens with water for the past 80 years has began filling with crude oil. Barrels of oil have been pumped out and carried away and the supply seems to be inexhaustable. The town is wild with the oil fever, and a movement is on foot to organize a company to develop the well. The town is brilliantly lighted nights by the flames from oil poured in the streets and gutters. No signs of oil in this vicinity have ever been observed before, and the superstitious ones are inclined to look upon the wonderful phenomena as "uncanny." Business men, however, are jubilant.

Granted Her a Divorce.

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 13.—A sensation of no small magnitude was sprung on Fort Wayne society, when Mrs. Nellie Fee appeared before Judge Hench in the Superior Court and asked for a divorce from her husband, Frank F. Fee. Mr. Fee is a wealthy lumber merchant, who does an extensive foreign business. Mrs. Fee alleged cruel and inhuman treatment, and her evidence was such that the Judge granted the decree at once. The couple have been married 15 years and have four children. They are very wealthy and society leaders.

$75,000 For Jeffries and Sharkey.

Chicago, July 13.—A syndicate of Chicago sporting men is preparing to offer $75,000 for the Jeffries-Sharkey fight, and if the boxers and police are willing the bout will be brought off in a mammoth roofless arena to be erected on the South Side. The promoters will deposit a check for $10,000 as an evidence of good faith as soon as they are reasonably sure that the Californians will be permitted to fight in Chicago.

Fell Under a Car.

Port Jervis, July 13.—Luther Pierson, aged 18 years, son of Nathaniel Pierson of Sparta, N. J., died in the hospital here from injuries received at Mast Hope, Pa. He had been visiting his uncle at that place, and in attempting to board the way freight to return home, he slipped and fell under the cars.

Transports Will Carry Cannon.

Washington, July 13.—Guns are fitting up here to be placed on the Philippine transports. Two six-pounders will guard each boat hereafter, as the Filipinos have threatened to send a rapid fire gun to meet the next shipload of American volunteers.

Swami Bhaskarananda Dead.

Calcutta, July 13.—The widely-known Hindu celebrity, Swami Bhaskarananda of Benares, is dead. He was a saintly ascetic, who kept himself naked and self-immured, and was visited by all tourists of India, including the Prince of Wales.

Voorhees Appoints McLean.

Trenton, July 13.—Alexander McLean, a newspaper man of Jersey City, has been appointed by Gov. Voorhees as Sheriff of Hudson county to fill the unexpired term of William Heller, deceased.

The Defender at Bristol.

Bristol, R. I., July 13.—The Defender has arrived here and will remain until her steel boom is repaired. The Columbia's steel mast will be ready in about ten days.

Killed by Wire Hid in Garbage.

Chicago, July 13.—Paul de Poul, a garbage picker, is dead, because buried in a heap of garbage was a live wire. He picked this out with his steel hook and the shock killed him.

ON MISSION TO THE SULUS

General Bates Sent to Seek an Understanding With the Sulus.

NEGOTIATIONS IN CAVITE

Anti-Expansionists Said to Have Succeeded in Raising False Hopes Among the Filipinos.

General Bates Goes in the Capacity of Agent of the United States Government—Evidences of Strife Reported to Exist in the Ranks of Aguinaldo's Followers.

Manila July 13.—Gen. Bates, in the capacity of agent of the United States Government, has sailed for Jolo to negotiate with the Sultan of Jolo a basis of the future relations of the Jolo [or Sulu] Archipelago, including the Basilans as a naval station. The Sultan assumes that the Jolos reverted to him, the evacuation of the Spaniards nullifying the treaty of 1878.

Gen. Bates will explain to the Sultan that the Americans succeeded the Spaniards in the treaty, assumnig its obligations and continuing the annuities it provides for. He will also present to the Sultan $10,000 in Mexican money as an evidence of good will. The local administration of the Jolos will remain unchanged. The Sultan will enforce the law, and will also be expected to fly the American flag continuously and cooperate with the Americans to maintain order and suppress piracy. The Sultan will retain possession of the pearl fishing and the island trade, which will be conducted in such a way as to forward the development of the resources of the islands for the mutual benefit of the Americans and the natives.

The American newspapers received here by the last mail seem to think that the insurrection here will soon be over, without considering the difficulties of the situation. Experience shows that during the rains operations will be much restricted, and possibly suspended entirely. The recent cyclone kept everything at a standstill for a week. The Americans are now exchanging the veteran volunteer regiments for so-called regulars, who are really 80 per cent. recruits. The opinion is general here that it will require a comparatively large force to reestablish peace, because it will be necessary to garrison many places in order to protect the peaceful natives from the Filipinos. Gen. Otis, however, still believes that 30,000 effective troops will be sufficient.

The negotiations, which have been proceeding for some time in the Cavite province, offer a fair prospect of success. Aguinaldo knows what is going on, and unless he is able to prevent a consummation of the negotiations the insurrection will receive the hardest blow it has yet had. Gen. Otis is hopeful of their success.

The action of the anti-expansionists in America are responsible for much encouragement to the natives. The doings of these persons are fully reported to the Filipinos, who are ignorant of their real want of importance and count largely upon such support. The native newspapers are full of the story that now that the fall elections will choose a new Congress, the sure result will be the overthrow of the Administration and the return of a government of independence. It is doubtful if half a dozen Filipinos understand the meaning of independence. Most of them think it means that the Americans will back an unlimited game and let the Filipinos play as much as they please. The best men among them are unable to comprehend a real Republican government.

Reports from the north vary concerning the Filipino situation. The Spanish Commissioners who were sent to Tarlac to negotiate for the release of the Spanish prisoners at first reported that the natives were keeping well together and were strong and satisfied.

Privately, however, the Commissioners are saying that they saw evidences of considerable strife in the Filipino camp and admit that there is actually a great deal of dissension.

The typhoon has ended and commerce has been resumed.

Lieut. Reeves of the 17th Infantry was attacked and wounded by two bolo men at an outpost near San Fernando.

Girl Murdered in a Field.

Dallas, Tex., July 13.—News has reached here of the assault upon and murder of a white girl near Woeldery, Goliad county. The girl, in company with a negro, was working in a corn field. Neither of them appeared at the dinner hour, and search was made, which resulted in the crime being discovered. The young woman's throat was cut, and where the body lay the ground showed evidence of a struggle. The negro is still at large, but is being pursued by citizens of De Witt, Victoria and Goliad counties.

Volunteers Rapidly Enlisting.

Chicago, July 13.—Incomplete reports from the sixteen recruiting stations in Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin that are charged with enlisting the 1,309 men who are to comprise he Thirteenth Regiment, United States Infantry Volunteers, now mobilizing at Fort Sheridan, indicate about 100 enlistments for the first day. Detroit takes the lead, with seventeen men. If the average of the first day of enlistment is maintained, the quota of these States will be filled in less than two weeks

Centennial of Monroe County.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 13.—Monroe county will celebrate its centennial anniversary next month. The county was formed 100 years ago as a part of the State of Virginia. Indians then roamed through the region between the Alleghany Mountains and the Pacific Ocean, and Spain exercised sovereignty over the vast region beyond the Mississippi. The centennial, in which Virginia will join, will be celebrated at Union, the county seat, on August 10.

Profits in the Telephone.

With a revenue derived from a limited local service only the Elizabeth Telephone Company, a rival of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, has been able to earn nearly $3,000 clear profit during the last year on a plant that cost $38,000 to establish. These figures are instructive as showing the probable falsity of the claims that the representatives of the big telephone companies made at Trenton last winter when Assemblyman's Murray's bill to reduce the telephone rates, was under consideration. At that time it was claimed that the telephone companies that had a practical monopoly of the business in most towns, and complete control of the long distance service, were not making more than reasonable profits.

Except in such towns as they encounter slight competition, the rates that they receive are very much greater than the Elizabeth concern charges. Their cost of equipment and operation is certainly not any more in proportion, and in many other details the expenses are less. It would seem, therefore, that if the Elizabeth local company can earn a profit of $3,000 a year on an investment of $38,000, then the bigger companies, with immeasurably great revenues and advantages, can earn much more.

This being the case, as undoubtedly it is, the telephone companies that have a monopoly of the business except here and there, and then only in local service, are not such subjects for beneficient action as they and their lobbyists would have us believe.

THE KENTUCKY AND KEARSARGE.

The twin battleships Kentucky and Kearsarge, which will soon have builders' trial trips, have each a displacement of 11,525 tons and each will cost $3,150,000. Both vessels are 368 feet in length, 72 feet 5 inches beam and 23 feet 6 inches draft. When finished they will be the most powerful ships in the navy.

It is observed by the Philadelphia Record that usually at this period of the season the exodus from these shores to Europe begins to decline. This year, however, the reverse is the case, the reports from the steamship companies' offices showing that the bookings still continue to be heavy. The Record thinks that the desire to visit foreign countries has unquestionably become more general, and the return of prosperity throughout the country has rendered the realization of this wish a matter of no great difficulty to thousands of people who a few years ago would have considered a brief sojourn in London, Paris or Vienna an enjoyment far beyond their means. But it is really a great matter that so many Americans may now enjoy this privilege, which opens up a mine of solid information that even the best books on travel cannot furnish.

The Chicago Times-Herald sees the dawn of universal peace brought nearer by the recent performance of a six-pounder rapid fire gun, which fired 60 shots a minute. "The work of increasing the destructive capabilities of the modern rapid fire gun," it says, "is justified on the score that if we must have war it should be as brief as possible. Let the action be short, sharp and decisive. The perfection of these weapons by mechanical skill is also defended on the ground that the more terrible their possibilities of slaughter the more certain are they to invite universal peace."

Henry Watterson believes that the best way to deal with the Baker-Howard vendetta in his own State is to withdraw the soldiers and let the two families fight it out until they shall have exterminated each other. He says: "When you consider the spectacle of a mother swearing her seven sons to revenge, and consecrating her unborn child to the same dire purpose, the bitterness and tenacity of Kentucky feuds cannot be wondered at."

The Common Council of Rahway has made up the annual appropriation budget for that city, which makes a total of $61,000, but this includes the interest on an adjustment of school bonds to the amount of $24,800. The tax rate is figured as being the same as last year—$2.79 on the $100. Without one-half the improvements that Plainfield possesses it will be seen that the tax rate there is considerably higher than in Plainfield.

At one time in Cleveland's second administration the gold reserve was down to $41,000,000. That was $194,000,000 less than what it is now.

The wheat crop of the world this year is estimated at 2,504,000,000 bushels. Last year's was 2,748,000,000 bushels.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

A man dropped dead from heart disease in Plainfield yesterday, and the physicians decided that his death was the result of excessive bicycle riding. The bicycle is undoubtedly one of the greatest health restorers and maintainers known when moderately and intelligently used. It belongs in the same class as a buzzsaw, though, when it's fooled with.—New York Herald.

* * * * * *

The time honored notion that Middlesex county farmers are easy meat for bunco steeres is being disproved daily. The latest farmer to disappoint the slick bunco men is Samuel Manning, of Piscataway township. Anybody would think that a man living in a place with a name like Piscataway would bet his dust on any kind of a game, but when the good old trick of the man with a game of cards was tried, why Mr. Manning passed. Farmers read the newspapers nowadays, and the bunco man has to go a good bit farther than Middlesex away from New York to find jays.—New Brunswicd times.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The elm-beetle is five weeks late this year. That accounts for the flourishing appearance of the elm trees in this city this summer. He usually appears in May and comes to maturity at the end of June. This year he was delayed, probably by the unusually cold weather of the spring. It is now about time for the larva to crawl from the leaves of the elm-trees to the bark and take on the pupa State, from which they will shortly emerge as beetles. If, during the ten days in which the insect remains in the pupa condition, the trunks of the elm trees be hosed or brushed off with a wire brush, the destructive beetles can be destroyed so effectually as to save the elms for next year.

A LADY from N. Y. CITY

who is spending the Summer at Bound Brook, called on us yesterday, and after making sundry purchases, said she was greatly surprised to find so extensive an establishment in a city the size of Plainfield, and expressed great pleasure at being waited on so promptly, and professed to be greatly pleased at our manner of displaying goods. Commenting on the extensive display of Ladies' Shirt Waists, she wondered if we were warranted in carrying so large an assortment. When told by the salesman who waited on her, that we displayed 4 times as many at the beginning of the season she was simply amazed. Had she been told the prices at which we are closing out, she probably would have had an attack of nervous prostration.

We claim to have the best assortment of fine waists ever shown in this city. They are selling at deeply cut prices to close. We don't propose to carry over a single waist. If interested in securing fine garments at low prices now is the opportunity.

Bear in Mind the Fact that the prices on all Summer Goods, such as Shirt Waists, Wash Fabrics, Crash Skirts, Crash Suits, Pique Skirts, Duck Skirts, Etc., Etc., have been mercilessly cut and are selling freely. Wise persons will make early selections while sizes are complete.

Enthusiastic Ladies simply go in raptures over our White Lawn Dressing Sacks. We quite enjoy their ejaculations of delight upon first seeing the dainty garments. Most skillfully designed, exquisitely finished, they appeal very strongly to Ladies of refined taste.

Miscellaneous Vanities.

Fancy Shirred Chiffon in black, white and colors, Fancy Shirred Tucking and Puffing for Dress Fronts, Dainty Valenciennes Laces and Insertings, Rich Black Silk Laces and Insertings, Imported Shell Pompadour Combs, Side Combs, Twist Combs, and the Combs for supporting the back hair, Beautiful Waist Sets, Collar Clasp, Belt Buckles, and a remarkably attractive line of Ladies' Fine Belts.

Trunks and Traveling Bags.

When we say we have the best Trunks and Bags—we know we are right and we are bound to stick to it.

Examine our assortment of these goods, and then tell us if you ever saw stronger-looking; better-lined, finer-finished goods anywhere.

A good trunk is a most desirable companion when journeying.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, July 13 — The Misses Mary and Lizzie Martine have returned from a two weeks' visit to Fresh Pond.

The funeral of Mrs. Francis A. Baldwin, a sister of former State Senator Call, whose death was noticed in yesterday's Press, was held from the house Tuesday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. A. S. Martine, of the Methodist church. The pallbearers were David Randolph, Paul Voorhees, William Stites and John Doty. The interment was in the cemetery at Samptown. Undertaker Runyon had charge of the funeral.

National Representative LaRue, of Bound Brook, was present and installed the newly-elected officers of William G. Holton Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, Tuesday evening. Representative LaRue made an address in which he gave an interesting account of the National convention recently held at Indianapolis.

Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, of Westfield, has returned home after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bodine.

The Misses Lizzie and Mary Martine have been entertaining their friend, Miss Smock, of Fresh Pond.

Mrs. A. N. Randolph has been visiting her uncle, Manning Randolph, at Piscataway.

Mrs. O. A. Douglass is visiting relatives and friends in Staten Island.

T. G. Smith has gone to California on business and pleasure.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, July 13.—During the heavy shower of last evening lightning struck along the line of the electric light circuit. The electric fluid traveled along the wire until it reached Meyers corner when it went off into the air with a loud snap which scared a number of the boys who had taken shelter under the store stoop. No damage more than a bad scare was accomplished.

The cages, or jails, for the town lockup have arrived and Contractor French is pushing the work of getting them ready for occupancy. They have been placed in the Bucket and Engine Company rooms and will be ready for lodgers by tonight. Who will be the first?

The Town Committee held another meeting in the town rooms Wednesday evening. Business relating to the revision of the assessor's report was transacted.

There will be a dance at Emery's pavilion this evening. Five dollars in gold has been offered as a prize to the best waltzers on the floor.

Mrs. E. L. Hand, Mrs. Geo. Schick and Miss Janet Cody formed a trolley party and spent Wednesday with some friends in New Brunswick.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pangborn, who have been living in Jersey City for several months, have taken up their residence in town again.

Miss Lillia Hayes entertained her Sunday-school class with a trolley ride and picnic near Mountainside Inn, Wednesday.

The Borough Council held a meeting in the borough rooms Tuesday night. Routine business was transacted.

Ferdinand Meyers has taken a position with the Pond Tool Company in Plainfield.

Miss Anna Molloy, of Glenside Park, has been visiting friends in the village.

Miss Nancy Wade is spending a week with relatives at Lyons Farms.

Miss Minnie Hosinger is enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

The Sole Aim And Object

of this sale is to reduce stock. To reduce stock quickly means price reductions, big price reductions. We have made these reductions, made them honestly, made them intelligently, made them with the single purpose of making this sale go down in history as a merchandising event of the utmost importance. We want to throng this store with satisfied buyers during the entire period of the sale. We want our public to feel that this is the supreme selling effort of a most successful season. Printed promises prove nothing. We ask you to fit each item to what we say about it; you will need no further proof of our earnestness in this matter.

A Clean Up in Silks.

No such silk offerings have been made hereabouts for many a long day. Prices cut so clean that you will be sure to quickly secure the bargains.

25c—Figured wash silks in good styles and patterns, reduced from 39c.
33c—Printed Liberty satins, reduced from 39c.
39c—Printed India silks, 33 inches wide, black and navy blue grounds, with neat white printing, reduced from 50c.

Wool and Cotton Dress Goods.

In no section of the store will the price reductions be more marked. It matters not how staple the lines may be, they will without reserve be sacrificed. A grand time to supply your dress goods needs at little cost.

29c—Black all wool henriettas, 45 in wide, reduced from 45c
25c—Black wool grenadines, 38 in wide, reduced from 39c.
12½c—Satin stripe, wool challies, reduced from 25c.

6c—Printed Scotch dimity, reduced from 9c.
5c—Printed pique in a great variety of new patterns, reduced from 9c.

Silk Waists, Outing Skirts.

Rather have the money than the goods. You would rather have the goods at these prices. It's right in the very heart of the wearing season. You'll choose with satisfaction, but you must choose quickly.

25c—Percale waists in a variety of patterns, reduced from 50c
75c—Percale and Madras waists, all choice new shapes and patterns, reduced from 1.00.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Der hiesige tschechische Gesangverein wollte in einem großen Restaurationssaale im Währinger Cottagevierteil Abends eine Liedertafel abhalten. Deutsche Studenten verhinderten es aber, indem sie, etwa 500 Mann stark, schon Nachmittags den Saal besetzten, die tschechischen Sänger und Gäste nicht einließen und auch auf Aufforderung der Polizei nicht vom Platze wichen. Sie duldeten nur, daß vom Podium durch einen Polizeikommissär angezeigt wurde, die Liedertafel könne nicht stattfinden.—Der in weiteren Kreisen bekannte Oberkantor des Leopoldstätter Tempels, Josef Goldstein, ist in Folge Herzschlags plötzlich gestorben.

Auspitz. Die Gastwirthin Anna Heiger wurde in ihrem Schankzimmer erstochen aufgefunden. Der Mörder ist bisher unbekannt.

Budyn. Die Bürgerliche Vorschußkasse dahier ist schwer bedroht. Man spricht von einem Defizit von 300,000 Gulden. Der Buchhalter und Bureaudiener sind verhaftet. Eine Sanirungsaktion ist eingeleitet.

Esseg. Zur Nachtzeit brach im hiesigen Landesspital ein großer Brand aus. Die Hälfte der Anstalt ist eingeäschert. Die Kranken wurden sämmtlich von Artilleristen in Sicherheit gebracht.

Graz. Der Kaplan Marcus Bayer in Eibiswald ist zum Protestantismus übergetreten. Er wurde durch den hiesigen evangelischen Pfarrer Eckhard in die evangelische Kirchengemeinschaft aufgenommen.

Lemberg. Auf Anregung des galizischen Statthalters Grafen Pininski hat die Beamtenschaft von Lemberg beschlossen, einen groß angelegten Verein zur Bekämpfung des Börsen- und Hazardspiels, das in letzter Zeit in Galizien zahlreiche Katastrophen zur Folge hatte, sowie zur Verhinderung jedes übermäßigen Aufwandes, zu gründen.

Mostar. Der Kustos des bosnischen Landesmuseums Dr. Patsch hat bei Capljina in der Herzegowina ein vollständiges römisches Lager mit wohlerhaltenen Mauern, Thoren, Thürmen und Gängen auf einem Raume von 100 Metern Länge und 80 Metern Breite aufgedeckt.

Prag. Dieser Tage wurde in der St. Trinitatskirche der 84 Jahre alte Privatier und ehemalige Müllermeister Johann Neytek mit dem Fräulein Marie Laisl getraut. Die Braut steht im 45. Lebensjahre.

Boitsan. Müllermeister Karl Trondl wurde von seinem Bruder durch zwei Schüsse, die ihn in den Unterleib trafen, todt niedergestreckt. Ein Kind, welches Karl Trondl, als das schreckliche Attentat auf ihn verübt wurde, auf dem Arme hielt, blieb unverletzt.

Schweiz.

Bern. Der bei der Firma Kümmerli u. Frei in Bern beschäftigte 29jährige Lithograph Reichmann aus Wien unternahm mit einem anderen Lithographen die Besteigung des Stockhorns. Er stürzte beim Abstieg ab und blieb todt liegen. Reichmanns Eltern wohnen in Wien.—Von der Jungfraubahn wird demnächst ein neues Theilstück, und zwar jenes bis zur Eigerrothwand mit der ersten Tunnelstrecke dem Betrieb übergeben werden.—Der Betrieb der Wengernalpbahn ist auf der ganzen Linie eröffnet worden.

Luzern. Beim Legen eines neuen Steinbodens in der Luzerner Hofkirche stieß man auf ein bisher unbekanntes Grab, in dem ein noch sehr gut erhaltener Leichnam lag, angethan mit einer rothseidenen Soutane, schwarzsammetenen Kniehosen, mit Strümpfen und Schuhen. Das Haupt, woran Bart und Haar sich noch befanden, war mit einem Barett bedeckt und lag auf einem Federpolster. Auf der Brust der Leiche lag ein Bleiplättchen mit der Inschrift: „Der hochwürdigste Alphons Sacrati, Bischof von Como und apostolische Nuntius der Schweiz. Gestorben 5. Juli 1647." Wir fügen bei, daß eine Nuntiatur für die Schweiz vom Jahre 1579 bis 1874 in Luzern bestand.

Schwyz. Die neuerstellte Brücke über die Muota ist dem Verkehr übergeben worden.

Tessin. Der Bundesrath verlangt für die Sicherungsarbeiten am Sasso Rosso einen Kredit von 250,000 Francs. In der Botschaft führt er aus, das einzige Mittel, Airolo dauernd zu sichern, bestehe in der Anlage eines dichtgeschlossenen Schutzwaldes, der bis an den oberen Rand des Sasso Rosso, Sengio und Gorabilli reicht.

Wallis. Am 6. Juni ist heuer die erste Hochbesteigung von Zermatt aus glücklich ausgeführt worden; drei Engländer bestiegen mit den zwei Führern Adolf Schaller und Alois Biner das 4200 Meter hohe Rimpfruhhorn.

ESTATE OF Violetta R. Stine, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of GEORGE T. ## STRIKING A MATCH.

Man, Wicked Man; Will Do It Anywhere He Can.

"I may be wrong," said the little woman in the cross seat of the car, "but I fully believe that a man would strike a match on the tombstone of his mother," and her eyes snapped and her cheeks flushed at the idea of such a sacrilege.

Go where one will, into the most out of the way places or corner to ignite a match, telling streaks will be found as positive proof that a match striker has been there before. Raise the drapery about a mantel and peer underneath and there again will come in view the cabalistic brown tracks, the "blazed away," as it were, of the match striking guild.

On every side of lampposts, fireplugs and bulk window frames are to be found the trail of the successor of the tinder box and steel. Letter boxes, street corners, every pillar in the elevated structures, door jambs, washstands and dressing cases possess the hiero or pyro-glyphic.

Even church-edifices are not sacred when the hurry call is issued for a light. Even altar rails have been visited by the same torch. In fact, there is no place too sacred or too much out of the way not to have, at one time or the other, received the necessary friction required to secure a light.

Armed with a match, and a slight blaze being a necessity, the holder will make for the nearest spot to obtain the necessary friction. Upon the variety stage, even, the production of flame from the sulphur tipped sliver of wood is utilized by queerly made up mummers to win the laugh of the man who has paid to see. A made up bald head is an attractive spot, and furnished the desired place for coaxing the flame and bringing a laugh from the theater patrons. It always succeeds, and would have been a star performance coeval with Joe Miller's joke book had matches been in existence at that time.

As With One Voice They Spoke Up.

At a little gathering not long ago the guests played some simple games and told ghost stories, and managed to have a good time in the old-fashioned way.

Pretty soon one of the gentlemen said:

"I don't believe we appreciate what a steady old slow coach the human brain is. Notwithstanding all our talk about quick wits, and flashes of intelligence, the brain is not so easily thrown from its accustomed ruts. If, for instance, I ask a question which is entirely new to you, but which your honest old brain mistakes for a query quite similar in construction, it will go right ahead and telegraph the reply in its own hidebound way."

"That sounds interesting," said one of the guests, "but show us an example."

"I will," said the first speaker, "with the proviso that you answer it promptly." He smiled, and then, without any haste, quietly asked: "Who saved the life of Pocahontas?"

"John Smith!" roared twenty voices.

"You see," said the questioner.

Alcoholic Milk.

It has long been known that gingerbeer is a favorite drink of teetotalers, as being cooling and refreshing, but it is not so generally known that it contains an appreciable quantity of alcohol—about 2 per cent. It has now been discovered by a German chemist that milk containing alcohol can be got "straight from the cow." He was employed to examine some milk which had an irritating taste, and discovered that it contained alcohol to the amount of 0.96 per cent. The cause was not far to seek, for the herd belonged to a distillery, and were fed on the waste, which contained alcohol, which alcohol was excreted in the milk. It will, however, be a comfort to really enthusiastic teetotalers to know that the obnoxious addition was easily driven off by heat. Alcoholic preparations of milk, such as koumiss, have, of course, been known from time immemorial, but the fact of alcoholic milk straight from the cow is, at first sight, startling.

When Meat Should be Eaten.

Prof. H. W. Wiley of the chemistry division of the department of agriculture at Washington, has been experimenting on the preparation of meat for eating, and here are some of his conclusions: "Meats should never be eaten until they have ripened, like game, and this process is calculated to consume about three weeks." He says that a chicken should be hung out of a window, head down, until the head falls off, when it is ripe for eating, and that fish and eggs should be eaten the day they are taken, although fish, if frozen on the day caught will be good whenever taken from the ice. But the notion that fish is a brain food is all wrong. The phosphorus needed by the brain comes from eggs and vegetables.

A Curious Herbarium.

The oldest and most curious herbarium in the world is in the Egyptian museum at Cairo. It consists of crowns, garlands, wreaths and bouquets of flowers, all taken from the ancient tombs of Egypt, most of the examples being in excellent condition. Nearly all the flowers have been identified. They cannot be less than 3,000 years old.

Poison of Bees.

The poison of bees has heretofore been supposed to be formic acid. The German chemist Langer has found, however, by gathering the poison of 155,000 bees and subjecting it to analysis and experiments that, though formic acid is present, the poison principle is an alkaloid.

WHY SHE WAS CAUGHT.

Pursuer and Pursued Meet and the Colon's Capture Explained.

There was a dramatic little incident in Annapolis just before the captive Spanish officials sailed for their homes in Spain. Chief Engineer Milligan, late of the Oregon, was living in Annapolis. He had gone there to visit his family.

"I want to introduce you to Senor Bonet," said a fellow officer, as they approached a dark-visaged Spaniard, who was lolling comfortably across the gate separating his quarters from the road.

Then the Chief Engineer of the Oregon clasped hands over the wooden gate with the chief engineer of the Cristobal Colon. Pursuer and pursued were face to face. The man whose energies had made our great battleship leap after her prey like a hound after a rabbit was soon chatting amiably with the officer who had driven his engines in the vain race to escape after every other ship of the squadron had been lost.

"How did it happen that we overhauled you so easily?" asked the American engineer. "The Oregon is a sixteen-knot ship at best, while yours was commonly credited with a speed of twenty-two knots."

"Alas," said the Spaniard, "she never made that speed, even at her trial trip. She was rated at 20.2 knots at her best. It is an error to suppose that she ever made twenty-two knots."

"But, even so," said Mr. Milligan, you should have escaped us. You were driving her hard."

"Yes," for the first hour we did

"IT WAS NOT COAL, IT WAS DIRT."

well," Bonet replied; "but after that, bad, bad. I'll tell you, Senor, we had just enough good coal in our bunkers to last us for one hour under forced draught. That was the last of the coal we brought with us from Spain. After that we had to use the poor, miserable stuff we took aboard at Santiago. Ah, maledicto! It was not coal; it was dirt. We might as well have put this on our fires," and the disgusted Spaniard kicked contemptuously at the yellow dust in the road. "You did not gain on us during that first hour, Senor. "After that, pouf! we were all but standing still!"

Chief Engineer Bonet thinks America has a white elephant on its hands in the capture of Cuba and Porto Rico. In parting with Chief Engineer Milligan the Spanird said most solemnly, "I congratulate the American Navy, Senor, but I cannot congratulate the American nation."

Mistaken for a "Cubano."

One of the unsung heroes of the war, says Robert D. Cramer, in the Atlanta "Constitution," was Mr. A. W. Lyman, of New York, who was in charge of the Associated Press headquarters at Siboney, and stuck at his post until he was sent home to die. He had a remarkable adventure while on duty, which is well worth telling. One day a convalescent soldier stole his hat, and he bought another from an insurgent. It was a typical piece of native Cuban headgear, with a brim a yard wide. That night as Lyman was returning to his tent a guard on the picket line espied him.

"Hey, there, Cubano!" shouted the guard, "you're inside the lines. Go back!" He saw the hat, but it was too dark to make out the features of the wearer.

Lyman walked calmly on, oblivious to the hail.

"Go back, there, Cubano," yelled the guard, lifting his gun, "or I'll shoot."

Still ignorant of his danger and with no thought that the angry call was meant for him, Lyman proceeded on his way. Then the Krag Jorgensen went off and so did the big hat.

"Whoa-op!" exclaimed Lyman, coming to a dead halt. "Who did that?"

"I did," replied the guard, who came rushing up, "I saw that hat, and I yelled to you to stop. Ain't you an insurgent?"

"No," said Lyman, picking up the hat with a hole through the crown, "I ain't. I'm a newspaper man. Who the devil are you?"

"I'm a guard from the First Cavalry.

"Voluteer?"

"Yes."

"I'm glad of that"—looking carefully at the hole. "If you'd been a regular you'd probably have got me. Goodnight."

And with as little concern as though he had been stopped by a friend on the street, Lyman passed on to his tent.

Bullets Fired at San Juan.

"Have you any idea of the hailstorm of bullets we went through on San Juan hill?" said one of the officers of the Sixth who had been in the battle. This started a discussion, and Capt. Kennon figured out approximately how many bullets were fired at the Sixth on that eventful day.

Gathered up on the top of the hill were 1,500 Spaniards, and with their Mausers they could fire 10 shots per minute with the greatest ease, and this makes 15,000 bullets which were rained on the Sixth every minute.

The battle lasted for an hour and a half, which is 90 minutes, and there were 90 times 15,000 bullets fired, for the firing was steady and did not slack up at any time. This makes 1,350,000 bullets which were fired at the Sixth during the engagement, and with these figures before one it is easy to understand why only some 80 of the brave boys who marched away returned.

The estimate of the number of bullets fired given above is conservative, as the Mausers can easily fire 20 shots per minute, and it is probable that nearly 2,000,000 bullets were in the storm of lead which the Sixth weathered.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

FOUNDED BY CHRIST.

THE ORIGIN OF OUR HOLY CHURCH AND THE PAPACY.

The Continuation of the Primacy and the Infallibility of the Pontiff—The Nature and Scope of the Pope's Spiritual Power.

Rev. Father John Murphy, president of the Holy Ghost college, recently lectured on "The Origin of the Papacy." Taking Matthew xvi, 17-19, as his text, he said:

"The student of religion finds existing for well night 2,000 years a religious system claiming to be divine in its origin, vast in its proportions, wonderful in its unity, the fruitful mother of saints, of great men and heroic women, the enemy of wrongdoing, the shield and guardian of virtue, the object of the dire and repeated attacks of the mighty and wicked, the object of love and attachment of the noblest and best of mankind, ever hated and persecuted by the world, ever strong and triumphant with the might of God. He finds in the religious system one central figure who is its head, the visible source of its unity, the supreme teacher of doctrines, the supreme preserver of discipline, the supreme dispenser of the law, a guardian of the church's right, the director of her movements, the father of all her children, the chief sufferer in all her sorrows, the chief victor in all her triumphs. This central figure is the pope, and the student of history finds throughout the course of ages one sovereignty unbroken in its succession, resting not on armies and fortifications, but on the good will and unanimous judgment of men.

"It is a sovereignty exercising its power to restrain licentiousness and tyranny—a sovereignty that never seeks its own aggrandizement while acting as the arbiter of nations, a sovereignty that stands out in relief as the chief molder and framer of modern civilizations. The holder and representative of this sovereignty, venerable by its antiquity, admirable by the great works it has achieved, the student of history recognizes as the Roman pontiff. Those that believe in revelation—that is, practically, all who believe in the existence of God—cannot but perceive that the Redeemer founded a visible body, a church, as a means to apply and to perpetuate his work. Christ might have put himself directly in contact with every man to accomplish this, but in reality we find that he founded a church for that purpose. 'I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.'

"Moreover, Christ owed the institution of such a body to himself and to us. He owed it to himself to manifest his power and glory. The shame and sorrow of Calvary could not last forever. Consequently he was bound by justice to himself to leave some memorial of his work, some witness of his triumph over sin and darkness, some perpetuator of his redemption. He owed to us that such a channel should take the form of a visible society, for since sociableness is one of the most marked features of our nature God, who never destroys our nature, was bound to offer us the merits of redemption in some visible shape—in other words, through a society.

"We find that he founded such a society by gathering disciples around him. We find him praying for this society, delivering himself to death for it, and after his ascension we find him sending the Paraclete to abide with it forever. God must have endowed such a society with the ordinary characteristics of any well constituted society. Order, the source of unity and government, comes foremost among these. Without it no society could exist. For good government there must be some central authority, some head who possesses sufficient power to promote the ends of the society. We again find Christ doing this in the words addressed to St. Peter in the text. We find him fulfilling it on the shore of Lake Tiberias when he said to Peter: 'Feed my lambs; feed my sheep.' After Christ's ascension we accordingly find Peter taking first place in everything. The church—that is, his brethren—gives him nothing. He does not derive his jurisdiction from it, but from the eternal head of the church. Such was the origin of the primacy of Peter.

"The primacy did not end with St. Peter. The church and its head were destined to last forever. The primacy of St. Peter and his successors is attested by all the early Christian writers.

"The New Testament tells us how it was acknowledged by the other apostles. Numerous quotations can be adduced from all the earliest fathers to show that they looked on the primacy of St. Peter and his successors as the central dogma of Christian doctrine. St. Clement, St. Cyprian, St. Irenaeus, St. Athanasius, Tertullian and others are all unanimous in declaring that the church was founded on Peter and that the see of Rome alone enjoys lawful succession from him.

"The early councils in the church concur in establishing the same doctrine, and throughout all the early ages of Christianity we find the doctrine of the pope's spiritual supremacy upheld by all. Naturally, this doctrine met with opposition in later times. The despotism of kings and the corruption of morals led the orientals to fall away and originated what is known in the west as Galacianism. This doctrine, which denied the papal infallibility, never met any universal support, and now, thank God, it is a thing of the past. The blast of rebellion and corruption that swept over Europe in the sixteenth century snapped the connection between the see of Peter and many nations. But the only effect of these disturbances has been to put the papal supremacy in relief and to lead the church to define its extent and safeguard its prerogatives.

"The Vatican council, in defining the nature and scope of the Roman pontiff's spiritual power, has declared him to possess the plenitude of supreme power in matters appertaining to faith and morals, as also in those appertaining to the discipline and government of the church. This accords to him supreme doctrinal, legislative and judiciary power, and, as a necessary consequence of all this, he possesses infallibility. Otherwise, how can we explain the words of Christ to St. Peter, 'Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it,' and again, when he says, 'Simon, Simon, behold satan hath desired to have thee that he may sift thee as wheat, but I have prayed for thee that my faith fail not, and thou being converted confirm thy brethren.' To contest the infallibility in the presence of these texts would be to doubt of God's veracity or of the efficacy of his prayers, or the transmission of Peter's prerogatives to his successors.

"Without this infallibility there would be no unity in the church, and it would cease to exist. The repugnance which non-Catholics have to infallibility is largely founded on misconception. They confound infallibility with impeccability. The exact definition of the scope and meaning of infallibility is that the pope is supreme director, supreme legislator and supreme judge in the church—that is, he is infallible when he defines for the whole church a doctrine concerning faith and morals; when he promulgates for the government of the church doctrines that are not against faith or morals and when he pronounces as judge in general matters concerning faith and morals and salvation. Papal infallibility thus understood is founded on both reason and revelation, and the history of the church is there to prove that God has never permitted a pope to misguide or misgovern the church in the smallest particular."

INSPIRED BY GOD.

The Divinity of the Scriptures and Their Exalted Doctrines.

Rev. P. J. MacCorry, O. S. P., of San Francisco recently lectured in that city on "The Armor of God." The thread of Father MacCorry's discourse was as follows:

"The ordinary literature of the world is of passing interest and short lived, for the books of one generation are of little value to the generations that follow, except as they form records of value to the historian or serve as curios to the antiquarian. This book alone has held the attention and love and reverence of the world throughout the centuries. The holy Scriptures have in them the vital principle which makes them as dear to the hearts of the men and women of today as to past generations.

"The Scriptures are authentic. They can be traced back by means of contemporary historical records to their several authors. There is not a single link missing in the evidence that proves their inspired origin. Their style is further proof of their divine origin. They are written not in merely human language, but in metaphors and figures and a loftiness of sentiment that proves them to be the work of God. Their divinity is proved by their exalted doctrines. There is nowhere in literature elsewhere a single idea of human origin that can parallel the doctrine of the atonement.

"That they are divine is proved by their effect in purging the minds of men, clogged with paganism and sin. They have brought light to humanity, stricken the shackles from suffering selfdom and hushed the discords of society. They do not degrade womanhood, but uplift it as no other written work has ever done. Let all who are desirous of bettering the world and advancing its progress lend themselves, heart and soul, to the work of spreading their knowledge until every human soul is illumined and every shackle snapped from suffering humanity."

Misunderstanding.

Misunderstandings lie at the root of many family discords. How often a father dies, who loved his son and was loved in return, convinced of that son's ingratitude and without knowing that the son on his part had been cut to the heart by the father's seeming indifference? And mothers with their daughters and sisters and brothers among themselves? A sort of recoil, an impossibility of showing one's true self, a sad reserve toward those who are truly dearest, are the common lot of all creatures tender and timid. A cruel lot, a cruel result of affection. How much harm one does that would never be done if souls could be seen as clearly as we see the outward form.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mgr. Lorenzelli, nuncio at Munich, has been chosen to take the place of the deceased Paris nuncio.

The holy father is gaining strength. His appetite is said to be good and his mental faculties keen and alert.

The cause of beatification of Father Michael Garicoitz, founder of the Priests of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, has been introduced at Rome.

Archbishop Williams of Boston recently celebrated the thirty-third anniversary of his consecration as bishop. His grace is in excellent health notwithstanding his 77 years.

The Rev. Frederick W. Eis, who has been nominated Roman Catholic bishop of Marquette, Mich., is at present pastor of the Church of the Guardian Angels, Crystal Falls, Iron county, Mich., and dean in Gogebic, Iron and Ontonagon counties, having charge of the priests and churches in those counties.

WOMEN WHO MAKE LAWS.

Personal Sketches Of the Three Women Members Of Colorado's Legislature.

BY ELNORA M. BABCOCK.

Three women are members of the Colorado legislature. Their official actions have demonstrated that women can fill offices of trust and responsibility with credit to themselves and benefit to the people they represent.

Dr. Mary T. Barry, who has served the past year as member of the house from Peublo county, is conscientious in everything she undertakes and not easily dissuaded from what she considers right. This conscientious devotion to duty and right, in connection with her logical mind and good judgment, makes her a most valuable member of the legislature.

In 1887 she graduated in medicine from the Northwestern university of

DR. MARY F. T. BARRY.

Chicago. After one year in the preparatory school she attended in the hospital for one year as house physician, after which she practiced medicine for two years in Lacrosse. Since 1894 she has been in active practice in Peublo, where she served as county physician during the years 1896-7. She is a member of the medical society there and is also examiner for the Penn Mutual Insurance company and considers the absence occasioned by her attendance in the legislature as a sacrifice of no small moment.

Dr. Barry is not specially interested in politics, but rather regards her present position as a sacred trust, which she will as sacredly care for and guard. She did not seek the office. It was only through the earnest entreaties of her friends that she consented to let her name stand.

Her life is a very active one, and, while she has always approved of club work and various organized movements in which Colorado women are engaged, her time has always been too occupied to permit her to enter into it.

MOTHER OF THREE VOTERS.

Mrs. Harriet G. R. Wright, one of the two women representatives to the twelfth general assembly from Arapahoe county, located in Colorado 27 years ago and has lived in Denver 17 years. Her family consists of a husband and three grown sons. Mrs. Wright is a recognized social and political leader and enjoys the confidence and friendship of very many people. Her husband, Henry Wright, was one of the pioneers of the state, having gone to Colorado 38 years ago.

Mrs. Wright is a descendant on both sides from early colonial settlers of America. Two ancestors in her mother's family, John and Jacob Reeve, came over in the Mayflower. Her father was a pioneer in Wisconsin, as she has been in Colorado. He was a Presbyterian clergyman, was an abolitionist, and also one of the earliest advocates for advanced education for girls. He was one of the founders and directors of Beloit college, the first college for men in Wisconsin, and he also founded and was one of the first directors of the Rockford Female college at Rockford, Ills. Later he founded the Wisconsin Female college, the first college for women in Wisconsin, and was its president for many years.

Mrs. Wright's interests, therefore, were all along educational lines in her girlhood, and she has never changed in that respect. After her graduation from Rockford college she taught in that city and afterward among the freedmen of the south. Later she taught in Columbus, Wis., and while there joined her first club, of which Rev. Myron Reed was president. Mr. Reed preached for several years in a church in Columbus which was founded by her father.

Mrs. Wright has one sister who is superintendent of the schools in Drummond county, Wis., and another who is superintendent of the schools in Portland City, Wis.

SHE IS A REFORMER.

Mrs. Wright has a keen, logical mind, which grasps a point with marvelous quickness; a thorough knowledge of parliamentary law and a wide sympathy for and experience in reform movements. She has done much to spread those theories of public ownership of public utilities which are now held by a large portion of the people of Colorado.

Few women understand questions of public policy so well as Mrs. Wright. She is cultivated, able and fearless, and the women voters are fortunate in finding some one who will so ably represent them. Her special interests have been in the line of educational and labor legislation. She believes that there should be a child labor law.

In social and club work she holds several important offices. She is described by those who know her as one of the most level headed and courageous women in the state. She is not so engrossed in public work as to have no thought for those things considered peculiarly feminine. She loves housekeeping, fancy work, babies and children, is always delighted to get a new recipe for a dainty dessert, takes great pleasure in a new hat or gown and is always well dressed.

Mrs. Frances F. Lee, the other woman representative from Arapahoe county, is the wife of Frank W. Lee of 1315 South Eighth street, Denver. Mrs. Lee is the mother of five children, of ages ranging from 3 to 11, and has always had them in personal charge, and even now, while in attendance at the statehouse, helping to frame laws to improve the present labor and municipal conditions, is never too preoccupied to look after the interests of her family. She is popular in her precinct, socially and politically, and when elected received two-thirds of all the votes cast. She has always felt the
